ON THE PITCH

The No. 7 Penn State women's soccer team (10-1-0, 5-0 Big Ten) brings its perfect Big Ten record to the Midwest this weekend with matches at Minnesota (6-5, 3-2 Big Ten) and No. 13 Wisconsin (10-1, 4-1 Big Ten). The Nittany Lions play the Golden Gophers on Fri., Oct. 3 at 8 p.m. (ET) and the Badgers on Sun., Oct. 5 at 1 p.m. (ET).

RISING IN THE RANKS

After extending its win streak to seven games and maintaining a perfect record in the Big Ten, the Blue and White moved up at least a spot in every weekly national poll. The team is ranked seventh in the NSCAA, NCAA RPI, Top Drawer Soccer and Soccer America lists, and fourth in the Bennett Rank.

FANTASTIC FRANNIE

Freshman Frannie Crouse (Greensburg, Pa.) has made her mark in the Penn State record books with a fantastic start to her collegiate career. Crouse is the

GAMEDAY CENTRAL

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN GOPHERS

Minnesota (6-5, 3-2 Big Ten) is coming off of a thrilling double overtime win at Indiana after a 1-0 shutout at Purdue. The Golden Gophers are helped by a strong defensive corps, led by reigning Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week Ashley Paiko and goalkeeper Tarah Hobbs. Hobbs has five shutouts, the second most among Big Ten keepers. Simone Kolander leads the team offensively, posting 16 points with 33 shots.

SERIES HISTORY vs. MINNESOTA

Penn State leads the all-time series, 20-4-0. Last season, the Nittany Lions suffered their first Big Ten loss of the season, shut out by the Golden Gophers, 1-0.

SCOUTING THE BADGERS

No. 13 Wisconsin (10-1, 4-1 Big Ten) has outscored opponents 26-4 this season, posting eight clean sheets, due in large part to Genevieve Richard. The goalkeeper leads the Big Ten in shutouts (6), goals against average (0.39), and save percentage (.889). Kinley McNicoll and Cara Walls have each scored seven goals to lead the team and rank second in the conference.

SERIES HISTORY vs. WISCONSIN

Penn State holds an 18-3-4 all-time record against the Badgers. In 2013, the No. 7 Nittany Lions edged No. 18 Wisconsin, 2-1, for their ninth straight win.

first freshman in program history to win back-to-back Big Ten Freshman of the Week titles after scoring five goals against Bucknell, Northwestern and Illinois this past week. She netted a pair against Ohio State to garner her first Freshman of the Week title. Crouse's offensive prowess has proven to be historic. She is the only freshman since 2003 to score seven-or-more goals in the opening 11 games of her collegiate career.

WILLIFORD ISN'T WILLY NILLY

Sophomore Salina Williford (Wayne, Pa.) has emerged as an integral part of Penn State's attack. After playing in the back last season, Williford has started every 2014 match in the midfield and has almost tripled her shot total from her freshman year (24 in 2014, 9 in 2013). Additionally, she scored the first three goals of her career in a four-game span (against Ohio State, Northwestern and Illinois), including the 2-1 game-winner against Illinois.

LIONS' OFFENSIVE OUTBURST BLAST BISON

In a Tuesday night 7-0 win over Bucknell, Penn State scored the most goals since 2005 when the Nittany Lions shut out Iowa, 8-0, on Oct. 9. It was the first time in 12 years that the Blue and White netted seven goals (7-2 win over Pitt on Sept. 1, 2002), and just the eighth time in program history the Lions put up seven-or-more goals.

HEAD START ON RECORD BOOKS

Penn State's 10-1 start is even more impressive when flipping through the program record book. This year's team has begun the season with the best record since 2005, when the Blue and White achieved the program's only undefeated season to date (23-0-2), eventually falling in the Women's College Cup to Portland on penalty kicks (4-3).

SPREADING THE WEALTH

Penn State has threatened opponents up and down the lineup during the 2014 campaign. The team's 34 goals, (3.09 per game, a Big Ten best) have come from 11 different players and 10 Nittany Lions have at least one assist. Frannie Crouse (Greenburg, Pa.) leads the team with seven goals and Mallory Weber (Novi, Mich.) and Raquel Rodriguez (San Jose, Costa Rica) have each netted five.

SHUTTING OUT THE COMPETITION

The 2014 Nittany Lions have proven to be one of the best defensive teams in recent history with its four shutouts. They became the first team in program history to shut out opponents in a two-game Big Ten opening weekend. The 2014 team is also the first squad since 2008 to open Big Ten play with consecutive shutouts after its 1-0 and 3-0 wins over Purdue and Indiana.

