PENN STATE MEN'S SOCCER NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Penn State is making its 31st NCAA Tournament appearance, this season all of which have come since 1970. For the Nittany Lions, PSU is in the tournament for the first time since 2010 in Bob Warming's first year when the Nittany Lions reached the Sweet 16, which was a tough 1-0 loss at second-seeded Maryland.

Penn State is 27-29-1 all-time in the tournament with a 5-21-0 mark in away games. Saturday's win at UCSB was Penn State's first NCAA road win since Nov. 22, 1998, a 1-0 win at Connecticut. By knocking off the 10th-seeded Gauchos, Penn State eliminated the highest seed in the tournament to date. Penn State, Connecticut, Coastal Carolina and Stanford are the lone remaining unseeded teams left in the tournament.

Penn State has never faced New Mexico in the NCAA Tournament before. The only time PSU and UNM have met on the soccer field was a 2-0 Lobos win at Ohio State in the 2005 season opener.

The winner of Sunday's contest moves on to the NCAA Quarterfinals to face the winner of second-seeded Washington or Stanford with a spot in the College Cup on the line.

SCOUTING NEW MEXICO

ABOUT THE LOBOS

New Mexico (12-5-2) enters Sunday's match on a 4-1-0 stretch following a 1-0 victory over George Mason in the NCAA Second Round. The only blemish during that stretch is a 3-0 loss to Tulsa in the Conference USA Semifinals in Charlotte, N.C. The Lobos are 7-3-1 at home and have won their past five matches at UNM Soccer Complex.

A defensively stingy side, New Mexico allows just seven shots a game and holds their opponents to less than a goal a game. Offensively, the Lobos pepper the defense with nearly 15 shots per game and averaging 1.68 goals per contest. UNM holds a commanding 127-56 disparity in corner kicks as well. Offensively, James Rogers and Niko Hansen have identical numbers, scoring seven times with five assists. Rogers leads the team in game-winners, while Michael Calderon and Hansen each have two game-winners. Calderon is third on the team in scoring with six goals and three helpers. Michael Lisch is the starting goalkeeper with a .696 save percentage and a 12-5-2 record to go along with eight shutouts.

COMMON ENEMIES

Penn State and New Mexico have faced just one common opponent this season: UC Santa Barbara. Penn State defeated the Gauchos 1-0 on Sunday, while New Mexico matched that score at Harder Stadium on Sept. 23.

PENN STATE UPSETS UCSB ON THE ROAD

A beautiful 78th-minute goal by freshman Connor Maloney helped No. 16 Penn State men's soccer past 10th-seeded and 15th-ranked UC Santa Barbara, 1-0, on Sunday night (Nov. 24) at Harder Stadium in front of 4,420 fans.

In a physical game that saw a combined 37 fouls committed and six cards shown, including a 6th-minute red card to UCSB's Fifi Baiden, Penn State (13-5-2) prevailed on a cool evening next to the Pacific Ocean. The Nittany Lions controlled the pace of play in the second half and eventually cracked the UCSB (12-6-3) code.

Mike Robinson whipped a cross to Jordan Tyler the top of the penalty arc as Tyler had his back to goal. He laid a perfectly timed pass to a running Maloney who took one touch to his right and uncorked an 18-yard bullet to the left-side netting past Gaucho goalkeeper Josh McNeely with just 12:15 remaining in the match.

The victory was just Penn State's fifth on the road in NCAA play. The last PSU road win in an NCAA match was Nov. 22, 1998 at Connecticut in the NCAA First Round. Penn State is in the round of 16 for the fifth time since 2001 and the second time under coach Bob Warming.

ROAD WARRIORS

Penn State is 5-4-0 away from the friendly confines of Jeffrey Field in true road games. The five victories are the most by a Penn State squad since 2002 when those Nittany Lions went 5-4-0 and fell in the Sweet 16 at UCLA. Previous to this season, the last squad to post a winning record in true road games were the 2005 and 2004 teams, which went 4-2-1 and 3-1-3, respectively. The 1-0 win at UC Santa Barbara was Penn State's first on the road in NCAA play since 1998 at UConn, snapping a five-game skid.

