HEAD COACH RYAN ODOM

In April of 2016, UMBC Director of Athletics Tim Hall announced the hiring of Ryan Odom as UMBC's new head men's basketball coach.

In his second year at the helm, Odom and his staff brought the program and the university to a place that even the most ardent Retriever supporter would have thought was impossible. In a six-day span, UMBC won an America East Conference title at prohibitive favorite Vermont and followed up by engineering the first victory for a No. 16 seed over a No. 1 seed in NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament history. UMBC overwhelmed the tournament's top overall seed, Virginia, 74-54, in Charlotte, N.C., earning an ESPY nomination for the "Best Moment" of the year.

The Retrievers won a school-record 25 games (25-11) and Odom earned the 2018 Hugh Durham Award as the nation's top mid-major coach. Odom was the recipient of the 2017 Joe B. Hall Award, which is presented annually to the top first-year coach in Division I. He has compiled a two-year mark of 46-24 at UMBC and a four-year head coaching record of 75-45.

The Durham, N.C. native served as head men's basketball coach at Lenoir-Rhyne (N.C.) University for the 2015-16 season. The Bears (21-10) advanced to the NCAA Division II Regional Finals for the first time in school history.

Prior to earning the position at Lenoir-Rhyne, Odom coached at UNC Charlotte from 2010-15. He was named interim head coach at Charlotte for the latter portion of the 2014-15 season. Odom was also an assistant coach at Virginia Tech (2003-10), American (2000-03), UNC Asheville (1999-00), Furman (1997-99), and South Florida (1996-97).

He graduated from Hampden-Sydney in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in economics and was a four-year starting point guard on the men's basketball team. He served as team captain his senior season. Ryan is the son of Dave Odom, who retired in 2008 as the head coach at South Carolina. The elder Odom earned SEC Coach of the Year honors 2004 and ACC Coach of the Year honors in 1991, 1994 and 1995, while at Wake Forest University.

Odom, his wife Lucia, and sons Connor and Owen, reside in Annapolis.

2018-19 HEADLINE NEWS

- The team played its 2018-19 home opener in the Event Center, the first time since the fall of 1971 that the home schedule did not start at the RAC Arena/UMBC Fieldhouse (same facility).
- Nine letterwinners and three starters will return for UMBC this season and they will be joined by six newcomers/eligible red-shirts. In addition to leading scorer, guard Jairus Lyles (20.2 ppg), guards K.J. Maura (11.3 ppg, 5.0 apg) and Jourdan Grant (7.5 ppg) exhausted their eligibility, while guard/walk-on Ishmail Jabbe (2.3 ppg) decided to devote his final year to his studies within UMBC's Meyerhoff Scholars program.
- UMBC graduate student forward Joe Sherburne was named to the 2017-18 Academic All-America® Division I Men's Basketball First Team. He became the first UMBC and first America East Conference men's basketball player to earn the nation's top academic honor at the NCAA Division I level. Sherburne earned his undergraduate degree in May with a 4.0 grade-point average in the major of financial economics. He is pursuing a Master's degree in data science.
- Red-shirt junior Sam Schwietz will be joined by his brother Jack Schwietz and form just the third brother duo to earn letters in school history. Jeff and Kenny Reynolds suited up together in the 1988-89 season, while Howie and Jack Kane, both '79 grads, were the first and only other set of brothers to letter for the Retrievers.
- After going through camp and pre-season with the NBA's Utah Jazz, Lyles is now on the roster of their G-league affiliate, the Salt Lake City Stars. Lyles is averaging 10.7 ppg and scored a season-high 29 points in a come-from-behind win over Rio Grande Valley on Nov. 30.
- America East's nine head men's basketball coaches tabbed defending tournament champion UMBC for third place in its 2018-19 preseason poll. Vermont, last year's regular-season champion, received six-first place votes and topped the poll with 62 points while Hartford matched its best ever predicted finish coming in second after earning the other three first-place tallies and 59 points. UMBC earned 44 points, edging Albany and Stony Brook, who tied for fourth with 40 apiece.

LAST TIME OUT

Brandon Horvath scored 19 points and graduate student forward Joe Sherburne added 15 as UMBC (7-6) defeated Hood (Md.) College, 86-65, at the UMBC Event Center on Dec. 21. Sherburne stuffed the stat sheet with nine rebounds and six assists, while red-shirt junior forward Sam Schwietz corralled a career-high 12 rebounds to spark the Retrievers.

The win snapped a two-game slide and three-game home losing streak for UMBC.

