

NOTES:

Team

-No. 14 Penn State defeats Coker in four sets (25-22, 25-16, 22-25, 25-14).

-Tonight's win marks the Nittany Lions second consecutive win adding to their home victory over Mount Olive last night, improving their overall record to 5-4.

-PSU out-dug Mount Olive 28-18, led by a match high nine digs from Calvin Mende.

Series

Penn State won again after a win against Mount Olive in a 3-0 home match the previous night to earn their fourth home victory.

Players

Chris Nugent, senior outside hitter: Nugent contributed to the Nittany Lions victory with 12 kills and four digs in the match.

Lee Smith, redshirt sophomore outside hitter: Smith won the Mike Anderson Memorial of the Game award in the match vs. the Cobras. He led the team with a career high 16 kills and season high of eight digs.

Luke Braswell, redshirt freshman setter: Braswell lead the team with 49 assists and also contributed with a kill and three digs.

Bobby Wilden, freshman outside hitter/middle blocker: Wilden set career highs in kills with two. He led the team in service aces with a career high of three in the match.

Calvin Mende, redshirt freshman opposite: Mende led the team with nine digs in the match, setting a career high for himself. He also contributed 12 kills.

Matt Callaway, redshirt senior middle blocker: Callaway had a season high eight kills and led the Nittany Lions in blocks with a season high of six.

Matt McLaren, redshirt sophomore outside hitter: McLaren had a career high of two assists and earned his first dig of the season.

Nathan Smith, freshman setter: Smith earned the first assist of his career in the match against the Cougars.

