THE GAME VS. YOUNGSTOWN STATE: Penn State and YSU have never met. The Lions are 3-3 all-time vs. Horizon League teams. Penn State's students are on Thanksgiving break with no classes until Nov. 28. Penn State is 3-0 at home on the year and 32-4 at home vs. non-conference teams the last five seasons, with losses coming to Temple (2008), Virginia Tech (2009), Maryland (2010) and Maine (2010). The Lions are in the midst of a stretch of 4-of-5 games away from home with Wednesday's contest being the lone home game until Dec. 4

SHOOTING NUMBERS: Penn State equaled its best shooting half of the season hitting 52.2 percent in the second stanza vs. South Florida, including 6-of-11 for Tim Frazier, to pull out the win. The Lions are shooting 45.8 percent from the field and 42 percent from three in the second half of games this season, led by Tim Frazier (18-34; 52.9%) and Trey Lewis (10-17; 58.8%). The Lions are struggling in the first half of games hitting just 28.9 percent, 19 percent from three, on the season, including 16.2 percent in the first half in a loss to Kentucky and 22.7 percent vs. South Florida. Jon Graham (8-15; 53.3%) and Frazier (16-38; 42.1%) are the only Lions hitting better than 30 percent in the first half. Frazier is shooting 47.2 percent on the year. The only other Lion hitting at better than 40 percent is Sasa Borovnjak (42.1%).

FRAZIER NAMED TO TIP-OFF TOURNAMENT ALL-TOURNEY TEAM: Tim Frazier averaged 21.0 ppg, 6.7 apg and 5.8 rpg while posting three 20-point games, two career-high points totals, back-to-back doubles and two career-best assist totals (10) in four games while leading the Lions in scoring in every game to earn All-Tournament Team honors in the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-off Tournament the week of Nov. 14-20. Frazier logged a then career-high 26 points to go with 10 assists in a win over Long Island, his second-straight 20 & 10 double-double, before bettering his scoring mark with 27 points, 19 in the second half, in a come-from behind win over South Florida. Penn State went 3-1 in the tournament, playing in its first pre-season tournament since the 2009 Charleston Classic. The Lions opened play with victories over Radford and Long Island at home before advancing to the Mohegan Sun Arena in Connecticut where they fell to No. 2 Kentucky but bounced back to down South Florida. Penn State holds a 67-83 all-time record in in-season tournaments, claiming 10 titles and 11 second-place finishes.

FRAZIER IN THE BIG TEN RANKINGS: Junior guard Tim Frazier ranks fourth in the Big Ten in scoring (20.0), first in assists (6.6) and fourth in steals (2.6). He has scored in doubledigits in six straight games, dating to last season, and in seven of his last eight.

MARSHALL PROVIDES SPARK: Jermaine Marshall came off the bench to post eight first half points on his way to a season-best 14 in Penn State's victory over South Florida. Marshall had a pair of driving three-point plays in the first half to give Penn State its first lead. He hit a pair of second-half threes to finish 5-of-8 from the floor and 2-of-5 from three while adding three steals a pair of rebounds and a block. The sophomore returned to practice on Nov. 10 and saw action in his first game of the season in Penn State's second contest vs. Radford on Nov. 14. Marshall was suspended prior to the start of pre-season practice due to a violation of team rules and had not participated in any practices or team functions prior to Nov. 10

TICKETS: Nittany Lion Basketball single-game tickets can be purchased by calling 1-800-NIT-TANY, visiting GoPSUsports.com or through Ticketmaster. Single-game tickets are $18 for the lower bowl and $15 for upper level tickets for adults. Youth tickets (18 and under) are $7 for the lower bowl and $5 for upper level seating, while Penn State student tickets (University Park or branch campus) are $5.

LAST TIME OUT

PENN STATE'S LAST GAME SUMMARY

Penn State 53, South Florida 49 Nov. 20, Uncasville, Conn.

Trailing 43-38 with 5:07 to play, Penn State employed a trapping 1-2-2 press to create a pair of turnovers and reel of a 12-1 run to seize a 50-44 lead after a Billy Oliver top of the key three with 3:03 left. USF got back within three, 50-47, with 1:47 to go but would get no closer. Tim Frazier led Penn State with a career-high 27 points, 19 in the second half. Jermaine Marshall sparked PSU with eight first half points on his way to 14. The Lions shot 52 percent in the second half after both teams struggled at less than 30 percent shooting in the first. Penn State logged 12 steals, led by three each from Frazier and Marshall, and caused 19 USF turnovers. Victor Rudd, Jr. entered the game leading USF averaging 16.5 ppg but was held to just four on 2-of-10 shooting.

