LOOKING BACK

Penn State held Michigan to one goal in the first half and staved off an attempted Wolverine comeback to beat Michigan 10-9 and advance to the inaugural Big Ten Tournament as the No. 4 seed.

MANNING THE ATTACK

As his final season nears its conclusion, Pat Manley has taken it upon himself to guide the Nittany Lions' attack. He has 17 points in his last three games, including career-best performances against Johns Hopkins (four goals) and Rutgers (four assists, five points). He ranks sixth in the conference with two goals and 1.33 assists per Big Ten game, and his 3.33 points per conference game ranks seventh. Against Johns Hopkins, Manley's four-goal game, all scored in a 12-minute span, was the first outing in his four Penn State seasons with three-or-more goals. This year, he has surpassed career totals in all offensive categories, totaling 11 goals and six assists for 17 points.

SOPHOMORE SENSATIONS

The Nittany Lions' sophomore class has been one of the team's high points this season. Redshirt-sophomores Connor Darcey, Drake Kreinz and Matt Florence have led Penn State respectively in the cage, at the 'X' and in the attacking midfield. Joining Florence's offensive prowess are true sophomores Mike Sutton and Nick Aponte, each maintaining 17-game point streaks. Alongside Florence, Sutton and Aponte, classmate Dan Craig rounds out the team's top-6 point-getters. Brian Prestreau has played nearly every game in the midfield, while Tyler Chambers' and Peter Triolo's defensive efforts have proved invaluable and Billy Lombardi has provided support at the 'X'.

APONTE MAKES A POINT

Since making the move to attack at Johns Hopkins, Nick Aponte has changed the dynamic of Penn State's offense. Playing in the midfield, the Nittany Lions averaged 8.9 goals per game but since the transition, the team has mustered 10.33 goals per game. Aponte has recorded nine points (four goals, five assists), more than 33 percent of his season total, and 10 shots, 26 percent of his season total, scooped up 10 ground balls, 40 percent of his season total, and caused a pair of turnovers, 66 percent of his season total.

SANDERS THE STALWART

Since joining the Nittany Lions as a freshman in 2013, a Colonial Athletic Association Rookie of the Year campaign, TJ Sanders has been one of Penn State's most reliable attackmen. An All-Big Ten honorable mention, Sanders is just the third junior Nittany Lion since 2009 to score 100-or-more points (114) with current Major Lacrosse League players Shane Sturgis (108) and Matt Mackrides (102). Sanders has scored in all but seven games since his debut in the Blue and White, scoring multiple goals in 26 contests, and has netted 20-or-more goals each collegiate season. He is currently fifth in the Big Ten with 2.08 goals per game, tied for sixth with three points per game and tied for ninth with 0.92 assists per game.

SUTTS IN THE BUCKET

After an abbreviated freshman season, Mike Sutton has returned for his sophomore campaign with a vengeance. The Sewell, N.J. native, an All-Big Ten honorable mention, is in the midst of a 17-game point streak and this season, he is second on the team with 24 goals and 28 points. In the conference rankings, Sutton currently ranks fourth with 7.38 shots per game and ninth with 1.85 goals per game. He has six multi-goal games, including two hat tricks, on the year.

SAVED!

Connor Darcey has been a stalwart in the cage this season, his first as a starter. The redshirt sophomore has made double-digit saves in 10 of the Nittany Lions' 13 contests. In Penn State's game at Harvard, Darcey made 18 saves, the most for a Nittany Lion since 2012 and the highest number on

GAMEDAY CENTRAL

SCOUTING THE BLUE JAYS

Johns Hopkins (7-6, 4-1 Big Ten) enjoyed a 15-12 victory over then-No. 3 Maryland to earn the No. 1 seed in the Big Ten Tournament. Reigning Big Ten Offensive Player of the Week Ryan Brown scored eight goals and he pushed the Blue Jays to a 6-0 run to open the fourth quarter and get the win. Brown tops the nation with 3.92 goals per game, and has helped Johns Hopkins to the conference's best man-up unit, converting 44.1 percent of its opportunities. Johns Hopkins has one of the nation's most high-powered offenses, only scoring 10 goals-or-less twice this year. In the cage, Will Ryan and Eric Schneider have both seen action in each of the Blue Jays' previous two games.

SERIES HISTORY vs. JOHNS HOPKINS

The Nittany Lions are winless against Hopkins in six games played since 1916. Earlier this season, Penn State got a lights-out game by Connor Darcey and a four-goal performance by Pat Manley, but suffered an 11-10 double overtime heartbreaker.

the day for a Big Ten goalie. In his first collegiate start, against Vermont, Darcey made 15 saves en route to his first collegiate win. His efforts earned him the first-ever Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week award. Currently, Darcey ranks second in the Big Ten with 12.23 saves per game, which is eighth nationally.

PLAYING BOTH ENDS OF THE FIELD

Mike Sutton captured Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week honors after notching a hat trick in the first quarter and causing two turnovers in Penn State's 11-6 win over Rutgers. Sutton is the first attackman to win Big Ten Defensive Player of the Week, and the second Nittany Lion this season to pick up the accolade after Connor Darcey took home the first Defensive Player of the Week honor in conference history. The sophomore was a bulldog on the attack, scoring three goals and forcing two Rutgers turnovers on attempted clears in the third quarter of the Nittany Lions' first Big Ten win in program history.

ONE OF THE DAY'S FINEST

Penn State's win over Rutgers had a bit of everything: great defense, solid goaltending and ridiculous goals, one of which garnered national attention by earning the No. 6 spot on SportsCenter's Top 10 that night. With the Nittany Lions down 3-1 midway through the first quarter, Pat Manley raced to the side of the cage and flipped the ball to TJ Sanders just outside of the crease, who threw it behind his back and into the goal to spark a five-goal run. This is Penn State's second appearance on SportsCenter's Top 10 this year. After the Ohio State game, Dan Craig earned the No. 7 spot by scooping up the ball behind his back and whipping a horizontal shot behind him into the top right corner of the net.

