THINGS TO KNOW

CANISIUS TO OPEN SEASON AT PENN STATE

The Canisius hockey team begins the 2021-22 season this weekend with a non-conference series at Big Ten foe Penn State. The two-game set at the Pegula Ice Center in State College, Pa., opens Friday with a 7 p.m. puck drop before the series finale takes place Saturday at 1 p.m.

SCOUTING CANISIUS

Canisius welcomes back 20 letterwinners from last season's squad that posted an 11-6-0 overall record highlighted by an 8-5-0 mark in Atlantic Hockey play. In the postseason, the Griffis advanced to the championship game of the AHA Tournament for the third time in program history, falling to AIC in the title game, 5-2.

Canisius brings back plenty of firepower from last season's squad that averaged 3.47 goals per game, with four of the team's top five scorers last year returning to the lineup. Junior Keaton Mastrodonato paced Canisius last season in all three major statistical categories with nine goals, nine assists and 18 points.

Senior linemate Mitchell Martan ranked second with 15 points (6g, 9a), while fellow forwards Lee Lapid (5g, 5a) and Simon Gravel (5g, 4a) were fourth and fifth on the team's scoring chart with 10 and nine points, respectively.

The tandem of Jacob Barczewski and Matt Ladd are back between the pipes for Canisius. Last year, the duo combined to post a .917 save percentage and a 2.66 goals against average in 1037 minutes of action.

CANISIUS VS. PENN STATE

The weekend series will serve as the fourth and fifth meetings between Canisius and Penn State. The teams first met on Oct. 10, 2015 at LECOM Harborcenter, with the Nittany Lions posting a 6-1 victory over the host Golden Griffins in downtown Buffalo. The following season, Canisius traveled to Happy Valley for a two-game series at the Pegula Ice Center, a series that Penn State swept by scores of 4-1 and 4-2.

CANISIUS ON OPENING WEEKEND

Since joining the Division I ranks in 1998-99, Canisius holds an all-time record of 14-24-4 in games played during the opening weekend of the regular season. The Griffis are 3-5-0 during the first weekend of play under fifth-year head coach Trevor Large, having split season-opening series against league foes Robert Morris (twice) and Holy Cross while also dropping a pair of non-conference games at North Dakota begin the 2019-20 campaign.

WHAT IS A GRIFFIN?

The Griffin is a mythical creature of supposed gigantic size that has the head, forelegs and wings of an eagle and the hindquarters, tail and ears of a lion. They are well known for their speed, ability to fly and having eyes like an eagle as well as the strength and courage of a lion.

Griffins have been known for centuries as symbols of strength and vigilance, have been called "The Hounds of Zeus" in Greek mythology and are said to have mastery of both the land and sky.

They are thought to be from India, where the natives of the land made their talons and claws into drinking cups because the talon of a Griffin was said to detect poison in a liquid. Griffins would find gold in the mountains and line their nests with it and as a result, were forced to become great guardians of the nests to keep the hunters away.

2020-21 SCORING BY CLASS

Class	Goals	Assists	Points
Freshmen	12	14	26

Juniors	19	22	41
Seniors	10	29	39
Totals	57	93	155

NUMBERS TO KNOW

1

The first goal has been an important one for the Griffis in recent years as they are a combined 39-18-5 since the start of the 2017-18 campaign when opening the scoring. Canisius was 7-2-0 last season when recording the game's first tally.

Sophomore forward Randy Hernandez ranked third nationally in freshman scoring during the 2020-21 season, compiling 25 points (11g, 14a) in 24 games during his rookie campaign at Robert Morris. Hernandez, the AHA Western Pod Rookie of the Year, tallied a point in 18 games played last season, with seven multi-point outings.

Canisius is 45-8-2 since the beginning of the 2016-17 season when scoring four or more goals in a contest. The Griffis were 7-1-0 in 2020-21 when putting four or more goals on the scoreboard, with its only loss under such circumstances coming in its season-opening series at Robert Morris.

