FIRST PITCH

Penn State continues the 2013 season with a trip to Chapel Hill, N.C., this weekend for North Carolina's Carolina Classic. The two-day tournament includes squads from George Washington, North Dakota State, Iowa State and the hosting Tarheels. The Nittany Lions' first game against the Colonials is scheduled for noon Saturday.

ON THE HORIZON

Penn State kicks off the March slate at the Citrus Classic in Orlando, Fla., March 2-3 before moving across the state to the Under Armour Showcase in Tampa, Fla., from March 8-10. The team will play 11 games over that nine-day span in the Sunshine State.

A LOOK AT THE COLONIALS

George Washington enters the weekend at 1-5 after dropping five-consecutive contests following a season-opening victory over Seton Hall, 8-0, under third-year head coach Stacey Schramm. Freshman Carlee Gray paces the team with a .357 batting average (5-14) and three RBI through the first six games. Sophomore Victoria Valos has brought runs around, as well, collecting a team-high four RBI.

In the circle, first-year pitcher Meghan Rico owns a 3.23 ERA through 17.1 innings and a 1-3 record while holding opposing teams to an astounding .167 batting average. Junior Courtney Martin has thrown significant amounts as well, going 13.0 with a matching 3.23 ERA with an 11-3 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

The Colonials finished 25-30 a season ago, including an 11-9 stint in Atlantic 10 play.

PREVIEWING THE BISON

North Dakota State (4-6, 0-0 Summit) won three of five at the LSU Purple and Gold Challenge Feb. 15-17 after a 1-4 start to the season at the Ramada Inn INU-Dome Classic. The four Bison wins have come by a combined 22-3 score against Green Bay, Memphis (twice) and Virginia while the team has dropped its two contests to ranked opponents, No. 1 Alabama and No. 10/11 LSU, by a 19-0 cumulative score.

Sophomore outfielder Presley Glaser leads the team with a .313 average at the plate, while adding a trio of stolen bases. Rookies Cheyenne Garcia and Maritza Lopez-Portillo have both contributed a team-high five RBI this season. Senior Whitney Johnson heads up the pitching staff, opening 2013 with a 3-2 record in five starts. The Lake Crystal, Minn., native has tossed to a tune of a 1.15 ERA through 36.2 innings, allowing just a

.181 opponent batting average. Second-year pitcher Krista Menke accounts for the team's remaining five starts and owns a 1-4 record with a 5.73 ERA.

The Bison reached the NCAA Regional in Tuscon, Ariz., in 2012 after taking the Summit League crown with an 18-6 record and a 38-22 overall ledger. The squad has qualified for NCAA action each of the last four campaigns under 12th-year skipper Darren Mueller. North Dakota State is the second Summit opponent Penn State will face this season after meeting Missouri-Kansas City at the Troy Cox Classic in Las Cruces, N.M., Feb. 17.

CYCLONES AT A GLIMPSE

Iowa State (6-3, 0-0 Big 12) enters the Carolina Classic after taking two of four at the UTSA Classic in San Antonio, Texas. The Cyclones, led by eighth-year head coach Stacy Gemeinhardt-Cesler, opened the season by hosting the Cyclone Invitational, where they jumped out to a 4-1 start.

The squad has not lacked offense over its first nine games, producing a .348 cumulative batting average. The trio of senior Erica Miller (11), sophomore Jordan Spendlove (11) and junior Sara Davison (10) has combined to tally 32 of the team's 58 RBI and 14 of 22 of ISU's multi-base hits. In the circle, fourth-year pitcher Tori Torrescano has built a 4-1 record with a 2.67 ERA after spinning four complete games in five starts. Junior Taylor Smith has been a solid second option from the rubber, allowing just five earned runs over 14.1 innings (2.44 ERA).

The Cyclones finished 14-39 in 2012 after a tough 2-22 finish in the Big 12.

SCOUTING THE TAR HEELS

North Carolina (7-5, 0-0 ACC) welcome the four other teams to Anderson Softball Stadium this weekend after trips to Baton Rouge, La., for the Tiger Classic Challenge and the Aggie Classic in College Station, Texas. The Tar Heels captured wins over Big Ten representative Purdue, 2-1 (9), and No. 10/11 LSU, 3-1, at the Tiger Classic Challenge.

