FIRST SERVE

^{*} 16-seed Penn State (22-9) will serve as the final hosting destination of the 2016 NCAA women's volleyball tournament on Dec. 2-3. Penn State will open against NEC champions LIU Brooklyn (16-14), squaring off at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 2. With a win, Penn State would face the winner of Dayton (30-1) and Pittsburgh (24-8) on Saturday, Dec. 3 at 6:30 p.m.

^{*} With the selection as a host seed, Penn State has now served as a first and second round site in each of the past 27 seasons. With the selection to the NCAA tournament Penn State, along with Stanford, is one of just two programs to make appearances in all 36 NCAA tournaments.

" Penn State saw four members of the team land postseason Big Ten honors, with juniors Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington both earning unanimous All-Big Ten honors, while freshmen Tori Gorrell and Kendall White made the All-Freshmen Team.

^{} Penn State enters the postseason coming off a three-match winning streak. Most recently, PSU defeated Northwestern, 3-0 (25-23, 25-23, 25-16) and Illinois, 3-1 (25-18, 26-24, 19-25, 25-21).

^{*} Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti eclipsed the 900 career kill benchmark with nine kills in the most recent outing against the Ohio State Buckeyes. She is now just 48 kills short of becoming the 26th member of Penn State's 1,000 kill club. Frantti enters Friday's match posting 27 kills last weekend.

" With her seventh kill against Northwestern, Simone Lee earned the fifth spot on the Penn State career kills leaderboard during the 25-point rally scoring era.

^{} Juniors Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee both rank among the nation's best in statistical categories. Washington ranks second in the country in hitting percentage (.438), while Lee's 4.17 kills per set ranks 37th in NCAA Division I. Both Washington and Lee's numbers lead the Big Ten conference.

^{*} Three Penn State players in Lee, Washington and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell all have chances to place among the top-five during the 25-point rally scoring era in single-season statistical categories. Lee (average kills/set) and Washington (hitting percentage) would rank third and tied for fifth, respectively, in their categories if the season ended today. Gorrell (total block solos, 21) is both poised to crack the top five as well.

^{*} PSU finds itself among the top 35 in the country in a pair statistical categories as a team. The Nittany Lions have hit the ball at a .290 clip in 2016, coming in first in the Big Ten and third nationally. Penn State averages 2.53 blocks per set, coming in fourth in the Big Ten and 35th among Division I programs.

³⁷ Penn State rose two spots to No. 13 in the country in the most recent release of the AVCA poll. The Nittany Lions opened the season ranked No. 9, with rankings spanning from No. 9 again three weeks ago and as low as No. 20. PSU has seven opponents represented within the top 25, including three among the top three. Including the Nittany Lions, a total of six Big Ten teams are ranked in the top 25. Ohio State and Purdue are also receiving votes on the ballot. For the first time in 2016, Penn State received a first-place vote after downing then-top ranked Minnesota.

^{*} Penn State enters the weekend with a 7-0 record all-time against LIU. If Penn State wins Friday night, the team will face either Dayton or Pittsburgh. PSU has a 2-0 record against Dayton all-time and a 30-17 record in all meetings with Pitt.

[»] With a pair of wins this weekend, Penn State would earn a berth to the NCAA Regional rounds, likely facing top-seeded Nebraska in the round of 16.

NEWS & NOTES

FIRST ROUND FACTS

PSU is set to host the first two rounds of the NCAA tournament for the 30th time since 1981, welcoming three teams to Rec Hall for the 27th consecutive year. Penn State improved to 30-5 all-time record in opening matches of the tourney last season, after sweeping Howard. The Nittany Lions have not surrendered a single set to a first round opponent since 1989, having posted sweeps in its last 26 consecutive first-round victories

STATE IN THE SECOND ROUND

Penn State improved to 21-5 all-time in round two last year of the NCAA tournament after a 3-1 win against Dayton in 2015. The win against the Flyers also marked PSU's 12th consecutive second-round victory, since 2002, when Temple knocked PSU out of the tourney.

FOUR NITTANY LIONS GARNER POSTSEASON B1G HONORS

Penn State saw four members of the team land postseason Big Ten honors, with juniors Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington both earning unanimous All-Big Ten honors, while freshmen Tori Gorrell and Kendall White made the All-Freshmen Team.

Lee paced Penn State's offense throughout the season, averaging 4.17 kills per set, good for best in the Big Ten. The junior had a standout season on offense, posting 455 total kills, ranking fifth in single season kills during the 25-point rally scoring era. She also added 170 digs, 53 blocks and 15 service aces over the season. Lee was also named the ESPNW National Player of the Week on Oct. 12 following a 30-kill performance against then No. 1 Minnesota. The honor marks Lee's first time being names to the All-Big Ten Team.

Washington continues to be one of the most consistent hitters in the college game, leading Penn State and the Big Ten while ranking second in the nation in hitting percentage with a startling .438 clip. The percentage is also the best among all players from Power Five institutions. Washington has led the team in blocks, posting 124 total while adding 265 total kills, good for second on the team. The Colorado Springs, Colorado native added 69 digs on the season and 24 service aces, good for second best on the team. The selection marks Washington's fourth annual Big Ten honor – she was a unanimous All-Big Ten selection in 2015 and named B1G Freshman of the Year as well as a member of the All-Big Ten Team in 2014.

Gorrell, a redshirt freshman middle blocker, earned a spot on the All-Freshman team after posting 185 kills and a team second-best 110 total blocks. With 21 solo rejections, Gorrell leads the team and is just three short of ranking tied for fifth in the 25-point rally scoring era for Penn State. Gorrell's 110 blocks were also good for second best among freshmen in the Big Ten.

White started all of the 2016 season at libero for the Nittany Lions, leading the team's back row defense with 438 total digs. Averaging 4.18 digs per set in conference play, White finished third in the conference behind Illinois' Brandi Donnelly and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Justine Wong-Orantes. White added 69 assists and 11 aces during the regular season of her rookie campaign.

DETERING EARNS SECOND BIG TEN SETTER OF THE WEEK

Junior setter Abby Detering earned her second career Big Ten Setter of the Week distinction on Tuesday, Nov. 29, after guiding PSU to a pair of wins over Northwestern and Illinois.

Detering helped guide Penn State to a collective .348 hitting percentage in wins over Northwestern and Illinois. The Mentor, Ohio native averaged 13.00 assists per set, dishing out 91 helpers over the course of the seven sets played. She added 14 digs and a team-best six aces over the weekend.

In Penn State's win over Illinois, Detering helped lead Penn State to 65 team kills – the most in a four-set match in 2016. She also tied her career-high for aces with four against Northwestern.

With a 3-0 win over Michigan State on Sept. 30, Russ Rose became the first active Division I volleyball coach to reach the 1,200-win mark. Rose holds the title of winningest coach in Division I, tallying a 1,211-195 record to date. Rose is joined by only Hawaii's Dave Shoji in active coaches with 1,200 or more wins.

LEE ETCHES MARK IN SINGLE SEASON RECORDS

With her seventh kill against Northwestern on Nov. 25, junior Simone Lee etched her name in the Penn State record books, cracking the top-five for single season kills in the 25-point rally scoring era. Lee has since climbed to 455 total kills on the season. She is just 14 kills shy of tying for fourth, 15 kills shy of tying for third and 16 kills from standing alone in third place in total single season kills during the era.

LEE, WASHINGTON ON TRACK FOR RECORD SEASONS; GORRELL CLIMBING LEADERBOARD

Having impressive seasons thus far, junior classmates Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington are both on-track for seasons that rank among the best during the 25-point rally scoring era. Lee, averaging 4.17 kills per set currently, would rank third during the era for single-season kills per set. Washington, currently hitting at a .438 clip, would finish fifth in single-season hitting efficiency if the season ended today. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell has a team-best 21 solo stuffs so far in 2016. With just three more she could match Haleigh Washington's output from 2015 with 24 to tie for the fifth-most in the 25-point rally scoring era.

FRANTTI CLOSING IN ON 1,000 KILL CLUB

After logging 16 kills on senior night against Illinois, junior Ali Frantti finds herself 48 kills away from being the 26th Nittany Lion with 1,000 career kills. Currently averaging 2.75 kills per set over her career, Frantti will likely break the milestone next season, but could do so with a few big games or a deep tournament run. Frantti would become the first Penn State volleyball player to join the 1,000 kill ranks since Megan Courtney did so last season, ending her career with 1,154 kills.

NITTANY LIONS AMONG THE NATION'S ELITE IN EFFICIENCY

Penn State has been extremely successful keeping its offense among the top in the country. Following the regular season, the Nittany Lions rank first in the Big Ten and fifth in Division I in hitting efficiency, attacking a .290 clip. Junior Haleigh Washington continues to be one of the most consistent offensive threats in the country in 2016, ranking among the best in the nation in hitting efficiency. Hitting at a .438 clip in all matches this season, the Colorado Springs, Colorado, product leads the Big Ten and ranks second among NCAA Division I players in hitting percentage.

The Nittany Lions not only excel at having one of the most efficient offenses in the coun-try, but also at limiting those of the opposition. PSU currently ranks 48th nationally and ranks second in the Big Ten in limiting opponents hitting, holding foes to a .173 clip. The team also has contributed an impressive blocking performance thus far, finishing regular season action averaging 2.53 blocks per set, good for fourth in the conference and 35th nationally.

LEE'S OFFENSE GUIDES NITTANY LIONS

With double-figure kills in all but six matches this season, junior Simone Lee's 4.17 kills per set leads the Big Ten standings and places 37th nationally. Lee also ranks 43rd in points nationally, logging 4.61 per set. Lee posted a record-setting 30 kills against Minnesota on Oct. 5 before posting another 27 against Michigan. Lee has exceeded 20 kills in four matches this season. With 455 kills thus far, Lee has accounted for nearly 31% of the Penn State offense.

PSU MIDDLES A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

The duo of Penn State starting middle blockers junior Haleigh Washington and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell has become one of the most talented tandems in the Big Ten conference. Washington ranks ninth in the Big Ten with an impressive 1.14 blocks per set, while Gorrell finished second in blocks per set among all Big Ten freshmen, averaging 1.01 per frame.

WASHINGTON NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT

Junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington earned Academic All-District honors, as announced by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) on Thursday afternoon. It was Washington's second time being honored as a part of the Academic All-District team, as the Colorado Springs, Colorado, native was named to the All-District team last season, before going on to earn Second Team Academic All-America honors. In the classroom, Washington is a double major in philosophy and psychology, boasting an impressive 3.83 grade point average. In total, 56 student-athletes from the Division I ranks are selected to the Academic All-District teams. All members of the All-District

WEISKIRCHER, DETERING SPLITTING TIME LATE IN SEASON

Junior transfer Abby Detering (Florida) and redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher split time early in the non-conference slate at the setting position. It looked as if Detering would be the solution, starting 18 consecutive matches, before the staff decided to start Bryanna Weiskircher at setter for the first set of the match at Minnesota. Detering resumed the setting role in the second set, logging 26 assist in the final two sets – Weiskircher posted 12 in her single set of action. Penn State then reverted to Weiskircher halfway through its first meeting between the Nittany Lions and Nebraska. The duo split time again last weekend, as Weiskircher started for the Maryland match before Detering took the helm for Penn State's five-set thriller against the Ohio State Buckeyes. Weiskircher started Penn State's most recent match against Nebraska before Detering finished it out. Detering has started the past three matches for PSU.

PENN STATE INVITES IOWA TO BLOCK PARTY

Penn State put together one of its most dominant blocking performances of the season on Nov. 5, when PSU notched 14 blocks in the three-set sweep of Iowa. The 11-block margin was the largest of the season for the Nittany Lions, as was the 4.67 block per set team average. Additionally, despite being a three-set match, the 14 total block output was the second largest this season by Penn State.

15-STRAIGHT

After opening the season at 2-3, the Nittany Lions put together its longest win streak of the past two seasons, winning 15 straight matches spanning from Sept. 9 until Oct. 22, when Penn State dropped a tough five-setter to then-No. 16 Michigan. The 15-match win streak was the second longest in the country during the span, topped only by No. 5 San Diego (16 straight). During the win streak, Penn State dropped only three total sets, knocking off five ranked opponents during the span including then-No. 1 Minnesota. Additionally, the streak beat the team's longest win streak in 2015, in which Penn State won its first 13 matches.

THELEN SETTLES IN AT RIGHT SIDE

After limited time on the court in her first two seasons, junior Heidi Thelen has found her niche, moving to the right side this season. The move has paid dividends, with Thelen ranking fourth among starters on the team in both hitting percentage (.269) and kills (191).

WHITE LOCKED IN AT LIBERO

With the regular season in the books, freshman defensive specialist Kendall White has made a name for herself, starting each match at libero. Since, the Indianapolis, Indiana product has been exceptional, leading the team with 4.02 digs per set, good for sixth in the conference. The rookie posted her most impressive performance to date in the five-set match with Nebraska in which she posted 32 digs. It marked the first time since Nov. 27, 2010 that a player has registered 30 or more digs. Averaging 4.18 digs per set in conference play, White finished third in the conference behind Illinois' Brandi Donnelly and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year Justine Wong-Orantes.

AVCA POLL UPDATE: RELEASE 15

Penn State rose two spots to No. 13 in the country in the most recent release of the AVCA poll. The Nittany Lions opened the season ranked No. 9, with rankings spanning from No. 9 again three weeks ago and as low as No. 20. PSU has seven opponents represented within the top 25, including three among the top three. Including the Nittany Lions, a total of six Big Ten teams are ranked in the top 25. Ohio State and Purdue are also receiving votes on the ballot. For the first time in 2016, Penn State received a first-place vote after downing then-top ranked Minnesota.

LEE, DETERING EARN B1G WEEKLY HONORS

After another impressive weekend, Penn State junior Simone Lee was named the Big Ten Player of the Week, while classmate Abby Detering earned the title of Big Ten Setter of the Week, as announced by the league office Monday, 0ct. 10.

Lee paced the Nittany Lions in offensively in both its matches, logging her 14th and 15th outings in which she led the team in kills. She posted 30 kills against Minnesota and 11 kills in the match against Rutgers. The Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin, native also added 12 digs and five blocks in the eight sets of play.

Detering earned Big Ten Setter of the Week honors after a weekend in which she led the Nittany Lions to a .346 hitting clip as the team averaged 16.00 kills per set in the wins over No.1 Minnesota and Rutgers. Detering logged 101 assists while adding 15 digs, eight kills, three blocks and three aces. The Mentor, Ohio, native logged her fourth double-double of the season with 61 assists and 10 digs in the upset of Minnesota. She guided four players to log double-figure kills in the match.

LEE NAMED ESPNW PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Following the record-setting performance against Minnesota and earning Big Ten Player of the Week honors, ESPNW also recognized Lee as the nation's top performer for the Week of Oct. 5-11. Lee is just the third Nittany Lion to ever win the award - Dominique Gonzalez and Micha Hancock earned the honor in 2014.

down the No. 1 Minnesota Golden Gophers in five, 3-2 (29-27, 21-25, 23-25, 25-14, 15-10). The Nittany Lions took the first set in extra time, trailing by eight, 11-3, early on.

