MEDIA INFO

WASHINGTON AVAILABILITY

Coach Washington will hold weekly press conferences during the season (schedule at right). All additional interview requests should be directed to Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All student-athlete interviews must be arranged through Greg Campbell at least 72 hours in advance. Players will generally be available on a weekly basis throughout the season, in conjunction with head coach Coquese Washington's weekly press conference. Interviews will not be granted on game day prior to tip-off. Player phone numbers will not be released. Following games, requested Penn State student-athletes will be brought to the postgame media interview room. The Penn State locker room is closed.

CREDENTIALS

Single game and season press credentials are issued to accredited members of the working media only. Requests for credentials should be directed to Greg Campbell at least one week in advance of each game. Press credentials can be picked up at Media Will Call, which is located at the Media/Team entrance, on the south side of the Bryce Jordan Center, across from the Penn State Lacrosse Complex.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

A photo pass must be issued to gain access courtside in the Bryce Jordan Center. Please contact Greg Campbell one week in advance for photo passes. Courtside photographers must follow NCAA guidelines, which prohibit entry to the bench areas and the stands, and must remain seated at all times.

RADIO NETWORKS

The Penn State Sports Network originates from the first row of Booth C23 in the press area. Visiting radio stations are located on the first row of Booth C22 in the press area. Visiting radio is provided Ethernet, POTS and one ISDN connections.

PRESS ROW SEATING

The press seating area is located atop section 122 and 123 of the Bryce Jordan Center. Please allow several minutes when taking the elevator to the press room or media seating areas.

GAME NOTES

Game notes will be provided at least 24 day in advance of each game. Penn State, Big Ten and opposing team game notes will be available Booth C23 two hours prior to each game. If you would like to receive game notes via email, please contact Greg Campbell in the Strategic Communications office.

- » Page is shooting 45.9 percent from the field and 88.0 percent from the free throw line. She is 28-of-61 from the field and 22-of-25 from the charity stripe.
- » Page is also leading the team with 16 assists.
- » Redshirt-sophomore Amari Carter has logged double-figure points in four of the last five games, including 19 points vs. Fordham. The only non-double-figure game was an eight-point contest vs. Wake Forest.
- » Sophomore Jaida Travascio-Green is adding 10.6 points per game and 4.0 rebounds per contest over her last five games.
- » Junior Jaylen Williams has blocked a team-high seven shots, while leading the team with 36 rebounds.
- » Williams is also averaging 7.6 points per game, which ranks four on the team during that span.

TENIYA'S TALE

Back In Form

- » It didn't take junior Teniya Page long to get back into the flow of the game for Penn State, as she posted her first 20-point game of the season just three games after returning from injury.
- » Page logged a 21-point showing - including a 10-of-11 effort at the free throw line - vs. Wake Forest for her 22nd career 20-point game.
- » Page scored on a pair of step-back jumpers, got a fast break layup, hit a 3-pointer and completed a "and-1" to account for her field goals.

Page Returns

- » Missing the first five games of the season due to injury, junior Teniya Page returned to the Lady Lion rotation on Friday, Nov. 24 vs. Louisiana Tech in Las Vegas, Nevada.
- » Page scored nine points in 16 minutes of action, shooting 2-of-5 from the field and 5-of-6 from the free throw line.
- » The next night, vs. Kansas State, she netted her first double-digit scoring game of the season with 10 points, two assists and one rebound.

Among B1G Leaders

- » After a pair of solid showings in her first two seasons, Teniya Page ranks among the top statistical producers in the Big Ten in scoring and assists.
- » The Chicago, Illinois native is the only non-senior on the active scoring ledger, sitting No. 9 with 1,183 points. She is No. 9 on the active assists charts with 256 helpers.

JUST THE FACTS

Teniya Page became just the fourth Lady Lion to post consecutive seasons with at least 450 points and 100 assists, doing so during her freshman and sophomore seasons.

- » The Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame announced Teniya Page as one of 20 members on the watch list for the 2018 Nancy Lieberman Award on Nov. 6.
- » The award, now in its nineteenth year, recognizes the top point guard in women's NCAA Division I basketball. Candidates exhibit the floor leadership, play-making and ball-handling skills of Hall of Famer Nancy Lieberman.

1,000-point Club

- » With a first-quarter layup vs. Minnesota in the 2017 Big Ten Tournament, Teniya Page joined Maggie Lucas, Kelly Mazzante and Susan Robinson as the only sophomore's in Penn State history to reach the 1,000-point plateau.
- » The Chicago, Illinois native has pushed her name all the way to No. 27 on the career scoring charts, with 1,183 career points. MORE ON LEFT SIDE BAR
- » Page joined Mazzante as the only players in Penn State history to post a 30-point game in both their freshman and sophomore campaigns.

A Helping Hand

- » Page joined the 1,000-point club on March 3, 2017 vs. Minnesota and in the process became the 13th member to of the exclusive list to also move past the 250-assist mark.
- » The club will get even more exclusive when you talk about 300 assists, with just 10 Lady Lions a member of the 1,000-point, 300-assist club.
- » She currently has 1,183 points and 256 assists, ranking No. 27 and No. 19, respectively in school history.

Reaching Double Figures

- » In 68 career games, Teniya Page has reached double-figures in the scoring column on 58 occasions.
- » Page rode a career-long streak of 15-straight games with 10-plus into 2017-18, before she netted just nine tallies vs. Louisiana Tech in her return from injury. MORE ON PAGE 5 AND 34
- » For the Chicago native, just reaching 10 points is not enough. Of her 58 double-figure scoring games, 42 of them have seen her score more than 15 points.
- » Five of those have been 30-point efforts and 18 others resulted in 20-point games.

3-Point Threat

- » An attacking mentality makes junior Teniya Page one of the most difficult scorers in the Big Ten to deal with, but her game has evolved, as she added the 3-point shot to her arsenal.
- » After hitting 36 shots from distance as a freshman - including only one game with 3-or-more triples - Page nearly doubled that number in her sophomore campaign.
- » Page netted 64 triples in 2016-17 rank No. 13 on the single season charts and helped her reach the 100-make mark from distance.
- » She became the 15th player in Penn State women's basketball history to connect on at least 100 3-pointers in a career and sits No. 15 currently with 105 career makes from beyond the arc. MORE ON LEFT SIDE BAR

JUST THE FACTS

Teniya Page joined Kelly Mazzante as the only Lady Lions in program history to register a 30-point game in both her freshman and sophomore seasons.

