HUSKERS VISIT PENN STATE TO OPEN BIG TEN SLATE

The preseason No. 11 Nebraska women's gymnastics team travels to University Park, Pa., this Saturday to take on preseason No. 17 Penn State at 3 p.m. CT at Rec Hall. The meet will be the first Big Ten meet for both teams.

The Huskers (2-0, 0-0) began their season with a victory in a triangular meet at Arizona State, defeating the Sun Devils and Bowling Green with a score of 194.050 last Friday. Jennie Laeng, this week's Big Ten Co-Gymnast of the Week, earned her first-career all-around victory for the Huskers, scoring a career-high 39.350. Laeng was a champion or co-champion on each event, earning her fourth individual title on uneven bars (9.85), along with her first event titles on vault (9.825), balance beam (9.825) and floor exercise (9.85). Her Gymnast of the Week honor is the first of her career, as well as Nebraska's first of the season.

Sophomore Grace Williams came in second in the all-around at Arizona State, finishing with a score of 39.025. She picked up the first bars title of her career with a 9.80 routine. Freshman Megan Schwehofer also picked up an individual event title for the Huskers in the first meet of her collegiate career, hitting a 9.825 on the balance beam.

Nebraska Coach Dan Kendig was happy with the team's performances last Friday, but understands there is room for improvement.

"We're excited to get the win and come away healthy," Kendig said. "I know we can do better and they know they can do better, but we're excited to get back in the gym and take the next step."

Saturday's matchup will be the 42nd all-time meeting between the two schools, with Nebraska holding a 32-9 edge. The Huskers defeated Penn State in both the regular season and at the Big Ten Championships in 2015. NU set a program record with its team vault score of 49.75, led by Ashley Lambert's perfect 10.00, helping the Huskers to a 197.125-196.025 victory on Jan. 17, 2015. The Huskers also edged Penn State, 196.875-196.725, at the 2015 Big Ten Championships.

The Nittany Lions fell to No. 27 North Carolina State in a season-opening dual on Saturday, 194.700-194.125. Briannah Tsang (vault - 9.825), Kiera Brown (bars - 9.95) and Jessica Jones (floor - 9.85) picked up individual event titles for PSU. Penn State was picked to finish fourth in the Big Ten in the preseason coaches poll. The Nittany Lions squad consists of 10 underclassmen, while just five gymnasts return from last year's team.

The Huskers will begin the meet on uneven bars before rotating to vault, floor exercise and balance beam. Live scoring will be available for the meet at gopsusports.com.

MEDIA INFORMATIONMedia Services

Meet notes and media guides will be provided before each meet. Final results will be available following each meet in the press room. A communications representative will be in the working media room on the south side of the Devaney Center until all writers have filed.

Media Parking

Parking for the media is located next to and across the street from the Bob Devaney Sports Center in a portion of Lot 52. Enter on 14th Street and follow west side of Devaney Center.

Post-Meet Interviews

Nebraska gymnasts and coaches are generally available on the gym floor immediately following the presentation of team and individual event awards.

Interviews

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska gymnasts should be directed to Desire' Stephens or James Hajek at least one day in advance. Gymnasts are usually available for telephone interviews early afternoons and evenings. The best time for in-season interviews is after practice at the Mabel Lee Hall practice gym. With advance notice, interviews can be arranged for other hours. Interviews with Coach Kendig should be coordinated through Desire' Stephens or James Hajek in the Communications Office at (402) 472-0694. Coach Kendig's office telephone number is (402) 472-3808.

Press Row Location

Press row for most Nebraska gymnastics meets is located on the south sideline of the gym floor.

Press Room

The Devaney Center press room is located off the hallway at the southeast corner of the arena. The press room opens one hour before each meet.

