- Rhody enters Thursday's game most recently falling to Providence 76-50 in the season opener.
- Rhode Island had six of its seven newcomers make their debut. Syracuse transfer Marie-Paule Foppossi (17), Washington State transfer Johanna Muzet (11), and Missouri transfer Emmanuelle Tahane (10) made their Rhode Island debuts with double figure scoring.
- Through its first two games, Penn State's Kelly Jekot leads the Lady Lions with 17.5 points and 10.5 rebounds.

ATLANTIC 10 RELEASES CONFERENCE SCHEDULE

- The Atlantic 10 Conference has announced the 2020-21 women's basketball conference schedule.
- This year, the schedule will see each team play 18 games for the first time in league history, and will feature a travel partner format that reduces travel by providing two opponents per regionalized road trip. All games are subject to change due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Rhode Island opens conference play at Massachusetts on Dec. 8, and then travel to La Salle and Saint Joseph's on Jan. 1 and Jan. 3.
- Rhody returns home to host Fordham at the Ryan Center on Jan. 8 and Davidson on Jan. 10.
- The Rams then hit the road for two straight weeks, traveling to Richmond (Jan. 15), VCU (Jan. 17), Saint Louis (Jan. 22), and Dayton (Jan. 24). Last year, Dayton finished as the A-10 regular season champion and beat VCU in the Championship for its third Atlantic 10 title. The Flyers were poised to represent the A-10 in the NCAA Tournament before the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancelation of the postseason.
- Rhody starts a five-game home stretch beginning Jan. 29, hosting La Salle before welcoming Saint Joseph's (Jan. 31), George Mason (Feb. 5), George Washington (Feb. 7) and Massachusetts (Feb. 14) to the Ryan Center.
- Games at Duquesne (Feb. 18) and St. Bonaventure (Feb. 20) wrap up the road game slate for the Rams, and they finish the regular season hosting Richmond on Feb. 26 and VCU on Feb. 28.
- National, regional, and local television coverage will be announced at a later date.

TAMMI REISS

SECOND SEASON AT URI · VIRGINIA '92

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT TAMMI REISS

Quentin Hillsman - Head Coach at Syracuse

"In terms of what stands out for her strengths, it's her ability to connect with everyone around her. All of our players feel a close connection with her, and all of the people around our program feel it - because Tammi is genuine. She brings it every day, and everyone around her can see and feel the energy she has for life, not just for the game."

Dawn Staley - Head Coach at South Carolina and Former Teammate at Virginia

"It was going to take a special situation for Tammi to leave Syracuse, and she believes Rhode Island is that situation. She understands how she sees herself as a coach, and she is ready for this opportunity. She wants to build a brand, and it says a lot about what she sees in Rhode Island. She is putting her whole heart into this, and the people there will appreciate every bit of it."

Paul Tylawski - Former School Teacher and Lifelong Mentor

"Nobody will ever outwork Tammi. She attains the goals she sets. She has always been mature far beyond her years. When she was in eighth grade, she was the No. 2 cross country runner in the state of New York. I told her she was going to have to choose one sport or the other. The next day she came to me and said, 'Basketball is my ticket for the things I want to accomplish in life. Running is something I'll be able to do for the rest of my life, but basketball will give me the chance to achieve my goals.' And look where she is now. From the time she was a young kid, she's always been able to make decisions based on the bigger picture."

Beth Burns - Former Head Coach at San Diego State

"When Tammi joined our staff, she had to learn the scouting aspect of the college game. She had the quickest one-year improvement of any coach I've worked with. She understands how to do more with less. The kids she works with, they all love her. She's not soft on them by any means, and she knows how to keep them in line. She's able to communicate with them, they respect her, they believe in her, and they want to be her."

Debbie Ryan - Women's Basketball Hall of Famer and Former Head Coach at Virginia

"Rhode Island just got a gem of a head coach for its women's basketball program. Tammi was a great student-athlete here at UVA and I always felt that one day she would make an outstanding head coach. She understands the game and has a vision for how it needs to be played. More importantly, though, Tammi will be a leader of young women as she helps each player develop to her potential, both on and off the court."

