THE WEEK AHEAD

• Penn State comes to East Lansing this weekend for a three-game series against the Spartans.

• Live statistics links for all three contests can be found on the team schedule page of MSUSpartans.com.

• Big Ten Network will air Friday's game live from Secchia Stadium. Dan Kelly and Jennie Ritter are on the call.

• All three games will air live on BTN2Go. With the exception of MSU's game at Central Michigan on April 26, each of MSU's remaining games in the regular season will air on this platform.

• Spartan Sports Network continues its coverage of Spartan softball this week, and will provide a live broadcast from every game, home and away, for the remainder of the season. Matt Tjapkes is back for his third season on the call, with former Spartan standout Ali Grant and All-American and former pitching coach Jessica (Beech) Bograkovs providing analysis on home games.

• Saturday's game will be "Valerie Kaff Day" at Spartan Stadium. Each senior is given her own "Day" during the home schedule, where she is honored for her career as a Spartan softball player. She will be honored in a brief pre-game ceremony.

• Penn State took two out of three at home last weekend against Indiana, and stands at 2-4 overall in Big Ten play and 14-19 overall. The Spartans and Nittany Lions share one non-conference opponent: PSU defeated Georgia Tech (3-2, 8-3) in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, while MSU scored a single-game midweek win over the Yellow Jackets (7-3) during spring break.

• Rebecca Ziegler leads the offensive attack with team bests in batting average (.333) and doubles (8) and shares the team lead in home runs (3) and RBI (18). As a team, PSU is hitting .264, which is 12th in the Big Ten.

In the circle, the Nittany Lions have four pitchers with 10 or more appearances, led by Marlaina Laubach's 18 appearances. She owns a 3.68 ERA over a team-high 72.2 innings. Madison Siefert has started 13 games, with a 4.37 ERA in 65.2 innings.

TEAM NOTES

• Michigan State has opened its home slate with four straight victories, a welcome sight as the Spartans entered a stretch where they play 16 of 18 games at Secchia Stadium.

• MSU's home slate features four straight Big Ten weekends vs. Maryland, Penn State, Illinois, and Ohio State. MSU also hosts midweek games vs. Toledo, Michigan, and Eastern Michigan in that extended homestand. MSU played 26 games on the road prior to its home opener on March 29.

• In MSU's 26 games away from Secchia Stadium to start the season, the Spartans were the true or designated visiting team in 20 of those contests. MSU is 5-9 in true road games and 10-2 at a neutral site.

• Last Wednesday vs. Western Michigan, head coach Jacquie Joseph earned her 650th victory at Michigan State. Now in her 24th season as the Spartan mentor and 29th season overall as a head coach, she needs 11 more wins to reach 800 overall in her career.

• MSU sits in a three-way tie for sixth place in the Big Ten standings with an 3-3 Big Ten record and stands at 19-11 overall. Michigan and Ohio State each have started the Big Ten season with a 6-0 mark, followed by 5-1 Minnesota in third.

• The Spartans are looking to become the sixth school to reach the 20-win mark (overall) in the Big Ten. Five teams have already surpassed the 20-victory mark: Minnesota (32), Michigan (26), Illinois (24), Wisconsin (23), and Ohio State (22).

• MSU leads the Big Ten in slugging percentage (.542), triples (14), sac flies (12) and fewest strikeouts (77); The Spartans are second in home runs (36), third in batting average (.317). MSU is fourth nationally in both triples per game (.47) and slugging percentage, seventh in homers per game (1.20), ranks 18th in scoring (6.33 runs per game), 25th in slugging percentage, and 31st in team batting average.

• On the season, Michigan State has accumulated 92 extra-base hits, good for 36.8% of its 250 base hits. Only Minnesota (102) has more extra-base hits among Big Ten teams.

• The Spartan batters have struck out a league-low 77 times in a combined 695 at-bats, 25 fewer than the next-closest school (107, by Michigan). The Spartans are sixth in the Big Ten in walks (97) and tied for sixth in hits (250).