NATIONAL PRIDE

Associate head coach Peter Toner was tabbed as an assistant coach for the 2016 U.S. Men's National Under-19 team. Toner will work under the head coach Nick Myers, who currently serves at the helm of Ohio State's men's lacrosse program. With the announcement, Penn State's three coaches have all served on the coaching staffs of a national team. Head coach Jeff Tambroni was an assistant for the 2014 U.S. men's senior team, and assistant coach Chris Doctor served in the same capacity for the Iroquois Nationals at the 2014 FIL World Championship.

FAMILY TIES

Penn State Lacrosse's expansive 101-year alumni base is bound to produce a few connections among current Nittany Lions, and this year's team is no exception. Matt Florence's father Tom was a goalie at Penn State from

RICHARDS DRAFTED IN MLL

Michael Richards was tabbed 45th overall in the 2015 Major League Lacrosse (MLL) Collegiate Draft by the Denver Outlaws on Jan. 23 in Baltimore. Richards joins Shane Sturgis (New York Lizards) and Tom LaCrosse (Ohio Machine), both of whom exhausted eligibility in 2014 and were picked in the 2015 Supplemental Draft, as selections by one of the MLL's eight teams in the U.S.A. and Canada. Richards appeared in all of the Nittany Lions' contests last season, making 10 starts in the midfield. The 2014 Academic All-Big Ten honoree recorded six points, collected 20 ground balls and caused four turnovers.

ZITTEL NAMED TEAM CAPTAIN

Senior Kyle Zittel was named the 2015 Penn State's men's lacrosse team captain, the program's first solo team captain since 1978. A defensive midfielder, Zittel played in all 13 games for the Nittany Lions, picking up a career-best 11 ground balls and causing four turnovers. Zittel, an Eden, N.Y. native, also excels in the classroom. The science major has a cumulative 3.5 grade point average and earned a 4.0 grade point average during the fall 2013 semester. After graduation, he intends to enroll in medical school.

TAMBRONI IN HIS FIFTH SEASON

Guiding the Nittany Lions through the inaugural season of Big Ten Lacrosse, Jeff Tambroni is in his fifth season as Penn State's head coach in 2015. With a 35-24 record, Tambroni has guided his Nittany Lion teams to .500-or-better records in each of his four seasons at the helm.

- 2009 USILA DIVISION I COACH OF THE YEAR
- 2011 CAA CO-COACH OF THE YEAR
- 2013 CAA COACH OF THE YEAR
- 2014 U.S. MEN'S NATIONAL TEAM ASSISTANT COACH

Guiding the Nittany Lions through the inaugural season of Big Ten Lacrosse, Jeff Tambroni is in his fifth season as Penn State's head coach in 2015.

In 2014, Tambroni led Penn State to its fourth consecutive above-.500 season. His student-athletes earned the eighth USILA All-American and third Scholar All-America honors of Tambroni's Penn State career. He also coached goalkeeper Austin Kaut to his school record third All-America honor and conference-best All-CAA First Team award. Following the season, he helped lead the U.S. Men's National Team to a silver medal at the FIL World Championships as an assistant coach on the squad.

Penn State's 2013 campaign saw Tambroni lead Penn State to one of the greatest seasons in program history while celebrating its 100th season. The Nittany Lions set records for wins (12) and earned the program's first outright regular season conference title by sweeping the CAA with a 6-0 record. PSU rattled off 10 straight wins to earn the school's third NCAA bid and first chance to host an NCAA game.

Tambroni was named CAA Coach of the Year for the second time in his career (2011), while goalkeeper Austin Kaut (under Tambroni's tutelage) was named Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award for the nation's best goalie. Also, Kaut was CAA Player and Defensive Player of the Year. Freshman TJ Sanders was named Rookie of the Year and the Nittany Lions placed six on the All-CAA First Team.

During the 2012 campaign, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a second-place CAA finish with two USILA All-Americans and six All-CAA honorees. Penn State finished with a 9-6 overall record and a 5-1 mark in conference action.

The 2011 CAA Co-Coach of the Year, Tambroni led the Nittany Lions to a 7-7 record and their first-ever CAA tournament berth during his first year at the program's helm. Eight Nittany Lions garnered All-CAA recognition and freshman goalkeeper Austin Kaut earned Rookie of the Year honors while being named a USILA Honorable Mention All-American.

Prior to Penn State, Tambroni spent 10 seasons as head coach at Cornell (2001-10). He guided the Big Red to a 109-40 record and three NCAA Semifinal appearances (2007, 2009-10), including the 2009 national championship game.

Tambroni was named 2009 USILA Division I Coach of the Year and was tabbed the 2007 and 2009 Field Turf/NCAA Division I Coach of the Year. Tambroni was also the 2004 and 2009 Ithaca Journal Male Coach of the Year and a three-time National Coach of the Week.

While at Cornell, Tambroni became the 10th-fastest coach to reach the 100-win mark when he accomplished the feat in his 134th career game in March 2010. During his tenure, his players earned 37 first-team All-Ivy honors, including five Ivy League awards, and three conference Rookie of the Year selections. In addition, 39 players garnered All-America recognition.

Prior to serving as Cornell's head coach, he spent four seasons as a Big Red assistant coach (1997-2000). Tambroni also served as assistant coach at Loyola College in 1997 and at his alma mater, Hobart College, for three seasons. With the Statesmen, he helped the program reach the 1994 NCAA Division III national championship game.

A 1992 graduate, Tambroni earned his bachelor's degree in American studies. He earned first-team All-America honors as a senior and was twice named a second-team All-American (1990-91). The MVP of the 1990 NCAA title game, Tambroni helped lead the team to back-to-back NCAA championships (1990-91) and left Hobart tied for seventh on the school's all-time scoring list with 202 points.

Before embarking upon his collegiate coaching career, Tambroni coached the Heaton Mersey Lacrosse Club of the English Lacrosse Union for one year and served as a visiting coach for the Czech-American Lacrosse Foundation in Prague in the summer of 1996.

In addition to his coaching duties, Tambroni is a member of the Teewaarton Award Men's Selection Committee. The Central New York native and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters, Carissa, Madison and Ella. Michelle played field hockey at Penn State from 1988-90 and earned All-America honors as a senior.

