Ubben Complex Re-Dedication

The Division of Intercollegiate Athletics re-dedicated the Ubben Basketball Complex Friday afternoon in a ceremony highlighting the generous support of dozens of the athletic program's most influential donors.

The daily home for the Fighting Illini men's and women's basketball programs recently concluded a two-year renovation that doubled the facility's size while incorporating the nation's best technologies and advancements in sports performance, sports medicine, sports science, sports nutrition and basketball training.

The $40 million project is being financed completely by DIA's self-supporting funds, including more than $34 million in private donations pledged to date. There are 91 unique gifts from 77 donors that range from $100 to $5 million. Notably, 15 men's and women's basketball alumni have committed to gifts totaling more than $9.6 million toward the project.

Highlighting the renovation is the naming of the men's practice court in honor of Fighting Illini icons and distinguished professional basketball executives Mannie Jackson and Jerry Colangelo.

• Illinois is the winningest team in the Big Ten over the last four seasons, registering a 52-21 mark in league play. The Illini won the regular season championship in 2022, led the conference in wins while adding a B1G Tournament crown in 2021, and finished one game back of the title in 2020:

Shannon Jr. Midseason Candidate for Oscar Robertson Trophy

The U.S. Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) has unveiled its midseason 50 candidates for the Oscar Robertson Trophy, awarded to the national player of the year. Illini senior guard Terrence Shannon Jr. is one of six Big Ten players on the watch list.

At the conclusion of the regular season, the entire USBWA membership will vote for the award. The winner of the award will be announced at the 2023 Men's Final Four in Houston with the formal presentation to follow at the annual USBWA Awards Luncheon hosted by the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

Elite Company

Terrence Shannon Jr. had a dominating all-around performance in the Jan. 10 win at Nebraska, totaling 25 points, season-high 11 rebounds, four assists, and career-high tying four steals. Shannon is one of just four Big Ten players in the last 20 years to record a 25/10/4/4 game, and the only one to do so on the road:

Terrence Shannon Jr. 1,320 career points 405 points at Illinois 915 points at Texas Tech Matthew Mayer 1,147 career points 282 points at Illinois 865 points at Baylor

Mid-Year Additions

Illinois added two players to its active roster prior to Christmas and added a third at the start of spring semester.

Zacharie Perrin began practicing with the Illini on Dec. 21 after arriving on campus. The 6-10, 220-pound forward from Grandfontaine, France came to the United States in August and attended Sunrise Christian Academy in Wichita, Kansas during the fall semester.

Perrin helped lead France to a 6-1 record and fifth-place finish at the FIBA U18 European Championships from July 30-August 7 in Izmir, Turkey. He led France in scoring and rebounding at the U18 Euros, averaging 13.9 points and 9.1 boards while shooting 56%.

AJ Redd, a 6-3, 160-pound guard who previously worked with the men's basketball program as an on-court manager, joined the team in practices in December and dressed for the first time against Missouri.

Redd played four years of varsity basketball at Chicago's St. Ignatius College Prep, helping lead the Wolfpack to a third-place finish at the 2022 IHSA Class 3A state championships. He is St. Ignatius' No. 4 all-time leading scorer (1,109 points) and the Wolfpack career leader in rebounds (523), assists (293) and steals (111).

Niccolo Moretti is a 6-1 point guard from Bologna, Italy. He began practicing with the Illini on Jan. 26 after arriving from Canberra, Australia, where he was a member of the NBA Global Academy, a year-round training center at Basketball Australia's Centre of Excellence at the Australian Institute of Sport.

Moretti trained under the direction of legendary Australian coach Marty Clarke, and alongside top international prospects from around the world. Moretti also helped lead Italy to a 4-3 record and sixth-place finish at the FIBA U18 European Championships from July 30-August 7 in Izmir, Turkey. He averaged 9.0 points, 3.6 rebounds and 3.3 assists, highlighted by 15 points, six assists and five steals in a round of 16 victory over Greece.

Clark Steps Away

Illini freshman Skyy Clark announced Jan. 6 his decision to step away from basketball "for the time being to prioritize myself and my family's wellbeing."

Clark played in 13 of the first 14 games, starting 12. He averaged 7.0 points and 3.7 rebounds and was third on the team in assists (1.9 apg).

Success Against the Best

Illinois defeated No. 2 Texas in the Jimmy V Classic at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 6, fighting back from a 10-point second-half deficit to earn the victory in overtime. It marked Illinois' second top-10 victory this season and its 12th win in its last 17 games versus top-10 opponents, highlighting the job Brad Underwood has done rebuilding the Illini program.

