THE OPENER

Bowling Green State University begins its 43rd season of intercollegiate gymnastics when the Falcons travel to University Park, Pa. for a quad meet hosted by Penn State University on Saturday, Jan. 7. The meet begins at 4:00 p.m. ET and will also include Brigham Young University and Temple University. Saturday's event begins the tenth season in the tenure of head coach Kerrie Turner, as well as the final season for three seniors: Lauren Feely, Victoria Heath and Rachel Reis.

THE ALL-TIME SERIES

BGSU has previously faced each of their three opponents in the season-opening meet but only a combined four times. The Falcons defeated the Temple Owls 193.350-190.125 in 1999 at Philadelphia, Pa. in the schools' only all-time meeting. Bowling Green has also faced Penn State only once. That occurred during Turner's first season (2008), and the Falcons lost the road meet to the Nittany Lions 195.025-189.800. BGSU is 0-2 against BYU with losses in 2001 and 2015. In the most recent meet, the Cougars won at Knoxville, Tenn. in the Ozone Collegiate Classic (193.075-191.175). In 2001, the Falcons dropped a 193.600-192.250 decision to BYU in Columbia, Mo. at the CAT Classic.

SCOUTING THE OPPOSITION

Meet host Penn State begins the 2017 season ranked 23rd in the preseason coaches' poll. In 2016, the team was 11-7 overall and 6-3 in the Big Ten. The Nittany Lions finished fourth in the Big Ten Championships, then placed fifth overall in Ann Arbor, Mich. at the NCAA Regionals. Penn State has several key returning gymnasts, led by junior Briannah Tsang. Tsang registered PSU's top 2016 score in the vault and floor exercise and represented the team at the 2016 NCAA Championships. Senior Kiera Brown was the top scorer for PSU in uneven bars and all-around and second-highest on vault, beam and floor. Fellow senior Nicole Medvitz posted an amazing 9.975 at the Big Five Qualifier on March 12. Head Coach Jeff Thompson begins his seventh season at PSU on Saturday.

BYU is ranked 36th in the preseason coaches' poll following a 2016 season in which the Cougars went 4-9 and placed third in the Mountain Rim Gymnastics Conference. BYU traveled to Minneapolis, Minn. for an appearance in the NCAA Regional and placed sixth overall. The Cougars' squad of 18 athletes includes nine freshmen and four sophomores. Of the returning athletes, only junior Mackenzie Douglas registered a 9.900 or better in 2016. Head Coach Guard Young is in his second season.

Temple finished 1-2 in dual meets in 2016 and won just one of their nine multi-team meets. The Owls had a season-best overall team score of 192.525 at the Eastern College Athletic Conference Championships, where they placed fifth out of six teams. Senior Briana Odom scored a 9.85 in the floor exercise for the Owls' highest individual score of 2016. Head Coach Umme Salim-Beasley begins her second season on Saturday.

ELITE SCHEDULING

The Falcons' strength of schedule is ranked 29th nationally headed into the 2017 season. The rating is tabulated by reverse-assigning points to each team based on their final 2016 ranking. BGSU's opponents combined to provide 646 points for an average of 49.69. Ten of Bowling Green's 16 opponents are ranked in the 2017 preseason coaches' poll; that includes seven of the team's ten non-conference opponents.

ROUTINE GREATNESS

Bowling Green produced three of the school's top ten all-time team scores in 2016. In a meet against Ohio State and West Virginia, the Falcons posted a 195.725, a mark only eclipsed five times in school history. On Senior Night against Northern Illinois, BGSU shattered the school record with a 196.500. Only once previously in team history had the Falcons broken the 196 barrier. Finally, at the MAC Championships, BGSU scored a 195.625. It was the best team score ever for the Falcons at the MACs and was the tenth-best in team history.

MAKING HISTORY NOW

The Falcons qualified as a team for the NCAA Regionals in 2016. It was the team's first trip to the NCAA postseason in 25 years and the seventh in school history. Bowling Green finished the event with an overall mark of 193.850, the best-ever team score at the event for BGSU. The Falcons also have regional appearances in 1982, 1984, 1985, 1986, 1987 and 1991.

PROGRAM HISTORY

First Season: 1975
All-Time Record: xx-xx-xx

Senior Lauren Feely will go down as one of the best gymnasts in BGSU history. She owns a place on BGSU's all-time top-ten individual score lists for vault, floor exercise and all-around competition. She is also just the fifth athlete in team history to win multiple MAC championships and the first since Marny Oestreg (1999-2002). She took the vault championship in 2015, then last season, won the all-around championship with a 39.300. Feely is a two-time Academic All-MAC honoree and was a CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2016.

