2017-18 REGULAR SEASON RECAP

- The Irish opened the regular season with a weekend sweep of Alabama-Huntsville, outscoring the Chargers 9-3 while Dylan St. Cyr backstopped the Irish to a 4-0 victory in his first career start in net.
- After starting the season 3-3-1, the Irish went on a 16-game win-streak, the longest winning-streak in program history.
- Their historic 16-game win-streak began with a 5-4 triumph over Nebraska-Omaha in late October, spurring the longest win-streak in collegiate hockey last season.
- Notre Dame won their first 13 conference games in the Big Ten, marking the first time a team had swept each conference opponent during their first meeting as conference foes.
- The win streak ended at the United Center in Chicago as the Irish lost to Wisconsin, nearly three months after it began.
- The team finished with the best record in the Big Ten conference, posting a 17-6-1 conference record to claim the regular season Big Ten Championship.
- They clinched the regular season title after defeating Ohio State 2-1 in early February.

2018 POST-SEASON SUCCESS

- Coined the “comeback kids” for their last minute success, the Irish scored in the final seconds of regulation or overtime to come out on top in five of their six postseason contests.
- With the Big Ten semifinal game tied with 31 seconds remaining in overtime, Jack Jenkins netted the game winner to send the team to the championship game against Ohio State.
- Notre Dame played host to the 2017-18 Big Ten Championship game where they defeated Ohio State 3-2 behind an overtime game-winner from Cam Morrison.
- Following two conference titles in their first season with the Big Ten, the Irish made their third consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to their second-straight Frozen Four.
- The NCAA East Regional saw both a 4-3 overtime victory over Michigan Tech for the Irish before topping Providence College in the final minute of regulation to advance to the Frozen Four.

- In their second consecutive Frozen Four appearance, hosted at the Xcel Energy Center in Saint Paul, Minnesota, the Irish advanced to the National Championship game after Jake Evans sent the puck home with five seconds left in the third period, defeating Michigan 4-3.
- With Notre Dame, Michigan and Ohio State in Saint Paul, the Frozen Four included at least three schools from the same conference for just the fifth time in history and the first time since 2005.
- It marked the second time Jeff Jackson has been a part of a conference sending at least three teams to the Frozen Four, as his Lake Superior State Lakers won the 1992 national title at a Frozen Four that included Michigan and Michigan State from the CCHA.
 - 2018 - Big Ten (Michigan, Notre Dame, Ohio State)
 - 2005 - WCHA (Colorado College, Denver, Minnesota, North Dakota)
 - 1999 - Hockey East (Boston College, New Hampshire, Maine)

CALE SAVES EVERYTHING

- Notre Dame goaltender Cale Morris was named recipient of the 2017-18 Mike Richter Award, presented annually to the nation’s top goaltender, prior to the NCAA National Championship game.
- He was also named a Hobey Baker Award Top 10 Finalist last season. Morris led the nation in save percentage (.944) and victories (27), while his 1.94 goals against average ranked eighth in the country.
- He also earned First Team West CCM/AHCA All-American honors, making him the second Irish player in as many years to earn All-American honors and first to make first-team honors since Ian Cole in 2008-09.
- Morris totaled 1,202 saves on the season, which leads the nation. He is one of just eight goalies to have surpassed 1,000 saves last year.
- In addition, he faced more shots than any other goaltender at 1,273 (Arizona State’s Joey Daccord was second at 1,193) and was the only goaltender in the nation to face more than 1,200 shots.
- In Notre Dame’s record book, his single-season save percentage ranks first all-time, while his goals against average is third and his total saves puts him sixth.
- In addition to earning Big Ten Tournament Most Outstanding Player honors, Big Ten Player of the Year and Big Ten Goaltender of the Year, Morris has been named a Big Ten Star of the week eight times this season, including five First Star honors. He was named to the NCAA East Regional All-Regional team.
- In a 2-2 overtime tie at Penn State (Feb. 3, 2018), Morris made a career-high 55 saves and he stopped an Andrew Sturtz penalty shot in overtime to preserve the tie and followed with two saves in the shootout to help the Irish grab the extra Big Ten point.
- Morris becomes the fourth player in Notre Dame history to make the Hobey Baker final 10, joining Anders Bjork (2017), David Brown (2007) and Dave Poulin (1982).
- A native of Larkspur, Colorado, Morris is the first player from the Centennial State to play his way into the Hobey Top 10.

2017-18 BIG AWARDS

- On March 13, Cale Morris became the second player in Notre Dame history to be named conference player of the year, while becoming the third Irish net minder to earn conference goaltender of the year awards. Morris was named Big Ten Player and Goaltender of the Year, while also earning first team All-Big Ten accolades.
- He was joined on the All-Big Ten first team by Jake Evans and Jordan Gross, while Andrew Oglevie was named Notre Dame’s Big Ten Sportsmanship Award honoree.
- The last Notre Dame player to collect player and goaltender of the year awards at the conference level was also the last time an Irish player won both awards in the same year, as David Brown earned both designations from the CCHA in 2006-07. The only other Notre Dame player to earn goaltender of the year was Jordan Pearce, also in the CCHA, one season later.

- You also have to return to the CCHA days to find the last time Notre Dame had three first team all-league selections. In 2008-09, right wing Erik Condra, center Christian Hanson and defenseman Kyle Lawson were all first-team honorees. This season marks just the third time the Irish have had three first-team selections, with 2003-04 being the other year as Aaron Gill, Rob Globke and Brett Lebda all received first team All-CCHA nods.

With the wins came a commitment from the University that led to the new home of Irish hockey - The Compton Family Ice Arena - one of the finest college hockey facilities in the nation. The new venue opened on Oct. 21, 2011.