OUTLET PASSES

- Penn State is in the midst of a stretch of 4-of-5 games on the road. Wednesday's match-up with YSU will be the lone home game in that stretch.
- Tim Frazier is third in the Big Ten in scoring (20.0), first in assists (6.6), and fourth in steals (2.6). Frazier led Penn State last season with 35 steals and 173 assists. He stands 14th all-time at Penn State in career assists, 8 assists shy of 13th place.
- Frazier has scored in double-digits in every game this season and in six straight and seven of his last eight dating to last year.
- Jermaine Marshall provided a big spark in the Lions win over USF posting 8 first half points before finishing with 14 pts and three steals on 5-of-9 shooting. After a pre-season suspension, he returned to practice Nov. 10 and suited up and saw action in his first game on Nov. 14.
- Penn State's 38-point loss to Kentucky on Saturday was its worst since falling by 43 at Illinois in 2004 to a future Final Four team led by future NBA All-Star Deron Williams.
- Penn State's 26.9% shooting vs Kentucky was its lowest since hitting 20.6% in a loss to Maryland at the BJC last December.
- Penn State posted its fourth 3-0 start in the last 12 years and eighth since joining the Big Ten in 1993. The Lions have reached the post-season following each of their previous 3-0 starts since joining the Big Ten.
- Frazier posted his second-straight double-double with a career-best 26 points and career-best equaling 10 assists in Penn State's win over LIU. He is the first PSU player to post back-to-back doubledoubles since Geary Claxton posted three straight in January of 2008. Frazier now has three career double-doubles, all coming with 10 assists.
- Freshman Trey Lewis led the Lions with 17 points on 3-of-6 from three in his collegiate debut.
- Senior Cam Woodyard posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4) in the season opener.
- Penn State logged 15 steals and caused 26 turnovers in the season opener, the most steals for a PSU team since 2001 and the most turnovers by a PSU opponent since 2005. Tim Frazier (5) and Cam Wooyard (4) both posted career highs in steals.
- Penn State has a 160-74 record in games vs. teams from outsided of the Big Ten Conference since joining the Big Ten in the 1992-93 season.
- Patrick Chambers, 40, is the youngest coach in the Big Ten edging out Purdue's Matt Painter by about three months. Both were born in 1970 -Painter on Aug. 27 and Chambers on Dec. 13.

SCOUTING YSU: The Penguins are unbeaten at 3-0 having won at Samford (76-69) and downed Notre Dame College (80-62) and UC-Riverside (53-49 OT) at home. Sophomore guard Kendrick Perry leads YSU posting 18.7 ppg. Junior 6-7 forward Damian Eargle posts 13.3 ppg and 9.0 rpg. Three YSU players posted double-digit boards in their last win over UC-Riverside led by DuShawn Brooks' 14. Ashen Ward led YSU with 15 points in that game. YSU is shooting 35.4 percent from the floor while posting 69.7 ppg. YSU opponents have hit 38.7 percent. The Penguins posted a 9-21 record last year, going 2-16 in the Horizon League.

BOARDIN': Penn State leads the Big Ten posting 15.2 offensive rebounds per game, nearly two more than second place lowa (13.8). Penn State had a season-high 18 offensive rebounds vs. Kentucky.

TRAVIS & GLOVER SHINE IN SECOND HALF

VS UK: Penn State struggled in the game, but saw two newcomers shine in the second half of the Lions' loss to Kentucky on Saturday. Freshman Ross Travis and sophomore transfer Matt Glover scored all of their career high point totals in the second half vs. Kentucky. Glover hit his first three three-point attempts of the second half before finishing 3-of-4 from three for nine points in 21 minutes. Ross Travis hit a pair of threes in the second half on his way to a career-best 10 points and eight rebounds to lead the Lions on the boards.