No. 14/17 Men's Lacrosse Opens Season with 15-8 Win

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Feb. 7, 2015 - Two Nittany Lions recorded hat tricks and Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) earned the first win in the first start of his collegiate career, leading the No. 14/17 Penn State men's lacrosse team to a season-opening 15-8 win over Vermont on Saturday.

Penn State is now 4-1 in season debuts with head coach Jeff Tambroni at the helm.

Eight different Nittany Lions (1-0-0) found the back of the net, led by Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.) and junior TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario). Alongside two assists, Florence, a redshirt sophomore, opened scoring 2:22 into the game and added a pair of markers on the man-up. Sanders posted the 19th multi-goal game of his career with his trio of goals and he dished out an assist. Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) turned out a three-point performance with two tallied and an assist. Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.) and Kyle Baier (Auburn, N.Y.) each had two-goal outings, while Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) recorded a goal and an assist.

Peter Triolo (Smithtown, N.Y.) and Mike Aronow (Holbrook, N.Y.) each caused one turnover. In the first start of his collegiate career, Darcey made 15 saves for the victory.

Penn State went 2-for-4 on man-up opportunities and Vermont was 0-for-3. The Nittany Lions also narrowly edged the Catamounts in faceoffs, 14-13, and led the ground ball race, 33-26. Vermont out-shot Penn State by a 45-40 margin.

Penn State's offensive output was evenly distributed throughout the game. In both the third and fourth quarters, the Blue and White put up four goals and put five past Justin Rosenberg in the opening 15 minutes.

The Nittany Lions opened the inaugural season of Big Ten Lacrosse with a bang, netting four unanswered goals. Tripp Traynor (Downingtown, Pa.) cashed in the first goal of his collegiate career eight minutes into the second quarter and Florence assisted on a Sanders shot less than two-and-a-half minutes later .to put the score at 7-2

The Catamounts (0-1-0) fought their way back, however, cutting Penn State's lead to three with nine minutes left in the third quarter. But the Nittany Lions responded with their second four-goal run of the day for a 13-6 lead with 8:15 remaining in the contest. Each team would add two goals for the final 15-8 score.

Late Rally Not Enough for Men's Lacrosse

BALTIMORE, Md; Feb. 14, 2015 - The Penn State men's lacrosse team scored four unanswered goals in the fourth quarter but was unable to overcome an early Loyola advantage and fell to the Greyhounds, 8-6, on Saturday.

Six different Nittany Lions (1-1) got on the board, with Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.), Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.), Brian Prestreau (Yorktown Heights, N.Y.), Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.), TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) and Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) recording the goals. Florence, Sanders and Manley also added an assist, and Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ontario) had one helper.

Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wisc.) went 9-for-17 from the X. Penn State was narrowly edged in the ground ball battle, 35-32. Kreinz picked up a team-best five ground balls, and James Burke (Duxbury, Mass.) and JP Burnside (Garden City, N.Y.) each had four. The Nittany Lions were out-shot by the Greyhounds, 22-14, with Sanders recording four to lead Penn State. Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) fell to 1-1 with the loss and notched 14 saves to Pat McEnerney's eight.

Florence netted the game's first goal 1:38 into the game. It was a solid individual effort by the redshirt sophomore as he dodged a group of defenders and ripped it from the arc.

Loyola (1-1) scored a trio of goals for a 3-1 lead early in the second quarter before Manley cut the lead to one. Just under seven minutes into the quarter, he drove to the net and pushed through three Greyhound defenders to slice in the 3-2 score.

Loyola responded with four unanswered markers, holding a 7-2 lead late in the third quarter.

But Penn State found its offensive rhythm as time wound down in the frame to bring the score within one.

With just over two minutes left in the third, Craig passed the ball over to Prestreau, whose sidarm shot made the score 7-3.

The Blue and White carried its momentum into the fourth quarter. Twenty-one seconds into the quarter, Zach Herreweyers was called for slashing and while on the man-up, Florence ran behind the net, serving the ball to Sutton for the 7-4 tally.

The Nittany Lions found the back of the net 3:38 later. A Loyola blocked shot allowed Penn State to travel coast-to-coast. Manley moved behind the cage and passed it up to Sanders who fired in the quick shot for the 7-5 score.

Less than three minutes later, Penn State was able to cut the Greyhounds' lead to one. Aponte sent a low shot into the net off of a Sanders dish, giving the Nittany Lions its fourth unanswered goal and the 7-6 score.

However, a turnover in Loyola's third allowed the Greyhounds to move into Penn State's third and with just 1:36 left in regulation, Loyola sealed the Nittany Lions' fate as Romar Dennis netted the final 8-6 goal.

Men's Lacrosse Falls to Villanova, 11-7

VILLANOVA, Pa.; Feb. 21, 2015 - Nick Aponte's (West Islip, N.Y.) first career multi-goal game wasn't enough for the Penn State men's lacrosse team, who fell to Villanova 11-7 on Saturday in a snow-covered Villanova Stadium.

Aponte earned the first multi-goal game of his career in convincing fashion, netting four. T.J. Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) added a pair for the Nittany Lions and Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) scored his fourth of the year. Dan Craig (Sherburne, Ontario), Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.) and Ryan Keenan (Smithtown, N.Y.) each dished out an assist.

Penn State (1-2) won the ground ball battle, collecting 26 to Villanova's 22. The Nittany Lions also dominated at the 'X', with Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wisc.) winning 14 of 21 attempts. Penn State went 1-for-4 on the man-up, while the Wildcats were 2-for-4.

Villanova out-shot the Nittany Lions, 44-29. Sanders led Penn State with eight shots, and Aponte took seven shots, a career best. Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) recorded 13 saves, while Greg Stamatov and Dan Willis combined for nine saves.

The Wildcats (1-1) dominated in the first 20 minutes of the game, taking a 6-1 advantage midway through the second quarter. The Nittany Lions' lone goal of the first came 3:25 into the game, when Sanders let loose a quick shot off of a Keenan pass from behind the net for the 2-1 score.

With 7:33 left in the second quarter, the momentum swung in Penn State's direction, and the Blue and White caged the Wildcats for almost 13 minutes. Aponte was able to break away from the Villanova defense and ripped in his first of the contest. Sutton matched the tally less than two minutes later, when he picked up the ball following a Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.) blocked shot and scored from a distance, cutting the lead to 6-3.