ONE OR NONE STREAK BROKEN, NOW RESTORED

Penn State has allowed one goal or less in 18 of 20 matches this season, a pivotal aspect of the team's success. The Nittany Lions are 13-3-2 when holding opponents to a goal or less this season, while dropping both matches were two or more goals were allowed.

During Penn State's incredible 9-1-1 run from Sept. 13-Oct. 29, a staple of the Nittany Lions was defense. In fact, until the Akron loss on Nov. 6, Penn State had allowed more than a single goal just once all year, a rare 4-1 loss at Rutgers on Sept. 6. Penn State had kept opponents to one goal or less in 15 of 16 games prior to Akron as Penn State surged to a 11-4-1 record.

Penn State's stout defense rebounded against a formidable Indiana offense, shutting out the Hoosiers for the second time, the first shutout for Penn State since a 2-0 win over the Hoosiers on Oct. 6. Penn State was the first team since Michigan State's 2008 squad to shut out the Hoosiers twice in the same season. The 1-0 wins over St. Francis Brooklyn and UC Santa Barbara represented Penn State's first three-match shutout streak since Sept. 5-21, 2012 when the Nittany Lions tied West Virginia, 0-0, before defeating Adelphi, 3-0, and Wisconsin, 1-0.

SPREAD OFFENSE

Penn State has relied on multiple offensive weapons for its goal production this year. Early on, it was Mark Wadid who provided three game-winning goals. In the middle of the season and in Big Ten play, it was Jordan Tyler's five goals and four game-winners that helped PSU to its fifth Big Ten title. Sandwiched between those two strikers has been Eli Dennis (2 game-winners), Shane Campbell (1) and Owen Griffith (1). Then came Connor Maloney's game-winning goal to send the Nittany Lions to the Sweet 16 on Sunday, Nov. 24 at UC Santa Barbara. Ten Nittany Lions have scored during the 2013 campaign with another three providing assists.

HOLDING OFFENSES AT BAY

The Nittany Lions have accomplished a feat twice in the past three matches that they only were able to do once in the previous 17 games: hold an opponent to one shot on goal. Penn State has kept opposing offenses at bay, especially over the past three matches. Just six shots have reached Andrew Wolverton and he's saved all of them in three shutouts as Penn State went 2-0-1. Against Indiana and UC Santa Barbara, the high-flying Hoosiers and Gauchos managed just one shot apiece on goal. Prior to that, the Nittany Lions had only held Central Connecticut to a single shot on goal. Furthermore, the four total shots attempted by UCSB were a season-low by an opponent.

HE'S BACK

Following a two-game red card suspension shown at Akron, central defender Akil Howard returned to the field on Sunday night at Harder Stadium in PSU's 1-0 win over UCSB. Howard missed the Indiana and St. Francis Brooklyn matches and has been on the field for six of Penn State's eight shutouts this season.

FREE SOCCER

Penn State has featured in seven overtime contests this year, all of them requiring two extra frames. The Nittany Lions are 2-3-2 in overtime this season with five of the previous eight matches being decided by free soccer.

Penn State was picked fifth in the preseason Big Ten coaches' poll and went unranked and unvoted in the NSCAA preseason poll. The young Nittany Lions exceeded all expectations to win their second straight Big Ten title and earn a top 10 national ranking three weeks ago.

IN THE RANKINGS

On Tuesday, Oct. 15, Penn State received its first national ranking from the NSCAA, checking at No. 17, which was the first NSCAA ranking since Sept. 25, 2012. Two weeks ago, Penn State vaulted up to 9th, but has since fallen to 16th last week and maintained the same ranking this week. In the NCAA RPI released Oct. 28, Penn State moved up to No. 5. Prior to the Big Ten Tournament, Penn State checked in at 12th in the RPI. New Mexico is ranked 25th by the coaches entering Sunday's match.