WORTH NOTING

- * Prior to the win over Hood, UMBC had dropped three consecutive home games for the first time in Ryan Odom's tenure. The setbacks to American and Towson occurred when players knocked down treys on their final field goal attempts of the game. The Retrievers attempted 72 treys, making only 19 (26.4 percent) in losses to Towson and FGCU. UMBC is 15th nationally in treys attempted (367, 28.2 per game)
- * Since Jan. 31 of last season, UMBC is 11-3 away from home and 6-5 in ten games at the UMBC Event Center.
- * With 31 points, K.J. Jackson posted UMBC's first 30-point game of the season, scoring a school-record 27 second half points in the 91-76 win at Drexel on Dec. 8. Jackson's hit 11-of-13 field goal attempts in the second half and his 13 field goals (13-of-17) in a game made is now ninth (tied) on UMBC's all-time list.

* UMBC shot 60 percent from the floor (60.3 vs. Drexel, Dec. 8) for the first time in 90 games under Ryan Odom. The last time a Retriever team hit that plateau was on Feb. 6, 2016 vs. Maine (33/55, 60 percent) in an 83-79 victory.

* With the victory over High Point, Head Coach Ryan Odom's earned victory No. 50 (53-30) in his brief two-plus year tenure and is "fastest to 50" in school history by a resounding 40 games. Randy Monroe reached victory No. 50 in his 115th game behind the Retriever bench in his fourth season (2006-07).

* Joe Sherburne's 20-point performance (22) at Coppin State was the sixth of his career. He has passed five players on UMBC's all-time scoring list this season and sits in 11th place with 1,273 points.

* Sherburne is 21st among all active Division I players in three-point field goals made. He now has 235, moving into fifth place on UMBC's all-time list. He is also tied for 20th among active players with 115 games played and moved into UMBC's all-time top ten (fifth) with 3,488 minutes played.

* UMBC did not play an overtime game last season. With the 50-minute loss to Towson, UMBC fell to 3-2 in extra-time affairs under Odom.

* UMBC did not score first in their five games (4-1). Moreover, each of the those Retriever foes opened the scoring with three-balls. UMBC won the tip and scored first in each game of the 3-game slide, but got back on track with a lost tip/3-ball against in the win over Coppin. They are 6-2 when their foe scores first and 1-4 when they do.

* UMBC has won 13 of the last 17 games when the margin of victory is in single digits, but has dropped the last two. UMBC has also won three of nine this season when trailing at the half and are a solid 9-13 over the last two seasons when behind at intermission.

* UMBC outscored Coppin State and Drexel by combined 36 points in the second halves and are a +81 after intermission this season. The Retrievers sunk 37-of-57 (64.9%) shot from the floor in the second halves of those road victories.

* The early season four-game winning streak matches the second-longest for the Retrievers under Ryan Odom. UMBC got out to a 4-0 start to his tenure in 2016-17, then won six straight, capped by the NCAA Tournament win over Virginia in 2017-18. Through 92 games, UMBC has not experienced a four-game slide (or more) under Coach Odom.

* UMBC's 64-point second half vs. Shenandoah on Nov. 10 broke the Retrievers' NCAA DI mark for points in a half (59, vs. UML, 2-18-17) and the all-time school record (62 vs. G.Mason, 1-30-78) for points in 20 minutes.

* UMBC currently leads America East in defense, allowing 66.2 points per game. The Retrievers are also first in turnover margin (3.92) and steals (8.15). They are 24th in the nation in total steals (106) and 26th in turnovers forced (17.3) per game.

2017-18: A YEAR TO REMEMBER

- The 2017-18 UMBC men's basketball team became the first No. 16 seed in the history of the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship to defeat a No. 1 seed when the Retrievers knocked off Virginia, 74-54, March 16, 2018 in Charlotte, N.C. (South Region).
- UMBC's win over Virginia was...
 - Its first over any ranked team (the Retrievers' only win over a major conference for occurred in December of 2008, when they won at Nebraska, 66-64)
 - Its first over Virginia in four meetings
 - Its first-ever win over an ACC team (previously 0-19 vs. current ACC roster)
 - Its first-ever NCAA Division I Tournament win
- UMBC made its second appearance in the NCAA Men's Basketball Division I Championships. Their two America East titles and automatic bids have occurred in 2008 and 2018. In the America East title game, the second-seeded Retrievers snapped a 23-game losing streak at top-seeded Vermont and defeated the Catamounts, 65-62 on a trey by graduate student guard Jairus Lyles with 0.6 left on the clock.
- UMBC's season came to an end with a 50-43 setback to eventual "Elite Eight" squad Kansas State.
- The Retrievers set a school record with 25 victories. The previous mark of 24 was set in the 2007-08 season, when UMBC made its first NCAA DI Tournament appearance.
- UMBC made its third appearance in the America East Championship game and its first since 2009. The Retrievers reached the title contest in both 2008 and 2009, defeating Hartford, 82-65, to win their lone crown in 2008 and falling toinghamton, 61-51, the following season.
- Under Ryan Odom, for the first time in 32 years of NCAA Division I play, UMBC has posted back-to-back 20-win seasons. They recorded back-to-back double-digit win seasons for the first time since the 2007-08 and 2008-09 campaigns. The 46 wins over the last two seasons has surpassed the program's previous best two-year DI total of 39 ('07-'08/'08-'09). UMBC won a total of 41 games in the seven previous seasons.