On April 17, 2019, University of Rhode Island Director of Athletics Thorr Bjorn announced the hiring of Tammi Reiss as the ninth women's basketball coach in program history. Reiss came to Rhode Island after spending four seasons at Syracuse, where she helped the Orange to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

"From the first time I spoke with Tammi, I knew she was special. Her experience and success as a player at the highest levels of college and professional basketball are certainly terrific," Bjorn said. "What makes her even more special is the approach she takes in working with young women. I know she will be able to teach them the game of basketball, but she also will teach them leadership, accountability, teamwork and a commitment to excellence. I am just as excited as she is to have her get started as the new head coach for women's basketball at the University of Rhode Island."

In her first year at the helm, Reiss led the Rams to the best record in program history at the Ryan Center (10), doubled Rhody's conference win total (6), and is the only coach in program history to not drop below .500 in her first 25 games.

Reiss had two All-Conference A-10 selections in her first year at Rhode Island. Seniors Nicole Jorgensen (First Team) and Davida Dale (Third Team) both went on to sign professional contracts to play overseas.

With a strong reputation as a communicator, Reiss has a history of recruiting and player development. She comes to URI after spending the last four years as an assistant coach at Syracuse. During her time with the Orange, she worked closely with the guards and helped Syracuse to three straight NCAA Tournament second round appearances. She mentored the only players in program history to earn WBCA Division I Coaches All-America Honors in Alexis Peterson, Brittney Sykes, and Tiana Mangakahia. Peterson and Mangakahia also earned Associated Press All-America Honors. Both Peterson and Sykes were selected in the 2017 WNBA Draft and Sykes went on to earn 2017 WNBA All-Rookie Team honors.

In the last four years, Reiss helped Syracuse to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances, owning a 7-4 record at the big dance. The Orange had 99 wins during her four-year span, including 45 conference victories. Following its run to the national championship game in 2016, the team was ranked No. 3 nationally in the final USA Today Coaches poll, its highest rank in program history.

Before Syracuse, Reiss spent time at Cal State Fullerton as the associate head coach. She served as the Titans' recruiting coordinator and was responsible for game and practice preparation, player development with emphasis on guard play, and conducted the offseason conditioning program.

From 2011-13, Reiss was an assistant coach at San Diego State, where she helped guide the Aztecs to two conference regular-season titles, the 2012 Mountain West Tournament crown, and one NCAA Tournament appearance. She mentored Courtney Clements, the 2012 Mountain West Player of the Year, and Chelsea Hopkins, who was named the 2012 Mountain West Newcomer of the Year and Mountain West Player of the Year in 2013.

Prior to working at San Diego State, Reiss served as an assistant coach for the WNBA's San Antonio Silver Stars and Utah Starzz. During her time in Utah, the Starzz advanced to the Western Conference final in 2002.

Reiss was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Virginia, from 1993-96. She helped guide the Cavaliers to two ACC regular-season titles and three NCAA Tournament appearances, including two trips to the Elite Eight.

A former WNBA player and All-American at Virginia, Reiss brings an abundance of experience to the Rhode Island program. She was a four-year starter for the Cavaliers, earning All-American honors in 1992. She led the team to three ACC regular-season titles, two league tournament championships, and three Final Four appearances. Reiss earned All-Conference honors three times in her career and was named to the All-ACC Tournament Team twice. She ended her collegiate career ranked first in school history in 3-point field goals made (139) and 3-point field goal percentage (.416) and was second in points (1,842) and free throws made (437).

Reiss was the fifth overall pick in the 1997 WNBA Draft by the Starzz. She played two seasons for Utah, serving as team captain.

To add to her impressive athletic career, Reiss is also credited with multiple roles as an actress in movies Juwanna Mann and Double Teamed, as well as the TV series Sister, Sister.