3-0 START: Penn State posted a 3-0 start for the second-straight year, but for just the fourth time in the last 12 years and eighth since joining the Big Ten conference in 1993. The Lions have reached the post season every year they have started a season 3-0 since joining the Big Ten including 2011 (NCAA), 2009 (NIT title), 2006 (NIT) and 2000 (NIT) since 2000. Penn State began last season with a 4-0 start

FRAZIER POSTS BACK-TO-BACK DOUBLE-

DOUBLES: Junior guard Tim Frazier posted back-to-back double-doubles, 20-point games and career-best assist totals in two outings vs. Radford and LIU. He was the first PSU player to post back-to-back double-doubles since Geary Claxton posted three straight in January of 2008. Frazier was spectacular in the Lions' win over Long Island posting a then career-high 26 points on 9-of-18 shooting and logging a career-best 10 assists for the second-straight game. Frazier went for 20 points, 10 assists, six rebounds and three steals in the Lions previous victory vs. Radford.

NITTANY LIONSDID YOU KNOW?

- Three Nittany Llons own a 3.2 GPA or better (Tim Frazier, Billy Oliver & Sasa Borovnjak)
- Tim Frazier owns a team-best 34-inch vertical
- Nittany Lions Billy Oliver and Trey Lewis are both accomplished piano players. Oliver is partial to Billy Joel tunes while Lewis is partial to jazz and classical.
- Jon Graham is the son of Maryland great and former Philadelphia 76er, Ernest Graham.
- Tim Frazier's sister, Krystal, was an All-Conference USA selection in basketball at Rice.
- Matt Glover is the fifth junior college player to play for Penn State in the last decade.
- Sasa Borovnjak's father, Zoran, played professionally in Europe and his brother, Dejan, currently plays professionally in Italy

FIVE GAMES IN NINE DAYS TO START: Penn State got the 2011-12 season started with a flurry of games, plahing its first five games of the season in nine days, including four as part of the Basketball Hall of Fame Tip-Off Tournament. Penn State faced two teams (Long Island and Kentucky) that played in the 2011 NCAA Tournament during that stretch.

PENN STATE VS. THE NON-CON: Penn State posted a 7-5 record vs. non-conference teams last year, including a 66-64 loss to Temple in the NCAA Tournament. Penn State has a 160-74 record in games vs. teams from outsided of the Big Ten Conference since joining the Big Ten in the 1992-93 season. The Lions posted a best-ever 16-2 record vs. non-conference teams during the 2008-09 season, which included a run to the 2009 NIT title.

FRAZIER LOOKING TO SCORE/3RD IN BIG

TEN: Tim Frazier finished fifth in the Big Ten last year averaging 5.1 asssists per game while taking just 4.8 shot attempts per contest to average 6.3 ppg. Frazier averaged just 4.6 shots per game while playing in every one of Penn State's 65 games over his first two seasons. That changed in his junior campaign as the previously pass-first point-guard has been looked toward as the Lions' most potent scoring option. Frazier currently stands 3RD the Big Ten scoring 20.0 ppg and posting three 20-point games (4 career) while leading the Lions in scoring in every game. Frazier is averaging 14.4 shots and 6.8 field goals made per game while shooting a team-best 47.2 percent thus far on the season. He showed glimpses of his scoring ability in the Llons' run to the 2011 NCAA Tournament, including posting a career-high 22 points on a career most nine field goals and 13 field goal attempts vs. Michigan State in a Big Ten Tournament semifinal victory. Frazier followed that up with 15 points vs. Temple in the Lions' NCAA Tournament loss to the Owls.

STEALING: Penn State posted 15 steals in its season opening win vs. Hartford, the most for a Lion team since logging 18 in a 2001 NCAA Tournament victory over North Carolina. Penn State forced Hartford into 26 turnovers, the second most-ever in the Bryce Jordan Center and the most since Nicholls State had 27 in 2005. Tim Frazier (5) and Cammeron Woodyard (4) both posted career highs in steals to lead six Lions who logged a steal.

FRAZIER GOES FOR 20 & 10: Junior guard Tim Frazier posted his second career double-double in the Lions' victory over Radford (11/14) as he logged his second career 20-point game and equaled a career high assist total leading the team with 20 points and 10 assists and adding six rebounds and three steals. Frazier equaled his career-best 10 assists posted at Northwestern last year, also his first double-double. The 6-1, guard hit 9-0-14 from the floor. Frazier scored 11 of the Lions' final 19 points in the first half and assisted for two others as Penn State went from trailing 10-11 to a 29-20 halftime lead.