COACHING CLOUT

Among the elite coaches in the sports for the last three decades, head coach Bob Warming is back for his fourth season at Penn State. Warming has an incredible coaching pedigree, including 428 career Division I victories -- second all-time among active DI coaches and third all-time at D-I. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013 after leading PSU to a pair of league titles.

STINGY HOME DEFENSE

Junior goalkeeper Andrew Wolverton has allowed just 6 goals in 1,051 minutes of action this season (0.51 GAA), collecting 29 saves through the first 10 home games (8-1-1). The netminder has made a career on clean sheets, posting 22 shutouts in 48 career starts (45.8 percent). Wolverton set the Penn State single-season record for shutouts as a freshman (12), and is currently fourth on the PSU career shutout list, two away from tying second place.

NITTANY LIONS TAKE OUT THE TERRIERS

A 37th-minute Eli Dennis goal off a cross from Drew Klingenberg, along with stout defending by Nate Lee, Martin Seiler, Mike Robinson and Connor Maloney, gave Penn State a 1-0 win over St. Francis Brooklyn on Thursday in the NCAA First Round. Andrew Wolverton made four saves for his seventh clean sheet of the year and 22nd of his career as SFC was shut out for just the fifth time all season. Shot were even at 10-10, while Penn State led in corners, 5-1.

NITTANY LIONS SHUT OUT HOOSIERS AGAIN, INDIANA ADVANCES IN SHOOTOUT

Top-seeded and 16th-ranked Penn State men's soccer played to a scoreless draw with Indiana on Friday, Nov. 15 at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium, but it was the Hoosiers who advanced to the Big Ten Final on penalty kicks, 5-3. Penn State held Indiana to just one shot on goal, while forcing IU keeper Colin Webb into five saves, including quality chances by Owen Griffith and Connor Maloney in regulation. IU held a 22-10 overall edge in shots and took 19 corner kicks during a game that featured 34 fouls committed. The Hoosiers were a perfect 5-for-5 in the shootout.

MARTIN, WARMING EARN BTT HONORS

Seniors Martin Seiler and Grant Warming were named to the Big Ten All-Tournament Team for their efforts in the scoreless draw with Indiana. Seiler and Warming were pivotal in blocking numerous Indiana attempts, allowing just one of IU's 22 shots to reach frame.

NITTANY LIONS REAP BIG TEN AWARDS

Penn State head coach Bob Warming earned his second straight Big Ten Coach of the Year honor and junior Andrew Wolverton was named Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year on Thursday night (Nov. 14).

Jordan Tyler, Martin Seiler and Wolverton earned spots on the first team, while Owen Griffith captured second-team honors. Midfielders Connor Maloney and Mason Klerks were tabbed as All-Big Ten Freshmen.

BIG TEN NETWORK SCHEDULE

Penn State is scheduled to be featured on the Big Ten Network at least three times this season. The Lions were first on national television when they traveled to preseason No. 1 Indiana on Oct. 6 and beat the defending NCAA champions, 2-0. The Blue and White returned to the national spotlight in a home match against Northwestern three weekends ago in a thrilling 2-1 victory.

Penn State appeared on BTN once more with the Nittany Lions' semifinal match on Friday, Nov. 15 against the Hoosiers.

PENN STATE FALLS AT AKRON

The Nittany Lions were eight minutes from their first win over the ninth-ranked Zips since 2004, but a free kick forced overtime before another free kick tally late in the second overtime gave Akron the hard-fought 2-1 victory on Wednesday, Nov. 6.

Freshman midfielder Connor Maloney finished a fabulous half-volley from 25 yards out to stake Penn State a 1-0 lead five minutes from halftime. The tally was set up by a beautiful cross from Shane Campbell. The goal was Maloney's first collegiate marker.