Four players notched double-figure kills, with Simone Lee paving the way, scoring 30. In addition to Lee's outburst, Heidi Thelen and Haleigh Washington scored 14 each. Thelen led the team with five blocks while Washington added three and a service ace. Classmate Ali Frantti logged her second double-double of 2016 with 13 kills and 13 digs. With 80 kills as a team, the Nittany Lions logged the second-most kills in a match during the 25-point rally scoring era - the first was also against Minnesota, when PSU notched 81 on Nov. 27, 2010.

LEE POSTS RECORD DAY IN WIN OVER GOPHERS

Junior Simone Lee had an incredible outing on Oct. 5, leading the offense in the win over No. 1 Minnesota, charting 30 kills in the outing. It marked the first time a Nittany Lion had 30 or more kills in a match since Nicole Fawcett did so against Cal Poly on August 31, 2007. The 30-kill outing also marked a new record for kills in a five-set match during the 25-point rally scoring era.

PENN STATE INVITATIONAL ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

After three sweeps of Rhode Island, Howard and Clemson, the Penn State Nittany Lions Alter three sweeps of Anode Island, Howard and Clenkon, the Perin State Nittany Lons placed three members of the squad in juniors Haleigh Washington, Abby Detering and Heidi Thelen on the All-Tournament team. Washington was named the most outstanding player after a phenomenal performance, notching 27 kills on .610 hitting and adding a team-high 15 blocks in three sets. Detering guided the team to .354 hitting as a unit, notching 91 assists, 14 digs, seven kills and three aces. Thelen posted 21 kills with a team second-best .447 hitting and added four blocks.

PENN STATE CLASSIC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM Junior Simone Lee and freshman Kendall White were both selected to the Penn State Classic All-Tournament team following their performances in a 2-1 opening week at home. Lee led the team with 3.73 kills per set while White averaged 3.45 digs per frame. White had at least 16 digs in two matches, while Lee posted double figure kills in two of three matches, including 23 kills vs. North Carolina.

PENN STATE RANKED NINTH IN AVCA PRESEASON POLL Penn State women's volleyball earned the No. 9 ranking in the 2016 AVCA Preseason Coaches' Poll. The Nittany Lions are among seven Big Ten schools to be ranked within the AVCA Top 25 and one of four conference programs to be voted within the top 10.

Nebraska earned the No. 1 overall ranking with 60 of a possible 64 first place votes. Min-nesota and Wisconsin are next at three and four, respectively. Outside the top 10, Illinois was ranked 14th and Ohio State was 15th. Purdue rounded out the group at No. 20. Michigan and Michigan State also represented the league in the poll, as both received votes.

NITTANY LIONS PICKED FOURTH IN BIG TEN POLL

Penn State opens the season ranked No. 4 in the Big Ten Preseason Poll, released by the conference early this week. The Big Ten Preseason poll is selected by votes from all 14 conference head coaches.

PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN NITTANY LIONS

Juniors Haleigh Washington and Ali Frantti have been named to the 2016 Preseason Big Ten Volleyball Team. The pair of Preseason All-Big Ten honors are the second straight for Washington and Frantti, who each earned the honor in 2015. Washington is also among a group of just four honorees to be voted to the team by a unanimous decision.

ROSE ENTERS YEAR 38 ATOP THE NCAA ALL-TIME WINS LIST With an all-time record of 1210 - 196, few have come close to matching head coach Russ Rose's impressive win total. Rose and Hawaii head coach Dave Shoji went back and forth throughout the year, but Penn State's run to its seventh NCAA national championship in 2014 vaulted Rose 11 wins ahead of Shoji, placing him firmly atop the active division I career standings at the conclusion of the season with 1,161 wins.

Prior to topping the list of DI winningest active coaches by victories, his .865 career winning clip has ranked first on the percentage chart for the last several years. Now at the top of both lists, he's one of just two active NCAA DI coaches to anass more than 1,200 career wins and one of four active coaches across all three divisions to join the 1,000 victories club.

On the list of winningest coaches of all time, Rose's 1,210-196 tally is unmatched at first place. Along with Shoji and former UCLA head coach Andy Banachowski, the three are the only DI coaches in NCAA women's volleyball coaching history to total 1,100 or more victories.

PENN STATE IN SEASON-OPENERS

Penn State is 33-7-1 all-time in season-openers after sweeping past West Virginia at Rec Hall this season. The win against the Mountaineers marks the fourth consecutive season-opening victory.

NITTANY LIONS MONTH - BY- MONTH

• Penn State is 51-6 (.895) during the month of August under the direction of head coach Russ Rose (since 1979), following a 2-1 weekend at home in the Penn State Classic. Defeating the Mountaineers, the Nittany Lions have not dropped a season-opening match since losing to Oregon in 2011 before rebounding with a hard fought 3-2 win against No. 2 USC the next evening. Penn State's first two season-opening losses came during the inaugural NACWAA in 1995 against Nebraska and in the 1999 NACWAA when Florida outlasted Penn State, 3-2, in the opening round.

• With head coach Russ Rose at the helm of the program, Penn State is 380-55 (.874) during the month of September, dating back to 1979. The Lions are 222-21 (.914) during the month of September dating back to the 1995 season and 62-11 (.849) since 2010.

• PSU is 395-48 (.892) during the month of October during Rose's tenure (since 1979). Penn State has posted a 132-21 (.863) mark in October since the 2000 season, and a record of 88-11 (.888) dating back to 2006, without losing a match during the month from 2006 to the end of the 2009 season.

• Penn State is 299-51 (.854) during the month of November since 1979, including a 126-16(.887) mark since the end of 2000. The Nittany Lions posted a four-year streak from 1996-1999 where they did not lose a match in the month. Since 2010, Penn State is 49-8(.859), since the end of the 2010 season, having not dropped a match in the month for three straight years from 2012-14.

NITTANY LIONS ON TV

There's no need to worry this year if you can't follow Penn State on the road or make it to every home match. As one of the nation's top volleyball programs, Penn State has earned regional and national exposure. This year, the Nittany Lions will be on television at least nine times between the Big Ten Network and Pac-12 Network. All other matches will be streamed live on GoPSUsports.com or on BTN Plus.

A CLOSER LOOK AT 2016

WHO'S GONE AND WHO'S BACK

Perhaps Penn State's biggest challenge this year will be replacing the offensive power generated from All-American seniors Aiyana Whitney and Megan Courtney. While the offensive gap is just one piece of the puzzle, Penn State does return a few other key pieces in different areas. The Nittany Lions finished the 2015 season ranked third nationally and first in the Big Ten in blocks per set, led by First Team AVCA All-American Haleigh Washington, who led the team with 1.38 blocks per set, which closed out the year ranked third in the conference. A unanimous All-Big Ten selection, Washington also logged 13 double-figure kill performances, finishing the year with .442 hitting efficiency that ranked third nationally and first in the league.

Other key offensive returners include AVCA All-America Honorable Mention Ali Frantti, and Simone Lee, who closed out the year starting 18 of the final 21 matches of the year. The Nittany Lions also received significant contributions from Bryanna Weiskircher, who helped set the team to a .295 hitting percentage in her first season at setter, good for fifth nationally in the final standings.

Despite the graduation of seniors Kendall Pierce and Lara Caraway, the Nittany Lions have the most depth in terms of numbers at defensive specialist. Keeton Holcomb is among a group of five returners at the position with the most experience. Holcomb played in 32 matches during her first season in the Blue and White, making 28 starts. She led the team with 3.05 digs per set, highlighting the season with a pair of 20-dig performance in the same day in wins against Mississippi State and Notre Dame.

TRANSFER TIME

Joining Weiskircher and Rivera at the setting position is Abby Detering and Caroline Graham. Both Detering and Graham transferred to Penn State having previously attended Florida and UCLA, respectively. Detering spent the last two seasons at Florida and enters 2016 as a junior on the Nittany Lion roster.

Graham transferred to Penn State after spending a year at UCLA, but did not play on the volleyball team. Graham attended Lycee Alexandre Dumas, serving as team captain from 2014-16. She played club volleyball with AS Tigresses (Tigers), helping the team to a national championship in 2015 and a second-place finish in 2014 and 2016.

Outside hitter Clare Powers rounds out the transfer group. Powers ranked third on the team in kills per set with 1.93 and finished fourth in digs per set with 2.19 in her first season at Saint Mary's before an injury cut her sophomore season short. She transfers to Penn State as a redshirt sophomore on the roster.

WHO'S NEW

Outside of the trio of transfers, Penn State's true freshman class features five newcomers including Emily DeMure, Allison Farrell, Kristin Krause, Emily Sciorra and Kendall White.

Emily DeMure » A four-year letterwinner at Granite Bay, DeMure helped the Grizzly Bears to a DI state championship during the 2013-14 season, as well as an All-League title in the same year. She also helped Granite Bay to a NorCal All-Section title in 2015, served as team captain. She was selected as team MVP at Granite Bay in 2015 and played club volleyball for Gold Cal Juniors.

Allison Farrell » A four-year letterwinner at Glenbard East, Farrell helped the Rams to a regional title during the 2014-15 season. She also earned Upstate 8 All-Conference and All-Area honors in 2015 and played club volleyball with Sports Performance.

Kristin Krause » Krause joins older sister Taylor on the Nittany Lion roster. A four-year letterwinner at Parkland High, Krause set the Trojans to back-to-back East Penn conference, district and Pennsylvania state championships in 2014-15. Selected as Pennsylvania's volleyball Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2015-16, she played club volleyball with East Coast Power, where she was coached by her father, Mike Krause.

Emily Scierra » Scierra was a four-year letterwinner at Chantilly, where she helped the Chargers to a Conference 6A championship in 2013 as the team's libero. Scierra played club volleyball with Metro Volleyball Club of Washington D.C., helping her team to gold in the Sports Performance National Junior Classic Open.

Kendall White » White was four-year letterwinner at Cathedral, White helped the Irish become the first Indiana 4A team to post an undefeated record (36-0) in 2015 on the way to an Indiana Class 4A state title as the team's libero. Among numerous honors, she was named Indiana's volleyball Gatorade State Player of the Year in 2015-16 and selected as the Indy Star Player of the Year and Cathedral's High School Female Athlete of the Year.

RUSS ROSE AT A GLANCE ...

It's been nearly four decades since Russ Rose arrived on campus. Entering his 38th season, the AVCA Hall of Fame head coaches' record-setting seven NCAA national titles and 16 Big Ten championships speak directly to the confidence and character he's passed along throughout his career.

As each year passes, his list of accomplishments continue to swell, but a quick snapshot of his legendary tenure might read something like this: The leader of a women's volleyball powerhouse who's kept his program among the nation's elite for nearly 40 years, guiding his teams to a record-setting seven NCAA national titles, including an unprecedented four consecutive championships from 2007-10. Along with 16 Big Ten titles, his program is one of only two women's volleyball schools to compete in all 36 NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball National Championship events. He's produced four AVCA National Players of the Year, 13 Big Ten conference Players of the Year and at least one AVCA All-American in 35 of 36 seasons. His student-athletes excel in the classroom as well, with an outstanding 156 Academic All-Big Ten selections and five Academic All-Americans.

STREAKING!

Penn State holds the four of the top five winning streaks in Big Ten history. Penn State's most recent record-setting streak of 65 consecutive matches began on Nov. 11, 2006 and ended on Sept. 24, 2010 at Illinois. It is the longest streak in league history. Penn State's other two conference winning streaks were 49 matches and 41. Penn State's 33-match winning streak, dating back to Oct. 17, 2014 was snapped during the 2015 season in a 3-2 loss to then-fourth-ranked Nebraska.

Top Five Big Ten Winning Streaks

- 65 Penn State (11/11/06 9/18/10) snapped at Illinois (9/24/10)
- 49 Penn State (11/1/97 11/27/99) snapped at Wisconsin (9/22/00)
- 41 Penn State (10/22/04 10/21/06 snapped at Wisconsin (10/27/06)
- 40 Illinois (11/15/85 11/20/87) snapped at Purdue (11/27/87)

NITTANY LION ALUMS EARN BRONZE WITH TEAM USA

Penn State women's volleyball All-American alums Alisha Glass and Christa (Harmotto) Dietzen earned a Bronze medal with the United States Women's National Team at the Olympic Games in Rio.

Having played key roles for Team USA throughout the event, Glass and Dietzen helped the United States to a 3-1 (25-23, 25-27, 25-22, 25-19) win against the Netherlands to clinch The Americans' second Bronze medal since the 1992 games in Barcelona, Spain. Team USA went 6-0 through Pool play before a close 3-2 loss to Serbia in the semifinals moved the United States to 6-1 heading into the Bronze medal match.

Penn State women's volleyball now has four Olympic medalists in Nittany Lion program history as Glass earns her first and Dietzen picks up her second consecutive. Having previously earned Silver with the U.S. at the 2012 Games in London, Dietzen is Penn State's first women's volleyball alum to win two Olympic medals as a member of the 12-woman roster.

From Hopewell Township, Pa., Dietzen was a two-time first-team All-American and the 2008 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in women's volleyball. From Leland, Mich., Glass also was a two-time first-team All-American for the Nittany Lions. Glass was a member of the initial three national title squads and Dietzen was a member of the first two squads, playing for Hall of Fame Coach Russ Rose.

PERSONAL

Born Taylor Krause on Aug. 21, 1995 in Allentown, Pa. ... Parents are Michael and Jill Krause ... Has one sister, Kristin, who is a freshman on the team ... Mother, Jill, attended Penn State ... Majoring in elementary education ... Names "Pitch Perfect" as favorite movie, Abby Wambach as favorite athlete, Channing Tatum, Adam Sandler and Nia Reed as favorite entertainers.

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Taylor is our best leader at this point in time. She's the daughter of a coach, has played a lot of volleyball and knows what the team's needs are even though she might not be in the best position to provide a solution. Over the course of her career, she's had a good serve, competes hard and I would expect her to continue that into her final season."

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"I am really hoping Simone will be able to pick up some of the offensive gaps that we have with the graduation of Aiyana Whitney and Megan Courtney. She didn't have a full time role last year, but I thought she had a good spring and she's arguably our strongest athlete. Her energy is great and I'm confident that she'll be able to carry a big load for us this year."

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Lainy had a really impactful freshman year and did not really have the same impact in her sophomore year. I think Lainy has picked up on what she has to do. She knows she has to be able to serve and that has always been her strength. Now she needs to be able to pass and defend at the same level. As a daughter of a coach I am confident that she will put in the time."

Names "The Office" as favorite TV show, the "Frashington Omelet" as favorite food, Robin Williams as favorite actor, "The Color Purple" as her favorite book and reading, yoga and hiking as hobbies ... Majoring in philosophy.

