FIRST SERVE

» No. 20 Penn State returns home from the road this week, set to host a trio of teams in Rec Hall in the Penn State Invitational. The Nittany Lions take on Rhode Island Friday, Sept. 16 before squaring off against Howard and Clemson Saturday, Sept. 17 at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m., respectively.

» PROMOTIONAL SPOTLIGHT: Penn State will release two more posters from its 2016 commemorative poster series this weekend. Poster No. 3 will be released Friday night and poster No. 4 of 5 will be released Saturday evening. The Nittany Lions will also offer $4 tickets for Friday and Saturday matches to fans who present their Penn State football ticket at the door. Fans may also purchase in advance online via the Penn State volleyball ticketing portal.

» The Nittany Lions enter the week on a 3-0 winning streak, having claimed wins against Siena, Hofstra and Syracuse last weekend, capturing the Syracuse Classic title.

» Junior Simone Lee powered the Penn State offense with 5.30 kills per set during the 3-0 week, leading the team with double figure kills in all three outings. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell also highlighted the weekend with a trio of multi-block performances, totaling 21 blocks to lead the team with 2.10 blocks per set.

» Both Lee and Gorrell are in the NCAA DI Top 30 national standings this week with Gorrell at No. 21 with 1.45 blocks per set and Lee at No. 25 with 4.31 kills per set and No. 27 with 4.86 points per set.

» Penn State also enters the week hitting .311 on the year, which ranks sixth in the Big Ten standings and 28th nationally. The Nittany Lions have also limited their opponents to .124 hitting efficiency on the year, which ranks second in the conference and ninth nationally, among DI teams.

» Penn State moved to No. 20 in the latest release of the AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll this week. The Nittany Lions have matches against nine teams represented within the top 25. Including the Nittany Lions, a total of eight Big Ten teams are ranked in the top 25 with one additional squad receiving votes.

» The Nittany Lions own a 25-1 advantage in the all-time series against Rhode Island, dating back to the first meeting between the two teams in 1979. Having won each of the last 11 games against the Rams, the Nittany Lions and Rhode Island will meet for the first time since a neutral site outing in 2003.

» Penn State is 2-0 all-time in a short series against Howard. The Nittany Lions and the Bison most recently met in the first round of the 2015 NCAA Tournament. Penn State swept Howard to advance to the second round of the event, hosted by the Nittany Lions in Rec Hall.

» The Nittany Lions and Clemson have also only met twice in program history. Having never met during the rally scoring era, the Nittany Lions and the Tigers will square off for the first time since 1998. Penn State captured a 3-0 win against Clemson in the 1998 meeting, which came in the second round of the NCAA Tournament at Rec Hall.

» Penn State hits the road next week, opening Big Ten play on the road. The Nittany Lions travel to Rutgers for a mid-week matchup against the Scarlet Knights Wednesday, Sept. 21 at 7 p.m. PSU remains on the road for the rest of the week, traveling to Northwestern for a mid-afternoon outing against the Wildcats Sunday, Sept. 25 at 1 p.m.

NEWS & NOTES

WHITE'S ON IT!

Making her rookie debut in the Blue and White, freshman Kendall White powered the team with 38 digs across three matches in the Penn State Classic, leading the team with 3.45 per set. Week two was no different as the Indianapolis native logged her first career 20-dig outing, posting a match-high 22 digs against No. 9 Stanford. Leading the team with 3.66 digs per set, she ranks 11th in the Big Ten standings and second among freshmen in the conference.

LEE'S ON FIRE!

With double-figure kills in all but one match this season, junior Simone Lee's 4.31 kills per set ranks second in the Big Ten standings and 25th nationally. With double figure kills in all three matches on the road last week, she highlighted the weekend with her second 20-kill outing with 21 kills against Hofstra. She closed out the Syracuse Classic with 18 kills against the Orange to mark her sixth consecutive match with double-digit kills.

DETERING EMERGING AT SETTER

Junior transfer Abby Detering (Florida) and redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher have split time early in the non-conference slate at the setting position. Having started the last four consecutive matches, Detering is beginning to emerge as a consistent presence at the position. Detering highlighted last weekend with back-to-back double-doubles, recording 41 assists and 10 digs against Hofstra and 39 assists and 11 digs against Syracuse in the same day.

AVCA POLL UPDATE: RELEASE 4

Penn State slipped to No. 20 in the latest release of the AVCA Top 25 Coaches Poll. The Nittany Lions opened the season ranked No. 9 in the Preseason Poll, before moving to No. 13 and No. 17 in last week's release. Penn State has matches against nine teams represented within the top 25. Including the Nittany Lions, a total of eight Big Ten teams are ranked in the top 25 with one more receiving votes.

PENN STATE CLASSIC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Junior Simone Lee and freshman Kendall White were both selected to the Penn State Classic All-Tournament team following their performances in a 2-1 opening week at home. Lee led the team with 3.73 kills per set while White averaged 3.45 digs per frame. White had at least 16 digs in two matches, while Lee posted double figure kills in two of three matches, including 23 kills vs. North Carolina.