FRESHMEN SITTING AT THE TOP OF THE CLASS

The Nittany Lions' freshmen have proven to be major contributors during the 2014 campaign. Emily Ogle (Strongsville, Ohio), Frannie Crouse (Greensburg, Pa.), Elizabeth Ball (Richmond, Va.) and Maddie Elliston (Omaha, Neb.) have started every game, while Haleigh Echard (Lebanon, Pa.) and Katy Keen (Zionsville, Ind.) have played as reserves nearly every match. Megan Schafer (Langhorne, Pa.), started one match and has come off of the bench in every other game. For their efforts, Crouse is a two-time Big Ten Freshman of the Week while Schafer also garnered the award and Ogle was a TopDrawerSoccer.com Women's Team of the Week honoree.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

The Nittany Lions take home field advantage to the next level. The team is 197-22-9 all-time at Jeffrey Field, losing just two matches in the past three seasons and shutting out visitors in 18 of 37 matches.

ROCKING THE BOAT

Raquel Rodriguez (San Jose, Costa Rica) saw a season long four-game goal scoring streak end against Bucknell. She got the gamewinners against Duke and Purdue and found the back of the net against Indiana to earn an honorable mention for the TopDrawerSoccer.com Women's Team of the Week after the opening Big Ten weekend. Against Ohio State, the junior capped off Penn State's 5-1 win with her fourth goal.

LIONS ON THE INTERNATIONAL STAGE

Over the summer, sophomore Brittany Basinger (Purcellville, Va.) and freshman Rose Chandler (Atlanta, Ga.) represented the United States at the 2014 FIFA Under-20 Women's World Cup, hosted by Canada. Penn State Head Coach Erica Walsh was also a member of the U.S. U-20 Women's National Team, serving as an assistant coach. The U.S. U-20 team went 2-2 at the tournament, besting China PR and Brazil, and was eliminated after the Group stage after falling 3-1 to Korea DPR. This was Chandler's first appearance as a member of the U-20 team while Basinger was a member of the 2014 CONCACAF Women's U-20 Championship team.

Chandler, Basinger and Walsh won't be the only Lions to don their country's colors in 2014. Junior Raquel Rodriguez (San Jose, Costa Rica) is a member of the Costa Rican Women's National Team and will compete for Costa Rica at the 2014 CONCACAF Women's Championship in October in an attempt to qualify for the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup.

ERICA WALSH

Head Coach • Eighth Year
WILLIAM & MARY '97

RECORD AT PSU: 115-43-8 (.717)
Overall Record: 155-71-11 (.677)

2012 NSCAA NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR TWO-TIME BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR (2009, 2012)

Head coach Erica Walsh enters her eighth season at the helm of the Penn State women's soccer program in 2014.

The Nittany Lions appeared in their 19th-straight NCAA Tournament in 2013, due in part to the success of senior Maya Hayes. The sixth-overall selection in the WPSL draft, Hayes set Penn State's single season record for points (79) in 2011 and finished her career ranked third in goals scored (71) and points (163), sixth in game-winning goals (17) and seventh in shots (291). Hayes was a M.A.C. Hermann Award Trophy semifinalist for the second straight year.

Walsh's 2012 Nittany Lions were the most successful team in program history after advancing to their first-ever national title game. The Nittany Lions won 21 of 27 games and were unbeaten in Big Ten action with a 10-0-1 record. The Lions registered their 15th consecutive Big Ten title and 18th-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. The 15-title mark is the second-most consecutive Big Ten Championships by a women's program, behind Northwestern's women's tennis team (16).

Senior Christine Nairn became just the seventh Nittany Lion to finish as a finalist for the prestigious Missouri Athletic Club's Hermann Trophy in 2012 under Walsh's tutelage while junior Maya Hayes was named a semifinalist for the award.

Walsh's success was recognized at the conference and national level as she earned Big Ten Coach of the Year and NSCAA National Coach of the Year honors.

Her 2011 team was a dominant force, winning 21 of 26 matches, while outscoring opponents 70-24. The Nittany Lions were 10-1-0 in Big Ten action and posted the seventh undefeated season at Jeffrey Field (9-0). Walsh helped guide the Lions to their 14th-straight Big Ten title and a spot to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since 2007.

With Walsh's guidance, as a sophomore, Hayes became the nation's most prolific scorer in soccer in 2011 and was a finalist for the M.A.C. Hermann Trophy. Hayes led the nation with 31 goals and 70 points, breaking the then-Penn State single-season record for points.

During the 2011 summer, Walsh had an extraordinary experience of being one of the top assistants to Pia Sundhage and the 2011 United States women's national team at the FIFA World Cup in Germany. The U.S. made a sparkling run through knockout play to the final, falling to eventual champion Japan.

