LEADERS DIVISION FRONT RUNNERS MEET IN PRIMETIME ON ESPN

THIS WEEK

Penn State enters its clash with No. 9 Ohio State on a five-game winning streak as the top two teams in the Big Ten Leaders Division will battle on Saturday night at Beaver Stadium. Penn State and Ohio State are two of just three undefeated teams in Big Ten Conference play (Michigan) after the Buckeyes defeated Purdue in overtime, 29-22, and the Nittany Lions thumped Iowa on the road, 38-14, last weekend.

Penn State is among 17 teams in the country with an active winning streak of five games or more, while the Buckeyes are one of 11 undefeated teams and the nation's only 8-0 team.

Something will have to give on Saturday when the Big Ten's second-ranked scoring defense squares off with its second ranked scoring offense. Penn State is allowing just 15.7 points and 322 yards per contest, while the Buckeyes score 39.0 points and pile up almost 440 yards a game.

Matt McGloin leads the Big Ten in passing with 255 ypg and Allen Robinson is tops in the conference with 47 receptions. Ohio State's Braxton Miller ranks second in total offense (292 ypg) and is tied for third with teammate Carlos Hyde in touchdowns scored in the Big Ten.

All fans are encouraged to wear white for an all-stadium Penn State WhiteOut.

LAST GAME RECAP

NITTANY LIONS THUMP IOWA, 38-14

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP) - Bill Belton ran for 103 yards and three touchdowns and surging Penn State throttled Iowa 38-14 on Saturday night for its fifth straight win. Matt McGloin threw for 289 yards and a pair of TDs for the Nittany Lions, who beat the Hawkeyes in Iowa City for the first time in 13 years.

Penn State (5-2, 3-0) took the suspense of this matchup between previously-unbeaten Big Ten teams by storming out to a 24-0 lead at halftime. The Nittany Lions scored again just 27 seconds into the second half to go ahead 31-0.

James Vandenberg threw for 189 yards for Iowa (4-3, 2-1). The Hawkeyes were held to just 209 yards of offense and tacked on a pair of late touchdowns that made the final score seem much closer than the game ever really was.

Penn State has been a notoriously strong starter under first-year coach Bill O'Brien, outscoring opponents 66-0 in the first quarter. The Nittany Lions needed just 24 minutes to jump ahead 24-0 and silence what had been a raucous Iowa crowd.

McGloin avoided an oncoming Riley McMinn, scrambled to his right and hit Jesse James open in the middle of the field for a 31-yard TD pass that put the Nittany Lions up 7-0. McGloin then found Kyle Carter for a 34-yard reception over Iowa cornerback Micah Hyde's head on fourth down and Allen Robinson for an 8-yard TD grab to give Penn State a 14-0 lead.

Vandenberg's fumble deep in Iowa territory set up an 11-yard TD run by Belton with 5:53 left before halftime. Given how incompetent the Hawkeyes were on offense, that 24-point deficit was essentially insurmountable.

Penn State had 504 yards of offense, and O'Brien joined George Hoskins (1892) and Dick Harlow (1915) as the only first-year coaches in school history with five consecutive wins.

The Hawkeyes lost starting offensive linemen Brandon Scherff and Andrew Donnal to apparent leg injuries in the opening quarter - in a span of just three plays, no less - and Mike Meyer's streak of 13 consecutive field goals ended with a pair of misses.

It was about the worst start the Hawkeyes could have imagined. It was so bad that Iowa's fans got rowdy again - but this time to boo the Hawkeyes. The second half was hardly any better.

Jesse Della Valle nearly took the second-half kickoff back for a touchdown, but Meyer's shoestring tackle got him near midfield. Penn State was in the end zone just two plays later anyway, as Belton ran it in from three yards out.

Vandenberg's problems continued the next time he dropped back to pass, as he threw it right to Penn State linebacker Michael Mauti. About the only break Iowa could get came when Zach Zwinak fumbled the ball in the end zone and the Hawkeyes recovered. But they couldn't capitalize on their rare good fortune, and Belton's third TD run of the night made it 38-0 with 14:25 left.

Jordan Cotton's 92-yard kickoff return after that score saved Iowa the indignity of their first shutout loss in 12 years. Vandenberg threw just his third TD of the year with 4:11 left, an 18-yarder to Keenan Davis.

OHIO STATE HEAD COACH URBAN MEYER

Urban Meyer is in his first season at Ohio State. Meyer, who began his coaching career as the tight ends coach for the Buckeyes in 1986, is 8-0 this season and owns a 112-23 overall mark in 11 seasons as a head coach.

This will be Meyer's second match up against Penn State on the gridiron, as his Florida team beat the Nittany Lions in the 2011 Outback Bowl, 37-24. Meyer was an ESPN analyst for Penn State's home game with Iowa on October 8, 2011. He is a 1986 graduate of Cincinnati.

LAST GAME:

at Ohio State 29, Purdue 22 (OT)

Kenny Guiton came off the bench in relief of an injured Braxton Miller to lead touchdown drives in the final minute of regulation and in overtime for Ohio State in their 29-22 victory over Purdue last Saturday in Ohio Stadium.

Purdue led 22-14 with 47 seconds left in regulation before Guiton led a drive that ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Chris Fields with three seconds remaining. Guiton then found Jeff Heuerman on the conversion pass to tie it at 22.

Ohio State opened overtime with a touchdown when Carlos Hyde scored on a short plunge, but Purdue's Caleb TerBush, who had two TD passes, misfired on four passes in the overtime.

Miller, who left the game late in the third quarter, completed 9 of 20 passes for 113 yards with an interception and ran for 47 yards on 12 carries before leaving the game when he was injured while being tackled.

SCOUTING THE BUCKEYES

Ohio State leads all FBS schools with eight wins and is one of 11 undefeated teams entering Week 9. The Buckeyes have won eight straight games to start the season for the first time since beginning the 2007 slate 10-0.

With the 29-22 come-from-behind victory against Purdue at home, Coach Urban Meyer owns the third best start to a head coaching career in Columbus. Carol Widdoes (12) and Earl Bruce (11) have the two longest winning streaks to start a career at Ohio State.

Braxton Miller, who left Saturday's contest in the third quarter due to injury, leads the team in rushing and passing. He has accounted for 21 of the team's 39 touchdowns on the year (11 pass, 10 rush) and is second in the Big Ten with 292.9 yards of total offense per game.

Miller has accumulated 1,096 (119.9 ypg) on the ground, while connecting on 105 of 179 passing attempts for 1,384 yards (173.0 ypg).

Carlos Hyde has gained 553 yards on 104 carries and ranks atop the Big Ten charts in points per game (10.0) with nine rushing touchdowns and one receiving score in six games played.

Devin Smith is a big play threat on the outside for Ohio State, averaging 22 yards per catch and grabbing six touchdowns. Smith has 23 catches for 505 yards, while Corey Brown has hauled in 31 passes for 312 yards this year.

The Buckeye defense is led by Ryan Shazier's 76 tackles - 4th in the Big Ten - and John Simon's 8.5 tackles for loss and three sacks. Bradley Roby is one of the top ballhawks in the conference with two interceptions, one for a touchdown, and 12 pass breakups.

As a team, Ohio State has 11 interceptions and 53 pass breakups to go along with six blocked kicks and 16 sacks.

LAST MEETING:

Stephfon Green ran for two touchdowns and the Nittany Lions held Ohio State scoreless in the second half, as the Buckeyes fell 20-14 in Ohio Stadium on Nov. 19, 2011.

The teams did all of their scoring in the opening half before the defenses took over.

Green ran for 93 yards on 16 carries and two scores, including a 39-yard gallop to open the scoring in the first quarter. He later added a four yard run in the early stages of the second quarter.

Matt McGloin completed 10 passes for 88 yards - 40 of those yards to Derek Moye on three catches - but it was the defense that forced two fumbles and held the Buckeyes attack to 15 first downs and 14 points.

Braxton Miller ran for a touchdown and threw a 7-yard scoring pass to Jake Stoneburner for Ohio State.

Ohio State had one last shot to win the game, taking over after a Penn State punt with 36 seconds left. But Miller was being sacked by linebacker Nate Stupar when he was called for intentional grounding.

NITTANY LIONS FROM OHIO

Senior running back Michael Zordich helped Cardinal Mooney High School to the 2006 Division IV State Championship. A native of Youngstown, Ohio, Zordich will look across the line and see a former teammate, as current Ohio State defensive lineman John Simon who played three seasons with Zordich at CMHS.

Two other Nittany Lions hail from Ohio, as junior OL Nate Cadogan went to Portsmouth High School and freshman OL Anthony Stanko went to Howland High School in Warren.

TWENTY-NINE NITTANY LIONS ON NFL ROSTERS

Twenty-nine former Penn State players were on the rosters of 19 National Football League teams for Kickoff Week. Penn State traditionally is among the top 15 schools nationally in producing current NFL players.

The Oakland Raiders feature a league-high three former Nittany Lions on its roster, including second-year starting center Stefen Wisniewski and rookies Jack Crawford and Nate Stupar. Stupar is on the practice squad.

Six NFL teams have two former Nittany Lions on their opening day rosters: Arizona, Cleveland, Dallas, Indianapolis, Miami and the New York Jets.

Bryan Scott is the elder statesman of former Nittany Lions in the NFL, as the Buffalo Bills safety/outside linebacker is entering his 10th professional season. Originally a second round draft choice of the Atlanta Falcons, Scott then played with the New Orleans Saints for one year before spending the last five in Buffalo.

Chicago Bears All-Pro plackicker Robbie Gould is next among Penn Staters in NFL longevity, entering his eighth season.

Three former Nittany Lion offensive linemen made NFL rosters with new teams: Dennis Landolt (Jets), Rich Ohrnberger (Arizona) and A.Q. Shipley (Indianapolis).

A total of 329 Nittany Lions have been selected all-time in the NFL Draft, including 36 in the first round. In the 2012 NFL Draft, Penn State had at least four players selected for the 39th time in NFL Draft history.

Penn State has had at least one alumnus on a Super Bowl team for 41 of 46 title games. Thirty-four former Nittany Lions have earned a total of 51 Super Bowl rings as players, including tackle Kareem McKenzie and defensive tackle Jimmy Kennedy with the New York Giants for Super Bowl XLVI.

Penn State's Andrew Quarless helped the Green Bay Packers win Super Bowl XLV and former Nittany Lions Sean McHugh and Scott Paxson helped the Pittsburgh Steelers win Super Bowl XLIII.

SEVEN FORMER NITTANY LIONS ON NFL COACHING STAFFS

Seven former Nittany Lions are patrolling the sidelines as part of NFL coaching staffs in 2012, including Mike Munchak, the second-year head coach of the Tennessee Titans.

The list of Penn Staters who are NFL assistant coaches includes: Gary Brown (Cleveland Browns), Sam Gash (Detroit Lions), John McNulty (Arizona Cardinals), Jeff Nixon (Miami Dolphins), Darren Perry (Green Bay Packers), and Michael Zordich (Philadelphia Eagles).

Former Penn State assistant coach Greg Schiano (1991-95) is in his first season as head coach of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and former Nittany Lion assistant coach Jim Caldwell (1986-92) is in his first year as quarterbacks coach for the Baltimore Ravens after serving as head coach of the Indianapolis Colts.