PENN STATE RANKED NINTH IN AVCA PRESEASON POLL

Penn State women's volleyball earned the No. 9 ranking in the 2016 AVCA Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Nittany Lions are among seven Big Ten schools to be ranked within the AVCA Top 25 and one of four conference programs to be voted within the top 10.

Nebraska earned the No. 1 overall ranking with 60 of a possible 64 first place votes. Minnesota and Wisconsin are next at three and four, respectively. Outside the top 10, Illinois is ranked 14th and Ohio State is 15th. Purdue rounds out the group at No. 20. Michigan and Michigan State also represent the league in the poll, as both are receiving votes.

NITTANY LIONS PICKED FOURTH IN BIG TEN POLL

Penn State opens the season ranked No. 4 in the Big Ten Preseason Poll, released by the conference early this week. The Big Ten Preseason poll is selected by votes from all 14 conference head coaches.

PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN NITTANY LIONS

Juniors Haleigh Washington and Ali Frantti have been named to the 2016 Preseason Big Ten Volleyball Team. The pair of Preseason All-Big Ten honors are the second straight for Washington and Frantti, who each earned the honor in 2015. Washington is also among a group of just four honorees to be voted to the team by a unanimous decision.

ROSE ENTERS YEAR 38 ATOP THE NCAA ALL-TIME WINS LIST

With an all-time record of 1,194 - 189, few have come close to matching head coach Russ Rose's impressive win total. Rose and Hawaii head coach Dave Shoji went back and forth throughout the year, but Penn State's run to its seventh NCAA national championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active division I career standings at the conclusion of the season with 1,161 wins.

Prior to topping the list of DI winningest active coaches by victories, his .865 career winning clip has ranked first on the percentage chart for the last several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA DI coaches to amass more than 1,100 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

On the list of winningest coaches of all time, Rose's 1,194-189 tally is unmatched at first place. Along with Shoji and former UCLA head coach Andy Banachowski, the three are the only DI coaches in NCAA women's volleyball coaching history to total 1,100 or more victories.

A CLOSER LOOK AT 2016

WHO'S GONE AND WHO'S BACK

Perhaps Penn State's biggest challenge this year will be replacing the offensive power generated from All-American seniors Aiyana Whitney and Megan Courtney. While the offensive gap is just one piece of the puzzle, Penn State does return a few other key pieces in different areas. The Nittany Lions finished the 2015 season ranked third nationally and first in the Big Ten in blocks per set, led by First Team AVCA All-American Haleigh Washington, who led the team with 1.38 blocks per set, which closed out the year ranked third in the conference. A unanimous All-Big Ten selection, Washington also logged 13 double figure kill performances, finishing the year with .442 hitting efficiency that ranked third nationally and first in the league.

Other key offensive returners include AVCA All-America Honorable Mention Ali Frantti, and Simone Lee, who closed out the year starting 18 of the final 21 matches of the year. The Nittany Lions also received significant contributions from Bryanna Weiskircher, who helped set the team to a .295 hitting percentage in her first season at setter, good for fifth nationally in the final standings.

Despite the graduation of seniors Kendall Pierce and Lara Caraway, the Nittany Lions have the most depth in terms of numbers at defensive specialist. Keeton Holcomb is among a group of five returners at the position with the most experience. Holcomb played in 32 matches during her first season in the Blue and White, making 28 starts. She led the team with 3.05 digs per set, highlighting the season with a pair of 20-dig performance in the same day in wins against Mississippi State and Notre Dame.

TRANSFER TIME

Joining Weiskircher and Rivera at the setting position is Abby Detering and Caroline Graham. Both Detering and Graham transferred to Penn State having previously attended Florida and UCLA, respectively. Detering spent the last two seasons at Florida and enters 2016 as a junior on the Nittany Lion roster.

Graham transferred to Penn State after spending a year at UCLA, but did not play on the volleyball team. Graham attended Lycee Alexandre Dumas, serving as team captain from 2014-16. She played club volleyball with AS Tigresses (Tigers), helping the team to a national championship in 2015 and a second-place finish in 2014 and 2016.

Outside hitter Clare Powers rounds out the transfer group. Powers ranked third on the team in kills per set with 1.93 and finished fourth in digs per set with 2.19 in her first season at Saint Mary's before an injury cut her sophomore season short. She transfers to Penn State as a redshirt sophomore on the roster.

WHO'S NEW

Outside of the trio of transfers, Penn State's true freshman class features five newcomers including Emily DeMure, Allison Farrell, Kristin Krause, Emily Sciorra and Kendall White.

Emily DeMure » A four-year letterwinner at Granite Bay, DeMure helped the Grizzly Bears to a DI state championship during the 2013-14 season, as well as an All-League title in the same year. She also helped Granite Bay to a NorCal All-Section title in 2015, served as team captain. She was selected as team MVP at Granite Bay in 2015 and played club volleyball for Gold Cal Juniors.

