- Junior guard Josh Reaves, who led the Big Ten in total steals last season with 60, stands at the top of the list again in 2017-18 with 32.
- With his second of four blocks against Rider, Mike Watkins moved into the No. 3 spot on Penn State's career list. The Philadelphia, Pa., native, who contributed 90 blocked shots to Penn State's record team total of 182 in 2016-17, now has 136 for his career. He is second among the NCAA active career leaders with 2.93 per game.
- The latest kenpom.com rankings place Penn State 42nd overall with a No. 16 rating for adjusted defense.

MARGINS OF EXCELLENCE

In the Patrick Chambers era, steady progress has been made in increasing the Nittany Lions' scoring and rebounding averages. In the most recent NCAA statistical rankings, Penn State enjoys its highest ranking in scoring margin at this point of the season at 60th for its +12.0 scoring margin.

On the rebounding side, the Nittany Lions are ranked 92nd with a +4.3 margin, its second-highest ranking since the 2011-12 season.

DOUBLING UP, AGAIN

Josh Reaves (10 pts, 13 rebounds) and Lamar Stevens (10 pts, 11 reb) recorded the latest instance of two Nittany Lions with double-doubles in the same game vs. Rider (12/22). Stevens and Watkins teamed up for the feat at George Mason (12/17). Penn State now has had 33 instances of two players recording double-doubles in the same game.

The double-double statistics date back to the 1976-77 season and in that time period, only one known game with three players with double-doubles has occurred. Carvin Jefferson (16 pts, 10 reb), Steve Kuhn (14 pts, 11 reb) and Chris Ericksen (14 pts, 19 reb) all had double-doubles vs. Memphis State (12/17/1976).

FIVE FOR FIVE

The Nittany Lion starters all scored in double figures vs. Binghamton and all five had five or more field goals (6 FG – Stevens, Carr, Reaves; 5 FG – Garner, Watkins) for the first time since a November 19, 2013, game vs. La Salle at the Bryce Jordan Center. Against the Explorers on that date, Donovan Jack, Brandon Taylor and Ross Travis each had six field goals and Tim Frazier and D.J. Newbill had five each.

THREES HIGHER

When Penn State had 12 three-pointers at Iowa earlier this month, it was the highest total for the Nittany Lions in a Big Ten game since connecting on 14 vs. Northwestern in the BJC during the 2004-2005 season. It also matched the high mark for threes in a conference road game, previously recorded at Northwestern on February 8, 1998.

Since the 2011-12 season, Penn State has had 30 games with nine or more three-point field goals and since 2015-16 has registered 12 games with 10 or more three-point field goals.

Here's a look at the Nittany Lions' highest single-game totals since 2011-12:

1	13	vs. St. John's	12/18/16
2	12	at Iowa	12/2/17
3	11	Indiana (3ot)	2/1/17
	11	Colgate	11/23/16
	11	Nebraska	2/25/16
	11	Youngstown State	11/23/11
7	10	12x, last vs. Binghamton	12/19/17
19	9	12x, last vs. Oral Roberts	11/24/17

SIX OPPONENTS UNDER 60

George Mason became the sixth team in 2017-18 to be held to fewer than 60 points by the defensive-minded Nittany Lions. For the second time this season, Penn State kept back-to-back opponents from scoring more than 60 points as it allowed George Washington only 54 in the last game.

Oral Roberts has had the lowest total of the year so far at 48. Pittsburgh scored 54 while consecutive opponents Fairleigh Dickinson and Montana were both held to a total of 57 points, that total ranking as the lowest by Montana since February 27, 2016 (54).

MBB LEADS BIG TEN; POSTS FIFTH-STRAIGHT YEAR WITH 100% GSR

Penn State student-athletes continue to graduate well above their peers nationwide, delivering a record-tying academic performance, according to data announced by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA).

The NCAA's annual graduation rates study of institutions across the nation revealed Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 90 percent to tie the school's all-time record, previously set in the 2010 NCAA report. Nittany Lion students posted a 90 percent graduation rate compared to the 86 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2007-08 through the 2010-11 academic year.

The NCAA data revealed student-athletes from nine Penn State squads, including men's basketball, earned a Graduation Success Rate of 100 percent, an increase of two from last year's seven teams and up four from the 2015 total of five squads.

The men's basketball team had a perfect 100 percent GSR score for the fifth consecutive year and its graduation figure was 22 points higher than the Division I average (100 to 78 percent).

CHEWBACCA... THE NITTANY LION

When Nittany Lion basketball student-athlete Joonas Suotamo included in his profile information that his dream job would be “any part of the movie industry,” he probably would have not believed he’d be playing one of the most recognizable roles of all time. When looking to cast for Chewbacca, Disney contacted the Finnish basketball team and found the perfect fit in Suotamo. The former forward will be in two franchise movies in the next year, “Star Wars: The Last Jedi,” which opened Dec. 15, and “Solo: A Star Wars Story” opening May of 2018.

Check out this USA Today article to learn five things about Joonas Suotamo: gopsu.info/USAToday5ThingsAboutJoonas. The 2008 Penn State film studies graduate was also featured in this Pittsburgh Post-Gazette article gopsu.info/PPG\_walkingcarpet.

Penn State is 8-1 in 2017-18 and was 11-0 in 2016-17 when keeping its opponents below 70 points. All six Big Ten wins last season came when opponents were kept at or below 70 with two teams held under 60 points.

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Penn State became the first Big Ten team to record a win in the 2017-18 season with a late afternoon tipoff time vs. Campbell.

With the Big Ten season-opening win at Iowa, Penn State had its first 1-0 start in conference play since the 2010-11 season.

BLOCK PARTY

Redshirt sophomore Mike Watkins has 46 of the Nittany Lions’ 91 blocked shots on the year, a total that has Penn State ranked fifth nationally for total blocked shots and 7th for blocked shots per game (6.5).

Individually, Watkins is second among active NCAA Division I career leaders with 2.93 per game. His 2017-18 numbers place him sixth nationally (46 total blocks and 3.54 per game).

SWAT-KINS

With his second of four blocks against Rider, Mike Watkins moved into the No. 3 spot on Penn State’s career blocked shots list. The Philadelphia, Pa., native, who contributed 90 blocked shots to Penn State’s record team total of 182 in 2016-17, now has 136 for his career. He is second among the NCAA active career leaders with 2.93 per game.

*Penn State freshman record

REAVES, PRINCE OF THIEVES

Junior Josh Reaves currently ranks in the NCAA top 15 individually for total steals (13th-32) and steals per game (15th-2.46). His defensive contributions have helped Penn State to a No. 6 national ranking with 124 total steals and No. 13 rank in steals per game (9.5).

He has 128 career steals to date and needs eight more to enter Penn State's career top-10 list. The No. 10 spot is currently held by Jarrett Stephens (1996-2000) with 136. His 128 total ranks him 40th on the NCAA list of active career leaders. His 1.88 career per game average places him 16th on the NCAA list of active career leaders.

Reaves had 60 steals in 2016-17, a total that was just on the outside of Penn State's single-season chart at 11th, quite an accomplishment since Reaves missed six games to start the season.