The Griffis are nearly undefeated under fifth-year head coach Trevor Large when leading after 40 minutes, posting a 38-4-1 record during that timeframe. Canisius was a perfect 9-0-0 in 2020-21 when in front heading into the third period.

49

Canisius had a tendency of finding its scoring touch as the game progressed last season as it tallied 49 of its 59 goals after the first period in 2020-21. The Griffis were outscored by an 17-10 margin in the opening 20 minutes of play a season ago, but owned a commanding +20 goal differential over its opponents during the remaining 40 minutes of regulation and overtime (49-29).

JUNIOR GOALTENDER JACOB BARZEWSKI

Junior goaltender Jacob Barzewski is back between the pipes for the Griffis following a 2020-21 season that saw him garner All-AHA Western Pod First Team and AHA Western Pod Goaltending Trophy accolades after leading the league in save percentage (.928) and ranking third on the circuit in goals against average (2.25). Barzewski was the coaches' unanimous selection at the goaltender position for the 2021-22 Preseason All-AHA Team in September.

NAME TAGS NEEDED

The Golden Griffins bolstered their roster in the offseason with the addition of 10 newcomers. Seven of those 10 players came by way of the transfer portal: Alex Ambrosio (Lake Superior State), Daniel DiGrande (RPI), John Hawthorne (Northern Michigan), Randy Hernandez (Robert Morris), Joey Matthews (Dartmouth), Cory Thomas (Vermont) and Jake Witkowski (Boston University) while three skaters: Keegan Langefels (New Mexico Ice Wolves (NAHL), Alton McDermott (Oakville Blades (OJHL) and Matthew Vermaeten (Shreveport Mudbugs (NAHL), joined the group as true freshmen for the 2021-22 campaign.

CANISIUS TABBED SECOND IN AHA POLL

The Canisius hockey team was picked to finish second in the Atlantic Hockey Association Preseason Coaches' Poll, it was announced on Sept. 21.

Defending AHA regular season and tournament champion AIC was the favorite, earning nine first-place votes and 90 total points to claim the top spot. The Golden Griffins garnered one first-place selection and 72 total points to place second while Army (69) was third and RIT (64) was fourth. Sacred Heart was fifth with 63 points, while Mercyhurst and Niagara were tied for sixth with 50 points each. Bentley (35), Air Force (28) and Holy Cross (19) rounded out the poll.

AHC Preseason Coaches' Poll

1. AIC (9) - 90 points
2. Canisius - 72 points
3. Army - 69 points
4. RIT - 64 points
5. Sacred Heart - 63 points

- T-6. Niagara - 50 points
8. Bentley - 35 points
9. Air Force - 28 points
10. Holy Cross - 19 points

BARCZEWSKI, HERNANDEZ NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AHA

Junior goaltender Jacob Barczewski and sophomore forward Randy Hernandez were both recognized during the preseason as they were named to the Preseason All-AHA Team.

Barczewski appeared in 11 games and made 10 starts between the pipes for Canisius during the pandemic-shortened 2020-21 campaign, posting a 2.30 goals against average and .926 save percentage. During the regular season, he was the league leader in save percentage (.928) and ranked third in the AHA in goals against average (2.25).

Hernandez enters his first season with the Griffis after transferring from Robert Morris following his freshman season. The AHA Western Pod Rookie of the Year, Hernandez was also an All-AHA Western Pod Second Team and AHA Western Pod All-Rookie Team selection after appearing in 24 games with the Colonials in 2020-21.

LAPID PUTTING UP POINTS MEANS GOOD THINGS FOR CANISIUS

When junior forward Lee Lapid finds his way onto the scoresheet, it's usually a good sign for the Griffis. Last season, Canisius compiled a 10-3-3 overall record when Lapid tallied a point. The Griffis posted a 6-2-3 ledger when the Thornhill, Ontario, native scored a goal and a 5-1-3 mark when Lapid registered an assist. This season, Canisius is a perfect 7-0-0 when Lapid has recorded a point.

