KICKOFF

The Michigan State women's soccer travels east for its last two-game weekend road trip of the season.

The Spartans face the No. 17 Ohio State Buckeyes on Friday, Oct. 6 at 5 p.m. in Columbus, Ohio. MSU then goes up against No. 14 Penn State on Sunday, Oct. 8 at 1 p.m. The match will be streamed on BTN Plus.

LAST TIME OUT

In their last match, the Spartans captured their first Big Ten conference victory and snapped a six game losing streak with a 3-2 win over Iowa on Sunday, Oct. 1. Junior forward Lexy Warner scored two goals, while senior forward Jamie Cheslik found the back of the net for her third game-winner of the season.

Redshirt sophomore goalkeeper Reiley Ott made eight saves in the win, her second-most of the year.

SCOUTING THE BUCKEYES

In their last time out, then No. 22-ranked Ohio State knocked off No. 7 Penn State, 1-0. Senior forward Sammy Edwards connected in the 65th minute to win the game for the Buckeyes.

Edwards leads the team with six goals and five assists for 17 points overall, and was named B1G offensive player of the week on Oct. 3. Senior forward Eleanor Gabriel is second on the team in scoring, with nine points off four goals and one assist.

Junior goalkeeper Devon Kerr has started in all 12 games for Ohio State, allowing only six goals for a 0.53 goals against average, the third-best GAA in the conference. Kerr has made 37 saves for a save percentage of .860. She is currently tied for second in the conference in shutouts with six. Kerr has also been named B1G defensive player of the week for the past two weeks.

Michigan State is 10-12-0 overall against Ohio State, looking for their first road win against OSU since 2001. In their last meeting, the Buckeyes defeated the Spartans, 2-0, to end their season on Oct. 28, 2015 in Columbus, Ohio.

SCOUTING THE NITTANY LIONS

The Nittany Lions' last appearance was a 1-0 shutout loss to No. 22 Ohio State on Saturday, Sept. 30. Penn State hosts Michigan on Friday, Oct. 6 before welcoming Michigan State.

Redshirt junior forward Emily Ogle leads the Penn State offense with 10 points, coming from four goals and two assists. Junior forward Charlotte Williams comes close behind with nine points off two goals and five assists.

Redshirt junior goalkeeper Rose Chandler has started all 11 games, earning a 0.91 GAA. Chandler has made 24 saves and collected a .727 save percentage.

In career meetings, Penn State leads Michigan State with a record of 19-5-0 overall, and the Spartans look to get their first road victory over the Nittany Lions. MSU and PSU last met on Oct. 22, 2016 in East Lansing, where the Spartans upset No. 16-ranked Penn State, 3-1, on Senior Day. Current seniors Jamie Cheslik and Morgan McKerchie scored to lift the Spartans to victory.

THE COACHING STAFF

Head coach Tom Saxton is in his 27th season at the helm of the program. He has amassed an overall record of 259-219-50 for a winning percentage of 0.538.

Associate head coach, Tammy Farnum, is in her 21st season with the program. Farnum was a four year letterwinner for the Spartans from 1989-92.

Assistant coach, Stacy DeLonge is in her 15th season. DeLonge was a standout in goal for the Spartans from 2000-03. She posted a school-record 34 wins and ranks second with 22 career shutouts.

CAPTAINS

Senior forwards Jamie Cheslik and Kristelle Yewah along with senior midfielder Morgan McKerchie and junior midfielder Michaela Kovacs captain the 2017-18 Michigan State women's soccer team.

Cheslik, McKerchie and Kovacs started in all 18 games for the Spartans last season. Cheslik and Kovacs were also named to the Big Ten Players to Watch List in preseason. McKerchie earned three points and took 14 corner kicks for MSU, while Yewah collected 18 shots in 13 games.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Cheslik, Kovacs and junior Lexy Warner were named to the 2017 Big Ten Women's Soccer Players to Watch List.

Last season, Cheslik led the team with 14 points on five goals and four assists. Kovacs spent 1,680 minutes on the field at defense, the second-most of any Spartan, and was credited with 13 shots. Warner tallied five points on two goals and one assist, the fourth highest on the team.

FRESHMAN FIGURES

Freshman midfielder Danielle Stephan leads the team in assists with six, and has started in all 13 games for the Spartans. Stephan scored her first career goal against No.