KING WHEELER

Freshman Jamari Wheeler has provided a spark for the Nittany Lions, averaging nearly 19 minutes of action per game this season. He had a career-best and team season-high six steals at George Mason and is ranked second in the conference for total steals behind teammate Josh Reaves and 83rd nationally for steals.

Over a three-game span including two at the Legends Classic, the Live Oak, Fla., native went 8-12 (66.7 %) from the field, dished out six assists and had eight steals and a block. Against 16th-ranked Texas A&M, Wheeler had two steals that lead directly to layups in the second half, the second punctuating a Penn State rally to trim the Aggie lead to five.

Against Oral Roberts, Wheeler started out quickly with six points and two steals in his first four minutes of play. He finished with a game-high and career-high 14 points and led the Nittany Lions with seven rebounds, and five steals. In that game, he had five career bests on the day and tied his career total with four assists. He also recorded his first career three-point field goal as a Nittany Lion.

CENTENNIAL GAMES

On a team dominated with youth, two Nittany Lions have eclipsed the century mark for games played. Senior Shep Garner played in his 100th game as a Nittany Lion in the season opener vs. Campbell. Graduate student Julian Moore reached the 100-game milestone at the end of the 2016-17 season and now has played in 116 games which is 26th on the NCAA Division I active career leaders list.

GARNER NOW 13TH IN SCORING

After leading the Nittany Lions with 18 points against Rider December 22, 2017, Shep Garner moved to No. 13 on Penn State's all-time scoring list. Garner finished his junior season with 1,183 points for 21st on the career chart.

FOR THREEEEEEEEEE.....

Garner is also moving up the Nittany Lions' rankings for career three-point field goals made. Garner connected on 82 treys in 2016-17, which placed him 10th on the single-season list. With 43 this season for 259 in his career, Garner has a hold on the No. 4 spot. He also ranks fourth for Penn State in all-time attempts with 717. With his 259 career made three-pointers, Garner moved up to seventh on the NCAA Division I active career leader list.

THE "CLIMB" CONQUERED

Coach Patrick Chambers led more than 20 members of the "Legion of Blue" student section, the Nittany Lion mascot, media and staff members to the top of Mount Nittany in September.

Tied into the Nittany Lions' social media hashtag #ClimbWithUs, the hike covered 1.2 miles round trip and reached an elevation of 1,900 feet. The top of Mount Nittany offers views of the Bryce Jordan Center, Beaver Stadium, the University Park campus and State College.

5.	221	579	38.2	Danny Morrissey, 2005-09

"STEALING" ANOTHER CAREER SPOT

Garner is also moving up on another Penn State statistical career list -- for steals. He has 130 and needs six more steals to tie Jarrett Stephens for the No. 10 spot. His current total ranks him 37th among the NCAA Division I active career leaders.

STAYING ON TOP

Mike Watkins not only set the Penn State freshman mark for rebounds, he also claimed the top spot for career field goal percentage at 59.0 percent following his rookie campaign. In the games in the month of December, Watkins is 39-57 for a 68.4 field goal percentage from the field. That combined performance has moved his career percentage to up to 61.9.

5.	53.9	489	907	Ed Fogell, 1986-90

CARR'S FRESHMAN 26

Tony Carr scored in double figures 26 times during his freshman season -- another Penn State rookie record to his credit. In addition to his 139 assists in 2016-17, he topped Jesse Arnelle (23) for most games with 10 or more points in a freshman season.

CARR'S FRESHMAN 28

When Carr was asked during media day if he had gained 28 pounds in the offseason, the Philadelphia, Pa., native was quick to quip that he gained 28 pounds of muscle to his frame, now weighing in, literally, at 204 for his sophomore season.

MINUTE BY MINUTE

An injury at the end of 2016-17 sidelined sophomore guard Nazeer Bostick for the remainder of the season, just as his minutes on the floor were increasing. Bostick has been first off the bench in seven and has two starts this season. The Philadelphia, Pa., native had his first career start against Columbia (11-17) and played a career-high 35 minutes, producing 10 points and a career-best eight rebounds. Against Pittsburgh, he had 10 points with four assists and four steals with no turnovers. He shared the team scoring lead with Jamari Wheeler with 14 points against Oral Roberts (11-24).

20/20 TIMES 2

Tony Carr (31) and Lamar Stevens (25) replicated a tandem of 20-plus point efforts against 16th-ranked Texas A&M (11/21/17) when they both scored 20-plus points in a game. The tandem accomplished the feat two times, the first time against Duquesne (11/13/16) and again in the three-overtime game at Indiana (2/1/2017).

With Stevens' and Carr's 20-plus points in November 2016, it marked the first time since March 15, 1989 that two Penn State freshmen posted 20 or more points in the same game, when Freddie Barnes (24) and Monroe Brown (32) pulled off the feat against Murray State in the opening round of the NIT.

PHILLY SIX NOW SEVEN

With the addition of freshman John Harrar from Wallingford, seven Nittany Lions on the 2017-18 roster hail from the Philadelphia area. Nazeer Bostick, Tony Carr, Shep Garner and Lamar Stevens represent Roman Catholic High School. Mike Watkins is from The Phelps School and Julian Moore is from Germantown Academy.

NITTANY LION RETURNS

Penn State men's basketball coach Patrick Chambers announced in December 2017 that alumnus and four-year Nittany Lion letterman, Jarrett Stephens '00, will be working with the program as a consultant.

Stephens, who played from 1996-2000, will assist student-athletes in student development areas, which include life skills development, the transition from high school to college, life after college, and community engagement.

Stephens completed his Penn State career at No. 5 on the Nittany Lions' all-time scoring list with 1,372 career points and was eighth with 703 career rebounds. He held the top spot in career field goal percentage at 58.3 for 17 years until current redshirt sophomore forward Mike Watkins claimed the No. 1 spot following the 2016-17 season.

Penn State's first-ever consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Stephens was an All-Big Ten Tournament and All-NIT Finals pick as well as a USWBA All-Region choice. Following his collegiate career, Stephens played professionally for nearly a decade with teams in Europe and South America.

RETURNING FIREPOWER

Penn State is one of 16 teams in the nation that returned 70 percent or more of its scoring, rebounding and assists from 2016-17.

SCORE BY THE NUMBERS

Five of the six top scorers from a year ago return for Penn State in 2017-18, accounting for 77 percent of the team's total points last season. The 2016-17 freshmen trio of Tony Carr (13.2 ppg), Lamar Stevens (12.7 ppg) and Mike Watkins (7.7 ppg) contributed nearly half of the points.

B1G WINS

Penn State won a combined 13 Big Ten games in back-to-back seasons for just the seventh time in 25 years of Big Ten play. The Nittany Lions have had at least six league wins in consecutive years just three times previously. (93-

BASKETBALL IN THE BAHAMAS

Penn State traveled to the Bahamas for its foreign tour trip during the summer of 2017. While the Nittany Lions went 2-0 on their trip, including a double-overtime thriller in the first contest, they also got to experience some of the activities and culture of the islands. Coach Chambers, staff members and several players conducted a clinic on a nearby island on one of the first days after arrival.

NCAA champion, Olympian and Penn State alumnus Mike Sands, who now serves as the president of the Bahamas Association of Athletic Associations, was on hand for in the Nittany Lions' first win and visited with members of the coaching staff after the game.