The 2010 campaign saw Walsh's young club make a remarkable turnaround mid-season, overcoming a two-game deficit in the league standings over the final weeks to capture a share of its 13th straight Big Ten title.

After a tough 2-4 start to the 2009 season, Walsh led the Nittany Lions to a remarkable turnaround, going 10-1-2 in the last 13 games of the regular season, earning her the 2009 Big Ten Coach of the Year Award for her efforts. With the impressive end to the season, Walsh and her charges captured the program's 12th-straight Big Ten Championship. By winning the Big Ten, the Nittany Lions continued their string of NCAA Tournament berths, making their 15th-straight appearance in the 64-team field in 2009. For the second time in three years, Penn State hosted the first and second rounds of tournament play.

Walsh also orchestrated one of the finest awards seasons in Penn State history when Katie Schoepfer, Alyssa Naeher and Christine Nairn swept the year-end Big Ten Player of the Year awards. Schoepfer was named the Offensive Player of the Year, Naeher the Defensive Player of the Year and Nairn the Freshman of the Year. Danielle Toney was named to the All-Big Ten first team, while Lexi Marton garnered a second team mention.

Walsh continued her success from the 2007 campaign into a 16-8-0 record that saw Penn State capture its 11th-straight Big Ten Championship and the 2008 Big Ten Tournament crown. Her transition to Penn State was quite smooth as the 2007 team finished 18-4-2, including a 9-1-0 mark in conference play, and was ranked 12th in the final NSCAA poll of the season.

When she came to Penn State, Walsh brought with her a wealth of experience at both the international and collegiate levels. She already has coached at six different universities, including three stints as head coach as well as serving as an assistant for the U.S. U-19 team in 2004. Walsh served as head coach of the U-17 team from December 2004 until her hire at Penn State in February 2007.

In January 2009, Walsh was appointed as a member of the Panel of Instructors and Lecturers for FIFA Courses. In addition, she was appointed as the Chairman of the Women's Technical Committee for the period of January 1, 2009 to June 30, 2011.

In January of 2008, Walsh was named as the assistant coach by Pia Sundhage for the U.S. National Team. With Walsh's help and guidance the U.S. team completed its historic run with a gold medal at the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing, China. Even sweeter was that Walsh's main responsibility was the U.S. Team's defense, which held fellow world power Brazil scoreless in the gold medal game.

The head coach at Harvard University as well as the U.S. U-17 team prior to her hiring at Penn State, Walsh has consistently been active among the coaching ranks both at the Division I level and the U.S. Youth National Team program for nearly a decade. Prior to her time with the Crimson, she was part of a Florida State staff that led the Seminoles to one of its most successful year to date. FSU joined Penn State in the 2005 Women's Soccer College Cup, with both programs reaching the national semifinals.

Walsh's coaching path began in 1997 as a graduate assistant with Bucknell University. In 1998, she accepted a position at Dartmouth, where she was an assistant coach for two seasons. After helping the team to a final NSCAA ranking of No. 8 at the conclusion of the team's 1998 NCAA quarterfinal run as well as an Ivy League championship in 1999, Walsh assumed head coaching duties before the 2000 season.

As head coach, Walsh led the Big Green to back-to-back Ivy League co-championships in 2000 and 2001. Her squad was ranked in the NSCAA's top 25 each year, rising as high as No. 13 in 2001. In her three seasons as head coach, Dartmouth was invited to the NCAA Tournament each season and reached the round of 16 twice. All three of her teams earned the NSCAA's Academic Team Award.

Walsh left Dartmouth to earn her Master's in business administration at Lehigh University where she served as a graduate assistant from 2003-04. Beginning in the spring of 2004, Walsh joined the United States U-19 team as an assistant coach where she helped with preparations for the U-19 World Cup. The U.S. finished with the bronze medal in Thailand after defeating Brazil in the third place match. After the World Cup, Walsh was appointed the U.S. National Team's U-17 head coach, a position which she held for three years.

As a player, Walsh was an NSCAA All-Region selection at William & Mary. A two-time first team All-CAA pick, she propelled her team to four NCAA Tournament appearances as well as two CAA regular season and two CAA league championships. In March of 2010, Walsh's alma mater, William & Mary, honored her by inducting her into the W&M Athletics Hall of Fame.

A high school All-American at Lower Moreland, she was also a member of the U.S. U-17 National Team.

Walsh earned her Bachelor of Science degree with a concentration in biology from William & Mary in 1997. The Huntingdon Valley, Pa., native holds an NSCAA Advanced National Degree and a USSF "A" Coaching License.