Villanova was able to score only once again in the third quarter, 1:23 into the frame. The Nittany Lions responded with Aponte's second of the game after sending in a sidarm shot from the front of the net to keep the game within three.

The Wildcats regained control and rallied for a four-goal fourth quarter, despite a pair of goals from Aponte and a Sanders' marker on the man-up for the final 11-7 score.

Penn State Upends No. 16/11 Penn 14-11

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; Feb. 28, 2015 - Penn State received four-goal performances from both T.J. Sanders (Orillia, Ont.) and Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.) as the Nittany Lions defeated No. 16/11 Penn, 14-11, at Holuba Hall on Saturday.

In addition to the four goals from Sanders and Florence, Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) and Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ont.) netted two each while Brian Prestreau (Yorktown Heights, N.Y.) and James Burke (Duxbury, Mass.) chipped in with a goal. Sanders, who had the 20th multi-goal game on his career, also added a pair of assists.

Penn State (2-2) dominated the faceoff 'X', as Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) won 17 of 29 faceoffs. The Nittany Lions also won the ground ball battle, collecting 44 to Penn's 36. The Quakers capitalized with the extra man, going 1-2 while the Blue and White went 0-3.

The Nittany Lions out-shot the Quakers, 45-27, as Sanders led all players with 12 shots. Sutton finished second on the team with 11 shots while Florence added eight. Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) saw his record move to 2-2 after he tallied seven saves. Jimmy Sestilio recorded 18 in the cage for Penn.

Penn (2-2) opened the scoring by tallying the first two of the game, both from Nick Doktor. With 9:45 remaining in the first quarter, Florence put the Nittany Lions on the board with his fourth goal of the season. Sanders then knotted the score with his first of the contest less than 1:30 later.

After a third Quaker goal, Craig sparked a three-goal run that erased Penn's lead. He picked up a loose ball from Sutton that Sestilio failed to control and popped it in the back of the net for the 3-3 score. Florence and Sanders each hit their mark to give Penn State a 5-3 lead early in the second quarter.

Penn answered with a three-goal run of its own, however, to regain its advantage at 6-5. After trading goals midway through the second quarter, Burke's first of the season knotted the score and Sutton gave Penn State a lead it would relinquish just once more.

The second half scoring was opened by Sanders, who cut through the middle of the defense and buried the shot past Sestilio to put Penn State up 9-7. Sutton followed that up with his second of the game, but Penn scored twice, including a goal on the man-up, and after a Sanders' fourth of the contest, a late third quarter goal by Joe McCallion and an early fourth quarter marker by Pat Berkery evened the score at 11-11.

The Nittany Lions refused to back down, however, and picked up the game-winner less than five minutes into the final frame, thanks to Florence. Craig took a pass from Sanders and slammed one home to put Penn State up 13-11 with just over four minutes left. When 1:35 was on the clock, Florence iced the game with his fourth of the day for the final 14-11 score.

Darcey Makes 18 Saves in 12-9 Loss to Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. - Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) recorded the most saves for a Nittany Lion since 2012, but the Penn State men's lacrosse team fell to No. 13/16 Harvard, 12-9, on Saturday.

Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ontario), Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) and Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) each scored a pair for the Nittany Lions (2-3). Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.), Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.) and Ryan Guittare (Garnet Valley, Pa.) added tallies, while TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) dished out two helpers and Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) recorded one assist.

In the cage for Penn State, Darcey made 18 saves, the most for a Nittany Lion since 2012. Bryan Moore turned away 12 shots for the Crimson (3-1). Harvard out-shot Penn State, 46-31. Sutton's nine shots was a career high, and Craig's seven shots was a season best. The Crimson narrowly edged the Nittany Lions in the ground ball battle, 27-26. Kreinz scooped up a team-best six ground balls. Harvard also beat Penn State by one at the face-off 'X', 12-11. On the man-up, the Crimson went 1-for-4, while the Nittany Lions were 0-for-4.

After being assessed an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on the opening face-off, putting the Nittany Lions on the man-up, Harvard took over control. The Crimson scored on its first four possessions of the game to take an early 4-0 lead.

The Nittany Lions were able to get on the board by reacting quickly. Sanders took the ball deep into Harvard's third, but was knocked down and lost the ball, drawing a flag. Sutton was able to corral the ball and tossed it to Sanders, who jumped to his feet and ripped it low nearside for the 4-1 score.

Penn State kept the momentum in its favor in the second quarter, scoring a pair of goals in 13 seconds to put the game within one. With 8:22 left in the quarter, Aponte sent a quick pass to Sutton, who cut in front and put it past Moore. Thirteen seconds later, Kreinz ran down the right wing, dodged a defender and scored in front for the third unanswered tally.

A late rally by the Nittany Lions put the game again within a goal. With 1:15 left in the half, Sanders fed the ball to Craig from behind the net who put it in. Exactly one minute later, Penn State's fifth of the contest came from a strong individual effort by Florence. The redshirt sophomore deked a defender from an angle and sent it over Moore's shoulder for the 6-5 score.

But with just .03 left in the half, the Crimson got a break when the ball trickled over the goal line for the 7-5 lead at halftime. The goal kicked off a three-goal run for Harvard, who led 10-5 with a minute left in the third quarter. Penn State broke up the string of Crimson goals with 43 seconds remaining in the quarter. Guittare received a long pass, broke through center and whipped it in from a distance for the 10-6 tally, the first of his career. Harvard was able to answer the breakaway with a tally for an 11-6 lead two-and-a-half minutes into the fourth quarter.

The Nittany Lions got a break of their own three minutes later. With Dan Craig and Mike Sutton in front of the Crimson crease, the ball was knocked loose and took a high bounce, falling in to the back of the cage for the 11-7 marker. Six seconds later, Kreinz got his second of the game to give Penn State its seventh of the game. The redshirt sophomore won the face-off cleanly and took it downfield before whipping it into the back of the cage for his second of the game.