- » The rich history and tradition of Lady Lion basketball is illustrated by the immense success that the student-athletes have on and off the court. With all of the great names that have donned the blue and white, it isn't often a player can accomplish something no one else has, but Teniya Page did just that in 2016-17.
- » On her way to her 1,000th point, Page was able to tally 200 made field goals, 60 made 3-pointers, 100 made free throws and add 100 assists. No other Lady Lion has amassed those numbers, as page totaled 209 field goals - 64 of the 3-point variety - 136 free throws and 109 assists.
- » The closest any other Lady Lion had come to the mark was Suzie McConnell, who had 255-56-116-298 (FG-3pt-FT-A) in 1987-88 season.

Preseason Page

- » After a standout 2016-17 campaign, junior Teniya Page was named to the preseason All-Big Ten squad by both the conference coaches and media panels to start 2017-18.
- » A preseason all-conference pick by the conference coaches in 2016-17, as well, Page ranked No. 4 in the conference in scoring at 19.9 points per game as a sophomore.
- » She enters the season already eclipsing the 1,000-point mark and is among the conference active leaders in points (1,131) and assists (242).

- » The opportunity to wear the red, white and blue was on the table again for junior Teniya Page this summer, as she was one of 40 student-athletes selected to attend the USA Basketball U23 Training Camp.
- » Though her team won the four-day, round-robin tournament in Colorado Springs, Page suffered an injury late in the training camp and was unavailable to be named to the roster for the Four Nation's Tournament.

Tough Down the Stretch

- » They are the moments a player dreams about: time running out, team is down one and you have the ball in your hand. For sophomore Teniya Page, she has already had a number of these moments in her career.
- » On Dec. 6, 2017, Page scored 14 of her game-high 27 points vs. Fordham in the fourth quarter to lead Penn Stat back from a 10-point deficit with 7:43 to play in the game. She was 5-of-6 from teh floor and 4-of-5 from the free throw line to help lead the comeback, hitting the go-ahead basket with 1:32 to play to give Penn State its first lead of the game, 58-57.
- » Page had a trio of games with last minute moments in 2016-17, including go-ahead buckets at Boston College and vs. Marshall in the waning moments.
- » On Dec. 18, 2016 vs. American, Page twice helped Penn State fight off a late charge fro the Eagles, going 5-of-6 from the foul line in the final 33 seconds to seal the win and push her scoring total to 30 points for the game.
- » Against Marshall on Dec. 3, 2016, the Lady Lions found themselves trailing by one, 77-76 with 0:46 left to play. Page brought the ball up the court, hesitated and then cut through the lane for her 10th basket of the game to give the Lady Lions the lead for good.
- » In the 2016 ACC/Big Ten Challenge at Boston College, Penn State found itself trailing 56-54 with 40 ticks left after a Mariella Fasoula basket. Page drove the baseline, hit runner and was fouled -- connecting on the free throw -- to give Penn State the lead for good.

Taking the Lead

- » At St. Bonaventure on Saturday, Dec. 9, Teniya Page led the team in scoring and assists, ticking off 18 points and four helpers.
- » It marked the 17th time in her career she led the team in both categories for the same game and the second of the 2017-18 season.
- » In her career, Page has led the team in scoring on 34 occasions and paced the team in assists in 38 contests.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"Teniya is one of the best players [in our conference]. She can create her own shot and when you get players who can create their own shot; whether it's a 3-pointer or pull-up jumper, it is hard to stop them... I think Teniya Page is playing great and I think she is a sheer catalyst [for Penn State]."

-Sharon Versyp, Purdue head coach.

NCAA WINS LEADERS

- » Penn State became the 16th NCAA Division I program to reach the 900-win mark in program history in 2016-17, and owns an overall record of 928-451 (.672).
- » The Lady Lions are one of just four Big Ten teams to amass 900 or more victories. Ohio State (1,008), Maryland (956) and Rutgers (914) join Penn State (928) as the four B1G schools to reach the mark.
- » Of the top 25 schools on the all-time victories list, the Big Ten leads all conferences with four representatives, while the ACC, Big XII, Conference USA and SEC each have three teams.

CARTER COMMENTARY

FULL BIO ON PAGE 28

Leading the Charge

- » Redshirt-sophomore Amari Carter has led Penn State in scoring on five occasions this season, including three-straight games from Nov. 18-24.
- » She also led the team in assists in seven-straight games from Nov. 12-Nov. 30. After handing out five assists to sophomore Siyeh Frazier's six in the season opener, Carter reeled off seven-straight games atop the team's assist chart, before junior Teniya Page edged her 5-4 vs. Manhattan.
- » Against Central Connecticut State, she led the team in points (20), rebounds (8) and assists (6) in the game, scoring or assisting on 32 of Penn State's 83 points (38.5%).
- » Versus Louisiana Tech, Carter poured in a career-high 24 points and added a team-high-tying four assists. Combined with her 24 tallies, she assisted on nine points, giving her a hand in 33 of Penn State's 59 points (55.9%).

Carter Assist-Turnover

- » Redshirt-sophomore Amari Carter has handled the Penn State offense with a steady hand during her first two seasons on campus, with just 72 turnovers in 44 appearances.
- » For her career, she has led the team in assists on 26 occasions - including 20 games with 5-plus assists - and committed two-or-fewer turnovers in 34-of-44 games played.
- » Carter has 16 games with 5-plus assists and two-or-fewer turnovers in her career, including four this season.
- » Her assist-to-turnover ratio of 2.40 sits No. 58 nationally and No. 7 in the Big Ten in 2017-18, after ranking No. 13 nationally and No. 2 in the Big Ten last season (2.73).

20-Point Stretch

- » Starting with a then-career-high 23 points vs. Providence, redshirt-sophomore Amari Carter registered three-straight 20-point games from Nov. 18-Nov. 24.
- » Carter hit 10-of-21 shots at Providence to tally 23 points, one more than her previous best of 22 points at Maryland on Jan. 11, 2017.
- » She followed that with a 20-point performance vs. Central Connecticut State, hitting 6-of-10 shots from the field and 7-of-8 shots from the free throw line.
- » A new career-effort followed vs. Louisiana Tech, where Carter hit 8-of-14 shots from the floor - including four 3-pointers - and all four free throws on her way to a 24-point night in Las Vegas.
- » It was the first such stretch by a Lady Lion since Lindsey Spann scored 20-plus points in three-straight games from Dec. 14-Dec. 28, 2014. Spann did it against Rider (23), USF (28) and at Iowa (22), in order.

