FRESH FACE BETWEEN THE PIPES

- ▶ True freshman goalies are rare in the history of Maryland men's lacrosse. When Brian Ruppel made his first collegiate start in goal at #4 Princeton on Feb. 25, 2023, he became just the third Terrapin to start in goal as a true freshman since 1993. Coincidentally, the previous two true freshman net-minders were also named Brian ...
- ▶ Brian "Doc" Dougherty earned his first career start as a true freshman at Towson on May 4, 1993. Dougherty made 23 saves in an 11-8 win over the No. 14 Tigers and earned the starting goalie spot for the final two games of the 1993 season, which included another 20-save effort in Maryland's NCAA tournament game at Army on May 15.
- ▶ Injuries to returning All-American Harry Alford and junior Jason Carter forced freshman Brian Phipps to start the first 13 games of the 2007 season. Phipps registered double-digit saves in seven of those 13 games, including a 16-save effort in an 8-7 win over No. 11 Towson on March 10, 2007, en route to being named the 2007 ACC Freshman of the Year.

- ▶ In total, this was Maryland's 36th conference championship. The team has seven in the Big Ten and 29 in the ACC.
- ▶ Maryland has not lost to a Big Ten opponent since a 2019 Big Ten Tournament loss to Johns Hopkins on May 2, 2019. That's 29 consecutive regular season and postseason games combined.

- ▶ The Terps scored at least ten goals in 17 of 18 games in 2022, with the lone single-digit scoring game coming in the NCAA Championship game, a 9-7 victory over Cornell on May 30.
- ▶ Maryland is 5-1 in 2023 when scoring 10+ with wins over Richmond, Syracuse, Princeton, Albany, and Virginia. The 13-12 3OT loss to Notre Dame on March 4 was the Terps' first loss when scoring 10+ since the 2021 NCAA title game (May 31).
- ▶ The last time Maryland failed to reach 10 goals or more at home dates back to May 9, 2015. Maryland hosted Yale in the first round of the NCAA tournament and advanced with an 8-7 victory. The Terps trailed 7-4 early in the fourth quarter, but four straight goals by Bryan Cole, Joe LoCascio, Matt Rambo, and Henry West brought home the victory.

HEAD COACH JOHN TILLMAN

Maryland: 165-42 (.797) - 13th Season | Overall: 185-61 (.752) - 16th Season

Blending a mix of the program's historic motto, "Be The Best," with his own principles of high character in all aspects of life, John Tillman has created a formula that has resulted in one of the most successful eras in Maryland lacrosse's illustrious history.

Tillman's formula came to ultimate fruition in 2017 when Maryland captured its first NCAA National Championship since 1975. He then led the Terps back to the top in 2022 with an undefeated 18-0 season capped by the 2022 National Championship.

Since taking over the helm as Maryland head coach 12 years ago, Tillman has led the Terps to nine NCAA Final Fours, seven national title games and a 163-41 (.799) overall record. He enters his 13th season at Maryland in 2023.

Tillman's numbers since arriving in College Park in 2011 are impressive, leading the country in All-American selections (79), NCAA Tournament wins (28) and Final Fours (9) during that 12-year span.

In just 12 NCAA Tournament appearances, Tillman has already supplanted himself among the greatest coaches in history. His 28-9 (.757) career NCAA Tournament record ranks sixth all-time in NCAA history. Additionally, the program's accomplishments have translated to the classroom, as Tillman has had 20 USILA Scholar All-Americans in 12 seasons. The 2015 spring semester and 2016 fall semester combined for the program's highest GPA in more than 10 years.

GAME 1: NO. 1 MARYLAND OPENS SEASON WITH 15-4 WIN OVER NO. 19 RICHMOND

COLLEGE PARK – No. 1 Maryland began its 2023 season with a 15-4 victory over No. 19 Richmond on a sunny 28-degree day at SECU Stadium. Ten different Terps scored goals and 13 Terps had points.

Owen Murphy recorded four goals, tying his career-high in goals. Daniel Maltz posted five points on two goals and a career-high tying three assists.

Freshman Braden Erksa had three points on two goals and an assist in his college debut.

The Terps' defense was stellar in keeping Richmond scoreless for 43:31 spanning the first through fourth quarter. That was the longest scoreless streak for Maryland's defense since keeping Drexel scoreless for 56:17 on Feb. 28, 2015.

In goal, Logan McNaney made 12 saves for Maryland before giving way to Teddy Dolan for the final 10 minutes.

Close defensemen Brett Makar (four) and Ajax Zappitello (three) combined for seven caused turnovers as the Terps had 12 as a team. Makar had five groundballs.

Face-off man Luke Wierman won 10-of-17 face-offs, grabbing nine groundballs.

In allowing just four goals, the Terps had their fewest goals allowed in a game since beating Navy, 10-4, in the 2018 season opener on Feb. 10, 2018.

The Terps have now won 30 consecutive season openers dating back to the 1994 season.

Loyola's Luke Staudt made 19 saves in goal. Evan James had three goals for the Greyhounds (1-0).

Maryland outshot Loyola, 42-26, won the groundballs battle, 38-27 and won 18 of face-offs.

GAME 3: NO. 4 MARYLAND BEATS NO. 16 SYRACUSE, 15-12

COLLEGE PARK – No. 4 Maryland had five different multi-goal scorers as the Terps beat No. 16 Syracuse, 15-12, at SECU Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Daniel Kelly (four goals and two assists for six points) and Jack Koras (three goals and an assist for four points) each posted career highs in points in the victory, which came in Syracuse's first game at Maryland since 1997.

