MEAC CHAMPIONSHIP RELEASE

PRINCESS ANNE, MD --- Semifinalists in 2013. Finalists in 2014. Champions in 2015.

The steady progression and resurgence of a program is complete.

The Howard University women's volleyball team are champions of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) after the Northern Division champion Bison defeated the Southern Division champ Bethune-Cookman University in straight sets (25-18, 25-18, 25-21) to earn its eighth conference title and first since 1994.

Howard's 13th straight victory delivered the MEAC title and the conference's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, a first ever for the program. The 1994 team played in a NCAA Play-In game, falling in three sets to DMV area foe George Mason.

The title is also Howard's first MEAC championship since Softball won the regular season & tournament titles in 2007.

Howard (18-13) was led by Tournament Outstanding Player & All-Tournament selection Khaila Donaldson. The sophomore outside hitter led the Bison in kills & digs in the match with a 17 kill-16 dig double-double, her 12th of the season. Freshman outside hitter Courtney Dalton, who was also named to the All-Tournament team, finished with 11 kills, five block assists and three digs. Dalton led Howard in kills (45), kills per set (4.50) and hitting percentage (.400, min. 10 kills) during HU's three-game run to the conference crown.

Junior libero Morgan Marlborough had 15 digs as one of our four players with 10+ digs (Katherine Broussard/Tamia Dockery, 11). Her performance puts her at 483 digs for the season, breaking former Bison Allyson Lods' school record from 2013.

Dockery logged 22 assists and junior setter Briana Jackson added 16 while juniors Janaya Hampton & Dominique Cleggett once again controlled the middle, recording seven of the team's 14 block assists.

A season after winning the 2014 MEAC Coach of the Year award, fourth-year head coach Shaun Kupferberg was named Tournament Outstanding Coach after leading the Bison to its third straight winning season and the first NCAA Tournament appearance of his career.

Volleyball's championship marks an outstanding month for Howard Athletics, coming exactly two weeks after the Bison women's soccer team won its second straight Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) Championship and earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid.

Bethune-Cookman, led by 2015 MEAC Coach of the Year & Howard Volleyball alum Brittany Williams, ended its season at 15-16.

HEAD COACH SHAUN KUPFERBERG

In 2012, Shaun Kupferberg was named as the new head women's volleyball coach and in four seasons has led a gradual and complete turnaround of the Bison program.

Kupferberg and the Bison went from winning one game and missing the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) Tournament in 2012 to making the Tournament semifinals in 2013, the MEAC Championship Game in 2014 and winning the conference in 2015. During that span, Kupferberg - the 2014 MEAC Coach of the Year - has led Howard to two 20-win seasons, at least a share of the MEAC Northern Division title in 2014 & 2015, over two dozen All-MEAC and MEAC All-Academic honors and the first MEAC Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance since 1994.

Prior to Kupferberg's appointment at HU, the Miami University graduate was the head women's volleyball coach at Jacksonville University in Jacksonville, Fla., for five seasons (2006-11). During his tenure there, he led the squad to four consecutive winning seasons (2006-09). Kupferberg guided the Dolphins to the title match of the Atlantic Sun conference tournament on two occasions.

ence tournament on two occasions.

In 2008, Kupferberg's team notched a program-best 20-10 record. He followed with a 19-9 mark the following year. In the process, eight of his student-athletes were named to the all-conference teams.

Equally impressive was Kupferberg's academic leadership. Fifty-two of his student athletes were selected to the academic all-conference team and garnered a team grade point average of 3.5 or higher (on a 4.00 scale).

Prior to his coaching tenure with the Dolphins, Kupferberg spent five seasons at Northwest University in Kirkland, Wash., as the head women's volleyball coach. Over the course of that period, Kupferberg increased the school's winning percentage. He started his career at Northwest with a record of 12-14 and gradually showed progress, leading the team to a 28-4 mark during his last season there.

While he was still an undergraduate student at Miami University, Kupferberg served as the head women's volleyball coach for the University's club team, acquiring three years of invaluable collegiate coaching experience to jump start coaching career.

During his time as head coach of the club program, he developed a nationally recognized program with three consecutive Top 10 national finishes. Kupferberg displayed his other skills as he developed sponsorships with Mizuno, Pepsi and Jimmy Jones, and served as the tournament director for 11 major tournaments hosted by Miami University.