Illinois set a single-season school record in 2020-21 with six wins over top-10 foes. The Illini rank second nationally in top-10 wins over the last four seasons:

Top-10 Wins Since Start of 2019-20 Season

1. Baylor 13
2. Illinois 11
3. Kansas 9

Hawkins Joins Triple-Double Club

There have been five triple-doubles by four different players in Fighting Illini history, three of which have occurred over the last three seasons of the Underwood era.

Coleman Hawkins recorded the first one by a 6-foot, 10-inch point-center, carving up the Syracuse zone on Nov. 29 with 15 points, 10 rebounds, and a career-high 10 assists to join the distinguished lists of Illini with triple-doubles:

Nov. 29, 2022	Coleman Hawkins	15 pts, 10 reb, 10 ast	vs. Syracuse
Feb. 20, 2021	Ayo Dosunmu	19 pts, 10 reb, 10 ast	at Minnesota

Underwood Hits Century Mark at Illinois

A blowout win over Syracuse in the ACC/Big Ten Challenge marked the 100th victory at Illinois for head coach Brad Underwood. He is just the sixth coach in program history in the 100-win club:

Shannon Jr.'s B1G Week

Terrence Shannon Jr. was selected Big Ten Player of the Week for his performance the week of Nov. 14-20. He earned the award after averaging 22.7 points, 7.3 rebounds and 4.3 assists while shooting 59.5% from the field and 56.5% from three. He had career and school-record performances while leading the No. 16 Fighting Illini to a 2-1 record on the week, including a top-10 victory.

Shannon began the week by setting a new career scoring high with 30 points in just 23 minutes in the blowout win over Monmouth, adding eight rebounds and four assists.

He then had arguably the signature performance of the early college basketball season, pouring in 29 points while tying the school record with eight 3-pointers in Illinois' comeback from 15 points down to defeat No. 8 UCLA in Las Vegas.

Shannon was on fire throughout the night, going 8-of-9 from downtown to become the sixth player in Illini history with eight made threes in a game. He also tallied his third career double-double — and first as an Illini — collecting a game-high 10 rebounds vs. UCLA to go with his 29 points.

According to @ESPNStatsInfo, Shannon is one of only two players in the last 25 seasons to have 25 points, 10 rebounds and eight threes in a top-25 match-up (Trae Young vs. TCU in 2018). He also reached a scoring milestone, recording his 1,000th career point on a 3-pointer with 14:46 left in the game.

Shannon finished the week by tying his career high with six assists and scoring nine points in the loss to No. 16 Virginia in the championship game of the Continental Tire Main Event.

Illini Sign Another Top-20 Class

Illinois signed four-star recruits Amani Hansberry and Dravyn Gibbs-Lawhorn to national letters of intent during the early signing period, giving Illinois another top-20 ranked recruiting class in the Underwood era. The class is ranked No. 19 by 247Sports.

Reigning Champs

Illinois won the 2022 Big Ten championship, going 15-5 in league play to share the regular season title with Wisconsin. Illinois earned the No. 1 seed in the Big Ten Tournament by virtue of an 80-67 victory over Wisconsin in Champaign in the only meeting between the teams.

It marked the 18th Big Ten title in Illinois history, and the UI's first since 2005:

1915	1935	1943	1952	1998	2004
1917	1937	1949	1963	2001	2005
1924	1942	1951	1984	2002	2022

This was nearly a back-to-back regular season title run after Illinois led the Big Ten in wins in 2021 while playing the full league schedule. But the Illini were declared runner-up that year after an unbalanced schedule resulted in a .024 win percentage differential (Michigan 14-3, .824 vs. Illinois 16-4, .800, with Illinois defeating Michigan 76-53 in Ann Arbor in their only meeting).

Illinois' 15 Big Ten wins last year tied the second-most in program history behind 16 conference wins the previous season. The Illini also won 15 Big Ten games in 1984 and 2005.