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Haleigh had a great freshman season coming off of a preseason injury and I thought she played really well. She had good success early in her sophomore year and then she ran out of gas as the season went along. She has had some physical challenges that have been addressed, so hopefully she'll be healthy. She is an engaging human being who has great energy and is a terrific student. Haleigh has national team potential and has to put in all her energy.

PERSONAL

Born Keeton Laurence Holcomb on March 4, 1997 in Bryan, Texas ... Parents are Stacy and Tom Holcomb ... Has two younger siblings, brother Harrison and sister, Jolie ... Names "The Office" as favorite TV show, "Looking for Alaska" as favorite book ... Reading and hiking as hobbies and her grandma's chicken and dumplings as her favorite food ... Undecided on a major.

"I thought there were matches where Keeton played well and the team responded especially well and there were some matches, especially toward the end of the year, where she was just wore down. The demands of the position and the strength of the conference kind of slowed her down a little bit. Hopefully, she'll take the experiences that she gained last year and combine it with what she brings to the table. She's a confident defender and a really good teammate."

PERSONAL

Born Wilmarie Rivera Roldan on February 14, 1997 in Carolina, Puerto Rico… Parents are Esmeralda and Wilmar Rivera … Has two brothers, Wilmar and William, who both play baseball in Puerto Rico… Majoring in business … Names rice, beans and chicken as favorite foods and going to the beach with family and friends as her favorite activity outside of volleyball.

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Of the younger players, I know Wilma has made the biggest jump as far as her level of play. Her serve has become a factor, she's quick and much stronger than when she came in. I think her strength has really picked up and with the strength comes some confidence in playing the game. I except her to contribute in a variety of ways this campaign."

QUOTING COACH ROSE

"Tori is a former camper who we redshirted last year and the expectations are very high for her. She's especially good off of one foot, has a good arm and I think once she gets healthy, she'll be in the mix to help us at the middle blocking position. Tori is the daughter of a professional athlete and I know she understands what it takes to succeed."

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Juniors Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee powered the offense with 10 kills apiece, with Washington leading the team with a .714 hitting efficiency (10-0-14).

Penn State shot out to an 8-2 lead in the first set to take control of an early advantage. The Mountaineers looked to cut off the run with a kill, 8-3, but the Nittany Lions regrouped with a 4-2 stretch to make it 12-5. West Virginia looked to slow the momentum with a 3-1 spurt, 13-8, but back-to-back kills from Frantti opened up a 9-4 streak that sent Penn State surging ahead, 22-12.

A Nittany Lion service error cut off the run, but two kills from Lee in between one from Thelen wrapped up a 25-13 win in the first set to put PSU ahead, 1-0.

Penn State got out to another hot start in the second set, using an 8-3 run to build another comfortable cushion. The Mountaineers looked to get back on track, putting away a kill before a PSU attack error, 5-8. Penn State answered back with four unanswered points to pull ahead by seven, 12-5.

A Penn State service error broke up the rhythm, 12-6, but the Nittany Lions responded with a 7-3 run to bolster the advantage to double figures, 19-9. West Virginia looked once again for an opportunity following a kill, 19-10. The Nittany Lions did not let the Mountaineers get any closer though, using a 6-3 run capped off by two kills from Washington to close out a 25-13 win in the second set.

Trailing by one in the third set, 4-3, a kill from Frantti and two more from Washington opened up a 7-1 stretch that sent Penn State ahead by as many as five, 10-5. The Mountaineers came battling back with a 4-1 run to narrow the gap to two, 11-9. Penn State regrouped and followed with a 6-2 streak, capped off by a solo stuff from Gorrell to make it 17-11, forcing WVU to call its second timeout.

West Virginia made one final attempt to mount a comeback, using a 4-2 burst out of the break to arrive within four, 19-15. Penn State responded with a block from Frantti and Washington to spark a 5-1 run that carried the Nittany Lions to set point, 24-16. The Mountaineers held off one attempt before serving into the net to hand Penn State a 25-17 win in the third set to complete the sweep.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - No. 9 Penn State women's volleyball (2-0) powered past Georgia Southern (0-2) in straight sets (25-13, 25-12, 25-7) Saturday morning at Rec Hall.

A total of 16 Nittany Lions saw the court in the win as Clare Powers and Jelena Novakovic made their debuts in the Blue and White.

Penn State got out to a fast start, using a 6-2 run to take over an early lead. The Eagles looked to stall the run, connecting on a pair of kills in between one from the Nittany Lions, 7-4. Penn State cut off the attempt with a kill before a Georgia Southern ball handling error widened the Nittany Lion lead to five, 9-4, causing the Eagles to call a timeout.

Georgia Southern followed with a 5-4 stretch in an attempt to keep within four, 13-9. Penn State continued to pull away though, using a 5-1 strike to bolster the advantage to as many as eight, 18-10.

Three Nittany Lion attack errors in between a kill from Thelen brought Georgia Southern within six, 19-13. From there, Penn State settled into another rhythm, closing out the set with six unanswered points featuring three blocks from Washington and Thelen to secure a 25-13 win.

The Nittany Lions jumped out to another hot start in the second set, using a 7-2 streak to force Georgia Southern into an early timeout. The Eagles could not spark any momentum out of the break as Penn State answered with an 11-6 scoring streak, capped off by Lee's third kill of the frame to send the advantage into double figures, 18-7.

Georgia Southern made another attempt to trim deficit with a kill, 18-8, but an Eagle service error sparked a 6-3 run that lifted the Nittany Lions to set point, 24-11. Georgia Southern held off one attempt before Washington slammed a kill to wrap up a 25-12 win in the second set.

Penn State continued its momentum into the third set, opening on a 12-1 run, featuring kills from Frantti, Lee and Reed. Georgia Southern looked to slow the Nittany Lions with a pair of kills in between one from Washington, 12-2. Penn State did not look back though, cruising to a 25-7 win in the third set on a 13-5 run to complete the sweep.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.- No. 9 Penn State women's volleyball (2-1) fell short in 3-2 (25-16, 22-25, 25-21, 23-25, 9-15) loss to No. 19 North Carolina (3-0) Saturday evening at Rec Hall.

With the score tied early, 3-3 Penn State used a 5-0 fun featuring two kills from both Frantti and Lee to take over a five-point lead, 8-3. The Nittany Lions came out of the break with two more kills from Lee and another from Gorrell to widen the advantage to as many as eight, 11-3. North Carolina answered back with a 4-2 stretch to trim the gap to six, 13-7. Penn State earned an opportunity off a UNC service error, 13-6, but could not find momentum as the Tarheels continued to match the Nittany Lions point-for-point to remain with six, 17-11.

Penn State rebounded with a 4-1 stretch to make it 20-11, but the two teams continued to trade points until Penn State reached set point, 24-15 off a kill from Frantti. North Carolina held off one attempt before another Frantti kill secured a 25-16 win in the first set. The Nittany Lions and the Tarheels battled back and forth throughout the first half of the second set, tying the score four times.

Trailing by two, 17-15, Penn State called a timeout to regroup. The Tarheels came out of the break with a service error before a block from Thelen and Gorrell tied the score, 17-17. Two more North Carolina attack errors quickly put Penn State back in front by two, 19-17, causing UNC to call a timeout. North Carolina came storming back with three unanswered points, but Penn State followed with a kill and an ace from Lee to pull ahead, 21-20, forcing another UNC timeout. The Nittany Lions looked to continue momentum out of the break following a Tarheel attack error, but Penn State failed to sustain the momentum as UNC rattled off the next five consecutive points to take set two, 25-22, evening the match at 1-1.

Trailing by four in the third set, 5-1, kills from Washington and Lee sparked a 5-2 run that pushed the Nittany Lions within one, 7-6. Penn State continued to fight point-for-point, using a 2-1 spurt to tie the score, 8-8. Penn State and North Carolina continued to trade points tying the frame three more times, 11-11, until a kill from Washington and an ace from Rivera lifted PSU ahead, 13-11. From there, the Nittany Lions managed to maintain at least a two point edge, until a pair of late Tarheel kills brought UNC within two for the final time at 23-21. Penn State responded with a kill from Lee before a North Carolina ball handling error gave the Nittany Lions a 25-21 win in the third set to put PSU on top, 2-1.

The Tarheels jumped out to another 5-1 lead in the fourth set. A UNC service error opened a 4-1 streak that lifted Penn State ahead by one, 6-5. Unable to maintain the advantage, PSU and UNC traded points to tie the score, 8-8. UNC looked to pull away with a kill and a block, 10-8, but PSU followed with a 5-2 streak to maintain a one-point lead, 13-12. North Carolina followed with a kill to tie the score, 13-13, but Penn State put together a 7-3 run to expand the advantage to four, 20-16.

North Carolina looked to cut off the run with a kill, 20-17, but Penn State used another 3-1 strike capped off by kills from Thelen and Frantti to make it 23-18. Unable to sustain the momentum, things quickly turned for the Nittany Lions as the Tarheels charged back with seven unanswered points to force a fifth and deciding set.

Down by two, 4-2 early in the fifth frame, a UNC attack error and a kill from Lee tied the score at 4-4. UNC responded with a 7-3 scoring streak to pull ahead, 11-7, forcing Penn State to call a timeout. The Nittany Lions came out of the break with back-to-back blocks to arrive within two, 11-9. Penn State once again could not continue to its offensive rhythm, as North Carolina used a 4-0 run to secure a 15-9 win in the final set to end the match.

BOULDER, Colo. - Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell turned in a career-high 14 kills and five blocks, but it was not enough as No. 13 Penn State dropped a five-set (25-22,20-25,19-25,25-20, 3-15) decision at Colorado Saturday evening in the first match of the Big Ten/Pac-12 Challenge at the Coors Events Center.

After forcing a decisive fifth set with a come from behind 25-20 victory in the fourth Penn State had the momentum. However, it was Colorado who came out fired up and rattled off six consecutive points for the early 6-0 margin. Lee stopped the run as she split the block with a kill, but the Buffaloes came right back with a kill and a service ace for the 8-1 lead. Lee added another kill, but Penn State could not silence the Colorado attack as they cruised to the 15-3 set victory and the 3-2 match win.

A back-and-forth opening set saw the teams trade momentum as early on Lee connected on an ace to tie things at 3-3 and a few points later Washington skied for a solo block during a 4-point Lion spurt for the 8-7 edge. Midway through the set Gorrell sparked the Nittany Lions with a huge kill to tie the score at 13-13. Gorrell had four kills in the opening set to pace the team while hitting at an 80 percent clip.

The teams continued to trade points with neither holding more than a two-point advantage at any time until PSU used a 4-0 spurt to close the set after an attacking error off a serve from freshman Kendall White for the 25-22 set victory. PSU hit. 414 in the opening set. The Buffaloes came out in the second set fired up jumping to an early 3-0 lead before Penn State came right back with three straight points of their own with kills by Lee, Gorrell and Washington, in that order. However, a pair of attacking errors by the visitors and some big kills for Colorado pushed the host lead to 10-4, the biggest of the game for either team.

The Lions came clawing back, however, following a timeout and were able to rattle off seven of the next nine points to cut the deficit to 12-11 after the soft touch of junior Heidi Thelen resulted in a kill and prompted a Buffalo timeout. Colorado fought back again out of the break with a pair of quick points and wouldn't let Penn State get close enough to grab the momentum as a pair of late service errors and a closing block by Joslyn Hayes gave the Buffaloes the 25-20 second set win.

Behind Frantti and Washington the Nittany Lions came out of the ten-minute break and started the third set on fire jumping out to a 5-2 lead after a huge solo-block by Washington and a big swing by Frantti. The Buffaloes regrouped and came surging back scoring 13 of the next 20 points to grab the 15-12 lead at the media timeout. CU continued to roll scoring two more quick ones out of the break on a pair of attack errors to grab their largest lead of the set 17-12. Junior Lainy Pierce sparked a comeback off the bench as she served up a pair of points while Lee and Gorrell both hit the double-digit kill mark as PSU scored six-of-eight points prompting a timeout trailing just 19-18. However, Colorado used the energy of the crowd and rattled off six of the final seven points for the 25-19 set victory.

Lee opened the fourth set with a big swing, but Colorado came back with five unanswered points for the 5-1 lead taking advantage of three attacking errors by Penn State. The Lions fought back taking advantage of Colorado errors and used back-to-back kills by Frantti for the 9-8 edge. A kill by Washington followed by a block-assist by Frantti and Washington pushed the lead to 11-8, their largest lead since the opening set victory. The Nittany Lions continued to grow that lead grabbing their largest margin of the contest, 20-14, after back-to-back kills by Washington and Frantti. PSU continued to roll in the fourth set as Washington soared for back-to-back blocks for the 22-15 edge late in the frame. Despite a late run by Colorado with three straight points it was Gorrell with the final kill in the fourth set to set up the decisive fifth.

Penn State led in kills, 60-55, but had 33 attacking errors including 12 service errors and Colorado held the .220 to .154 advantage in hitting percentage for the contest.

BOULDER, Colo. - No. 13 Penn State women's volleyball (2-3) fell short in three sets (24-26, 18-25-22-25) to No. 9 Stanford (2-1) Sunday evening in the final match of the Big Ten/Pac-12 Challenge at the Coors Events Center.

Junior Simone Lee paced the Nittany Lions with 12 kills while junior Haleigh Washington added nine. Freshman Kendall White led the way with a career-high 22 digs for her first career 20-dig performance. Junior Abby Detering

Momentum began to shift in the opening set about midway through as a back-and-forth pace turned in favor of the Nittany Lions with Detering coming up with a big swing and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell a big block for an 11-11 tie. After Stanford rebounded for a pair of consecutive points it was the Lee sparking a four-point rally which included another Gorrell block and a 15-13 PSU advantage. The Cardinal fought back after a media timeout and used back-to-back service aces from Hayley Hodson to pull ahead 20-18. Lee responded with a huge kill and both Detering and Gorrell skied for a block to knot the score again at 20-20. The teams continued to trade points before Penn State went on a mini three-point spurt to reach set point at 24-22. Stanford battled back, however, rattling off four straight points for the set victory, 26-24. The first set saw 16 ties and five lead changes while Penn State hit .325 and Stanford just .237 with seven errors to the Nittany Lions' two.

The second set started with a fury of Lion points to grab a 3-1 lead before Stanford got back ahead at 5-4. PSU then ran off four straight points with a pair of kills by Frantti and one each by Washington and junior Heidi Thelen for the 8-5 edge. The Cardinal again came back with another 3-0 run to pull even again, 8-8, before Penn State secured six of the next eight points to jump to a 14-10 lead, their largest of the match. Detering had a pair of huge kills while Lee had a big block and kill during the run. Stanford again fought back into things going on a 7-0 run which included a pair of service aces to take the 17-14 lead. The Cardinal continued the pace as they scored 15 of the final 19 points to cruise to the 25-18 set victory.

