OPENING SERVE

The Penn State men's volleyball team begins the second half of its EIVA schedule Tuesday evening with a critical match against Saint Francis at Rec Hall. The Red Flash and Nittany Lions both carry a 5-2 record in EIVA play and are currently ranked in the final two spots in the standings for EIVA postseason eligibility.

These two teams last met in Loretto back on Jan. 20 and the Nittany Lions were able to manage a 3-1 road victory. After winter weather delayed the match from Sunday to Monday, both teams split the first two sets before Penn State won sets three and four. Jason Donorovich (12) and Cal Fisher (10) led the way for Penn State in kills. The Red Flash did outthit the Nittany Lions in the match.

Penn State is coming off its first sweep in a little less than a month with a 3-0 win over rival Ohio State last Tuesday. The Nittany Lions avenged their season-opening loss to the Buckeyes with solid all-around performances throughout their lineup, including four players with double-digit points.

The Red Flash have dropped four-straight matches all against ranked opponents including #1 Long Beach State March 9. SFU's last matches were on its trip to Indiana March 15-16 where they fell to both PFW and Ball State.

Redshirt junior outside hitter Michael Fisher is among the nations' elite attackers as he leads the country with 4.7 kills per set while hitting .333.