LEWIS LEADS TEAM IN DEBUT: Freshman Trey Lewis, the runner-up for Ohio's "Mr. Basketball" award in 2011, was outstanding in his first collegiate game leading Penn State to a season-opening victory with a team-high 17 points on 3-of-6 from three. Lewis also added four assists, two boards and two steals in the game in 31 minutes of action after starting the contest. Lewis scored 14 of his 17 points in the second half as Penn State pushed a 10-point halftime lead to as much as 26 and junior guard Tim Frazier spent much of the half on the bench with four fouls. Lewis scored 10-straight points hitting a pair of threes and two lay-ups beginning midway through the half to push Penn State's lead to 18. Lewis finished 7-of-13 from the floor.

BIG TEN COACHES TELECONFERENCES

WEEKLY: Monday's 10 a.m. - 11:50 a.m ET Coach Chambers @ 10:40 a.m. (ET)

Call In#: 1-800-762-8779.

Weekly passcode e-mailed each Sunday. Calls are available for play-back for 24 hours following each call.

To access the play-back, dial: 1-800-406-7325; PASSCODE: 121473# SENIOR SUCCESS: Penn State's lone senior, Cammeron Woodyard, spent his first three seasons playing an average of just 8.7 minutes per game (including a high of 10. 4 mpg last year) and never averaged more than the 2.2 ppg he posted in 24 contests as a freshman. He showed that will all change this year when he posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4) in 27 minutes of action off the bench in Penn State's season opening victory over Hartford. This despite missing the first two weeks of practice after having minor surgery on his left knee. Woodyard hit 4-of-7 from three in the contest and tied for the team lead in rebounding. He has led Penn State in rebounding in three games this season, posting a career-best equaling seven on each occasion, and currently leads the team posting 5.8 rpg while ranking third in scoring at 6.8 ppg.

OLIVER TWIST: After missing his first two seasons as a Nittany Lion due to concussions and chronic exercise induced headaches and taking a total of 76 shots last year, his first full healthy season, Billy Oliver steps into a much more integral offensive role in his junior campaign and fourth season in the program. That was clearly evident in the Lions' exhibition game win as Oliver hit 4-of-8 from three and 6-of-11 from the floor to score 16 points. He hit two clutch threes late in the second half to finish with nine points and a career-high 10 rebounds in PSU's win over LIU (11/16) and made a big three to give the Lions a 50-44 lead with 3:00 to play vs. USF (11/20). Oliver entered the season as a career 23.9 percent shooter from three having hit 11-of-46 career three-point attempts. However, his confidence soared during off-season and pre-season practices spent getting numerous shot opportunities and constant encouragement to shoot from the coaching staff. Oliver posted a career-best 10 points on six shots in the Lions' season-opening win vs. Lehigh last year, but only reached that career-high shot total twice more the rest of the year.

CHAMBERS WINS PENN STATE DEBUT: Patrick Chambers won the first season opener of his career in his Penn State debut as the Lions downed Hartford 70-55 on Nov. 12. The 12th head coach in Penn State history, Chambers became just the second of the last six Nittany Lion coaches to win his Penn State debut joining Jerry Dunn (1996) and Bruce Parkhill (1983). Coaches Ed DeChellis (2003), Dick Harter (1978) and John Bach (1968) all fell in their debuts. Eight of Penn State's 12 head coaches have won their debut, including the Lions' first coach Burke Hermann in 1916. Chambers had been 0-2 in season opening games — having lost a pair of road season opening contests in his two seasons as head coach at Boston University.

20th BIG TEN SEASON: Penn State will open its 20th season of Big Ten Conference play with a pair of road games at Michigan (Dec. 29) and at Northwestern (Jan. 1). It marks the second straight season Penn State will open the Big Ten with a pair of road games (winning at Indiana and falling at Michigan last year) and the third straight season opening the Big Ten with a road game (falling at Minnesota in 2009-10). Penn State posted a 9-9 mark during

CHAMBERS' FORMER BU TEAM PICKED TO

WIN AMERICA EAST: The America East Conference coaches voted Boston University as the favorite to repeat as league champion in 2011-12 with six of eight possible first-place votes and 62 points in a pre-season poll. Patrick Chambers led BU to a 21-14 record last season as the Terriers captured their first league title and made their first NCAA appearance since 2002.

NINE MAN ROTATION: Patrick Chambers has been playing a nine-man rotation in Penn State's first five games with nine Lions averaging 16.0 minutes per game or better on the season.

the Big Ten regular season last year to finish in a tie for fourth place. The nine wins marked the fifth time Penn State posted a .500 or better record in Big Ten play and tied for Penn State's third best Big Ten record ever. It marked the second time in the last three seasons Penn State finished fourth in the Big Ten regular season. Penn State's best Big Ten finish came in 1996 as the Lions went 12-6 to finish second in the conference.