PSU came out of the break to start the third set with some intensity using a Detering kill to grab a 3-1 lead and a few points late Detering combined with Washington for a block and the 5-3 lead. The Cardinal regained control for a brief portion maintaining a multiple point lead before a service error and a big block by Thelen knotted everything up at 18-18. The Nittany Lions then took a two-point edge, 21-19, after kills by Washington and Frantti, but again the Cardinal came back to tie at 21-21 after a net violation. Out of a timeout the teams then traded points before Stanford collected the final three-straight for the 25-22 set victory.

Penn State held the slim 43-41 lead in kills and the 10-8 margin in blocks, but Stanford used eight service aces and only two service errors to their advantage while hitting .232 to PSU's .227.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - No. 17 Penn State women's volleyball (3-3) opened the first day of the Syracuse Classic with a straight set (25-11, 25-10, 25-12) win against Siena (1-6) Friday morning at the Women's Building.

Four Nittany Lions registered at least four kills in the win, led by a match-high 14 kills from junior Simone Lee. In addition to her fifth double-figure kill performance of the season, Lee also added four digs and three total blocks.

Penn State jumped out to a 5-2 advantage early in the opening frame, helped out by two kills apiece from Washington and Lee. A Siena kill broke up the streak, but the Nittany Lions regrouped with a 10-5 scoring streak to move ahead by as many as eight, 15-7, causing Siena to call its second timeout.

The Saints looked to get back on track, after a PSU service error following an exchange of kills made it 17-9. Penn State responded with a kill from Detering and a block from Lee and Washington to push the advantage to double figures, 19-9.

Siena answered with a kill and a block to arrive within eight, 19-11, but the Nittany Lions did not surrender another point, cruising to a 25-11 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions got out to another fast start in the second set, using a 9-3 run to build an early lead. Siena battled back with a 4-2 stretch to trim the gap to four, 11-7. Penn State regrouped with a 6-1 stretch featuring a pair of kills from both Lee and Detering to send the Nittany Lion advantage to nine, 17-8.

Siena called a timeout and looked to stop the momentum with a kill out of the break, 17-9, but Penn State followed with four unanswered points to make it 21-9. A Nittany Lion service error broke up the rhythm, 21-10, but Penn State used another 4-0 run to close out a 25-10 win in the second set.

Trailing by one in the third set, 6-5, Lee sparked a 4-0 strike with a kill to lift the Nittany Lions ahead by three, 9-6, causing the Saints to call a timeout. Penn State continued to roll out of the break, widening the scoring streak to a 9-0 run as the Nittany Lions surged ahead, 14-6.

The Saints attempted to get back on track with a 4-2 stretch, 16-10, narrowing the deficit to six, 16-10. Redshirt sophomore Nia Reed answered with a kill to open up a 6-1 run that bolstered the Penn State advantage to as many as 10, 22-11. Siena called timeout looking to regroup, but the Nittany Lions came out of the break with a 3-1 strike to wrap up a 25-12 win in the third set to complete the sweep.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. - Led by a 20-kill performance from junior Simone Lee, No. 17 Penn State women's volleyball (4-3) took down Hofstra (6-3) in four sets (25-21, 22-25, 25-12, 25-11) Saturday afternoon in the second match of the Syracuse Classic.

Trailing by one, 2-1, a pair of Hofstra errors opened up a 4-0 run that lifted the Nittany Lions ahead by three, 5-2, causing Hofstra to call an early timeout.

The Pride came out of the break with a kill, but the Nittany Lions regrouped with a 7-0 run to take over a nine-point lead, 12-3. Hofstra followed with a kill, 12-4, but Penn State answered with a 3-1 strike in to remain ahead, 15-5. The Pride came storming back, using a 4-0 strike to make it 15-9, causing the Nittany Lions to call a timeout. Penn State came out of the break with two kills from Washington and Lee and an ace from junior Lainy Pierce to rebuild the advantage to nine, 18-9. With the Nittany Lions unable to sustain the momentum, Hofstra responded with a 9-2 scoring streak to narrow the Penn State lead to two, 20-18. Gorrell and Lee cut off the momentum with consecutive kills to lift Penn State ahead, 22-18. Hofstra made one final attempt to mount a comeback with back-to-back kills, cutting the deficit to two again, 22-20. A kill from Gorrell and a Hofstra attack error made it set point, 24-20. Hofstra held off one attempt before a kill from Thelen secured a 25-21 win in the first set.

Penn State and Hofstra battled point-for-point throughout the first half of the second set, tying the score 11 times. With the score locked, 15-15, Hofstra used back-to-back kills for a two-point advantage, 17-15, causing the Nittany Lions to call a timeout. The Nittany Lions struggled to regroup out of the break as Hofstra used a 4-2 stretch to widen the advantage to three, 21-18, causing PSU to call another timeout. Penn State came out of the break with back-to-back kills from Lee and Gorrell before a Hofstra attack error tied the score, 21-21. Penn State could not shift the momentum as the Pride responded with a 3-1 spurt to arrive at set point, 24-22. One more Hofstra killed gave the Pride a 25-22 win in the second set to tie the match, 1-1.

Penn State got out to a fast start in the third set, using a 6-2 run to construct an early lead, prompting Hofstra to call a timeout. Penn State continued to roll out of the break, using a 6-1 streak, capped off by kills from Lee to widen the advantage to as many as nine, 12-3. The Pride looked to break up the momentum with a kill, 12-4, but the Nittany Lions answered back with a 6-4 stretch to send the advantage into double figures, 18-8, causing Hofstra to use its final timeout. A block from Washington and Detering out of the timeout sparked another 6-2 scoring streak that lifted the Nittany Lions to set point, 24-10. Hofstra held off two attempts before the Pride served into the net to give Penn State a 25-12 win in the third set to go up 2-1 in the match.

Leading by two in the fourth set, 8-6, Washington put away back-to-back kills to begin a 6-0 run that pulled Penn State ahead, 14-6. Hofstra looked to cut off the run with a kill, 14-7, but the Nittany Lions responded with five unanswered points to surge ahead, 19-7.

SYRACUSE, N.Y.- No. 17 Penn State women's volleyball (5-3) swept past Syracuse (1-6) in straight sets (25-22, 25-17, 25-12) to capture the Syracuse Classic title Saturday evening at the Women's Building.

Penn State and Syracuse kept it close in the early part of the first set. Trailing by one, 10-9, Lee sparked a 3-0 spurt with a kill to bring the Nittany Lions ahead by two, 12-10. The Orange answered with a pair of kills to tie the score again, 12-12. PSU and SU continued to trade points, 14-14, until a pair of Orange errors gave the Nittany Lions a two-point edge, 16-14. Looking to regroup, Syracuse called timeout.

Penn State came out of the break with a 5-2 run featuring a pair of kills from Lee to pull ahead by five, 21-16, prompting the Orange to call timeout. Syracuse came out of the break with back-to-back kills before a Nittany Lion attack error brought the Orange within one, 21-19, causing Penn State to call a timeout.

Penn State came out of the timeout with a 2-1 spurt to widen the margin to three, 23-20, but Syracuse followed with consecutive kills to arrive within one, 23-22. A Syracuse service error out of a Penn State timeout gave the Nittany Lions set point, 24-22. White followed with an ace to close out a 25-22 win in the first set.

The Nittany Lions jumped out to a 7-3 start in the second set, capped off by a block from Thelen and Gorrell to prompt the Orange to call a timeout. Penn State followed with a 4-2 stretch to widen the advantage to six, 11-5. Syracuse came storming back, using a 6-2 scoring streak to narrow the gap to three, 13-10. Penn State halted the run, using a 5-2 run to build the advantage back to six, 18-12.

A Nittany Lion net violation and an Orange block made it 18-14, but Penn State regrouped with kills from Lee and Frantti, sparking a 4-1 strike that made it 22-15. Syracuse looked to get back on track with a block following a Penn State service error, 22-17, but Washington, Detering and Frantti wrapped up a 25-17 win in the second set with three consecutive kills.

Penn State moved out to an 11-6 start in the third set, led by kills from three different Nittany Lions. The Orange called timeout looking to break up the streak, but Penn State followed with four unanswered points to bolster the advantage to as many as nine, 15-6. Syracuse called its final timeout of the frame and looked for an opportunity off a PSU service error out of the break, 15-7.

The Nittany Lions did not let the Orange any closer than nine as Penn State surged to a 25-12 win in the third set to complete the sweep.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 20 Penn State women's volleyball team (6-3) had a dominant performance Friday evening in a 3-0 (25-6, 25-18, 25-13) win against Rhode Island (4-6) inside the friendly confines of Rec Hall.

Penn State had an impressive performance on both ends of the net, hitting at a .375 clip over three sets while limiting Rhode Island to a negative percentage. The junior duo of Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee led the way for the Nittany Lions over the evening. Washington had 11 kills on 14 attempts for a blistering .786 hitting. She added five blocks.

Lee tacked on 10 kills for her eighth match this season in double figures. The Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin, native added five digs and a pair of blocks.

Penn State rounds out its non-conference slate tomorrow, Saturday, Sept. 17, in a doubleheader. The Nittany Lions will take on Howard (10-3) tomorrow at 10 a.m. before closing out the Penn State Invitational with Clemson (4-6) at 7 p.m. Fans can gain entrance to the second match for just $4 dollars with a ticket stub from the Penn State-Temple football game.

The Nittany Lions fired out the gates in their first set, opening the match on a 7-0 run, powered by Lee with a trio of kills. Penn State allowed just six points in the entire first frame, as PSU followed Rhode Island's first score with a 6-1 run of their own. Back-to-back kills from Washington were followed by a URI timeout when Penn State led, 17-4. URI scored twice more before kills from Washington, Lee and junior setter Abby Detering closed out the first set, 25-6.

The second set proved a tougher challenge. Both sides traded points to 10-10 before the Nittany Lions found their stride. A pair of Washington kills and errors from Rhode Island made it a five-point set and led Rhode Island to call for time at 17-12. The sides traded points once again before a pair of kills from junior Heidi Thelen turned the tide. The two scores gave Penn State a 22-17 advantage, forcing Rhode Island's second timeout. Washington notched one more kill before an error gave PSU a 2-0 advantage headed into the break, taking the second set 25-18.

Detering took hold in the final frame, guiding Penn State to .345 hitting while adding a trio of kills en route to the decisive 25-13 victory. After PSU and URI tied at six-all, Washington, Detering and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti each posted kills to lead a 4-0 run and force the Rhode Island timeout. The team never looked back, with Simone and Thelen providing a combined three kills to take a 19-10 lead. Washington and Detering closed out the set with kills to complete the sweep.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.- The No. 20 Penn State women's volleyball team (7-3) strung together another straight-set performance on Saturday morning, taking down Howard (10-4) 3-0 (25-16, 25-12, 25-16) inside Rec Hall.

The Nittany Lions had a balanced attack, with four players posting seven or more kills in the match. Once again, junior outside hitter Simone Lee led the way for Penn State, this time with 12 kills. Junior Haleigh Washington posted eight kills on .467 hitting while tacking on a team-best four blocks.

The duo of Ali Frantti and Heidi Thelen each posted seven kills. Frantti tacked on six digs and two blocks, while Thelen put up a pair of blocks as well.

Freshman libero Kendall White anchored the defense, providing a team-high 10 digs and added a pair of assists.

The first set of action belonged to the trio of Thelen, Lee and Tori Gorrell who posted a combined 12 kills, helping PSU to a .414 hitting clip. Lee notched all three of her kills within the first five points of the match, boosting Penn State to a 4-1 lead. The Bison caught up at 4-4 before a three point gap was opened at 10-7 off a kill from Thelen. Howard would never catch up. Gorrell opened things up in the middle of the set, providing kills at 17-12 and 21-13, both resulting in Howard timeouts. Backto-back kills from Thelen and Frantti closed out the first set, 25-16.

The second set was all Lee's as the junior earned half of her kills for the match with six during the second frame. Washington also provided a spark in the second, notching a pair of kills and three of her four blocks for the match. The match was back-and-forth in the early going when Frantti tied the match at 6-6 with a quick kill. Penn State effectively shut the door with a 6-0 run to make the score 12-6. Lee exploded in the latter half, posting four kills during a 6-1 spurt. An error from Howard closed the second set, 25-12.

Washington claimed the third set, going 5-for-5 attacking to lead all hitters in the third frame. Frantti (.400) and Lee (.200) added three kills each. Howard hung in early, keeping with Penn State to an 11-11 ties. From there the Nittany Lions opened a 5-1 run, forcing four Howard errors in the process. Washington notched a pair of kills over the final stretch, including the match winner to take the third, 25-16.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 20 Penn State women's volleyball team (8-3) swept both the Clemson Tigers (5-7) and the Penn State Invitational in Rec Hall on Saturday night after a 3-0 (25-14, 25-17, 25-12) win over its final opponent of the non-conference season.

The trio of Abby Detering, Haleigh Washington and Heide Thelen earned all-tournament team honors after exceptional performances over the weekend. Detering guided the team to a .354 hitting clip in three matches, dishing out 91 assists while adding 14 digs, seven kills, six blocks and three service aces. Washington led the team in both kills (27) and hitting percentage (.610) over the weekend while also posting a team-best 15 blocks. Thelen's transition to right side proved a wise decision, as she came second on the team in kills with 21 while hitting at a .447 clip. She added four blocks, a pair of digs and an assist.

The Penn State standouts were joined by Rhode Island's Audrey Castro, Clemson's Leah Perri and Howard's Khaila Donaldson.

The Blue and White now enter the Big Ten Conference portion of its schedule. The Nittany Lions will kick off league play with a pair of road trips, first taking to Piscataway, New Jersey for a bout with Rutgers on Wednesday at 7 p.m. ET before flying to Evanston, Illinois to face Northwestern on Sunday, September 25 at 1 p.m. ET.

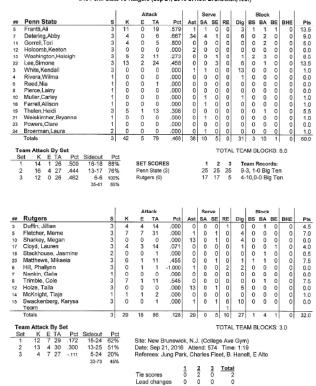

Penn State saw the majority of its offense come from Ali Frantti, Simone Lee and Washington in the first set, with each of the players notching three kills in the opening frame. After a 7-7 tie, the offense erupted for a 4-0 spurt with both Lee and Frantti making their presence known in the burst for an 11-7 lead. A few points later PSU took off for another 4-0 run, with a kill from Tori Gorrell and an ace courtesy of Detering making the score 17-10 when Clemson called its lone timeout of the set. It wouldn't slow the Nittany Lions who expanded the run to 8-0, grabbing a 21-10 lead. Clemson fended off two set points before Penn State took the first, 25-14.

Lee and Thelen posted four kill apiece while Washington added three kills and three blocks in the second frame. PSU did not trail throughout the second set after opening on a 4-2 run. Clemson came within one multiple times before a 4-0 run capped by Thelen's second kill of the scoring session made it 17-12. Clemson came within three at 18-15 before three consecutive kills from Washington launched a 7-2 outburst to win the second, 25-17.