An afternoon of snorkeling off the coast was scheduled as a break from practices and games and the team also met a group of elaborately costumed Junkanoo musicians playing traditional rhythms with trumpets, drums and percussion instruments.

95, 94-96 and 07-09). Penn State's Jan. 1 win over Rutgers marked its earliest Big Ten win since the 2010-2011 season.

EVERY DAY OF THE WEEK

Penn State will play at least one scheduled basketball game on every day of the week during the 2017-18 season. Big Ten games also, for the first time ever, span the week. The Nittany Lions play Northwestern (1/5/18) in the BJC for their first-ever Friday regular season conference game at home.

AND FIVE TIMES ON SUNDAY

Five Nittany Lion games are slated for Sundays, two during the nonconference portion of the schedule versus Fairleigh Dickinson (11/12) in the BJC and at George Mason (12/17). The remaining three Sunday games are against league opponents, take place in February, and all are on the road (2/11 at Illinois, 2/18 at Purdue and 2/25 at Nebraska).

NEW TO THE NITTANY LIONS

Four teams, Oral Roberts, Binghamton, Campbell and Montana, were first-time opponents for Penn State. The Nittany Lions are now 4-0 against first-time opponents after defeating Campbell in the opener and Montana and Oral Roberts in the Legends Classic University Park Regional games. Coach Chambers faced Binghamton four times at Boston University with now has a 5-0 record against the Bearcats after Penn State's December 19 win.

THE HOMESTAND

Penn State started the 2017-18 season with four home games over the span of eight days -- all at the Bryce Jordan Center. This opening homestand is the longest in coach Patrick Chambers' tenure -- previously three to tipoff the 2011-12 season -- and matches Penn State's four-game homestand to open the 2010-11 campaign. The Nittany Lions started 2-0 with wins over Campbell (86-75), scoring the most points in a season opener since the 2000-01 campaign, and Fairleigh Dickinson, notable for Penn State as it broke the BJC record for steals in an individual men's game with 18.

The Nittany Lions defeated Montana as part of the Progressive Legends Classic University Park Regional to improve their record to 3-0. Penn State topped Oral Roberts November 24 to close the homestand at 4-0.

THE WINS

Penn State has had 15 or more wins in each of the last four years. The Nittany Lions had not previously reached at least 15 wins in four consecutive seasons since joining the Big Ten Conference. The Lions also have at least eight regular-season, non-conference wins in each of Chambers' six seasons.

THE HEARTBREAKERS

The one-point loss to Ohio State at the BJC was Penn State's seventh Big Ten game in 2016-17 that was decided in overtime or by one possession. Five of last season's conference losses were decided by five points or less: at Michigan (-3, 69-72); Indiana (-3, 75-78); Rutgers (-2, 68-70); Purdue (-4, 70-74 ot) and Ohio State (-1, 70-71).

FIRST FOR EVERYTHING

Following the regular season, Penn State tied for 12th with Nebraska and took the No. 13 seed into the 2017 Big Ten Tournament in Washington, D.C. The Nittany Lions advanced to the second round with an overtime win over the Huskers, 76-67. It was the first overtime game in the tournament for both Penn State and Nebraska and the ninth overtime game in the tournament's 20-year history.

AND UNDER 40

The Nittany Lions were 9-1 in 2016-17 when holding opponents under 40 percent shooting from the field. The lone loss was to then-No. 14 Purdue, who shot 39.7 percent Feb. 21 in the BJC.

With a 6-0 mark so far in 2017-18 when Penn State holds an opponent under 40 percent from the field, the Nittany Lions are now 61-18 record under head coach Patrick Chambers.

REGISTRATION FOR ALUMNI WEEKEND NOW OPEN

Long-time Equipment Manager Mitch Stover to Serve as Honorary Captain for Iowa Game

The Penn State men's basketball program will celebrate alumni weekend Friday-Saturday, February 2-4, 2018. Mitch Stover, who has served as the equipment manager for the Nittany Lion basketball program for 23 years, has been selected as the honorary captain for the Penn State-Iowa game on February 3. All former Penn State men's basketball student-athletes and their families are invited back to campus for this fun-filled weekend.

"I have been blessed and honored to have worked with this team and in this athletics department," said Stover, who is planning on retiring at the end of this season. "It has been a privilege to have been a part of this incredible University for more than 36 years."

In addition to the game, a full slate of events is scheduled for the weekend with a Friday evening social, Saturday pre-game event in the Bryce Jordan Center, alumni pickup game, the Lady Lions game vs. Michigan State on Feb. 4, and other activities. Tipoff for the Iowa game will be announced closer to the date of the contest, but will be either 6 p.m. or 8 p.m. Final event times will be determined once game time is set.

"Having our alumni back on campus is always a great experience," said Coach Patrick Chambers. "This year is even more special in that we all have the opportunity to honor and thank Mitch Stover for his 20-plus years of selfless service to this program."

For additional information, weekend registration information and to receive codes for the guaranteed hotel rate at the Nittany Lion Inn or The Penn Stater, please contact Wendy Miller at wem4@psu.edu or 814-865-5494.

TOPS IN TURNOVERS

Penn State led the Big Ten in forced turnovers in 2016-17. PSU opponents averaged 14.8 turnovers on the season and 14.5 in Big Ten play. Opponents had the same or more turnovers in all but four games.

ROOKIE MAJORITY

Penn State's 2016-17 season-opening lineup featured three players with freshman eligibility: Tony Carr, Lamar Stevens and Mike Watkins. It is the first time in program history three rookies have started in the season opener, and the first time at least three freshmen have started in any game since the final three games of the 2007-08 season.

The 2016-17 season opener was the third consecutive featuring at least one true freshman in the starting lineup with Josh Reaves starting last season and Shep Garner in 2014-15.

WELCOME HOME

Penn State's Philadelphia natives showed out in front of their home crowd when Penn State played host to Michigan State Jan. 7 in the Palestra. They contributed 76 percent of the team's scoring in the 72-63 win, the Lions' first over the Spartans since 2011. Three of the Philadelphians (Stevens, Carr and Moore) finished in double-figure scoring.

RANKED FOES TESTED IN BJC

Penn State won four-consecutive games against ranked teams in the Bryce Jordan Center: No. 21 Maryland (2/7/2017), No. 24 Minnesota (1/14/2017), No. 4 Iowa (2/17/16) and No. 22 Indiana (2/6/2016).

Seven of Chambers' eight wins over ranked teams have come in front of a home crowd at the BJC.

SHARE THE LOVE

Seven players led the team in scoring at least once in 2016-17 and six players combined for 24 outings with 20 or more points. According to research conducted by Memphis, Penn State, UMass and Memphis were the only schools with six players to tally at least 20 points in a game in 2016-17.

NEW PLACES

Penn State guard and alumnus Tim Frazier (2009-14), who spent the 2016-17 season with the NBA's New Orleans Pelicans, was acquired by the Washington Wizards on the eve of the league's 2017 draft. In his final 15 games of last season, he dished out 76 assists while only committing 10 turnovers. Nittany Lion D.J. Newbill inked a new contract for 2017-18 and will play with the NBL's New Zealand Sky City Breakers.

