SCOUTING THE HIGHLANDERS

Radford presents a formidable foe to the Nittany Lions after placing second in the Big South Conference last season. The Highlanders averaged nearly two goals a game in 2012 en route to a 10-6-4 overall record (7-2-1 Big South). The side got a strong result in preseason play, as it defeated Virginia Tech on August 24, 2-1. Freshman Garland Smith had a goal and an assist in the effort.

Among the returners is senior forward Bernardo Ulmo, who earned first team All-Big South in 2012. Ulmo led the Highlanders with 11 goals (three game-winners), in addition to notching three assists. Joe Mayer also returns after totaling 11 points last season.

Defensively, Radford returns James Jordan and Matt Janssen, a pair of senior defenders that started every game in 2012. Dane Wilson will likely start in net, replacing all-conference goalkeeper Ryan Taylor.

OPENING KICK

The Penn State men's soccer team begins its Big Ten Conference title defense this weekend as it welcomes Radford and Central Connecticut to Jeffrey Field for a series of non-conference games. The Nittany Lions have met Radford once in series history, while they have never faced CCSU in the history of the program. Additionally, the Blue and White have lost just once since November, going 7-1-3 in spring action and fall preseason play.

LOOKING BACK: RADFORD

Penn State was victorious in its lone meeting versus Radford on September 3, 1990. The pair of sides met at Jeffrey Field, as the Nittany Lions tallied two goals in the overtime period to defeat the Highlanders, 3-1. Danny Kelly notched a brace in the action, while his brother, Chris Kelly, added the third goal. Radford was highly successful in 2012, earning second place in the Big South regular season standings with a 7-2-1 league record (10-6-4 overall).

SEASON REWIND: 2012

In his third season at the helm, Penn State head coach Bob Warming led the Nittany Lions to their first Big Ten Conference championship since 2005. The Blue and White went 2-0-1 in conference play during the final two weeks of the regular season, downing Michigan State and Northwestern to claim a share of the title. The run quickly ended for the Lions, however, as they were knocked out of the Big Ten Tournament in the first round and missed the NCAA Tournament.

SUNK BY THE MIDDIES

The Nittany Lions fell to Navy in their final preseason exhibition, 2-1, in Annapolis, Md. last Saturday. The match was a chance for Penn State coaches to get a look at its reserves, as the starters only played about 30% of the game. The Midshipmen took the lead in the first five minutes, but Martin Seiler evened the scoreline in the second half after nodding in a perfect cross from Kyle MacDonald. Navy notched the game-winner with six minutes remaining.

MIDFIELD CONSISTENCY

Junior Owen Griffith and Senior Grant Warming return to patrol the central midfield in 2013 after strong seasons in 2012. The pair brings an experienced mindset to the defensive side of the midfield, as both possess the ability to quickly transfer the ball from the backline to the front. Griffith has started 21 straight games for the Nittany Lions, while Warming has the most career appearances on the team (52). Both players do the little things on the field to drive the engine, seldom appearing in the stat sheet. In fact, Warming is still searching for his first career goal.

LIONS TIE NO. 2 TERPS

Penn State earned an excellent result in its second preseason game, as it played second-ranked Maryland to a 1-1 tie on August 20. Despite returning the nation's best offense from a season ago, the Terps were held to just one goal (on a penalty kick). Freshman Mark Wadid scored his first unofficial goal at Jeffrey Field in the match, as fellow classmate Connor Maloney found him slashing behind the Maryland defense. Wadid corralled the long ball and then beat the Terrapin goalkeeper with a composed shot into the side netting. PSU coaches were pleased with the overall play of center backs Akil Howard and Martin Seiler, who were able to largely shut down the reigning national player of the year, Patrick Mullins.

FILLING THE VOID: OFFENSE

After losing 10 seniors to graduation last season, Penn State has some big shoes to fill this season -- specifically on the offensive end of the pitch. Among the players capable of stepping up are freshmen Mark Wadid and Connor Maloney. The rookies have impressed so far in preseason play, with Wadid getting quality minutes at striker and Maloney at outside midfield. Wadid is a speedy forward who can wreak havoc on defenders, while Maloney is a workhorse with an incredible engine. Also returning is redshirt junior Jordan Tyler, who missed 2012 with an ACL injury. The physical playmaker has appeared in 44 contests since 2010.