The team held Clemson to -.075 in the final frame of action in a dominant 25-12 victory. The Nittany Lions opened on a 4-0 run and never looked back. Clemson came within one after a 3-0 spurt of their own before a pair of kills from Lee grew the score to 8-4. After kills from Thelen and Washington the crowd erupted in its loudest response of the night as freshman defensive specialist Kendall White struck a back row kill to force a Clemson timeout with a 12-5 edge. From there the lead only grew. PSU closed out the match on an 8-2 run, clinching the win and the perfect weekend.

Match 12: #18 Penn State 3, Rutgers 0

Sept. 21, 2016 - Piscataway, N.J. | College Avenue Gym

PISCATAWAY, N.J. - The No. 18 Penn State women's volleyball team (9-3, 1-0 Big Ten) rolled past the Scarlet Knights of Rutgers (4-10, 0-1 Big Ten), 3-0 (25-17, 25-17, 25-5), on Wednesday evening inside College Avenue Gym.

Junior outside hitters Simone Lee and Ali Frantti led the way, scoring 13 and 11 kills apiece, hitting .579 and .458 respectively.

As a team, the Nittany Lions opened Big Ten play hitting at an impressive .468 clip, committing just five errors throughout the match. The team also exceeded serving, recording 10 aces in the outing.

The match started with a solo block from Lee before Detering aced the Scarlet Knights for a 3-0 lead. Rutgers scored twice during the span of the next seven points, when an enormous kill courtesy of Frantti forced a Rutgers timeout at 8-2. Rutgers scored three times before a block from Frantti and Washington pushed the Nittany Lions to be the first to 10 points. A kill of the slide from Haleigh Washington the next play edged the PSU lead to 11-5. The two sides swapped points back and forth with nothing between the two sides, as each scored six points. Penn State's lead spanned between five and six points. A kill from middle blocker Tori Gorrell made Penn State the first team to 20, before a solo stuff from Frantti made a 21-14 lead. Washington notched an enormous block with Thelen before an error from Rutgers ended the set. Frantti, Gorrell and Lee each notched three kills in the 25-17 first set victory.

An over pass kill from Washington highlighted the early action in the second, as Penn State jumped to an early 3-1 lead. An enormous swing from Lee made the score 5-2 in the Nittany Lions' favor, when Rutgers responded with two of their own. Penn State responded with a 3-0 run, capped by a kill from Gorrell, before Rutgers put together a 4-0 spurt to tie the set, 8-8. The two sides traded blows, with Frantti posting an electric kill to make the score 12-10 in PSU's favor. There was no separation between the two sides, going back and forth, before Thelen's third kill of the night and an ace from Laura Broerman sparked a 3-0 run, causing a Rutgers timeout at an 18-14 Penn State edge. The stoppage didn't slow PSU, as the Blue and White opened a 4-2 run, finished with a solo stop from Washington to force Rutgers' second timeout at 22-16. Lee hammered down two of her set-best five kills in the final three plays as PSU claimed the second set, 25-17.

A pair of impressive kills from Frantti and Heidi Thelen followed by three consecutive aces from Abby Detering catapulted Penn State to a 6-0 lead to open the third set. Rutgers called timeout and followed with its first point of the set. Lee notched her sixth kill to spark a 4-0 run. Lee committed a service error before following it up with a kill the next play for an 11-2 lead. A pair of hammers from Frantti and one from Washington extended the lead to 14-2. A 4-2 run for the Nittany Lions including an ace from Frantti for the team's ninth of the evening made the score 18-4, prompting Rutgers' second timeout. Lee came out of the timeout hot, scoring on consecutive kills before a block from Washington and Detering and an ace from Carley Muller made the score 22-4. Rutgers scored just once more before Penn State claimed the match with a 25-5 third set victory

EVANSTON, III. - The No. 18 Penn State women's volleyball team (10-3, 2-0 Big Ten) earned its second win in league play at Northwestern (7-7, 0-2 Big Ten), 3-0 (27-25, 25-17, 25-17), on Sunday afternoon in Welsh-Ryan Arena.

Penn State held a balanced attack in the match, with five players logging five or more kills. Junior outside hitter Simone Lee led the way once again, posting 10 kills in the match along with eight digs and four aces. Junior right side Heidi Thelen played a key role in the victory, notching nine kills and a team-best four blocks. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell added six kills and matched Thelen's blocking output.

The first set opened with two straight points from Northwestern. A kill from junior outside hitter Simone Lee put the Nittany Lions back on track, as she aced the opposition two points later to tie the match. Northwestern responded with four straight points, forcing a Penn State timeout as the Nittany Lions trailed, 7-3. Junior right side Heidi Thelen hammered down a kill out of the break before an errant attack from Northwestern closed the gap to three at 8-5. NU made a 3-0 run before a pair of Wildcat errors and a block from junior setter Abby Detering and Haleigh Washington led Northwestern to use its first timeout with just a two-point lead. A pair of kills from Lee and errors from the Wildcats brought the match to a 12-12 tie before Northwestern opened a 4-0 run to take the lead once again, 16-12.

A kill from Thelen and an ace from libero Kendall White launched a 4-1 scoring run for the Nittany Lions, prompting a Northwestern timeout at 18-17. PSU took the lead following a block from Detering and Washington for a 20-19 lead. Northwestern scored two in a row after a kill off the slide from Washington knotted the match once again at 21-21. The teams swapped points with Lee tying the set once again at 22-22 with her third kill of the day. A quick kill from the middle gave NU set point, before Lee hammered down yet another kill to tie the match. The junior followed the kill with an ace, but an error tied the set at 25-all. Thelen came up big when needed the most, supplying a pair of kills to close out the opening frame, 27-25.

Back-to-back aces from Detering highlighted a 4-1 run to open the second set. Northwestern called timeout following the initial run, forcing an error before middle blocker Tori Gorrell got on the board with a kill of her own. White added the third ace of the match for a 7-3 PSU lead. A pair of kills from Washington and Lee made the score 10-7. A pair of kills from Gorrell and Thelen made it 12-8 in PSU's favor, causing a Northwestern timeout.

Gorrell struck again out of the break before a 3-0 NU run. Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti looked to turn the tide, striking a ball down the line for a 15-12 PSU advantage. A kill from Washington and a trio of errors from Northwestern opened a six-point gap at 20-14. Northwestern scored twice before two blocks involving Gorrell, Lee and Thelen gave Penn State set point. NU fended off set point once before Lee smashed the winner for a 25-17, set two victory.

Washington, Lee and Gorrell each charted kills in the opening portion of the third. A block from Thelen gave PSU a 4-3 lead before NU responded with a kill. Lee quickly added two more kills and an ace, while Gorrell logged a stuff to give PSU an 8-5 lead and force a Northwestern timeout. Gorrell and Thelen combined for a block before Gorrell hit another kill down the middle for a five-point lead. Northwestern burned its second timeout as PSU led, 10-5.

A pair of kills from Washington and junior Ali Frantti helped guide PSU to a 13-8 lead. The sides swapped points before strikes from Lee and Thelen opened the gap to six at 18-12. After a pair of errors from the Wildcats, Gorrell slammed down a kill and Frantti logged a solo block for an eight-point lead, 22-14. Frantti notched a final kill before an NU service error ended the third, 25-17.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 16 Penn State women's volleyball team (11-3, 3-0 Big Ten) notched its seventh consecutive sweep on Friday night in Rec Hall, taking down No. 18 Michigan State (12-3, 1-2 Big Ten), 3-0 (25-22, 25-20, 25-13) in front of a raucous crowd of 3,524.

Penn State once again strung together an impressive match, with a strong .333 hitting efficient on offense while limiting the Spartans to just a .103 clip on 97 attacks. PSU logged 42 kills to the Spartans' 31.

The trio of juniors in Simone Lee, Haleigh Washington and Ali Frantti led the way for the Nittany Lions. Lee logged a team-best 12 kills, with Frantti also scoring double-figures with 10 of her own. Washington had nine kills, an ace and a pair of blocks. Lee added a pair of stuffs as well.

The first set was back-and-forth in the early going, with a host of players in Lee, Washington, Frantti and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell all notching kills to lead to a 15-15 tie. A pair of Michigan State hammers gave the Spartans a two-point lead when Penn State called for time. The break worked, as three consecutive kills from Lee, Washington and Frantti and a Michigan State error caused Michigan State to take its first break of the set with PSU ahead, 19-17. A 3-0 run punctuated by a spike from Gorrell forced Michigan State's second timeout at 23-19. MSU fended off three set points before an error from the Spartans led to a Penn State victory, 25-22.

The second set saw nine ties in the early going before a kill from Washington gave PSU an 11-10 lead. Penn State would not trail again in the set. A block from junior opposite Heidi Thelen and three MSU errors gave Penn State an 18-14 advantage. Michigan State wouldn't back down, pulling within two on a kill at 20-18 when Penn state took its only timeout that set. The Nittany Lions closed out the second set with a 5-2 run, as Gorrell and Lee denied the ball for set point, 25-20.

Penn State came out of the break fired up and put together the most complete set of the evening. Lee, Washington, Gorrell and Frantti all posted kills in the first six points of the match on kills for a 5-1 lead. Michigan State pulled within three at 8-5 when PSU opened a 4-0 run highlighted by a block from Washington and junior setter Abby Detering. MSU called for time at 12-5, but Penn State rattled off three straight points afterwards. A kill for Detering made it 18-8. Lee tacked on a pair of kills before PSU was aced twice. The team called timeout at 23-13 before putting the match away with a MSU error, 25-13.

Match 15: #16 Penn State 3, #22 Michigan 0

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 16 Penn State women's volleyball team (12-3, 4-0 Big Ten) earned its second top-25 victory of the weekend on Saturday night, taking down the visiting Michigan Wolverines (13-3, 2-2 Big Ten), 3-0 (25-20, 25-19, 25-15), inside the friendly confines of Rec Hall.

A slew of Nittany Lions contributed on the offensive end as the team notched 47 kills in the match, tying its largest output in a three-set outing this season.

Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti paced the club with 11 kills on .391 hitting, while adding seven digs and a pair of blocks. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell tabbed nine kills and a team-best five blocks, while Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington had eight kills apiece. Washington also tallied five blocks

Opposite Heidi Thelen had six spikes on a team-high .667 hitting clip. Junior setter Abby Detering paced the offense to a .432 clip as a team while accounting for 35 of the team's 44 assists. She added four kills of her own while notching 11 digs for her third double-double of the season.

Penn State jumped ahead early in the first set and never looked back. After trailing 4-3 early, PSU made a 4-0 spurt on kills from Lee, Frantti and Gorrell to secure an 8-4 lead. Michigan called for a timeout. Penn State scored twice more before Michigan responded. Michigan pulled within two when an ace from defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb and a kill from Frantti sparked a 4-0 run to make it 13-8 for the Nittany Lions. Gorrell, Frantti, and Lee all knocked down kills in a 5-2 PSU run to open the gap to five at 19-14 when Michigan called its second timeout. Michigan pulled within three at 20-17, prompting a PSU timeout. The Blue and White responded, rattling off five of the final eight points, as a kill from Washington punctuated the first frame, finishing the set at 25-20.

The second was tightly contested early on. With four ties and three lead changes near the beginning, the teams went back and forth before a kill for Detering gave PSU an 18-15 advantage. Two plays later Gorrell slammed down a kill in the middle before Washington and Thelen combined for a block the next play to force a Michigan timeout at 20-16 in Penn State's favor. With a service error from Holcomb the Wolverines pulled within three at 22-19. Penn State called for time. Out of the break PSU took the final three points of the set, with a pair of Washington blocks powering the team to a 25-19, set two victory.

Much like the night prior, Penn State put together its best set of the night in the third. The team opened on a 5-1 tear, with a pair of aces from Washington and a kill from Detering forcing Michigan to call for time. Washington would spike the ball in the middle to make PSU the first to 10. Michigan pulled within three at 13-10 before another kill from Washington and her third ace of the set backed the Wolverines into calling time at 15-10. It seemed from there that for every point Michigan scored, Penn State scored twice. An ace from defensive specialist Lainy Pierce highlighted a 5-3 run for the Nittany Lions, bringing the score to 20-13. Michigan would only score twice more, as kills from Frantti and Washington closed out the match with a 25-15 set three win.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – Behind a career-best 30 kills from junior Simone Lee, the 15th-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team (13-3, 5-0 Big Ten) took down the No. 1 Minnesota Golden Gophers (12-2, 4-1 Big Ten), 3-2 (29-27, 21-25, 23-25, 25-14, 15-10) inside a raucous Rec Hall.

It came down to a decisive fifth frame, where both sides tussled back and forth before Penn State took an 8-6 lead to force the break. Minnesota scored before a kill from junior Haleigh Washington and an errant attack from the Gophers' Hannah Tapp made the score 10-7. Minnesota pulled within two at 11-9 before a pair of kills from junior Heidi Thelen and one from Lee made it 14-9. Two points later it was only fitting that Lee put away the final point, logging kill No. 30 to close out the match with a 15-10, set-five win.

Four players notched double-figure kills, with Lee paving the way. Lee's 30-kill outing marked the first time since 2007 that a single Nittany Lion had logged 30 or more kills in a single outing. It also marked the most kills in a five-set match during the 25-point rally scoring era for a single player. The junior added six digs and a pair of blocks in the marathon outing

In addition to Lee's outburst, Thelen and Washington scored 14 each. Thelen led the team with five blocks while Washington added three and a service ace. Classmate Ali Frantti logged her second double-double of 2016 with 13 kills and 13 digs. She added a pair of blocks and two assists.

Setter Abby Detering led PSU to .308 hitting against the Golden Gophers, clocking her fourth double-double of the season with 61 assists and 10 digs. She added five kills and three aces. Redshirt freshman middle blocker Tori Gorrell tacked on three kills and a team-best five blocks.

Freshman Kendall White paced the back row with a match-high 21 digs. She added four assists and a kill. Defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb added seven digs and three assists in the outing.

The Nittany Lions showed incredible resilience in the first set. After trailing 11-3 in the early goings, the team mounted an 11-6 run powered by kills from Lee, Washington and Thelen before an ace from Detering pulled Penn State within three at 17-14. Minnesota then called for a timeout. Minnesota scored two straight before another impressive run for the Nittany Lions, highlighted by back-to-back kills from Washington, tied the match at 22-22. Penn State fended off a pair of set points to tie the match once again at 24-all. The two sides went back and forth before kills from Lee and Frantti locked up the first, 29-27.

Despite seven tie scores, the Nittany Lions ended up on the wrong end of the second set. Lee scored on seven kills in the second frame, while Washington and Frantti added four a piece. White notched eight digs. Penn State was within three at 22-19 before Minnesota pulled away to take the second, 25-21.