CHAMBERS ERA BEGINS: Patrick Chambers was introduced as the 12th head coach in Nittany Lion basketball history on Monday, June 6, shortly after the departure of Penn State alumnus and eight-year head coach Ed DeChellis for the Navy head job in late May. Chambers introduction took place in front of more than 300 fans and supporters described a "less an introduction than a passionate call to arms," by local media. Chambers wasted little time connecting with the Penn State fan base far and wide. He ordered a pair of golf carts and began making spur-of-the-moment trips around the Penn State campus distributing t-shirts and his infectious energy. He visited amusement parks, pep rallies, student groups, classes, threw out the first pitch for the State College Spikes and even donned a Penn State football jersey and helmet to fire up the famed "Paternoville" student campout just prior to the clash of Joe Paterno's football team with Alabama. He was seemingly everywhere in his first four months on the job, most importantly the recruiting trail, and showed no signs of slowing down.

CLIMBING CAREER CHARTS: Tim Frazier's back-to-back games with 10 assists vs. Radford and Long Island moved him into 14th all-time in Penn State history. He passed Mike Walker's mark of 258 (2005-08) and Mike Lang (267, 1980-83) to move into 14th place. He is on pace to rank among the top 10 all-time in assists at Penn State by the end of his junior season.

STILL DISHIN': Despite a new emphasis on scoring, Tim Frazier posted career-best equaling 10 assist outings in Penn State's victories over Radford (11/14) and Long Island (11/16) and leads the Big Ten posting 6.6 apg. He has led Penn State in assists in each of the first five games. Entering the season, he ranked third among Big Ten returners in assists after posting an average of 5.1 per game last year. Frazier's 173 assists last year rank as the fifth best season mark in Penn State history and FRAZIER & OLIVER LEAD LIONS' EXHIBITION WIN: Juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver paced the Nittany Lions with 19 and 16 points, respectively, in Penn State's 64-47 exhibition game victory over Slippery Rock last Saturday. However, what first-year head coach Patrick Chambers was more concerned with was the Lions' hustle and energy and he was pleased to see his Nittany Lions record 18 charted dives in the game. The Lions recorded 13 of those 18 dives in the second half as Penn State picked up the defensive intensity. Penn State recorded 13 steals in the game and caused 25 Slippery Rock turnovers helping the Lions pull-away to as much as a 21-point second half lead despite shooting just 40 percent from the floor and 7-of-26 from three. The Lions scored 24 points off turnovers, out-scored SRU 16-0 on second chance points, and got 18 more field goal attempts (57-39) in the game. Frazier added a team-high seven assists and six rebounds to his point total. Oliver hit 4-of-8 from three. Freshman guard Trey Lewis added 10 points, while fellow freshman Ross Travis led the team with eight rebounds and numerous hustle plays.

FRAZIER STEPS INTO LEADERSHIP ROLE: Junior guard Tim Frazier took his game to a higher level in Penn State's 2011 run to the NCAA Tournament as he averaged 10.0 ppg, 5.9 apg and 4.6 rgp over the final 11 games, including a career-best 22-point, eight-rebound, six-assist effort in the Lions' Big Ten Tournament semifinal win over Michigan State. With the graduation of four senior starters, Frazier entered the season the most experienced Nittany Lion having played in every game over the previous two seasons and started 43.

CAPTAINS: Penn State named senior Cammeron Woodyard and juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver captains at the beginning of pre-season practice.

WOODYARD RETURNS TO ACTION: Cammeron Woodyard was sidelined for four weeks after undergoing arthroscopic surgery to clean up loose material in his left knee on Oct. 3. Woodyard returned to full participation in Penn State practices on Monday, Oct. 31. He posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4) in Penn State's opener.

CHAMBERS' FIRST TEAM: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers will look to mesh seven Nittany Lion newcomers who could see action this year (including five true freshmen, a transfer and a redshirt freshman) with seven returners, five of which have previously seen action in a Penn State uniform. Just four returning players (Tim Frazier, Billy Oliver, Cammeron Woodyard and Jermaine Marshall) saw action last year. Redshirt sophomore Sasa Borovnjak will return after missing last year with a torn ACL. Penn State will look to replace nearly 80 percent of its scoring and 70 percent of its rebounding lost when five seniors graduated from a team that went 19-15 last year and reached the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2001. Frazier leads the returners having started 43 career games and played in every game the last two years. Frazier averaged 6.3 points and 3.9 rebounds per game last year and ranked fourth in the Big Ten with 5.1 assists per game. Frazier was big in Penn State's run to the 2011 Big Ten Tournament championship game and NCAA Tournament as he averaged 10 points, 5.9 assists and 4.6 rebounds per game over the final 11 games of 2010-11.