At the high school level, Kupferberg was the assistant coach at Union County High School in Oxford, Ind., during the fall of 2000. As the assistant coach, he introduced a more effective offensive and defensive system to better fit the athletic abilities of his student-athletes while helping guide the team to the Indiana state semi-finals.

Kupferberg obtained his Bachelors of Science degree in Health and Sports Studies with a concentration in Sports Organization from Miami University in 2000.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR KERY DAVIS

On Wednesday, September 9, Howard University President, Dr. Wayne A. I. Frederick announced that Kery D. Davis has been appointed as the University's new Director of Athletics. The announcement was made during a press conference at Campus Hall South.

"After an extensive national search, Kery emerged as the ideal candidate to spearhead the future of Howard's Division I athletics program," Frederick said. "As an experienced student-athlete, sports executive, and administrator, Kery comes to Howard with the requisite skills and passion to lead our athletics program. Under Kery's leadership, I have no doubt that Howard's student-athletes will continue to flourish at the highest levels on the field and in the classroom. We are excited to have him as our new director of athletics, building on the foundation of excellence established by Shelley Davis, who served as an exceptional interim athletics director."

"I am incredibly thankful to Dr. Frederick and the entire Howard University community for this tremendous opportunity," Davis said. "Dr. Frederick's vision and commitment to achieve at the highest academic and athletic levels is quite impressive. It is clearly evident that the university is fully engaged in helping make that vision a reality. Our coaches, staff, and student-athletes will strive to enhance the university's mission and national brand through an ongoing commitment to excellence."

Davis joins Howard University with an impressive track record of accomplishments during his most recent tenure with HBO Sports. Davis is credited with negotiating lucrative multiyear agreements for HBO with major league sports as well as an impressive roster of professional athletes. Davis provided leadership, oversight and both strategic and creative direction to various functions at HBO; and successfully negotiated numerous multiyear professional boxing contracts with Oscar De La Hoya, Roy Jones, Jr., Lennox Lewis, Shane Mosley, Manny Pacquiao and Floyd Mayweather, Jr.

Davis holds a law degree from Cornell University, and a bachelor's degree in political science from Dartmouth College.

PRESIDENT WAYNE A.I. FREDERICK

Scholar, surgeon, researcher and respected administrator, Dr. Wayne A.I. Frederick is the 17th President of Howard University. He previously served as Provost and Chief Academic Officer with oversight of Howard's 13 schools and colleges as well as its health sciences enterprise.

Prior to Howard, he served as the Associate Director of the Carole and Ray Neag Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Director of Surgical Oncology and an Assistant Professor in the Department of Surgery at University of Connecticut Health Center. Since returning to Howard in 2006, Dr. Frederick has held several leadership positions including Associate Dean in the College of Medicine, Division Chief in the Department of Surgery, Director of the Cancer Center and Deputy Provost for Health Sciences.

Dr. Frederick is a master teacher who has received teaching awards each year since the beginning of his tenure. In addition to his work as an administrator, faculty member and surgeon, Dr. Frederick is a noted researcher who is committed to bridging health disparities, with a particular emphasis on cancer outcomes among African Americans and other underrepresented groups. He has served as the principal investigator for major collaborations with the National Cancer Institute, Johns Hopkins University and local and national minority-serving oncology programs. He has published dozens of peer-reviewed articles, book chapters, abstracts and editorials. Dr. Frederick is the immediate past Chair of the Surgical Section of the National Medical Association. He has also served as Director of the Drew-Walker Residents Forum of the Surgical Section of the National Medical Association and Vice Chairman of the District of Columbia Board of Medicine.

Born in Port of Spain, Trinidad, Frederick came to Howard University at age 16 with a dream of becoming a physician. His passion to serve and to heal was driven by the personal impact of sickle cell anemia, a hereditary disease Dr. Frederick has lived with since birth. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Zoology from the College of Arts and Sciences and his medical degree from the College of Medicine at age 22. Dr. Frederick later earned a Master of Business Administration from the School of Business. He completed a post-doctoral research fellowship and a surgical oncology fellowship at the University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center.

He has received numerous awards, including being named a "Super Doctor" by The Washington Post and listed on Ebony magazine's Power 100 in 2010. He was named one of America's Best Physicians by Black Enterprise magazine. In 2000, the government of Trinidad and Tobago recognized him for outstanding achievement in medicine. The Institute of Caribbean Studies honored Dr. Frederick with the prestigious Vanguard Award in 2010; he recently received the NIHERST Award for Excellence in Science and Technology.
