OCTOBER 28 AT ROBERT MORRIS

PITTSBURGH, Pa. – The Mercyhurst women's ice hockey team struggled in their first College Hockey America conference game of the season, losing 2-1 to Robert Morris at the RMU Island Sports Center on Friday afternoon.

The Lakers looked to turn around a three-game losing skid entering the game, but Robert Morris came out firing to earn the game's first goal in the first period. 3:54 into the game, Aneta Ledlova beat Mercyhurst goalie Jessica Convery and scored her first goal of the season to put the Colonials up 1-0. Leah Carey was credited with the assist.

Mercyhurst bounced back with a goal later in the first period to tie the game at one. At the 13:36 mark, Megan Whiddon worked her way behind the Robert Morris net and fed a pass to Brooke Hartwick in the crease. Hartwick snapped the puck past Robert Morris goalie Lauren Bailey. Hartwick leads the Lakers with two goals this season, while Whiddon leads the team with four assists.

The score remained 1-1 entering the second period and Mercyhurst had its chances in the period to take the lead. The Lakers had four power play chances in the period, including 1:32 on a five-on-three. They managed five shots on net and another handful of shots that were blocked, but the Colonials kept the Lakers off the scoreboard and went into the second intermission still knotted at 1-1.

In the third period, Convery made three saves early to stall Robert Morris. The Lakers then received two more power play chances in the middle of the period. On those power plays, Mercyhurst fired seven shots on net, but Bailey stopped each of the opportunities. Mercyhurst finished 0-7 on the power play for the game with 13 total shots.

With time winding down in the third period, Robert Morris found the go-ahead goal that proved to be the game-winner. With 1:53 remaining, Kirsten Welsh netted her fifth goal of the season with assists to Brittany Howard and Katherine Howard. In the final 1:53, the Lakers failed to create any legitimate scoring chances and they fell 2-1.

The Lakers (1-5-1) look to end their four-game skid against the same Colonials tomorrow at 3:00 p.m at RMU Island Sports Center.

OCTOBER 22 AT CORNELL

PITTSBURGH, Pa. -- The Mercyhurst women's ice hockey team lost its second-straight game in as many days to Robert Morris by a 2-1 score on Saturday afternoon, the same score as Friday's contest at RMU Sports Center. The loss marks the Lakers fifth consecutive loss in October.

Mercyhurst did find a spark on the power play in the game's first period. The Lakers had entered the game three of 42 with an extra skater this season, but they started the game one for one thanks to Brooke Hartwick. Hartwick scored at the 12:14 mark in the period with assists given to Jillian Skinner and Taylor Accursi. Hartwick leads the Lakers with three goals and five points through eight games.

Sarah McDonnell got the start in net for Mercyhurst and she had a solid first period with 10 saves and zero goals allowed. The defense in front of her also proved up to the task of stopping the Colonials, as the team accumulated 11 blocked shots in the period.

In the second period, Robert Morris tied the score 1-1 at the 8:56 mark. Rikki Meilleur's first goal of the season came at even strength to break McDonnell's shutout bid. Aneta Ledlova and Maggie Lague assisted Meilleur on the score.

The game remained tied until late in the third period. After the Lakers generated multiple chances on the power play that began at the 11:15 mark, Robert Morris scored again at even-strength for the go-ahead goal. Mackenzie Johnston scored her first of the season, with another assists being awarded to Aneta Ledlova. Jessica Gazzola picked up the other helper on the goal and the Colonial's led 2-1.

After falling behind, Mercyhurst sent a flurry of shots in the direction of RMU goalie Jessica Dodds. Dodds was able to stall all five shots that made it to her, enabling Robert Morris to hang on and win 2-1.

Mercyhurst (1-6-1) now falls to 0-2-0 in College Hockey America conference play. They will look to turn things around when hosting Penn State for a two-game weekend series on Nov. 4-5. Game time on Friday the 4th is set for 7:00 p.m.

HEAD COACH • 18TH SEASON • CANISIUS '90

Mike Sisti starts his 18th year as head coach of the women's hockey program, the only head coach the program has ever known.