Other Nittany Lion alumni will compete for new teams this year as Talar Battle is now with Petrol Olimpija in Ljubljana, Slovenia and both Brandon Taylor (Jamtland, Sweden) and Donovan Jack (Bayer Giants Leverkusen) signed with new clubs in August.

THE PENN STATE COACHES SHOW PRESENTED BY PEPSI

"The Penn State Coaches Show Featuring Patrick Chambers Presented by Pepsi" began this week with the program broadcast live on 40-plus affiliates and on LionVision on GoPSUsports.com. The one-hour program at Primanti Bros. takes place every Thursday at 6:05 p.m. through early March. Fans are welcome to attend in person or listen live on LionVision on GoPSUsports.com.

For fans attending the live show at Primanti Bros., the Thursday evening special is a three-topping pizza, family-style salad and pitcher of soda for just $20. Appetizer portions of wings, wedges and tater tots can be added to the special for $5 each. Parking is available in the Garner Street Parking lot and on-street parking is available nearby.

In addition to Chambers, "The Penn State Coaches Show" will include segments with various coaches from other Penn State teams and athletics administrators. Guests of "The Penn State Coaches Show Presented by Pepsi" will answer questions from fans at Primanti Bros. and online. Fans can submit questions at www.GoPSUsports.com/askthecoach.

Steve Jones, the radio play-by-play voice of the Nittany Lion basketball and football teams, is host of "The Penn State Coaches Show Presented by Pepsi" and will be joined by Roger Corey, who also hosts the Penn State Sports Network's football pre-game Tailgate Show. Jeff Tarman is the producer of the show.

"The Penn State Coaches Show Featuring Patrick Chambers Presented by Pepsi" can be heard live on stations throughout Pennsylvania as well as New York City. A complete listing of the 2017-18 Penn State Sports Network affiliates for Nittany Lion basketball games and programs can be found on the men's basketball page on GoPSUsports.com under the 2017-18 affiliates link. Games and all programs are available live and as encore broadcasts for free online on LionVision and on the GoPSUsports mobile app.

The Penn State Sports Network is syndicated by Penn State Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports.

More than 40 radio stations in Pennsylvania and New York will carry Nittany Lion Basketball games during the 2017-18 season. Radio announcer Steve Jones, in his 36th year with Penn State, will handle the play-by-play with USBWA Hall of Famer Dick Jerardi of the Philadelphia Daily News serving as analyst. Broadcasts begin 30 minutes prior to tip-off with the "Penn State Bookstore Pre-game Show." Broadcasts conclude with the PA Propane Association Postgame Show post-game show featuring coach and player interviews, game statistics and scores from around the nation.

Broadcasts are also available on SiriusXM with channels for each game announced in game notes. A station carrying a partial schedule is denoted with an asterisk (*).

GAME-BY-GAME 2017-18 RECAPS

PENN STATE OPENS WITH WIN 86-75 WIN OVER CAMPBELL

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- The Penn State men's basketball team became the first Big Ten team to record a win in the 2017-18 season with a 86-75 victory over Campbell at the Bryce Jordan Center. Sophomore guard Tony Carr scored a career-best 33 points and flirted with a triple-double with nine rebounds and seven assists in the Nittany Lions' first action of the year.

Campbell's Chris Clemons led all scorers with 39 points, 24 coming in the second half. The junior guard tied the Bryce Jordan Center facility record for points scored by an individual and shares the mark with Lady Lion Maggie Lucas (12/9/2012). Thirteen of Clemons' points came at the free throw line.

Penn State led the game for 33:51 and opened up a 17-point lead eight minutes into the second half, but Campbell used an 11-2 run to close the gap to single digit points. Carr scored 18 points in the final 5:53 to help fend off the Camels and converted a layup and a free throw after being fouled by Shane Whitfield with 39 seconds left for a 77-70 Penn State lead. He added six more points off free throws.

In addition to his career best in points, Carr also set career bests in field goals attempted (23), free throws and free throws attempted with 13 and 15, respectively. He tied his career best for field goals made with nine. Junior forward Josh Reaves scored 15 as the only other Nittany Lion in double figures and added eight rebounds, three steals and a block to his stat line. Carr led Penn State in rebounds with his nine, tying the game-high with Campbell's Andrew Eudy, and Lamar Stevens and Julian Moore each grabbing six apiece. Eudy had 11 as the only other Camel in double-figure scoring.

The Nittany Lions crashed the boards and had a 44-37 advantage after only a two-rebound margin at the half. Foul trouble set in for both teams in the second half, sending Stevens and Wheeler to the bench for Penn State and ending the day for Shane Whitfield and Marcus Burk for Campbell.

NITTANY LIONS BEST FAIRLEIGH DICKINSON 81-57

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- The Penn State men's basketball team topped the visiting Fairleigh Dickinson Knights, 81-57, on Sunday evening in the Bryce Jordan Center in nonconference action. Five Nittany Lions finished the night with double-figure scoring, led by sophomore guard Tony Carr who had 20 points.

Penn State would out-score the Knights 25-9 after scratching its way to a one-point lead after missing its first five field goal attempts of the game. A three from Josh Reaves gave the Nittany Lions the lead at the 11:04 mark and the junior guard added five more points over the next 90 seconds.

Reaves was a huge part of the Nittany Lions' surge, tying the game at 20 with a layup and pushing them ahead with a layup and tip-in. He scored 12 points during the run and assisted on two other baskets as Penn State took the 16-point lead at the half. Carr added 11 during the 25-9 run, including a last-second "falling away" jumper as he fell backward onto the floor as time expired.

The second half started with a 9-2 Penn State run, but cold shooting by the Nittany Lions saw them connect on just one of a dozen attempts. Tough defense and back-to-back stops resulted in Reaves' and Lamar Stevens' dunks to spark the offense. From there, the Nittany Lions ran away with the game.

Carr, who had 33 points in Penn State's win on Friday, went a perfect 9-9 from the charity stripe to go along with this five field goals. He added seven assists, four rebounds and a career-best three steals to his 20-point total.

Reaves finished with a season-best 17 points, and had the game-high total with nine rebounds, adding four steals, four assists, and a block. In his first game of the season for the Nittany Lions, Mike Watkins put up 15 points, adding five rebounds, three blocks, and two steals.

The fourth and fifth Nittany Lions in double figures were Lamar Stevens and Nazeer Bostick, who added 12 points each. Stevens also grabbed seven boards and dished out four assists.

Penn State finished the game shooting 44.8-percent from the game, and out-rebounded the Knights, 42-26. The Nittany Lion defense also forced Fairleigh Dickinson to turn the ball over 31 times, while the Nittany Lions recorded 18 steals. The 18 steals inside the Bryce Jordan Center was an arena record for men's game.

PENN STATE PUSHES TO 3-0 WITH MONTANA WIN

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- The Penn State men's basketball team gutted out a 70-57 win over Montana as part of the Legends Classic University Park Regional. A 9-2 run in the final minutes pushed the Nittany Lions past the Grizzlies for their third win of the 2017-18 season. Sophomore forward Lamar Stevens scored 15 of his 25 points in the second half and had seven rebounds in the victory.

Penn State built a 10-point lead, 51-41, midway through the second half, in part due to a sharp-shooting 10-14 from the field. Montana challenged the Nittany Lions by hitting four of its next five baskets to pull within one, 51-50. A triple by senior guard Shep Garner, who was 1-4 in the first half, and layup by junior guard Josh Reaves for a quick 5-0 run over 40 seconds switched the momentum back to Penn State.