Underwood's Big Run in the B1G

Illinois' performance in conference play during the Brad Underwood era has reached historic level of success. The Illini's 44 Big Ten wins since 2020 is the most in program history over a three-year stretch:

1.	44	Brad Underwood	2020 (13), 2021 (16), 2022 (14)
2.	39	Bruce Weber	2004 (13), 2005 (15), 2006 (11)
	39	Bill Self/Bruce Weber	2003 (11), 2004 (13), 2005 (15)
	39	Lou Henson	1987 (13), 1988 (12), 1989 (14)
	39	Harry Combes	1951 (13), 1952 (12), 1953 (14)

The run also ranks among the winningest 3-year stretches of any Big Ten program in conference play:

1.	48	Indiana	1974 (12), 1975 (18), 1976 (18)
2.	47	Indiana	1975 (18), 1976 (18), 1977 (11)
3.	46	Michigan State	2018 (16), 2019 (16), 2020 (14)
	46	Indiana	1991 (15), 1992 (14), 1993 (17)
5.	45	Purdue	2017 (14), 2018 (15), 2019 (16)
6.	44	Illinois	2020 (13), 2021 (16), 2022 (15)
	44	Purdue	1994 (14), 1995 (15), 1996 (15)

Illinois has achieved three straight 13+ win Big Ten seasons for the first time in program history.

Underwood now owns Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons, and three of the top seven:

1.	16	2021	Brad Underwood	7.	13	2020	Brad Underwood
2.	15	2022	Brad Underwood		13	2004	Bruce Weber
	15	2005	Bruce Weber		13	2001	Bill Self
	15	1984	Lou Henson		13	1998	Lon Kruger
5.	14	1989	Lou Henson		13	1987	Lou Henson

Building a Winner

Coach Underwood came to Champaign to recapture the Illinois Basketball program's historical success. The transformation happened in a relatively short amount of time.

In his third season in 2019-20, the Illini finished one-game back of the league title, going 13-7 to place fourth and earn a bye to the Big Ten Tournament quarterfinals for the first time since 2011.

Underwood's fourth Illini squad in 2020-21 led the league with 16 Big Ten wins and followed that by capturing Illinois' first Big Ten Tournament title in 16 years.

Illinois went 15-5 in conference play in Underwood's fifth season to win the program's first Big Ten regular season championship since 2005.

Illinois owns the top winning percentage and the most victories over the last three Big Ten seasons, a significant achievement during a span when the league has reached unprecedented competitiveness top-to-bottom.

Accomplished Ayo

Former Fighting Illini star Ayo Dosunmu is enjoying a terrific start to his pro career in his hometown of Chicago. He is a starting guard for the Bulls in his second season, after earning NBA second-team All-Rookie honors in 2022.

Dosummu averaged 20.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 5.3 assists during his final season at Illinois, becoming the first NCAA player since 2010 and just the second Big Ten player since 1993 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. He accumulated the most impressive single-season list of accolades ever by an Illini player, highlighted by USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, and consensus first-team All-American.

Dosunmu was selected by the Bulls with the No. 38 overall pick in the second round of the 2021 NBA Draft. He returned to campus last season to raise his banner to the State Farm Center rafters, joining the Fighting Illini Honored Jerseys program.

6th Year at Illinois // 10th Year as Div. I Head Coach // 36th Year in Coaching

Brad Underwood has reinvigorated Illinois Basketball, bringing the Fighting Illini back to the national stage and building a championship program during his five seasons in Champaign.

Underwood is the 18th head coach in Illinois history, hired in March 2017 as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach.

He has won nearly 69 percent of his games during his nine years as a Division I head coach, recording seven 20-win seasons. Underwood has made six appearances in the NCAA Tournament, with a seventh precluded by the cancellation of the 2020 postseason due to COVID-19.

Underwood led Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship in year five, navigating a challenging schedule with a frequently depleted roster to post a 15-5 league record and earn the school's first regular season conference title in 17 years. Illinois went 23-10 overall as Underwood recorded his third-straight 20-plus win season, the UI's first stretch since 2009-11. Illinois ended the year at No. 19 in the AP poll to register a third-straight Top 25 finish, the program's longest streak since 2000-06.

Illinois was a No. 4 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just six programs to receive top-4 seeds in back-to-back tournaments after earning a No. 1 seed in 2021. Illinois stands as one of just 12 schools to advance to the Round of 32 in each the last two NCAA Tournaments, which also marks Illinois' first time advancing in consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 16 years.

Underwood coached junior Kofi Cockburn, the most dominant player in college basketball, to consensus first-team All-America honors in 2022. Cockburn was the only player in the country to average 20+ points and 10+ rebounds, becoming the first Illini to do so in the last 50 years. Cockburn joined Ayo Dosunmu as the only AP first-team All-Americans in school history, players mentored by Underwood in back-to-back seasons.

Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, and earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois went 16-4 in conference play to mark its winningest Big Ten season ever. Illinois led the Big Ten in victories while playing the full conference schedule, but missed out on the regular season title due to an unequal number of games played creating a win percentage differential of .024. The Illini went on to win the Big Ten Tournament, earning the program's first conference tournament title since 2005.