"HOOPS MADNESS" ROCKS REC HALL: It was a a fabulous night in Rec Hall on Wednesday, Nov. 2 when the Nittany Lion and Lady Lion basketball teams hosted "Hoops Madness" with a special performance by top selling rap artist Fabolous. The Brooklyn-born Fabolous has twice been nominated for a Grammy and has sold more than three million albums with numerous chart topping hits since his debut release in 2001. The venerable former home of Penn State basketball once again shook with hoops hysteria as a lareg crowd turned out to see New Nittany Lion coach Patrick Chambers and the 2011-12 Nittany Lions and fifth-year Lady Lion coach Coquese Washington and a 2011-12 Lady Lion teams introduced. Fans were treated to numerous contests, highlight videos, a slam-dunk contest and one fan in attendance was given a chance to make a half court shot to win $10,000. Nittany Lion guard Tim Frazier and Lady Lion Maggie Lucas helped instruct the contestant and made back-to-back half court shots on their first attempts to electrify the crowd.

CHAMBERS HITS THE GROUND RUNNING: Coach Chambers wasted no time in getting to know his first Penn State team as he logged 10,500 miles in his first eight days on the job traveling from coast-to-coast to visit current Penn State players and incoming freshmen and their families. Chambers traveled from Massachusetts to California, Minnesota to Texas as he met with every player except Sasa Borovnjak who was at home in Serbia.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. The Nittany Lions achieved that goal in their exhibition game recording 18 "dives," 13 of which came in the second half. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor.

BJC GETS NEW SCOREBOARD: Penn State partnered with ANC Sports Enterprises to place a new state-of-the-art center hung scoreboard in the Bryce Jordan Center. The board, weighing approximately 22,000 pounds, features high-definition quality visuals across approximately half a million pixels. The new scoreboard, which was installed in October, features four Mitsubishi Electric 10mm Diamond Vision video screens each measuring approximately 12' high x 16' wide and two 16mm Diamond Vision ribbon displays, one on top of the video screens and one at the bottom of the structure. The new center-hung system will include over 1100 square feet of dynamic video capabilities which will provide real-time statistics, team logos, crowd prompts, animated team introductions, student athlete videos and live footage of events at the arena.

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

FAMILIAR FOES IN 2011-12: Penn State will face four teams on the 2011-12 season that head coach Patrick Chambers faced last year while leading Boston University. The Nittany Lions will begin the Chambers' Era by facing a very familiar foe in Hartford at the Bryce Jordan Center. Chambers and BU posted a 2-1 mark in three meetings vs. Hartford last year posting victories of 61-50 and 55-49 later in the year after falling, 59-55, in the initial meeting. Chambers went 5-1 in six meetings with Hartford while at BU. The Lions will also face 2011 NCAA Final Four participant Kentucky in the Hall of Fame Tip-off Classic. Chambers and BU fell to Kentucky, 91-57, last year in Lexington. BU also downed Cornell (66-61) and Saint Joseph's (85-79), which appear on the Lions' 2011-12 schedule.

- The youngest of 12 siblings (nine boys, three girls)
- The youngest coach in the Big Ten.
- Three siblings are Penn State graduates
- Worked for 10 years in family printing business in Philadelphia.
- Played for 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee Herb Magee at Philadelphia University. Magee, also known as "The
- Shot Doctor," is college basketball's all-time victories leader (922).

 Began his career at Philadelphia U. as a walk-on and went on to become the school's all-time leader in assists.
- Played for legendary Philadelphia coach Dan Dougherty at Episcopal Academy. Dougherty posted 621 victories at Episcopal, the most of any high school coach in Philadelphia history.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING

"Penn State and Pat Chambers are a perfect matchclass, pride and integrity. Pat is a talented coach and an outstanding recruiter.

I watched him interact with people and I just liked him, liked his energy. I remember seeing him come in from work and into practice in his shirt and tie (at Episcopal). I remember thinking, 'Man, this guy's rushing in from work, coming on the court, bringing energy.' I just really like his passion. As soon as we got him in here, I could tell he was gonna be outstanding. Very detailed, very organized, a relentless worker and a lot of passion."