The Crimson rebounded from the back-to-back goals scored against them. With just under nine minutes to go in regulation, Joe Lang struck the ball into the cage, and it went through the net to cause a hole and put the Crimson up, 12-8.

However, the Nittany Lions refused to go down without a fight. With five minutes left in the quarter, Manley cut in front from behind the net, scoring his fourth of the year for the final 12-9 score.

Sanders' Five Sparks 9-8 Penn State Win

BABSON PARK, Mass.; March 10, 2015 - TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) matched a career-high with five goals and Matt Sexton (Niskayuna, N.Y.) produced his first multi-goal game en route to the Penn State men's lacrosse team's 9-8 win over Marist on Tuesday, the programs' first meeting.

Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) and Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.) rounded out the Nittany Lions' scoring. Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.), Ryan Keenan (Smithtown, N.Y.), Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) and Sutton picked up helpers.

A major reason for the Nittany Lions' (3-3) success, Kreinz won 70 percent of his face-offs during the game, going 14-6 at the 'X'. Penn State won the ground ball battle, 21-17, led by Kreinz's seven. The Nittany Lions out-shot the Red Foxes, 35-30, as Sanders and Sutton each took nine shots. In the cage, Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) moved to 3-3 on the year, making 10 saves to Dave Scarcello's seven.

Despite falling behind 2-0 nearing the end of the first quarter, the majority of the opening frame was spent in Marist's half of the field. Penn State out-shot the Red Foxes, 14-5. As the game hit its midway point, the Nittany Lions were able to capitalize on their chances and proceeded to go on a 7-2 run.

Sanders put Penn State on the board and Sexton knotted the score at 2-2 less than two minutes apart as the clock wound down in the first quarter. However, Joseph Radin, who got Marist's opening two tallies, scored another pair in the first half of the second quarter to give the Red Foxes (3-2) a 4-2 advantage.

But 51 seconds after Radin's fourth of the game, eight minutes into the second quarter, Sanders sparked a series of five unanswered goals. He completed the hat trick 45 seconds later, then kicked off the second half with a marker 1:19 in. Sexton and Manley scored 59 seconds apart midway through the third quarter to give the Blue and White a 7-4 lead.

Radin continued to strike and broke up the string with just under six minutes remaining in the third quarter, cutting Penn State's lead to 7-5. The teams proceeded to trade goals, with Sanders responding seven seconds later, Radin answering after 1:35 ticked off the clock with his sixth of the game and Sutton handing Penn State its 9-6 lead with 1:55 remaining in the third quarter.

Despite scoring a pair of goals in the fourth quarter, Marist couldn't complete a comeback for the final 9-8 score.

Men's Lacrosse Drops 12-8 Decision to UMass

AMHERST, Mass., March 14, 2015 - Billy Lombardi (Rochester, N.Y.) had a career game for the Penn State men's lacrosse team going 14-22 at the face-off 'X' and scoring his first collegiate goal, but the Nittany Lions were unable to overcome a five-goal third quarter for Massachusetts and fell to the Minutemen, 12-8.

TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) scored a pair of goals, while Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ontario), Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.), Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.), Tanner Peck (Lincoln University, Pa.), Lombardi and Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) each added tallies for the Nittany Lions (3-4).

UMass (2-5) out-shot Penn State, 31-28, taking 14 shots in the third quarter alone. The Nittany Lions were led by Sutton's five shots. In the cage, both Zach Oliveri and Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) made nine saves. Penn State dominated at the face-off 'X', posting a 15-8 mark. Penn State was 2-for-3 on the man-up, and UMass went 1-for-4.

Penn State got off to a hot start, taking a 4-0 lead just 7:02 into the first quarter. Kreinz won the game's opening face-off on a UMass violation. He drove down the field and sent an overhand shot from 10 yards out into the cage to put Penn State up 1-0 three seconds into the contest. The tally was his second off of the face-off in as many games.

Two minutes later, the Nittany Lions were able to build on its lead. JP Burnside (Garden City, N.Y.) sent the ball to Sanders, whose overhand shot from five yards out made the score 2-0. Sanders added another goal 33 seconds later on the man-up to give Penn State a 3-0 cushion.

The Blue and White pulled away with a 4-0 lead four-and-a-half minutes later, thanks to Craig's highlight reel goal. With the extra man, he retrieved a pass from Sanders in front of the crease, spun around and got off the shot through traffic.

But the Minutemen scored four unanswered goals to tie the game five minutes into the second quarter.

Sutton was able to regain the Nittany Lions' lead as time was winding down in the first half. Sutton pushed through traffic and went high to give the Blue and White a 5-4 lead.

UMass opened the second half on a tear, however, and did not trail the Nittany Lions again in the game from 9:49 into the third quarter on.

Penn State was able to knot the score twice more in the quarter, with an Aponte low sidearm shot at 11:38 of the third and Lombardi's first career goal. The sophomore, seeing the most action of his collegiate career, won the face-off and ran down the field, taking a low backhand shot that bounced past Oliveri for the 7-7 score.

Peck would add his first collegiate goal, a low sidearm shot from the front of the cage, for the final 12-8 score.

Penn State Can't Contain No. 5 Denver's Offense

HEMPSTEAD, N.Y.; March 21, 2015 - The Penn State men's lacrosse team led No. 5/6 Denver for nearly half of the contest, but couldn't overcome a high-powered Pioneer offense and fell to Denver 10-8 on Saturday at Hofstra University.

Recording three points each was Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ontario), who scored a goal and added two assists, and Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.), posting two goals and an assist. TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) and Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) also scored two goals apiece, and Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.) assisted on Penn State's final tally of the game.

Connor Darcey's (Wellesley, Mass.) 14 saves make him the first goalie since 2011 to make 10-or-more saves in seven of the season's first eight games. Ryan LaPlante turned away 10 shots for Denver.

Penn State (3-5) was out-shot by the Pioneers, 38-31, with the Nittany Lions led by Sutton's seven. Denver (6-2) won the ground ball battle, 25-23. The Pioneers dominated at the face-off 'X', going 14-8. Both teams were 1-3 with the extra man.

