- » A Belleville, Wis., native and 1981 graduate of UW, Fahey lettered four years for the Badgers (1977-81), and was a team captain as a senior.
- » Fahey led the Badgers in assists as a junior and senior, and her 124 career assists still rank tied for 10th all-time in the Badgers' record book.

The Fighting Illini enter Sunday's game at Penn State as a much-improved three-point shooting threat this season, as compared with a season ago.

- » Through 14 games, the Illini are shooting 33.2 percent from beyond the arc, which ranks 91st nationally and seventh in the Big Ten. The team averages 6.43 triples per game, which is 131st nationally, and eighth in the league.
- » Last season, the Illini averaged just 5.0 three-pointers per game (246th nationally) while hitting 28.3 percent (268th) from beyond the arc.

MCKENZIE BREAKS OUT

Freshman G Adalia McKenzie posted a breakout performance in Illinois' win over Butler on Dec. 12, tallying a career-high 23 points on 9-for-15 (.600) shooting.

- » McKenzie became the first Illini freshman guard to score 23 or more points on 60% or better shooting in seven seasons, dating back to Amarah Coleman's 24-point game on 10-for-15 (.667) shooting at Maryland on Jan. 18, 2015.
- » Regardless of field-goal percentage, McKenzie was also the first Illini freshman guard to score 20+ in a game since Ariel Scott scored 23 vs. Nebraska on Jan. 17, 2019.
- » McKenzie's 23-point game vs. Butler came on the heels of a 14-point effort in her Big Ten debut at Michigan State on Dec. 9. Following the Butler game, McKenzie poured in another 14 points to lead the Illini in their game at Southern Illinois on Dec. 19.

- » Bostic notched another monster rebounding effort as part of an 11-points, 16-rebound double-double at Ohio State on Jan. 6, and added 14 more boards in Illinois' next game, a home win over Wisconsin.
- » Bostic is on pace to become the first Illini to average more than 11.0 rebounds per game since the program's all-time leader, Jenna Smith, averaged a career-high 11.4 rebounds per game as a senior in 2009-10.
- » Entering Sunday's game at Penn State, Bostic has pulled down 167 rebounds, and needs just 68 more rebounds to crack the Illini's single-season top-25 for total rebounds.

UBBEN UPGRADES

The project will add approximately 40,000 square feet to the existing structure, while remodeling large portions of the existing building. The project will feature a new strength and conditioning addition, significantly increase the size of the locker rooms and players lounges, and include a state-of-the-art sports medicine area. New coaches' office spaces and a grand entry lobby also are included in the project.

During the renovation, the women's program has relocated its day-to-day operations to State Farm Center, while the men's program continues to work primarily out of Ubben. The project is expected to be completed in time for the 2022-23 season.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. – The Fighting Illini women's basketball team dropped to 2-1 Thursday evening with a home loss against SIUE, 71-62, at State Farm Center. The Illini, were led by sophomore guard Aaliyah Nye who tallied a game-high 17 points, including 3-of-6 from beyond the arc. Junior guard De'Myia Brown added 11 points for the Illini, her second-consecutive game in double-figures scoring.

Sophomore forward Kendall Bostic pulled down a game-high 13 rebounds, and added a career-high four blocks, but was just 1-of-6 from the field to finish with four points.

The Illini jumped out to a 17-10 lead after the first quarter, and reached their largest lead, 19-10 after a Jada Peebles jumper to open the scoring in the second period. However, SIUE (1-2) responded by scoring 17 of the game's next 19 points, to gain an edge that would prove too much for the Illini to overcome.

After trailing by three, 29-26, at halftime, the Illini deficit reached as many as 13 points in the third quarter. Illinoi mounted a furious comeback effort midway through the fourth period, cutting the Cougars' 63-50 lead to a single possession, 63-60, with 1:59 to go. But the Cougars combined to knock down six of eight free-throw attempts in the final 1:16 to seal the win.

SIUE was led by graduate transfer guard Gabby Nikitinaite who tallied 15 points. She was joined in double-figures by Ajulu Thatha and Mikayla Kinnard, who each tallied 14, and Allie Troeckler, who added 11.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. – The Fighting Illini women's basketball team dropped a 67-53 decision vs. the Dayton Flyers in the team's opening matchup of the Daytona Beach Invitational at the Ocean Center on Friday afternoon.

Illinois (3-2) trailed by as many as 14 points in the first half thanks to a red-hot shooting performance from beyond the arc by the Flyers (4-2). UD led 22-14 after connecting on six three-pointers in the first quarter. The deficit reached 30-16 with 4:42 to play in the half, before momentum began to swing.

The Orange and Blue closed the half on a 14-2 run that included a pair of De'Myla Brown three-pointers, and Illinois went into the locker room trailing by just two points, 32-30. The Illinois surge continued out of the intermission with two Eva Rubin free-throws followed by a Sara Anastasieska layup that gave the Illini their first lead, 34-32, at the 8:31 mark of the third.

After a back-and-forth battle for the next few possessions, Brown sank a pair of free-throws at the 5:37 mark to tie the game, 38-38, but Dayton closed the quarter on a 14-4 run to push the Illinois deficit back to double-figures, 52-42, heading into the final period.

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. – Freshman guard Adalia McKenzie earned the first start of her Illini career and led the team in scoring in a 62-52 loss to Middle Tennessee in the Fighting Illini's final game of the Daytona Beach Invitational at the Ocean Center on Saturday afternoon.

McKenzie finished as the only Illini to reach double-figures scoring, tallying 11 points in a defensive battle vs. the Blue Raiders. She also added five rebounds and a pair of assists in 23 minutes of action.

Sophomore forward Kendall Bostic narrowly missed her second double-double of the season, posting nine points and a game-high 11 rebounds, while also dishing out a pair of assists.