In the second half, Akron supplied all the pressure and eventually broke through on Aodhan Quinn's 83rd-minute free kick. The Nittany Lions played the final 7:34 of regulation and all 15:24 of overtime with just 10 men following a red card. Quinn won the game in the 106th minute with another free kick goal. Andrew Wolverton matched his career high with nine saves.

HEARTBREAK IN COLUMBUS

The No. 9 Penn State men's soccer team rattled off a season-high 27 shots, but couldn't solve the riddle that was Ohio State, falling 1-0 in double overtime to the Buckeyes on Saturday night (Nov. 2) at Jesse Owens Memorial Stadium. Of the 27 shots, Penn State put six on frame but couldn't slide any past OSU's Alex Ivanov. Nevertheless, a counter attack by Danny Jensen down the right flank beat Andrew Wolverton to the far post and Ohio State came out on top. The loss ended Penn State's quest for a perfect 6-0-0 Big Ten season.

NOT PENN DEFEATS THE QUAKERS

Penn State's first trip to Rhodes Field in three years was identical to its 2010 visit -- a 2-1 win on Tuesday night (Oct. 29). Eli Dennis tallied a 64th-minute goal to put Penn State ahead before the Quakers got one back in the 73rd minute. Nevertheless, Shane Campbell bagged the game-winner with six minutes remaining as he sent home a Mason Klerks' effort that was initially saved by Penn. Connor Maloney tallied his seventh assist of the year on Dennis' goal, while Andrew Wolverton made five saves as Penn State for the ninth time in 10 matches.

TYLER'S HEROICS CLINCH BIG TEN TITLE

No. 13 Penn State defeated No. 19 Northwestern, 2-1, Sunday afternoon in dramatic fashion to earn the program's fifth Big Ten championship. Jordan Tyler scored the game-tying and game-winning goal in overtime for the Nittany Lions.

The match seemed destined for a 1-1 draw until the 109th minute when NU's Connor Holloway's pass at midfield was intercepted by Connor Maloney, who took the ball and rushed down field. Maloney drew a Wildcat defender at the top of the penalty area and passed a perfectly placed ball to Tyler who sent it into the back of the net for his fifth goal of the year and fourth game-winner. The goal set off a wild celebration as Penn State celebrated its second straight Big Ten title and fifth overall. The victory clinched the No. 1 seed in the Big Ten Tournament for the second straight season as well as the Lions look to complete the perfect Big Ten season with a win next week at Ohio State, a feat only accomplished by once before in Penn State men's soccer history (2005).

In a nip-and-tuck game, the Northwestern struck first in the 60th minute on a goal from super striker Joey Calistri. Cole Missimo went streaking down the left flank toward the end line and touched a ground pass to Calistri on the near post. The crafty sophomore and the Big Ten's leading scorer back heeled a clever shot into the far right side of the goal for the lead. Penn State went into desperation mode and pressed numbers forward. It took to the eighth shot of the half to capitalize in the waning minutes as Drew Klingenberg, last week's Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week, beat his defender on the left wing. He chipped a cross to Tyler whose initial header looked to be going wide but struck the thigh of a Northwestern defender and went into the goal with 1:47 remaining in the second half.

TYLER EARNS BIG TEN OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONOR

Redshirt-junior forward Jordan Tyler was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week on Monday (Oct. 28) following his two-goal, conference clinching game over Northwestern.

Tyler has five goals for the season with four of them coming in game-winning fashion. The redshirt-junior leads the Big Ten during conference play in goals (4), points (8) and game-winning goals (3). Tyler has won the past two games for Penn State in double-overtime following his dramatic winner at Michigan State on Oct. 20 prior to his excellent showing against Northwestern. The honor for Tyler is his first Big Ten accolade of any kind, while Penn State has hauled in six Big Ten weekly honors.