The Nittany Lions started the game flying, with Craig's sixth of the season coming just 47 seconds into the affair. Sanders doubled Penn State's just over three minutes later off of a Sutton assist. But Connor Cannizzaro put in a pair in exactly two minutes midway through the quarter to tie the contest.

Penn State was able to regain its lead a minute after the second Cannizzaro goal. With 6:27 remaining of the frame, Denver was saddled with a 30-second offside penalty. Sutton took advantage of the opportunity, cashing in on a pass from Craig to put the Blue and White ahead. The Pioneers would tie it up a minute later for the 3-3 score at the end of the opening stanza.

The Nittany Lions began the second quarter the same way they started the first by scoring a pair of goals. Within 46 seconds of the stanza's opening face-off, tallies by Sutton and Aponte put Penn State up 5-3.

The Nittany Lions and Pioneers would trade goals until 1:43 remained in the third quarter. But as the game rolled on, Denver increased its aggression and was able to string together five unanswered goals to capture a 10-7 lead with 5:35 remaining in the fourth quarter. Penn State trailed Denver in the game for just 11:57.

Penn State attempted to mount a comeback and with 2:55 left on the game clock, Manley served the ball to Aponte, whose sidearm shot cut off the run and made the score 10-8. Following the marker, a pair of Nittany Lions shots ricocheted off the post and Penn State was unable to overcome the two-goal deficit.

Men's Lacrosse Falls in First Big Ten Game, 10-8

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; March 29, 2015 - The Penn State men's lacrosse team scored half of its goals in the fourth quarter of the program's first Big Ten Lacrosse game but was unable to get past No. 16/15 Ohio State and fell to the Buckeyes 10-8 on Sunday.

Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) scored goals in the second and third quarters. Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.) Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.), Dan Craig (Sherburne, Ontario), Michael Richards (Skaneateles, N.Y.), Brian Prestreau (Yorktown Heights, N.Y.) and Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.) rounded out the scoring ledger for Penn State. TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) recorded a pair of fourth quarter assists. James Burke (Duxbury, Mass.) and Florence also added helpers.

Ohio State out-shot Penn State, 32-27, with Sutton's eight leading the Nittany Lions. Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) suffered the loss for Penn State, stopping eight shots to Tom Carey's six. The Buckeyes topped the Blue and White in the ground ball battle, 23-20. At the face-off 'X', the Nittany Lions narrowly edged Ohio State, 12-10, led by Drake Kreinz's (Delafield, Wis.) 11-8 outing. The redshirt-sophomore won 8-of-11 restarts in the final 30 minutes of play. Also appearing at the 'X', Billy Lombardi (Rochester, N.Y.) was 1-2. Both teams were unable to convert with the extra man. Ohio State had four opportunities and Penn State had two opportunities.

The Nittany Lions (3-6, 0-1 Big Ten) got off to a slow start, falling behind 5-1 in the first quarter when Ohio State (8-3, 1-0 Big Ten) netted five unanswered tallies. Richards' sidarm shot was Penn State's lone marker 1:41 into the contest.

But Penn State was able to increase its time of possession after the opening 15 minutes and out-scored the Buckeyes 7-5 in the final three quarters.

Sutton kicked off that Nittany Lion offensive effort just over a minute into the second frame when the sophomore ripped the ball near pipe after a quick pass from Florence. Ohio State responded with a pair of goals for a 7-2 lead at halftime.

Nearly five minutes after the intermission, Manley broke up the Buckeye scoring run when he drove through a pair of defenders and sent a left-handed shot into the back of the cage. But the Buckeyes matched their response to Penn State's second quarter goal, scoring a pair to take a six-goal lead with 4:55 remaining on the clock.

Fifty-eight seconds later, Sutton's second of the game cut Ohio State's margin when he powered around a Buckeye and got through an overhand shot for the 9-4 score. Florence was almost able to bring it within four less than a minute later. The redshirt-sophomore dodged a defender twice behind the cage before out-racing his man and threw it high into the cage. But it was called a no goal with Florence deemed in the crease.

After a Buckeye goal early in the fourth quarter, Penn State became intent on making the game a nail-biter. Led by Kreinz's perfect showing at the face-off 'X' during the stanza, the Blue and White notched four unanswered goals in just over four minutes.

With 6:44 remaining in regulation, Aponte smoked one past Carey into the top right corner. Prestreau found the back of the cage 47 seconds later when, from a distance, his sidarm shot snuck in at the right pipe. Both shots counted feeds from Sanders.

1:10 after the Prestreau goal, Craig's highlight reel goal put the game within three. Sanders put a shot on net and after a Buckeye attempted to pick up the rebound, Craig scooped up the ball behind his back and whipped a horizontal shot behind him into the net. Another strong individual effort resulted in Penn State's eighth goal of the game. At 2:37, Florence took the ball from behind the cage, split a double team and strong-armed it in for the 10-8 score.

Kreinz won the draw on the ensuing restart and aside from a shot-on-goal from Sanders, the Nittany Lions couldn't generate quality chances for the final 10-8 score.

Penn State Loses to No. 3 Maryland, 12-5

COLLEGE PARK, Md.; April 4, 2015 - The Penn State men's lacrosse team held Maryland to four goals in the final 45 minutes of the contest but lost to No. 3 Maryland 12-5 on Saturday.

Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) recorded his seventh multi-goal game of the season with a hat trick. TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) scored his 20th of the season with the extra man, while Mike Aronow (Holbrook, N.Y.) netted the first of his career. Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) posted the Nittany Lions' lone assist.

Maryland (9-1, 2-0 Big Ten) out-shot Penn State (3-7, 0-2 Big Ten) 50-20. Sutton led the team with eight shots. With the extra man, Maryland was 1-for-3 and Penn State went 1-for-2. In the cage, Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) recorded 14 saves compared to Kyle Bernlohr's 11.

The Terrapins edged the Nittany Lions at the face-off 'X', 12-7. Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) went 5-for-14, and Billy Lombardi (Rochester, N.Y.) posted a 2-3 record. Maryland also won the ground ball battle, 29-18.

The Terrapins showed why the team is ranked third in the nation after a dominating first quarter, taking a 3-0 lead five-and-a-half minutes in. But the Blue and White got on the board with just under eight minutes left in the quarter. Florence sent a pass to Sutton 10 yards ahead after a lengthy possession. Sutton then dodged his defender and put an overhand shot into the cage for the 3-1 score.