Senior Tisha Mahon has been on a tear at the plate, batting .500 with 10 singles in 20 at-bats this season. Classmate Haleigh Dickey paces the squad with seven RBI and 12 hits, including a pair of doubles and a triple. Fourth-year first baseman Constance Orr presents a long-ball threat with two home runs this year. Junior Lori Spingola (4-3) has been consistent for North Carolina, throwing 47.0 of the team's 77.0 innings with six complete games. Her 1.49 ERA leads the team, along with her 51 strikeouts, compared to just 11 walks.

North Carolina is led by 28th-year head coach Donna J. Papa, who was inducted into the National Fastpitch Hall of Fame Nov. 30, 2012 after passing the 1,000-win threshold during the 2011 season. The 2012 Tar Heels reached the NCAA Regional in Athens, Ga., after a 13-4 finish in the ACC and a 43-15 tally overall.

A HISTORY LESSON

Penn State enters the weekend with a combined 13-12 record against its tournament opponents. The Nittany Lions have faced the Colonials and Bison just once, taking both contests in 2009 and 2006, respectively. The Blue and White hold a 2-4 ledger against Iowa State, but the squads have not met since 1997.

The Nittany Lions have met North Carolina on the diamond 17 times and have edged out a 9-8 record, although the Tar Heels have taken the last three meetings. Penn State's last win came in 2007 in an 11-7 triumph at the Carolina Classic.

The team is 10-10 in five appearances at the Carolina Classic since 2005, highlighted by a 3-1 effort in 2007 with wins over North Carolina State, East Carolina and North Carolina.

WHAT AN HONOR

Senior outfielder Cassidy Bell earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors after a standout weekend at the Troy Cox Classic in Las Cruces, N.M., the conference office announced Monday afternoon. The award is the second of her career and first for a Penn State player since Kasie Hatfield picked it up April 16, 2012.

Bell continued her offensive excellence from the 2012 season during Penn State's opening weekend in Las Cruces, N.M., Feb. 15-17. The senior center fielder pushed her current hitting streak to 16 contests by recording at least one hit in all five games at the tournament, including three multi-hit efforts. Bell hit .600 (9-15) from the plate and slugged 1.333 with a trio of home runs to finish the weekend with nine RBI while adding four stolen bases and five runs of her own on the base paths.

BOMBS AWAY

Taking advantage of the thin air at nearly 4,000 feet above sea level in Las Cruces, N.M., Penn State sent six hits over the fences at the Troy Cox Classic. While Bell accounted for three of the home runs, freshmen Macy Jones and Karlie Habitz added two and one, respectively.

The Penn State batters produced seven multi-base hits other than homers, as well. Bell and Alyssa Sovereign recorded two doubles apiece, while Jones and Kailyn Johnson put up one double each. Alyssa Renwick beat out a throw from right field to post the team's only triple of the weekend.

BREAKING THE ICE

Seven of Penn State's eight freshmen logged their first time on the diamond over the team's opening weekend in New Mexico, including starts in the field for Taylor Abeyta, Reina Furuya, Karlie Habitz, Jones, Lexi Knief and Christy Von Pusch. Maegan Tupinio entered three games to pinch run.

Jones singled against Colorado State in the first game of the season, while Furuya and Habitz hit safely in the second game of the day against New Mexico State. Habitz and Jones launched the first home run of their careers against Texas Tech Feb. 16. Von Pusch earned her first start in the circle against Texas Tech while Jones began contests on the rubber against New Mexico State twice and UMKC.

QUITE THE SLATE!

Ten of Penn State's 2013 opponents are listed in the Feb. 19 USA Today/NFCA Coaches Poll, including second-place Oklahoma. Other future opponents include Texas (No. 6), Texas A&M (No.10), LSU (No. 11), Arizona (No. 14), Michigan (No. 16), Washington (No. 2) while North Carolina, Ohio State and Hofstra are receiving votes. Nine of the teams are also included in the ESPN.com/USA Softball Top 25.

