NOTES AND HEADLINES

PENN STATE PREPPED FOR FINAL HOME MEET

The Penn State men's gymnastics team is set to welcome Nebraska for its final home meet of the 2018 campaign Saturday, March 17 at 4 p.m. inside Rec Hall. The Nittany Lions will honor the careers of Colin Coates, Ben Cooperman, Quest Hayden, and Greg Tamargo following the meet with the Cornhuskers.

CATCHING THE MEET FROM HOME

Fans who cannot make it out to the meet on Saturday, can follow along with live results on GoPSUsports.com or follow along live on Twitter and Instagram @PennStateMGYM.

SERIES HISTORY WITH NEBRASKA

Penn State holds the slight 5-4 all-time advantage in duals with Nebraska as it competed in numerous tri-meets and opens with the Cornhuskers over the history of the two programs. The Nittany Lions and Nebraska last met up for a dual in the 2000 season when Penn State took the 231.050-223.700 victory over the Cornhuskers at Rec Hall. In the last regular season meeting, Nebraska took the victory over both Penn State and Iowa in Lincoln, Nebraska, scoring a 418.350 and taking three event victories.

SCOUTING THE CORNHUSKERS

Nebraska is ranked second in the nation with an average score of 406.567 and a season-high 411.750. The Cornhuskers lead the nation on the vault and rank in the top three on the floor exercise and the pommel horse. Individually, Anton Stephenson has the top score in the nation on the vault as he averages a 15.000, while Kyle King ranks third on the vault. Antonio Castro has also proved to be a top competitor on the pommel horse with a season average of 14.079.

MEET EIGHT: NEWS & NOTES

SENIOR PROFILES

>> Colin Coates - Coates has competed on the pommel horse in every meet this season for the Blue and White, earning a second-place finish at the West Point Open and against Army West Point with season-high 14.050. The Emmaus, Pennsylvania native also notched a podium finish on the horse at Arizona State.

>> Benjamin Cooperman - Selected the team captain for the 2018 season, Cooperman has competed on both the pommel horse and the still rings this year.

>> Quest Hayden - Hayden has appeared on three events this season, putting together routines on floor exercise, pommel horse, and vault. The Harrisburg, Pennsylvania native earned two podium spots, finishing third on the floor twice.

>> Joshua Smith - Smith has appeared on two events for the Nittany Lions in 2018, earning a win on both the floor exercise and the vault. The Baton Rouge, Louisiana native has also notched two podium finishes on the vault with second-place finishes.

>> Greg Tamargo - Tamargo has proven himself this season with wins on both the still rings and vault for Penn State. In the first home meet of the season, Tamargo notched victories on both events, while earning a podium finish on the floor at Arizona State.

FIVE UP, FIVE COUNT

Reaching the midway point of the 2018 season, men's gymnastics will now go to the five up, five count format for the remainder of the season. The Nittany Lions will keep all five scores that go up and compete instead of taking the five highest like it is prior to the Winter Cup.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Junior Wyatt Tyndall will have a familiar face to compete against at Rec Hall this weekend as his younger brother, Mitch Tyndall, is a freshman on the Nebraska men's gymnastics team. The younger Tyndall has yet to compete this season but was a two-time Provincial All-Around Champion and a 2016 Peter Vidmar Invitational All-Around Champion prior to becoming a Cornhusker.

PENN STATE DOMINATES ON THE FLOOR

The Nittany Lions are currently the best team in the nation on the floor with a four-score average of 69.700 and a season-best 70.950. Penn State is led by junior Joshua Smith, who scored a team-best 14.650, while the team has seen five individual event victories on the floor this season. Junior Chris Sands has picked up the victory in back-to-back weeks, earning a 14.300 at Iowa and a 14.200 at Arizona State.

REMAINING IN THE TOP THREE

The Nittany Lions have battled all season to maintain a top-three spot heading into week nine of the season. The Blue and White currently ranks third in the nation with a four-score average of 406.783 after earning victories over Arizona State and Navy this past weekend. Penn State also ranks in the top three as a team on floor exercise (1st), pommel horse (T-3rd), still rings (2nd), and parallel bars (2nd).