- The record of 25-11 marks just the second time in 32 seasons of NCAA Division I competition that the program has finished the season 14 games over .500. The other year was 2007-08 when the Retrievers were +15 (24-9).
- The 12 America East victories is the second-most in 15 seasons of league play. The 2007-08 title team posted a 13-3 record. The 6-2 conference road record equals the mark of that championship squad.
- UMBC set a school Division I mark with 11 consecutive home victories. The 11-0 start at home in one season sets a new school mark. The 15 home triumphs are the most-ever at the NCAA Division I level and the second-most in school history (16, 1979-80).
- The five consecutive road wins was the longest streak since a four-gamer in 2007-08.
- Jairus Lyles became the first player in school history to record a pair of 500-point seasons.
- UMBC played its 36th game vs. Kansas State, the most in a single season in school history.
- Lyles moved into second-place on the school's career scoring list with 1,751 points. He also set UMBC single-season records for points scored (665) points, scoring average (20.4) and free throws made (380).
- UMBC's defensive scoring average of 68.5 points per game ranked T-73rd in the nation, a far cry of from the ranking of 288 (77.2 ppg) in 2016-17.
- UMBC bid farewell to two basketball staff members were hired as head Division I coaches this past spring and summer. Griff Aldrich is now the head men's basketball coach at Longwood (Va.) University, while Baltimore native Eric Skeeters is the bench boss at Delaware State. No other Division I school has reported that circumstance – having two staffers hired as head Division I coaches in the same year. Matt Henry and Colby Lewis have replaced Skeeters and Aldrich respectively on the 2018-19 staff.

UMBC AT PENN STATE | SAT., DEC. 29 | 1:00 P.M. |

A Glance at the Nittany Lions: Penn State has won or lost two straight one time each in a 6-6 start to the season. They are 4-1 at home, with the lone setback occurring vs. Indiana, a 64-62 decision on 4.

In their most recent outing, PSU dropped a 73-64 decision at Alabama on Dec. 21. Sophomore forward Trent Buttrick led the Lions with 13 points off the bench. Junior forward Lamar Stevens added 12, but misfired on 13 of 19 shots from the floor and all six shots from long range. PSU shot just 38.2 percent from the field in the game.

Stevens averages team highs in scoring (19.1) and rebounding (8.3). Freshman guard Rasir Bolton chips in at 13.8 points per game and leads PSU with 27 treys. The Nittany Lions force 15.3 miscues per game.

Series Record/Last Meeting: Penn State has won all three previous meetings, including a 58-42 win at the Bryce Jordan Center in December of 2009. UMBC was en route to a 4-26 campaign.

In the 1991-92 season, the two teams met twice, the first game in University Park and the second, at the Baltimore Arena (now Royal Farms Arena) in downtown Baltimore. UMBC dropped a narrow 81-77 decision as the Lions swept the two-game series.

UMBC EVENT CENTER

Pictured left, construction began in March of 2016 on a $90-million dollar new home for UMBC Basketball and the Department of Athletics. The facility opened on Feb. 3, 2018, when the Retrievers hosted Vermont. The game drew a UMBC Basketball record crowd of 4,753.

The 172,000 square-foot facility is situated adjacent to both the UMBC Stadium Complex and Retriever Soccer Park. Located on the third floor, the UMBC athletics department moved its administrative and coaches' offices into the facility in March of 2018. In addition, The Retriever Room adorns the third floor and is a 2,100-square foot multi-functional space. It serves as a VIP area for basketball games and also provides a great view of events held at UMBC Stadium.

The Retriever Team Store is located on the concourse, adjacent to the ticket office. It features Retriever apparel and other items, many of which commemorate UMBC's historic win over Virginia in the 2018 NCAA Tournament.