EUROPEAN INFLUENCE ON 2021-22 ROSTER

For the second consecutive season, Canisius will have a player on its roster who hails from outside of North America. Sophomore forward Niclas Puikkonen (Stockholm, Sweden) is one of just three European-born players to ever wear the Blue and Gold. The first European student-athlete for the Griffis was Carl Larsson (Anderstorp, Sweden), who played for three seasons with the program (2011-14). Forward Jami Virtanen (Pori, Finland) was a member of the program for the 2020-21 campaign, joining Puikkonen on the Canisius for one season before returning home to play professionally.

YOUTH BEHIND THE BENCH

Although Canisius head coach Trevor Large is certainly a veteran when it comes to coaching experience, he is still considered young by college hockey head coaching standards. According to research conducted by College Hockey Inc., Large is the sixth youngest head coach in the NCAA Division I ranks this season at 41 years old. LIU head coach Brett Riley is the youngest head coach as he leads the Sharks into their second season of competition at just 31 years of age. Denver's David Carle is the second youngest (31), followed by Alaska Fairbanks Erik Largen (35). Dartmouth second-year head coach Reid Cashman is 38 while Omaha bench boss Mike Gabinet is 40.

WHAT'S IN A NUMBER?

To say that Canisius wears some of the most unique numbers in all of college hockey would be an understatement. The Griff's are one of only eight teams in college hockey (Air Force, Arizona State, Harvard, Michigan, Ohio State, Quinnipiac and UConn) to have a player wearing a jersey number of 60 or higher this season.

Of those eight teams, Canisius has the most players wearing a jersey numbered 70 or higher with eight, double the total of the next closest team, Michigan, who has four such players.

The Griff's are also only one of two teams to have multiple players wearing a jersey numbered in the 90's (Michigan) and the only program with multiple players wearing a number in the 80's.

Junior defenseman Hudson Lambert's number 94 is tied for the second highest number being worn in all of Division I this season, with only Quinnipiac forward Ty Smilanic's and Harvard forward Wyllum Deveaux's number 96 being higher.

ALBERNI VALLEY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Canisius hockey team roster has quite a few familiar faces to those who follow the BCHL's Alberni Valley Bulldogs as forwards Keaton Mastodonato, Ryan Miotto and Jake Witkowski, along with goaltender John Hawthorne, are all alumni of the junior program.

Witkowski and Mastrodonato played together on the squad during the 2016-17 season before Witkowski departed to begin his collegiate career at Boston University. Hawthorne joined Mastrodonato in Alberni Valley for the 2017-18 campaign while Miotto made his way to the club for the 2018-19 season.

The trio thrived during their one season together, with Miotto leading the squad in scoring with 57 points. Mastodonato, who played wing on Miotto's line, ranked second on the squad with 52 points. Hawthorne started 46 of the team's 57 games played that season, posting a 2.95 goals against average and a .918 save percentage between the pipes.

THE BROOKS BANDITS RIDE AGAIN

The Alberni Valley quartet are not the only set of former junior teammates on the Canisius roster as forwards Simon Gravel and Randy Hernandez were linemates with the AJHL's Brooks Bandits, helping the squad to Enerflex Cup, Doyle Cup and National Junior A Championship titles during the 2018-19 campaign.

BARCZEWSKI GETS OFFENSIVE

Goaltender Jacob Barczewski truly contributed on both ends of the ice last season as he has recorded a pair of assists during the 2020-21 campaign. Barczewski picked up his first collegiate point with a helper on Keaton Mastrodonato's empty-net tally in the Griff's 5-2 victory to open the 2020-21 season at Robert Morris on Nov. 27. He added a second helper on classmate David Melaragni's power-play tally at Niagara on Feb. 26. Barczewski was the first Canisius netminder to notch multiple assists in a season since Dan Morrison had two helpers during the 2009-10 season.