But Maryland responded convincingly, going on a 5-0 run to take an 8-1 lead as the frame neared its end.

Penn State was able to cut the Terrapin lead to six when Sutton crashed through a group of defenders and got the shot off before the clock hit 0:00 to make the score 8-2.

The Nittany Lions were able to increase their time of possession in the second quarter and tightened up their defensive play, including a five-save performance by Darcey, to shut out Maryland in the stanza, making way for a third Nittany Lion goal. With 5:07 remaining, Maryland was issued separate push and offside penalties, giving Penn State its first extra man opportunity of the contest. As the pair of Terps prepared to be released, Sanders charged the cage and put the ball past Bernlohr's right side for the 8-3 goal.

The Terrapins scored three unanswered goals to open the second half before Sutton completed the hat trick 4:26 into the fourth quarter. Aponte served up a quick pass to the sophomore, who whipped in the 11-4 tally.

After Maryland netted its 12th of the game at 9:25, the Nittany Lions added one more to the scoring ledger. Sutton powered past a Terrapin to get the shot off, which ricocheted off the post directly into Aronow's stick. The freshman then threw his first career goal into the cage for the final 12-5 score.

Men's Lacrosse Suffers 11-10 Double Overtime Heartbreaker

BALTIMORE, Md.; April 11, 2015 - Penn State got a lights-out game by Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) and a four-goal performance by Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.), but suffered an 11-10 double overtime heartbreaking loss at the hands of Johns Hopkins on Saturday.

Manley's four-goal game, all scored in a 12-minute span, was his first career showing with three-or-more goals. Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) had a hat trick of his own, while Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) put together a four-point night (one goal, three assists), matching his career high, and TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) recorded a goal and an assist. Dan Craig (Sherburne, Ontario) netted a man-up goal, and Matt Sexton (Niskayuna, N.Y.) posted an assist. Darcey stopped 13 shots, his eighth game of the season with double-digit saves, to Will Ryan's 10. Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) narrowly edged the Blue Jays at the face-off 'X', going 13-for-25, but Johns Hopkins won the ground ball battle, 29-28. Penn State (3-8, 0-3 Big Ten) was 1-for-3 on extra man opportunities and the Blue Jays were 1-for-5.

After falling behind 2-0 in the first quarter, the Nittany Lions cut the Blue Jays' lead in half with 4:12 left in the frame. Peter Triolo (Smithtown, N.Y.) won a ground ball battle in front of the Blue Jays' (5-6, 2-1 Big Ten) net, raced in and flipped it to Sutton. The sophomore muscled to the front of the net and threw it in to put Penn State on the board.

Johns Hopkins responded with three goals to take a 6-1 lead midway through the second quarter, which the Nittany Lions were able to cut three-and-a-half minutes in. A Blue Jay was issued a slashing penalty and with the extra man, Craig drew a slide, stepped in and ripped a sidarm shot to make the score 6-2.

As the half neared its close, the Nittany Lions took charge offensively with a five-goal run, led by the senior midfielder. Trailing 6-2 with four seconds left in the second quarter, Manley received a feed from Aponte and sent his overhand shot low into the cage to for the 6-3 at halftime.

Penn State's offense picked up where it left off after the intermission. Fifty-one seconds into the second half, Aponte dished the ball from behind the cage to Sutton, who stepped around his defender and put it past Ryan for the 6-4 score. Two-and-a-half minutes later, Manley kept up the Nittany Lion run to put the game within one. He corralled the ball after a Penn State shot on Ryan, dodged a trio of defenders and cashed in the 6-5 goal. Manley continued to smolder and after four minutes ticked off, tied the game for Penn State. At 7:23, he drew a slide and whipped a left handed shot around his defender to make the score 6-6.

The scoreboard flipped to the Nittany Lions' favor 4:20 later, thanks to the Blue and White's most prolific scorer during the day. Sanders sent a pass to Manley, who got the 7-6 tally at 3:03 for the first four-goal game of his career. But with 1:12 remaining in the third quarter, the Blue Jays stopped the Nittany Lions' roll to tie the game at 7-7.

The fourth quarter sparked a nail-biter of an ending, which saw each team trade three goals. Just under five minutes into the fourth, the Nittany Lions' season-leading point-getter snatched back the lead. Sanders stepped in and scored the 8-7 goal, his 21st of the year. Thirty-eight seconds later, Ryan Brown's 40th of the season tied the game at 8-8.

After recording three assists, Aponte got one of his own to regain the Blue and White advantage, 9-8, with 8:16 to go in regulation. He went around the goal, dropped his inside shoulder and finished the shot with his 11th of the season. Under a minute later, Ryan Brown's fifth of the game made the score 9-9 and, at 1:27, Johns Hopkins scored the go-ahead 10-9 goal.

Penn State refused to give in, however, and after putting a shot on goal, Sutton made good and completed the hat trick to tie the game at 10-10 with 33 seconds left in regulation.

With just seven ticks of the clock remaining in the second overtime period, though, the Nittany Lions suffered the heartbreaker when Joel Tinney put away the game-winner.

Penn State Makes Program History on Senior Day

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; April 19, 2015 - An all-around exceptional effort by the Penn State men's lacrosse team, including a five-point effort by Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.) on Senior Day, propelled the Nittany Lions to the first Big Ten win in program history with an 11-6 victory over Rutgers on Sunday.

One of Penn State's nine seniors honored prior to the contest, Manley had a career game, dishing out four assists and scoring a late fourth-quarter goal. TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) scored three goals and added an assist, and Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.) and Matt Florence (Greenwood Village, Colo.) each notched hat tricks. Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ontario) recorded a goal and an assist, while Matt Sexton (Niskayuna, N.Y.) and Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) posted one assist each.

Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) stopped 11 shots in the cage for the Nittany Lions (4-8, 1-3 Big Ten) and Kris Alleyne recorded 13 saves for Rutgers (4-10, 0-4 Big Ten). Joe Nardella out-performed Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) at the face-off 'X', 12-8. Penn State went 2-for-5 on the man-up with both extra man goals scored by Sutton and coming in the first quarter. Rutgers was 1-for-3 on extra man opportunities. The Nittany Lions out-shot the Scarlet Knights, 39-33, led by Sutton's 11, and won the ground ball battle, 34-29.