Montana fought back again to trim an eight-point lead back to three with four minutes left in the game. A 10-second backcourt violation on the Grizzlies put the ball back into the hands of the Nittany Lions where Garner delivered a picture-perfect three-pointer and then hit another after a Stevens steal to push Penn State back in front by nine, 64-55.

An aggressive Nittany Lion defense held Montana to only 32.3 percent shooting in the second half and 39.3 percent overall. Penn State, which shot 57.1 percent in the second half, recorded its highest field goal and three-point field goal percentage of the year at 50 percent.

Stevens added two assists, two steals and a block to his night's totals. Garner and Reaves matched with 12 points on the night and redshirt sophomore Mike Watkins had eight points and four blocks.

Early on, Penn State and Montana traded six leads and were tied four times before the Nittany Lions took a 34-29 lead at halftime. Penn State held an opponent to less than 60 points for the second straight game.

PENN STATE MOVES TO 4-0 WITH WIN OVER COLUMBIA

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- The Penn State men's basketball team moved to 4-0 on the season with a 79-65 win over Columbia at the Bryce Jordan Center with senior guard Shep Garner scoring a game-high 26 points to lead the Nittany Lions. Paying homage to the institution's original school colors, Penn State also remained undefeated in its black and pink alternative uniforms at 5-0.

Penn State, playing its fourth game in the opening eight days of the season, was without the services of two starters, Tony Carr and Josh Reaves, who both missed the game with injuries. Garner, who also was banged up in Wednesday night's game against Montana, was still recognizable in a protective face mask, as were his shooting skills. Garner tied his career high with 10 field goals and had his most points since a 26-point outing vs. Colorado in December 22, 2015.

In a game of runs, the Nittany Lions would take a double-figure lead only to have Columbia end a scoring drought with a flurry of points. In the first half, a nearly seven-minute spell allowed Penn State to go from a point down at 8-7 to a 22-8 lead to hold a 10-point advantage with 2:22 left before the break.

While three of Penn State's starters, Nazeer Bostick, Lamar Stevens and Mike Watkins, were relegated to the bench with two fouls each, six of eight points in a two-minute span came from Jaron Faulds. Then Gabe Stefanini pulled Columbia within three as his trey fell through the bottom of the net as time ran out in the half.

Penn State dominated in the minutes following the break as it leaned on Watkins and his 10 points as he went 5-5 and had four of his six blocks in the second period. Watkins recorded his ninth career double-double with 11 points and 14 rebounds. He took sole possession of the number-six spot on Penn State's career list for blocks with 103, passing both Carvin Jefferson (99) and Donovan Jack (100).

Numerous Nittany Lions stepped up with contributions in the victory. Over a stretch of three minutes in the second half, four different Penn State players scored and Watkins added a dunk and another layup for the largest lead at 19. Freshman guard Jamar Wheeler played a career-high 36 minutes with bests in points (7), assists (4) and steals (3). Satchel Pierce hit seven free throws, a career high, and had 11 points off the bench.

Overall Penn State collected 10 steals and forced Columbia into 20 turnovers and the Nittany Lions held Columbia to 19 three-point field goal attempts. Columbia had averaged 31.5 attempts per game, including a mark of 39 against its last opponent.

PENN STATE CRUISES TO 85-54 WIN OVER PITTSBURGH

BROOKLYN, N.Y. -- The Nittany Lions took a double-digit lead less than four minutes into its game against Pittsburgh in its Legends Classic game at Barclays Center and never looked back en route to an 85-54 victory. Penn State is now 5-0 on the season, the first 5-0 start since 2008-09.

Sophomore guard Tony Carr set the tone, leading six Nittany Lions in double-figure scoring with 16 points from a perfect 4-4 from beyond the arc. Penn State shot 52.9 percent in the first half (18-34) and only got better in the second period at 64 percent (16-25).

The Nittany Lions also held the advantage on the boards 42-32 and had only one turnover in the first half while forcing eight Panther miscues in the first 20 minutes and 14 for the game.

Not only was nearly every shot falling for Penn State early on, but the Nittany Lions had hot hands for the rest of the half with 61% shooting after the first eight minutes. Defensively, Penn State kept the Panthers at sub-30 percent shooting for the first 12 minutes of the game, including a 1-11 start.

The Nittany Lions scored their most points in a first half so far this season with 47, while Pittsburgh had the lowest total for a Penn State opponent in a half with 21 in part coming on a 15-1 run over the final 5:30 of the period. That stretch included dunks by Mike Watkins and Reaves and two of Carr's four triples. Overall, the 57.6 percent shooting from the field was the highest for Penn State this season with season-best numbers in three-point field goals (9) and turnovers (11).

Carr hit four three-pointers, a career best for the sophomore, and had six rebounds, five assists and a steal. Sophomore forward Lamar Stevens collected a team-best eight rebounds and had 10 points along with Josh Reaves and Nazeer Bostick. Both Mike Watkins and Shep Garner had 13 points each. Bostick set career marks in assists (4) and steals (4) as well.

Penn State defeated Pittsburgh for the first time in eight meetings, last winning 88-74 on December 6, 2000, with the 85 points in Monday's win the most since that contest. Penn State's 31-point margin of victory over Pittsburgh is the largest in the series since an 84-44 win in 1967.

#16 TEXAS A&M HOLDS OFF PSU FOR LEGENDS TITLE

BROOKLYN, N.Y. -- Penn State men's basketball went toe-to-toe with one of the nation's top 20 teams in Texas A&M in the championship game of the Legends Classic, but fell short in the final score, 98-87. The 16th-ranked Aggies shot 61.5 percent for the game and had five players in double figures with 22 points from point guard Duane Wilson and a 21-point, 10-rebound contribution from sophomore forward Robert Williams off the bench.

Scoring the most points of the season with 87, the Nittany Lion offense relied on sophomores Tony Carr and Lamar Stevens, who combined for 56 points. Penn State had its second-best shooting percentage from the field at 50.8 percent after a 57.6 mark in the Pittsburgh win the previous night. Defensively, the Nittany Lions forced 16 turnovers and held the Aggies' leading scorer D.J. Hogg to a third of his scoring average with only seven points. Hogg was scoreless in the first half.

Neither team held more than a five-point advantage in the first half with 11 lead changes and seven ties. The opening of the half hinted at more of the same action as in the first, but Stevens went to the bench with three personal fouls at the 18:20 mark. The Aggies turned their field goal shooting up a notch while the Nittany Lions struggled from the floor.

Over four-and-a-half minutes, Texas A&M put together a 20-5 run to take a 17-point lead, 70-53, with 12:09 left in the game. Back-to-back baskets for Stevens and back-to-back steals and scores from Jamari Wheeler and Carr knocked the margin to single digits.

Penn State responded again and again, pulling within six at the eight-minute mark, then five, 77-72, with just under six minutes remaining after another Wheeler steal led to a Wheeler layup. Missed shots over the next five minutes by the Nittany Lions allowed the Aggies to take and hold onto a double-digit lead. Penn State scored 10 points in the final 52 seconds, but the field goals were offset by Texas A&M free throws.