17 Wake Forest on Sept. 7 and has seen 1,006 minutes on the field this season.

Forward Alexandra Thomas has played in seven games this season and has scored three points on two shots. Thomas scored the lone goal in the Spartans' loss to Minnesota on Sept. 24 and tallied an assist against Iowa on Oct. 1.

Midfielder Bella Jodzis has come in off the bench in 12 games, playing 307 minutes in total and taking two corners for MSU. Defender Athena Biondi has seen action in six games, playing a season-high 57 minutes against Purdue on Sept. 17.

MICHIGAN STATE NOTES

Redshirt sophomore goalkeeper Reilley Ott has started in all 13 matches for the Spartans, making 74 saves overall for the season. Ott is currently second in the Big Ten in saves, and has claimed two shutouts. Ott made a season-high 10 stops against Nebraska on Sept. 29, and owns a 2.16 goals against average.

Redshirt senior goalkeeper Savanna Wojtanowski came in off the bench against No. 17 Wake Forest (Sept. 7), playing in 80 minutes for the Spartans and making seven saves. Wojtanowski came in for the second half against Minnesota (Sept. 24), making two stops.

Senior forward Jamie Cheslik leads the team in goals and points, generating six goals and three assists for 15 points overall and passing her point total from last season. Cheslik also has a team-high three game-winning goals that came against Samford (Aug. 27), Oakland (Sept. 3), and Iowa (Oct. 1).

THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Purdue has the top spot in the conference standings, with a 4-0-1 record. This week's opponent Ohio State sits in second, followed by Rutgers in third.

Three Big Ten teams are ranked in the United Soccer Coaches poll, including both of Michigan State's opponents this week. Penn State comes in at No. 14, and Ohio State is currently ranked No. 17. Rutgers rounds out the ranked Big Ten teams at No. 23.

UP NEXT

Following the two-game road trip, the Spartans return home to play in-state rival Michigan on Saturday, Oct. 14 at 6 p.m.

The Spartans then travel to Maryland for the last road trip of the season on Saturday, Oct. 21 at 7 p.m.

HEAD COACH TOM SAXTON 27TH SEASON

SAXTON SPOTLIGHT:

1994- First conference Big Ten Coach of the Year Award winner, Spartans win program's only Big Ten Championship

2000- Big Ten Coach of the Year

2002- First NCAA Tournament appearance

RECORDS- Saxton has coached all 10 of the career leaders in goals and assists leaders at MSU

Entering his 27th season as head coach of the Michigan State women's soccer program, Tom Saxton has spent more than half of his life involved in Spartan soccer.

A life-long Spartan, Saxton earned three letters as a player before returning to campus in 1986 to assist legendary Spartan soccer coach Joe Baum with both the men's and the new women's program. Saxton was appointed the second head coach in the history of the women's program on June 1, 1991. In 26 seasons, Saxton's career record stands at 259-219-50

2008 saw Saxton lead MSU to one of its most successful seasons as the Spartans collected 14 wins - tying his career-high victory mark. Saxton also directed 2014's squad to the NCAA Tournament for the third time since 2002, where the Spartans advanced to the second round. In 2009, the Spartans went 11-5-4 and posted a 4-4-2 record in Big Ten Conference games, and returned to the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season, losing an overtime heartbreaker to No. 11 Santa Clara.

A two-time Big Ten Conference Coach of the Year, Saxton, earned his 150th victory in the opening-round of the 2006 NCAA Tournament. It was MSU's first-ever NCAA Tournament win. Saxton's Spartans posted a 12-6-5 record in 2005, their sixth-straight season with double-digit wins, including a 6-2-2 mark in conference action, the team's best-ever Big Ten mark. He attained his 200th victory against DePaul in the 2011 opener.

Saxton led Michigan State to its first-ever NCAA Tournament appearance in 2002, guiding the Green and White to a 12-7-2 overall record, including a 5-3-2 mark in the Big Ten. Thanks to their fourth-place finish in the tough Big Ten, the Spartans earned an at-large bid to the tournament.

Saxton also won the Big Ten Coach of the Year Award in 1994, the conference's first season. That year, the Spartans finished with an overall mark of 12-5-2 and a 5-1-1 league record to take home the soccer program's only Big Ten Championship.