HEAD COACH BILL O'BRIEN

Bill O'Brien is 5-2 in his first season as the leader of the Penn State football program. He was named the 15th head coach in the Nittany Lions' 126 years of varsity football on January 6, 2012.

O'Brien was the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach with the New England Patriots during the 2011 season, helping the Patriots to their second Super Bowl during his five years on the coaching staff.

Like his predecessor, Hall of Fame coach Joe Paterno, O'Brien graduated from Brown University, where he played linebacker and defensive end from 1990-92. O'Brien coached at Brown (1993-94), Georgia Tech (1995-2002), Maryland (2003-04) and Duke (2005-06) before joining the Patriots' staff.

As a member of Bill Belichick's Patriots' staff, O'Brien coached the wide receivers in 2008 and was the quarterbacks coach his final three seasons. O'Brien was the Patriots' offensive coordinator in 2011 and was instrumental in New England leading the AFC in scoring (32.1 ppg) and ranking No. 2 in the NFL in total offense (428.0 ypg) and passing offense (317.8 ypg) en route to winning the AFC Championship and a berth in Super Bowl XLVI.

Born in Dorchester, Mass., O'Brien was raised in Andover, a Boston suburb. O'Brien and his wife, Colleen, have two sons, Jack and Michael.

- Graduate assistant coach (offense), 1995-97

Brown, 1993-94

- Inside Linebackers coach, 1994
- Tight Ends coach, 1993

O'BRIEN TIES CONSECUTIVE WINS RECORD FOR FIRST-YEAR HEAD COACH

With Penn State's fifth straight win, 38-14 at Iowa, Bill O'Brien has become just the third Nittany Lion head coach to win five consecutive games in his first season.

O'Brien joins George Hoskins (1892) and Dick Harlow (1915) as the only first-year coaches to win a school record five consecutive games.

FIVE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP COACHES

Five members of the Penn State coaching staff have been members of national championship staffs, including three with Bowl Championship Series title teams in the past 10 years:

- Ted Roof, defensive coordinator – Auburn, 2010
- Mac McWhorter, offensive line – Texas, 2005
- Stan Hixon, assistant head coach – LSU, 2003
- Ron Vanderlinden, linebackers – Colorado, 1990
- Charlie Fisher, quarterbacks – Eastern Ky., 1982

COACHING STAFF CONNECTIONS

In addition to Bill O'Brien, seven assistant coaches are in their first season at Penn State. Among the 10 coaches on the staff, nine had previously worked with at least one other member of the 2012 Nittany Lion coaching staff prior to this season.

Among some of the coaching staff ties:

- O'Brien worked with Stan Hixon, Mac McWhorter and Ted Roof at Georgia Tech during O'Brien's eight-year tenure on the Yellow Jackets' staff (1995-2002);
- O'Brien worked with Charles London and John Strollo at Duke in 2005-06, when Ted Roof was the head coach;
- O'Brien also worked with Craig Fitzgerald, Director of Strength and Conditioning for Football, in 2003-04 when they were on the staff at Maryland;
- John Butler was an assistant coach at Minnesota from 2007-10, working with Ted Roof during the 2008 season. Butler also worked with Craig Fitzgerald at Harvard in 2005-06 and at South Carolina in 2011, helping the Gamecocks to 11 wins and their first-ever top 10 finish;
- Larry Johnson and Ron Vanderlinden have worked together as Penn State assistant coaches on the defensive side of the ball.

PENN STATE STAFF PARTICIPATES IN AFCA'S COACH TO CURE MD PROGRAM

Penn State coach Bill O'Brien and his staff were among the coaches across the nation on Sept. 29 that wore Coach to Cure MD patches to raise awareness and funding for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy research.

Fans can donate online at www.CoachtoCureMD.org or donate $5 by texting CURE to 90999.

PENNSYLVANIANS ON STAFF

Penn State quarterbacks coach Charlie Fisher is a native of Allenwood, Pa., 70 miles east of State College, and attended Nittany Lion games in his youth.

Secondary coach John Butler and Craig Fitzgerald attended LaSalle College High School in suburban Philadelphia at the same time, along with Keith Conlin, an All-Big Ten tackle for Penn State in 1995 and a starter for the Nittany Lions' 12-0 team in 1994.

126th SEASON

126TH SEASON OF GRIDIRON EXCELLENCE

Penn State is in its 126th season of intercollegiate football and owns a 720-363-42 record, to rank 12th nationally in all-time victories.

Penn State is one of just 14 schools with 700 wins. In the Big Ten, the Nittany Lions rank fourth behind Michigan (900), Nebraska (851) and Ohio State (833).

NO. 12 IN ALL-TIME VICTORIES

Penn State's 720 victories all-time rank No. 12 in the nation. The Lions are in their 126th season and own an all-time mark of 720-363-42.

OHIO STATE GAME NOTES

CARTER & HILL HONORED BY BIG TEN AFTER HELPING SPARK BIG WIN AT IOWA

Senior defensive tackle Jordan Hill (Steelton) and redshirt freshman tight end Kyle Carter (Bear, Del.) earned Defensive and Freshman of the Week, respectively, from the Big Ten Conference for their efforts in Penn State's 38-14 win at Iowa on Oct. 20.

Hill and Carter each earned their respective awards for the first times in their careers.

Hill's selection marked the fourth time in a six week span that a Nittany Lion was selected the conference's top defensive player. Senior linebacker Michael Mauti earned the honor after the wins over Navy (Sept. 15) and Illinois (Sept. 29) and senior linebacker Gerald Hodges was honored following the win over Northwestern (Oct. 6). Carter was the second Nittany Lion to earn Big Ten Freshman honors this season, joining defensive end Deion Barnes (Navy).

Hill led another stellar Penn State defensive performance in the thumping of the Hawkeyes, as he recorded a season-high nine tackles (seven solo), with 2.0 TFL, a sack for minus-nine yards and a quarterback hurry.

Hill led a Penn State defense that held Iowa to season-lows in total yards (209), rushing yards (20) and first downs (14). The Nittany Lions forced three turnovers and limited the Hawkeyes to 2 of 12 on third down and only 21:52 in time of possession.

Carter made his second career start in the win over Hawkeyes and responded by delivering a season-high 85 receiving yards and tying his season-high with six catches. He made a career-long 34-yard catch on a fourth down conversion in the first quarter to set-up Matt McGloin's touchdown pass to Allen Robinson.

NITTANY LIONS STARTING FAST

Penn State has out-scored the opposition, 66-0, in the first quarter this season, and 100-23 in the first half. The Nittany Lions allowed just three, first half field goals in their first five games before Northwestern tallied a pair of touchdowns during the second quarter on Oct. 6.

The Nittany Lions have put points on the scoreboard in the first quarter of all seven games, scoring a least one touchdown in the first quarter of their first five games. The Blue and White had a field goal versus Northwestern and had a pair of touchdowns against Navy, at Illinois and at Iowa.

The Nittany Lions scored touchdowns on their initial possessions vs. Virginia and Navy and saw their first drive vs. Ohio end with a fumble after marching 67 yards in 11 plays. Penn State scored a touchdown on its third possession vs. the Bobcats for a 7-0 first quarter lead. The Nittany Lions also scored on their third possession vs. Temple, as Matt McGloin hit Allen Robinson on a 41-yard scoring strike with :06 left in the opening period.

Penn State scored a touchdown on its second possession at Illinois and at Iowa and a 21-yard field goal by Ficken opened the scoring in the first quarter against Northwestern.

SAVING THE BEST FOR THE FIRST QUARTER

Penn State enters the weekend as the only FBS team to not allow a point in the first quarter. Nittany Lions opponents have seen ten of their 18 drives end in three-and-out fashion and one was stopped via Stephen Obeng-Agyapong forced and recovered fumble at Virginia.

A big reason for the solid opening quarter is the time of possession. Penn State controls the ball for an average of 9:50 in the initial quarter to just 5:10 for the opposition.

Behind the Blue and White are Alabama, Notre Dame and Utah State with three, first quarter points allowed.

Only 23 points have been scored on Penn State in the opening half and they have went into the locker room after 30 minutes of play with the lead in six of their seven games.

In terms of first half scoring, Penn State's 23 total points allowed ranks second behind Boise State's 19. Alabama has allowed 31 and BYU 37 points in the first half of games this year.

NITS AT NIGHT

The Nittany Lions defeated Iowa 38-14 last week under the lights of Kinnick Stadium and will host Ohio State on Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

Penn State is playing back-to-back night games for the first time since hosting Rutgers and visiting Maryland in consecutive games in 1993.

In October 2008, the Nittany Lions played a night game at Wisconsin, hosted Michigan in a 4:30 p.m. kick and played a night game at Ohio State.

Penn State has played at least one regular season night game in 13 consecutive seasons.

Penn State and Iowa played a night game for the third time in the past four years, with the 2010 contest in Kinnick Stadium also in prime time.

The Lions' 22 night games over the past 13 seasons include: Iowa (2012); Northwestern (2011); Alabama, Iowa and Michigan (2010); Iowa (2009); Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio State (2008); Notre Dame, Ohio State and Texas A&M (2007); Michigan (2006), Illinois, Ohio State and Florida State (2005), Minnesota and Boston College (2004), Nebraska (2002 and '03), Miami (Fla.) (2001) and Indiana (2000).

RALLY IN THE VALLEY TO ROCK REC HALL FRIDAY NIGHT

The Blue & White Society and Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics are teaming up to host the traditional "Rally in the Valley" football pep rally at 6:30 p.m., Friday, Oct. 26, in Rec Hall. The doors will open at 5:30 p.m. on the eve of the Penn State-Ohio State clash. Admission is free and on a first-come, first-served basis.

The Nittany Lion faithful will be pumped up and primed to get ready for the highly-anticipated all-stadium Penn State WhiteOut game. All Nittany Lions fans are encouraged to wear white to both Friday's pep rally and at Saturday night's duel with the No. 9 Buckeyes.

HODGES, MAUTI MAKE PENN STATE ONLY SCHOOL WITH TWO BUTKUS SEMI-FINALISTS

Senior standouts Gerald Hodges and Michael Mauti have been selected semifinalists for the 2012 Butkus Award, presented to the nation's top linebacker.

Penn State is the only school in the nation with multiple players selected among the 12 Butkus Award semifinalists.

Presented annually since 1985, "Linebacker U." All-Americans LaVar Arrington (1999) and Paul Posluszny (2005) are former winners of the Butkus Award. Nittany Lions Shane Conlan (1986), Andre Collins (1989), Brandon Short (1999), Posluszny (2006) and Dan Connor (2007) were finalists for the Butkus Award.

Hodges was selected a 2012 first-team pre-season All-American by Lindy's and recently was named a Mid-Season All-American by Phil Steele's College Football. He also is on the Watch Lists for Bednarik, Award and and Nagurski Trophy. Hodges is 11th in the Big Ten with 54 tackles and has 2.5 TFL, one interception, one forced fumble, a fumble recovery and a team-high four pass break-ups. The former Paulsboro High School standout has started all 20 games the past two seasons.

Mauti recently was selected a 2012 second-team Mid-season All-American by SI.com and Phil Steele's College Football and also is a Bednarik Award candidate. He also was named ESPN.com, BTN.com and Athlon Sports' Mid-season Big Ten Defensive MVP.

A two-time Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honoree this season (three career), Mauti leads the team with 65 tackles (36 solo). He also has 3.5 TFL, 2.5 sacks, a team-high three interceptions, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and two pass break-ups. The former Mandeville High School standout is No. 5 in Big Ten in tackles, is tied for No. 2 with two forced fumbles and three interceptions.