SANDS IS VICTORIOUS FOR THIRD-STRAIGHT WEEK

Junior Chris Sands picked up his third-straight victory in as many weeks, placing first on the floor exercise with a 14.200 at Arizona State. The win marks the third of the season for Sands as he also notched a victory on the floor exercise at Iowa with a 14.300 and on the still rings against Minnesota. The Lancaster, Pa. native also earned a top-five finish on the still rings, scoring a 13.750.

NITTANY LIONS EARN THREE INDIVIDUAL VICTORIES AT IOWA

Despite finishing second at the tri-meet at Iowa with Arizona State, the Penn State men's gymnastics team picked up three individual event victories at the meet. Junior Chris Sands earned a victory for the second-straight week with the win on floor exercise, while Noah Roberson notched a win on the still rings and Wyatt Tyndall placed first on the parallel bars for the Blue and White.

ROBERSON LEADS ON THE RINGS

Noah Roberson paced the Blue and White on the still rings at Iowa, coming away with the event victory after scoring a season-high 14.350 in the event. The win marks the second of the season for Roberson as he notched the event victory in the team portion of the West Point Open. Roberson has also garnered two second-place finishes this season on the still rings.

TYNDALL GRABS VICTORY ON PARALLEL BARS

Junior Wyatt Tyndall secured the win on the parallel bars after earning four podium finishes prior to the meet at Iowa. The Saskatoon, Saskatchewan native scored a 14.200 on the parallel bars and added his second win of the season as he placed first on the floor exercise in the team portion of the West Point Open.

SMITH EARNS SECOND VICTORY OF 2018

Junior Joshua Smith has risen to the top of the list of competitors for Penn State on the floor exercise and the vault. In his second week of competition of the 2018 season, Smith notched his first victory of the season with a 14.650 on the floor exercise, while placing second on the vault. After a week away from the floor, Smith came back to win the vault with a season and team-best 14.600 to notch his second event victory of the season for the Blue and White.

SANDS CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

Junior Chris Sands has been continuing to improve on his still rings routines week in and week out and it has paid off for the Lancaster, Pennsylvania native as he earned his first victory of the season against Minnesota. As the second competitor for the Nittany Lions against the Golden Gophers, Sands scored a season-best 14.200 to earn his first event victory of the season on the still rings.

PENN STATE PUTS UP STRONG TEAM PERFORMANCE ON VAULT

The Nittany Lions used the lineup of Wyatt Tyndall, Brayden Borrromeo, Quest Hayden, Brennan Pantazis, and Joshua Smith to record their season-high score of 71.050 and put it slightly ahead of the Golden Gophers after four rotations in the meet. Penn State would eventually fall to Minnesota, but Borrromeo posted a career-best 14.300 on the vault, while Smith notched a season-best 14.600 in the event victory.

NEDOROSCIK PLACES FOURTH AT WINTER CUP

Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik had a strong showing at the Winter Cup after qualifying for the event finals on the pommel horse Saturday, Feb. 17. Nedoroscik was just one place out of the top-three, notching a fourth-place finish on the pommel horse. The sophomore pommel horse specialist scored a 13.900 in his first round before earning a 14.800 in the second.

WINTER CUP HIGHLIGHTS

The Penn State men's gymnastics team had two participants in the 2018 Winter Cup with sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik qualifying for the finals on the pommel horse and Brennan Pantazis competing in the all-around. The two made their first appearances in the competition after Nedoroscik qualified at the US Championships and Pantazis qualified following the West Point Open. Nedoroscik (Worcester, Mass.) competed on the pommel horse, scoring a 13.900 overall to place ninth overall and earn his spot in the finals. Pantazis returned to his home state for the first time in his collegiate career to compete in the all-around at the Winter Cup. The freshman scored a 74.500 in the all-around, placing 24th overall, while scoring a 13.500 on the vault to tie for 21st overall.

MGYM WINS SECOND-STRAIGHT THON PEP RALLY

The Penn State men's gymnastics team won its second-straight THON pep rally after competing against other Penn State athletic teams. Since 1977, THON has partnered with The Four Diamonds Fund at Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital with one goal in mind: conquering childhood cancer. To date, more than $136 million has been raised by THON, including more than $10 million in 2016-18, and at least 95 percent of the funds raised at THON are donated directly to Four Diamonds.

