PENN STATE MEN'S SOCCER NCAA TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Penn State has qualified for its 32nd NCAA Tournament appearance in 2014. In 2013, PSU went 2-1-0 falling in the third round at New Mexico. For the Nittany Lions, it was the second time Bob Warming's side reached the Sweet 16 (2010, 2013).

Penn State is 28-30-1 all-time in the tournament with a 22-7-1 record at Jeffrey Field and a 5-22-0 mark in away games. Last year's second-round win at UCSB was Penn State's first NCAA road win since Nov. 22, 1998, a 1-0 win at Connecticut.

By knocking off the 10th-seeded Gauchos, Penn State eliminated the highest seed in the tournament's second round. Penn State, Connecticut, Coastal Carolina and Stanford were the lone remaining unseeded teams to make the Sweet 16.

SCOUTING THE ORANGE

Syracuse enters its second round match with Penn State as a No. 9 seed, having advanced as far as the ACC semifinals. The Orange are 15-3-1 and earned a first round bye following a 5-2-1 conference mark and an eight match win streak, spanning nearly a month in which they defeated four ACC opponents. The Orange are in the NCAA Tournament for the second time in three seasons, having advanced as far as the third round.

The SU offense is led by sophomore striker Emil Ekblom who has tallied seven goals and three assists (17 points) on the season. Forward Chris Nanco and midfielder Nick Perea each added five goals for the Orange attack thus far in 2014. SU's assist leader is defender Jordan Murrell who has aided a have a dozen shots.

In goal, junior Alex Bono has played each minute (17:65:33) of all the Orange's 19 matches this season. Bono has earned 63 saves, while giving up just nine for a conference best 0.46 goals against average. Bono is also tops in the ACC with a dozen shutouts.

THE ROAD TO THE COLLEGE CUP

Penn State plays in the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in as many seasons as it defeated Hartwick 2-1 in the first round to advance to take on Syracuse. The Nittany Lions face the Orange for the 37th time but for only the third time in the last 54 years.

PSU secured one of 24 at-large bids to the 48 team field and is playing in its 32nd NCAA Tournament appearance. The Lions are 28-30-1 all-time during the NCAA's and hold a 5-22 record on the road during the postseason.

SERIES HISTORY

Penn State and Syracuse have played a total of 37 times during each program's storied history, but have never met in the postseason. The Lions and Orange did most of their meeting during the first half of the 20th century as both squads have squared off just nine times since the 1950 season. PSU has won 18 of the last 19 meetings dating back to 1937 but has dropped its last match by a 4-0 score on Aug. 31, 2007 in Columbus, Ohio during the Wolstein Soccer Classic.

BREAKING DOWN THE BRACKET

Penn State is one of four teams still alive in its portion of the NCAA bracket. The Lions advanced with their 2-1 win over Hartwick on Thursday to advance to take on No. 9 Syracuse. In the other first round match, Old Dominion defeated St. Francis (Brooklyn) 3-0 to advance to play No. 8 Georgetown. The winner of the Syracuse/Penn State contest will take on the victor from the Georgetown/ODU match-up, with the lowest seed hosting the third round match on Nov. 30.

COMMON ENEMIES

Penn State and the 'Cuse share a handful of common opponents during the 2014 season, with three coming in the regular season and a pair during the exhibition slate.

Both schools have squared off against Big Ten foe Rutgers, with PSU shutting out the Scarlet Knights 1-0 on Oct. 4 and the Orange handing RU the same fate but a month earlier on Sept. 4. Penn State and Syracuse have also played St. John's and Bucknell during the 2014 season, with each team sweeping meetings with the two non-conference opponents. The Lions beat the Red Storm 3-0, Aug. 31 and took care of business with Bucknell on the road 2-0, on Oct. 1. SU downed the Johnies 1-0, Sept. 6, while they beat the Bison at home 4-1, on Oct. 21.

Syracuse and Penn State have also both played Hartwick and Akron, but SU tallied wins against the pair in the pre-season, while the Nittany Lions defeated Akron 1-0, Nov. 5 and the Hawks 2-1 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament (Nov. 20), both at Jeffrey Field.

BREAKOUT BRETT

Penn State sophomore Brett Gravatt picked the perfect time to make his PSU presence known as the Akron transfer scored his first ever Nittany Lion goal Thursday night in the Lions' 2-1 NCAA Opening Round victory over Hartwick. The score was the eventual game winner, coming in the 74th minute and curled into the top left corner of the goal out of the reach of Hawks' goalie Tom Buckner. Gravatt has battled injuries this season, playing in 10 matches, starting a pair and firing off a half a dozen shots in 284 minutes of play.

LIONS LAST TIME OUT...

Two second half goals, capped off by Penn State sophomore Brett Gravatt's first of the season proved to be the difference as the Nittany Lions men's soccer team (13-5-1) defeated Hartwick (6-10-4), Thursday night at Jeffrey Field. Gravatt's score came in the 74th minute as both teams were tied at one apiece when the midfielder curled a shot into the top left corner of the net, sending the Lion bench and the fans at Jeffrey Field into a frenzy.