One of the most tightly contested sets of the match, Lee and Thelen led the way in the third for the Blue and White with five and four kills, respectively. The two sides had little to separate themselves with 16 ties and six lead changes. Both sides jostled for position, when an ace from Minnesota forced a timeout for Penn State at a 22-21 Minnesota edge. Thelen hammered the ball down to tie the set at 22-all, but a pair of Gopher kills closed out the third, 25-23.

While the fourth set statistically was Penn State's most dominant, Minnesota started strong, opening on a 7-2 run before PSU called for a timeout. A pair of blocks from Gorrell and Thelen powered a 3-0 run before another pair of blocks, this time involving Washington, made it 9-9. A kill from Lee gave PSU a two-point advantage when Minnesota called for time at 11-9. Penn State's momentum was too much, as three consecutive kills from Lee, Gorrell and Thelen widened the gap to four at 16-12. Minnesota called for time before Penn State went on an 8-2 run, with the final kill of the set coming from Frantti. The 25-14 set four win forced the decisive fifth.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – Behind a dominant performance on both side of the ball and an enthusiastic crowd of 5,312 inside Rec Hall on Saturday night, the No. 15 Penn State women's volleyball team (14-3, 6-0 Big Ten) made short work of visiting Rutgers (4-15, 0-6 Big Ten), sweeping the Scarlet Knights, 3-0 (25-13, 25-16, 25-10).

Penn State extended its sterling record in conference play by dominating on both sides of the ball. The team was guided to .425 hitting as a group, as junior setter Abby Detering dished out 40 assists to find seven different players who scored. Juniors Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington along with redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell each reached double-figure kills. Gorrell and Lee led the way with 11 kills each, while Washington posted 10 on a team-best .750 hitting.

On the defensive end, the team was equally impressive. Holding the Scarlet Knights to .024 hitting, the Nittany Lions out-blocked Rutgers 9.5-4.0. Washington led the way with five blocks, while Lee, Detering, Gorrell and junior right side Heidi Thelen each added three. Freshman libero Kendall White notched a team-best 14 digs while junior outside hitter Ali Frantti contributed seven and defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb tacked on six digs of her own.

Senior Laura Broerman played a key role in the serving game, accounting for three of Penn State's four aces, including the match-winning point.

Gorrell powered the offense in the first set, posting five kills on six attempts to lead the way, as PSU won, 25-13. After an early 3-3 tie, The Nittany Lions went on a 6-2 run capped by a kill in the middle from Washington. With the score set at 9-5 to PSU's advantage, Rutgers called for time. The break didn't stop the Nittany Lions, as Detering responded with a kill out of the break. Kills from Gorrell and Thelen before a block from the two and Lee gave Penn State a seven-point advantage, prompting the second Rutgers timeout at 17-10. Kills from Lee and Gorrell out of the break gave the Blue and White a 10-point advantage at 20-10. The Scarlet Knights scored three more times before Frantti pounded home the set-securing kill.

The second set was the most tightly contested, as both sides went back and forth to 10-10. From there, Penn State ripped open a 5-0 run, sparked by a pair of kills from Lee and Gorrell. Rutgers scored once before another 4-0 run for the Nittany Lions, with an ace from Broerman highlighting the spurt. Rutgers used its second timeout, before trading points with Penn State. A kill from Frantti made it set point. Rutgers fended off once chance from Penn State before a Scarlet Knights' service error closed out the set at 25-16.

The Nittany Lions hit at a .391 clip and tallied a total of six blocks in the final frame, holding Rutgers to just five kills in the third. With three blocks in the first five points, a Broerman ace made it 6-0, Penn State, and forced the Rutgers timeout. RU pulled within four at 11-7 before the Nittany Lions responded with a 5-1 run, powered by kills from Thelen and Washington. Rutgers scored twice before consecutive kills from Washington and Lee made the score 18-10 in PSU's advantage. Rutgers called for time, but Penn State would complete a 9-0 run, ending with the aforementioned Broerman ace, to earn the win with a 25-10, set three victory.

WEST LAFAYETTE, Ind. - The No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team (15-3, 7-0 Big Ten) took down No. 22 Purdue (11-7, 1-6 Big Ten) behind impressive efforts from junior outside hitter Simone Lee and classmate setter Abby Detering on Friday evening inside Holloway Gymnasium.

Penn State continued to be one of the nation's most efficient offenses, as Detering guided the team to hitting at a scorching .322 clip. For the 16th time in 2016, junior outside hitter Simone Lee led the offense, pacing the team with 16 kills.

Five players scored on kills, with junior Haleigh Washington coming in second on the team with eight kills on a team-best .583 hitting. The Colorado Springs, Colorado, native added a block. Detering and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti both posted five kills as Detering dished out a team-high 29 assists. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell posted four kills and a team-best three blocks, while junior opposite Heidi Thelen added four of her own.

Defensively, freshman libero Kendall White was exceptional once again, logging 11 digs in the outing. Detering and Frantti added seven and five, respectively. Sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb added five of her own.

With the win, Penn State extends its winning streak to 13-straight. The streak, third best in the country, matches the team's longest win streak of 2015, in which PSU won its first 13 matches.

The Nittany Lions opened the match vying for position in the early going. Purdue opened on a 5-3 run, with PSU's strongest play in the opening eight points coming on a block from Thelen and Gorrell. Thelen punished the ball and Frantti followed with a kill of her own to tie, 5-5. A huge swing from Detering made the lead three at 8-5. Purdue went on a 3-1 run before a huge kill from Washington ended the spurt. A block by Gorrell and Lee made it a three-point set at 11-8. The Blue and White continued to climb, gaining a five-point, 14-9 lead, when Purdue called for time.

The two sides went back and forth out of the break, before a block from Washington and Detering gave PSU a five point lead once again at 18-13. Both sides scored twice with a massive kill off the slide courtesy of Washington highlighting the span, as PSU took a 20-15 lead. Purdue used its final timeout of the set. A massive kill out of the break from Lee and another from Detering made it 23-17. Lee hammered down a kill to set up set point before Frantti logged her second of the night to secure the 25-18 set one win.

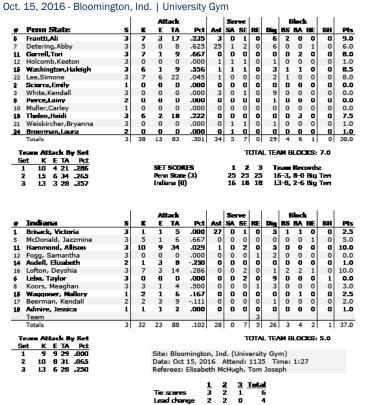

An impressive kill on the pipe from Lee highlighted the first five points of the second set, as Purdue took an early 3-2 lead. An impressive kill Detering tied the match at 4-4 before Holcomb aced the Boilermakers to make it 6-4 for PSU. Purdue opened a 3-1 run to tie the match at 7-all before an ace from Frantti gave PSU the lead once again. Washington scored again on the slide to make it 10-7 in Penn State's favor, before a kill from Lee the next play forced Purdue to call its first timeout of the set at 11-7.

Lee thundered down an overpass out of the break before Purdue responded with four consecutive points to pull within one, 12-11. The Nittany Lions then made a rally of their own, rattling off four-straight to make it 16-11 in their favor. Lee thumped another ball, forcing Purdue's second timeout at 17-11. Purdue fired back out of the timeout, putting together four points in a row when Penn State used its first timeout with a 17-15 lead. Lee's 10th kill of the evening and an ace from Detering fueled a 3-0 run for PSU to make it 21-16 for the Blue and White. Purdue fended off set point once before Lee's 12th kill of the evening secured set two, 25-17.

A kill on the fifth point from Thelen gave PSU its first lead of the third set at 3-2. PSU took the lead again at 5-4 when Frantti pegged a member of Purdue's back line with the ball. Penn State jumped ahead to 9-6 following another hammer by Lee and an ace from redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher. Two plays later PSU forced a Purdue error for the 11-7 lead when the Boilermakers called for a timeout.

Two plays later Lee hammered a kill to make it a 7-1 run for PSU and a 13-7 lead. Gorrell striped one down the middle five plays later for a 15-10 Penn State edge. Purdue called for time a point later, trailing by six. The Nittany Lions didn't slow, tacking on another two points before Purdue scored, making the lead 18-10. A strong cross-body kill from Washington followed by one from Detering made it 20-11. Strikes from Franti and Lee extended the lead to 22-14. Purdue held off match point three times before PSU won the match, 25-17.

Match 19: #10 Penn State 3, Indiana 0

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - The No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team (16-3, 8-0 Big Ten) logged its 14th consecutive win on Saturday evening, disposing the Indiana Hoosiers (13-8, 2-6 Big Ten) on Saturday evening, 3-0 (25-16, 25-18, 25-18) inside University Gym.

Lead change

Penn State hit over .300 once again, as a balanced attack of six players scoring on six or more kills guided the team to victory. Juniors Ali Frantti and Simone Lee along with redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell scored seven each, while juniors Heidi Thelen and Haleigh Washington each had six. Junior setter Abby Detering added five of her own.

The team's blocking also looked strong, with five members of the team getting involved on the defensive end. Thelen had a team best three blocks, while Frantti had two solo stops. Gorrell and Washington each had a pair of blocks as well.

Freshman libero Kendall White led the back line with a match-best nine digs. Frantti and Detering added six each.

Lee notched an early pair of kills in the first, but a solo block from Indiana gave the Hoosiers a four-point lead, as Penn State called for time, trailing 7-3. After another IU point, an error and a block from Thelen and Washington brought PSU within two, 8-6. Washington notched a solo block the next play to cut the lead to one when Indiana called its first timeout of the set. An IU error tied the match at 8-8. Penn State took five of the next seven points with a kill from Washington giving PSU a 13-10 edge. Indiana pulled within one before a big swing from Gorrell scored to make it 15-13, Penn State. The Blue and White scored twice more, forcing a timeout by the Hoosiers at 17-13

Gorrell notched another kill out of the break, as Penn State grew the lead to six, at 19-13. IU scored twice in a row before another kill from Gorrell made it 20-15. Thelen got involved on a block and a kill before an error from Indiana capped the set with a 25-16 PSU win.

Kills from Washington and Gorrell and a solo stuff by Lee gave PSU an early 4-2 lead in the second frame. Washington aced the Hoosiers before IU errored and called for time as Penn State led, 6-2. The two groups proceeded to traded points when a hammer from junior Ali Frantti gave PSU a 10-6 lead. Frantti, Detering, Lee and Washington manufactured a 4-0 run for a 14-7 advantage. IU went on a 6-1 run before another impressive swing from Detering made it 16-13 for Penn State. A 3-0 Indiana run resulted in Penn State calling for time, still up, 18-16. Lee and Thelen scored on kills for a 20-17, PSU lead. Thelen scored again to force IU to call for time at 21-17. Frantti logged a solo block to start a 3-0 run. After IU fended off set point once, Frantti closed out the set with a kill for the 25-18 victory.

PSU came out of the break hot, with a kill from Gorrell capping a 5-1 Nittany Lion run. Frantti logged a solo block to take an 8-2 Penn State lead when Indiana called for time. Kills from Thelen and Washington pushed the lead to 11-3. The sides swapped points before an ace from redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher made it 15-6. Indiana didn't go easily, making a 6-2 run when the Nittany Lions used their first timeout of the set with a 17-12 advantage.

Frantti scored on a kill out of the stoppage before a net violation for IU made the score 20-14 in PSU's favor. A kill from Lee made it a 23-16 advantage, before she struck another two points later for set point. IU delayed Penn State for a point before an error gave PSU the third, 25-18.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 9 Penn State women's volleyball team (17-3, 9-0 Big Ten) won its 15th-straight match on Wednesday evening, taking down No. 19 Ohio State (13-8, 3-6 Big Ten) 20 (25-21, 25-20, 25-17) incide of a gravitating Dec Hell Ten) 3-0 (25-21, 25-20, 25-17) inside of an energized Rec Hall.

The Nittany Lions block was in full force Wednesday evening, as the team out-blocked the visit-ing Buckeyes, 11.0-4.0. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell paced the team at the net with a total of six blocks while adding five kills on a .500 attacking clip. Juniors Haleigh Washington and Heidi Thelen posted three apiece.

Washington and classmate Simone Lee both contributed double-figure kills. Washington posted 10 on a team-best and season-high-tying .769 clip, while Lee posted 12 kills and added three digs.

The Penn State – Ohio State contest served as Penn State's annual "Dig Pink" match. Thanks to the fans' contributions and bids at the team's silent auction, the contingent managed to raise over $4,000 to the Side-Out Foundation, a support and advocacy organization that unites volleyball players and coaches to work toward the common goal of furthering breast cancer awareness, education and patient services.

PSU opened the first set on a 4-1 tear, with a kill and an ace from Washington powering the spurt. A kill from Lee opened the lead to 6-3 before a 4-0 run from the Buckeyes gave OSU the lead, 7-6. The sides swapped points before Ohio State climbed to a 14-12 lead. The Nittany Lions then rattled off three points in a row, as a kill from Thelen took Penn State into the media timeout with a 15-14 lead.

The Nittany Lions didn't slow out of the break, taking three of the next four points, capped by another kill from Lee for an 18-15, Penn State lead. The lead grew to four after a pair of OSU errors, forcing a Buckeye timeout at 21-17. The teams once again traded blows before a kill from Gorrell made it set point. An Ohio State kill temporarily stalled PSU before a kill from Lee the next play sealed the first, 25-21.

Penn State opened the second set the same as the first, with a 4-1 tear. Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti scored the fifth point before a block from Thelen and Gorrell four plays later made it a 6-3 PSU lead. Ohio State scored before a 4-0 run from Penn State, capped by a kill from Washington. Ohio State cultivated a run of its own, pulling within three, at 11-8, on a 4-1 spurt. Kills from Washington and Gorrell followed by an ace from Detering made the lead six for PSU at 16-10. Ohio State pulled within three again at 17-14 before a 4-0 run powered by a trio of Nittany Lion blocks extended the lead to seven at 21-14.

Ohio State scored five more times before an errant shot by the Buckeyes gave PSU a two-set advantage heading into the break.

A pair of kills and a solo stuff from Washington guided PSU to a 5-1 lead to begin the third. OSU scored three straight before a pair of errors widened the gap to three in PSU's favor, 7-4. Another kill from Frantti made it a three-point set once again at 13-10. The Nittany Lions went on to manufacture a 7-3 run, with three players recording kills and Washington adding an ace for a 20-13 lead. Ohio State pulled within five at 21-16 before Penn State closed out the match on a 4-1 run. Detering hammered the ball down to win the third frame, and the match, 25-17.

ANN ARBOR, Mich. – The No. 9 Penn State women's volleyball team(17-4, 9-1 Big Ten) saw it's 15-match win streak snapped in its first loss of the conference tilt, falling to No. 16 Michigan (18-4, 7-4 Big Ten) on Saturday evening, 3-2 (25-23, 17-25, 29-27, 23-25, 15-9) inside Cliff Keen Arena.