HAAR HAS MEMORABLE DEBUT

Sophomore forward Cooper Haar had a solid beginning to his collegiate career last season, dishing out two assists in Canisius' season-opening win versus Robert Morris on Nov. 27, 2020. With his multi-assist effort, Haar became the first Griff's newcomer to tally two or more points in their first game with the Blue and Gold since defenseman Ben Danford finished with a pair of helpers in a 5-3 win at Western Michigan on Oct. 8, 2010.

POGUE NAMED TEAM CAPTAIN; TRIO TABBED ALTERNATES

Head coach Trevor Large announced on Sept. 13 that senior forward J.D. Pogue will serve as team captain for the 2021-22 season.

In addition, graduate student Austin Alger and juniors David Melaragni and Keaton Mastrodonato will serve as alternate captains for the campaign.

A native of Montreal, Que., Pogue has appeared in 82 games during his first three seasons with the program, recording five goals and eight assists. As a junior, Pogue was named to the All-Tournament Team at the Atlantic Hockey Association Championship after appearing in 13 games, establishing career highs in both goals (5) and assists (3).

Pogue scored the most important goal of the 2020-21 season when he found the back of the net in overtime of the Griff's 4-3 victory over nationally-ranked Army in the semifinals of the AHA Tournament. He also netted the game-winning goal in the front half of a weekend sweep of RIT in February.

PAILLE PROMOTED TO FULL-TIME ASSISTANT COACH

Head coach Trevor Large announced the promotion of staff member Daniel Paille to full-time assistant coach on Aug. 2.

A 2002 first-round draft pick of the Buffalo Sabres and a member of the 2011 Boston Bruins Stanley Cup Championship squad, Paille spent the previous two seasons as a volunteer assistant coach with the Golden Griffins.

In his first two seasons on the Canisius staff, Paille has aided in the development of the team's forward group while also assisting with the team's penalty kill unit. He has played a key role in the development of a forward group that saw multiple career highs set during the pandemic-shortened 2020-21 season as well as a penalty kill that ranked second in Atlantic Hockey last season (.833).

Selected 20th overall by the Buffalo Sabres in the 2002 National Hockey League Entry Draft, Paille spent 11 seasons in the NHL, amassing 85 goals and 87 assists in 582 regular-season contests split between the Sabres, Bruins and New York Rangers. He chipped in 19 points (9g, 10a) in 75 postseason games, helping the Bruins capture the Stanley Cup in 2011 and make a finals appearance in 2013.

MOBLEY NAMED ASSISTANT COACH

Head coach Trevor Large announced the addition of Max Mobley to his staff as an assistant coach on July 8.

Mobley makes his way to Main Street after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Atlantic Hockey Association foe Holy Cross.

In his time with the Crusaders, Mobley served as the program's recruiting coordinator and also headed the skills development program for the team's forwards. He aided in the development of All-AHA Eastern Pod Second Team selection Matt Slick and was also influential in the maturation of a forward group that saw three players record double-digit goals during the 2019-20 campaign.

Before his stint at Holy Cross, Mobley spent the 2018-19 season as a volunteer coach at Notre Dame. Prior to his time in South Bend, Mobley worked for four seasons at Hamilton College (2014-18) as an assistant coach. He began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater, St. Lawrence University, during the 2013-14 season. A four-year letterwinner with the Saints from 2008-12, Mobley earned the ECAC Student-Athlete award three times during his collegiate career (2010-2012). He went on to play professionally in the ECHL and SPHL after graduating with a history degree from St. Lawrence in 2012.

CANISIUS PLACES 18 ON AHCA ALL-AMERICAN SCHOLAR LIST

A program-record 18 Canisius hockey student-athletes were recognized for their efforts in the classroom as the American Hockey Coaches Association (AHCA) announced its "Krampade All-American Scholars" for the 2020-21 season in July.

Due to the effects of Covid-19, the AHCA adopted revised criteria for this year's honorees. To qualify, a student-athlete must have attained a 3.6 GPA for each semester, regardless of whether the school's hockey team was able to play this season or not.