TURNOVER TURNAROUND: LIONS NO. 1 IN BIG TEN IN TURNOVER MARGIN

Penn State has made a dramatic turnaround in turnovers since losing three and not gaining any in the season opener vs. Ohio.

The Nittany Lions forced four turnovers against both Virginia and Navy and three turnovers at Illinois for 11 in a four game stretch. Penn State forced one turnover against Northwestern and three more at Iowa and now has 15 on the season (9 fumbles, 6 INT).

The Nittany Lions are a top the Big Ten with a +1.14 turnover margin, having gained 15 and lost seven through seven games. Penn State is tied No. 2 in the conference with its seven turnovers lost (Indiana, four) and their 15 turnovers forced.

LIONS AMONG LEADERS IN FEWEST PENALTIES

Penn State is tied for second in the Big Ten and is No. 19 nationally in fewest penalties per game at 4.57 ppg, having committed just 32 in seven games. The Nittany Lions are No. 4 in the conference and 35th nationally in fewest penalty yards at 44.86 ypg.

In their first two Big Ten wins, the Nittany Lions committed just five penalties for 47 yards. At Iowa, Penn State was flagged seven times for 72 yards, both their second highest totals in a single game in 2012.

DEFENSE SHUTS DOWN IOWA OFFENSE

Penn State's defense has been one of the toughest units to score on in the nation this season, as Iowa found out in a 38-14 prime time loss to the Nittany Lions.

The defense allowed just one offensive touchdown, which came with 4:11 left in the game and held the Hawkeyes offense to just 209 total yards of offense.

The 209 yards allowed was a season-low for the Blue and White's defensive unit and they held the Iowa ground game to just 20 yards rushing on 23 carries (0.9 ypc). The limited ground game was thanks in part to four sacks - which tied a season-high - for minus-23 yards.

Penn State didn't allow a rushing touchdown for the fourth time this season and forced three Iowa turnovers in the game (two INT, 1 fumble). The Blue and White limited the Hawkeyes to just 21:52 time of possession.

The stars shine their brightest at night and on Oct. 20 at Iowa, sophomore Bill Belton showed his ability to shine with a 103-yard, three touchdown effort.

Belton entered the weekend with 133 rushing yards on 33 attempts for a 3.9 yards per carry average, but those carries were during three day games.

When the lights came on in Iowa City, Belton reeled off a career-high 103 yards on 16 carries, which tied his career-best effort, and averaged over six yards per carry.

The sophomore also scored his first career rushing touchdown versus the Hawkeyes, crossing the goal line three times in the game. It was the first three-TD effort by a Lions running back since Evan Royster did so versus Oregon State in 2008.

PENN STATE NO. 5 IN HOME ATTENDANCE

Through the initial eight weeks of the season, Penn State continues to rank as one of the nation's home attendance leaders, ranking No. 5 among the 120 Football Bowl Subdivision institutions.

The Nittany Lions have drawn an average of 96,357 fans to Beaver Stadium during their initial four home games, three of which were non-conference contests. Ohio State, Indiana and Wisconsin will visit Penn State during the final five weeks of the season.

Penn State has finished in the Top 5 of the NCAA's annual home attendance survey every year since adding the 10,000-seat North deck for the 1991 season.

NO. 2 in NATION IN FOURTH DOWN SUCCESS

Penn State is No. 9 in the nation on fourth down conversion percentage among teams that have run at least 15 fourth down plays.

The Nittany Lions are 14 of 23 (60.8%) on fourth down, just behind Navy (61.1%) and Nevada (64.7%) among teams that have attempted at least 15 fourth down plays.

Penn State's 14 successful fourth down conversions are second in the NCAA and are more than any other Big Ten team has attempted this season.

McGLOIN LEADS BIG TEN IN PASSING; NEARS NO. 6 SPOT ON CAREER TD PASSES LIST

Senior Matt McGloin threw for a career-best 318 yards in the win over Temple and has put together five straight 200-plus yard passing game to lead the Big Ten in passing average and completions. He is second in touchdown passes.

McGloin is 162 for 259 (62.5) for 1,788 yards (season career-best), with 14 touchdowns and just two interceptions. He was the first Big Ten signal-caller to hit 1,000 passing yards this season and is averaging 255.4 YPG.

Nebraska's Taylor Martinez leads the Big Ten with 15 TD passes and McGloin is close behind with 14 touchdown passes. McGloin has tied his season career-high of 14 scoring strikes from 2010.

McGloin threw for 289 yards on 26-of-38 passing with two touchdowns and no interceptions in the 38-14 win at Iowa. It marked the fifth time this season that McGloin threw for multiple touchdowns in a game. McGloin set a career-high with 26 rushing yards, giving him 315 yards of total offense vs. the Hawkeyes, the second-highest total of his career (331 vs. Temple on Sept. 22).

McGloin led Penn State to 504 yards of total offense at Iowa, its highest total since gaining 528 in a 2010 win over Northwestern.

McGloin has 36 career touchdown passes, good for No. 7 at Penn State. Chuck Fusina is sixth with 37 and Kerry Collins is fifth with 39. (see page 11 for Penn State season and career passing lists).

The former West Scranton High School standout was 18 of 30 for 211 yards in the Big Ten opening win at Illinois and followed that up with a school-record 35 completions against No. 24 Northwestern in a 39-28 victory, with a pair of touchdown passes and a running score.

McGloin has had a hand in 19 of Penn State's 26 offensive touchdowns this season, as well as 21 of the 23 long plays from scrimmage (20 yards or longer).

During the 2011 season, McGloin started the last five regular season games (played in all 12) and threw for 1,571 yards and eight touchdowns, completing 54 percent of his passes.

ROBINSON NO. 2 AMONG BIG TEN RECEIVERS; LEADS B1G WITH EIGHT TD CATCHES

Sophomore WR Allen Robinson (Southfield, Mich.) has quickly established himself as one of the Big Ten's premier receivers and sits atop the conference charts in receiving touchdowns and receptions and is second in receiving yards.

The former Orchard Lake St. Mary's Prep standout has 47 receptions for a 12.0 average. Robinson's 563 receiving yards and 80.4 yards per game average are both second to Wisconsin's Jared Abbrederis (627, 89.6), but his eight touchdown catches are tops in the Big Ten.

A candidate for the Biletnikoff Award, the Penn State season receptions record by a sophomore is 48 set by Bobby Ingram (1993) and Deon Butler (2006). The all-time season mark is 63 held by O.J. McDuffie (1992) and Ingram (1995). Ingram was the inaugural winner of the Biletnikoff Award in 1994.

Robinson's eight touchdown catches are good for a tie for No. 7 on the school season list (see page 8).

In the 34-7 win over Navy, Robinson posted his first career 100-yard receiving game with 136 yards, with three touchdowns grabs to re-write another career high. Robinson hauled in a pair of career-long 45-yard catches vs. the Mids.

Robinson's three touchdown receptions on the day marked the most for a Penn State receiver since Graham Zug grabbed three in a win at Michigan in 2009.

Robinson recorded his first career touchdown reception on a diving 30-yard grab from Matt McGloin early in the fourth quarter at Virginia, making 10 catches for 89 yards. He became the first Nittany Lion to post double-digit receptions in a game since Derrick Williams had 10 vs. Purdue in 2007.

TIGHT ENDS MAKING MAJOR IMPACT; LEAD NATION WITH 51 RECEPTIONS

Coach Bill O'Brien indicated before the season that the tight ends would play a vital role in the Penn State offense and they certainly have throughout the campaign.

Entering this week, Penn State leads nation with 51 receptions by tight ends. Stanford ranks No. 2 with 46 tight end catches. Among Big Ten teams, Michigan State is second with 28 receptions by its tight ends.

Redshirt freshman Kyle Carter ranks second on the team with 29 catches for 364 yards (12.6) and grabbed his first touchdown pass at Virginia. Carter re-set his career-high with 85 yards on six catches in the 38-14 win at Iowa.

Junior Matt Lehman made a career-high five catches for 70 yards at Illinois, including a 21-yard touchdown pass. He is fourth on the team with 13 receptions for 163 yards, including four grabs of 20 yards or more and two touchdowns.

Junior Garry Gilliam has four catches for 36 yards and true freshman Jesse James had a career day at Iowa with three catches for 52 yards and a 31-yard touchdown grab to open the scoring. On the year, James has five catches for 54 yards (10.8) and two touchdowns.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL STUDENT-ATHLETES TIED FOR TOP GRADUATION RATE AMONG TOP 25 BCS TEAMS

The Penn State football team was tied with Stanford for the top Graduation Success Rate (GSR) among teams ranked in the final 2011 Bowl Championship Series Top 25 rankings, according to data released by the NCAA in Oct. 2011.

Penn State football student-athletes that enrolled in the University from 2001-04 earned a superlative Graduation Success Rate of 87 percent, tied with Stanford for No. 10 overall among the nation's 120 Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) institutions.

Penn State's 87 percent GSR was significantly higher than the 67 percent FBS average and was second to Northwestern (94) among Big Ten institutions.

Penn State football student-athletes that enrolled in the University from 2001-04 earned a strong four-year federal graduation rate of 80 percent, also No. 2 to Northwestern (86) among Big Ten squads. The Nittany Lions' 80 percent graduation figure was 24 points above the 56 percent FBS average, according to the NCAA.

In the NCAA's 2009 graduation data, the Nittany Lions earned the highest GSR and federal graduation rate among teams ranked in the final Associated Press Top 25 poll.

The strong NCAA graduation rate data is the latest success in a long line of academic achievement for members of the Penn State football program, who consistently are near the top nationally in academic success:

- Penn State has had 15 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans® in the past six years to lead the nation, with 13 first-team selections.

- Penn State's all-time total of 49 Academic All-America® football players is third among all FBS institutions.

ROBINSON ASCENDS TOWARDS TOP OF RECEIVING CHARTS

Sophomore receiver Allen Robinson entered the 2012 campaign with a 9.7 yards per catch average, not to bad for a freshman, but the work sample was very limited. He had caught only three passes for 27 yards as a true freshman. Enter a new head coach and a new offensive system and Robinson has become one of the top wideouts in the country.

He is slowing writing his name into the Nittany Lion record books, as well. The single season charts will soon add Robinson among names like Butler, Ingram, Jurevicius and McDuffie.

He has already put his name into seventh on the single season TD charts with eight scoring grabs. He is one catch away from moving onto the single season receptions top-10 charts and is just nine receptions away from claiming the No. 2 spot.

If he can keep up his current receptions per game average of 6.7 he will blow away the Penn State record currently held by Bobby Ingram and O.J. McDuffie.

Robinson is just 30 catches shy of cracking the Big Ten single season record books for catches, with a four-person group of Jeremy Ebert (Northwestern, 2011), Travis Beckum (Wisconsin, 2007), John Standefod (Purdue, 2002) and Lee Evans (Wisconsin, 2001) all tied for 24th in conference history with 75 catches.

BEAVER STADIUM SEES IMPROVEMENTS

Penn State fans are enjoying several significant upgrades to Beaver Stadium during the past two years.

