Lindenwood Notes

- The Lady Lions victory over No. 10 ranked Northeastern on Oct. 10 marked the third win over a ranked opponent in program history. The last victory against a ranked team came on January 3, 2015 vs. Bemidji State.

- During the two-game road trip, Shara Jasper registered five goals and two assists including a hat-trick during the Lady Lions 4-2 victory over No. 10 Northeastern Huskies

- Freshman goalie Jolene deBruyn recorded her first-career victory on Oct. 10 at Northeastern. deBruyn turned in 38 saves in the contest, including 19 saves during a scoreless first period, propelling Lindenwood to the upset victory.

- Jasper and deBruyn were honored as the CHA Player and Goalie of the Week, respectively, for the week of Oct. 5 – Oct. 11. For Jasper, this marks the second time this season she has won the award, while deBruyn garnered the honors for the first time in her career.

- Sophomore Sarah Bobrowski tallied four assists during the two Lady Lion road games, growing her season total to seven. Bobrowski currently ranks second on the team in points with eight.

- Lindenwood currently has four skaters with a positive plus/minus rating. Jasper leads the way with a +7, followed by Bobrowski and Shannon Morris-Reade with a +3 rating, and Carrie Atkinson has a +1 rating. Last season, the Lady Lions wrapped up the year with just one skater earning a positive rating.

Head Coach Scott Spencer

Scott Spencer is in his second season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey program in 2015-16. He has been a hockey coach for the last 12 years, including the last nine in women's hockey.

In his first year in charge of the program, the Lady Lions had the best season in their short NCAA history. Lindenwood reached double-figure wins for the first time, picked up at least one win over every CHA program, and had a win over three WCHA programs, including nationally-ranked Bemidji State. Lindenwood became a tough team to beat at the Lindenwood Ice Arena, winning more games than its first three seasons combined.

Under Spencer, Lindenwood's offense had its highest goals per game total against NCAA Division I competition. On defense, the Lady Lions' Goals Against Average was 0.41 lower than the previous season, and they allowed nearly 10 shots a game fewer than 2013-14.

Spencer helped two players earn first-team all-conference honors in Nicole Hensley and Shara Jasper. Nicole Hensley also earned Academic All-American honors, and was one of 16 players to earn CHA Academic honors.

Prior to coming to Lindenwood, Spencer was the Director of Female Hockey and Female Midget Head Coach at the Pursuit of Excellence Hockey Academy in Kelowna, British Columbia for two years. Pursuit of Excellence is one of North America's premiere hockey academies and Spencer oversaw all facets of the women's program, as well coaching both under-19 AAA hockey teams.

His Pursuit of Excellence teams had success on the ice, including being a bronze medalist at the 2013 World Sport School National Championships and a silver medalist at the 2014 World Sport School National Championships. Seven players at Pursuit of Excellence became under-18 national team members, and 100 percent of his graduates moved on to play college hockey. His teams had an overall record of 77-38-20 in his two seasons at Pursuit of Excellence.

In 2011-12, Spencer was an assistant coach at Ohio State University. He helped the Buckeyes go 16-16-4 that season, an improvement by several wins over the last season. Among the players he coached that season included Natalie Spooner, an All-American and finalist for the Patty Kazmaier National Player of the Year Award.

Spencer was an assistant coach at Robert Morris University from 2006-2011, including being the Associate Head Coach in 2010-11. He coached seven all-conference players, two conference Rookie of the Year award winners, and one rookie All-American. Spencer was the head recruiting coordinator for the Colonials, including having a hand in recruiting every member of the team that won the 2012 CHA Tournament Championship.

Spencer played collegiately at the ACHA Division I level for Minot State. He was a four-year letterwinner and helped the team make three national tournaments. Minot State finished in the top-10 nationally three times, including coming in third in 2001-02. He was a team captain and earned the Player's Player Award in 2000-01 for his work ethic and putting the team first. Spencer received honorable mention honors at the 2002 ACHA National Tournament.

Spencer received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minot State in 2002 in Physical Education, with a minor in Coaching. He earned his Master's in Sports Studies from Bemidji State in 2012.