• MSU's offense is looking at a third consecutive year of top-10 all-time numbers. MSU's current 36 home runs is tied for sixth place in MSU's single-season record book. The school record is 53, hit in 2011. The Spartans hit 41 in 2016 and 38 in 2015. MSU's current pace of 1.20 per game (fourth nationally) would give the Spartans a school-record 60 at the end of the regular season.

• MSU has had only one team in program history hit .300 for a season - the 2004 squad hit .306. The Spartans are currently hitting .319, with a slugging percentage (.542) and on-base percentage (.405) that would also be the program's historical best.

• The Spartans have had 28 hit batters this season, seventh all-time in the MSU record book. MSU's 12 sac flies is good for a tie for fourth place in the Spartan annals.

• The MSU pitching staff is first in the Big Ten in saves (6), and ranks fourth with 161 strikeouts on the season.

PLAYER NOTES - FIELD PLAYERS

• Lea Foerster leads the team and ranks fourth in the Big Ten with a .441 batting average, is second in both slugging percentage (.892) and on-base percentage (.556), and leads the Big Ten in doubles (14). She is seventh in home runs (8), which is her career best, and is also 10th in base hits (41).

• Among national leaders, Foerster is 35th in batting average, second in doubles and in doubles per game (0.47), 14th in on-base percentage, eighth in slugging percentage, and first in runs scored per game (1.40).

• Foerster has 13 multiple-hit games this season, and has had two different 10-game hitting streaks. She has reached base in 26 consecutive games entering the PSU series, the longest streak of any Spartan this season.

• Foerster has ripped 14 doubles - one shy of her career-best total of 15, set as a sophomore. Her 15 doubles in 2016 was good for fourth all-time in a single season at MSU.

• With her strong start to her junior campaign, Foerster is steadily moving up the career records charts at MSU. Foerster has 41 career doubles, good for fourth place in the Spartan career record book. Her 65 career extra-base hits is fifth all-time at MSU, she is tied for 10th in career triples (10), and with 164 career hits, she has moved up to an all-time ranking of 20th in the MSU annals.

• Foerster also now sits in second place with 130 career runs scored - which is 11 shy of the school record of 141, held by Keri Lemasters (1994-97).

• Both Foerster and Celeste Wood have earned Big Ten Player of the Week honors this season - the first time since 2008 that MSU had two Player of the Week winners. MSU had one weekly winner in each of the last three years.

• Sarah Gutknecht, the team's lone senior, is also moving up the career charts. Her 25 career home runs puts her alone in third place in the Spartan annals. She ranks 22nd on MSU's all-time hit list with 160 career base hits, and is sixth in MSU history with 112 career RBI. Gutknecht is hitting .322 on the year, with five doubles, seven home runs, and 23 RBI.

• Ebonee Echols boasts a .330 batting average, while posting a team-best 34 RBI (seventh in the Big Ten). She also leads the Big Ten in triples, (8), ranks 13th in slugging percentage (.649), and is tied for 12th in stolen bases (8).

• With 17 career triples Echols sits alone in second place in MSU's record book. The school record of 19 is held by Keri Lemasters (1994-97). Echols had nine as a freshman (good for third all-time) and has added eight in 2017, which is tied for sixth in a single season.

• Echols ranks first nationally in triples (8) and triples per game (0.27), while ranking 27th nationally in RBI per game (1.13).

• Echols had her 11-game hitting streak, the team's longest streak of the season, snapped in the second game against Maryland. Echols' streak of reaching base in 13 consecutive games is the second-longest on the team behind Foerster's 26.

• Sophomore Kaitlyn Eveland missed all or part of the nine games during spring break, but has returned to her third base spot since the team began its northern season. Eveland hit her third homer of the season at Purdue, and is hitting .356 with 26 base hits, compiling three doubles, three of homers, and 22 RBI, all career highs. She has started 23 of 30 games at third base.