NOTES TO KNOW

Scouting Penn State

Penn State fell in its season-opening dual meet against NC State, 194.700-194.125. The Nittany Lions were led by Briannah Tsang, Kiera Brown and Jessica Jones, who each picked up an individual event title. Tsang won the vault with a score of 9.825, Brown won bars with a 9.95 and Jones won floor with a 9.85 routine. Penn State was ranked 17th in the NACGC/W Preseason Coaches Poll and was picked to finish fourth in the Big Ten. The Nittany Lions return just five gymnasts from a team that went 14-3 last season and finished fourth at the Big Ten Championships with a team score of 196.725. The Nittany Lions have 10 gymnasts on their roster who are underclassmen. Penn State does not have a senior on its roster, but sophomore Tsang was named the 2015 Big Ten Freshman of the Year and Brown, a transfer from Georgia, was an All-SEC performer with the Bulldogs in 2014. Tsang, a sophomore, and Brown, a junior were named to the 2016 Big Ten Women's Gymnasts to Watch List. PSU is led by sixth-year head coach Jeff Thompson, a 1985 graduate of Kentucky.

Huskers 31st After First Week

2016 Road to Nationals rankings will be determined by season average until February 21st. On February 22nd, the rankings will transition to RQS (regional qualifying score). Nebraska's season-opening 194.050 is good for 31st in the country in the initial poll. The score is seventh-highest in the Big Ten, and sixth-highest in the South Central region. Michigan is tied with LSU for the top spot in the nation, with a 196.975 average. Florida (196.825), preseason No. 1 Oklahoma (196.725) and UCLA (196.550) round out the top five. Penn State is ranked 29th with a score of 194.125.

Laeng Named Big Ten Co-Gymnast of the Week

Nebraska junior Jennie Laeng was named Big Ten Co-Gymnast of the Week for the week of Jan. 11 after winning the all-around title at Nebraska's season-opening triangular meet victory at Arizona State. She registered her first career all-around victory last week with a score of 39.350, a career-high. She was a champion or co-champion in each event, winning the fourth uneven bars title of her career (9.850) as well as her first career vault (9.825), balance beam (9.825) and floor exercise (9.825) titles. She shared the honor with Michigan junior Nicole Artz, who won the all-around with a score of 39.450 against Georgia. Artz also won Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honors last week (Jan. 4). This is the first weekly honor of the season for Nebraska and the first weekly honor of Laeng's career.

NOTES TO KNOW

Schwehofer's Impressive Debut

Freshman Megan Schwehofer contributed in a big way towards securing victories last week against Arizona State and Bowling Green. In her first collegiate meet, the three-event specialist picked up an event title as well as a pair of top ten finishes. She tied for first place with teammates Jennie Laeng and Grace Williams on the balance beam, finishing with a score of 9.825. She finished tied for fifth on vault with a 9.725, the second highest Nebraska score on the apparatus behind Laeng's 9.825. She also finished tied for sixth on floor exercise with a 9.775.

Williams Shines in Season Opener

Sophomore Grace Williams picked up right where she left off to begin 2016 after a strong freshman campaign in 2015. Williams finished second in the all-around with a score of 39.025, just behind teammate Jennie Laeng's 39.350. Laeng and Williams were the only two competitors in the meet to finish with scores above 39.000. Williams also picked up the fifth individual event title of her career with a 9.85 on the uneven bars. The title was the first bars title of her career.

All-Americans Return in 2016

Senior Hollie Blanske and junior Ashley Lambert were named All-Americans in 2015. Blanske was named to the first-team on floor exercise, while earning second team honors in the all-around. Lambert earned second-team honors in the floor exercise. Blanske also earned second-team NACGC/W All-America honors in the all-around. In addition, Blanske was named a first-team All-American in 2014 on the balance beam.

Nebraska Picked Second in Big Ten Preseason Poll

The Huskers were picked to finish second by the Big Ten coaches in the conference's preseason poll. Hollie Blanske and Ashley Lambert were named to the 20-member preseason Big Ten Gymnasts to Watch List. Blanske is a three-time All-American and a two-time All-Big Ten performer, while Lambert was a second-team All-American and a second-team All-Big Ten performer in 2015.

