

Penn State Women's Basketball
Players Quotes
Vs. St. Bonaventure – December 9, 2018

Amari Carter | Senior | Guard

Q: You came out in the second half and pretty much caught fire. What did it mean to you to get in a rhythm like that?

A: It felt really good. I haven't been out there, I missed a couple games so it felt good to be back out there and make some shots.

Q: With today being the Toys for Tots game, did the environment feel any different to you guys than a normal game?

A: You feel the difference when there is a bunch of fans here. We definitely appreciate the fans coming and I can't wait to wrap gifts at Toys for Tots.

Lauren Ebo | Freshman | Center

Q: This was probably your most dominant performance of the season on both ends of the floor. What was your mindset coming into the game and what was working so well for you out there?

A: In practice we've been working hard on getting low on post-ups and getting our position, and I think my teammates set me up and put me in great positions to get those post ups.

Q: After the team left the court last game there was a sense of disappointment. Did you guys go out there today with a different mindset or a bigger chip on your shoulder? Did coach specifically say anything to you guys to fire you up this afternoon?

A: As a team we realized that we can be really good, we just have to want it. Our effort has to be there every game. We can't take off games because every team is going to come for our head...The effort has to be there.

Q: Coming in and out of the starting lineup at times this year as a freshman, putting up a double-double on a night where some of your teammates may have struggled, what exactly did your performance do for the success of the team today?

A: When everybody plays their role, whether it's being a starter or coming off the bench, it does help. Obviously that showed today. I think if we all play our roles, do what we need to do, not worry about who's starting, and handle business, the wins will come.