PENN STATE'S COMEBACK VICTORY AT MICHIGAN STATE

Down a goal at half, No. 17 Penn State men's soccer came back to defeat No. 14 Michigan State, 2-1, in double overtime Sunday afternoon at DeMartin Stadium. Redshirt-junior striker Jordan Tyler tallied the game winner in the second overtime.

Drew Klingenberg notched the equalizer early in the second half, his first collegiate goal. Junior goalkeeper Andrew Wolverton saved a career-high nine shots in the game as Penn State opened up a six-point lead in the Big Ten standings after four matches.

The winning moment came 53 seconds into the second overtime when Mike Robinson collected a pass back from Klingenberg on the left wing and swung in a perfectly placed ball to a running Tyler as the Michigan native poked the ball home. The helper was Robinson's second of the season and both assists have come in Big Ten play.

LIONS SWEEP BIG TEN WEEKLY AWARDS

For the first time since 2006, two Nittany Lions took home Big Ten weekly honors in the same cycle as sophomore midfielder Drew Klingenberg and junior goalkeeper Andrew Wolverton were named Big Ten Offensive and Defensive Player of the Week, respectively, on Monday afternoon (Oct. 21). Klingenberg tallied three points in the win over Michigan State, while Wolverton made a career-high nine saves. Klingenberg was also named Philly Soccer News Player of the Week, while Wolverton was put on the College Soccer News Team of the Week.

David Gray and Conrad Taylor took home offensive and defensive honors on Oct. 23, 2006, but Gray shared his accolade with Greg Janicki of MSU. The last time PSU made a complete sweep of the weekly honors was Sept. 15, 2003 when Chad Severs (offensive) and Matt Novchich (defensive) pulled the feat.

ROBINSON HONORED BY TDS

Junior transfer Mike Robinson, a forward by nature and an accomplished one at that, was named to the TopDrawerSoccer.com's Team of the Week on Tuesday (Oct. 22). Robinson logged 101 minutes, tallied an assist on the game-winner by Jordan Tyler and was effective in limiting the dynamic Spartan offense.

NITTANY LIONS TRUMP WOLVERINES

On a chilly, wet Friday evening (Oct. 11), the Nittany Lions downed Michigan 3-1 and improving its Big Ten record to 3-0-0 for the first time since 2005. Penn State's three goals matched its season high, a 3-1 win vs. Wisconsin in the Big Ten opener. Martin Seiler opened the scoring by converting a penalty kick, while Grant Warming and Owen Griffith each added a goal apiece in the second half to secure the win.

Seiler's spot kick conversion came following a Wolverine hand ball in the 10th minute, while Griffith scored his second of the year on a Connor Maloney offering in the 48th minute. Warming sealed the deal with an 80th minute tally against the run of play off a feed from Drew Klingenberg. Warming's goal was the first of his career and his fourth point in the past two matches. Andrew Wolverton made three saves for Penn State.

SEILER WINS BIG TEN WEEKLY HONOR

Redshirt-senior defender Martin Seiler was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week on Monday afternoon (Oct. 14). The first-place Nittany Lions got off on the right foot against the Wolverines as Seiler put away a 10th-minute penalty kick for an early lead. From there, Seiler's excellent defending kept Michigan at bay for most of the match. It wasn't until the final seven minutes, and with Penn State holding a 3-0 lead, did Michigan tally a goal. For Seiler, the award is his first recognition by the league office.

NITTANY LIONS KNOCK OFF INDIANA

Jordan Tyler and Owen Griffith tallied first-half goals and Andrew Wolverton made five critical saves in Penn State's historic 2-0 win at Indiana on Sunday, Oct. 6. Penn State posted its first shutout at Armstrong Stadium in program history and first victory in Bloomington since 2005.

