#NookNotes

Trip to University Park

This will be the first trip to University Park, Pennsylvania in program history. The only other meeting between the two teams came in 2014 when the Nittany Lions traveled to Fairbanks. Alaska came out victorious in that lone game, winning 4-3 over Penn State.

Two Win Teams

Alaska finds themselves 2-2-0, 2-0-0-0 WCHA after falling to the #2-ranked Denver Pioneers and then defeating the Michigan Tech Huskies. Penn State finds themselves at 2-0-0, 0-0-0-0 Big Ten after taking their first two games against Sacred Heart University.

Lone Star

Sr., F, Kylar Hope was named the only captain of the season for the Nanooks. #28 wears the 'C' and this season has one goal and one point on the young season so far. Hope is among the team leaders in blocked shots with three to his name.

Grigals' Great Weekend

So., G, Gustavs Grigals showed out this past weekend while in Houghton, Mich. While in net for the 'Nooks, Grigals grabbed two wins in each game following a 39/42 SV% (.928) and 16 MTU power plays that led to no goals. Grigals performance got him on the Honorable Mention section for WCHA Goaltender of the Week. Grigals also stopped 23 shots in the third periods combined.

#NookNotes (Cont.)

Jandric Reigns Supreme

So., D, Chris Jandric was named the WCHA Defenseman of the Week following his performances at Michigan Tech this weekend. Jandric grabbed the GWG in game one when he put away the third goal for the Nanooks in a 3-2 victory and again grabbed the GWG in game two, scoring the second goal of Alaska's 2-1 win.

Jandric currently leads the Men's NCAA D1 in game-winning goals with his two. He also is the Nanooks top scorer with three, tied with Max Newton and Kyle Marino.

Getting Votes

For the first time since the 2014 season, the Alaska Nanooks received votes for the USCHO Polls. As Denver climbs the ranks to the number one spot in the country, Alaska received one vote. Other WCHA teams received votes as well; Bowling Green (71), Northern Michigan (8), Bemidji State (1) and Lake Superior (1).

Scouting the Opponent – Penn State

Penn State enters this week's matchup ranked #8/9 in the USA Today Rankings and USCHO Polls. In both polls, Penn State received one first place vote.

Nate Sucece leads the Nittany Lions in points with seven so far. Those points are made up of two goals and five assists. Following closely behind him is Brandon Biro, who checks in with six, two goals and four assists. Their leading goal-scorer is Cole Hults. Hults has five total points with four of those coming from goals and his last is his lone assist.

Peyton Jones is the PSU goaltender, having seen two starts and completing all but 20 seconds of his time in net. He has allowed six goals, totaling a GAA of 3.01. He has a SV% of .914 but is still 2-0-0 in goal.

What is a Nanook?

Nanook is a derivation of nanuq, the Inupiaq word for polar bear. UAF's very first basketball teams had been nicknamed the Polar Bears, but after 1963, the Polar Bears became known as the Nanooks, which has since applied to all UAF sports teams.

Head Coach Erik Largen

Last April, in 2018, University of Alaska Fairbanks Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Keith Champagne named Erik Largen the head coach of the Alaska Nanooks men's ice hockey program. Largen prior to his first season as the head coach in 2018-19, served as an assistant coach for two seasons on the Nanooks' bench.

The Fairbanks native and former UAF goaltender became the program's 10th head coach after replacing 2017-18 interim head coach Lance West. When Largen was named head coach, he became the second youngest coach among NCAA Division I men's hockey head coaches at the age of 31.

Largen was hired as an assistant coach in August 2016 by former head coach, Dallas Ferguson. He served in the same position for interim head coach, Lance West during the 2017-18 season.

Throughout the past three seasons, Largen has been a part of Nanooks teams that advanced to the first round of the Western Collegiate Hockey Association Playoffs and also captured the coveted Alaska Airlines Governor's Cup in both 2017 and 2018. Last season, forward, Steven Jandric was named to the All-WCHA Rookie team and will look to continue that success as a sophomore this season.

Off the ice, Largen has coached 28 members of the Alaska Nanooks team who have been named to the WCHA, All-Academic Team. 12 of those athletes were also honored as WCHA Scholar-Athletes. Furthermore, Largen has played a huge role in organizing many community events that the Alaska Nanooks hockey team participates in.

Prior to joining the Alaska Nanooks hockey staff, Largen spent the 2015-16 season as head coach for the Marian University hockey team, an NCAA Division III program located in Fond du lac, Wisconsin. In his inaugural season as bench boss, Largen led the Sabres to an 18-7-3 season overall and a 15-4-1 mark in Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference play.

Largen brings a variety of coaching experience to the table, with stints in the United States Hockey League, the North American Hockey League and the Minnesota Junior Hockey League. Largen also served as the assistant coach for the Fairbanks Ice Dogs from 2009-2011. During his tenure, the Ice Dogs were the Robertson Cup runners-up in 2010 and claimed the championship in 2011.

Largen was the Nanooks goaltender from 2006-08. Largen is also featured on the College Hockey Honor Roll in the Fairbanks Hockey Hall of Fame.
