2022 RUTHERFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE TEAM CHAMPION PENN STATE | INDIVIDUAL CHAMPION JAMES ALLEN, PENN STATE

2022 Rutherford Intercollegiate Team Champion - Penn State

PENN STATE WINS 7TH-STRAIGHT RUTHERFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Penn State men's golf team won the Rutherford Intercollegiate team title for the seventh-straight year thanks to a strong final round Sunday afternoon at Penn State's Blue Course. Penn State sophomore James Allen earned the individual title after defeating teammate Patrick Sheehan in a tiebreak, as the two Nittany Lions finished first and second atop the individual leaderboard.

The Nittany Lions collected their 29th Rutherford Intercollegiate team title in the 45-year history of the event. Allen becomes the 21st Nittany Lion to medal atop of the leaderboard in Rutherford history, and the first since Cole Miller in 2018.

Allen and Sheehan both finished atop the individual leaderboard at 3-under, 210, but Allen won the playoff tiebreak to win the individual championship. Allen earns his first-career collegiate tournament victory.

A total of three Nittany Lions finished in the top 10, with five in the top 15. The Nittany Lions entered Sunday in second place and four strokes back of then first-place No. 33 Michigan State. Penn State came out of the gates strong, gaining six strokes on the Spartans through the first six holes to surge into first place before making the turn. The Nittany Lions never allowed the Spartans to regain the lead the rest of the way, despite Michigan State pulling within a stroke as the final group reached the final hole. Sheehan parred the final hole, while Michigan State's golfer bogeyed, to give Penn State the two-stroke win over the Spartans.

Penn State shot a field-best 7-over, 291, in Sunday's chilly round to finish the 54-hole tournament at 12-over, 864. No. 33 Michigan State was second at 14-over, 866, while St. Mary's (Calif.) finished third at 17-over, 869.

46TH ANNUAL RUTHERFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE

R.B. "Pop" Rutherford, Sr. "The Father of Penn State Golf"

The Rutherford Intercollegiate, hosted by Penn State, has become one of the top events in the Northeast, and has featured a top field of Eastern teams and several squads from around the nation.

The Nittany Lions have dominated the Rutherford since it was established as the Nittany Lion Invitational in 1975, winning the tournament 29 times. Twenty-one Penn State golfers have medaled atop the leaderboard, the last was James Allen, a Nittany Lion sophomore from Scarsdale, N.Y., in 2022.

The 2022 Rutherford Intercollegiate was the 45th edition of the tournament. The Nittany Lions won the championship for the seventh-straight time, with a team score of 864. The 2020 event was not held after the COVID-19 pandemic cancelled all NCAA spring competitions.

The tournament became known as the Rutherford Intercollegiate in 1983 to honor R.B. "Pop" Rutherford Sr., the man known to the Nittany Lions as the "father of Penn State golf."

Rutherford organized the first Penn State golf team in 1922 and coached it until 1949. R.B. Rutherford Jr. continued his father's coaching tradition from 1950-1956 and furthered a legacy recalled each spring.