COACHING CLOUD

Among the elite coaches in the sports for the last three decades, head coach Bob Warming is back for his fourth season at Penn State. Warming has an incredible coaching pedigree, including 415 career Division I victories -- fifth all-time among active DI coaches. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2012 after leading PSU to the league title.

PATROLLING THE PIPES

Junior captain Andrew Wolverton is fully healthy and slated as the starter in net for the Nittany Lions. The third-year keeper shared time in net as a sophomore after battling an injury throughout the early part of the season. Despite the setback, Wolverton still earned second team All-Big Ten for his efforts. He etched his name in the record books as a freshman when he set the school's single-season record for shutouts with 12. With three last season, Wolverton needs just two more to move into a tie for seventh all-time in career shutouts.

PSU DOWNS NEBRASKA-OMAHA

The Nittany Lions earned a 1-0 victory in their first exhibition of the preseason against Nebraska-Omaha on August 17. The Blue and White held a talented UNO side scoreless, as Martin Seiler scored the game-winner off a volley.

LIONS IN THE COMMUNITY

Prior to their game against Nebraska-Omaha, PSU partnered with the Creighton men's soccer team and United Health to host Audrey's Shoes for Kids. The organization - created in memory of Bob Warming's daughter, Audrey - provided soccer clothes and equipment to over 150 underprivileged children in the Omaha area.

BIG TEN NETWORK SCHEDULE

Penn State is scheduled to be featured on the Big Ten Network at least two times this season. The booters will first appear on national television when they travel to preseason No. 1 Indiana on October 6. The Blue and White will then play two more league games before returning to the national spotlight in a home match against Northwestern on October 27.

BIG DISTINGUISHED SCHOLARS

Current Penn State players, Kyle MacDonald and Danny Sheerin, were named Big Ten Distinguished Scholars on July 10. The distinction is an incredible honor, as student-athletes are required to have a minimum GPA of 3.7 or higher for the 2012-13 academic year.

SCOUTING THE BLUE DEVILS

Led by long-time head coach Shaun Green (29 seasons), Central Connecticut has been selected to finish second in the Northeast Conference among league head coaches. Coming off an overall record of 8-8-2 a year ago, the Blue Devils lost NEC Player of the Year Reece Wilson to graduation. Despite the loss of Wilson, CCSU returns its third-leading goal scorer, Eddy Bogle. Bogle notched four goals and 10 points in 2012.

The Blue Devils had a high-powered offense in 2012, ranking second in league play with 18 goals and 14 assists. CCSU will be relying on a new goalie between the pipes, as it graduated former starter Anthony Occhialini.

Prior to Sunday's match, the Blue Devils will take on a tough West Virginia side. This is the inaugural meeting between Penn State and Central Connecticut.

WARMING

Fourth Year at Penn State
Berea College, 1975

CAREER RECORD: 415-201-72
PSU Record: 32-22-8

Appointed the 11th head coach in the history of the Penn State men's soccer program on May 24, 2010, Bob Warming has made an immediate impact in his first three seasons at the helm of the Nittany Lions. The veteran coach guided the team to the Big Ten Tournament championship game in 2010 and 2011, before winning a share of the regular season conference championship in 2012 and earning Big Ten Coach of the Year honors for his efforts.

Following a pair of strong seasons to begin his career at PSU, Warming's 2012 squad accumulated a 3-1-2 conference record to capture the team's first Big Ten regular season championship in seven years. The Nittany Lions held opponents to just over one goal per game during the season, as they went unbeaten in their final four regular season conference contests.

The 2011 campaign presented a major milestone for Warming as he became the 31st NCAA Division I men's soccer head coach to capture 400 career victories after the Nittany Lions downed Florida International, 1-0, in the team's fourth game of the season on Sept. 4. Penn State struggled through the Big Ten regular season, but hit its stride in the conference tournament, earning the distinction of being the first No. 7 seed to reach the title game.