The Terps (2-1) extended their home win streak to 20 games in a row, and they have won 37 of their last 39 games dating to 2020. The Orange dropped its first game of 2023 and now stand at 3-1 on the season.

Dante Trader Jr., who starred for Maryland football this past fall, scored his first two collegiate goals for the Terps, including an amazing individual effort in the fourth quarter where he maintained the ball after being knocked down, drawing a penalty; he then ran down from midfield and scored. Trader also had three groundballs.

Kyle Long (two goals, two assists), Owen Murphy (two goals, assist), and Daniel Maltz (goal, assist) also had multi-point games for the Terps. In addition, John Geppert scored his 10th career pole goal.

Face-off man Luke Wierman continued his dominant play this season, winning 24-of-31 face-offs and scooping up 12 groundballs. The 24 wins equaled his career high.

On defense, Brett Makar limited Syracuse's Joey Spallina - who entered the game with 11 goals and 13 points – holding him to one goal and one assist. Makar had five groundballs and a caused turnover. Ajax Zappitello had three caused turnovers and four groundballs.

Graduate student Teddy Dolan made his first start in goal for the Terps in place of Logan McNaney and made nine saves.

The Terps took 50 shots, their most since taking 50 against Virginia last season at Audi Field.

This was Syracuse's first game at Maryland since the 1997 NCAA Tournament and first regular-season game in College Park since 1983.

BREAKING DOWN THE ACTION

- ▶ Maryland opened the game with the first three goals of the afternoon coming from Kelly, Jack Koras, and Maltz as the Terps took the first 13 shots of the game in building a 3-0 lead in the first 2:56 of the game. The Orange got on the scoreboard as Michael Leo scored with 4:30 left in the first to make it 3-1 after the first.
- ▶ Syracuse scored the first two goals of the second quarter to even the game at 3-3 on a goal by Luke Rhoa. Maryland regained the lead at 4-3 on a man-up goal by Owen Murphy set up by Kelly with 7:47 left in the second. Long, Jack Koras, and Murphy scored to make it a four-goal run to give the Terps a 7-3 advantage on four goals in a span of 2:36. Syracuse scored the next two goals, coming from Griffin Cook and Jake Murphy, cutting Maryland's lead to 7-5. They responded with two goals in the final 55 seconds of the first half as Kelly and Geppert scored 10 seconds apart to give the Terps a 9-5 lead at halftime.
- ▶ The Orange opened the second half with a pair of goals to make it 9-7 just over three minutes into the game, but Maryland, once again, answered as Kelly notched the hat trick, followed by Trader scoring his first collegiate goal off a face-off win and another Kelly goal to make it 12-7 with 9:33 left in the third quarter. Syracuse tallied the final two goals of the third quarter to make it 12-9 in favor of Maryland after 45 minutes.
- ▶ After Spallina scored on a behind-the-back goal to make it 12-10, the Terps responded with three goals as Long notched his second of the game, then Koras posted his first-career hat trick for a 14-10 lead - both on man-up. Trader then scored after an amazing individual effort where he was knocked down for an ensuing penalty, maintained the ball, and scored for a 15-10 lead.

GAME 4: ALL-AROUND EFFORT GIVES NO. 6 TERPS 11-5 WIN AT NO. 4 PRINCETON

PRINCETON, NJ – No. 6 Maryland had outstanding efforts on both ends of the field as the Terps won at No. 4 Princeton, 11-5, in frigid temperatures at Class of 1952 Stadium. Freshman goalie Brian Ruppel made his collegiate debut in goal and made 14 saves to anchor a Terrapin defense that allowed just five goals. The 14 saves were the most by a Maryland freshman in his first-career start since Hall of Famer Brian Dougherty made 23 in his first start as freshman on May 4, 1993 vs. Towson State.

On offense, Daniel Maltz scored four goals and added an assist for five points. Jack Koras had three goals and a helper for four points. It was Koras' second game in a row with a hat trick and four points, to equal his career best.

Daniel Kelly also scored two goals, his third game in a row with multiple goals. Maryland's other goals came from Owen Murphy and Ryan Siracusa. The Terps were 3-of-6 on man-up with Kelly, Koras and Maltz scoring with the extra man.

The Terps (3-1 overall) led throughout, taking a 2-0 lead in the first quarter and holding that lead throughout thanks to stellar defense. The third quarter proved to be the decisive one as the Terps outscored Princeton 7-2 over that 15-minute span with Koras and Maltz each scoring two in the period.

In front of Ruppel, the two-time C. Markland Kelly Award winner at Catonsville High School, the Terrapin defense was stout. Brett Makar had six groundballs and caused four turnovers. Ajax Zappitello had three caused turnovers while Jack McDonald had two caused turnovers and two groundballs.

Face-off man Luke Wierman won 13-of-20 and had a game-best nine groundballs. He moved to fifth in career groundballs at Maryland and now has 242. His 450 career face-off wins stand sixth all-time.

In a rematch of the 2022 NCAA Semifinals, Princeton suffered its first loss of the season and is now 2-1. Coulter Mackesy led the Tigers with three goals.

BREAKING DOWN THE ACTION

- ▶ The Terps struck first as a result of a beautiful defensive play from Makar that led to a Kelly goal in transition. Murphy put the Terps ahead 2-0 with 50 seconds left at the end of the first quarter.
- ▶ Maltz scored off a feed from Murphy to make it 3-1 Terps with eight minutes left in the second quarter. The Terps led 3-1 at halftime of a defensive game. Ruppel had eight saves in the first half in allowing just one Tiger goal.