The most significant changes to the venerable facility include:

- WiFi is available throughout the stadium;
- Credit and debit cards will be accepted at all concession stands;
- Waterproofing of the south upper deck seating areas;
- A camera has been installed on the south goalpost for the in-house videoboards;
- A new entry gate - Gate F - on the East side of the stadium near Gate A;
- More than 100 new locations for ADA patrons and companion seating on the East and West sides;
- Paving work on the field level concourse in the East, West and North sides of the stadium will provide a smoother and level surface for fans;
- A total of eight new restroom facilities, which are ADA-accessible, have been constructed in the East, West and North sides on the field level concourse;
- Improved drainage in seating areas

The changes and improvements to Beaver Stadium began as soon as the 2010 season ended and were completed in two phases, according to Associate Athletic Director Mark Bodenschatz. The first phase ended the week prior to the 2011 Blue-White Game and the second phase wrapped up in time for Football Eve on Sept. 2, 2011, and the Nittany Lions' 125th season opener the next day.

The new entry — Gate F — is located near Gate A on the East side of the stadium. Designed to accommodate 6,000-8,000 patrons, Gate F will be a tremendous asset on gamedays, allowing some fans who sit on the East side and previously have entered at Gate E, a smoother entry into the stadium. Penn State students will continue to enter Beaver Stadium at Gate A.

The most noticeable changes inside the stadium have occurred in the lower sections of the East, West and North seating areas. In the East and West, the first three rows of seats from goal line to goal line were removed and replaced with five large, pre-cast sections that will permit additional ADA spectators and companions to watch the Nittany Lions from a great vantage point. The pre-cast sections are approximately eight feet wide, to allow spectator traffic flow with the new ADA and companion seating.

Also in the East and West stands, vomitory ramps have been improved to allow for increased and easier access by ADA patrons to the new seating areas.

Fans will also notice significant changes on the North side of the stadium. The Section NF vomitory ramp has been modified with a gentler slope to permit ADA spectators to enter the North field level seats from Section NF, rather than the visiting team tunnel. A total of eight new ADA-accessible restroom facilities have been constructed in the East, West and North sides on the field level concourse.

Bodenschatz said 101 new ADA seats, as well as 101 companion seats, will be available for the upcoming season. With the ADA improvements, the Beaver Stadium capacity is 106,572, the nation's second-largest stadium.

Additional work has been done in a number of areas in the stadium, according to Bodenschatz. The work includes new storm water lines, allowing rain to be captured and re-directed at higher points in the stadium. Trenches, some 8-10 feet deep, were dug in the lower concourse to house the storm water drainage, as well as new water and sanitary lines. With the new lines in place, approximately 50 percent of the field level concourse surface area has been repaved since the end of last season.

Another completed stadium project includes consolidating the storage areas for the field maintenance staff and stadium concessions with new facilities in the North end of the stadium. Electrical work, painting of the east side seats in rows 1-60, new carpeting in the Penn State locker room and painting in the press box on the west side of the stadium also has been completed.

CARTER NAMED TO JOHN MACKEY AWARD MID-SEASON WATCH LIST

Redshirt freshman Kyle Carter was named to the Mid-season Watch List for the 2012 John Mackey Award, an honor presented annually to the nation's best collegiate tight end.

A product of Bear, Del., Carter is the only freshman among the 26 Mackey Award candidates. He is among four Big Ten players who are candidates.

Carter has played in every game this season for Coach Bill O'Brien's Nittany Lions. He is second on the team with 29 catches for 364 yards (12.6) and has one touchdown. Carter made a season-high six receptions vs. Ohio (74 yds) and at Iowa (85 yds) and has at least three catches in six of Penn State's seven games. He made five catches for 70 yards in the win over Temple and made his first career touchdown catch at Virginia. Carter has four catches for 20 yards or longer.

The award, which is presented by the Nassau County Sports Commission, honors Pro Football Hall of Fame member John Mackey. In 10 NFL seasons with the Baltimore Colts (1963-71) and the San Diego Chargers (1972), Mackey revolutionized the tight end position. He twice compiled season averages of more than 20 yards a catch, and his 10-year career average of 15.8 is considered remarkable for a tight end. Mackey also was the first president of the NFLPA.

The award recipient is selected by vote of the John Mackey Award Selection Committee and the 2012 award winner will be announced live on ESPN on Dec. 6 at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show.

LIONS SECOND IN BIG TEN IN SCORING DEFENSE

The Penn State defense has been stout, entering the eighth week of the season ranked second in the conference in scoring defense.

The Nittany Lions are 13th nationally in scoring defense at 15.7 ppg and trail only Michigan State's 15.2 ppg in the conference. A big reason for the limited points per game is their Red Zone defense. The Blue and White have allowed opponents to convert just 60 percent (12 of 20) of their red zone chances this season, which leads the Big Ten and is No. 6 nationally.

Penn State also leads the conference in turnover margin (+1.14), is second in time of possession (32:31) and sacks (19). They also allow the second fewest rushing yards and second fewest first downs per game in the Big Ten.

STANDING TALL ON THIRD DOWN

After allowing their first two opponents to convert over 60-percent of their third down plays, the Nittany Lions defense has been stout on third down during their five game winning streak. Ohio and Virginia combined to convert 22 of 36 third down plays, but since then the Blue and White defense has left opponents Black and Blue on third down.

Penn State has held its last five counterparts to just 16-for-66 on third down, a 24-percent conversion rate. No team has converted more than four third downs in one game since the loss to Virginia and Penn State limited

PENN STATE STUDENT-ATHLETES EARN 88 PERCENT GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Penn State student-athletes continue to graduate well above their peers nationwide, earning record-setting academic performances, according to statistical information released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) in October, 2011.

The NCAA's annual study of institutions nationwide revealed that Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2001-02 through 2004-05. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (96) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions.

The Penn State football team earned a record GSR of 87 percent, tied with Stanford for the top graduation rate among teams in this week's BCS rankings and AP Top 25 poll. The Nittany Lion basketball (90 percent) and Lady Lion basketball (100) teams also earned graduation rates at least 15 percent higher than the national average.

This was the 21st annual release of institutional graduation rates since national "right-to-know" legislation was passed in 1990. In 2005, the NCAA Division I Committee on Academic Performance implemented the initial release of the team GSR data.

The GSR is the NCAA's more inclusive calculation of student-athlete academic success. The NCAA rate is more accurate than the federally mandated methodology because it includes incoming transfers and students enrolling in the spring semester who receive athletic aid and graduate, and deletes from the calculation student-athletes who leave an institution and were academically eligible to compete. The federal rate does neither.

In addition to releasing each institution's overall four-year Graduation Success Rate, the NCAA also released the federal graduation rates for students and student-athletes as it has for the past 21 years. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 79 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average. The four-year average for University Park students was 85 percent, also far exceeding the 62 percent rate for all students nationwide.

Among the 2004-05 entering freshman class, 80 percent of Penn State student-athletes earned degrees within six years, up from 76 percent last year and well above the 65 percent average for all Division I institutions. Penn State's 80 percent figure was second-highest among Big Ten schools, trailing only Northwestern (85). The graduation rate for all Penn State students was 85 percent in the entering class of 2004-05.

The NCAA data revealed that student-athletes from six Penn State squads earned a Graduation Success Rate of 100 percent -- Lady Lion basketball, field hockey, women's golf, men's gymnastics, men's tennis and women's tennis - and eight additional teams were at 90 percent or higher. Twenty of Penn State's 25 teams (track/cross country teams combined) earned a Graduation Success Rate at or above the national GSR average of 80 percent.

The Penn State Football (87 percent compared to 67), Nittany Lion Basketball (90 to 66 percent) and Lady Lion Basketball (100 to 84 percent) teams all earned four-year Graduation Success Rates considerably higher than the national average for their sport. Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with their 90 percent GSR score. Coach Coquese Washington's Lady Lions were tied for first in the Big Ten with their 100 percent GSR average.

The 2004-05 entering class for the Nittany Lion football team earned a stellar 84 percent graduation rate, which was highest among Big Ten Conference teams (Northwestern was second at 80 percent).

Iowa to just 2-for-12 on third down last week.

Northwestern started the game 0 for 6 on third down, while Illinois was 0 of 9 on third downs in the game before earning its first conversion late in the third quarter.

For the season, Nittany Lion opponents are 38 of 102 (37.3) on third down conversions.

O'BRIEN, MAUTI AND HODGES EARN MID-SEASON NATIONAL & BIG TEN ACCOLADES

Head coach Bill O'Brien and senior linebackers Michael Mauti and Gerald Hodges earned several national and Big Ten honors during the first half of the season.

In his first season as head coach, O'Brien was selected Mid-season National Coach of the Year by BleacherReport.com, CBSsports.com (Dennis Dodd) and ESPN.com (Gene Wojciechowski). He also earned ESPN.com, BTN.com and Athlon Sports' Big Ten Coach of the Year.

O'Brien also is leading in Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year fan voting at coachoftheyear.com.

Mauti was selected a second-team Mid-season All-American by SI.com and Phil Steele's College Football. He also earned Big Ten Defensive MVP honors from ESPN.com, BTN.com and Athlon Sports. A 2011 first-team All-Big Ten selection, Hodges earned fourth-team All-America accolades from Phil Steele's College Football at the halfway point of the season.

Mauti (Sept. 17 & Oct. 1) and Hodges (Oct. 8) have earned three Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors during a five-week span, giving both "LinebackerU." standouts three career weekly conference honors.

At the season's mid-point, Mauti led the team and was No. 4 in the Big Ten with 57 tackles (32 solo). He'd recorded 2.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, two interceptions, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and two pass break-ups. Mauti grabbed two interceptions in the 35-7 win at Illinois, returning one a school record 99 yards en route to Big Ten weekly honors.

A candidate for the Bednarik and Butkus Awards, Mauti was tied for first in the Big Ten with two forced fumbles and tied for second in interceptions after seven weeks.

A candidate for the Bednarik & Butkus Awards and the Nagurski Trophy, Hodges was second on the team and 10th in the Big Ten with 50 tackles. The 2011 first-team All-Big Ten selection also had 2.5 tackles for loss, 1.5 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and a team-high three pass break-ups at the midway point of 2012.

Over the first seven weeks, Mauti and Hodges were instrumental in helping Penn State rank No. 2 in the Big Ten and No. 15 nationally in scoring defense (16.0 ppg) and tied for first in the conference and No. 14 in the nation in turnover margin (+ 1.17). The Nittany Lions also lead the Big Ten and are No. 17 nationally in Red Zone defense at 68.8 pct. (11 of 16).

BUTKUS AWARD CANDIDATES HODGES & MAUTI AMONG BIG TEN TACKLE LEADERS

Penn State senior linebackers Gerald Hodges (Pausboro, N.J.) and Michael Mauti (Mandeville, La.) are two of the Big Ten's top defensive players and are among the conference's tackle leaders.

Both players are on the Bednarik and Butkus Award watch lists.

The two-time Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week (Sept. 17 & Oct. 1), Mauti is fifth in the Big Ten with 9.7 tackles per game. He also has 3.5 tackles for loss (minus-30) yards, 2.5 sacks (minus-25), three interceptions, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery and has two pass break-ups.

A first-team pre-season All-American, Hodges is 11th in the Big Ten with 7.7 stops per game. He also has 2.5 TFL, one interception, a forced and recovered fumble and owns four pass break-ups.

ZWINAK JOINS ELITE 100-YARD RUSHING GROUP

Sophomore running back Zach Zwinak became the 85th Nittany Lion to rush for 100 yards in a game when he gained 100 yards on 19 carries and scored two touchdowns in the 35-7 win at Illinois.