PENN STATE POSTS SECOND-BEST SCORE NATIONALLY

The Penn State men's gymnastics team picked up its first Big Ten Conference win of the season with a season-best 417.400 at Ohio State Friday, Feb. 9. The Buckeyes scored a 414.900 in the meet to fall in their third Big Ten meet of the season. Penn State's score of 417.400 ranks second nationally to only three-straight NCAA Champion Oklahoma, who scored a 418.000 this season. The Nittany Lions bested their season-best scores on four out of six events including: floor exercise (70.950), pommel horse (69.200), still rings (69.950), and high bar (67.500). Furthermore, the Blue and White had five career bests on the day with two event victories.

ZAKUTNEY COMPETES AT ELITE CANADA MEET

With Penn State having a bye week, it gave sophomore Sam Zakutney an opportunity to head to Quebec, Canada to compete in 2018 Elite Canada. Elite Canada is the equivalent of the Winter Cup for American gymnasts. Zakutney competed in the all-around, placing fourth overall with a 75.134. The Ottawa, Ontario native also tied for fourth on the floor exercise with a 13.300 and placed seventh on both the vault and high bar.

PENN STATE FALLS IN FIRST BIG DUAL

Despite putting up season-best scores on the floor exercise (70.800) and parallel bars (69.850), the Nittany Lions were unable to come away with a victory over the Fighting Illini in their first Big Ten Conference home meet of the 2018 season. Illinois won all but two events as sophomore Sam Zakutney picked up two event victories with a win on the parallel bars and in the all-around.

MEET EIGHT: NEWS & NOTES

ZAKUTNEY NOTCHES BIG TEN GYMNAST OF THE WEEK HONORS

Sophomore Sam Zakutney earned his second Big Ten Conference honor of the 2018 season as he was named Big Ten Gymnast of the week as announced by the conference office Monday, Jan. 29. Zakutney notched conference honors for the seventh time in his career as he was a four-time Freshman of the Week honoree and the 2017 Big Ten Freshman of the Year award winner as well as earning Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honors twice in 2018. Furthermore, a Penn State gymnast has earned a conference honor all three weeks of the 2018 season as it has had two freshmen of the week and two gymnasts of the week honors. Zakutney was the only gymnast to compete on all six events against Illinois, earning his second all-around score of 80-or-higher. The sophomore all-arounder scored an 80.700 to earn his second all-around title of the season, while also taking home the parallel bars title with a 14.450. Zakutney also placed second on the high bar for the Blue and White.

NITTANY LIONS DOMINATE IN FIRST HOME MEET

Behind five event victors and an all-around winner, the Penn State men's gymnastics team secured its first home victory of the 2018 season with a 407.600-384.100 win over Army West Point. The Nittany Lions bested their team score, while posting season-bests on the pommel horse (67.850), and the still rings (68.550). The Blue and White also took home five event titles as well as the all-around title as sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik notched the pommel horse title, Greg Tamargo captured both the still rings and vault titles, freshman Brennan Pantazis earned the parallel bars and all-around wins, and freshman Alex Frack picked up the high bar win. Penn State saw eight career-highs on the day with Frack besting all his scores from the West Point Open and earning his first collegiate title.

FRACK NOTCHES BIG FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

Freshman Alex Frack was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week as announced by the conference office Monday, Jan. 22. The honor marks the first of his career and the second-straight week in which Penn State has won the award as Brennan Pantazis garnered it a week ago.

Frack notched three podium finishes in his first collegiate home meet, including one event victory. The Nazareth, Pennsylvania native placed third on the pommel horse, scoring a 13.550 and third on the parallel bars with a 13.650.

Frack capped off the meet with one final victory for the Blue and White, notching a 13.700 on the high bar for his first collegiate win. The freshman bested all his scores from a week prior at the West Point Open.

TAMARGO HAS BIG SHOWING AGAINST ARMY

Junior Greg Tamargo led the Nittany Lions in their first home meet of the season, securing three podium finishes on the afternoon. The Kennett Square, Pa. native started the meet with a second-place finish on the floor exercise before going on to take the title in both the still rings and the vault. Tamargo scored a 14.150 on the still rings and a 14.000 on the vault in his wins, earning him the Gene Wettstone award for the meet.