The score by Gravatt (Dunn Loring, Va.) was the second Penn State goal in a 14 minute stretch, after the Hawks took a 1-0 lead early in the second half. PSU's first score came off the foot of senior Mikey Minutillo (San Jose, Calif.), who took a pass from Drew Klingenberg (Gibsonia, Pa.) and squibbed the ball past Hawks' goalie Tom Buckner to even the match at 1-1.

The Lions had a man advantage over the Hawks for the better part of the second half, after Hartwick's Jamie O'Grady received his second yellow card of the contest following some extracurricular activity on the sidelines. The ejection came in the 64th minute and Gravatt's goal followed ten minutes later.

Hartwick scored their lone goal less than a minute into the second half, when striker Jhevaughn Beckford snuck one past Lion keeper Andrew Wolverton (Atlanta, Ga.) to make it 1-0. Wolverton finished the night with one save to push his season total to 56.

JEFFREY FIELD DOMINANCE

Penn State has enjoyed success at Jeffrey Field with more than 300 victories at the famed facility. Impressively, the Nittany Lions have never posted a losing season at Jeffrey Field, going 316-81-34 all-time for a winning percentage of .773. Last season, PSU went 8-1-1 and since 2012 the Nittany Lions are 25-6-3 (.779) with a pair of Big Ten titles. Penn State is 10-3-0 this year at home and 18-4-1 the past two seasons. The Lions are 27-6-1 (.809) playing at Jeffrey Field in the NCAA Tournament.

JEFFREY FIELD FAITHFUL

In the 42-year history of the stadium, Jeffrey Field has welcomed 533,055 fans through its gates, including a season-high 4,052 in a 1-0 win over Temple (Sept. 5). PSU welcomed 5,944 fans on opening weekend in wins over Oakland and St. John's, while nearly 2,000 saw Penn State defeat Ohio State. PSU's 1-0 win over Rutgers had 2,532 fans on hand, which was the fourth-highest total of the season. Against Michigan State, 1,878 fans braved cool, wet conditions to cheer on the Nittany Lions. Penn State is averaging 1,706 fans per match in 13 contests with 22,172 fans coming to Jeffrey this year.

WOLVIE WATCH 2014

The Nittany Lions feature one of the top goalkeepers in the nation with senior Andrew Wolverton patrolling the goal area. The 2013 Big Ten Goalkeeper of the Year and NSCAA All-Great Lakes First Team honoree has returned with a pair of career Penn State records in his sights, one of which was achieved Sept. 28 at Michigan.

Wolverton currently sits first in PSU records in goals-against average (0.79) and shutouts (32). Already the single-season record holder in shutouts (12 in 2012), Wolverton eclipsed the career record in front of his family on Sunday, Sept. 28 with a clean sheet against Michigan.

As for GAA, Wolverton looks to break Whit Gibson's mark of 0.78 set during his two seasons in Happy Valley (1998-99). Wolverton's save percentage is also impressive at .792 to back up a 38-22-8 career record in net.

This season, Wolverton has racked up shutout streaks of 321 minutes, 22 seconds and 517 minutes, 42 seconds. The latter streak was to open the season as Wolverton was the final starting goalkeeper in Division I to allow a goal, which occurred on Sept. 24. He is 11-5-0 this season with nine shutouts.

COACHING CLOUT

Among the elite coaches in the sport for the last three decades, head coach Bob Warming is back for his fifth season at Penn State. Warming has an incredible coaching pedigree, including 441 career Division I victories -- third all-time among active DI coaches and ninth all-time at D-I. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013 after leading PSU to a pair of league titles.

At Penn State, Warming picked up win No. 50 as

BIG TEN NETWORK SCHEDULE

Penn State was featured on the Big Ten Network three times this season. PSU's first nationally-televised match was Sept. 28 at Michigan (a 1-0 PSU win). Penn State traveled to preseason Big Ten top-pick Maryland on Oct. 12 for another BTN telecast, falling in College Park. On Oct. 26, Penn State played Wisconsin in a 2-1 Senior Day thriller. In 2013, PSU was on the network a total of three times.

NEXT TIME OUT

Should Penn State advance to the third round of the NCAA Tournament, the Nittany Lions would travel take on the winner of the No. 8 Georgetown and Old Dominion match. If Georgetown wins, the Lions would travel to D.C. to take on the Hoyas, but if the Monarchs upset G'Town, then PSU would host the third round match against ODU, slated for Sunday, Nov. 30.

Entering his fifth season as Penn State's 11th coach in its storied history, Bob Warming has made his impact known in his first four years. Twice named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2012 and 2013 by leading the Nittany Lions to back-to-back Big Ten titles, Warming has added a pair of trips to the NCAA Sweet 16 (2010, 2013) as well.

In 2013, Warming's charges relied on stout defense, timely scoring and guile to capture its fifth Big Ten regular-season title in outright fashion. Ultimately, the Nittany Lions won NCAA Tournament games against St. Francis Brooklyn and 10th-seeded UC Santa Barbara to reach the Sweet 16. The Lions finished with a 13-6-2 record and a 5-1-0 mark in Big Ten play.