FROSH FINDINGS

Freshman Firsts

- » All three rookies saw time off the bench in the season opener vs. Siena, with all three reaching the scoring column in their collegiate debuts.
- » Alisia Smith logged 17 minutes on the court in the season opener, hitting 3-of-5 shots from the field and 3-of-4 from the free throw line.
- » Sam Breen added seven points and grabbed four rebounds in her debut, adding one assist and one steal.
- » With five points, three assist and two steals, Kamaria McDaniel logged 22 minutes on the floor to lead all rookies.

McDouble-Figures

- » There have been some good rookies come to wear the blue and white under head coach Coquese Washington, and Kamaria McDaniel looks to add to that trend.
- » McDaniel has posted four double-figure scoring games this season, including 20 points at Marshall. (See note below)
- » She also tallied 17 vs. Central Connecticut State (11/20), 12 vs. Wake Forest in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge and 14 against Manhatta (12/3).
- » McDaniel is averaging 8.2 points per game coming off the bench, an average that is tied for No. 4 on the squad.

McDaniel Sparks Lions at Marshall

- » With Penn State trailing by two points and struggling to find a consistent footing on offense, Kamaria McDaniel hit a 3-pointer to push the Lady Lions into the lead.
- » McDaniel hit another 3-pointer in the second quarter and ended the half with eight points, however it was her 12 points in the second half that sparked the Lady Lions to victory.
- » The rookie poured in a career-high 20 points in the win at Marshall, hitting 7-of-11 shots from the floor and 5-of-8 tries from 3-point range, all career best efforts.
- » She added two assists, one steal and four rebounds in the contest in a career-high 26 minutes off the bench.

Breen Building

- » Through nine games, freshman Sam Breen has continued to build on a foundation early in her rookie season.
- » After scoring seven points with four rebounds and one assist in the season opener vs. Siena, Breen was held scoreless in game two.
- » Over the next three game, Breen steadied her production scoring 11 points with 14 rebounds during that stretch.
- » She scored three points - including a crucial basket in the fourth quarter - and added a career-best six rebounds at Providence.
- » She followed that with four points and six boards - all in the first half - against Central Connecticut State. She added two steals and an assist vs. the Blue Devils.

Smith Shines

- » The learning curve for each freshman is different and for Alisia Smith, everything clicked on Nov. 20 vs. Central Connecticut State, as she set career highs in a bevy of categories.
- » The Lansing, Michigan native reached double-figures in the scoring column for the first time in her career with a 14-point showing, shooting 6-of-7 from the field.
- » She also posted career-bests in minutes played (21), rebounds (6), blocked shots (3) and assists (2).

PLAYER PARABLES

Boards for Boykin

- » After sitting out the second half of her freshman season due to NCAA Transfer Rules and missing the final 16 games of last season due to injury, redshirt-sophomore De'Janae Boykin is enjoying her time back on the court.
- » Boykin has pulled down at least five rebounds in all eight games she has appeared in, including a four double-digit rebound contests.
- » Along with her 19 boards vs. Drexel (see note below), Boykin has posted three-straight games with 10-plus boards.
- » She notched 11 rebounds vs. Louisiana Tech in the opener of the South Point Thanksgiving Shootout and pulled down a game-high 14 rebounds vs. Kansas State to cap her stay at the event.
- » In the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, Boykin tallied 11 boards, adding nine points against Wake Forest.

Boykin Doubles Up

- » De'Janae Boykin returned to the floor on Nov. 10, 2017 vs. Siena after missing the final 16 games of the 2016-17 season due to injury and posted a solid showing with eight points and nine rebounds.
- » Following her efforts against the Saints, Boykin poured in a career-high 14 points and hauled in a career-best 19 rebounds for her first career double-double.
- » Boykin has led the Lady Lions in rebounding seven times in 2017-18.
- » The redshirt-sophomore's 19 rebounds rank tied for No. 11 in program history - tied with three others - and are the most by a Penn Stater since Nikki Greene hauled in 20 rebounds vs. Cal State Northridge on Nov. 24, 2012.
- » The 19-rebound effort ranks tied for No. 13 nationally this season and is the second-highest single game total in the Big Ten behind Ohio State's Stephanie Mavunga's NCAA-high 26 rebounds vs. Stanford on Nov. 11.

Siyeh's Sophomore Debut

- » After closing the 2016-17 season on a high note, Siyeh Frazier started her sophomore campaign the same way, scoring in double-figures in the first four games to open the 2017-18 slate.
- » Frazier kicked off her sophomore season with a 14-point, 8-steal, 6-assist and 3-rebound night vs. Siena.
- » The eight steals were the most by a Lady Lion since Alex Bentley posted eight swipes vs. NJIT on Dec. 23, 2012.
- » Versus Drexel, Frazier scored in double figures, again, marking the first time in her career she netted back-to-back 10-point efforts. She ended with 10 points, two assists and one steal.
- » At Marshall, Frazier logged 11 points on 5-of-7 shooting, to go along with five assists and four more steals.
- » Frazier added 10 points, two rebounds, one blocked shot and one steal in a victory at Providence.

New Addition

- » Head coach Coquese Washington announced the addition of Kayleigh Semion as a walk-on.
- » Semion, a junior, has served as a team manager for the last season and a half and competed as a member of the club basketball team for the past two years.
- » Her family is no stranger to the Blue and White, as her sister, Meredith, was a part of the Touch of Blue majorettes during her time on campus.
- » As a prep, she scored 1,323 points, grabbed 492 rebounds, and added 364 assists and 348 steals in 116 games played. Semion started every game during her prep career and connected on 238 career 3-pointers.
- » Semion earned first-team All-Lackawanna Conference, Scranton Times-Tribune All-Region, second-team All-State selection, Lackawanna Conference Player of the Year and Scranton Times-Tribune Northeast Pennsylvania Player of the Year as a senior.

Jaida's Sophomore Transformation

- » Sophomore Jaida Travascio-Green worked on her overall scoring game this summer and that has paid off in the early goings of 2017-18, as she is averaging in double-figures for the season.
- » Last season Green made 78 percent (46-of-59) of her field goals from 3-point range, but in 2017-18 that number is down to 60 percent (26-of-43).
- » In 2016-17, Travascio-Green made 59 total field goals, with 46 of those coming from distance, giving her just 13 made two-point baskets. She posted her 14th made two-pointer in game eight of the 2017-18 season.
- » The change to her style of play has also led to more opportunities at the free throw stripe, as she eclipsed her attempted and made free throws totals from a season ago just eight games into 2017-18.
- » As a freshman, Travascio-Green was 10-of-20 from the charity stripe, and is currently 23-of-29 from the free throw stripe as a sophomore.