• McKenzie Long is batting .290, is tied for second in the Big Ten in sac bunts (8) and has added 13 RBI. She ranks second in the Big Ten and 29th nationally in sacrifice hits per game (0.27).

• Sophomore Kelly Zackrison had a breakout performance during the team's spring break. At Georgia Tech, she hit her first career home run, ricocheting off the top of the scoreboard to help MSU to a 7-3 victory. She has earned starts in the last 13 games, and is currently hitting .300 with a double and a home run.

• Freshman Kelcey Carrasco is hitting .305 and is tied for 11th in the Big Ten with six home runs. She has 18 RBI and owns a .561 slugging percentage. Defensively, she's gotten 16 starts behind the plate, and has been the team's designated player since the start of the Big Ten season.

• Melanie Baccay has started 27 of her 28 games at second base, and is hitting .278 on the year with two homers and three doubles. She and classmate Kelcey Carrasco both hit home runs in their first college games on Feb. 10 vs. North Florida, and she added a second vs. No. 16 Georgia (3/4).

• Lindsey Besson has started each of MSU's seven games since playing "up north" behind the plate, and with just one error in 19 games, owns a .986 fielding percentage, third on the team behind Foerster (1.000) and Gutknecht (.987).

PLAYER NOTES - PITCHERS

• Bridgette Rainey earned three victories in the circle last week, including the final two in the series sweep of Maryland. She tossed five innings in a midweek win over Western Michigan, went five innings, surrendered just one hit, and struck out eight (one off her career best) on Saturday vs. the Terps, and earned the win in the staff outing on Saturday when she pitched three innings, allowed two hits and just one run in the Sunday finale. She owned a 0.88 ERA on the weekend.

• Rainey has logged the most innings of anyone on the staff, compiling a total of 74.2, which is 14th in the Big Ten. She owns an ERA of 4.22, is ranked in a tie for sixth in the BIG in wins (10), fourth in strikeouts (88), eighth in starts (14) and 11th in total appearances (20). Her 10 victories and 88 strikeouts are both career highs.

• Rainey recorded eight strikeouts in her win last Saturday over Maryland, one shy of her career-best nine she recorded vs. UAB (Feb. 17). Rainey ranks 42nd nationally in strikeouts per seven innings (8.3), which is third in the Big Ten.

• Kristina Zalewski has appeared in all five of MSU's six Big Ten games so far, and earned last Friday's 11-3 victory. She owns a 3.03 ERA on the season (15th, BIG), and her ERA in conference games is 1.91, which ranks eighth.

• On the season, Zalewski has 10 appearances, seven starts, a 2-3 record, and three complete games. She has 36 strikeouts in 39.1 innings pitched.

• Zalewski and freshman Jordan Watson are tied with two saves each, which is tied for third in the Big Ten and ranks 42nd nationally. Zalewski now has 10 career saves, which is tied with Jessica Beech for third place in the MSU record book.

• With 393 career strikeouts, Zalewski ranks fifth all-time in the MSU annals. Just four pitchers have reached the 400-strikeout mark, with Jessica Beech sitting atop the career leaderboard with 659. The other three are within Zalewski's striking distance over the balance of the season: Rachel Turney (406, 2005-07), Becky Gray (407, 1999-02) and Stacey Smith (408, 1994-97).

• Freshman Jordan Watson owns a 5-2 record, with 18 appearances (six starts) and a 3.93 ERA. She has logged 51.2 innings, scattering 62 hits, walking just 16 batters and striking out 20.

• Watson has embraced her role as a closer in recent games, coming in to finish up each of MSU's last four (all victories). She scattered six hits over her seven innings, surrendering just one earned run, walking one, and striking out five. She had a 1.00 ERA over those four games - her most impressive a two-inning outing where she allowed one hit (in the two for the game for the Terrapins) in Saturday's 2-0 victory for the Spartans.

• Redshirt junior Valerie Kaff had two surgeries in the 2015-16 season, which would be enough to have some players consider retirement. She is back in action, pitching limited innings in what she has determined will be her final season in 2017. She has thrown 11 innings over nine appearances this year.