In all, Illinois totaled 19 wins against conference foes in 2021, setting a school record and tying the second-most wins ever by a Big Ten school against league competition in a single season.

Illinois earned the fourth NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed in school history after winning 14 of 15 games over a two-month stretch leading into NCAA March Madness. The remarkable run included seven wins over ranked teams, with five coming against top-10 foes.

Illinois finished the season with a total of six victories over top-10 teams, breaking the previous school record of five set by the 1989 Flyin' Illini.

Illinois had a pair of consensus All-Americans leading the way in 2021. Junior Ayo Dosunmu was a first-team All-America selection by every organization and finalist for every player of the year award. The USA Today National Player of the Year and Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, Dosunmu became the first NCAA player since 2010 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. Sophomore Kofi Cockburn was a second-team All-America pick by every outlet, totaling 16 double-doubles and standing as the only player in the country to average at least 15 points and nine rebounds on 60+ percent shooting.

The Big Ten has been the nation's preeminent conference in recent years. It was ranked No. 1 by kenpom in 2020 and 2021, and received a league-record nine NCAA Tournament bids in 2021 and 2022. Yet no team has fared better in the conference during this stretch than the Fighting Illini, who are 44-16 (.733) in Big Ten play the last three years of the Underwood era. Illinois owns the most wins and best winning percentage in the league over the last three Big Ten campaigns.

The 44 Big Ten victories mark the winningest three-year run in school history, and the sixth-winningest three-year stretch by any Big Ten school in conference play. Illinois has won at least 13 Big Ten games in three straight years for the first time in program history, with Underwood claiming Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons (16 in 2021, 15 in 2022), and three of the top seven (13 in 2020).

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler is in his second year on the Illinois staff as director of recruiting and scouting after playing four seasons with the Fighting Illini. Katie is a U of I student, and Ashley attends Miami-Ohio.

Illinois went toe to toe with an experienced Virginia squad for 36 minutes, but the 16th-ranked Cavaliers pulled away during the last four to claim the championship of the Continental Tire Main Event in Las Vegas.

The game was back-and-forth throughout, featuring 10 lead changes and nine ties. A 6-0 run gave Illinois its biggest lead of the afternoon at 22-19, and the Illini took a 31-29 lead into intermission.

Virginia scored the first six out of the locker room to move ahead 35-31, and later held a 53-47 advantage when the Illini responded with an 8-0 run of its own. Back-to-back 3-pointers by Jayden Epps tied it, and the Illini moved ahead on a Dain Dainja drive and dunk.

Illinois led 58-56 with 3:30 remaining when Virginia stepped up in crunch time. The Cavaliers scored on eight of their final nine possessions while the Illini missed five shots and had three turnovers during this same stretch. That led to a 13-0 Virginia run that sealed the game.

Hawkins is the fourth Illini to record a triple-double — and first since Ayo Dosunmu in 2021 – while the win marked head coach Brad Underwood's 100th victory with the Orange and Blue.

Terrence Shannon Jr. led all scorers with 17 points, and RJ Melendez (15) and Jayden Epps (11) also finished in double figures in the 29-point win, marking Illinois' largest margin of victory in the 24-year history of the ACC/Big Ten Challenge.

Illinois opened the game with a 7-1 run, which included four points from Hawkins, and held Syracuse without a field goal for the first four minutes of

After neither team could pull away midway through the first half, three Shannon 3-pointers pushed the Illinois advantage to six points.

The Illini held the Orange without a field goal for nearly five minutes to close the frame, taking a 30-23 lead into halftime.

Melendez and Hawkins both knocked down 3-pointers early in the second half to give Illinois a double-digit lead with 12 minutes to play.

Illinois took control later in the frame, using a 12-0 run over a three-minute stretch to jump out to a 23-point advantage with five minutes to play. Melendez scored seven points during that run, while the Illini converted five-straight shots to take their largest lead of the night.

Hawkins achieved his triple-double late in the game, recording his 10th assist with 1:56 left and grabbing his 10th rebound with 1:39 remaining.

Game 8 Recap - #22 Maryland 71, #16 Illinois 66

No. 16 Illinois went wire to wire at No. 22 Maryland in front of a raucous crowd and 6,000 Terrapin students before ultimately falling by five points in the Big Ten opener.

Illinois nearly overcame its struggles from the field and a night of foul trouble for Matthew Mayer and Jayden Epps.