Aaliyah Nye and Jada Peebles, who typically start for the Illini, were each battling cold symptoms but came off the bench to provide an offensive spark. Nye finished with nine points, hitting 2-of-3 attempts from three-point range, while Peebles added eight points, and connected on the Illini's only other triple of the game.

Middle Tennessee hoisted up 41 three-point attempts, the second most by an Illini opponent in program history. However, the Blue Raiders only connected on eight of those attempts. Courtney Whitson did the bulk of the damage for the Blue Raiders from beyond the arc, and finished with a game-high 17 points while knocking down three from distance. Whitson also led Middle Tennessee with 10 boards. Saar Dor added 10 points and a game-high five assists.

The Illini trailed 12-6 after one, and fell behind by as many as 13 in the second quarter before closing the half on an 8-2 run. The Orange and Blue then scored the first four points out of halftime to pull within four points, 26-22 at the 8:02 mark of the third quarter.

Middle Tennessee responded with a 10-0 run to push the lead back to double-digits. And despite a 21-14 Illinois edge in the fourth quarter, the Illini were unable to climb any closer than eight for the remainder of the contest.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — The Fighting Illini women's basketball team went toe-to-toe with the No. 25- ranked Florida State Seminoles on Thursday night at State Farm Center. But despite double-digit scoring games from Aaliyah Nye, Jada Peebles, and De'Myia Brown, Illinois (3-4) was unable to keep pace with FSU (5-2) into the fourth quarter of a 67-58 setback in the annual Big Ten/ACC Challenge matchup.

Nye poured in a game-high 17 points, while Peebles added 12. Brown chipped in with 11 points, providing a spark off the bench for the first time this season after starting the first six games. CARBONDALE, Ill. - Adalia McKenzie continued her hot offensive streak, but it was not enough to lift the Fighting Illini (5-6) in a 66-51 setback at Southern Illinois (5-4) on Sunday afternoon at the Banterra Center. McKenzie scored 14 points to reach double-figures scoring for the third straight game and post her third consecutive game as the Fighting Illini's top scorer. Kendall Bostic - the Big Ten's top rebounder - led the Illini with 11 boards, the 10th time in 11 games this season that she paced the team.

Illinois led 4-0 in the game's first 45 seconds. Mackenzie opened the scoring with an offensive rebound and layup off of the Jada Peebles' miss, and after forcing

NANCY FAHEY

HEAD COACH
 FIFTH SEASON AT ILLINOIS
 36TH SEASON OVERALL
 WISCONSIN (1981)

THE FAHEY ERA AT ILLINOIS

The Illini enter their fifth season under the direction of Hall of Fame head coach Nancy Fahey in 2020-21.

- » In Fahey's first season, she led the Illini to a 9-5 non-conference record, which marked the best start to the season since Illinois also earned nine non-conference victories in the 2014-15 campaign (9-3). Illinois won four of its last five games leading up to league play, with the streak marking the most consecutive victories for the program since the start of the 2015-16 season. Junior Alex Wittinger garnered All-Big Ten Second Team, and also matched the school record for single-season offensive rebounds (125). Wittinger earned the program's second-ever triple double during the 2017-18 campaign, and set a new single-game record for blocked shots (11).
- » In her second season at the helm of the Illini, Fahey's squad opened the year with a 7-0 record on Lou Henson Court for the first time since the 2006-07 season. The Illini opened the 2018-19 campaign with at 8-3 (.727) in non-conference play, the best for an Illini squad since starting the 2014-15 campaign with a 9-5 non-conference record (.750). Fahey's squad improved statistically in several categories under her leadership. The Illini averaged seven more points per game than in 2017-18, and improved their field goal percentage by more than four percent.
- » Year 3 saw continued growth under Fahey's leadership. The Illini finished the year with an overall record of 11-9, the third straight year with an improved win total. The 11 wins also marked the most by the Illini since the 2014-15 season (15 wins). Illinois finished its non-conference schedule with a 9-2 record. It marked the best 11-game start for Illinois since the 2006-07 season. The non-conference was capped by a 58-51 Braggini' Rights win over rival Missouri on Dec. 20 in Columbia, the first win over the Tigers since the 2008-09 season, and the first road win in the series since 2007-08.
- » The 2020-21 season brought a new set of challenges as the Fighting Illini played a shortened non-conference slate to lead into an expanded Big Ten schedule due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic. The Illini found success early with wins in two of three non-conference games to open the year. And after battling through some midseason injuries and the growing pains that come along with a relatively youthful roster, the Orange and Blue captured wins over three Big Ten foes coming down the stretch, including the first Big Ten Tournament victory of Fahey's tenure, a 67-42 win over Wisconsin in Round 1. The Illini's Big Ten Tournament win over the Badgers came four days after a 72-64 win over Minnesota on Senior Day at State Farm Center. The Illini also captured a thrilling home win over Purdue on Feb. 9, behind freshman guard Aaliyah Nye's dagger three-pointer to give the Illini their final lead with less than a minute to play.

ONE OF THE GREATS

Illinois head coach Nancy Fahey, a five-time national champion at WashU is in the midst of a storied career. She has accumulated 772 career victories, which ranks among the top totals in the NCAA. Entering the 2021-22 season, Fahey's win total checks in at No. 20 all-time among NCAA head coaches, a category that's led by Stanford's Tara VanDerveer (1125). Fahey's 772 wins rank seventh among current NCAA Division I head coaches and ninth among all active NCAA head coaches. She has racked up the third-most career victories among active Big Ten head coaches as well. Of active head coaches with more than 700 victories, Fahey's winning percentage ranks third only to Geno Auriemma (.886) and VanDerveer (.815).