Penn State went down 3-1 midway through the first quarter before Sanders got an outrageous behind-the-back tally to spark a five-goal run, putting Penn State up 6-3 early in the second quarter. The junior picked up a feed from Manley, tossing it behind his left shoulder for the 3-2 score with 4:08 remaining in the first quarter.

Sutton tied the game at 3-3 just 36 seconds later. Jules Heningburg was issued a holding penalty and with four seconds remaining on the man advantage, Sutton went low-to-high and the ball flew just below the crossbar for his second of the game.

With just under three minutes remaining in the first quarter, Sanders gave Penn State's its first lead of the game. Manley beat his defender behind the Rutgers cage and served it to Sanders, who put in the 4-3 score.

Sutton got his second man-up goal of the game and the hat trick with 40 seconds left in the opening frame. He put in a strong overhand shot with just one tick remaining on the advantage for the 5-3 lead at the end of the opening 15 minutes.

Florence scored the Nittany Lions' fifth unanswered goal at 7:41 of the second quarter with his overhand left-handed shot, doubling Penn State's lead, 6-3.

But Rutgers dimmed out Penn State's fire, taking advantage of its second man-up opportunity of the game 57 seconds later for the 6-4 score, and putting the game within one at 11:47 in the third quarter.

Florence thwarted the Scarlet Knights' attempted comeback, however, and gave the Nittany Lions a two-goal lead 46 seconds after the fifth Rutgers goal. He put in a sharp-angled shot over Alleyne's shoulder for the 7-5 score.

Sanders completed his hat trick with under a minute remaining in the third quarter. Sutton forced a turnover near the Rutgers restraining line and shoveled the ball to Aponte. The sophomore then served it to Sanders for the high-to-low 8-5 goal.

Craig's strong overhand release gave Penn State a 9-5 lead with 13:15 remaining in the game. Rutgers answered with a goal of its own but less than a minute later, Florence completed his own hat trick by ripping in a left-handed shot to put the Blue and White up 10-5. Manley closed the game with a score of his own in convincing fashion, beating his defender and sending a shot to the post and bouncing in for the final 11-6 score.

Penn State Makes Program History on Senior Day

ANN ARBOR, Mich.; April 25, 2015 - Penn State held Michigan to one goal in the first half and staved off an attempted Wolverine comeback to beat Michigan 10-9 and advance to the inaugural Big Ten Tournament as the No. 4 seed.

TJ Sanders (Orillia, Ontario) and Nick Aponte (West Islip, N.Y.) each recorded a hat trick and an assist to lead Penn State's attack against Michigan. Mike Sutton (Sewell, N.J.), Pat Manley (Arnold, Md.), Dan Craig (Shelburne, Ontario) and Brian Prestreau (Yorktown Heights, N.Y.) scored one goal apiece. Sutton, Craig and Mike Aronow (Holbrook, N.Y.) each tacked on an assist. Sanders led the team with 13 shots, helping Penn State out-shoot Michigan, 43-38.

Connor Darcey (Wellesley, Mass.) made 13 saves in the cage, his 10th game this season with double-digit saves. Penn State was out-dueled at the face-off 'X', 14-23, with Drake Kreinz (Delafield, Wis.) going 4-for-9 and Billy Lombardi (Rochester, N.Y.) posting a 5-9 record. The Nittany Lions won the ground ball battle, 23-22.

The Nittany Lions showed dominance early, opening the game with three unanswered goals. Sanders, the team's leading scorer, put Penn State on the board 2:40 into the contest. Craig carried the ball behind the goal line extended, allowing Sanders to slip free and go high-to-low far side. Exactly 10 minutes later, Aponte gave the Nittany Lions a 2-0 lead when he ran from behind the goal and threw the ball high over his defender.

Just under two-and-a-half minutes into the second, Aponte got his second of the game off of a solid play in transition. Tommy O'Neill (Shamong, N.J.) fed Aponte the ball after a long run and Aponte ran horizontal to the goal and jumped to beat his defender, shooting high past Gerald Logan mid-air for the 3-0 lead.

Ian King's first of the game cut Penn State's lead to 4-1 1:24 later, but an incredible individual effort by Aponte just over a minute later restored the three-goal Blue and White lead, and resulted in Aponte's first-half hat trick. He raced behind Logan's cage and skirted around his defender with an inside roll, faked the shot and flipped in the 4-1 goal with 10:58 remaining in the first quarter.

Penn State's 4-1 lead at halftime was the first time this season the Nittany Lions allowed one goal in the opening 30 minutes. Last year, Penn State allowed one first half goal in wins over Michigan (2/8) and Towson (4/12).

The offense picked up for both teams coming out of the intermission, and after a Wolverine goal 2:24 into the second half, the Nittany Lions went on a 4-2 run to take an 8-4 lead into the fourth quarter.

But Michigan (5-8, 1-4 Big Ten) came out of the third quarter break flying, out-scoring the Nittany Lions 5-2 in the final 15 minutes of play.

Just 19 seconds after the Wolverines cut Penn State's lead to 8-5, a Michigan turnover resulted in a tic-tac-toe play for the Nittany Lions. Michael Richards (Skaneateles, N.Y.) recovered the ground ball and fed it to Aronow, who sent the dish to Sanders for the 9-5 tally.

The Wolverines responded by scoring three goals in less than two minutes to make it a one-goal game in Penn State's favor at 9-8.

Darcey kept Michigan's streaking offense at bay, making several spectacular saves, including one with his knee with 7:39 remaining in regulation to keep it a one-goal game.

Sanders completed a hat trick of his own less than two minutes later for a 10-8 Penn State lead. Aponte fed Sanders the ball from behind the net as Sanders was racing to the cage, and the junior slipped it past Logan for his 27th goal of the season.

Michigan tacked on a man-up goal with 2:27 remaining in regulation, but the Nittany Lions held on for the final 10-9 win.