Jaida Goes for 31

- » With 49 seconds left in the first quarter, Jaida Travascio-Green connected on her first field goal of the game vs. Drexel, giving her four points in the contest and would end the first quarter with six tallies.
- » Over the final three quarter, Travascio-Green poured in 25 points - including 12 in the fourth quarter along - and become the 17th Lady Lion to post a 30-point game.
- » Her 31 tallies mark the 69th 30-point game in program history, as she joins teammate Teniya Page as the only current Lady Lions to reach the 30-point mark.

Career Night for Jaida

- » Along with her career-best 31 points vs. Drexel, Jaida Travascio Green was able to accomplish three more career high efforts in the process.
- » Her 10 made field goals marked a personal-best, while her seven made 3-pointers were also a career mark. The seven made triples are the most by a Lady Lion since Lindsey Spann hit seven shots from distance at Minnesota on Jan. 3, 2016.
- » The sophomore also added a personal-best five blocked shots in the game, the most for a Lady Lion since Candice Agee swatted five shots vs. Rider on Dec. 14, 2014.

McConnell-Serio On Opposite Sideline

- » From 1984-88, Suzie McConnell-Serio was a nightmare for opposing coaches as she starred for Penn State on the hardwood.
- » Today, she meets her alma mater for the second time as a head coach, with her Panthers falling to Penn State last season at the Bryce Jordan Center, 91-62.
- » McConnell-Serio still owns the top spot on the NCAA career assists charts (men's or women's) with 1,307 helpers, she also ranks No. 1 in Penn State history in career steals (507) and ranks No. 8 on the PSU all-time scoring charts (1,786).
- » As a head coach, McConnell-Serio owns a 186-139 record in 11 seasons. She is 63-71 in five years at the helm of the Panthers program, also spending six seasons across town at Duquesne.

TEAM TESTIMONIALS

November Nuggets

- » Penn State posted a winning record in the month of November for the 26th time in 34 years of playing during the month.
- » Head coach Coquese Washington has posted a winning record in November for the eighth time in her 11 seasons.
- » The six wins by the 2017-18 squad in November are tied for the most in school history, equaling the total from the 2010-11 and 2011-12 teams.
- » First November games played came during the 1979-80 season, with Penn State losing to No. 1 Old Dominion, 95-67, on Nov. 23. The Lady Lions also fell to LSU, 83-77, on Nov. 24. Both games were played in Detroit, Michigan as a part of the Coca-Cola Classic.
- » Since 1979-80, Penn State has not played in November four times, most recently in 1992-93.

Block Party

- » Penn State currently ranks No. 38 nationally and No. 3 in the Big Ten with 5.2 blocked shots per game. MORE ON PAGE 21
- » Junior Jaylen Williams sits No. 69 nationally and No. 5 in the conference with 1.90 blocked shots per game.
- » The 2017-18 squad wasted no time getting into the record books, as the 13 rejections vs. Drexel rank No. 2 all-time in Bryce Jordan Center history and sit No. 4 all-time in single game history.
- » The 14 blocked shots vs. Purdue on Jan. 12, 2014 remains the BJC standard and one of three 14-block efforts in program history.
- » Along with the blocks against Purdue in 2014, Penn State also rejected 14 shots vs. Boston (1/22/82) and Delaware (2/15/80).

Turning 'Em Over

- » Penn State is forcing 16.9 turnovers per game this season, including four games with 20-plus missteps forced.
- » Siena turned the ball over 25 times in the season opener, which are the most turnovers forced by a Penn State team since forcing 26 vs. Oregon State on Nov. 11, 2013.
- » The Lady Lions then pressured Marshall into 22 turnovers on Nov. 15 in a road win, forced 20 more against Central Connecticut State on Nov. 20 and coaxed Manhattan into 21 miscues on Dec. 3.
- » Penn State is averaging 8.7 steals per game through 10 games.

3-point Prowess

- » After finished No. 3 on the single season 3-pointers made charts last season, Penn State has picked up right where it left off, averaging 7.0 made 3-pointers per game in 2017-18.
- » The 74 made 3-pointers this season rank No. 59 nationally and No. 6 in the Big Ten. MORE ON PAGE 21
- » The 2016-17 roster finished No. 3 all-time at Penn State with 193 made 3-pointers, trailing only the school record 228 made triples by the 2002-03 and 2010-11 squads.
- » Against Kansas State, Penn State made 13 shots from 3-point range, its most since hitting 14 shots from distance vs. North Carolina on Nov. 30, 2011.
- » On an individual level, sophomore Jaida Travascio-Green has hit at least three shots from deep in 4-of-11 games this season, including seven triples vs. Drexel.
- » Freshman Kamaria McDaniel hit five 3-pointers at Marshall.

ACC/B1G Challenge

- » The 2017-18 season marked the 11th edition of the ACC/Big Ten Challenge and Penn State owns a 4-7 overall mark after defeating Wake Forest, 68-58, on Nov. 30, 2017.
- » In the inaugural event, Penn State toppled No. 10 Duke, 86-84, at the Bryce Jordan Center. They have since added wins vs. No. 14 North Carolina and at Boston College.
- » Boston College became the first two-time opponent in the event for the Lady Lions last season, while Wake Forest is added to the record books with the first meeting between the two schools coming in the 2017 event.
- » Penn State won back-to-back games in the event for the first time in its history with the win over the Demon Deacons in 2017.

Washington Eyes No. 200

- » In her 11th season at the helm of the Lady Lion program, head coach Coquese Washington has amassed 189 career victories, leaving her just 11 shy of reaching the 200-win mark for her career.
- » Over a decade on the Penn State sideline, Washington has enjoyed three Big Ten regular season championships, six postseason appearances - including four NCAA Tournament berths - and five 20-win campaigns.
- » She looks to become the 16th head coach to reach 200 wins at a single Big Ten institution, with five of those coaches still active (Lisa Bluder, Iowa; Brenda Frese, Maryland; Suzy Merchant, Michigan State; C. Vivian Stringer, Iowa & Rutgers; Sharon Versyp, Purdue).