RANKED IN THE MAC

Several members of the 2017 Falcons finished ranked in the top ten in the MAC for average individual event scores during the 2016 season. Senior Lauren Feely's 9.796 in the vault was third in the MAC, and she ranked fifth in floor exercise and fourth in all-around. Fellow senior Victoria Heath was in the top ten for vault (tenth) and floor (eighth), and the team's third senior, Rachel Reis, ranked tenth on bars. Junior Laura Mitchell (9.798) carried the MAC's best average on the beam, thanks in part to her MAC championship in the event.

PUTTING THE STUDENT IN STUDENT-ATHLETE

Falcon gymnasts value excellence in the classroom just as much as they do in the gym. Last July, BGSU was recognized as having the 19th-best team GPA nationally (3.5312) and nine Falcons were named NACGC/W Scholastic All-America. Five members of the team were recognized as Academic All-MAC following the 2016 season, and Lauren Feely earned CoSIDA Academic All-American honors. In 2016's fall semester, the team GPA rose to 3.677 and nine Falcons carried 4.0 averages.

NEW FACES, HIGHER STAKES

The 2017 Falcons feature an exciting class of newcomers that could make an immediate impact for BGSU and push the returning athletes to new heights. The roster will include six freshmen (Lexi Augustine, Jovannah East, Alex Johnston, Randi Morris, Shannon St. Jean and Taylor Worthington), as well as India McPeak, who is a junior transfer from the University of Michigan.

PRESEASON POLL

The Falcons were picked to finish tied for third in the Mid-American Conference in 2017 as voted on by the league's head coaches. Kent State was selected to win the conference, while Central Michigan was chosen to place second. Eastern Michigan and Bowling Green followed, with Northern Illinois, Western Michigan and Ball State rounding out the conference. In a show of the parity within the conference, each team received one first-place vote in the poll.

GYMNASTICS ADDITIONS

BGSU and head coach Kerrie Turner announced the signings of four student-athletes for the 2018 season in November. The additions are Whitney Cronin (High Point, N.C.), Alexandra Fochler (Cranberry Township, Pa.), Nacaida Kearns (Waterford, Ohio) and Samantha Marion (Franklin Lakes, N.J.).

KERRIE TURNER

Head Gymnastics Coach

Tenth Season

Ursinus College, 1999

Kerrie Turner begins her tenth season as head coach of the Bowling Green State University gymnastics program in 2017. Turner was named to the position on Nov. 1, 2007 after serving four seasons as an assistant under Dan Connelly beginning in 2003.

During her first nine seasons as head coach, Turner won the 2013 MAC Coach of the Year award, mentored six Mid-American Conference individual champions, led the team to its first NCAA Regional appearance in 25 years, and coached nine individual NCAA Regional qualifiers, six of whom qualified in multiple seasons. Her athletes have twice won MAC Freshman of the Year and have also captured MAC Senior Gymnast of the Year and MAC Specialist of the Year awards. She has also coached three athletes named first team All-MAC.

In the classroom, the Falcons have shined throughout Turner's tenure. Under her watch, Falcon gymnasts have been named Scholastic All-American 34 times, while nine different Falcons have earned Academic All-MAC status a total of 17 times. In 2016, Lauren Feely was named to the CoSIDA Academic All-American women's at-large team.

The 2016 season was one of unprecedented success for Turner and the Falcons. Bowling Green qualified for the NCAA Regionals as a team for the first time since 1991, as they finished sixth of six teams (193.850) at the University of Alabama. At the MAC Championships, the Falcons placed third with a 195.625. The overall score was the best-ever for BGSU at the MAC meet, and the third-place finish tied with the 2014 team for the best in Turner's nine seasons. The team earned three of the top ten scores in school history during the 2016 season, including a new school record of 196.500 on Senior Night against Northern Illinois. The team also set a new balance team record (49.250).