2016 Television Schedule Announced

The Nebraska women's gymnastics team will make at least four television appearances in 2016. The Huskers are officially set to make three national TV appearances and one local TV appearance. Nebraska will appear on the Big Ten Network at the B1G Five Meet in Columbus, Ohio (March 12), and at the Big Ten Championships at the Devaney Center in Lincoln, Neb. (March 19) The Feb. 12 home dual against Minnesota is included in this year's Tumble 'n Rumble, as the Husker wrestling team will take on Northwestern simultaneously at the Devaney Center. The event is a part of BTN's 2016 wrestling coverage. Nebraska's home dual against Michigan on Jan. 29 will be carried locally on NET Television on a one-hour delay starting at 7 p.m. (the meet starts at 6 p.m.) The dual against Michigan will also be shown on delay on BTN, Monday, Feb. 1 at 8 p.m.

REVIEWING 2015

Nebraska went 28-9 in 2015, finishing eighth in the team competition at the NCAA Championships in Fort Worth, Texas. Three Huskers combined for four All-America Awards at the national meet, as NU made its 23rd overall appearance at the championships. The Huskers combined for 43 individual titles and numerous conference and national awards on the season, helping NU remain one of the nation's top programs.

Senior Jessie DeZiel capped her career as one of Nebraska's most decorated gymnasts, grabbing two All-America awards to give her nine total for her career. She was named Nebraska's Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

Hollie Blanske and Ashley Lambert also captured All-America honors for the Huskers. DeZiel, Blanske, Lambert and Desire' Stephens each captured All-Big Ten honors, while Jennie Laeng was the Big Ten co-champion on uneven bars. Nebraska continued its strong work in the classroom, as nine Huskers were named academic All-Big Ten and six were named NACGC/W Scholastic All-Americans.

Nebraska 197.125, Penn State 196.025

Powered by a program-record 49.75 on vault and Nebraska's first perfect 10.00 on vault since 2011, the No. 8-ranked women's gymnastics team exploded for a 197.125 to defeat Penn State. The Nittany Lions picked up a 196.025 against the Huskers in front of a crowd of 1,212 at the Bob Devaney Sports Center that evening. The team's vault score was the highest in the country at that point in the season. The Huskers put together an impressive team showing as they collected four event titles and the all-around competition.

The Big Red were led by a trio of powerful performances across the board. Ashley Lambert paved the way on vault with a perfect 10.00, only the second in the nation at that point in the season. The sophomore also tied for the bars title with a career-high 9.85. Hollie Blanske also tied for the bars title with Lambert and Penn State's Briannah Tsang and Sidney Sanabria-Robles. Blanske produced a notable all-around performance as she added the floor title en-route to the all-around crown (39.50). Freshman Grace Williams delivered another stellar beam performance hitting a 9.925 score to take the title.

The Huskers came out firing on vault in their first rotation, earning a school record score of 49.75. NU was sparked by freshman Kamerin Moore who notched a 9.90 score and put in motion a magical lineup. Desire' Stephens followed Moore sticking a career-high 9.95, while Blanske soared to a 9.925. Lambert went fifth in the rotation and tallied her perfect 10 to put the fans on their feet. Jessie DeZiel anchored the lineup hitting a 9.975 to tie her career-high score and round out the historical lineup.

Penn State posted a 49.025 on bars in their first event of the evening. The Nittany Lions were led by Tsang and Sanabria-Robles who tied for the event title. With one rotation in the books, the Huskers held an impressive 49.75 – 49.025 lead over Penn State.

Nebraska moved to bars in the second rotation recording a 48.875 team score. Blanske and Lambert both stuck identical 9.85 scores to take the event title. Both freshman earned new career high marks on the event as Moore notched a 9.825 score and Danielle Breen added on a 9.75.

The Nittany Lions earned a 49.275 vault in their second rotation. Penn State was led by Sidney Sanabria-Robles, who captured a team-high 9.90. Nebraska extended its lead over Penn State after two events, coming in at 98.625 - 98.30.

NU bounced back in their third rotation on beam, earning a solid team score of 49.25. Nebraska was led by two career-high marks from two freshmen; 9.925 from Williams and 9.85 from Breen. DeZiel tacked on a 9.85, while Jennifer Lauer sealed the effort on the event earning a 9.825.