David Baskerville (graduated), Lee Lapid and Tucker Weppner (graduated) were all recognized for the third time in their respective careers while Lincoln Erne, Simon Gravel and Ryan Miotto were two-time honorees. Austin Alger, Jackson Decker, Cooper Haar, Max Kouznetsov, Matt Long, Jack Lyons, Keaton Mastrodonato, David Melaragni, Kevin Obsuth, Jami Virtanen, Blake Wareham and Connor Zilisch were all first-time selections.

Trevor Large, a 14-year coaching veteran in Atlantic Hockey, is in his fourth season as the head coach of the Golden Griffins hockey program after being promoted to the position in April 2017.

The seventh head coach in school history, and the fourth at the Division I level, Large took over the reins of the Canisius program after serving as an assistant on former head coach Dave Smith's staff for three seasons.

During his time on Main Street, Large has been instrumental in the program's ascension within the Atlantic Hockey Association, helping guide the squad to three appearances in the AHA Tournament semifinals as well as the program's first regular season title in 2016-17.

Individually, Canisius has also thrived over the past six seasons, with 11 players earning a total of 16 all-conference accolades. Large was influential in the arrival of graduate transfer Charles Williams, who became the program's first All-American selection and first finalist for both the Hobey Baker and Mike Richter Awards during the 2016-17 campaign.

In his first season as head coach, Large guided Canisius to a 19-17-2 overall record and a second-place finish in Atlantic Hockey with a 17-11 mark in conference play.

Forward Dylan McLaughlin was named a Top 10 Finalist for the Hobey Baker Award, giving Canisius a candidate for the most prestigious award in college hockey for a second consecutive season. McLaughlin was also selected as the Atlantic Hockey Player of the Year, the second Griff to earn the league's top honor in as many seasons and third in program history.

Defenseman Cameron Heath joined McLaughlin on the All-AHC First Team while forward Ryan Schmelzer was an All-AHC Third Team selection. Schmelzer was also tabbed a Senior CLASS Award All American First Team selection, becoming just the fourth Canisius player to earn the distinction.

The 2018-19 season saw the Griffs become the first Atlantic Hockey school to defeat perennial power North Dakota as it swept the Fighting Hawks in a non-conference series at Harborcenter. Canisius also posted victories against NCAA Tournament participants Clarkson and AIC and recorded a tie at nationally-ranked Union.

McLaughlin finished was named an All-Atlantic Hockey First Team selection for the second consecutive season and was named the program's first recipient of the league's Individual Sportsmanship Award.

In 2019-20, Large was at the helm of one of the youngest teams in the nation, with 10 first-year players on the roster. He guided the squad to double-digit victories for the 13th consecutive season. Seniors Matt Hoover, Nick Hutchison and Matt Stief all garnered All-Atlantic Hockey honors after all three posted career highs in points, giving the Griffs three all-league selections for the second time in the last four seasons.

Prior to joining Smith's staff at Canisius, Large spent six seasons at Army West Point (2008-14), serving as the program's assistant coach and recruiting coordinator under head coach Brian Riley. During his time with the Black Knights, Large worked with all facets of the program – forwards, defensemen, power play and penalty kill – helping coach six all-conference performers and three selections to the league's all-rookie team. He also served as the team's video coordinator.

Large began his coaching career as an assistant at American International College (2006-08) for long-time head coach Gary Wright. With the Yellow Jackets, Large helped coach a pair of all-conference honorees. He recruited the program's first players from the prestigious United States Hockey League, as well as a three-time Atlantic Hockey Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

A four-year letterwinner at Ferris State (2000-04), Large totaled 19 goals and 14 assists in 129 career games under the guidance of veteran head coach Bob Daniels. The team's Most Improved Player in 2001, he helped the Bulldogs capture the 2003 CCHA regular-season championship and first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance.

A native of Brampton, Ontario, Large earned his bachelor's degree in computer information systems from Ferris State in 2004 and his MBA from AIC in 2008.

Large and his wife, Molly, have one son, Broderick, and one daughter, Harper.