The following week, in the 39-28 win over Northwestern, Zwinak joined an even more elite group, as he became just the eighth Nittany Lion to deliver his first two 100-yard rushing efforts in consecutive games.

Zwinak broke his career-high for the third consecutive game by rushing for 121 yards on a career-best 28 carries, including a one-yard touchdown run. He also set career-bests with six catches for 52 yards for a career-high 173 all-purpose yards, the highest total by a Nittany Lion this season.

Zwinak joined the following Nittany Lions with their first two 100-yard rushing efforts in consecutive games: Ki-Jana Carter (1993), Tom Donchez (1974), D.J. Dozier (1983), Curtis Enis (1995), Larry Johnson (2002), Buddy Torris (1961) and Wally Triplett (1948).

Dozier leads the group with his first four 100-yard rushing efforts occurring in consecutive games in 1983. Carter had three consecutive 100-yard efforts in 1993.

ZWINAK POSTS BACK-TO-BACK 100-YARD EFFORTS

Sophomore running back Zach Zwinak had gained just seven yards on three carries in his two seasons on campus. He suffered a torn ACL during his first season and racked up all seven yards versus Eastern Michigan in 2011.

This season, Zwinak has seen his workload gradually expand through the first six games. The Frederick, Md. native had just three carries over the first three games - all coming at Virginia - but due to injury found his role increased against Temple.

He piled up a then career-high 94 yards on 18 carries versus the Owls, but a week later he broke out for his first career 100-yard rushing effort. Versus the Illini he delivered his second consecutive career performance in the 35-7 win, gaining 100 yards on 19 carries and scoring twice.

Zwinak became the first Nittany Lion to eclipse 100 rushing yards since Silas Redd gained 137 yards vs. the Illini on Oct. 29, 2011.

Just seven day later, Zwinak again eclipsed his career mark for rushing yards in a game. The sophomore toted the ball 28 times for 121 yards and a touchdown in the 39-28 victory over #24/22 Northwestern on Homecoming in Happy Valley.

His one-yard touchdown run gave the Nittany Lions a 10-0 lead in the second quarter, but his 46 yards in the fourth quarter that kept the Wildcats defense on the field and enabled the Blue and White to complete their comeback and collect the win.

OFFENSE ON RECORD PACE VERSUS WILDCATS

The record books needed some new ink after the Nittany Lions finished off their 39-28 victory over Northwestern on Oct. 6.

As a team, Penn State ran 99 offensive play, matching a school record that was set on Oct. 22, 1966 in a 38-6 victory

MCGLOIN AMONG ELITE NITTANY LION PASSERS

Senior Matt McGloin has had his fair share of success under center for the Nittany Lions, but he is enjoying one of the finest seasons in Penn State history in 2012. A daunting task awaited McGloin when Bill O'Brien took over the program in January, 2011. After three seasons in the same offensive system, McGloin would have to learn complex playbook, new terminology and adjust to the pace of play in O'Brien's offense. The competitor in McGloin came out when faced with these obstacles and he has been one of the top quarterbacks in the Big Ten.

The senior is closing in on becoming just the 15th 2000-yard passer in school history and he is one of only 15 Penn State quarterbacks to have at least one 300-yard passing game on his resume. He already owns the school record for completions in a game and his assault on the record books continues with five games left in his career. He is among the top ten in the four major career passing categories and his superb senior season has propelled him towards the single season charts, as well.

over West Virginia. The 99 plays are the second most run by a Big Ten team this season, just one behind Northwestern's 100-play afternoon versus Boston College on Sept. 15.

Penn State's 30 first downs versus Northwestern were the most for the Lions since posting 35 in a 44-14 victory over Minnesota in 2005. It marks only the Lions third game with 30 or more first downs since 1995. The school record for first downs in a game are 38 vs. West Virginia in '62.

Matt McGloin set a Penn State record with 35 pass completions, breaking the previous mark of 33 set by Wally Richardson in 1995 vs. Wisconsin. McGloin also had a career-high 51 pass attempts on the day tying Rashard Casey (51 vs. Iowa in 2000) for the second-most all-time at Penn State. Kerry Collins holds the record with 55 attempts at BYU in 1992.

HODGES EARNS BIG TEN DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK FOR WIN OVER NORTHWESTERN

Senior linebacker Gerald Hodges led a superlative defensive effort Oct. 6 in handing then No. 24 Northwestern its first loss and has earned his third career Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honor.

A candidate for the Butkus and Bednarik Awards and the Nagurski Trophy, Hodges' selection marks the third time in the past four weeks a Nittany Lion has been selected the conference's top defensive player, with fellow linebacker Michael Mauti earning the honor after the Navy and Illinois games.

Hodges led another stellar defensive performance in the 39-28 comeback win over Northwestern. He recorded a season-high tying 11 tackles, with 1.5 TFL, a forced fumble and two pass break-ups. Hodges ended any comeback hopes by the Wildcats late in the game by forcing a fumble that was recovered by freshman cornerback Da'Quan Davis.

Hodges led a Penn State defense that held the Wildcats to season-lows in total yards (247), rushing yards (112) and first downs (14), one week after the Wildcats logged a school record 704 yards of total offense. Led by Hodges, the Nittany Lions forced four straight Northwestern three-and-outs to start the game (six total) and the Wildcats went 4-of-13 on third down on the day. Penn State became the first team to keep Northwestern off the scoreboard in the first quarter this season.

Hodges previously earned the conference's weekly honor last season, earning consecutive Defensive Player of the Week accolades following the Northwestern and Illinois games.

FOURTEEN NITTANY LIONS HAVE EARNED FIRST START THIS SEASON

Seven Nittany Lions earned their first career start vs. Ohio. RB Derek Day earned his first start at Virginia and RB Curtis Dukes and T Adam Gress started vs. Navy to increase the total to 10.

In the win over Temple, freshman TE Jesse James and DE C.J. Olaniyan earned their first career starts to push the total to 12. Freshman tight end Kyle Carter and junior tight end Matt Lehman each earned their first career starts at Illinois to move the total to 14.

PLAYERS EARNING 1ST CAREER START IN 2012:

Offense - RB Bill Belton, RB Derek Day, RB Curtis Dukes, G Miles Dieffenbach, T Adam Gress, TE Jesse James, TE Kyle Carter, TE Matt Lehman, T Donovan Smith, G John Urschel

Defense - DE Deion Barnes, DT DaQuan Jones, Saf Stephen Obeng-Agyapong and DE C.J. Olaniyan.

MAUTI SELECTED WALTER CAMP & BIG TEN DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior linebacker Michael Mauti delivered a record-setting performance in Penn State's 35-7 win at Illinois and was selected the Walter Camp Football Foundation's National Defensive Player of the Week.

Mauti also was named Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for the second time in three weeks and the third time in his career for his efforts versus the Illini.

A candidate for the Butkus and Bednarik Award, Mauti also earned a helmet sticker from ESPN's College Football Final program via fans on social media. West Virginia quarterback Geno Smith earned Walter Camp's offensive honor for Week 5.

Mauti led a dominant Penn State defensive performance, by recording two interceptions, six tackles (four solo) and combining on a sack. With the Illini threatening to become the first team to score a touchdown against Penn State in the first half, Mauti grabbed a Nathan Scheelhaase pass at the goal line and raced up the near sideline with a convoy of blockers. He avoided several would-be tacklers, but was tripped up at the Illinois one-yard-line. The 99-yard interception return broke the school record for longest interception return, a 98-yard effort by Wayne Berfield at Boston University in 1958.

Mauti made his second theft near midfield late in the third quarter to set-up a Zach Zwinak's second touchdown run of the game for a 35-7 lead early in the fourth quarter. Also in the third period, the former Mandeville High School All-American and defensive end Deion Barnes combined on a seven-yard sack of Scheelhaase.

Led by Mauti, the Nittany Lions forced three turnovers and held Illinois well below its season average of 26.5 ppg, 0 for 3 in the Red Zone, and an 0 of 9 start on third down conversions until late in the third quarter. Before the final Illini drive of the game, Penn State allowed just one of 13 Illinois drives to extend longer than six plays.

FOUR DIFFERENT LIONS LEAD RUSHING ATTACK TO OPEN 2012 SEASON

Penn State had a different rushing leader in each of the initial four games, with injuries giving five running backs an opportunity to carry the ball and bolster the team's depth.

Sophomore Bill Belton led the Nittany Lions with 53 yards on 13 carries in the opener vs. Ohio, but suffered a sprained ankle and has missed the last three games. Senior Derek Day earned his first career start at Virginia and gained 47 yards on 18 attempts, but suffered a shoulder injury and missed the next two contests.

Senior Michael Zordich, who had 15 carries in 2011, gained a team-high 50 yards on 11 carries in the win over Navy. Junior Curtis Dukes made his first career start and gained 47 yards on 11 attempts, but missed the Temple game after sustaining a thigh injury.

In the Sept. 22 win over Temple, sophomore Zach Zwinak set then-career-highs with 18 carries for 94 yards (5.2). Zordich re-wrote his career bests with 15 attempts for 75 yards (5.0), including a team season-long 16-yard run. He left the game after taking a hit to his left knee. Behind Zwinak and Zordich, Penn State gained a season-high 173 rushing yards on 42 carries (4.1) and also set season bests for first downs (27) and time of possession (36:52).

MAUTI & BARNES EARN BIG TEN HONORS

Senior linebacker Michael Mauti and redshirt freshman defensive end Deion Barnes were honored Sept. 17 by the Big Ten Conference for their efforts in Penn State's 34-7 win over Navy.

Mauti was selected Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week for the second time in his career and Barnes was named the conference's Co-Freshman of the Week for the first time.

At least one Penn State linebacker has earned Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week every season since 2004, including senior Gerald Hodges (Paulsboro, N.J.), who was honored for the Northwestern and Illinois games last year. Penn State two-time All-America linebacker Paul Posluszny is the conference's all-time leader in career weekly Defensive honors with five.

Mauti led a defensive effort that resulted in forcing four turnovers, including one defensive touchdown, and holding Navy to just seven points and 4 of 15 on third down conversions.

Mauti posted a game-high 12 tackles (seven solo) for his fifth career game with 10 or more tackles and second this season. The Butkus Award semifinalist also recorded his first sack of the season and had two tackles for loss (minus-26 yards). He led an effort that resulted in season highs of four sacks and nine TFL.

Playing in his third career game, Barnes shared his first Big Ten honor with Indiana quarterback Nate Sudfeld. Making his second start, Barnes made a season-high five tackles (three solo), including his third sack of the young season. He forced his second fumble of the year on a sack on a Navy fourth down play from the PSU 31-yard-line early in the third quarter with the Nittany Lions leading 20-0.

PENN STATE'S 20th BIG TEN SEASON

After 106 years as an independent in football, Penn State began play in the Big Ten Conference in 1993 and is playing its 20th year in the conference. The Nittany Lions were Big Ten Champions in 1994, beating Oregon to win the 1995 Rose Bowl, and played USC in the 2009 Rose Bowl.

The Nittany Lions will begin Big Ten play at Leaders Division foe Illinois on Sept. 29 and finish the regular season with home games against division rivals Indiana (Nov. 17) and Wisconsin (Nov. 24). Penn State also hosts Leaders Division foe Ohio State (Oct. 27) and visits Purdue (Nov. 3).