Two individual athletes, Lauren Feely (all-around) and Laura Mitchell (beam), won MAC championships in 2016. The pair join Alyssa Nocella and Jamilah Ali (2013) as the only instances of two individual MAC champions in one season for BGSU since 2001. The team led the MAC with seven weekly award winners and tied a program high with five Academic All-MAC selections. Nocella concluded her BGSU career with a Female Scholar Athlete of the Week award (Feb. 17), two Gymnast of the Week awards, the MAC Senior of the Year award, and first-team All-MAC status. She also became one of two athletes in Falcon gymnastics history to be named Academic All-MAC in three consecutive years.

In 2015, Turner coached the Falcons to their best season since 2002. BGSU opened the 2015 season with the program's first win over a Big Ten Conference opponent since 2004 and went on to defeat Michigan State again to secure two wins over the Big Ten across one season for the first time since 2002. The Falcons were ranked No. 14 in the country according to GymInfo, which is the second best in program history.

The Orange and Brown scored a season-best 195.700 to defeat Kent State for the first time in Bowling Green since 1999. Three team scores from the 2015 season (195.700 vs. Kent State, 195.500 vs. Ball State, 195.250 at MSU) rank inside of the top 10 in program history.

Individually, Alyssa Nocella was named First Team All-MAC for the second straight season, becoming the first Falcon to accomplish this feat since Marny Oestreg took home the honor across 1999-2001. She also became just the third BGSU gymnast across the last 15 years to qualify for three straight regionals. Lauren Feely became the third Falcon in as many years to win at least a share of the MAC Vault Championship, as she scored a career-best 9.900 on the event. Feely was also named to the All-Tournament Team.

In 2014, Turner guided BGSU to its best finish in 22 years. The Falcons went 4-2 in conference play during the regular season and placed third at the MAC Championships. Amanda Lievendag took home the vault title at the event, and three gymnasts (Megan Harrington, Alyssa Nocella and Gina Locigno) went on to qualify for regionals.

The Orange and Brown posted historic scores in 2014. The team's vault score of 49.125 versus Central Michigan on Feb. 9 is the best in program history. At the same meet, BGSU totaled a score of 195.550, which ranks sixth in school history. The team's total of 195.925, which was earned on March 6, is fourth best in the annals of Bowling Green gymnastics.

Individually, Nocella and Locigno registered scores in the all-around and balance beam that rank in the top-five in program history. Feely's 9.900 in vault at the Chicago Style Invite places her tied for third in BGSU's record books, while Lievendag totaled two scores that rank her in the top-five on uneven bars.

In 2013, Ali (vault) and Nocella (balance beam) took home MAC titles. Nocella then scored a 9.85 on floor at the NCAA regionals – the highest score from a Falcon at regionals since 1999. The Falcons finished 5-11 and 3-3 in the MAC.

Turner's 2012 squad also placed fifth at the MAC Championships, but an era-high four Falcons qualified for regionals and Harrington was named to the Academic All-MAC team.

In 2011, the Orange and Brown started a rebuilding process. Nine of the 13 Falcons on the roster were underclassmen. The young team set a foundation for future success, as BGSU has increased its win total over each of the past three seasons since the 1-12 campaign in 2011.

In her third year as head coach in 2010, Turner led the team to a 4-2 record in the Mid-American Conference – the highest finish since 2002. The Falcons' five-meet win streak after an 0-2 start was the program's best stretch in over eight years. Dawn Christman, along with being an Academic All-MAC selection, won an outright MAC title (floor) for the first time since national champion Marny Oestreg won the all-around and vault in 2000. Turner also sent three Falcons to regionals that year – the most since 1982.

In 2009, Bowling Green finished fourth at the MAC Championships, which was the Orange and Brown's highest finish since 2005. Turner also coached Breanne Guy to a tenth place finish in the all-around at the NCAA regionals.

Turner's first season after being promoted to head coach saw the Falcons finish 9-12 (3-3 MAC). Jacquelyn Bernhardt was named MAC Specialist of the Year, and two gymnasts secured spots to compete at the NCAA regionals.

As an assistant from 2003-07, Turner was an integral part in coaching seven Falcons to top-10 performances in program history on the balance beam and floor.

Turner arrived to Bowling Green after serving as the head gymnastics coach at the University of Wisconsin-Oshkosh for three seasons (2001-2003). She was named WIAC Coach of the Year in 2003 while also working as an admissions counselor for the university.

Prior to Wisconsin-Oshkosh, Turner was an assistant coach at her alma mater, Ursinus College, from Oct. 1999 through March 2000.

A native of Wilton, Conn., Turner was a gymnast for Ursinus from 1996-99 and was elected team captain during her junior and senior seasons.