PSU picked up a 48.75 on floor in the third rotation of the evening. The Nittany Lions were paced by Emma Sibson, who earned a 9.90 on the event. With only one event remaining, Nebraska led Penn State 147.875 – 147.050.

The Huskers sealed their victory on floor in the final rotation, earning a season-high 49.25 as a team. The Big Red was fueled by Blanske's 9.925 routine. Moore and Stephens both tacked on 9.85 scores, while DeZiel put up a 9.825.

Penn State tallied a 48.975 team beam score led by Briannah Tsang's 9.90 performance. The Nittany Lions' squad finished with a 196.025 on the evening but it would not be enough to overcome Nebraska's 197.125.

Nebraska's 1-2-3 punch of Blanske, DeZiel and Lambert went head-to-head in the all-around competition. Blanske took her first crown with a 39.500 score, while Lambert took third place (39.375) and DeZiel fifth (39.25). Penn State was led by Sidney Sanabria-Robles in the all-around competition who earned second place with a score of 39.425.

LOOKING AHEAD

The Huskers will compete in their home opener on Saturday, Jan. 23, continuing Big Ten competition against Rutgers for the Double Dual. The meet is scheduled to begin at 6 p.m. CT. The Nebraska men's gymnastics team will compete simultaneously at the Devaney Center against Air Force. Rutgers is currently 0-2 on the season after finishing third at the Little Boston Invitational with George Washington and New Hampshire. The Scarlet Knights return 13 gymnasts from last year's squad which finished 12-17. Rutgers was picked to finish 10th in the preseason Big Ten Coaches poll. The Scarlet Knights are led by junior April Baker and sophomore Libby Groden, both of whom were named to the preseason big Ten Gymnasts to Watch List. Baker finished tied for second in vault with a 9.90 at the Little Boston Invitational. Rutgers competes at home against Illinois Saturday at 12 p.m. Promotional activities for next Saturday's meet include Pepsi Pack the House, where fans can get $1 admission as well as $1 Pepsi products.

NEBRASKA HEAD COACH DAN KENDIG (23rd Year at NU/33rd Year Overall)

When Nebraska Head Coach Dan Kendig was hired in 1993, his goals were to return the Nebraska gymnastics program to national prominence and to have Nebraska in a position to win a national title, while also maintaining the highest standards of academic excellence for Husker student-athletes.

Kendig has not only accomplished those goals, but made them a standard for excellence in his 23-year tenure, as Nebraska is considered among the nation's elite in both the gym and the classroom.

In the 22 seasons of the existence of the NCAA Super Six Finals, Nebraska is one of only six programs, along with Georgia, Alabama, UCLA, Utah and Michigan, to qualify for nine or more team finals, and the Huskers have earned NCAA Championship berths in 15 of the past 18 years. Under Kendig, 40 NU gymnasts have combined to earn 139 All-America honors since 1995, nearly 10 times NU's previous total during the program's first 18 seasons.

At the conference level, the results are equally as impressive. Nebraska has won 13 of the past 19 conference titles, including an unprecedented six straight Big Eight/Big 12 crowns from 1994 to 1999. In addition, Nebraska has had at least one individual conference champion in each of the past 19 seasons and 10 all-around champions, while seven gymnasts have been conference newcomers of the year.

Since Kendig arrived at NU, his teams have compiled an outstanding 514-195-4 (.722) record, including a 335-75-2 regular-season record and a 179-120-2 postseason mark. He has also earned national, regional or conference coach-of-the-year honors in 10 of the past 19 seasons.

Eleven of Nebraska's nation-best 15 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards in women's gymnastics have come under Kendig, while he has also produced two NCAA Woman of the Year finalists -- Shelly Bartlett in 1997 and Richelle Simpson in 2005. In addition, Kendig coached Joy Taylor when she became the 1996 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, as well as Simpson, who was recognized with a 2005 NCAA Top Eight Award. Kendig has guided numerous other academic all-conference and NACGC/W Scholastic All-America honorees in his time at Nebraska.

For his accomplishments with the Husker gymnastics program, Kendig was honored by his peers as the NCAA Coach of the Year in 1999 and 2003.