Stevens led Penn State in both rebounds and assists. For the tandem of Carr and Stevens, it was the second time in their careers they had both scored 20 or more points in a game, the last time was vs. Duquesne (1113/16).

The loss to Texas A&M was the first for the Nittany Lions in 2017-18 after starting their season with a 5-0 mark, its best since the 2008-09 campaign.

PENN STATE TOPS ORAL ROBERTS 86-48

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- Finishing out the November home schedule with a perfect 5-0 mark, the Penn State men's basketball team topped Oral Roberts 86-48. Four Nittany Lions scored in double figures with guards Nazeer Bostick and Jamari Wheeler having career-best days with 14 points each.

Penn State made six of its first seven attempts while holding the Golden Eagles to just 1-6 shooting in the game's first five minutes.

The Nittany Lions had their three highest field goal percentages of the season this week including the 56.1 percent against Oral Roberts, bolstered by a 66.7 percent (19-27) in the second half. Defensively, Penn State held the Golden Eagles to 33.3 percent shooting for the game and only 25.9 percent (7-27) in the first half.

The defensive efforts translated into only 19 first-half points for Oral Roberts, the lowest total allowed by Penn State in any half this season. Penn State came out of halftime on a 17-5 run and shot 66.7 percent in the second period, the best of any half this season.

Highlights of the second half included three-straight steals by Wheeler, leading to two of his own layups, and a dunk by redshirt sophomore forward Mike Watkins. On the afternoon, Penn State tied a season-low with only 10 turnovers and swiped 14 steals, a total tied for second highest this year.

Wheeler set five career-high numbers and tied another with 14 points, a game-best seven rebounds, five steals and six field goals made, and tied his career-best with four assists. Bostick tied his career best with field goals made and, Josh Reaves, who totaled 10 points, added to his stat line with four steals, three assists and a blocked shot.

Penn State dominated in other team categories, scoring 44 of its 86 points in the paint to Oral Roberts' 20 and nearly doubling in point contributions from the bench (41-21). The Nittany Lions took advantage of Golden Eagles' mistakes, converting the 18 turnovers into 29 points.

With 86 points in today's game and 87, and 85, respectively, against Texas A&M and Pittsburgh, the Nittany Lions posted consecutive 80-plus-point games for the first time this season and the first time since the opening three games of 2016-17.

TIME RUNS OUT FOR PENN STATE AT N.C. STATE

RALEIGH, N.C. -- Down.To.The.Wire. Penn State matched N.C. State with 48 points in the second half, but the Wolfpack held onto its halftime lead for the 85-78 win in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge game at PNC Arena Wednesday night. The Nittany Lions sliced the Wolfpack lead to three points with 1:49 left in the game, but the rally fell short in the final seconds.

Shooting 56.7 percent from the field in the second half, Penn State mounted its comeback on the strong second-half shooting of Tony Carr. Carr scored a game-high 29 points on a career-best 12 field goals and went 8-11 in the second period to spark the Nittany Lions' rally.

Penn State cut into N.C. State's 13-point second-half lead with a 12-1 run with seven points coming from sophomore forward Lamar Stevens and five from Carr.

Stevens scored all 13 of his points in the second half and senior guard Shep Garner contributed 10 points to the final total.

N.C. State tied the game at 28 the 3:34 mark of the first half and went on a 9-2 run to take a 37-30 lead at the break. After Carr scored the opening basket of the second half, N.C. State built its lead to 46-34 with two quick three-pointers.

Forward Omer Yurtseven had a double-double with 19 points and 11 rebounds to lead the Wolfpack and its four double-figure scorers. Mike Watkins had 14 rebounds as Penn State maintained a 43-25 advantage on the boards.

The Nittany Lions ran out to an 11-0 lead to start the game as N.C. State did not score its first point until more than three minutes into the game. The Wolfpack countered Penn State's start with four-straight three-pointers to pull within three midway through the half.

Penn State outscored N.C. State 42-26 in the paint, but the Wolfpack bench contributed 39 points to the Nittany Lions' 9. The 10 three-pointers, five in each half by N.C. State tied PSU's opponent high for the year. Reaves, Wheeler and Carr all fouled out in the final minute while Dorn fouled out for the Wolfpack with 2:33 left in the game.

PENN STATE TRIUMPHS AT IOWA

IOWA CITY, Iowa – Penn State gutted it out down the stretch and fended off an Iowa rally for a 77-73 win at Carver-Hawkeye Arena in its 2017-18 Big Ten season opener. Four Nittany Lions scored in double figures, with leading scorer Lamar Stevens adding two free throws with four seconds left for a total of 22 points.

It was the first win for Penn State at Iowa City since 2001 and the Nittany Lions' first road victory in a conference opener since 2010-11.

Penn State never trailed in the contest and in the second half, kept the Hawkeyes without a basket for three-and-a-half minutes to build an eight-point lead with 4:43 remaining. Two quick scores, however, by Hawkeyes Jordan Bohannon and Isaiah Moss in the next 35 seconds, sliced the Nittany Lion lead to three, 67-64.

After a Nittany Lion offensive possession, the Hawkeyes moved the ball quickly up court, but Josh Reaves grabbed a Hawkeye turnover to give the ball back to Penn State. Iowa would send Stevens to the line for two shots with 2:40 remaining.

The next minute saw the teams trade possessions without any points. Iowa would pull within two of Penn State, 69-67, with 71 seconds left to play following a Tyler Cook dunk and made free throw after Shep Garner was whistled for his fourth foul. Watkins and Reaves were already playing with four fouls and Stevens and Pierce had picked up their third fouls early in the second half.

A Stevens jumper and dunk by redshirt-sophomore forward Mike Watkins would counter two more baskets by Hawkeye Tyler Cook to keep Penn State ahead. Tony Carr added two free throws for the Nittany Lions with 9.2 seconds left. A final dunk by Iowa and quick personal foul put Stevens back on the line where he sank both free throws with four seconds remaining for the 77-73 final.

Stevens, a sophomore forward, had his eighth career 20-plus point game, which included a perfect 6-6 from the free throw line, and added five rebounds and two blocks to his stat line. Redshirt-sophomore Mike Watkins split his point total nearly evenly with 10 of his 19 points coming in the first half. He also registered a team-high seven boards and three blocks.

Carr finished the game with 16 points, 13 coming in the second half, and his Big Ten regulation game-best nine assists. Garner hit four triples for his 12 points.

Iowa shot 57.7 percent for the game from the field but finished with only four three-pointers (4-12) to Penn State's 12, the most three-pointers for the Nittany Lions since a December 2016 win vs. St. John's. The Hawkeyes made 21 trips to the line off 22 Penn State personal fouls, but made only 13.

Penn State's defensive efforts forced 18 Iowa turnovers and converted those errors into 22 points.

The Nittany Lions started strong again to take a 14-4 lead on 7-8 shooting within the first three minutes of the game and took a 39-34 lead into halftime.

PSU COMEBACK FALLS SHORT AGAINST WISCONSIN

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- The Penn State men's basketball team comeback fell short as Wisconsin held on to take the Nittany Lions' home opener, 64-63, in the first two games of Big Ten action.