PENN STATE CAPTURES FIFTH-STRAIGHT WEST POINT OPEN TITLE

The Penn State men's gymnastics team captured its fifth-straight and 20th overall West Point Open title, scoring a 406.850 in the 27th Annual West Point Open at the Gross Center Friday, January 12. Navy placed second overall with a 395.050, while Army came in third with a 380.350 and William and Mary notched a fourth-place finish with a 378.300. Springfield and Temple rounded out the meet with 369.250 and 223.050, respectively.

The Nittany Lions earned the team win on five-of-six events, scoring a 69.200 on the floor and a 66.850 on the pommel horse. The Blue and White also captured the event victory on the still rings with a 65.600, while placing second on the vault with a 70.500. Finally, Penn State notched event wins on the parallel bars with a 67.850 and the high bar with a 66.850.

The Blue and White also swept all six event titles with victories from Sam Zakutney (vault & parallel bars), Wyatt Tyndall (floor exercise), Michael Burns (high bar), Stephen Nedoroscik (pommel horse) and Noah Roberson (still rings).

BLUE AND WHITE TAKE HOME FOUR EVENT TITLES

The Penn State men's gymnastics team took home four individual event victories, including sweeping the top three spots on the parallel bars in the individual event finals of the West Point Open.

Freshman Brennan Pantazis made his mark in his first weekend donning the Blue and White at the West Point Open, capturing the individual event titles on the floor exercise with a 14.250 and on the parallel bars with a 13.900. Junior Michael Burns continued to dominate the high bar at the West Point Open, capturing his third-straight title at the event with a 13.550. The Nittany Lions saw their first victor of the evening in Pantazis on the floor exercise before sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik notched his first pommel horse title of the 2018 season, earning a career-high 15.000. Pantazis notched his second win of the night for the Nittany Lions before Burns capped off the event with his third-straight West Point Open high bar title.

MEET EIGHT: NEWS & NOTES

PENN STATE SWEEPS CONFERENCE AWARDS

Sophomore Sam Zakutney and freshman Brennan Pantazis swept the Big Ten Conference weekly awards with Zakutney winning Big Ten Gymnast of the Week and Pantazis notching Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors. Zakutney notched conference honors for the sixth time in his career as he was a four-time Freshman of the Week honoree and the 2017 Big Ten Freshman of the Year award winner. Pantazis picks up his first conference honor after donning the Blue and White for the first time at the West Point Open.

PANTAZIS PUTS UP BIG NUMBERS IN FIRST COLLEGIATE MEET

Freshman Brennan Pantazis paced the Nittany Lions at the West Point Open, earning two first-place finishes in the individual finals. The freshman notched a 14.250 on the floor exercise and a 13.900 on the parallel bars in his finals debut. Pantazis placed himself in the finals after earning a second-place finish in the team portion of the event on the floor exercise and tying for fourth on the parallel bars. The Sparks, Nevada native also placed second in the all-around in his first collegiate meet.

ZAKUTNEY PICKS UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF LAST SEASON

Sophomore Sam Zakutney led the Nittany Lions to a win at the 27th annual West Point Open. The Ottawa, Ontario native won three events in the team finals, with victories on the vault, parallel bars and in the all-around. Zakutney also placed third on the high bar and fourth on the floor. Finally, Zakutney participated in four event finals at the West Point Open for the Blue and White with a second-place finish on the parallel bars. After the first week of competition, Zakutney ranks second in the nation in the all-around after scoring an 81.350, while also ranking sixth on the parallel bars with an average score of 14.100.

NEDOROSCIC BESTS CAREER SCORE ON POMMEL HORSE

Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik kicked off the season scoring a 14.800 on the pommel horse in the team finals before going on to post a career-high 15.000 in the individual finals. Nedoroscik bested the 14.900 he earned last season when he became the NCAA Pommel Horse National Champion.

NIITTANY LIONS PICKED FIFTH IN BIG TEN PRESEASON POLL

The Penn State men's gymnastics team was picked fifth in the 2018 Big Ten Men's Gymnastics Preseason Coaches' Poll, as announced by the conference office Thursday, Dec. 14. Along with the preseason coaches' poll, sophomores Stephen Nedoroscik and Sam Zakutney were named to the Gymnast to Watch List for the upcoming season.

