2019 PENN STATE MEN'S GOLF TOURNAMENT
BLUE COURSE | UNIVERSITY PARK, PA | APRIL 13-14

43RD ANNUAL RUTHERFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE

HOSTED BY PENN STATE GOLF

Dear Coaches, Players & Friends,

Welcome to the 43rd annual Rutherford Intercollegiate. This event is steeped with tradition of Eastern golf, and we are thrilled that you have chosen to be a part of this year's field.

The layout will measure 7,219 yards with a par set at 71. The Blue Course played host to the 2009 Big Ten Men's Golf Championship.

We would like to thank all the volunteers and staff at the Penn State Blue Course for helping to make this tournament possible.

Please let us know if there is anything we can do to make your stay more enjoyable here in Happy Valley.

FORMAT

Five players from each team will compete with the four lowest individual scores after each round counting toward the team total. Teams will be paired in groups of three and will be assigned tee times off 1 and 10. Players for each team will tee off in descending order (5 to 1).

PENN STATE BLUE COURSE

The renovated Blue Course hosted its first major amateur event in 2009, the Big Ten Conference Men's Golf Championship. With the updates and improvements made in 2007, the Blue Course now proudly sits with some of the top courses in the league. The Blue Course has hosted numerous events conducted by the USGA, FCWT, AJGA, IJGT, PGA Junior Series and the West Penn Golf Association.

2018 RUTHERFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE

TEAM CHAMPION PENN STATE | INDIVIDUAL CHAMPION COLE MILLER, SENIOR, PENN STATE

APRIL 14-15, 2018
PENN STATE BLUE COURSE

The Penn State men's golf team held its lead on the final day of the tournament, to claim the program's fourth-consecutive Rutherford Intercollegiate championship. Penn State's team total was 8-under 844, the second-lowest score in 54-hole tournament history and the lowest since shifting the format to 54 holes at 7,202 yards in 2008.

Cole Miller claimed the individual championship at 7-under, shooting an even-par 71 in the final round. His 7-under 206 was the second-lowest individual total since the tournament shifted to par at 213 in 2008.

Three other Nittany Lions finished in the top 10 as JD Hughes (t-3rd), Charles Huntzinger (t-6th) and Ryan Davis (t-8th). Finishing as team runner-up at 7-over was West Virginia. Oakland finished 15-over for third place. Following Miller on the individual leaderboard was West Virginia's Max Sear at 4-under.

43RD ANNUAL RUTHERFORD INTERCOLLEGIATE

R.B. "Pop" Rutherford, Sr.
"Father of Penn State Golf"

The Rutherford Intercollegiate, hosted by Penn State, has become one of the top events in the Northeast, annually featuring a top field of Eastern teams and several squads from around the nation.

The Nittany Lions have dominated the Rutherford since it was established as the Nittany Lion Invitational in 1975, winning the tournament 26 times. Twenty Penn State golfers have medaled atop the leaderboard, the last was Cole Miller, a Nittany Lion senior from New Tripoli, Pennsylvania, in 2018.

The 2018 Rutherford Intercollegiate was the 42nd edition of the tournament. The Nittany Lions won the championship, with a team score of 844 to set the tournament record low, and senior Cole Miller captured the individual title.

The tournament became known as the Rutherford Intercollegiate in 1983 to honor R.B. "Pop" Rutherford Sr., the man known to the Nittany Lions as the "father of Penn State golf."

Rutherford organized the first Penn State golf team in 1922 and coached it until 1949. R.B. Rutherford Jr. continued his father's coaching tradition from 1950-1956 and furthered a legacy recalled each spring.