Penn State climbed out of a 17-point deficit in late in the second half, as two Shep Garner jumpers, separated by a five-second call against the Badgers, re-energized the Nittany Lions. A 14-3 run over two minutes pulled Penn State within six. And then three, then two. And then one as Shep Garner knocked in two free throws with just 43 seconds on the clock.

From there, the Nittany Lions were forced to foul, causing the score to yo-yo back up to a three-point lead for the Badgers.

The foul game continued through the waning moments, until the Nittany Lions grabbed the defensive rebound on a missed Wisconsin one-and-one, leaving Penn State down, 64-63, with 13 seconds left to play. With a chance to win the game, Penn State took a three with just two seconds remaining, but the shot careened off the rim, into a jump-ball rebound situation.

Unfortunately, the possession belonged to the Badgers with just six tenths of a second on the clock, and Wisconsin was able to hold on for the win.

Mike Watkins was the highlight of the evening for Penn State as the redshirt-sophomore forward finished with a career-best 22 points to lead all scorers. Watkins went 9-13 from the floor, adding four free throws while grabbing eight rebounds and swatting seven shots. He now has 123 total blocked shots for his career for fourth on Penn State's career list.

Tony Carr scored 16 points, going a perfect 6-6 from the charity stripe while adding a Big Ten career-best nine rebounds. Carr also had two steals and a block.

Garner added 13 points, 12 of which came in the second half. The total moves him into a tie for 16th on Penn State's all-time scoring list with 1,289 points.

Josh Reaves finished with an all-around complete performance as the junior guard continued to shine, especially on defense. Reaves swatted away a career-best four shots while adding a team-high five assists. His stat line included seven points and three rebounds.

On the evening, Penn State recorded a season-best 13 blocks as a team. This also marked the first time Penn State surpassed 10 team blocks since March 7, 2016, against Nebraska. The Nittany Lions finished the game going 21-25 from the free throw line, while Wisconsin went just 13 of 19.

STRONG FIRST HALF PROPELS PENN STATE TO 74-54 WIN

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- Five Nittany Lions scored in double figures and red-shirt sophomore Mike Watkins had his 10th career double-double as Penn State cruised to a 74-54 win at the Bryce Jordan Center. Sophomore guard Tony Carr led all scorers with 19 points and Watkins had the high rebounds total with 12.

"That was one of the best 20 minutes we have played all season," said Penn State basketball coach Patrick Chambers. "Our defense was great, our energy was great, our competitiveness was fantastic. It is nice to see us play that well, but we have to do that every time and that is what I am asking them for."

Penn State never trailed in the contest and had the advantages in the paint (44-20), on the boards (42-25) and in points scored off turnovers (23-13) and second-chance points (14-7).

The Nittany Lions halted the Colonials' three-game winning streak and held George Washington to 21.7 percent shooting from the field in the first half, the lowest by a Penn State opponent, and only 19 points in that period, tying the lowest output of the season.

Watkins had 11 points and nine rebounds by the half, finishing with 15 points and 12 rebounds. Carr scored 11 in the second half for his final total, adding six rebounds, four assists and two steals to his stat line. Josh Reaves, the Big Ten leader in total steals and steals per game, contributed 11 points with three steals and three assists.

Senior guard Shep Garner scored 12 points on four three-pointers, crossed the 1,300 career point total with his final basket of the game for 1,301. That figure is good for sole possession of 16th on Penn State's all-time scoring list.

The Nittany Lions shook off Monday's loss with a good week of practice and came out strong with 58.8 percent shooting from the field in the first half to take a 29-point lead at the half. Penn State's 48 points in the first half were the most in the first period this year as four different Nittany Lions scored in the first two and a half minutes for a quick 11-2 lead.

George Washington's top scorers, Yuta Watanabe and Jair Bolden, averaging 14.8 points each, were held to a combined 14 points in the first half. Bolden had all nine of his points in the final 4:16 of the first period. Yuta Watanabe finished the game with 18 points and shared the GW rebounding lead with Arnaldo Toro with six.

STEVENS & WATKINS DOUBLE UP IN 72-54 WIN

FAIRFAX, Va. - Forwards Lamar Stevens and Mike Watkins each had double-doubles and Fairfax, Va., native Josh Reaves added 13 points as Penn State defeated George Mason 72-54 at EagleBank Arena. It was the sixth time the Nittany Lions held an opponent under 60 points so far this season and second time they accomplished the feat against back-to-back opponents in 2017-18.

Stevens recorded his first career double-double in leading the Nittany Lions with 23 points and a career-best 12 rebounds. Watkins was 5-5 from the floor at the half and finished the night with 14 points and 12 boards for his 10th career double-double. Penn State outscored George Mason in the paint 40-26 for the game with a 26-8 margin in the category at the half.

Reaves, who had close to 50 family members and friends present at the game, had his second-straight double-figure scoring game of the season and seventh of the year. He also had the game-high total with four assists.

Penn State took a 20-point advantage, 38-18, at the half, allowing George Mason only 18 points, the lowest offensive output in a half by a Nittany Lion opponent in 2017-18.

George Mason tied the game twice, for the second time at 6-6 at the 16:16 mark, but a three-pointer from Reaves, combined with a four-minute scoring drought by the Patriots would put Penn State ahead. Over the next five-minute period, Stevens and Watkins would each score nine points during a 21-4 Penn State run to extend the Nittany Lion lead to 30-12.

Sophomore guard Justin Kier led the Patriots with 17 points, with a 9-9 mark from the free throw line, and junior guard Jaire Gray had 13 points and a team-best nine rebounds.

George Mason was 7-27 from the field in the first half for 25.9 percent and finished the game at 37 percent for the game, which included an 0-14 mark from beyond the arc. The last time Penn State did not allow a three-pointer in a game was during the 2014-15 season against George Washington (12/14/2014).

Senior Shep Garner added nine points, all off timely three-point field goals, and had three assists. Freshman guard Jamari Wheeler had a career-best 6 steals on the afternoon to go along with five points and an assist. Sophomore guard Nazeer Bostick, who started in place of Tony Carr, had six points, four rebounds and two assists.

The last time Penn State had two players register double-doubles in a regulation game was with Tim Frazier (19 pts/10 reb) and D.J. Newbill (17 pts/10 reb.) against Purdue (1/28/2014). Watkins (12 pts/11 reb) and Carr (23 pts/14 assists) both had double-doubles in the three-overtime game at Indiana (2/1/2017).

PENN STATE PICKS UP WIN NUMBER 10

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- Penn State men's basketball finished finals last week, but Binghamton put the Nittany Lions to the test in a nonconference contest at the Bryce Jordan Center. Penn State outscored Binghamton 41-29 in the second half on the strength of 65.2 percent accuracy from the field for the 80-65 victory and Nittany Lions' 10th win of the season.

All five Penn State starters scored in double figures with redshirt sophomore forward Mike Watkins recording his third double-double in as many games. Sophomore forward Lamar Stevens led all scorers with 16 points with Tony Carr, Josh Reaves and Shep Garner each tallying 15 points. Watkins had 12 and the game-high rebounding total with 11.

The Nittany Lions opened the second half with a 16-5 run, connecting on five field goals in eight attempts while the Bearcats went 2-9 from the floor during the same timeframe. Penn State parlayed two Garner three-pointers into a double-digit lead and back-to-back baskets by Stevens offset two Bearcat threes.