The match came down to a decisive fifth set with both sides even through four. Kills from juniors Simone Lee and Haleigh Washington began the final set, propelling PSU to an early, 2-0 lead. Michigan responded with three kills of its own before Washington logged her eighth of the night to the the fifth frame at 3-3. The Wolverines extended the lead to 5-3 before a solo block from junior setter Abby Detering cut the lead to one. Michigan continued to score, but Lee and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti responded with kills of their own to pull within one. 7-6, before the Wolverines took an 8-6 lead into the break. A Wolverines ace the next play prompted a Penn State timeout, trailing three. Michigan taked on another kill before Frantti responded with a kill of her own to make the score 10-7, Michigan. Detering scored two plays later to make it a three-point game again at 11-8. The Wolverines scored once, with Penn State calling for a timeout, trailing 12-8. The Wolverines countered twice more before a kill from Lee made it 14-9. Michigan killed the ball to win the match the next play.

The first set opened with the two sides tussling for position in the early action, with four ties before Michigan had the match's second lead change and opened the gap to three at 7-4. Michigan extended the run to 5-0, forcing Penn State to call for a timeout, trailing, 8-4. The two sides swapped points out of the break before, closing the gap to three before the Wolverines put together a 6-2 spurt, causing Penn State to call its second timeout, behind 16-9. The teams swapped points on but sides before a block from Washington and junior right side Heid Thelen changed the momentum. Washington scored on the slide the next play before combining on a block with Frantti to cut the Michigan lead to four. The Wolverines then called for time. The two sides went point-for-point out of the timeout, auck strike from Gorrell in the middle sparked a 3-0 run for the Nittany Lions. Frantti capped the spurt with a big swing down the line to close the gap to one point, forcing Michigan to call for time, ahead 23-22. The Wolverines scored on the tip out of the break before Frantti responded with another crucial kill to fend off set point. Michigan sealed the first with a kill, 25-23.

The Wolverines opened the second set on a 3-0 run before a kill from Detering broke things up. Michigan would score three more before a kill from Lee closed the gap to three at 6-3. Lee hammered down another kill before two-straight from Michigan prompted a Penn State timeout as the Nittany Lions trailed, 9-4. The break proved effective, as PSU rattled off five straight points, capped by a block from Washington and Frantit to te the set at 9-all when Michigan decided to use a timeout of its own. Penn State took two more points out of the break on a kill from Frantti and a block from Thelen and Washington. A kill from Thelen two plays later and another block from the duo of Frantti and Washington made it a three-point advantage for PSU at 13-10. Lee's eight kill of the night made Penn State the first to hit 15 points in the seconds set, before an errant shot and Lee's ninth kill opened the gap to five, forcing a Wolverine timeout at 17-12 in PSU's favor.Penn State time and way ut of the break, manufacturing a 5-0 spurt thanks to kills from Lee, Gorrell and Frantti s lammed down her ninth kill of the night to secure the set two win, 25-17.

A pair of kills from Lee and errors from Michigan led Penn State to an early 4-2 lead in the third. A 3-1 spurt from Michigan tied the match at 5-all. The two teams vied for position, tying five more times before Michigan pulled ahead by two at 12-10. Lee hammered down a kill to make the score 12-11. Michigan scored before back-to-back kills from Gorrell evened the score at 13-all. Both sides traded blows before kills from Washington, Frantti and Detering gave PSU an 18-16 advantage. Michigan tied the set at 18-18 before a net violation by the Wolverines gave PSU the lead once again. Another powerful kill from Lee made the score 20-18 in Penn State's favor, prompting a Wolverine timeout.Gorrell found the floor again with her seventh kill for a 23-20 lead. Michigan used its second timeout. A kill from Frantti made it set point before two-straight scores from the Wolverines groupted a Penn State timeout with the 24-23 lead. Michigan went ahead by one before Frantti neutralized the threat with a kill to tie at 25-25. The Wolverines scored before a slide from Washington followed by a block from Lee gave PSU set point once again, this time at 27-26. Michigan responded with three in a row, taking the third, 29-27.

Early offense from Lee and Washington helped PSU to an early, 5-2 lead to begin the fourth set. Michigan responded with four straight points to take a 6-5 lead before Lee tied it with her 19th kill of the match. Michigan jumped ahead by two before kills from Lee, Gorrell and Frantti tied the set, 8-all. The two sides went back and forth before Michigan rattled off four unanswered, forcing a PSU timeout as the Nittany Lions trailed, 13-9. Penn State responded by taking two of the next three points to pull within three at 14-11. Two plays later, PSU strung together a 4-0 run, capped by a pair of aces from Washington, to tie the fourth set at 15-all. Lee posted a kill out of the break to give PSU at 16-15 lead. The two sides then went back and forth once again, tying four times before a Wolverine error and a kill form Detering gave PSU the 21-19 lead, causing a Michigan timeout. Frantti scored on a kill out of the break before Michigan added one of its own. The Wolverines rattled off two more points, tying the match at 22-all, when Penn State called for time. The Nittany Lions tied the match again at 23-all bore a kill from Lee and an error from Michigan gave PSU the fourth, 25-23.

MADISON, Wisc. – The No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team (17-5, 9-2 Big Ten) fell in a tough, 3-1 (16-25, 18-25, 25-18, 21-25) match at the hands of the No. 4 Wisconsin Badgers (17-3, 9-2 Big Ten), inside UW Fieldhouse Friday evening.

The Nittany Lions were led on offense by the outsides once again, with junior outside hitters Simone Lee and Ali Frantti leading the way, each scoring in double-figures. Lee led the team with 19, while Frantti added 11 in the four-set defeat.

Penn State out-blocked the Badgers, 12.0-8.0, with five Nittany Lions logging multi-block nights. Junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington led the way with six and added six kills, while classmate Heidi Thelen added four blocks and five kills of her own. Junior setter Abby Detering had a trio of rejections and a team-high 36 assists. Lee and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell both posted a pair of blocks as well.

The opening set went back and forth early, before consecutive kills from Washington and Frantti gave PSU a 5-3 lead. Two plays later Detering scored on a kill of her own to give PSU a two-point, 6-4 advantage. Wisconsin tied the match at 8-all, when a back row kill from Frantti gave PSU a 9-8 lead. The Badgers responded with a 4-0 run, when the Nittany Lions called for their first timeout, behind 12-9. Wisconsin scored three more times before and error made it a five-point set in Wisconsin's favor, 15-10. The Badgers responder with a 4-0 subscore PSU used its second timeout, trailing 18-10.

Penn State and Wisconsin went back and forth out of the break, swapping points, but the effort proved not to be enough. Wisconsin outscored Penn State, 7-6, in the final 13 plays to take the first, 25-16.

Washington nailed the ball on the slide to open the second set. The two sides tussled, as kills and an ace from Lee tied the second frame at 6-6. Both sides committed errors before tying once again at 8-all. The Nittary Lions built a small gap, as a monster kill from Detering and a block from Washington and Lee the next play made the score 11-9 in PSU's favor. Another kill on the slide from Washington the next play extended the lead to three at 12-9. The Badgers responded with a run of their own, tying the match at 14-all. Thelen scored the next play with a deft touch, giving PSU a 15-14 lead headed into the media timeout.

The Badgers scored three in a row out of the break before a kill from Lee pulled Penn State within one at 17-16. Wisconsin scored twice more, prompting the first Penn State timeout, behind 19-16. An overturned call three plays later gave Wisconsin a 21-17 edge, before Washington responded with a kill to close the gap to three. The Badgers closed out the second on a 4-0 run to take the two set lead with a 25-18 win.

Penn State took the first three points of the third set, first forcing an error before an ace from Frantti and a block by Lee. Wisconsin tied the match at 4-4, before Detering posted a block and an ace the next play to take a 6-4 lead. Wisconsin tied the match at 7-all, before a kill from Thelen and a block by Frantti opened the lead back to two at 9-7. The Badgers tied the set before a kill from the back row by Lee gave PSU a 10-9 advantage. Wisconsin tied the match at 10-all before Washington scored on a kill and a block in consecutive plays. The Badgers knotted the match at 12-12, before scoring three of the next four to take a 15-13 lead into the media timeout.

Lee and Detering manufactured a 4-0 run, with Lee starting and finishing the spurt on kills, while Detering scored on a pair of aces for a 17-15 lead. Wisconsin called its first timeout to try and end the run, but were unsuccessful, as Lee thundred down another kill. A kill from Thelen the next play forced Wisconsin's second timeout with a 19-15 lead. Lee hammered down two kills over the next three plays, before Thelen and Frantt logged kills to make it 23-16. A block from Thelen and Gorrell made it set point before Frantti slammed down her eighth kill of the night for a 25-18 set three victory.

The Nittany Lions opened the fourth on a 3-0 skid before an error and a kill from Lee at the end of a long rally pulled the Nittany Lions within one. The two sides vied for position, before a 4-0 run from the Badgers led Penn State to call for time, trailing 10-5. An error from the Badgers and a block from Washington cut the Badgers' lead to three at 10-7. The sides swapped points, with a kill from Lee making the score 12-9 in the Badgers' favor. Wisconsin went on to open up a 4-1 run, forcing the PSU bench to call for time, down 16-10.

Lee knocked down a kill and UW committed a handling error to cut the Wisconsin lead to four at 16-12. Wisconsin grew the lead to 19-12, before a block by Thelen and Gorrell and an errant attack forced the Badgers to call for time with a 19-14 lead. Penn State cut the lead to three before Wisconsin rattled off two points of its own to take a 21-16 lead. The Badgers with on to commit a handling error before Frantt% 111k kill forced UW to call for time at 21-18. Penn State fended off set point before a kill from the Badgers sealed it, 25-21.

MINNEAPOLIS – Despite a match-high 17 kills from junior outside hitter Simone Lee, the No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team (17-6, 9-3 Big Ten) split the series with the No. 3 Minnesota Golden Gophers (17-4, 9-3 Big Ten), as the Nittany Lions fell, 3-0 (17-25, 20-25, 18-25), inside Sports Pavilion Saturday evening.

Lee was the default option for the Nittany Lions on Saturday night, scoring 17 kills to lead all players. The Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin, native hit at a .306 clip, and logged her second double-double of the season with 11 digs.

Freshman libero Kendall White led the back row effort, averaging five digs per set, while sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb added eight digs.

The match began with the teams swapping points to a 3-3 tie. An overpass kill by Gorrell gave PSU a brief lead, before tying again at 4-all. Washington scored back-to-back points on a ferocious block before a kill off the slide for a 6-4 advantage. Minnesota came back to tie the match at 8-8, when a kill from Lee regained the Penn State lead. A pair of spikes from Lee and a quick kill from Gorrell in the middle gave PSU an 11-9 lead, before Minnesota responded with five points in a row. A kill from Frantti cut Minnesota's lead to two, before the Gophers scored the next point for a 15-12 lead at the media timeout.

Minnesota scored on a kill and a block to go up five, forcing Penn State's first timeout, behind 17-12. Penn State scored off a service error from the Gophers, but Minnesota responded with two more points, forcing PSU's second timeout, down 20-13. Lee scored three times out of the break on big swings to cut the score to five at 21-16. Minnesota scored three straight before a kill from Lee fended off set point. The Gophers scored on the next play for a 25-17, set one victory.

The Gophers were hot out the gates, beginning on a 4-0 run to start the second. Detering hammered down a kill to break up the run, when the teams went point-for-point with Lee, Gorrell, Washington and Thelen all scoring on kills to a 10-7 score in Minnesota's favor. A block from Thelen and Washington cut the lead to three, before a Minnesota kill at the end of a long rally found Penn State trailing, 15-11, at the second-set media timeout.

Washington spiked the ball to close the gap back to three points following the break, before Minnesota responded with two points of its own. Penn State called for time, trailing 17-12. Detering and Lee scored on kills to pull within four at 18-14. Both sides traded points, with Thelen, Lee and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti scoring before Penn State called for time, down 22-17. Thelen tooled the block and Frantti provided a late ace, but Minnesota proved too tough, taking the second, 25-20.

The Nittany Lions took the opening point of the third on a powerful kill from Detering. Two plays later Lee and Washington posted a major rejection for a 2-1 lead. Minnesota scored three in a row before another kill from Lee closed the gap to one at 4-3. A pair of powerful kills from Lee and Thelen made the score 6-5 for Minnesota. A pair of kills from Lee and another by Gorrell made it 10-9 in the Gophers' favor. Minnesota opened a 4-1 spurt to climb ahead four, before Gorrell score 1b-11 heading into the media timeout.

Minnesota scored two of the next three points, forcing a Penn State timeout, trailing 17-12. Lee, Washington and Frantti each scored as the two sides traded points, with Minnesota edging ahead at 20-15. Lee and Gorrell tacked on kills to make the set score 22-17. Washington added a kill, but Minnesota took the final two points to win the match with a 25-18 decisive third.

MINNEAPOLIS – Despite a match-high 17 kills from junior outside hitter Simone Lee, the No. 10 Penn State women's volleyball team (17-6, 9-3 Big Ten) split the series with the No. 3 Minnesota Golden Gophers (17-4, 9-3 Big Ten), as the Nittany Lions fell, 3-0 (17-25, 20-25, 18-25), inside Sports Pavilion Saturday evening.

Lee was the default option for the Nittany Lions on Saturday night, scoring 17 kills to lead all players. The Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin, native hit at a .306 clip, and logged her second double-double of the season with 11 digs.

Freshman libero Kendall White led the back row effort, averaging five digs per set, while sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb added eight digs.

The match began with the teams swapping points to a 3-3 tie. An overpass kill by Gorrell gave PSU a brief lead, before tying again at 4-all. Washington scored back-to-back points on a ferocious block before a kill off the slide for a 6-4 advantage. Minnesota came back to tie the match at 8-8, when a kill from Lee regained the Penn State lead. A pair of spikes from Lee and a quick kill from Gorrell in the middle gave PSU an 11-9 lead, before the Gophers scored the next points in a row. A kill from Frantti cut Minnesota's lead to two, before the Gophers scored the next point for a 15-12 lead at the media timeout.

Minnesota scored on a kill and a block to go up five, forcing Penn State's first timeout, behind 17-12. Penn State scored off a service error from the Gophers, but Minnesota responded with two more points, forcing PSU's second timeout, down 20-13. Lee scored three times out of the break on big swings to cut the score to five at 21-16. Minnesota scored three straight before a kill from Lee fended off set point. The Gophers scored on the next play for a 25-17, set one victory.

The Gophers were hot out the gates, beginning on a 4-0 run to start the second. Detering hammered down a kill to break up the run, when the teams went point-for-point with Lee, Gorrell, Washington and Thelen all scoring on kills to a 10-7 score in Minnesota's favor. A block from Thelen and Washington cut the lead to three, before a Minnesota kill at the end of a long rally found Penn State trailing, 15-11, at the second-set media timeout.