In the 15th minute, Grant Warming toe-poked a pass Connor Maloney down the right wing. Maloney was able to race to the end line and get his cross to the top of the six-yard area as Tyler slotted it home past IU goalkeeper Michael Soderlung (three saves). The goal was Tyler's second of the season, while Warming and Maloney picked up their first and fourth assists of the Warming was again in the midst of Penn State's offense 10 minutes later as he sent a pass off an Indiana defender to Griffith, who one touched to his right foot and lofted an 18-yard shot into the upper right corner of the goal for a 2-0 lead. The two-assist game was the first for Warming in his career for the Blue and White.

Griffith's first goal of the year provided Penn State's first two-goal game against the Hoosiers since a 2-1 win in the 2010 Big Ten Tournament at Jeffrey Field. That game also represented the last time PSU defeated Indiana as the series now stands at 12-29-1 all-time in favor of IU.

Andrew Wolverton was put to work most of the game, stopping a point-blank Patrick Doody effort in the 44th minute and a pushing aside AJ Corrado's 20-yard blast in the 69th minute. The biggest save came in the 56th minute when Wolverton was able to save Tommy Thompson's penalty kick attempt and stave off any Hoosier momentum.

WOLVERTON NAMED BIG TEN DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Following Sunday's historic shutout of defending NCAA champion Indiana, junior goalkeeper Andrew Wolverton was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week on Monday.

Wolverton made five saves in the 2-0 win over Indiana including a critical penalty-kick stop of Tommy Thompson in the second half. Wolverton also made a point-blank save near the conclusion of the first half and another sprawling save with 20 minutes remaining on a long-range Hoosier effort. The shutout was Penn State's first at Armstrong Stadium and the first win at Indiana since 2005. For Wolverton, it was his fifth clean sheet and 20th career shutout in blue and white. Wolverton added a save in Wednesday's match against Saint Francis as well. For the week, Wolverton posted a 0.47 goals-against average with an .857 save percentage in two games.

RED FLASH COME OUT ON TOP

The Nittany Lion men's soccer team was unable to take advantage of its offensive opportunities and dropped a hard-fought 1-0 double-overtime match to Saint Francis on Wednesday night (Oct. 2) at Jeffrey Field.

Despite holding a 17-7 edge in shots and finding twice as many shots on net as the Red Flash, Penn State was unable to find the game-winner. Ultimately, a long ball on a counter attack from SFU led to a misplay back to the goalkeeper, allowing SFU's Ryan Byers to tap home the winner and earn the Red Flash's first win over Penn State in 11 tries.

The match nearly ended with five minutes to go in regulation when Penn State's Owen Griffith had an open look in front of net, but his header didn't have enough juice and SFU goalkeeper Daniel Valcicak made the diving save.

LIONS OVERWHELM BADGERS

The Penn State men's soccer team won its Big Ten opener on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 29) at Jeffrey Field by defeating Wisconsin, 3-1. Martin Seiler and Eli Dennis tallied strikes and the Badgers provided an own goal as Penn State won its fourth straight match.

With the game deadlocked at one through 77 minutes, Shane Campbell beat his defender down the right wing and passed a ball to the near post to a running Jordan Tyler. The crafty redshirt-junior beat his defender and crossed a ball in front of the net that was knocked in by the Wisconsin defense for an own goal and a 2-1 Penn State lead.

Five minutes later Penn State salted the game away as Randy Falk sent a beautiful cross to a running Dennis on the left side of the penalty area for the final 3-1 score line. The goal was Dennis' second of the year and Falk's first assist. Connor Maloney set the play up as Falk made an overlapping run on the right wing.

LIONS COMPLETE COMEBACK WIN

Penn State went down a goal to West Virginia in the opening five minutes, but recovered behind goals from Shane Campbell and Jordan Tyler in a 2-1 victory on Wednesday night (Sept. 25). Campbell tallied his first collegiate goal in the 12th minute, while Tyler supplied the heroics in the 71st, his first goal since Sept. 9, 2011. Grant Warming, Mason Klerks and Connor Maloney provided assists from the midfield. Andrew Wolverton made four saves as the Nittany Lions earned their third straight victory and are unbeaten in the last four.