- Jay Wright, Villanova Head Basketball Coach

"It was clear right away he had a little something extra you don't find in a lot of guys. He wasn't a scoring threat at all. But, I had scorers. But, his ability to lead and defend and do all the things on and off the court that coaches need made me fall in love with the kid. Once he got the job, he never relinquished it."

- Herb Magee, Philadelphia University Head Basketball Coach, NCAA All-time Victories Leader 2011 Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame inductee

"He was selling for the family business and doing well. But, I just had that feeling he would make a great coach. He was one of those people who love the game so much and know the game so well. He had that Philly ability to recognize situations and know what people should be doing and know what to do with the ball and that intense desire to win. I loved the way he interacted with the players. He's quick to jump on them if they're not doing everything exactly the right way. There are no short-cuts with him."

- Dan Dougherty, Former Episcopal Academy Head Coach "Pat Chambers has been fortunate enough to play for and work for some of the most successful coaches in the Philadelphia area – long-time coach Dan Dougherty at celebrated Episcopal Academy, Naismith Hall of Fame coach Herb Magee from Philadelphia University and 2008 NABC National Coach of the Year Jay Wright from Villanova.

- Dick "Hoops" Weiss, New York Daily News

"It's hard to imagine Penn State finding a more promising coach and better fit than Patrick Chambers. It certainly helps that he worked for one of the best, classiest coaches in Jay Wright, but Patrick showed in his two years at BU that he could stand on his own as a coach. Penn State has every reason to be thrilled about its baskethall future."

- Mike DeCourcy, Sporting News/Big Ten Network

"Before I joined ESPN.com, I worked in Philadelphia and watched Chambers tutor alongside Villanova coach Jay Wright. His passion for basketball and his eagerness was so overwhelming that more than one person asked, "Is this guy for real?" The implication being that Chambers' personality might be somewhat disingenuous. It is not. It is who he is.

- Dana O'Neil, ESPN.com

"'Chambers to Penn State' is bigger news in Philadelphia than just a Philly guy getting a job – and relevant right now, not just in the winter – because every Division I coach in Philadelphia knows Chambers is at Penn State...Chambers can walk into any gym in this city and find people he knows. He has relationships with virtually all the AAU movers and shakers."

– Mike Jensen, Philadelphia Inquirer

SEASON SUPERLATIVES

- Penn State posted its seventh-straight season opening win a victory over Hartford.
- Penn State posted its fourth 3-0 start in the last 12 years and eighth since joining the Big Ten in 1993. The Lions have reached the post-season folowing each of their previous 3-0 starts since joining the Big Ten.

SEASON OUTLOOK NOTES

- Juniors Tim Frazier and Billy Oliver are expected to step to the forefront as scoring options for Penn State after averaging 6.3 and 2.3 ppg, respectively, last season.
- Penn State graduated players that accounted for 80% of the scoring and nearly 70% of the rebounding from last year's NCAA Tournament team.
- Five senior graduates from the 2010-11 team accounted for 432 career starts and 581 career games played. Among them was all-time leading scorer Talor Battle who posted 2,213 points on his career and led the Lions in scoring each of the past four seasons.
- Tim Frazier leads all returners having started 45 career games (33 of 34 games last year) and played in every game in the last three seasons.
- Penn State returns five players with experience in a Penn State uniform (Frazier, Sasa Borovnjak, Jermaine Marshall, Billy Oliver and Cammeron Woodyard).

2011 EARLY SIGNEE

Penn State signed one player in the 2011 NCAA Early Signing Peried that began Nov. 9

BRANDON TAYLOR 6-8, 235, F, Tabernacle, N.J., Trenton Catholic Academy (N.J.)

"Brandon is a great kid who comes from a great family and is serious about his academics and getting his degree. Basketball wise, he is a terrific player who can post-up, shoot threes, has a very high basketball IQ and has a Big Ten ready body. He will make an immediate impact in our program." - Patrick Chambers

Taylor helped lead his AAU squad, Team Philly, to several tournament titles over the summer and saw his stock rise as he diversified his game and excelled in several head-to-head battles with other high Division I recruits. His size and strength on the block as well as his ability to stretch defenses on the perimeter and score off the dribble or from the three-point line were on display. He is described as a "prototypical mismatch problem" with "the physical tools and basketball skills to score both inside and out" by ESPN.com. Dave Telep of ESPN.com added, "Penn State has itself a legitimate scoring option on its way to Happy Valley."