In 17 years, Sisti has turned a small-college women's hockey program into one of Division I's premier powers. The Lakers have won 429 games, have captured 15 straight conference titles, and made ten consecutive trips to the national tournament - an NCAA record - before the streak was halted in the 2014 season. Sisti has 187 wins compared to just 20 losses in conference play during his tenure as Lakers' head coach. Among other notables, Sisti recruited and coached Meghan Agosta, who became a four-time All-American while at Mercyhurst, the leading scorer in Division I women's hockey history, a two-time Olympic gold medalist for Team Canada, and hockey MVP of the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games. Forward Vicki Bendus garnered the team's first Patty Kazmaier Award in 2010 while Agosta was a four-time finalist for the sport's highest honor.

Last season, the Lakers (19-11-5) collected their 14th straight College Hockey America (CHA) regular season title and won the CHA Tournament championship against Syracuse before bowing to Wisconsin in the first round of the NCAA tournament.

Sisti and the top performers on Sisti's 2015-16 squad were recognized individually at the CHA Tournament Banquet. Sisti was named CHA Coach of the Year, while freshman forward Rachael Smith received Rookie of the Year honors and freshman goalie Sarah McDonnell received the CHA Goaltender's Trophy. Smith, McDonnell, and Molley Blasen were named to the CHA All-Rookie Squad, while senior defenseman J'nai Mahadeo was named to the All-CHA Second Team. Fifteen players were on the CHA All-Academic Team with freshman Morgan Stacey taking home co-CHA Scholar Athlete-of-the-Year honors.

After a 15th-consecutive 20-win season in 2014-15, five players team picked up individual awards at the College Hockey America (CHA) Tournament banquet. Junior forward Emily Janiga collected the most accolades, including CHA Player of the Year, All-CHA First Team, and CHA scoring champion. In addition, senior Molly Byrne was chosen First Team, senior Amanda Makela picked up the Goaltender's Trophy, junior Jenna Dingledein made Second Team and freshman Sarah Robello made the All-Rookie squad. Eleven players were on the CHA All-Academic Team and freshman Kirsten Miller took home co-CHA Scholar Athlete-of-the-Year honors.

The prior year, Mercyhurst finished 24-9-4, won the College Hockey America (CHA) regular season crown, and made their 10th straight trip to the NCAA playoffs. The Lakers upset Cornell in the national quarterfinals before bowing to eventual national champion Clarkson in the semifinals. It marked their fourth overall appearance at the Frozen Four. The Lakers were national runners-up in 2009. The Lakers finished 6th nationally in the final 2013-14 USCHO.com Division I poll.

Several Lakers earned post-season accolades. Senior forward Christine Bestland was selected CHA's Player-of-the-Year, was named a Second Team All-American, and made USCHO.com's third team. She also was chosen Mercyhurst's senior Female Athlete-of-the-Year.

Sophomore forward Emily Janiga and junior defenseman Molly Byrne joined Bestland on the CHA First Team while senior forward Christy Cicero made the second squad. Byrne was also named the conference's Best Defenseman while junior forward Shelby Bram was honored with the Best Defensive Forward award. Sisti was chosen as the CHA Coach-of-the-Year. Additionally, 10 players made the CHA All-Academic Team.

Janiga was invited to participate in the 2014 USA Hockey Women's National Festival held in August 2014 at Lake Placid, NY.

After three years as an assistant men's coach at Canisius College in Buffalo, Sisti came to Mercyhurst in 1993 and spent his first six years as men's varsity assistant coach and then associate head coach. He was named head coach of the new women's program in March of 1999.

His efforts with the women's program have earned him numerous honors. Sisti was named Division I Coach of the Year in 2005 and USCHO.com Coach of the Year in 2007. He has been recognized as a finalist for Division I Coach of the Year on six occasions. Conference coaches have also named him coach of the year five times - four times in the CHA.

Off the ice, Sisti has developed his players into outstanding student-athletes. For 17 consecutive years, the team's cumulative grade point average has been above a 3.0. The Lakers have also been very active in the community. The team annually donates over 200 hours on various community service projects, and spends time at several local schools instructing students on life skills.

Prior to coaching, Sisti played four years of collegiate hockey at Canisius College. A four-year letterwinner, Sisti ranks among Canisius's best in several categories, including career points (163) and goals (74). He also shares the school record for most goals in a game with four and holds the single-season record for hat tricks with six. Sisti helped the Griffis to a 21-11-0 record with 13 goals and 19 assists as a freshman. He was named the team's top forward for his 33-goal, 57-point effort in 1988-89, and served as team captain for his senior season in 1989-90. A 1990 graduate of Canisius, Sisti was inducted into the Canisius Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002. A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Sisti and wife, Nicole, reside in Erie.