WNBA Connections

- » Penn State's WNBA connections run deep, starting with 15 student-athlete's drafted and continuing on to the three staff members that played in the organization.
- » Head coach Coquese Washington, along with assistant coach Ito Coleman and Tamika (Williams) Jeter, all had their time on the floor in the WNBA.
- » Penn State is the lone school in the NCAA with three coaches on staff with WNBA experience. Eight other Division I programs boast two coaches with WNBA experience. (Research provided by Florida Atlantic Athletic Communications)
- » On the player-side of the coin, Lady Lion alum Alex Bentley capped her fifth WNBA season with 8.4 points, 2.9 assists, 1.5 rebounds and 0.8 steals per game in 2017 for the Connecticut Sun.
- » Bentley was a 2015 WNBA All-Star for Connecticut and helped the Atlanta Dream to the WNBA Finals during her rookie season in 2013.
- » Historically, Penn State has seen two alumni hoist the WNBA Championship trophy, with Tanisha Wright winning a title in Seattle and Kelly Mazzante winning a pair of titles in Phoenix.
- » Bentley, Helen Darling (San Antonio) and Maggie Lucas (Indiana) each helped their respective organizations to the WNBA Finals.

Sans Seniors

- » Penn State enters the 2017-18 season with no seniors on its roster, making it one of 11 NCAA Division I programs without a senior on its 2016-17 roster.
- » Of the 349 Division I women's basketball programs, only Penn State, Alabama A&M, Arizona State, Delaware State, FIU, Fresno State, Houston Baptist, Omaha, Portland State, Utah State and VCU are without "senior leadership" on the roster.

Inking Three

- » Penn State added three student-athletes for the 2018-19 campaign on Wednesday, Nov. 8, as head coach Coquese Washington and her staff saw National Letters of Intent arrive from three different states.
- » Lauren Ebo (Washington, D.C.), Karisma Ortiz (San Jose, Calif.) and Bexley Wallace (Pickerington, Ohio) all inked their NLLs on the first day of the early signing period.
- » Ortiz is the highest ranked signee, sitting at No. 54 nationally according to ESPN/HoopGurlz, as the guard from San Jose, California averaged 9.3 points, 5.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists.
- » After spending her first two prep seasons at Paul VI Catholic School, Ebo averaged 10.3 points and 7.7 rebounds at Riverdale Baptist School as a junior.
- » Wallace has been a force for Pickerington Central High School and spent one summer with the USA Basketball 16U squad, winning a bronze medal at the 2015 FIBA Americas Championships.

PLAY4KAY GAME

An Event Like No Other

- » Penn State was the first team in the NCAA to don pink uniforms, debuting the threads on Feb. 4, 2007 against Wisconsin at the Bryce Jordan Center.
- » The Lady Lion program has been honored as the Play 4 Kay Division I initiative winner twice in program history, winning the award in 2013 and 2014.
- » For more information on the Pink Zone at Penn State, visit the official Pink Zone website at www.pennsylvaniapinkzone.org.

Upon arriving on the University Park campus as the fifth head coach in Penn State women's history - and first female African-American head coach in Penn State history - Coquese Washington quickly returned the program to national prominence with her up-tempo, aggressive style of play. Entering her 11th season on the sideline in Happy Valley, her passion for creating a winning culture, predicated on innovative coaching techniques, tireless recruiting, cultivating meaningful relationships with student-athletes and an unmatched enthusiasm for teaching the game she loves, Washington is in the conversation as one of the nation's top head coaches.

Washington has seen success at every level of basketball and in every role she has filled on the sidelines. She became the first player at Flint Central High School to earn a starting position all four seasons and helped her squad to the program's first Saginaw Valley League and district championships, while earning all-state honors on two occasions.

She went on to earn four varsity letters at the University of Notre Dame, leading the team in steals four times and assists on three occasions, before moving on to professional basketball where she was a member of the 2000 WNBA Champion Houston Comets squad.

On the sidelines, she has appeared in the postseason 14 times, with 12 of those being NCAA Tournament appearances. She helped the Lady Lions to four straight berths in the NCAA Tournament - including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances - and was an assistant coach on Notre Dame's 2001 NCAA National Championship team. Her three straight Big Ten Championships make her one of just four coaches in Big Ten history with three-or-more consecutive Big Ten regular season championships (Jim Foster, Ohio State; C. Vivian Stringer, Iowa & Tara VanDerwever, Ohio State), taking home outright crowns in 2012 and 2013, while sharing the 2014 title.

Growing the Game

The professionals that are most successful often share one trait; they are thinkers, and Washington is no different. As a student-athlete at Notre Dame, Washington earned her degree in just three years. After her collegiate career was complete, Washington went on to earn her Juris Doctorate from her alma mater, while simultaneously playing in the professional ranks for the American Basketball League's (ABL) Portland Power. Her passion for learning is matched only by her love of family and basketball.

Washington served on the WBCA Board of Directors during each of her first 10 seasons as Penn State's head coach, holding the role of President from 2015-17 with the organization that is tasked with solving issues, preserving the history and growing the game of women's basketball. She was also the Vice President/President-Elect from 2013-15.

Her service to the game also includes time with USA Basketball, the Kay Yow Cancer Fund and the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She won a gold medal with Team USA in Kazan, Russia at the 2013 World University Games and served on the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Committee from 2009-12. Her work with the Kay Yow Cancer Fund Board of Directors ran from 2012-15 and she served five years on the NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee.

Of her many accomplishments, Washington was the founding President of the WNBA Players Association in 1999 and was a primary force in negotiating the association's first two collective bargaining agreements.

Recruiting Premier Talent

The recruiting trail has always been a place of success for Washington, with the Lady Lions signing four top-25 recruiting classes - including three top-15 classes - since her arrival in Happy Valley. Her top-25 recruiting classes have included a pair of 14th-ranked classes (2009, 2013), one that sat at No. 15 (2015) and one that came in 22nd nationally (2010).

Prior to Washington's arrival, Penn State had only signed one McDonald's All-American in program history, but the seasoned recruiter has brought six to campus in her 10 years as head coach. Candice Agee (2012), Brianna Banks (2011), De'Janae Boykin (2015), Maggie Lucas (2010), Sierra Moore (2012) and Dara Taylor (2009) have all donned the McDonald's All-American uniform before matriculating to the University Park campus.

