PENN STATE LACROSSE

LIONS RETURN TO THE NCAA QUARTERS

• For the fourth time in five years, Penn State is in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Of this year's final eight, only Penn State, Maryland, North Carolina and Syracuse have been to at least four quarterfinals with the latter three making five appearances.

• Penn State is in the NCAA Tournament for the fifth straight year and 22nd time in the tournament's 34-year history.

• Penn State's 20 games won and 39 games played rank seventh in the tournament's history.

• Penn State's 22 appearances ranks fourth all-time behind only Maryland (31), Virginia (29) and Princeton (24). PSU is one of just six programs to have won multiple national titles.

• The Nittany Lions join a short list of six programs that have won three overtime games in the NCAA Tournament.

NITTANY LIONS DELIVER KNOCK OUT BLOW

• It was a game that had everything: 10 tie scores, 11 lead changes, a seven-minute stall, a goal-line clearance, an illegal stick penalty in overtime, timely saves and an upset. In the end, Penn State topped No. 2 Florida, 14-13, in overtime.

• Penn State received a career-high five goals from Katie O'Donnell, six points from Madison Cyr (4g, 3a) and four points from Steph Lazo (1g, 3a).

• Lazo scored the game-winning goal on her first shot of the day, assisted by Lazo, who received a long outlet pass from O'Donnell after her key draw control win.

• Emi Smith made nine saves, seven of which came after halftime, to stymie the potent Florida attack. Smith's most important saves came in the dying minutes of regulation, once on Lindsey Ronbeck's free-position chance with 17 seconds left and another on Sydney Pirreca's last-second chance that hit the post and rolled along the goal line. Smith's final save came on another Pirecca chance in an overtime woman-up situation.

• Penn State was 0-5 in Florida before last weekend, winning both games with 30 goals scored, the most since 1999 when PSU tallied 32 vs. West Chester (23) and Princeton (9) en route to its last NCAA Semifinals appearance.

CYR, LAZO PICK UP ALL-AMERICA HONORS

• Penn State has multiple IWLCA All-Americans for a fifth straight year as Madison Cyr and Steph Lazo earned spots on the second and third teams, respectively, on Wednesday afternoon.

Cyr and Lazo represent Penn State's 94th and 95th All-Americans. Under head coach Missy Doherty, Penn State has seen 13 Nittany Lions earn All-America status since 2012.

O'DONNELL TABBED EPOCH/LM NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

• Midfielder Katie O'Donnell was tabbed the Epoch/Lacrosse Magazine National Player of the Week for her performances this past week in a pair of NCAA Tournament wins.

• O'Donnell tallied a total of eight goals, scoring a hat trick in Friday's 16-6 win over Winthrop and supplying a career-high five goals in an upset over No. 2 Florida on Sunday.

CYR GETTING IT DONE ON BOTH SIDES

• Penn State senior midfielder Madison Cyr leads the team in goals (55), points (76), shots (123), ground balls (33) and caused turnovers (37).

• Entering the week, Cyr ranks second in the Big Ten in goals and ranks 12th nationally. Cyr's 1.95 caused turnovers per game are second in the conference only to two-time Tewaaraton Award winner Taylor Cummings of Maryland. Cyr is 18th nationally.

• Cyr has scored in every game this season and is currently on a 28-game scoring streak dating back to last year. This season, Cyr has tallied at least two points in every game and has 11 hat tricks.

• Cyr's four goals at Florida brought her career total to 152 for sixth all-time at Penn State. She sits one goal behind Laurie Gray (1981-84) for fifth and two behind Shannon Duffey (1975-78) for fourth.

• Cyr's six points brought her career total to 195 to move into 13th all-time at PSU. Cyr has a career-high 76 points this season.

LAZO PASSING THE ROCK

• Junior attack Steph Lazo is leading the Big Ten in assists (37), which ranks ninth nationally. Lazo had nine assists all of last season.

• Lazo ranks 12th nationally in assists per game (1.95) and 30th in points per game (3.63).

• All of Lazo's assists have come since the beginning of March after not providing a helper in the first three games of the season. She has averages 2.31 assists per game since March 2, which would rank her sixth nationally.

• Lazo has six games with three or more assists.

ABOUT THE QUAKERS

• The seventh-seeded and 14th-ranked Penn Quakers (15-4) have won nine of their last 10 entering Saturday's game.

• Last week, the Quakers went on the road to Towson and wiped the field with a 17-7 win over Wagner and a 12-4 victory over the host Tigers. Penn had not won a game by more than seven goals all season prior to pulling the feat twice within three days last weekend.

• Penn is an identical 7-2 at home and on the road. Penn has not lost a road game since March 27 at Dartmouth.

• The Quakers average 10.79 goals per game, which ranks 43rd nationally. Penn concedes just 7.89 goals per game, which is 17th in the country. Penn's scoring margin of 2.89 is 21st nationally.

• The Quakers take good care of the call, committing the third fewest turnovers per game in the country (10.53).

• Penn's balanced offense features eight 20+ point scorers, led by facilitator Nina Corcoran, the NCAA's leading assister with 58 helpers. Corcoran has 85 points and is followed by Iris Williamson (46) and Alex Condon (44).

• Goalkeeper Britt Brown has started 17 games with a .494 save percentage (13th nationally) and a 7.12 GAA (9th nationally).

BIG TEN LACROSSE

June 3, 2013 will go down as a momentous day in collegiate lacrosse as the Big Ten Conference formally announced the establishment of men's and women's lacrosse as conference sports. The official announcement, which took place at Johns Hopkins University, added lacrosse with corresponding championships for the 2015 spring season.