For the fourth-straight season, Ohio State grabbed the top spot in the Big Ten Poll, while Minnesota and Illinois rounded out the top three places for the second-straight season. Nebraska came in as the number four preseason team in the conference with Penn State, Iowa and Michigan rounding out Big Ten Men's Gymnastics Preseason Coaches' Poll.

PENN STATE COMES IN SEVENTH IN THE CGA PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

The Penn State men's gymnastics team enters the 2018 campaign ranked seventh in the College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Preseason Coaches' Poll as announced Tuesday, Nov. 19.

Oklahoma was picked to finish first in the nation for the fourth-straight season with 14 first-place votes, while Stanford was picked to finish second with one first-place vote and Ohio State was projected to round out the top three with two first-place votes. Minnesota, Illinois and Nebraska ranked fourth, fifth, and sixth, respectively with Penn State coming in as the No. 7 team to start the 2018 season.

NIITTANY LIONS SET TO APPEAR ON BTN TWO TIMES

The Penn State men's gymnastics team will have one away meet featured on the Big Ten Network, while the network will also air the 2018 Big Ten Championships. The Nittany Lions and the Wolverines of Michigan will square off at 1 p.m. Saturday, March 24 on BTN in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

The 2018 Men's Big Ten Championships will be hosted by Michigan in Ann Arbor Friday, April 6 and Saturday, April 7. The team championship will be handed out on Friday, while individual event winners will be crowned April 7. Both sessions will be aired live on BTN starting at 7 p.m.

MEET EIGHT: NEWS & NOTES

JEPSON KICKS OFF 27TH SEASON AT THE HELM OF MEN'S GYMNASTICS

The 2018 campaign marks the 27th season for head coach Randy Jepson as the program leader of the Nittany Lions. Jepson came to Penn State in 1982 as a senior gymnast, earning All-America honors on the rings and being a Nissen-Emerly Award nominee. From there, he went on to be the graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming an assistant coach from 1985-1991. In 1992, Jepson served as the acting head coach and was promoted to head coach in 1993 and since has led the Nittany Lions to three national championships and three Big Ten titles.

Jepson has been the National Coach of the Year on three occasions (2000, 2004 and 2007) and garnered the prestigious CGA Honor Coach Award in 2011, which is given to the coaches who have 25 years of service or more to the sport of gymnastics. Additionally, Jepson is a two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year honoree and has coached 45 All-Americans on 103 occasions, 30 First Team All-Big Ten selection and 12 NCAA Individual Event Champions.

11 NITTANY LIONS COLLECT CGA ALL-AMERICA SCHOLAR-ATHLETE HONORS

Eleven Penn State men's gymnastics student-athletes earned College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Academic All-American Scholar-Athlete honors, while the 2017 team ranked in the top 10 with a 3.284 team grade point average in the 2016-17 academic year.

Eight Nittany Lions earned first team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors with redshirt-sophomore Noah Roberson leading the way with a 4.0 grade point average. Roberson was the 2017 Elite 90 recipient for men's gymnastics as a double major in biomedical engineering and mechanical engineering. Also earning first team honors for the Blue and White were Chris Sands (3.99-3.90 GPA), Wyatt Tyn-dall (3.89-3.80), Brayden Borromeo (3.799-3.70), Michael Burns (3.799-3.70), Alex Thomason (3.79-3.70), Benjamin Cooperman (3.699-3.60) and Franz Card (3.599-3.50).

Along with the seven first team honorees, three Nittany Lions notched second team honors, including Joseph Boyle (3.399-3.30), Dominic DiFulvio (3.399-3.30) and Stephen Nedoroscik (3.299-3.20).

As a team, Penn State ranked fifth in the nation with a 3.284 team grade point average, while Big Ten foe Nebraska led the way with a 3.505 team GPA.

Since the inception of the award in 1991, the Nittany Lions have received 76 first team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors and 46 second team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors. Penn State's 76 first team honorees rank 13th all-time amongst NCAA gymnastics teams.