Led by the All-American duo of Indiana native Alex Bentley and Lone Star State product Nikki Greene, Washington's 2009 class also included all-state performers Gizelle Studevent (California) and Marissa Wolfe (Pennsylvania), along with transfer Mia Nickson (Virginia), who was a top-100 recruit coming out of high school in 2008. In 2010, Washington landed a pair of Pennsylvania's top players in shooting guard Maggie Lucas and forward Talia East, while the three-person class was boosted by New York wing and WBCA High School All-American Arielle Edwards.

In 2013, Washington and her staff inked a seven-person class that included four ESPN HoopGurlz Top-100 players, including the Georgia duo of Kaliyah Mitchell and Peyton Whitted, and Maryland guard Lindsey Spann. The 2013 class was also bolstered by the addition of Duke transfer Sierra Moore, who was a top-50 national recruit in the class of 2012.

A pair of five-star guards in Chicago native Teniya Page and Maryland product Amari Carter led the way for the class of 2015. Adding to a strong recruiting haul was the highly recruited post pair of Kentucky's Ashanti Thomas and Boston-area product Jaylen Williams.

Washington came to Happy Valley after eight seasons as an associate head coach and assistant coach under Muffet McGraw at Notre Dame, her alma mater. One of the top recruiters in the country, Washington was instrumental in helping the Irish secure eight consecutive top-25 recruiting classes, a feat only accomplished by two other programs in the country (Connecticut and Tennessee).

WNBA: Pioneer and Pupils

A pioneer in advancing the WNBA both on and off the court, Washington continues to supply the league with top notch talent, sending six Penn Staters to play in the world's most competitive professional league.

Alex Bentley and Maggie Lucas are two of Washington's pupils that have seen success on the grand stage, with Bentley playing in the WNBA Finals as a rookie and earning WNBA All-Star status in 2015. Lucas also competed in the WNBA Finals, helping the Indiana Fever to the WNBA Championship series against the Minnesota Lynx during the 2015 season.

In 2014, Lucas was selected with the 21st overall pick (second round) by the Phoenix Mercury, then was traded to the Indiana Fever during training camp. In her third year as a professional, Lucas saw her court time increase each season, before suffering a season-ending injury in the fourth game of the 2016 campaign, an injury that ultimately sidelined her in 2017, as well. Also in 2014, Ariel Edwards inked a free agent contract with the Tulsa Shock.

In 2013, for the third time in program history, the Lady Lion program saw a pair of student-athletes selected in the WNBA Draft. Bentley went 13th overall to the Atlanta Dream and Nikki Greene was selected 26th overall by the Phoenix Mercury. Bentley has found a home with the Connecticut Sun after competing one season for the Atlanta Dream, and playing in the WNBA Finals that year. A WNBA All-Rookie selection in 2013, she was among the MVP candidates in 2015 before missing the final nine games of the season with an injury.

Greene played two years in the league, suiting up for the Los Angeles Sparks in 2014 before teaming up with Bentley in Connecticut during the 2015 season.

Tyra Grant capped off her Penn State career by being selected by the Phoenix Mercury in the second round of the 2010 WNBA Draft, and Washington was also instrumental in helping Kam Gissendanner sign a free agent contract with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks following in the 2008 campaign. Edwards and Zhaque Gray have also signed free agent contracts with WNBA teams, inking deals with the Tulsa Shock and Chicago Sky, respectively, in 2014.

During her time at Notre Dame, Washington saw seven players earn roster spots on WNBA teams.

Dancing Shoes

In 18 years as a collegiate coach, Washington has laced up her dancing shoes and headed to the postseason on 14 occasions, including 12 trips to the NCAA Tournament. While coaching the Blue and White, Washington has guided the program to four NCAA Tournament berths and a pair of appearances in the WNIT.

From 2011-14, the Lady Lions advanced to the NCAA Tournament each season, reaching at least the second round on all four occasions. The 2012 and 2014 squads moved on to the Sweet Sixteen with a pair of postseason wins, before falling to top-five ranked opponents.

The 2016-17 campaign marked a return to the postseason for Penn State, piling up a 21-11 overall record on its way to the third round of the WNIT. Penn State topped Ohio and Fordham, before bowing out to Virginia Tech.

In their fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance, the 2014 squad hosted the first and second rounds of the NCAA Tournament inside the Bryce Jordan Center for the 14th time in school history. Wins over Wichita State in the opening round and a 22-point rout of Florida in the second round sent the program to its 13th Sweet Sixteen. A date with No. 5/6 Stanford awaited in Palo Alto, as the No. 3 seed Lady Lions fell to the No. 2 seed Cardinal at Maples Pavilion to close out a 24-8 campaign, which included a Big Ten regular season title.

In 2013, Penn State again advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a win over Cal Poly in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. The 26-6 campaign ended with a loss to LSU on their home court. The Lady Lions advanced to the 2012 Sweet Sixteen with wins over UTEP and LSU in Baton Rouge before falling to No. 3/3 Connecticut en route to a 26-7 overall record.

The Lady Lions worked their way back to the "Big Dance" for the first time since 2004-05 and advanced to the second round for the first time in seven years with a win over Dayton in the first round of the 2012 NCAA Tournament in front of a raucous Bryce Jordan Center crowd. Washington's first appearances in the tournament as a head coach started with a 75-66 win over Dayton.

Washington's first taste of postseason play as a head coach came against Hofstra in the 2010 WNIT. The Lady Lions hosted the contest on the University Park campus, but the Pride got the best of a young Lady Lions squad in the opening round.

During Washington's eight years on the bench, Notre Dame reached the NCAA Tournament each season, including four Sweet Sixteen runs and the 2001 National Championship.

Trophies & All-Americans

Washington's competitive side shines brightest on the biggest stages and that is a trait that her teams have taken on during her tenure on the University Park campus, as well. Washington's teams have advanced out of the first round of the NCAA Tournament in all four of trips, while earning berths in the Sweet Sixteen twice.

From 2012-14, the Lady Lions claimed three straight Big Ten regular season titles, making them one of just four teams in conference history to win three-or-more regular season crowns in a row. Washington's squads took the title outright in 2012 and 2013, while sharing the crown in 2014.

Washington is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year (2012, 2013 & 2014), a two-time WBCA Region Six Coach of the Year (2012 & 2013) and two-time finalist for WBCA National Coach of the Year (2012 & 2013). She was also selected as the 2011 and 2014 Black Coaches Association Female Coach of the Year.