Following a pair of strong seasons to begin his career at PSU, Warming's 2012 squad accumulated a 3-1-2 conference record to capture the team's first Big Ten regular season championship in seven years. The Nittany Lions held opponents to just over one goal-per-game during the season, as they went unbeaten in their final four regular season conference contests.

The 2011 campaign presented a major milestone for Warming as he became the 31st NCAA Division I men's soccer head coach to capture 400 career victories after the Nittany Lions downed Florida International, 1-0, in the team's fourth game of the season. Penn State struggled through the Big Ten regular season, but hit its stride in the conference tournament, earning the distinction of being the first No. 7 seed to reach the title game.

The Nittany Lions switched roles from a high-powered offense in 2010 to a shutdown defense in 2011. The team allowed just 14 goals, the fewest since the 1977 squad surrendered 12 scores. Rookie goalkeeper Andrew Wolverton set school records for the most shut-outs in a season (12) and led the Big Ten in GAA (0.60) and save percentage (.821).

Warming led the Lions to 14 wins in 2011, the most by a PSU team since 2002, a Big Ten Tournament title game appearance, and the program's first NCAA postseason victory in five years.

Penn State boasted one of the nation's most prolific offenses in 2010, totaling 144 points (45 goals, 54 assists) in 23 games. Junior forward Corey Hertzog posted the most productive season by a Nittany Lion in 55 years, recording an NCAA-leading 20 goals and 46 points. Senior midfielder Matheus Braga led the nation and shattered the Big Ten single season record in assists, registering 17. Both players earned NSCAA Second Team All-America honors.

Also successful in the classroom, Penn State received the NSCAA Team Academic Achievement Award in 2010, earning the honor with a 3.07 team GPA.

Warming's three-plus decades as a head coach have been marked by distinction, achievement, and success. The six-time finalist for national coach of the year and 2008 winner of the award (according to FieldTurf Tarkett) holds a lofty place in the NCAA record book, ranking third among active Division I head coaches and ninth in Division I history with 438 victories. Warming is also one of only two active coaches in Division I to take two different programs to the College Cup.

Warming, whose distinguished career spans 35 years, came to Happy Valley from Creighton University, where he took over a previously dormant program and developed it into a conference and regional power and national title contender.

In 14 total years in Omaha, served in two different stints (1990-94, 2001-09), Warming, the winningest coach in program history, led the Bluejays to 190 victories, seven Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament championships, 11 NCAA Championship appearances, and the 2002 College Cup. His teams proved nearly unbeatable at home, compiling a 107-18-15 record in Omaha. In recognition of his dominance in league play, Warming, a three-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honoree, was named the MVC All-Centennial Team Coach in 2006.

An ardent believer in giving back through charitable works, Warming's 2009 Creighton squad won the community service award for performing over 1,500 hours of volunteer activities, including working on Habitat for Humanity projects, reading to elementary school students, and helping out at hospitals. Warming has also served as the honorary chairman of the Boy Scouts of America for Nebraska and as the honorary chairman of the Omaha Children's Crisis Center annual fund raiser.

Warming has not only built successful teams on the field, but also assisted with the design, fundraising, and construction management of three collegiate soccer stadiums, including, most recently, the $13 million, 6,000-seat, state-of-the-art Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium at Creighton. He and his winning teams helped fill the stands at Morrison Stadium, as Creighton led the MVC and ranked in the NCAA top 10 in attendance each of his last seven seasons in Omaha.

In honor of significant contributions made to the athletic program at the university, Warming was inducted into the Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame in April 2011, becoming just the seventh head coach to earn the honor in its 43-year history.

In between his tenures at Creighton, Warming served as head coach at Saint Louis University, where he guided it to four Conference USA championships, three NCAA Championship berths, and the 1997 College Cup. His Billiken teams also finished ranked in the top 20 in all four seasons.

Warming also previously held head coaching positions at Old Dominion (1996), Charlotte (1982-88), Berry College (1977-81), and Transylvania University (1976). His career coaching record stands at an impressive 438-209-75 (.659).

Warming has also produced numerous professional prospects, as at least one of his players has been selected in every MLS SuperDraft or supplemental draft. He has seen a total of 28 of his players drafted since the league's inception in 1996. Most recently, John Gallagher was selected with the 30th pick in the second round of the 2013 MLS Supplemental Draft. In 2011, Corey Hertzog was selected by the New York Red Bulls with the No. 13 pick in the first round of the SuperDraft, while Drew Cost was a supplemental draft choice of Real Salt Lake.

A 1975 graduate of Berea College (Ky.), Warming was a four-sport varsity letterwinner, starring on the golf, swimming, tennis, and soccer teams. As a starting goalkeeper, he posted a 28-2-2 record. Warming also holds a master's of science degree in sport administration from Eastern Kentucky University.

Warming and his wife, Cindy, have four children - Emily, Bess, and twins Grant and the late Audrey. Grant played for four seasons at Penn State (2010-13).