The Illini trailed by as many as 12 points on the night, and by double-digits in the second half, before roaring back. Down 55-45, the Illini went on a 12-2 run to tie the game at 57-all with 7:36 remaining. Illinois also had the game tied at 62 at the under-4 media timeout.

Trailing 67-66, Illinois had a shot to take the lead with 46 seconds left, but Epps' open 3-point attempt would not fall. Maryland's Jahmir Young answered with the biggest shot of the night, draining a 3-pointer as the shot clock expired with 14 seconds remaining to put the Terps up four and seal the game.

Terrence Shannon Jr. led the way for the Illini with 19 points. He scored 11 during the second half while playing through a cut above his eye suffered on a moving screen that required stitches immediately after the game.

Coleman Hawkins registered 16 points and recorded four blocks, tying a careerbest mark, while RJ Melendez recorded 13 points for his third straight doubledigit scoring game. Melendez also grabbed a career-high seven rebounds in the contest.

Game 10 Recap - Penn State 74, #17 Illinois 59

No. 17 Illinois struggled on both sides of the ball in a 74-59 loss to Penn State in its Big Ten home opener.

Illinois started off hot, scoring on five of its first six possessions with three 3-pointers. The Illini followed that with a 6-0 run to take a 19-14 lead. But Illinois' defense could not slow down the visitors, as Penn State scored inside and out throughout the opening half.

With the game tied at 34, Penn State surged into the locker room by outscoring the Illini 13-4 over the final three minutes of the first half.

The PSU lead grew to 14 before the Illini rattled off nine unanswered to pull within 52-47 and bring the State Farm Center sellout crowd to its feet. The threat was short lived, however, as the Lions answered by draining a trio of 3-pointers in a span of 64 seconds to take a commanding a 61-47 lead with 11 minutes remaining. Illinois could draw no closer than 12 the rest of the way.

Illinois was held to a season-low 59 points and allowed season highs in opponent field goal percentage (.500), 3-point percentage (.500) and 3-pointers (12).

Matthew Mayer finished in double figures for the second straight game, scoring a team-high 14 points in the defeat, while Skyy Clark tallied 11 points with a career-high seven rebounds and led the Illini with three 3-pointers, tying a career-high mark.

Game 11 Recap - #18 Illinois 68, Alabama A&M 47

After a week off for final exams, No. 18 Illinois took down Alabama A&M at State Farm Center. Matthew Mayer posted another strong performance for the Illini, scoring a season-high 21 points with seven rebounds and career-high tying three blocks.

Terrence Shannon Jr. finished close behind Mayer with 18 points while Sencire Harris led the Illini with a career-high eight rebounds.

A quick offensive start from both Mayer and Shannon Jr. pushed the Illini to a 14-7 lead in the first seven minutes of the game.

In his starting debut, freshman Jayden Epps broke up a short scoring drought for Illinois with a jumper, propelling the Orange and Blue to a 24-11 advantage early in the first half.

The Illini pushed their advantage to 17 at halftime, 36-19.

Coming out of the locker room, Alabama A&M mounted a comeback effort on the heels of a 16-0 run that cut the Illini lead to 38-37 with just under 11 minutes to play.

But Coleman Hawkins snapped the Illinois scoring drought with a pair of free throws at the 10:46 mark, sparking a 15-2 Illini run.

Mayer dominated during the closing stretch, scoring 13 points over his final eight minutes of play that turned a 3-point lead into a comfortable 20-point advantage when he exited the game with 1:42 remaining.

Game 12 Recap - Missouri 93, #16 Illinois 71

Terrence Shannon Jr. tallied 22 points, but a scoring drought midway through the first half put the No. 16-ranked Fighting Illini in a deficit they could not overcome in a 93-71 setback to rival Missouri in the McBride Homes Braggin' Rights game at Enterprise Center.

After staking to a 12-10 lead following Dain Dainja's lay-in at the 14:05 mark of the first half, the Illini were held without a field goal for the next 8 minutes, 46 seconds. During that stretch, the Tigers went on a 22-5 scoring run to build a double-digit lead they would not relinquish.

Overall, the Tigers out-shot the Illini 59 percent to 40 percent, with the Orange and Blue struggling to the tune of just 7-for-31 shooting (.226) from 3-point range. Additionally, Missouri forced the Illini into 17 turnovers and converted those mistakes into a 33 points.

In addition to his 22 points, Shannon Jr. also led the Illini with seven rebounds and five assists. Matthew Mayer added 16 points, while Jayden Epps chipped in with 12 off the bench.

