ABOUT COLLEGE HOCKEY AMERICA (CHA)

College Hockey America (CHA) formed in the fall of 2002 with four teams – Findlay (Ohio), Mercyhurst and Wayne State (Mich.) from the Great Lakes Women's Hockey Association and Niagara from the ECAC.

In the league's first year of competition, 2002-03, each member played two games against each of the other conference schools. Mercyhurst won the regular-season title with a 6-0 record. The Lakers continued on to win the first-ever CHA postseason tournament, held at the City Sports Center Arena in Detroit, with victories over Wayne State and Findlay.

The league has seen several changes in membership since 2002. Mercyhurst is the lone remaining original member. Findlay dropped women's ice hockey after the 2003-04 season and was replaced in the CHA by Quinnipiac, which played the previous season as a Division I independent. The Bobcats played one year in CHA before joining their men's team in the ECAC. Robert Morris replaced Quinnipiac prior to the 2005-06 season to keep membership at four.

Syracuse was added as a fifth member for the 2008-09 season, and the league schedule increased to 16 games, four head-to-head games against each of the other members.

Commissioner Robert DeGregorio oversaw another period of transition, ushering in three new members, Lindenwood, Penn State and RIT, for the start of the 2012-13 season. Niagara dropped women's ice hockey during the same offseason, leaving the league with six members.

Robert Morris, winners of three CHA regular season crowns, saw its program eliminated by the university following the 2020-21 campaign, dropping league membership to five institutions for the 2021-22. RMU reinstated its program on Dec. 2021 and was readmitted to the CHA on March 3, 2022. The Colonials will return to competition in the CHA in 2023-24 to bring the active membership back to six teams.

24 YEARS WITH COACH MICHAEL SISTI

Mike Sisti starts his 24th year as head coach of the women's hockey program, the only head coach the program has ever known. Sisti has turned a small-college women's hockey program into one of Division I's premier powers. The Lakers have won 527 games, have captured 17 conference titles, and made ten consecutive trips to the national tournament - an NCAA record - before the streak was halted in the 2014 season. Sisti has 346 wins compared to just 47 losses in conference play during his tenure as Lakers' head coach. Among other notables, Sisti recruited and coached Meghan Agosta, who became a four-time All-American while at Mercyhurst, the leading scorer in Division I women's hockey history, a three-time Olympic gold medalist for Team Canada, and hockey MVP of the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games. Forward Vicki Bendus garnered the team's first Patty Kazmaier Award in 2010 while Agosta was a four-time finalist for the sport's highest honor.

After three years as an assistant men's coach at Canisius College in Buffalo, Sisti came to Mercyhurst in 1993 and spent his first six years as men's varsity assistant coach and then associate head coach. He was named head coach of the new women's program in March of 1999.

His efforts with the women's program have earned him numerous honors. Sisti was named Division I Coach of the Year in 2005 and USCHO.com Coach of the Year in 2007. He has been recognized as a finalist for Division I Coach of the Year on six occasions. Conference coaches have also named him coach of the year eight times in the CHA.

Off the ice, Sisti has developed his players into outstanding student-athletes. For 18 consecutive years, the team's cumulative grade point average has been above a 3.0. The Lakers have also been very active in the community. The team annually donates over 200 hours on various community service projects, and spends time at several local schools instructing students on life skills.

Prior to coaching, Sisti played four years of collegiate hockey at Canisius College. A four-year letterwinner, Sisti ranks among Canisius's best in several categories, including career points (163) and goals (74). He also shares the school record for most goals in a game with four and holds the single-season record for hat tricks with six. Sisti helped the Griffis to a 21-11-0 record with 13 goals and 19 assists as a freshman. He was named the team's top forward for his 33-goal, 57-point effort in 1988-89, and served as team captain for his senior season in 1989-90. A 1990 graduate of Canisius, Sisti was inducted into the Canisius Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.