WADID DOES IT AGAIN

A second-half goal from Mark Wadid propelled Penn State past Duquesne, 1-0, on Sunday, Sept. 22 at Jeffrey Field. Eli Dennis dished his second assist of the season on a through ball to the running Wadid as the freshman phenom coolly finished the shot. Andrew Wolverton made two saves for his fourth shutout of the season and move up to fifth all-time at Penn State in the category with 19 clean sheets.

WADID PICKS UP TRIO OF HONORS

For his two finishes and a perfect team record, Mark Wadid was named Big Ten Co-Offensive Player of the Week. Additionally, he was tabbed on the College Soccer News' National Team of the Week as well as TopDrawerSoccer.com's Team of the Week.

GUTSY TIE WITH NO. 5 CAL

Penn State fought to a 1-1 draw against No. 5 California Friday night (Sept. 13) at Jeffrey Field as it celebrated the life and legacy of Mack Brady in front of an announced crowd of 3,032.

Kyle MacDonald sent the Penn State faithful into a frenzy after squaring the game with his first career collegiate goal in the 77th minute. Teammate Owen Griffith laid off a beautiful pass to MacDonald, who struck the ball into the top shelf from 10 yards away.

California bagged the opening goal in the 20th minute through Steve Birnbaum's header. Cal held a 15-11 edge in shots and a 5-1 advantage in shots on goal. Andrew Wolverton pushed away four California attempts on net.

MACK BRADY MEMORIAL GAME

Penn State men's soccer and the surrounding community celebrated the life and legacy of Mack Brady on Friday night. Brady passed away on Dec. 31, 2012 due to an unexpected blood infection at the age of eight. To honor his life and love for soccer (specifically goalkeeping), Mack's parents, Christian and Elizabeth Brady, created the "Mack Brady Memorial Soccer Fund." The fund is an endowment for Penn State goalkeepers to help in recruiting, equipment, scholarships and other needs.

BOB WARMING

Head Coach • Fourth Year
BEREA COLLEGE '75

PENN STATE RECORD 44-27-10 (.605)
OVERALL RECORD 427-207-74 (.655)

Appointed the 11th head coach in the history of the Penn State men's soccer program on May 24, 2010, Bob Warming has made an immediate impact in his first four seasons at the helm of the Nittany Lions. The veteran coach guided the team to the Big Ten Tournament championship game in 2010 and 2011, before winning a share of the regular season conference championship in 2012 and the outright title in 2013, earning a pair of Big Ten Coach of the Year honors for his efforts.

This season has been one of the more remarkable tales of the college soccer year. Picked fifth in the Big Ten preseason coaches' poll, the Nittany Lions rattled off the first five Big Ten victories to run away with the program's fifth conference title. Warming also helped guide three All-Big Ten First Team honorees including Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year Andrew Wolverton. Striker Jordan Tyler and defender Martin Seiler also earned top honors.

Following a pair of strong seasons to begin his career at PSU, Warming's 2012 squad accumulated a 3-1-2 conference record to capture the team's first Big Ten regular season championship in seven years. The Nittany Lions held opponents to just over one goal per game during the season, as they went unbeaten in their final four regular season conference contests.

The 2011 campaign presented a major milestone for Warming as he became the 31st NCAA Division I men's soccer head coach to capture 400 career victories after the Nittany Lions downed FIU, 1-0, in the team's fourth game of the season on Sept. 4. Penn State struggled through the Big Ten regular season, but hit its stride in the conference tournament, earning the distinction of being the first No. 7 seed to reach the title game.

The Nittany Lions switched roles from a high-powered offense in 2010 to a shutdown defense in 2011. The team allowed just 14 goals, the fewest since the 1977 squad surrendered 12 scores. Then a rookie, Wolverton set school records for the most shutouts in a season (12) and led the Big Ten in GAA (0.60) and save percentage (.821).