On the national awards front, Washington's players have earned a host of national honors from All-America laurels to honors for community service and selflessness. Teniya Page joined the list of Washington pupils to earn national honors after her standout sophomore campaign. The Chicago, Illinois native became just the second Penn State to earn WBCA All-America laurels as a sophomore (Kelly Mazzante).

Maggie Lucas finished her Penn State career as one of the most decorated student-athletes to pass through the Lady Lion program. Lucas was a two-time finalist for the Wade Trophy and Wooden Award, while earning nine All-American honors, including first team honors from the United State Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) in 2013 and 2014. She was a three-time AP All-American, garnering second team (2013), third team (2014) and honorable mention (2012) accolades during her career.

Alex Bentley was a two-time All-American, earning AP honorable mention laurels in 2013, and WBCA naming her honorable mention All-America in 2012 and 2013. One of the toughest defenders in the nation and a scoring threat from anywhere on the court, Bentley was the 2013 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winner as the nation's top player under 5-foot-8.

Bentley and Lucas were both named to Freshman All-America teams during their rookie seasons of 2010 and 2011, respectively, while Tyra Grant was Washington's first All-American, garnering honorable mention honors in 2010 from the Associated Press.

On-court accolades are not the only ones celebrated by the Lady Lion program, with Gizelle Studevent and Maggie Lucas each earning national attention for their off-court undertakings. Studevent was a member of the 2013 Allstate WBCA Good Works Team, honoring student-athletes that have made outstanding contributions in the areas of volunteerism and civic involvement. Studevent was the lifeblood and founder of the anti-bullying program Penn State Athletes Take Action (PSATA). Earning a selection to the 2014 Senior CLASS Award All-American Team, Lucas was one of 10 women's basketball student-athletes to be celebrated for the award that is an acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School.

During her tenure at Notre Dame, Washington coached five All-Americans in her role as the guards coach, and was directly responsible for developing three All-Americans and two Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award winners: Niele Ivey and Megan Duffy. Washington also worked with Alicia Ratay, who is the NCAA's career 3-point field goal percentage leader.

Big Things Happening

In 10 seasons on the sideline, Washington has seen 16 players earn All-Big Ten laurels on 28 occasions, along with three each earning Big Ten All-Freshman Team and Big Ten All-Defensive Team honors. Among the All-Big Ten honorees, five of Washington's pupils account for 10 first team selections and Penn State has seen multiple players earn all-conference in nine of her 10 seasons on the sideline.

Earning Big Ten Player of the Year on two occasions (2013 & 2014), Maggie Lucas was also the 2011 Big Ten Freshman and Sixth Player of the Year. Lucas joins Alex Bentley as three-time All-Big Ten first team selections under Washington. Teniya Page became just the fourth Lady Lion to earn consensus All-Big Ten first team as a sophomore in 2016-17, while Tyra Grant (2009 & 2010) and Ariel Edwards (2014) round out the group of first teamers.

Dara Taylor became the first Lady Lion under Washington to win the Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, claiming the award in 2014, while also getting the nod to the All-Defensive Team in 2013. Bentley was also a two-time Big Ten All-Defensive Team choice (2012 & 2013), while Nikki Greene earned her selection to the squad for her shot blocking prowess in 2011.

In 2016, Penn State placed three players on the All-Big Ten team, highlighted by Page's selection to the All-Big Ten second team as a true freshman. Her second team selection made her just the third Penn State rookie to earn either first or second team honors at season's end, joining Lucas (2nd team; 2011) and Kelly Mazzante (1st team; 2001). Adding to the haul of all-conference honors were Brianna Banks and Lindsey Spann, each earning honorable mention selections.

During Washington's first Big Ten Championship run in 2012, her squad put five players on the All-Big Ten squad. Bentley and Lucas each earned first team honors that season, and Greene, Zhaque Gray and Mia Nickson all noted honorable mention accolades. Both the 2011 and 2014 teams placed four players on the All-Big Ten squads, with the 2016 team joining the 2008 and 2013 teams that each had three representatives.

Washington is a stout believer in getting her best players on the floor regardless of position or class, with three student-athletes earning a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman squad. Bentley (2010) and Page (2016) were both unanimous all-rookie picks, and Lucas secured a spot on the 2011 list.

The success of her student-athletes isn't confined to the hardwood, as the Lady Lion program has 47 Academic All-Big Ten honorees over her 10 seasons. The 2015 squad set a school record with seven honorees on the list, while her 2009 and 2013 teams each saw six honorees for academic success. The 2016 team had a school-record three student-athletes named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars, awarded to Big Ten student-athletes with a minimum GPA of 3.7 or higher for the previous academic year. Sarah McMurtry, Kalyiah Mitchell and Spann all earned the honor, giving Penn State the most representatives of any Big Ten women's basketball program in 2016-17.

Play to Your Strengths

Washington's style of play lends itself to being up-tempo and high scoring, which has enabled the program to rise to new heights and return to the national spotlight. As a member of the Big Ten Conference, her teams are playing one of the toughest conference slates in the country, but that doesn't stop Washington from scheduling key non-conference games against the nation's best teams – home and on the road.

In each of Washington's first six years, Penn State improved its Big Ten win total and the Lady Lions posted three consecutive 25-win seasons, joining the 1993-94, 1994-95 and 1995-96 squads as the only teams in program history to accomplish the feat.

During Washington's first 10 seasons, Penn State has toppled ranked opponents in eight of those seasons; winning multiple games against ranked foes during each of those campaigns. Her first season in Happy Valley included wins over No. 20 Pittsburgh and No. 10 Duke. The 2011-12 squad traveled to No. 16/13 Texas A&M for a top-20 showdown with the Aggies and walked away with 63-58 victory to snap a 58-game non-conference home court winning streak for TAMU.

The 2016 squad also had its share of success against ranked opponents, pushing No. 4 Tennessee to the brink in an early season road test, before opening the Big Ten schedule with a 79-72 victory over then-No. 14 Northwestern at the Bryce Jordan Center. Avenging an earlier loss to Michigan State, Penn State traveled to East Lansing and handed the then-No. 15 Spartans a 65-61 defeat in front of a national television audience on the Big Ten Network.

Inside the Bryce Jordan Center, the home crowd was delighted by a pair of top-25 victories on the way to a school-record-tying 16-2 overall home record. On Nov. 20, it started with a 70-56 victory over then-No. 13 Tennessee and continued with a thrilling triumph over No. 24 Michigan, 76-75, to cap the 11th annual Play4Kay game benefiting Pink Zone in front of 8,213 fans.