Taylor helped Trenton Catholic Academy (N.J.) to a 2010 New Jersey Non-Public B State Championship with a victory over perennial powerhouse St. Anthony and an eventual championship crown in the NJSIAA (all classes) Tournament of Champions as a sophomore. He averaged 11.7 points per game last year as a junior at Trenton Catholic as he helped lead the team to a 19-6 record. The Iron Mikes fell in the semifinals of the NJSIAA Non-Public South B Tournament in a two-point game in which Taylor recorded 14 points and had 15 rebounds. He posted a season high 25 points earlier in the year in a victory over West Windsor South.

Freshman Trey Lewis led Penn State with 17 points, 14 in the second half, in his first career game as the Lions extended a 10-point halftime lead (32-22) to as much as 26 with 2:21 to play. Tim Frazier added 16 points and Cammeron Woodyard posted career highs in points (14), rebounds (7), threes (4) and steals (4). Frazier's career-best five steals led a 15 steal effort for the Lions, the most by a PSU team since 2001, and helped cause 26 Hartford turnovers, the most for a PSU opponent since 2005. Penn State shot just 36 percent but turned 17 offensive rebounds into a 20-2 edge in second chance points and got 20 more shots (64-44) than Hartford, which was led by 12 points from Wes Cole.

Junior Tim Frazier posted his second career double-double and equaled a career high in assists as he led Penn State with 20 points and 10 assists and added six rebounds and three steals. Frazier was the only Lion in double-figures. Penn State used a 14-0 run and an 8:25 Radford drought to come from 11-5 down to a 19-11 lead in the first half and would never trail again. Leading 29-20 at the half, Penn State got three straight treys from Billy Oliver, Trey Lewis and Cam Woodyard to pusth it's lead to 16. Penn State led by double-digits the rest of the way and by as much as 22. Radford shot just 26.9 percent in the first half and 34 percent for the game and was led by 16 points from Jareal Smith who scored the Highlanders' first 11 points of the game.

PENN STATE LEADERS Scoring Leader: Frazier (11) Rebounding Leader: Travis (8) Assist Leader: Frazier (6)

Trailing 60-56 with 8:22 to play and threatened for the first time on the year, Penn State responded with a 16-4 run to seize control and outscored LIU 21-8 the rest of the way to improve to 3-0. Tim Frazier was again spectacular posting his second-straight double-double with a career-best 26 points and career-best equaling 10 assists. Senior Cam Woodyard added 13 points and six boards and scored seven straight midway through the second half to steady the Penn State ship. Billy Oliver had a career-high 10 rebounds and nine points, including two big threes late. The Lions held LIU to 36% shooting, but LIU hit 27-of-35 at the foul line for a 13-point advantage at the charity stripe. Julian Boyd (15) and Michael Culpo (15) led LIU. Penn State shot 41.5% and 9-of-27 from three.

Penn State missed 25 straight shots over 11 minutes of the first half and hit just 16 percent in the first stanza vs. a Kentucky team that was shooting 68 percent midway through the first 20 and raced to a 47-15 halftime lead. Penn State hit just 27 percent for the game, including 7-of-27 from three, and 4-of-12 from the foul line and trailed by as much as 41 midway through the second half. Tim Frazier led Penn State with 11 points and six assists and added six boards, but went 4-of-14 from the floor and 3-of-9 from the line. Freshman Ross Travis had career highs of 10 points, all in the second half, and eight rebounds. Doron Lamb led UK with 26 points and Kyle Wiltjer put in 19 off the bench as Kentucky shot 53 percent and 10-of-20 from three. The 38-point loss marked the Lions' largest since falling by 43 at Illinois in 2004.

Trailing 43-38 with 5:07 to play, Penn State employed a trapping 1-2-2 press to create a pair of turnovers and reel of a 12-1 run to seize a 50-44 lead after a Billy Oliver top of the key three with 3:03 left. USF got back within three, 50-47, with 1:47 to go but would get no closer. Tim Frazier led Penn State with a career-high 27 points, 19 in the second half. Jermaine Marshall sparked PSU with eight first half points on his way to 14. The Lions shot 52 percent in the second half after both teams struggled at less than 30 percent shooting in the first. Penn State logged 12 steals, led by three each from Frazier and Marshall, and caused 19 USF turnovers. Victor Rudd, Jr. entered the game leading USF averaging 16.5 ppg but was held to just four on 2-of-10 shooting.