Treys by Fard Muhammad and J.C. Show brought Binghamton to within nine with 8:39 left in the game. The Nittany Lions quickly extended their lead to 15 points, the largest of the night, with three-straight three pointers, two coming from Garner and one from Reaves.

Splitting its three-pointers evenly in each half, Penn State had 10 triples on the night, its highest total since connecting on 12 at Iowa earlier this month. Garner had four of his five in the second half, including his two in the final minutes to squelch any Binghamton rally.

The 58.8 three-point field goal percentage (10-17) was the highest of the year and the 57.4 overall percentage was the second highest of the season, just fractions of a point below the high vs. Pittsburgh in that win. The Nittany Lions distributed the ball well too, with 17 assists on the night, nine coming from Carr and four from Reaves.

Undefeated this season when leading at the break, the Nittany Lions led 39-36 and clamped down on the Bearcats in the second half. Binghamton shot 34.3 percent from the floor in that period and Penn State outrebounded the Bearcats 20-14 for a 36-31 advantage for the game.

Penn State ran out to an 8-0 lead early in the game, but Binghamton fought back with three-straight three-pointers to tie the game at 16 and then take a 19-16 lead near the midpoint of the half. The first half saw four ties, as the Bearcats kept clawing and trading baskets to keep the deficit in single digits.

Junior guard J.C. Show had 13 points and five assists for Binghamton, including three of the Bearcats' nine three-pointers. Tyler Stewart had 12 points and Thomas Bruce 10 in the effort.

BUZZER-BEATER ENDS NITTANY LIONS' WIN STREAK

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. -- The Penn State men's basketball team saw its three-game win streak snapped as a Rider three-pointer fell through the net as time expired for the 71-70 final at the Bryce Jordan Center. The Broncs' Frederick Scott scored 12 of his 14 points, including the buzzer-beating three, in the second half.

The game saw 12 lead changes and three ties with four lead changes coming in the final 83 seconds. A 7-0 late-game run by the Broncs erased a 65-59 Penn State lead and put Rider up 66-65. Still, Penn State retook the lead 70-66 behind a jumper by sophomore forward Lamar Stevens and one of five three-pointers by senior guard and leading scorer Shep Garner.

With 14 seconds left, Rider converted a layup to pull the Broncs within two, 70-68. Scott then grabbed a rebound off a Nittany Lion missed free throw with eight ticks left and maneuvered for his final, and most critical, points on the night.

The loss was the first for Penn State this season in a game after leading at the half. The Broncs outscored the Nittany Lions in the second period 40-35 after the two teams matched in overall shooting at 42.9 percent, but the Broncs made two additional three-pointers. Rider had 19 trips to the foul line to Penn State's 15 with a 10-9 advantage in that category.

All five Nittany Lion starters scored in double figures with Garner connecting for four three-pointers in the first 10 minutes of the contest and finishing with a game-high 18 points. Watkins and Reaves had double-doubles with 10 points each and Reaves pulled down a career-best and game-high 13 rebounds with a career-high eight assists. The junior guard also had five steals, four coming in the opening stanza.

Free throws by Carr and Watkins provided the Nittany Lions' only offense during a stretch where Scott had a layup to bring Rider within one of the Penn State lead, 65-64, with four minutes left in the game.

Four Broncs overall scored in double figures with 16 coming from Dimencio Vaughn and 15 from Tyre Marshall and 12 from Stevie Jordan. Scott led Rider with nine boards.

Both Watkins and Julian Moore had four blocks in the defensive effort. Moore tied his career-best in in the first half, added four points and caused a turnover before halftime to give the ball back to the Nittany Lions. Watkins' total moved into third place on Penn State's career blocks list with 132.

AS A SENIOR (2017-18)

- Led Nittany Lions with a game-high 18 points, all on three-point field goals, vs. Rider for his second time as the top scorer in 2017-18 and 21st time in his career.
- Ranks fourth on the Penn State all-time career list for three-point baskets made with 259. Currently 7th on the NCAA active career list for made three pointers.
- Tops in the Big Ten with 43 three-pointers made in 2017-18, good for a No. 19 ranking nationally.
- Now has 1,343 career points for 13th on the Penn State all-time scoring list.
- Ranks 37th on the NCAA Division I active career list for total steals with 130.
- One of five Nittany Lion starters to score in double figures vs. Binghamton with all 15 of his points coming on three-pointers.
- Had three three-pointers and three assists at George Mason while playing 37 minutes despite not feeling well.
- Dropped three of his four total triples in the first half vs. Colonials.
- Scored 12 of his 13 points vs. Wisconsin in the second half.
- Sparked the Nittany Lion comeback with back-to-back jumpers and then a triple to put the Nittany Lions within three points with 1:53 left in the game.
- Connected on four three-pointers in Iowa victory for 12 points. Two three-pointers in first half helped give Nittany Lions a 14-4 lead to start the game.
- Scored 10 points off four field goals, including two three-pointers at N.C. State.
- One of six Nittany Lions to score in double figures vs. Pittsburgh. Had 13 points in Legends Classic game at Barclays Center off 5-10 shooting with three treys.
- Suffered a broken nose vs. Montana game and wore a protective mask for Columbia game. Had 16 points in 16 minutes by halftime and added 10 more points for a game-high 26 on a career-best tying 10 field goals made.
- Expected to wear the protective mask for about a month, has removed it depending on comfort level.
- Connected on four three-pointers against Montana for 12 points. Nailed two back to back to help give Penn State some breathing room late in the second half. Also had three assists.
- Collided with teammate Nazeer Bostick and, it would later be determined, broke his nose, but continued to play in the game against the Grizzlies.
- Played in his 100th career game in the season opener vs. Campbell.

(THE ROCK SCHOOL)

AS A FRESHMAN (2017-18)

- Averages nearly 19 minutes per game through 14 games.
- Has 26 steals for second on the team and in the Big Ten behind teammate Josh Reaves (32).
- Had four points, two rebounds and a steal vs. Rider.
- Grabbed a career-best six steals at George Mason which puts him in a tie for No. 6 on Penn State's single-game steals list. Added five points to his stat line vs. Patriots.
- Played 17 minutes against Wisconsin and had a rebound, assist and steal.
- Critical defensive play in Iowa win and had four assists to only one turnover.
- Second on team with 17 steals, including team-high three at N.C. State.
- Went 8-12 (66.7%) from field combined vs. Pittsburgh, Texas A&M and Oral Roberts last week, dishing out six assists with eight steals and a block.
- Against 16th-ranked Texas A&M, Wheeler had two steals that lead directly to layups in the second half, the second punctuating a Penn State rally to trim the Aggie lead to five.
- Shared team scoring lead with Nazeer Bostick in Oral Roberts game (11-24) with career-best 14 points.
- Against Oral Roberts, Wheeler started out quickly with six points and two steals in his first four minutes of play. He finished with a game-high and career-high 14 points and led the Nittany Lions with seven rebounds, and five steals, also career bests. The five steals are a season-high for a Nittany Lion.
- Wheeler played 19 minutes against Pittsburgh and had two assists without any turnovers, a steal and a rebound.
- Scored seven points with four assists and three steals vs. Columbia.