TIDBITS

• MSU has just one senior on the roster, first baseman Sarah Gutknecht - a four-year starter. The Spartan junior class is its largest, with seven players. Three are redshirt juniors who entered with Gutknecht but suffered injuries that cost them an entire previous season (catcher Lindsey Besson, and pitchers Valerie Kaff and Kristina Zalewski). MSU also has six sophomores and four freshmen.

• The Spartan roster features seven players from Michigan, six from California, three from Georgia, and one each from Arizona and Illinois. The Spartans will play games this season in three of the five states - MSU has a three-game series at Loyola Marymount in late February and will play 11 games in Georgia over Spring Break.

• The 2017 Michigan State schedule features teams from 15 different Division I conferences, 12 games against eight NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago, and 16 games at Secchia Stadium. MSU has Big Ten series on the slate at Purdue, Rutgers, and Indiana, and home series vs. Maryland, Penn State, Illinois, and Ohio State. Michigan and MSU will play a pair of home-and-home games in mid-April.

• MSU returns at least part-time starters in every field position, as well as four pitchers (out of five) who have had a collegiate start. Due to injuries, the Spartans had two players or more start at six of the eight defensive positions a year ago. Lea Foerster is the only player on the roster to play and start all 55 games, and all in center field. Gutknecht started 52 at first, and Lindsey Besson 52 behind the plate. Seven different players got a start in left, and four each at third and in right. Meanwhile, 10 different players started at DP.

• The Spartans had eight players earn Academic All-Big Ten honors a year ago (of a possible 12 eligible), and four earned Big Ten Distinguished Scholar honors (3.7 GPA in 2015-16). In addition, eight players earned NFCA Scholar-Athlete distinction, (3.7 GPA in 2015-16), Lea Foerster was a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection, and Kristina Zalewski has maintained a perfect 4.0 cumulative grade-point average over seven collegiate semesters.

• MSU has three players from the Atlanta Vipers organization - pitchers Bridgette Rainey and Jordan Watson, along with sophomore Ebonee Echols. The Spartans have three who also played for Finesse Fastpitch (Mich.) - redshirt junior Kristina Zalewski, sophomore Lexi White, and freshman Summer Callahan. White and Callahan were also high school teammates at Huron High School in New Boston, Mich. Lindsey Besson and Celeste Wood both played for SoCal Explosion.

HEAD COACH JACQUIE JOSEPH

Jacquie Joseph has instilled core values in the Michigan State softball program, developing student-athletes that are successful on the field, in the classroom and in the community. Under Joseph's leadership, these values allow her players to not only become successful during their college career, but in their future endeavors as well. Joseph's impact as a mentor and coach has been felt for years not only within the program, but in the collegiate fastpitch game as a whole.

Since taking over the Spartan program in 1994, the head coach has become the winningest coach in program history, guiding MSU to a 634-653-1 record and four NCAA Regional appearances in 23 seasons. In addition, Joseph eclipsed the 700-win plateau in 2013, and she enters the 2017 campaign with a 770-786-1 career mark (23 seasons at MSU, and five at Bowling Green).

Joseph was a December 2016 inductee in to the into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame. She was recognized as part of the Pioneer category of the NFCA Hall of Fame, which recognizes a member that has contributed above and beyond to the sport of fastpitch softball through service, leadership, coaching and/or participation.

When Joseph was named the fifth head coach in school history, she immediately raised the expectations for the program. MSU has steadily improved under her tutelage, posting three 40-win campaigns and 13 25-win seasons, including eight in the past 14 years.

Joseph's players have performed at a high level her entire career, leading to individual accolades as well as team success. She has coached six All-Americans and her players have earned All-Big Ten honors 45 times and All-Great Lakes Region honors 30 times. In the classroom, an impressive eight student-athletes have been named Academic All-America in her tenure, the most of any active coach in the Michigan State Athletics Department. Her players are a regular on the Academic All-Big Ten Team, earning conference honors more than 100 times.