CHASING HISTORY

Multiple Nittany Lions will have opportunities to leave their names in the program career record book when the season is finished. Cassidy Bell is currently sixth in batting average (.338), seventh in doubles (30), fourth in home runs (20), 10th in total bases (258), 11th in walks (58) and 12th in runs (91), while approaching the charts in at-bats, hits, RBI and stolen bases. Kailyn Johnson ranks sixth all-time in walks (76) and is within striking distance of at-bats, hits, home runs, total bases and RBI.

Last weekend, Bell moved into a tie for seventh all-time in doubles with Leigh Murray (2002-06) as well as a tie for fourth in home runs (20) with Desi Giordano (2008-11) and Jen Acunto (2005-08).

CAPTAIN BY COMMITTEE

With an abundance of leadership on the 2013 team, each senior on the Nittany Lion squad will captain a different aspect of the program this season. Bell is the gameday captain, while Hutchinson and Renwick lead practice and travel duties, respectively. Yao and Myers serve as dugout leaders and Johnson is the team's off-field captain.

YOUR 2013 NITTANY LION SQUAD

The 2013 Penn State softball team has set its aims on returning to the NCAA tournament after missing postseason play following the 2012 campaign. The Nittany Lions are not short on leadership or experience this year, boasting a six-player senior class spread across the field while totaling 10 upperclassmen.

In the outfield, seniors Shannon Hutchinson and Cassidy Bell are joined once again by junior Alyssa Sovereign. The trio combined for 88 hits last season, powered by Bell's record-breaking efforts. Bell posted a program-record .423 batting average while producing 41 hits, 23 runs and 20 RBI and a .784 slugging percentage on the way to first-team All-Big Ten and first-team NFCA All-Great Lakes honors. The group also combined to post 13 stolen bases on 14 attempts.

A trio of seniors returns in the infield as well with Kailyn Johnson at first base, Lauren Yao at second and Alyssa Renwick continuing at shortstop. All three finished in the Top 5 of batting average in 2012, led by Renwick at .282. Johnson ended the season third in on-base percentage, reaching safely at a .353 clip thanks to a team-best 26 walks. Juniors Liz Presto and Kasie Hatfield look to open strong junior seasons this weekend. Hatfield secured a spot on the All-Big Ten second team last year after leading the team with 26 RBI while playing behind the plate and at third. Senior Rachel Myers is back as a utility player for the squad after playing in 22 games and scoring six runs last season.

Marissa Diescher and Jordan Wheatley return to take over in the circle for the Nittany Lions. Diescher, a sophomore, spun 78.2 innings in 22 appearances in her first collegiate season and finished with a 5-9 record. Wheatley, now in her third season, contributed 63.2 innings with a 4.73 ERA in 19 appearances in 2012.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The squad features an eight-player freshman class, one of the biggest in Petri's tenure at Penn State. The group is a truly coast-to-coast group and their added depth contributes across the field. The freshmen represent six states including California (Abeyta, Habitz), Hawaii (Furuya, Tupinio), New Jersey (Knief), New York (Good), Pennsylvania (Von Pusch) and Virginia (Jones). Christy Von Pusch and Macy Jones will help the Nittany Lions in the pitching department while the remaining six rookies have the ability to play at every position, including Karlie Habitz behind the plate.

PRESEASON ACCOLADES

Senior Cassidy Bell earned a spot on the 2013 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Watch list, the Amateur Softball Association (ASA) of America and USA Softball announced Feb. 1. Bell is the first Nittany Lion to make the preseason Top 50 list.

In addition, Bell and junior Kasie Hatfield were named to the preseason All-Big Ten first-team list by College Sports Madness.

HOMEWARD BOUND

The Nittany Lions play their first 28 games on the road before finally opening play at Beard Field at Nittany Lion Softball Park for a series against Michigan from March 29-31. The squad then hosts Saint Francis (PA), Purdue, Northwestern, Kent State and Nebraska for a 14-game home slate.

FUTURE OF THE NITTANY LIONS

Four student-athletes will join the Penn State softball program as freshmen in the 2013-14 academic year, head coach Robin Petri announced Dec. 17. The recruiting class hails from around the country with Kristina Brackpool (Santa Clarita, Calif.) and Samantha Shanahan (Seattle, Wash.) hailing from the West, Shelby Miller (Fort Bend, Texas) traveling from the South and Mary Ward (Greencastle, Pa.) the lone Pennsylvania native.

