* Big Ten Conference Game

BOLD games at home

HOME SWEET HOME

The University of Minnesota women's soccer team welcomes Penn State and Ohio State to the Elizabeth Lyle Robbie Stadium this weekend. The matches will open the Big Ten Conference slate. Minnesota closed the non-conference season with a 6-2-0 record after going coast-to-coast to face some of the nation's top teams.

ROCK THE ROBBIE

Tickets for Friday night's game against Penn State are just $1. Help the Gophers rock the Robbie as they take on the reigning national champion. Fans will also receive the 2016 Minnesota Soccer scarf, while supplies last.

A LOOK AT THE OPPONENTS

No. 16 Penn State enters the weekend with a record of 4-2-1. Against ranked opponents, the Nittany Lions are 1-1-1. Penn State is the reigning NCAA Champions and Big Ten Tournament Champions. The Gophers are the only team in the Big Ten to have beat Penn State twice in the past three seasons, including last year's Gopher 1-0 win at Penn State. The No. 19 Buckeyes enter the weekend with a 6-2-0 record that matches Minnesota's. Like Penn State, Ohio State also faced three ranked opponents during the nonconference season (1-2). In 2015, the Gophers beat Ohio State with a final score of 2-1.

IN THE RANKS

Minnesota is currently ranked No. 10 among NCAA Division I programs. This is the Gophers' third-straight week ranked in the top-ten. Rankings are determined by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA).

LAST TIME OUT

The Gophers split last weekend on the West Coast. Sophomore April Bockin scored Minnesota's lone goal in the loss to No. 1 Stanford. Simone Kolander tallied two goals to lead the Gophers to victory at Santa Clara.

STRONG START

Minnesota holds advantages against opponents in goals (19-7), shots (138-88), shots on goal (55-34) and corner kicks (38-34). Kolander currently leads the team in goals (7), assists (3), and points (17).
