OPENING SERVE

Penn State faces a tough test in its opening match with its third matchup against George Mason this season. The Patriots came out on top in both regular season meetings in 2019 in straight sets. The Nittany Lions have gotten the best of the Patriots in postseason matchups with an 8-0 record in the EIVA Tournament against GMU since rally scoring was implemented in 2001.

The Nittany Lions have won six of their last eight matches entering the tournament play and are making a familiar trip to Princeton having played in New Jersey last weekend.

As for their record against opponents in the other semifinal match, the Nittany Lions also dropped a pair of matches to host Princeton during the regular season while sweeping Saint Francis in that regular season series.

George Mason enters the tournament with a three-match win streak, including its late season win over Penn State at Rec Hall. Princeton is the hottest team of the bunch with five-straight wins coming into tournament play. Saint Francis dropped its last two matches to Princeton and NJIT.