ROBIN PETRINI

Head Coach • 17th Year
UTAH STATE '83

RECORD: 473-403-2 (.541)

Seventeen years after arriving in Happy Valley, fans and foes alike know that Penn State head coach Robin Petrini has brought the Nittany Lions to a new level. Petrini's vision of taking a below average Big Ten team and building it into a force that expects a run to the NCAA Tournament every year. In the past 12 years alone, Petrini has guided the Nittany Lions to eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament, while her overall record stands at 455-371-2. Petrini owns the all-time mark for career wins by a Penn State coach and has the longest tenure of any PSU skipper.

With a quality coaching résumé, top-notch Division I playing credentials and unbridled ambition, Petrini and her staff have rebuilt a program that hadn't been to an NCAA Tournament since 1985 when she took the 2000 Lion squad to the national tournament.

"We've established a standard and our expectation is that we get to NCAAs every year. Now we're looking to improve upon that," stated Petrini. "We've been to the NCAAs eight times. It doesn't get any easier to accomplish that goal, but now we want to take it to the next level. We want to get to the next round of the NCAAs and move forward with our expectations of this program."

Since taking over in 1997, Petrini has upgraded the program to become nationally competitive. She brought on board an excellent coaching staff with competitive experience at the collegiate ranks and upgraded the schedule to include nationally prominent teams year in and year out. In 1999, she led the Nittany Lions to their first 30-win season since 1988 and earned Big Ten Co-Coach of the Year en route to a Big Ten Tournament bid. Since then, Petrini's teams have recorded seven more 30-win seasons, including 2006's 39-17 NCAA Tournament campaign, which set the school record for wins in a season.

More recently, Petrini overcame a three-year drought from the NCAA Tournament by taking the 2011 club not only to the event, but by hosting the NCAA Regionals at brand new Nittany Lion Softball Park and Beard Field. Petrini was instrumental in the building of the $10.2 million, softball-only complex on Penn State's campus. In less than a year's time, the new facility has hosted the NCAA Tournament and all four levels of the PIAA Softball Championship.

Before Penn State

Petrini spent eight seasons at Northwestern University prior to her tenure at PSU. Named associate head coach in 1995-96, Petrini served as an assistant coach for the Wildcats from 1988-95. The primary Northwestern recruiter, she was instrumental in assembling the 1997 class, regarded as one of the top-two in the nation.

During Petrini's appointment, Northwestern produced 12 All-Big Ten selections, as well as an All-American and several GTE Academic All-Americans. The Wildcats compiled 30-win seasons in four of her last five years, and finished fourth or better in the conference race five times during her eight seasons.

"I am a firm believer in the student-athlete concept," confided Petrini. "I am committed to making sure that our athletes are given the opportunity to be successful academically and athletically. I believe our athletes have the opportunity to get a quality education and play some of the finest softball in the country."

She continues that excellence with her Penn State teams, as well. While in Happy Valley, she has produced 33 All-Big Ten performers, 94 academic all-conference, 16 Academic All-District honorees, six overall Academic All-Americans, multiple National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Americans as well as three Academic All-American First Teamers including current assistant coach Jen McIntyre.

Prior to her position at Northwestern, Petrini spent five years at Brigham Young University, where she received her master's degree in physical education. After one season as the Cougars' assistant coach, she was promoted to head coach. Working without the aid of scholarships, she developed a nationally competitive program that beat a pair of top 20 teams in 1988.

A native of South San Francisco, Calif., Petrini is a 1983 graduate of Utah State University with bachelor's degrees in political science and physical education. She enjoyed a successful playing career as a four-year letterwinner and starting shortstop for the Aggies' 1980 and 1981 AIAW national championship squads. In September 2011, Petrini and her teammates from those national championship teams were inducted into the Utah State Athletics Hall of Fame. A three-time all-conference selection, she was also an All-America nominee. In the summer of 2003, she was inducted into the San Mateo County Sports Hall of Fame, which also includes the likes of Tom Brady and John Madden.