Game 13 Recap - Illinois 85, Bethune-Cookman 52

Illinois closed its nonconference slate with a resounding 85-52 home victory over Bethune-Cookman.

Dain Dainia and Sencire Harris made their first career starts as head coach Brad Underwood adjusted the Illini's starting lineup in the team's final nonconference action of the year.

Five different players finished in double figures in the 33-point win, while the Illini brought the intensity on both ends of the floor.

Dainja commanded the paint and scored a career-high 22 points on an efficient 8-for-10 shooting performance while also grabbing six rebounds, making four blocks, and tallying a career-high four steals.

Harris took advantage of the opportunity in his first collegiate start and also set a new scoring high with 12 points.

Coleman Hawkins notched a double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds. Terrence Shannon Jr. and Jayden Epps finished in double-digits with 13 and 10 points, respectively.

The Illini opened on a 10-0 run fueled by baskets from four different players just over four minutes into the contest. Five minutes later, Illinois used an 18-2 stretch to push its lead up to 29 points with under five minutes to play, holding Bethune-Cookman without a field goal for nearly seven minutes during that run.

Illinois headed into halftime with a 47-19 advantage, using a balanced scoring performance to lead by 28 points at the break.

Dainja scored eight of Illinois' first 10 points after the break. Illinois extended its lead to many as 36 in the second half, cruising to the win.

Dainja, Hawkins, and Harris led the Illinois offensive attack in the final 20 minutes of play, scoring 30 of the team's 38 second-half points.

Game 15 Recap - Illinois 79, #14 Wisconsin 69

The Fighting Illini men's basketball team returned to the win column in a big way, knocking off No. 14 Wisconsin, 79-69, in front of a sell-out crowd at State Farm Center.

The win halted a three-game skid in conference play for the Illini, while the league-leading Badgers suffered their first loss since Nov. 29, snapping a string of six consecutive wins.

The teams battled throughout the first half with neither squad able to push ahead by more than five points early in the game. The Illini, fueled by timely 3-point shooting and a continued emphasis on the defensive end, took control of the game with a 24-6 run that spanned the final 4:20 of the first half (11-3), and the first five minutes out of halftime (13-3).

That run erased a five-point Illini deficit (24-19), and gave the Orange and Blue a 13-point lead (43-30) with just more than 15 minutes left in the contest. From that point on, the Badgers drew no closer than seven points, as the Illini closed out their third top-15 win of the season.

Four Illini tallied double-digits scoring, led by a 24-point effort from Terrence Shannon Jr., his fifth 20-point game of the season.

Coleman Hawkins scored 20 behind a career-high six 3-pointers. Javden Epps (15), and Matthew Mayer (10), also scored in double figures.

Three-point shooting proved to be a difference in the game, as the Illini shot a season-high 52.6% (10-19) from beyond the arc, while holding the Badgers to just 28% (8-29).

Game 17 Recap - Illinois 75, Michigan State 66

Big second-half performances from Dain Dainja and Matthew Mayer propelled Illinois to a comeback home victory over Michigan State, as the Illini outscored the Spartans by 13 in the second half.

Dainja scored 12 of his team-high 20 points in the second half, while Mayer recorded 14 of his 19 points in the final 20 minutes of action.

The Illini defense was stellar, recording 10 blocked shots, with Mayer leading the way with a career-high six blocks. Illinois also held Michigan State without a 3-pointer, as the Spartans went 0-for-7 from beyond the arc.

Terrence Shannon Jr. scored 17 points in the victory, his 14th double-figure scoring performance this season. Jayden Epps added seven off the bench and tallied a career-high five assists without a turnover, and Coleman Hawkins registered nine points and eight rebounds.

Shannon took control on the offensive end, scoring 15 of the Illini's 19 points through the opening 10 minutes of first-half action. The Illini led by as many as five points in the opening half, but the Spartans ultimately took a 37-33 advantage into the break.

Down by nine with 14 minutes to play, the Illini offense started clawing its way back. Four straight points from Hawkins cut the Illinois deficit to five, and that spark was the start of a big Illini run.

Illinois used a 10-0 spree to take a 59-54 lead with eight minutes left. Mayer was a big reason behind that stretch, scoring eight points during the momentum-swinging run to bring the State Farm Center crowd to its feet.

Michigan State responded and tied the game at 60 with under six to play before five straight by Illinois on a Hawkins triple and a Dainja offensive rebound basket, putting the Orange and Blue ahead by five.

Dainja continued his strong showing by hitting a jumper to bring him up to 20 points. The Illini then thwarted the Spartan comeback bid by closing the game with an 8-2 run, improving to .500 in league play with its first straight win.