Penn State will annually play Nebraska (Nov. 10) from the Legends Division and also plays at Iowa (Oct. 20) and hosts Northwestern (Oct. 6 - Homecoming) from the Legends Division this year.

In 2013 and '14, Michigan and Minnesota will replace the Hawkeyes and Wildcats on the Nittany Lions' schedule. Michigan State and Iowa return to the Penn State slate in 2015.

Legends Division: Iowa, Michigan, Michigan State, Minnesota, Nebraska and Northwestern

SCHOOL RECORD 10 BOWL TEAMS ON SLATE

The Nittany Lions are facing a program record 10 teams that played in bowl games last year, with five games at home and all five games on the road.

Navy was 5-7 last year and had played in eight consecutive bowl games before missing by one win in 2011.

Among the teams coming to Beaver Stadium this fall are 2011 bowl teams: Ohio (Idaho Potato Bowl), Wisconsin (Rose), Ohio State (Gator), Northwestern (Meineke Car Care), Temple (New Mexico).

Penn State also will face bowl teams in all five road games: Virginia (Chick-Fil-A), Nebraska (Capital One), Iowa (Insight), Illinois (Kraft Fight Hunger), Purdue (Little Caesars).

NINE NITTANY LIONS ARE GRADUATES

Nine Nittany Lions had earned their degrees entering the 2012 season.

Pete Massaro and Michael Mauti graduated last December. Evan Lewis, Ty Howle, Matt McGloin and John Urschel, who graduated in three years with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average, joined them as graduates in May.

James Terry, Michael Yancich and Michael Zordich graduated in August.

FIVE TRUE FRESHMEN MAKE DEBUT vs. OHIO; BENCH BECOMES SIXTH TO PLAY

Five Penn State true freshmen made their debut against Ohio in the season opener: CB Da'Quan Davis, TE Jesse James, Saf Jordan Lucas, LB Nyeem Wartman and WR Trevor Williams.

Quarterback Steven Bench became the sixth true freshman to see action when he entered the Virginia game in the second quarter. Bench completed his first collegiate pass attempt with a 7-yard completion to Allen Robinson. He finished 2-of-7 for 12 yards on the day. Bench also gained 18 yards on three carries, including a 15-yard run for a first down.

Bench is the third true freshman to play at quarterback for Penn State in the last eight years, joining Anthony Morelli (2004) and Rob Bolden (2010).

Wartman blocked an Ohio punt at the Bobcats' 25-yard-line in the second quarter that Penn State converted into a 14-yard touchdown pass from Matt McGloin to tight end Matt Lehman for a 14-3 lead. Wartman also had one solo tackle.

1982 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM RETURNS FOR TEMPLE GAME

The 1982 Nittany Lions, one of the outstanding teams in Penn State's glorious football history, were honored at halftime of the Temple game.

The '82 Nittany Lions won Penn State's first National Championship by defeating No. 1 Georgia, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State earned a last second 27-24 win over No. 2 Nebraska in late September and rebounded from a 42-21 loss at Alabama in early October to win its last six games and earn a shot at the unbeaten Bulldogs for the title.

More than 50 members of the 1982 squad are attended the Temple game, including one of the team captains, Ken Kelley. All-Americans Scott Radecic and Curt Warner, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame, also attended.

Among some of the other Nittany Lions who attended the team's 30th reunion are: Mark Battaglia, Bill Contz, Dean DiMidio, Dan Delligatti, Massimo Manca, Carmen Masciantonio, Mike McCloskey, Brian Siverling, Bob White and Mike Zordich, Sr.

THIRTY LETTERWINNERS RETURNED

Penn State returned 28 lettermen from last season – 12 on offense and 16 on defense. Two letterwinners from the 2010 season who were injured and did not play last year also return – tight end Garry Gilliam and defensive end Pete Massaro – bringing the total to 30 returnees.

Penn State returned six starters from the 2011 squad, along with 13 additional players who had made at least one start prior to this season. Two starters are back on offense (C Matt Stankiewitch and QB Matt McGloin) and four on defense (LB Glenn Carson, DT Jordan Hill, LB Gerald Hodges, DE Sean Stanley).

Among the 13 additional returning players that had made starts prior to 2012, seven are on offense and six are on defense. The 13 players have a combined total of 56 career starts, led by CB Stephon Morris (13), DE Pete Massaro (11), LB Michael Mauti (11) and Saf Malcolm Willis (6).

NITTANY LIONS BEAT NAVY FOR O'BRIEN'S FIRST CAREER WIN

Penn State scored on its initial three possessions and kept Navy off the scoreboard until the fourth quarter to post a 34-7 victory on Sept. 15 and give Coach Bill O'Brien his first career victory.

Sophomore wide receiver Allen Robinson recorded career-highs with 136 receiving yards and three touchdowns on five receptions and senior quarterback Matt McGloin tied his career high with four touchdown passes. McGloin was 13 of 21 for 231 yards and was not intercepted for the second consecutive game, as he delivered his ninth career 200-yard passing game. Freshman tight end Jesse James' first career catch resulted in a two-yard touchdown catch to cap the Nittany Lions' opening drive of the game. The Nittany Lions did not have a turnover for the second straight week.

The Penn State defense forced four turnovers (three fumbles) for the second consecutive game, boosting the Nittany Lions to the Big Ten lead in turnover margin (+1.67 tpg).

Early in the fourth quarter, sophomore linebacker Mike Hull scooped up a fumble and sprinted 74 yards for a touchdown. The Nittany Lions also recorded season-highs with four sacks and nine tackles for loss. Senior linebacker Michael Mauti recorded a game-high 12 tackles to earn Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week accolades for the second time in his career.

Defensive end Deion Barnes forced a fumble for the second straight week and recorded his third sack in the past two games to earn Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week accolades.

TRIO OF RETURNEES EARNED 2011 ALL-BIG TEN RECOGNITION; ON 2012 WATCH LISTS

Among the returnees are three Nittany Lions who earned All-Big Ten recognition in 2011 and should be candidates for all-conference and national honors this year:

- Senior linebacker Gerald Hodges was selected first-team All-Big Ten and to the ESPN.com All-Big Ten team; 2012 Candidacy & Watch Lists: Lindy's pre-season first-team All-American, Bednarik Award, Nagurski Trophy, Butkus Award, Rotary Lombardi Award.

- Senior defensive tackle Jordan Hill was named honorable-mention All-Big Ten; 2012 Watch Lists: Outland Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award.

- Senior linebacker Michael Mauti was a 2011 pre-season All-Big Ten choice, but suffered a season-ending knee injury in the fourth game last year; 2012 Watch Lists: Butkus Award.

HODGES NAMED PRE-SEASON FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAN; CANDIDATE FOR SEVERAL NATIONAL HONORS

Senior linebacker Gerald Hodges was selected a 2012 pre-season first-team All-American by Lindy's and is a candidate for four national awards.

Hodges is on the Watch Lists for the: Bednarik Award, Butkus Award, Nagurski Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award.

Hodges earned first team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and ESPN.com in 2011. He was instrumental in Penn State having the nation's No. 5 scoring defense in 2011 and became the 22nd Nittany Lion to post at least 100 tackles in a season. Hodges led the team with 106 tackles (60 solo), ranking in the top 15 in the Big Ten in hits (eighth) and sacks (tied-14th with 4.5). Hodges also recorded 10.0 tackles for loss, forced two fumbles, broke-up four passes and made one critical interception and 63-yard return to set-up a touchdown in the win at Northwestern.

The former Paulsboro High School All-South Jersey standout was selected the Touchdown Club of Southern Jersey's 2011 Division I College Player of the Year.

HILL ON OUTLAND TROPHY AND ROTARY LOMBARDI AWARD WATCH LISTS

Senior defensive tackle Jordan Hill is a candidate for the Outland Trophy and the Rotary Lombardi Award.

Hill, a pre-season All-Big Ten candidate, will anchor a talented and deep defensive line in 2012. Last year, Hill led the D-line with 59 tackles, including eight tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks, earning honorable-mention All-Big Ten recognition. The former Steelton-Highspire High School standout also topped the team and was tied for second in the Big Ten with three fumble recoveries, had one forced fumble and two pass break-ups.

STANKIEWITCH ON RIMINGTON TROPHY WATCH LIST

Penn State senior Matt Stankiewitch is on the Watch List for the Rimington Trophy, presented to the nation's top center. All-American A.Q. Shipley won the 2008 Rimington Trophy.

A starter in every game last season, Stankiewitch will anchor the offensive line and is the unit's only returning starter. He was instrumental in helping Penn State lead the Big Ten in fewest sacks allowed last season (14 in 13 games) and gave Penn State a 1,000-yard rusher for the seventh consecutive season.

NUMEROUS NITTANY LIONS HAVE FAMILY TIES TO PENN STATE FOOTBALL

Six members on the 2012 squad have ties to current or former Nittany Lion football team players, coaches or staff:

- Junior Nate Cadogan's brother, Gerald, lettered at tackle for the Nittany Lions from 2006-08;

- Senior kick snapper Mike Furhman is the son of Chet Furhman, former Penn State Football strength and conditioning coach;

- Redshirt sophomore linebacker Mike Hull's father, Tom, lettered for the Nittany Lions from 1971-73;

- Rich Mauti was a letterman for the Nittany Lions in 1975 and '76 and played eight NFL seasons. One of his sons, Michael Mauti, is a fifth-year senior linebacker and another son, Patrick, was a senior in 2009;

- Freshman Jonathan Warner's father, Curt, was a first-team All-America tailback in 1981 and '82, and was instrumental in the Nittany Lions winning their first National Championship in 1982. Curt Warner was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame in 2009;

- Senior Michael's Zordich's father, Michael, played at Penn State from 1982-85, earning first team All-America honors as a senior before embarking on a 12-year NFL career.

FULLBACK BYERS ACTIVE DUTY MEMBER OF NAVY OFFICER PROGRAM

Senior fullback P.J. Byers had a remarkable path en route to earning a spot on the Penn State squad as a walk-on in 2010. An active duty member of the United States Navy's officer program, Byers went 18 years between introductions with the late Joe Paterno. In 1992, his father, Patrick, Sr., interned under Paterno at the annual Big 33 Classic. Paterno signed a program for P.J., who was seven years old, with the inscription, "I'll be waiting."

A 2003 graduate of Penn Trafford High School, Byers enlisted in the Navy, but was put on delayed entry and enrolled at Marietta College. At Marietta, he played football and was a member of the track and field team in 2003-04 before heading to boot camp, where he hoped to launch his career as a Navy SEAL. But, Byers' eyesight did not pass the necessary requirements and he shifted his career to becoming a Navy dive specialist. After being stationed in Connecticut and Florida, Byers was assigned to the Pearl Harbor Naval Station, where he learned to do underwater submarine repairs and demolition of explosives, during his three years in Hawaii. He then spent two years in San Diego, where he continued his diving education, including training dolphins to find mines.

During his time at Pearl Harbor and in San Diego, Byers was able to continue his dream of playing football in military-sponsored leagues. When Byers was selected for the Navy's officer program, he was able to choose any college or university he wished to attend, in order to earn a degree, which is a requirement for the officer program. Having attending games in Beaver Stadium during his youth, becoming a Nittany Lion was his first choice.

Once Byers graduates, if pro football does not work out, he aspires to become a Navy Explosive Ordnance Disposal (EOD) officer, where he would be on the frontline, disarming explosive devices and disposing of them.