The women's Big Ten lacrosse features former ALC-playing teams in Penn State, Ohio State, Northwestern and Michigan, while Rutgers and Maryland joined the conference in all sports July 1, 2015. Johns Hopkins will join in 2017.

BIG TEN LACROSSE BY THE NUMBERS

The Big Ten women's conference is the most decorated league before even playing a single game. The six schools have combined to win 21 national titles during the NCAA era (1982). Penn State owns five national titles including the 1987 and 1989 NCAA championships. Northwestern has seven NCAA titles, all of which have come since 2005, while Maryland has 12 titles, including the past two national titles. Penn State won the inaugural Big Ten Tournament over Ohio State.

CAREER RECORD: 154-87
PENN STATE RECORD: 75-41

2015 BIG TEN COACH OF THE YEAR
2015 ECAC COACH OF THE YEAR
2015 IWLCIA REGIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Head coach Missy Doherty is at Penn State for a sixth year in 2016 as she leads the Nittany Lions as defending Big Ten Tournament champions. Doherty's guidance has seen Penn State reach four straight NCAA Tournaments and three NCAA Quarterfinals in that timespan.

The 2015 Big Ten Coach of the Year, ECAC Coach of the Year and IWLCIA Regional Coach of the Year, Doherty led PSU to a 16-5 mark in 2015. Penn State went 13-1 late in the season to reach the NCAA Quarterfinals and narrowly missed the program's first semifinals appearance in 16 years. Doherty coached three IWLCIA All-Americans, six IWLCIA All-Region players and five All-Big Ten honorees including Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year Emi Smith.

PSU has made four straight appearances under Doherty's watch, the most consecutive appearances at the school since 1993. The 16 wins in 2015 were the most since the 1989 national championship.

Following a pair of NCAA Quarterfinals appearances in 2012 and 2013, Doherty guided her Nittany Lions to a 10-8 overall mark and a third NCAA Tournament showing.

During Doherty's third year at the program's helm in 2013, Penn State continued its national ascension. The Nittany Lions reached the NCAA quarterfinals for the second straight season, making back-to-back appearance for the first time since a three-year span from 1995-97, and captured the program's most wins since 1999. Penn State, which went 14-7, also claimed a share of its first ALC regular-season championship with a 4-1 conference mark.

Under her guidance, Penn State defeated its highest ranked opponent since 2007 with a 16-11 upset victory against then-No. 2 Florida. The Nittany Lions, who were ranked as high as No. 6 for the first time since 2007, also finished a perfect 9-0 at home to complete their first undefeated home campaign since 1991.

In 2012, Doherty led Penn State to a 12-7 record, earning the program's most wins since 2005 and its third consecutive double-digit win season. Five of those wins came against ranked opponents, including three versus top-10 teams. Penn State excelled on the road in 2012, registering eight victories, the most by the Nittany Lions since the 1989 national championship team. Penn State received an at-large bid to the 2012 NCAA championship, advancing to the quarterfinals for the first time since 1999.

In her first season at the helm of the collegiate women's lacrosse's second winningest program, Doherty led the Penn State to a 10-8 record and a second-place finish in the American Lacrosse Conference. The Nittany Lions knocked off four ranked opponents during the regular season and advanced to the semifinals of the ALC Championship.

In five seasons in Happy Valley, Doherty has coached 11 IWLCIA All-Americans, 21 IWLCIA All-Region athletes, 19 all-conference members and one CoSIDA Academic All-American.

In seven years at Towson, Doherty built the Tigers into one of the top teams in the Colonial Athletic Association and into a nationally recognized and competitive program. At Towson, she posted an impressive 79-46 (.632) record, including five seasons with 13 or more victories, and led it to three CAA Tournament championships (2005, 2008-09) and a share of one CAA regular season title (2008). Doherty coached six All-Americans during her tenure, including Towson's first three-time honoree in program history.

In 2010, Doherty guided Towson to a season of unprecedented success, as the Tigers earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in program history and received their first-ever top 10 national ranking in the IWLCIA Division I poll.

Prior to arriving at Towson, Doherty had a successful six-year stretch as an assistant coach at three different schools. At Princeton University, she was an integral member of the coaching staff that led the Tigers to NCAA championships in 2002 and 2003. During Doherty's tenure, Princeton compiled a 49-9 record and captured three straight Ivy League crowns.

Doherty also served two seasons at Brown University (1999-2000) after starting her coaching career at Vanderbilt in 1998.

A 1997 graduate of the University of Maryland, Doherty (nee Holmes) was a four-year letterwinning defender, helping the Terrapins claim three NCAA championships. Maryland was a dominant force in collegiate women's lacrosse during her career, amassing a remarkable 68-2 record, including an NCAA record 50-game winning streak. Also a standout in the classroom, Doherty was a three-time honoree on the ACC Academic Honor Roll.

In 2010, Doherty earned a master degree's in Biology from Towson University.

The former Missy Holmes, she is married to Brian Doherty. The couple has two sons, Evan and Nathan.

PENN STATE LACROSSE

PENN STATE WOMEN'S LACROSSE NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Penn State is making its 22nd NCAA Tournament appearance, which ranks fourth all-time. Under head coach Missy Doherty, the Nittany Lions are making their fifth straight appearance, a feat not accomplished at PSU since 1993, which was a string of 11 in a row.

Penn State is 20-19 all-time in the tournament with a 7-3 mark in home games. PSU's streak of seven straight-games away from University Park will end on Saturday. Penn State last hosted NCAA Tournament games in 2013 as the No. 7 seed against Canisius (14-13) and UMass (12-9).

Penn State and Penn meet for the second time in the NCAA Tournament as the two met in the first NCAA Tournament in 1983. Penn State seeks its first semifinal appearance since 1999.