After Illinois scored the game's first four points, Indiana responded with 12 unanswered as part of a 20-5 run over a seven-plus minute stretch when the Illini were held without a field goal.

The Illini trailed by 19 with four minutes left in the first half before cutting the deficit to 10 at the break.

Illinois got within eight on the first possession of the second half, but the Hoosiers pushed the lead right back to double digits, where it remained the rest of the way.

Terrence Shannon Jr. recorded a team-high 26 points, his fifth consecutive contest in double figures and his seventh game with at least 20 points. Shannon also registered three assists.

RJ Melendez added 10 points, his fifth double-digit scoring performance, and grabbed four rebounds.

The Illini forced 17 turnovers, their highest mark in conference action this season, and they scored 18 points off those takeaways.

Illinois grabbed 14 offensive rebounds and tallied 13 second-chance points, while the hosts made 11 steals and capitalized with 11 fast-break points.

Game 20 Recap - Illinois 69, Ohio State 60

Illinois brought the energy from start to finish in a bounce-back 69-60 win against Ohio State at State Farm Center.

Terrence Shannon Jr. scored a game-high 17 points, including 12 in the first half. Shannon made all nine of his free-throw attempts, grabbed seven rebounds, dished out three assists, and notched one steal.

Jayden Epps made the second start of his career, recording 14 points, his 13th game with double-digit points this season.

Coleman Hawkins registered 11 points, nine rebounds, six assists, and a teamhigh three blocks, and Matthew Mayer hit two 3-pointers en route to 12 points with eight rebounds with two blocks.

Both teams registered early 7-0 runs, though the Illini led by four halfway through the opening frame after holding the Buckeyes without a field goal for nearly six minutes. With six minutes to play in the first half, Illinois extended its advantage to double digits, using an 11-2 run to extend its lead to 11 points.

The Illini returned from halftime with lots of energy and took advantage of strong defense to open the frame with two straight baskets. Ohio State cut its deficit to single digits, but Illinois did not let that last long, using a 10-0 run that featured two Epps 3-pointers and two Dain Dainja baskets to send State Farm Center into a frenzy and push their lead to 48-31 with 15 minutes to play.

Illinois continued to battle, using an 8-3 run to push its advantage back up to double digits. Holding the Buckeyes without a field goal for over five minutes, the Illini used dunks from Hawkins and Ty Rodgers to take a 16-point lead with six minutes remaining.

Illinois still led by 17 at the final media timeout before a late Buckeyes push trimmed the final margin to nine.

Game 21 Recap - Illinois 61, Wisconsin 51

Illinois used a career-high scoring effort from Matthew Mayer and a strong second-half showing to take down Wisconsin on the road, 61-51.

The Illini held the Badgers to their lowest point total at Kohl Center this season, and Illinois has now won six straight games, including three on the road, against Wisconsin.

Mayer took over in the second half, scoring 18 of his career-best 26 points in the final frame. He also tied his career-high mark with five 3-pointers, while grabbing six rebounds and recording one block and one steal.

Jayden Epps registered 13 points on 5-of-10 shooting.

With scoring not coming easily for either team in the first half, Dain Dainja registered eight points in the frame and finished with nine points, eight rebounds, two blocks, and one steals in a strong effort.

The Illini led by four, 20-16, at halftime in a very low-scoring opening period of play, as Dainja and Mayer combined for 16 of the team's 20 points at the break. The Illini held the Badgers to just 18.2% shooting from the field after 20 minutes of action.

The Illini opened the second half with a 12-4 run to open up a 32-20 lead less than four minutes into the frame, with Mayer scoring eight points during that stretch.

After the Badgers responded with a 15-2 run to move ahead 35-34 and seemingly swing momentum in their favor, the Illini took control for good. A 22-4 UI spurt turned a one-point deficit into a 56-39 lead in the span of eight minutes. Five different Illini registered points during that streak, led by 10 from Mayer.

Illinois closed out the game to seal its third Big Ten road victory of the season, with each of the three victories coming by double digits.

Game 22 Recap - Illinois 72, Nebraska 56

Illinois used a big final 12 minutes of play to defeat Nebraska, 72-56, at State Farm Center. The Illini outscored the Cornhuskers, 24-6, during that closing stretch to secure their seventh win in eight games.

A strong Illinois defensive stand in the final minutes of the game kept Nebraska without a field goal for the last six minutes of action, and four Illini finished in double figures in the 16-point victory.