Byers made his Penn State debut last year with a carry against Eastern Michigan. He is on schedule to graduate in May 2013, owned a grade-point average above 3.0 following the spring semester and is a potential Academic All-Big Ten candidate.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL THEME DAYS AND GAMEDAY EVENTS SET

Every Penn State home gameday will feature new and returning Nittany Lion fan favorites in Beaver Stadium. With the Next Chapter of Penn State Football underway, numerous game themes and promotions are scheduled for Bill O'Brien's first season as head coach.

Special dates remaining this season are:

Ohio State, Oct. 27 - Primetime Penn State White Out

A Primetime Penn State White Out is slated for the Nittany Lions' 5:30 p.m. clash with Ohio State on Oct. 27. All fans are encouraged to wear white to the game against the Leaders Division rival Buckeyes. ESPN will televise the contest.

Wisconsin, Nov. 24 - Senior Day and THON Celebration Day

Penn State concludes its home schedule Nov. 24 with one of the special events of every season - Senior Day. The Nittany Lion seniors will be introduced one final time to the crowd prior to kickoff against Leaders Division foe Wisconsin. The contest also is THON celebration day.

SEVERAL ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® CANDIDATES

The Penn State football team has had at least one Capital One Academic All-American® in nine of the past 10 seasons, including a school record five in 2008 and three more in 2009 and again in 2010.

Redshirt junior guard John Urschel graduated in May 2012 with a perfect 4.0 grade-point average in mathematics and is working on a master's in math. Urschel should be a strong candidate in the fall to become Penn State football's 50th CoSIDA Academic All-American®.

Fifth-year senior defensive end Pete Massaro earned first team Academic All-America® honors in 2010, but missed the 2011 season with a serious knee injury and was not eligible for consideration. Massaro earned a 3.85 undergraduate GPA, earning his degree in finance in December 2011.

The Nittany Lions' 49 all-time Academic All-Americans® rank No. 3 in the nation among Football Bowl Subdivision programs.

Nominees for Capital One Academic All-America® consideration must have at least a 3.30 cumulative grade point average and be a starter or key reserve.

NEARLY 40 ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN HONOREES OVER PAST TWO YEARS

A total of 20 Penn State football student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors last fall for owning at least a 3.0 grade point average and being a letterwinner. A total of 280 Nittany Lions have earned Academic All-Big Ten honors since 1993, including 39 the past two years.

NEARLY 35 FOOTBALL STUDENT-ATHLETES EARN 3.0 GPA IN SPRING SEMESTER

The Penn State football team produced another outstanding academic performance during the spring 2012 semester, with 34 squad members earning at least a 3.0 grade-point average.

Among the 34 Nittany Lions above a 3.0 GPA, 15 earned Dean's List recognition by posting a 3.5 GPA or higher this past semester.

The superlative academic performance brought to 37 the total number of Penn State football student-athletes with a cumulative 3.0 or higher GPA through the spring semester.

Four additional Nittany Lions who are not using their fifth-year of eligibility also earned a 3.0 or higher during the spring semester: Andrew Goodman (Philadelphia), J.D. Mason (Philipsburg), Kenny Pollock (Dallas, Pa.) and Ryan Scherer (Avon Lake, Ohio). Goodman earned Dean's List recognition and graduated in May with Mason and Scherer. Pollock is on schedule to graduate in December.

Redshirt junior guard John Urschel (Williamsville,

N.Y.) posted a perfect 4.0 GPA for the sixth consecutive semester and graduated in May, earning his degree in mathematics in three years. Urschel is enrolled in a master's degree program in math and should be a strong candidate in the fall to become Penn State football's 50th CoSIDA Academic All-American®.

Also earning 4.0 GPAs during the spring semester were senior tackle Mike Farrell (Pittsburgh) and senior wide receiver Evan Lewis (Gettysburg), who also graduated in May. A minimum 12 credit hours are required for Dean's List consideration.

Among the additional Nittany Lions on the Dean's List last spring were: defensive end Brad Bars (Nashville), cornerback Jess Della Valle (Pittsburgh), linebacker Mike Hull (Canonsburg), linebacker Ben Kline (Seven Valleys), tight end Matt Lehman (Newport) defensive end Pete Massaro (Newtown Square), quarterback Shane McGregor (Ebensburg) and center Matt Stankiewicz. Kline earned a 3.94 GPA during the spring semester and brought a 3.92 cumulative GPA in the summer academic sessions.

Five true freshmen earned Dean's List honors during the spring semester: Kevin Blanchard (Katy, Texas), Sam Ficken (Valparaiso, Ind.), Carl Nassib (Malvern), Deron Thompson (Litz) and Kline.

UNIFORM CHANGES

The Penn State football team is wearing uniforms featuring a blue ribbon on the back of the helmet to support all victims of child abuse. Also, for the first time, the names of each football player adorn their jersey in recognition of their resolve and dedication to the team and the University.

"The Penn State community stands with all victims of child abuse," said Acting Athletic Director David Joyner. "Coach Bill O'Brien and his football team made it clear they want to support victims and bring more awareness to this issue, which affects so many."

"I'm proud that our players want to be part of the University's efforts to help victims of child abuse," O'Brien said. "We hope our fans join us in wearing blue ribbons to all Penn State home games. Together, we can make a difference in the lives of children everywhere."

Coach O'Brien says after speaking with some members of the team, they made the decision together to add names to the uniforms. Players indicated the names on their jerseys also mean they will hold each other accountable to uphold the traditions of Penn State football, both on and off the field.

"We want our fans to know and recognize these young men," O'Brien said. "They have stuck together during tough times, and I commend them for the leadership they have shown. Moving forward, I'm deeply committed to honoring Penn State's traditions, while building a bright future for our football program."

11 FIRST TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS® PAST FOUR YEARS

For the third consecutive year, in 2010, the Penn State Football program was at the head of the class in Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America® selections.

All-America guard Stefan Wisniewski became the first Penn State football student-athlete to earn Academic All-America® three times, with first-team nods in 2009 and 2010.

Senior linebacker Chris Colasanti and defensive end Pete Massaro also were first-team Academic All-Americans® in 2010.

Penn State has earned a nation's best 15 Academic All-Americans® over the past six years, with 13 first team honorees. A program record five Nittany Lions were selected to the 2008 Academic All-America® team.

The Nittany Lions' 49 Academic All-Americans® all-time are No. 3 in the nation among Football Bowl Subdivision programs.

10th ANNUAL PENN STATE UPLIFTING ATHLETES "LIFT FOR LIFE" HITS RECORD $110,000 TO BENEFIT KIDNEY CANCER ASSOCIATION

The 10th Annual Penn State Uplifting Athletes "Lift For Life" was a tremendous success on July 13 raising the 2012 total to a record total in excess of $110,000 to benefit the Kidney Cancer Association.

Penn State football student-athletes have raised $110,374.00 for kidney cancer patients and awareness this year, with additional donations expected. The 2012 total breaks the chapter's previous record from the 2011 "Lift For Life," which netted $100,930.00 for the Kidney Cancer Association.

More than $700,000 has been raised in the battle against rare diseases by Penn State Uplifting Athletes since the inaugural "Lift For Life" was held in 2003.

Fans can make a "Lift For Life" donation by visiting the Penn State Uplifting Athletes donation page at: <http://liftforlife.upliftingathletes.org/lift/>

This year's Penn State Lift For Life was held outside for the first time, as more than 2,500 fans attended at the new Penn State Lacrosse Field. The new format saw the offense defeat the defense, 176-136, securing the victory by winning all three tug of war competitions, good for 30 points, to conclude the event.

A total of 81 Penn State football student-athletes secured at least one donation for Lift For Life, led by junior guard Eric Shrive (Scranton), who raised $31,868.00. Senior tackle Mike Farrell (Pittsburgh) was next with $12,755 and fullback J.R. Refice (Jessup) was third.

"A big thank you to everyone who donated and supported the football team by attending Lift For Life," said Mike Farrell, president of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter. "We really appreciate everyone who helped in the Penn State community, from Coach (Bill) O'Brien and Coach Fitz (Craig Fitzgerald), the team, Deloris Brobeck, Kevin Henry and all our great volunteers who helped make the event successful."

"I would like to thank everyone who supported this year's Lift For Life event," said Shrive, vice president of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter. "With everyone's support and generosity this was the best Lift For Life yet. We Are!"

The team was broken into six groups, with two groups from each side of the ball competing against each other:

- offensive linemen vs. defensive linemen,
- running backs/tight ends vs. linebackers
- quarterbacks/wide receivers vs. defensive backs.

The competitions included pushing a 15-passenger van weighing approximately 6,400 pounds, flipping a 680-pound tire, a medicine ball toss over a goalpost, a weighted sled pull and push and relays that included stacking three 50-pound bags, carrying weights and the tug of war.

"It's a hard workout," said Fitzgerald, Director of Strength and Conditioning for Football. "It was a great day for Penn State and most importantly, for (beating) kidney cancer."

Founded by Penn State Football teammates Scott Shirley, Dave Costlow and Damone Jones in 2003, Lift For Life has continued to build awareness and raise funds for the Kidney Cancer Association. The event is organized by Penn State Football Uplifting Athletes, whose members are on the Penn State football team. They are led this year by officers Farrell, Shrive, senior linebacker Mike Yancich (Washington), who is the secretary, and junior center Ty Howle (Wake Forest, N.C.), who is head of operations.

Uplifting Athletes has grown to 13 chapters, with Boston College, Colgate, Kent State, Maryland, North Carolina State, Northwestern, Ohio State, Princeton, St. Francis, Notre Dame, Illinois and Fordham joining the Penn State chapter.

For more information about Penn State Football Uplifting Athletes SM or the Penn State Football Lift for Life, or to make a tax-deductible contribution, please visit www.upliftingathletes.org or contact Deloris Brobeck at 814-865-1946 during business hours. Uplifting Athletes, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that operates as a national charter and serves as a uniting force to help change the perception of rare diseases.

PENN STATE STUDENTS AGAIN SELL OUT 21,000 SEASON FOOTBALL SEATS

The anticipation for the 2012 Nittany Lion football season continues to build, with Penn State students purchasing more than 21,000 season tickets in June to again sellout the student section at Beaver Stadium.

Penn State students also pushed men's basketball student season ticket sales 10 percent ahead of last year's total and joined the Student Nittany Lion Club during the sale.

Penn State's proud and enthusiastic student section in Beaver Stadium is the nation's second-largest full season student ticket section of any school, for any sport. ESPN's College Gameday and ESPN The Magazine ("The Nation's No. 1 Student section") are among the national media accolades for the Nittany Lions' loud and impactful student section.

"PENN STATE FOOTBALL 2012: THE NEXT CHAPTER" AIRS THROUGHOUT MID-ATLANTIC & NORTHEAST WEEKLY DURING SEASON

Penn State Athletics and Penn State Public Broadcasting are extending their partnership to produce "Penn State Football 2012 - The Next Chapter," a weekly program that chronicles the Nittany Lions' first season under head coach Bill O'Brien.

Penn State Public Broadcasting will produce the program, the program, which debuted Sunday, Sept. 2, and be televised on WPSU-TV, across the Commonwealth and in numerous markets in the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast. The program will include feature stories and highlights from the previous day's Penn State contest throughout the season, which begins Sept. 1 when the Nittany Lions host Ohio at 12 p.m.