Allison Farrell » A four-year letterwinner at Glenbard East, Farrell helped the Rams to a regional title during the 2014-15 season. She also earned Upstate 8 All-Conference and All-Area honors in 2015 and played club volleyball with Sports Performance.

Kristin Krause » Krause joins older sister Taylor on the Nittany Lion roster. A four-year letterwinner at Parkland High, Krause set the Trojans to back-to-back East Penn conference, district and Pennsylvania state championships in 2014-15. Selected as Pennsylvania's volleyball Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2015-16, she played club volleyball with East Coast Power, where she was coached by her father, Mike Krause.

Emily Sciorra » Sciorra was a four-year letterwinner at Chantilly, where she helped the Chargers to a Conference 6A championship in 2013 as the team's libero. Sciorra played club volleyball with Metro Volleyball Club of Washington D.C., helping her team to gold in the Sports Performance National Junior Classic Open.

Kendall White » White was four-year letterwinner at Cathedral, White helped the Irish become the first Indiana 4A team to post an undefeated record (36-0) in 2015 on the way to an Indiana Class 4A state title as the team's libero. NITTANY LION ALUMS EARN BRONZE WITH TEAM USA

Penn State women's volleyball All-American alums Alisha Glass and Christa (Harmotto) Dietzen earned a Bronze medal with the United States Women's National Team at the Olympic Games in Rio.

Having played key roles for Team USA throughout the event, Glass and Dietzen helped the United States to a 3-1 (25-23, 25-27, 25-22, 25-19) win against the Netherlands to clinch The Americans' second Bronze medal since the 1992 games in Barcelona, Spain. Team USA went 6-0 through Pool play before a close 3-2 loss to Serbia in the semifinals moved the United States to 6-1 heading into the Bronze medal match.

Penn State women's volleyball now has four Olympic medalists in Nittany Lion program history as Glass earns her first and Dietzen picks up her second consecutive. Having previously earned Silver with the U.S. at the 2012 Games in London, Dietzen is Penn State's first women's volleyball alum to win two Olympic medals as a member of the 12-woman roster.

From Hopewell Township, Pa., Dietzen was a two-time first-team All-American and the 2008 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in women's volleyball. From Leland, Mich., Glass also was a two-time first-team All-American for the Nittany Lions. Glass was a member of the initial three national title squads and Dietzen was a member of the first two squads, playing for Hall of Fame Coach Russ Rose.

PENN STATE IN SEASON-OPENERS

Penn State is 33-7-1 all-time in season-openers after sweeping past West Virginia Friday evening at Rec Hall. The win against the Mountaineers marks the fourth consecutive season-opening victory.

NITTANY LIONS MONTH - BY- MONTH

- Penn State is 51-6 (.895) during the month of August under the direction of head coach Russ Rose (since 1979), following a 2-1 weekend at home in the Penn State Classic. Defeating the Mountaineers, the Nittany Lions have not dropped a season-opening match since losing to Oregon in 2011 before rebounding with a hard fought 3-2 win against No. 2 USC the next evening. Penn State's first two season-opening losses came during the inaugural NACWAA in 1995 against Nebraska and in the 1999 NACWAA when Florida outlasted Penn State, 3-2, in the opening round.

- With head coach Russ Rose at the helm of the program, Penn State is 375-55 (.872) during the month of September, dating back to 1979. The Lions are 217-21 (.912) during the month of September dating back to the 1995 season and 57-11 (.838) since 2010.

- PSU is 389-45 (.896) during the month of October during Rose's tenure (since 1979). Penn State has posted a 126-18 (.875) mark in October since the 2000 season, and a record of 82-8 (.911) dating back to 2006, without losing a match during the month from 2006 to the end of the 2009 season.

- Penn State is 294-48 (.860) during the month of November since 1979, including a 122-14 (.897) mark since the end of 2000. The Nittany Lions posted a four-year streak from 1996-1999 where they did not lose a match in the month. Since 2010, Penn State is 45-6 (.882), since the end of the 2010 season, having not dropped a match in the month for three straight years from 2012-14.

QUICK SETS

- From Oct. 16, 1996 to Nov. 9, 2001, Penn State won 139 consecutive matches when taking a 2-0 lead. In 2015 Penn State won 22 of its 34 total matches by way of a 3-0 sweep.

"Haleigh had a great freshman season coming off of a preseason injury and I thought she played really well. She had good success early in her sophomore year and then she ran out of gas as the season went along. She has had some physical challenges that have been addressed, so hopefully she'll be healthy. She is an engaging human being who has great energy and is a terrific student. Haleigh has national team potential and has to put in all her energy."

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Kendall has had great success with her club and high school teams. She plays one way and it's really, really hard. I'm a big fan of how Kendall plays and I'm a big fan of people going with their strengths. I know very few players can make a big impact from the back row but I am confident about Kendall's potential."