The Nittany Lions switched roles from a high-powered offense in 2010 to a shutdown defense in 2011. The team allowed just 14 goals, the fewest since the 1977 squad surrendered 12 scores. Rookie goalkeeper Andrew Wolverson set school records for the most shutouts in a season (12) and led the Big Ten in GAA (0.60) and save percentage (.821).

Warming led the Lions to 14 wins in 2011, the most by a PSU team since 2002, a Big Ten Tournament title game appearance and to the program's first NCAA postseason victory in five years.

Penn State boasted one of the nation's most prolific offenses in 2010, totaling 144 points (45 goals, 54 assists) in 23 games. Corey Hertzog posted the most productive season by a Nittany Lion in 55 years, recording an NCAA-leading 20 goals and 46 points. Matheus Braga led the nation and shattered the Big Ten single season record in assists, registering 17. Both players earned NSCAA second team All-American honors.

Also successful in the classroom, Penn State received the NSCAA Team Academic Achievement Award in 2010, earning the honor with a 3.07 team GPA.

Warming's three-plus decades as a head coach have been signified by distinction, achievement and success. The six-time finalist for National Coach of the Year holds a lofty place in the NCAA record book, ranking sixth among active Division I head coaches and 15th in Division I history with 406 victories. Warming is also one of only two active coaches in Division I to take two different programs to the College Cup.

Warming, whose distinguished career spans 35 years, came to Happy Valley from Creighton University, where he took over a previously dormant program and developed it into a conference and regional power and national title contender.

In 14 total years in Omaha, served in two different stints (1990-94, 2001-09), Warming, the winningest coach in program history, led the Bluejays to 190 victories, seven Missouri Valley Conference regular season and tournament championships, 11 NCAA Championship appearances, and the 2002 College Cup. His teams proved nearly unbeatable at home, compiling a 107-18-15 record in Omaha. In recognition of his dominance in league play, Warming, a three-time Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year honoree, was named the MVC All-Centennial Team Coach in 2006.

An ardent believer in giving back through charitable works, Warming's

2009 Creighton squad won the community service award for performing over 1,500 hours of volunteer activities, including working on Habitat for Humanity projects, reading to elementary school students, and helping out at hospitals. Warming has also served as the honorary chairman of the Boy Scouts of America for Nebraska and as the honorary chairman of the Omaha Children's Crisis Center annual fund raiser.

Warming has not only built successful teams on the field, but also assisted with the design, fundraising, and construction management of three collegiate soccer stadiums, including, most recently, the $13 million, 6,000-seat, state-of-the-art Michael G. Morrison, S.J., Stadium at Creighton. He and his winning teams helped fill the stands at Morrison Stadium, as Creighton led the MVC and ranked in the NCAA top 10 in attendance each of the past seven seasons.

In honor of significant contributions made to the athletic program at the university, Warming was inducted into the Creighton Athletics Hall of Fame in April 2011, becoming just the seventh head coach to earn the honor in its 43-year history.

In between his tenures at Creighton, Warming served as head coach at Saint Louis University, where he guided it to four Conference USA championships, three NCAA Championship berths and the 1997 College Cup. His Billiken teams also finished ranked in the top 20 in all four seasons.

Warming also previously held head coaching positions at Old Dominion (1996), Charlotte (1982-88), Berry College (1977-81), and Transylvania University (1976). His career coaching record stands at an impressive 415-202-72 (.655).

Warming has also produced numerous professional prospects, as at least one of his players has been selected in every MLS SuperDraft or supplemental draft. He has seen a total of 28 of his players drafted since the league's inception in 1996. Most recently, John Gallagher was selected with the 30th pick in the second round of the 2013 MLS Supplemental Draft. In 2011, Corey Hertzog was selected by the New York Red Bulls with the No. 13 pick in the first round of the SuperDraft, while Drew Cost was a supplemental draft choice of Real Salt Lake.

A 1975 graduate of Berea College (Ky.), Warming was a four-sport varsity letterwinner, starring on the golf, swimming, tennis, and soccer teams. As a starting goalkeeper, he posted a 28-2-2 record. Warming also holds a master's of science degree in sport administration from Eastern Kentucky University.

Warming and his wife, Cindy, have four children – Emily, Bess, and twins Grant and the late Audrey.