The 30-minute program will provide a fast-paced, intimate look at Nittany Lion football and include exclusive interviews with Coach O'Brien, members of the football staff and team members and behind the scenes access from pre-season through the end of the season.

WPSU-TV also produces the Emmy Award-winning "Courtside With Coquese," chronicling the 2012 Big Ten Champion Lady Lion Basketball team, in partnership with Penn State Athletics.

"Penn State Football 2012 - The Next Chapter" airs every week during the Nittany Lions' football season throughout Pennsylvania and regional sports cable networks and channels in the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast.

Among the Pennsylvania outlets carrying "Penn State Football 2012 - The Next Chapter" are:

- WPSU-TV, Ch. 3 (State College/Central Pa.);
- WTAJ-TV, Ch. 10 (State College, Altoona, Johnstown);
- WLYH-TV, Ch. 15 (Harrisburg, Lancaster, York, Reading);
- WNEP-TV, Ch. 16 (Scranton/Wilkes-Barre);
- WFMZ-TV, Ch. 69 (Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton);
- WFXP-TV, Ch. 66 (Erie);
- Root Sports (Western Pa./Eastern Ohio/W. Va.);
- CSN-Philadelphia (Eastern Pa./New Jersey/Delaware).

MASN (Baltimore-Washington, D.C.) and NESN (New England) are among the other regional sports networks carrying "Penn State Football 2012 - The Next Chapter."

BLUE-WHITE WEEKEND DATES SET FOR 2013

The dates for one of the highlights of the Penn State sports calendar, Blue-White Weekend, have been set for 2013.

Blue-White Weekend will be held April 19-21, 2013, with the Blue-White football game on Saturday, April 20 as the centerpiece for numerous activities throughout the weekend in and around Beaver Stadium.

Numerous events are held during Blue-White Weekend, including a carnival, fireworks, food vendors, live music and performances at the student entertainment stage, in addition to other Penn State athletic events.

The Nittany Lion Club will host its Blue-White Event on April 20, 2013 before the game. The NLC breakfast event features Coach Bill O'Brien and the Nittany Lion seniors and drew more than 1,300 to the Bryce Jordan Center this past April.

Blue-White Weekend has become the university's unofficial annual spring reunion. This year's scrimmage drew an estimated 60,000 fans, the nation's third-highest spring football game attendance. The Blue-White Game attracted record-breaking crowds in excess of 70,000 from 2007-09, topped by 76,500 at the 2009 contest.

BIG TEN NETWORK TO AIR MULTIPLE PENN STATE GAMES AMONG ITS 40-PLUS FOOTBALL GAMES THIS SEASON

BTN will air 40-plus football games this season, with each school making a minimum of two appearances, including at least one conference game.

Penn State's Oct. 20 contest at Iowa will air in primetime on BTN, with a 7 p.m. CT kick in Iowa City. Additional Nittany Lion games will air on BTN once the 12-day selection process begins.

BTN televised three Penn State football games in 2011 and 2010 and four Nittany Lion contests in 2009.

The Big Ten Network is available to more than 80 million homes across the United States and Canada, and has agreements with more than 300 affiliates.

The network, though, is not carried by Adams and Blue Ridge cable in Pennsylvania. The network also is not available to Armstrong Cable customers in western Pennsylvania and in the Medina and Youngstown, Ohio areas. A combined total of more than 35,000 Penn State alumni live in communities served by the three cable providers, in addition to thousands more fans and current Penn State students.

BTN will air football triple-headers on Sept. 1, 8 and 15.

The Big Ten Network will televise approximately 800 events in 2012-13, all in HD, including 40-45 football games, at least 110 men's basketball games, at least 55 women's basketball games, Olympic sport events and conference championships.

The Big Ten Network is available in more than 95 percent of the homes in the nine Big Ten states.

The network is available to more than 80 million homes across the United States and Canada, and has agreements with more than 300 affiliates, including DirectTV, DISH Network, AT&T, Verizon FIOS, Atlantic Broadband, Beaver Valley Cable, Bright House, Cablevision, CATV Service, Inc., Charter, Comcast, Consolidated Communications, Cox (Arizona, Arkansas, Kansas, Las Vegas, Northern Virginia), Insight, Kuhn Communications, Mediacom, Midcontinent, Millheim TV, Nittany Media, RCN, Rogers Cable (Canada), Service Electric Cable TV, Service Electric Cablevision, Service Electric Broadband Cable, Shaw Cable and Shaw Direct (Canada), Shen-Heights TV, Tele-Media, Time Warner Cable, Western Broadband, Windstream and WOW, Zampelli Electronics and Zito Media.

For more information on the Big Ten Network, including the Channel Finder feature, go to www.BTN.com.

PENN STATE SPORTS NETWORK AIRS ALL NITTANY LION GAMES

All Penn State football and basketball games can be heard on the Penn State Sports Network, a property of Learfield Sports.

More than 50 stations in six states carry the Nittany Lion broadcasts, which can also be heard on GoPSUsports.com, the official website of Penn State Athletics, and Sirius XM. Steve Jones and Jack Ham are in their 13th season together calling the action.

Football broadcasts on the Penn State Sports Network begin 90 minutes prior to kickoff with "The Penn State Tailgate Show."

He is fifth on the team with 29 tackles (18 solo) and has 2.5 TFL, 0.5 sacks and two pass break-ups. Made four stops and had a pass break-up in 39-28 win over Northwestern. Made one solo tackle in helping hold Iowa to 209 yards in 38-14 win.

85 - BRANDON MOSEBY-FELDER, WR

Has played in every game this season, starting the last five. He is third on the team with 15 receptions for 163 yards. Made a then career-high three catches in the 35-7 win at Illinois. Made a career-best five catches for 34 yards in the win over No. 24 Northwestern. Made a 13-yard yard reception to the NU 6 on 4th-and-2 to keep PSU's go-ahead touchdown drive alive. Gained a career-high 60 yards on four receptions in 38-14 win at Iowa. Hauled in career-long 42-yard catch on Penn State's first play of second half to set-up a short touchdown run for 31-0 lead.

7 - STEPHEN OBENG-AGYAPONG, SAF

Has started at safety in every game this season, recording 23 total tackles. Has two tackles for loss (minus-six), a forced fumble and returned a fumble 20 yards at Virginia. Made a career-high nine tackles in the 34-7 win over Navy. Made one solo stop and had a pass break-up in helping hold Iowa to 209 yards in 38-14 win.

8 - ALLEN ROBINSON, WR

A candidate for the Biletnikoff Award. Leads the Big Ten in catches (47), receptions per game (6.7) and touchdown catches (8) and is No. 2 in the conference at 80.4 ypg. Has 47 receptions for 563 yards (12.8). Has started every game. Leads team with 48 points. Robinson made a then career-high nine catches vs. Ohio and eclipsed total with 10 catches for 89 yards at Virginia, including a diving TD catch. Had five catches for career-high 136 yards and three touchdowns in the win against Navy, with a pair of career long 45 yard receptions. Made game-high nine catches for 85 yards and two touchdowns in 39-28 comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern. Made a 8-yard TD catch in third quarter and a diving 6-yard grab in back of the end zone in the fourth quarter to help erase 11-point deficit in final period. Made six catches for 39 yards in 38-14 win at Iowa, including eight-yard TD catch for 14-0 lead in first quarter.

74 - DONOVAN SMITH, T

Was the starting left tackle for the first two games of the season, but suffered a sprained ankle at Virginia. He missed the Navy and Temple games and returned to the field in the 35-7 win at Illinois. Returned to the starting lineup in the 39-28 win over Northwestern and started in 38-14 win at Iowa.

54 - MATT STANKIEWITZ, C

Has been the starting center in all 20 games the past two seasons and is second on team with 22 career starts. Is on the Watch List for the Rimington Trophy, presented to the nation's top center.

90 - SEAN STANLEY, DE

Has started six games this season, missing the Temple contest with a minor back injury. He has 16 tackles, with 3.0 TFL (minus-11), 0.5 sacks and a fumble recovery.

64 - JOHN URSCHEL, G

Has started every game at right guard. Graduated in three years with a 4.00 grade-point average in mathematics and is working on a master's degree in math. Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-America candidate.

5 - NYEEM WARTMAN, LB

Made his Penn State debut in the season opener vs. Ohio. Blocked a punt at the Bobcats' 25-yard line in the second quarter that the Nittany Lions converted into a touchdown. Also had one solo tackle versus the Bobcats. Suffered a knee injury on the opening kickoff at Virginia and has not played in the past five games.

10 - MALCOLM WILLIS, SAF

Has started at safety every game this season. Is sixth on the team with 29 tackles (17 solo), with two pass breakups. Made three tackles in helping hold Iowa to 209 yards in 38-14 win.

21 - TREVOR WILLIAMS, WR

Made his Penn State debut in the season opener vs. Ohio and has played in every game. Has five receptions for 55 yards. Made his first career catch, good for 24 yards to the Navy 10-yard line, on fourth-and-12 in the 34-7 win over the Mids. Made one catch for nine yards in the win over Temple and had one grab for seven yards in the 39-28 win over Northwestern. Set season highs with two catches for 15 yards in 38-14 win at Iowa, including an 11-yard reception.

98 - ANTHONY ZETTEL, DE

Has seen action in every game this season. Has 12 tackles, including seven unassisted. Is second on team with 3.0 sacks for minus-18 yards. He recorded two sacks for a loss of minus-15 yards in the 34-7 win over Navy. Made two hits, including a sack, in the 38-14 win at Iowa.

9 - MICHAEL ZORDICH, RB

Has started four games at fullback this season and played in every game. Has 48 rushes for a total of 191 yards (4.0), third on the team, and one touchdown, and 11 catches for 95 yards. Led team with then career bests of 50 yards on 11 carries in 34-7 win over Navy. Posted the longest run (16 yds) and longest catch (27 yds) of his career in the win over Temple. Re-wrote his career-bests with 15 carries for 75 yards and caught four balls for 39 yards versus the Owls. In the comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern, Zordich caught four passes for 31 yards and ran seven times for 32 yards, with a touchdown. His 25-yard burst late in the game was the Nittany Lions' longest rush this season and set-up his own three-yard scoring run for a 39-28 lead with 1:30 to play. Ran for 24 yards in helping Penn State thump Iowa, 38-14.

29 - ZACH ZWINAK, RB

Has played in all every game this season. Leads the team with 369 rushing yards on 84 carries (4.4) and has three rushing touchdowns. Also has 10 catches for 92 yards. Ran for a then-career high 94 yards on 18 carries and had one catch for 12 yards in the win over Temple. Broke his career-high with 100 yards on 19 carries and two touchdowns at Illinois. Became the 85th Nittany Lion all-time to rush for 100 yards in a game. Carried the ball five consecutive times for 31 yards, including a 14-yard burst, capped by his second one-yard TD run of the game, early in the fourth quarter vs. the Illini. In the 39-28 comeback win over No. 24 Northwestern, Zwinak broke his career-high for the third consecutive game, gaining 121 yards on a career-best 28 carries, with one touchdown. Zwinak became just the eighth Nittany Lion to earn his first two 100-yard games in consecutive contests. He hurtled into the end zone on a one-yard score for a 10-0 lead in the second quarter. Gained 52 yards on 16 carries and had two catches for 24 yards in 38-14 win at Iowa.