Matthew Mayer scored a team-high 16 points, including three 3-pointers, while tallying six rebounds and two blocks. Jayden Epps recorded 12 points, including a team-high eight second-half points. Epps also registered three rebounds and three assists.

Ty Rodgers put together another strong performance with seven points and seven rebounds, six of which came on the offensive glass. Rodgers also made two steals. Sencire Harris was efficient in his 13 minutes of action, scoring eight points, which helped spark the Illini's second-half comeback.

A 14-5 Illini run over a four-minute period helped the hosts take a 30-22 lead, their largest lead opening period, with five minutes to play.

Illinois opened the second half with energy, going on an 8-2 run to open the frame. The Illini forced five turnovers within the first three minutes of the period to take a seven-point lead.

After Nebraska reeled off nine unanswered to move ahead 50-48 lead, an 8-0 Illinois run – fueled by strong defense, two steals, and four points from Harris – put the hosts back in front, 56-50, with eight minutes to play. A 7-2 run featuring points from three Illini freshmen extended Illinois' advantage to nine with just over five minutes left on the clock.

The Illini closed the game on a 9-0 run and held the Cornhuskers scoreless in the final four minutes of play to secure the home victory.

Game 23 Recap - Iowa 81, Illinois 79

Illinois battled for all 40 minutes on the road, but ultimately came up just short in an 81-79 loss to Iowa at Carver-Hawkeye Arena.

After falling behind 27-22, the Illini went on an 8-0 run to take the lead on a pair of Matthew Mayer threes surrounding a Dain Dainja bucket. Illinois later pushed its lead to seven, but allowed six points in the final 50 seconds to lead by one at halftime.

Trailing 39-36, Illinois went on another run, this one an 11-0 spurt, to take its biggest lead of the day at 47-39 and force an lowa timeout.

The Hawkeyes drew a number of fouls from that point on and Tony Perkins heated up from the field and lived at the free throw line, making for a competitive back-and-forth contest that featured five ties over the final nine minutes.

The last tie was at 76-all when the Hawkeyes grabbed an offensive rebound and swung it around the arc to an open Payton Sandfort, who drained a 3-pointer with 1:23 left to put the hosts up three. Coleman Hawkins had an open baseline three on the following possession that would not fall.

Illinois still trailed by three on its final possession, but Jayden Epps' three was short. Hawkins was fouled on the rebound, and he made the first free throw and purposefully missed the second for a try at a putback, but the Hawkeyes secured the defensive rebound to secure the win.

Matthew Mayer led the Illini with 21 points, scoring 15 in the first half but missing key minutes because of foul trouble. Jayden Epps registered 14 of his 16 points in the second half, including a stretch in which he accounted for 12 straight Illini points. It marked Epps' most points in Big Ten play.

Dain Dainja notched 17 points, his highest mark since Jan. 13, and grabbed nine rebounds. Terrence Shannon Jr. also finished in double figures with 11

Game 24 Recap - Illinois 69, #24 Rutgers 60

Illinois used a 19-0 second-half scoring run to take down No. 24 Rutgers, 69-60, at State Farm Center.

The Illini outscored the visiting Scarlet Knights, 39-26, after the break en route to victory, the team's fourth win over an AP Top-25 opponent this season.

Coleman Hawkins got hot early in the second half, scoring 11 of his team-high 18 points. He matched a career high with eight field goals and grabbed eight boards, five coming on the offensive glass.

Dain Dainja made his presence felt in the paint all afternoon, finishing with 15 points and seven rebounds.

After a quiet first half, Terrence Shannon Jr. notched 13 second-half points en route to a 15-point outing. Shannon recorded a team-best three blocks, which also marked a career high.

Illinois trailed by eight with just under six minutes left in the first half, but a 7-0 Illini run featuring two Dainja baskets surrounding a transition 3-pointer from Sencire Harris cut that deficit to one with three minutes left.

After the two sides traded baskets to open the second half, the Illini used a scoring run to take its first lead since the opening two minutes of the game and send the State Farm Center crowd into a frenzy. Hawkins was a big reason behind this offensive surge, accounting for 11 points.

Illinois used a 19-0 run and baskets from five different scorers over a 10-minute stretch to turn what was once a six-point deficit into a 13-point lead with just over seven minutes to play.

The Illini held the Scarlet Knights without a field goal for nearly 11 minutes of play and made two blocks and two steals and forced four turnovers during the spurt, Illinois' longest scoring run of the season.

Shannon scored the Illini's final five points of the contest to get Illinois back in the win column.