The Penn State record books have also been invaded by Washington's teams and student-athletes.

Teniya Page was a catalyst on the court in 2015-16, as she was the only freshman in the NCAA to average at least 15 points and four assists per game. She became just the third rookie in Penn State history to reach the 400-point and 100-assist mark – and first since Suzie McConnell (1984-85).

Continuing her ascent into the national conversation in 2016-17, Page became the first Lady Lion to amass 200 made field goals, 60 made 3-pointers, 100 made free throws and 100 assists in a single season. She also became just the fourth Penn Stater to reach the 1,000-point mark prior to the end of her sophomore campaign, joining the group of Kelly Mazzante, Maggie Lucas and Susan Robinson – the top three scorers in Lady Lion history.

Lucas finished her career second in school history and fourth in Big Ten history in scoring (2,510) and broke the Penn State and Big Ten records for career 3-pointers made (365) and career free throw percentage (.907). Lucas left Penn State ranked among the top-five on 25 different single season or career charts.

Nikki Greene became the first player in school history to accumulate 1,000 points, 900 rebounds and 200 blocks, while Alex Bentley is one of only two players (Suzie McConnell) in program history with 1,500 points, 500 assists and 250 steals. Brianne O'Rourke closed out her career as an All-Big Ten performer and left Penn State as one of just six players in school history with 1,000 points and 500 assists.

On the team side of things, the 2013-14 graduating class of Lucas, Ariel Edwards, Dara Taylor and Talia East produced 101 wins, which are the second-most wins by a senior class in Lady Lion history.

The 2010-11 team was a dominating force from the perimeter as the Lady Lions tied the school record with 228 3-pointers and led the NCAA from deep with a .415 3-point field goal percentage. Beyond the arc was a place the 2016-17 team thrived, as well, sitting No. 3 in school history with 193 makes from long range. Washington's squad had three student-athletes top the 40-make mark from 3-point range, as Page (64), Lindsey Spann (41) and Jaida Travascio-Green (46) became the second trio in school history to all top the 40-make mark in a single season.

With just 13.0 turnovers per game during the 2016-17 season, Washington's squad set the school standard for taking care of the basketball. That average gives Washington-led teams five of the top 10 lowest turnovers per game marks in program history. To add to that, the 2016-17 squad equaled the school record for fewest turnovers in a game on three occasions, committing just six missteps vs. Wisconsin, Purdue and Fordham.

Double Domer

Washington was a four-year starting point guard for Notre Dame under McGraw and was the team captain on Notre Dame's first-ever NCAA Tournament team. She was a two-time All-Midwestern Collegiate Conference (MCC) selection and led the Irish to three MCC Tournament titles. Washington led the team in steals in each of her four seasons and was tops on the squad in assists three times. Washington is first on UND's all-time steals per game list (2.7), third in career steals (307), and sixth in assists (554).

The epitome of a student-athlete, Washington graduated from Notre Dame in 1992, a full year ahead of schedule, with a bachelor's degree in history. She went on to attain "Double Domer" status in 1997 after earning her Juris Doctorate from the Notre Dame Law School.

The Consummate Professional

Washington juggled finishing her law degree with the start of her professional basketball career, returning to the hardwood as a professional in 1997-98 with the ABL's Portland Power before spending a two-year stint with the WNBA's New York Liberty (1998-99).

Moving to Houston in 2000, Washington played an instrumental role in leading the Comets to the WNBA title. Her solid season in 2001 with the Comets for Hall of Fame coach Van Chancellor, saw her finish ninth in the WNBA in assists and fourth in steals as Houston earned its fifth consecutive playoff berth. Washington's started the 2002 campaign in Houston before being traded to the Indiana Fever at the midway point of the season. Washington guided the Fever to their first-ever playoff berth, helping her become the first player in WNBA history to lead three different teams to the postseason. She retired from the WNBA in 2003 as a member of the Fever.

Utilizing her law degree, Washington was a central figure in helping create the WNBA Players Association (WNBPA), serving as the founding president of the WNBPA from 1999 until 2001. She also served as the Executive Vice President of the WNBPA from 2001 until her retirement in 2003. Washington led negotiations for the association's first collective bargaining agreement as the association's president, and as the executive vice president was a mainstay in the negotiations for the league's second collective bargaining agreement, which brought about the first free agency system in women's professional sports.

A native of Flint, Michigan, Washington was inducted into the Greater Flint Area Sports Hall of Fame in December 2009.

Serving the Community

Be it on the hardwood, on the golf course, or out on a speaking engagement, Washington is among the most active Penn State coaches in the community. Her annual efforts include Coquese's Drive for the Centre County Women's Resource Center, championing the fight against breast cancer for the Penn State Play4Kay game and supporting her team during their many hours of giving back to the Centre region.

One of the first relationships that Washington established in State College was with the Executive Director of the Centre County Women's Resource Center, Ann Ard. The relationship grew quickly, with the focus shifting to helping the local non-profit find a way to raise funds and provide resources in the fight against domestic violence. In its 10 years, Coquese's Drive has raised more than $188,000 to benefit the CCWRC.

While the event has spread nationally, Penn State women's basketball was and continues to be a trend-setter in spreading awareness for breast cancer research as the first team in the country to wear pink uniforms. Washington has embraced Pink Zone at Penn State and helped it grow into an annual "can't miss" event for survivors and supporters alike. During her tenure, Washington has seen the program's Play4Kay game grow in both attendance numbers and funds raised. The 698 survivors at the 2014 game are the most in program history, while the $310,000 raised that year are a benchmark for years to come.

Along with her community involvement, Washington has appointed Miriam Powell as the Director of Community Outreach for the Lady Lion program. Powell has been charged with creating powerful and impactful relationships for the women's basketball program within the Penn State and surrounding communities, through service and volunteerism. This role was created by Washington to make sure the Lady Lions are serving those who spend much of their own time supporting Lady Lion Basketball on the floor and in the classroom.

The Personal Side

Washington and her husband, Raynell Brown, have a son, Quenton (12), and a daughter, Rhayna (8). Raynell is an Adjunct Professor of Law at Penn State Law School and is a former partner at Hicks & Brown Sports Agency, where he represented athletes in the NFL, FIBA, NBA, and WNBA. They reside in Port Matilda.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

"We knew she was their best player and she still got 29 points. She competed. She did whatever she wanted to do...she was outstanding. We keyed on her and she got 29 points. I'd hate to see if we just let her go."

-Holly Warlick, Tennessee head coach