Warming led the Lions to 14 wins in 2011, the most by a PSU team since 2002, a Big Ten Tournament title game appearance and to the program's first NCAA postseason victory in five years.

Penn State boasted one of the nation's most prolific offenses in 2010, totaling 144 points (45 goals, 54 assists) in 23 games. Corey Hertzog posted the most productive season by a Nittany Lion in 55 years, recording an NCAA-leading 20 goals and 46 points. Matheus Braga led the nation and shattered the Big Ten single season record in assists, registering 17. Both players earned NSCAA second team All-American honors.

Also successful in the classroom, Penn State received the NSCAA Team Academic Achievement Award in 2010, earning the honor with a 3.07 team GPA.

Warming's three-plus decades as a head coach have been signified by distinction, achievement and success. The six-time finalist for National Coach of the Year holds a lofty place in the NCAA record book, ranking third all-time in Division I men's soccer with 426 victories, and second amongst active Division I head coaches. Warming is also one of only two active coaches in Division I to take two different programs to the College Cup.

Warming, whose distinguished career spans 35 years, came to Happy Valley from Creighton University, where he took over a previously dormant program and developed it into a conference and regional power and eventually a national title contender.

In 14 total years in Omaha, served in two different stints (1990-94, 2001-09), Warming, the winningest coach in program history, led the Bluejays to 190 victories, seven Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament championships, 11 NCAA Championship appearances, and the 2002 College Cup. His teams proved nearly unbeatable at home, compiling a 107-18-15 record in Omaha. In recognition of his dominance in league play, Warming, a three-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honoree, was named the MVC All-Centennial Team Coach in 2006.

An ardent believer in giving back through charitable works, Warming's 2009 Creighton squad won the community service award for performing over 1,500 hours of volunteer activities, including working on Habitat for Humanity projects, reading to elementary school students, and helping out at hospitals. Warming has also served as the honorary chairman of the Boy Scouts of America for Nebraska and as the honorary chairman of the Omaha Children's Crisis Center annual fund raiser.

Warming has not only built successful teams on the field, but also assisted with the design, fundraising, and construction management of three collegiate soccer stadiums, including, most recently, the $13 million, 6,000-seat, state-of-the-art Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium at Creighton. He and his winning teams helped fill the stands at Morrison Stadium, as Creighton led the MVC and ranked in the NCAA top 10 in attendance each of the previous seven seasons before arriving in Happy Valley.

In honor of significant contributions made to the athletic program at the university, Warming was inducted into the Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame in April 2011, becoming just the seventh head coach to earn the honor in its 43-year history.

In between his tenures at Creighton, Warming served as head coach at Saint Louis University, where he guided it to four Conference USA championships, three NCAA Championship berths and the 1997 College Cup. His Billiken teams also finished ranked in the top 20 in all four seasons.

Warming also previously held head coaching positions at Old Dominion (1996), Charlotte (1982-88), Berry College (1977-81), and Transylvania University (1976). His career coaching record stands at an impressive 426-207-74 (.655).

Warming has also produced numerous professional prospects, as at least one of his players has been selected in every MLS SuperDraft or supplemental draft. He has seen a total of 28 of his players drafted since the league's inception in 1996. Most recently, John Gallagher was selected with the 30th pick in the second round of the 2013 MLS Supplemental Draft. In 2011, Hertzog was selected by the New York Red Bulls with the No. 13 pick in the first round of the SuperDraft, while Drew Cost was a supplemental draft choice of Real Salt Lake.

A 1975 graduate of Berea College (Ky.), Warming was a four-sport varsity letterwinner, starring on the golf, swimming, tennis, and soccer teams. As a starting goalkeeper, he posted a 28-2-2 record. Warming also holds a master's of science degree in sport administration from Eastern Kentucky University.

Warming and his wife, Cindy, are parents to four children – Emily, Bess, and twins Grant and the late Audrey.