Washington spiked the ball to close the gap back to three points following the break, before Minnesota responded with two points of its own. Penn State called for time, trailing 17-12. Detering and Lee scored on kills to pull within four at 18-14. Both sides traded points, with Thelen, Lee and junior outside hitter Ali Frantti scoring before Penn State called for time, down 22-17. Thelen tooled the block and Frantti provided a late ace, but Minnesota proved too tough, taking the second, 25-20.

The Nittany Lions took the opening point of the third on a powerful kill from Detering. Two plays later Lee and Washington posted a major rejection for a 2-1 lead. Minnesota scored three in a row before another kill from Lee closed the gap to one at 4-3. A pair of powerful kills from Lee and Thelen made the score 6-5 for Minnesota. A pair of kills from Lee and another by Gorrell made it 10-9 in the Gophers' favor. Minnesota opened a 4-1 spurt to climb ahead four, before Gorrell scored her sixth kill of the match to make the score 14-11. Minnesota scored the next play, with the score 15-11 heading into the media timeout.

Minnesota scored two of the next three points, forcing a Penn State timeout, trailing 17-12. Lee, Washington and Frantti each scored as the two sides traded points, with Minnesota edging ahead at 20-15. Lee and Gorrell tacked on kills to make the set score 22-17. Washington added a kill, but Minnesota took the final two points to win the match with a 25-18 decisive third.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Behind one of its finest blocking performances of the season, the 11th-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team (18-7, 10-4 Big Ten) cruised past Iowa (18-8, 8-6 Big Ten), 3-0 (25-11, 25-16, 25-17) in just under an hour and a half inside Rec Hall on Saturday afternoon.

The Nittany Lions trailed just twice during the match, as the team out-blocked the Hawkeyes by a staggering 11-block margin, posting 14 to Iowa's three. The 14 blocks were the second most by the team this season, and the most in a three-set match during the 2016 campaign.

Junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington posted a season-high and team-best 10 stuffs. Redshirt sophomore setter Bryanna Weiskircher finished second on the team in rejections, posting a career-best-tying six. The effort played a large role in limiting lowa to merely .030 hitting as a team.

On the offensive end, junior outside hitters Simone Lee and Ali Frantti along with Washington each scored a team-best nine kills. Washington was the most efficient attacker on the team during the sweep, finishing at an even .500 on the night, erring only once in 16 attempts.

The trio of Weiskircher, Lee and freshman libero Kendall White accounted for 30 of Penn State's 41 digs. White led the team with 13, while Weiskircher and Lee added nine and eight, respectively.

PSU led set one wire-to-wire, with the team registering seven total blocks over the set for a 25-11 blowout. Iowa was limited to -.212 hitting, as Washington and Weiskircher combined for nine block assists in the set. The frame opened with a 5-0 run for the Nittany Lions, with four blocks scoring before Iowa put up points of its own. Penn State jumped to a 13-7 lead before Iowa's first timeout. White had a service error before a 6-0 spurt from Penn State grew the lead to 19-8. Kills from Lee and Washington set up set point, before Gorrell and Weiskircher made the set-winning rejection.

The second set was tied early before tough serving from Lee and a giant swing from junior opposite Heidi Thelen gave PSU a 9-4 advantage. The two sides swapped points before back-to-back kills from Weiskircher and Lee led Penn State to a 15-8 edge, forcing lowa's first timeout. At 17-11, Penn State pushed ahead for a 3-0 run, with a block by Washington and Frantti forcing lowa's second timeout at 20-11. Sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb was aced at the end of a 4-1 lowa run to force PSU to take its first timeout at 21-15. The break worked, as Penn State let up only one more point, en route to a 25-16 set two win.

Set three stayed the most tightly contested, as both sides tussled back and forth to a 12-10 score. From there, a kill and a block from Washington guided PSU on a 4-1 run. A pair of kills from Lee and one from Frantti widened the gap to five, as lowa took time, down 18-13. Thelen and Frantti pounded kills to force a timeout at 24-17, but it proved futile as Washington slammed down the kill next play to seal the match, 25-17.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The 10th-ranked Penn State women's volleyball team (19-7, 11-4 Big Ten) got the best of the Maryland Terrapins (10-17, 2-15 Big Ten), 3-1 (21-25, 25-22, 25-18, 25-18) on Friday evening inside the sold out XFINITY Center Pavilion.

In a group effort, the Nittany Lions defeated Maryland by scoring with a stout blocking presence and double-figure kill outings from juniors Simone Lee and Heidi Thelen. Lee led the team in kills with 17, while Thelen posted 10 of her own, hitting at a .321 clip - the best among Penn State's primary hitters. Thelen added four blocks, good for second best on the Nittany Lion squad.

The team's defense at the net was impressive, as junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington paced the team with a match-best nine blocks while adding eight kills. Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti and Lee added three blocks apiece.

Redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher assumed the setting role for the evening, posting a double-double with 41 assists and 16 digs. Weiskircher was one of four players to log double-figure digs during the match. Freshman libero Kendall White led the way with 19. Frantti posted 14 digs, while sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb added 10 of her own. Frantti's 14 marked a season-high in digs.

Lee opened the first set with a kill and followed it up with a second hammer two plays later for a quick 3-0 lead. The Terrapins responded, taking four of the next five points to tie the match, with the lone PSU point coming on another kill from Lee. Washington's first kill of the night tied the set at 6-6 before a monster stuff from her and Weiskircher the next play gave PSU the one-point advantage. The match would tie again at 8-8 before a kill followed by an ace, both from Washington, made gave PSU a 10-8 edge. After an 11-all tie, Maryland scored three straight when Penn State used its first timeout.

Thelen scored out of the break on a quick kill to pull within two before Maryland jumped to a five-point lead. Thelen again broke up the run before an ace by freshman libero Kendall White cut the lead to two, 17-15, forcing a Maryland timeout. Weiskircher hammered the ball down four plays later to tie the first at 18-all. Maryland strung together three-straight before a kill from Washington and an error pulled PSU within one and Maryland called for time. Maryland then scored four straight before an error held off set point. The Terrapins scored the next point, taking the first, 25-21.

After an early 2-1 Maryland lead in the second, Penn State rattled off five straight on kills from Gorrell, Thelen and Washington, along with a pair of blocks to take a 6-2 lead. Washington spiked the ball before teaming up with Lee the next play for a monster block, forcing Maryland's first timeout with a 10-4 lead. Maryland scored twice out of the break before PSU responded with three points of its own, highlighted by an ace from Weiskircher to make it 14-8 in Penn State's favor. Penn State went on to lead by seven before a 3-0 run from Maryland threatened Penn State's lead, pulling within four at 16-12.

Penn State responded with a short run of its own. A kill by Gorrell was followed by yet another block from Thelen and Washington gave PSU an 18-12 lead, forcing a timeout from the Terrapins. Maryland responded, coming out of the break on a 4-1 spurt to pull within three at 19-16. Penn State called its first timeout of the set before a crafty tip from Washington put Penn State within five points of taking the second set at 20-17. A kill by Frantti made the score 23-19, before Lee's sixth kill led to set point at 24-20. Maryland fended off set point twice when PSU called for time. Penn State put the set away three points later, as an error from the Terrapins sealed it, 25-22.

Weiskircher opened the third frame in emphatic fashion, hammering down an overpass for the set-starting kill. Lee added her seventh kill two plays later before the two sides came to an early 3-3 tie. A block from Washington and Weiskircher, followed by a sneaky kill from the setter the next play made the score 6-3 in Penn State's favor. Penn State took three of the next five points, as kills from Lee and Washington made the score 9-5. Penn State took two of the next three, with a kill from Lee leading to an 11-6 score and pushing the Terrapins to call for a timeout.

Both sides swapped points out of the break before a 3-0 run from the Nittany Lions, capped on an ace from Broerman made the score 16-8. Maryland took three of the next four points before a massive kill from Lee broke up the scoring. The Terrapins erred the next play, calling for time with the score 19-11 for Penn State. At 20-13 Penn State opened up a 3-0 spurt capped by an ace from Washington. Maryland responded with five straight, cutting the lead to five at 23-18. Maryland committed a service error before Weiskircher aced the Terrapins for the win, 25-18.

Frantti scored on the Terrapins with a tricky serve to open the fourth frame. The two sides swapped points early, tying three times with three lead changes, when a kill from Thelen pulled PSU within one at 7-6. Lee hammered a ball off the Maryland block to tie the set at 9-all. The two sides traded blows, tying four more times to get to 13-13. Penn State then opened things up, as a kill from Thelen and a block by Washington and Frantti guided PSU to a 16-13 lead. Maryland then used its first timeout of the set.

Weiskircher scored after a long rally following the timeout. A bad set from Maryland the next play would force a Terrapins timeout as PSU led, 18-13. Frantti and Lee each posted kills to make the score 20-15 before Frantti hammered down another ball the next play. Weiskircher and Washington stuffed the ball before a big swing from Washington set up match point. An errant serve from Maryland wrapped up the match, as the Nittany Lions won the fourth set, 25-18.

The match came down to the fifth set for the sixth time in 2016, as Ohio State took the opening point. A pair of kills Washington tied the fifth set at 3-3, before the Buckeyes scored on back-to-back plays. A kill from junior outside hitter Simone Lee and an ace from junior setter Abby Detering tied the match at 5-all, before Lee tooled the block the next play for a 6-5 lead. Three plays later senior defensive specialist Laura Broerman aced the Buckeyes defense to take an 8-6 lead into the set five break.

Ohio State pulled within one before a crucial kill from junior right side Heidi Thelen pushed the lead to two. Washington stuffed the Buckeyes next play for a 10-7 lead, prompting a timeout from Ohio State. The Buckeyes came out of the break firing, taking three of the next four points to force a Penn State timeout as the Nittany Lions led 11-10.

Ohio State tied the decisive set at 12-all, when Lee pounded her 17th kill of the match for a 13-12 lead. The Buckeyes then scored two straight, forcing a Penn State timeout. Lee would extend the match, scoring a pair of kills that would fend off two set points and tie the set 16-16. Ohio State's Luisa Schrimer then scored the final two kills, dropping the Nittany Lions, 18-16.

Washington paced the team's offense with a team-best 19 kills on a scorching-hot. 621 attacking clip, while posting a match-best four blocks. She was joined in double figure scoring by Lee and Thelen, who posted 19 and 11 kills, respec-tively. Lee tacked on four digs, while Thelen posted a pair of blocks.

Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti posted nine kills and nine digs in the setback. With her fifth kill of the match she surpassed the 900 kill mark for her career

Detering led the team's setting efforts, dishing 55 assists and leading PSU to a .297 hitting clip. She added a match-best ree aces and five digs.

Freshman libero Kendall White led the team in digs with 23. Sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb was the only other PSU player to post double-figure digs with 12 in the match.

After Lee opened the match with an electric kill, the two sides tied at 3-all. OSU scored three straight before a kill from Thelen helped pull the set within one at 6-5 for the Buckeyes. Ohio State responded with three straight, leading to a Penn State timeout at 9-5 in the home team's favor. The break worked, as Penn State took five of the next seven points on a pair of kills from Washington and closed the gap to one. Ohio State then rattled off six of the next nine points for a 17-13 lead.

Kills from Lee, Thelen and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell shortened the deficit, making a two-point set score at 18-16 for OSU. Thelen posted her third kill to pull within one, before she and Washington tied the first set at 19-19 with an enormous block. Joino State followed up the stuff with back-to-back points, causing Penn State's second timeout, behind two at 21-19. Washington answered the call, hammering down a kill on the slide before blocking a ball on the next point for a 21-all tie. Ohio State then called for time. Washington posted another rejection out of the break, before a pair of kills from OSU made the score 23-22 for OSU. Washington struck once more before a kill from the Buckeyes and a Penn State error gave the Ohio State the set one victory, 25-23.

Penn State opened strong in the second set, as an ace from Detering capped an early 4-1 run. A pair of kills from Thelen and another two plays later from Washington opened the Penn State lead to four at 8-4. The Buckeyes responded, put-ting together a 5-2 spurt to pull within one at 10-9. An ace by Washington and a kill from Lee propelled a 6-1 run to give PSU a 16-10 lead, prompting a Buckeye timeout. Penn State continued to push, with a pair of kills from Lee and an ace by Broerman driving the score to 21-13, forcing OSU's second timeout. Washington and Frantti each posted kills before Ohio State erred for a 25-15 set two win for Penn State.

After an early 3-3 tie, Frantti and Thelen posted back-to-back kills for a 5-3 lead in the third. The two sides traded points to a 10-8 score before a pair of spikes courtesy of Thelen and another from Detering powered a 4-1 run and forced a timeout from Ohio State with a 14-9. Penn State lead. The Buckeyes went on to take four of the next five points, cutting the lead to two, before a kill from Washington made it 16-13. Five plays later, Frantti spiked the ball for her 900th career kill to give Penn State a 19-15 lead. Detering scored on a kill three plays later for the 21-16 advantage, as OSU took its second timeout. Lee would score a pair of kills before a score from Frantti closed out the third, 25-19.

A pair of kills from Lee and a hammer from Detering gave Penn State a 4-2 edge to open the fourth frame. The two sides then traded points, as Thelen's ninth kill gave PSU a 7-5 lead. Ohio State rattled off a 5-1 run to tie the match at 11-all, before a Detering ace and a block by Lee and Gorrell made the score 13-11. Thelen broke up a 3-1 OSU run with a kill, giving Penn State a 15-14 advantage. Washington rocketed the ball down for her 15th kill of the night to make the score 17-15, pushing Ohio State to use a timeout. Another kill from Washington kept the gap at two, 19-17, before three straight points from the Buckeyes forced Penn State is second timeout. The Buckeyes eared set point, before an OSU attack error closed the gap to two, 24-22. Ohio State would score next play to push the match to the decisive fifth set.

LINCOLN, Neb. - The No.15 Penn State women's volleyball team (19-9, 11-6 Big Ten) fell to reigning national champion and top-ranked Nebraska (25-1, 16-1 Big Ten), 3-0 (17-25, 14-25, 22-25) on Wednesday night inside the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Junior outside hitter Ali Frantti led the way for Penn State, logging seven kills in the out-ing, while classmates Haleigh Washington and Simone Lee posted six apiece.

The back row defense was highlighted once again by standout play from freshman Kend-all White at libero. The Indianapolis, Indiana native posted a match-high 18 digs and was the lone Penn State player to log double-figures in the statistical category.

Junior right side Heidi Thelen started the match with an emphatic kill. The two sides swapped point-for-point, tying six times to a knot the score at 6-all. The Huskers then opened a 3-0 run, prompting the Nittany Lions to use their first timeout. Out of the break Penn State forged a 4-1 run on an ace from Detering, a kill by Thelen and a block courtesy of Washington and Frantti to tie the match at 10-10. Nebraska countered with a second 3-0 run before a kill from Lee broke up the check for a 12 11 acces. Arctice this form 3-0 run before a kill from Lee broke up the streak for a 13-11 score. Another strike from Thelen pulled Penn State back within two at a 16-14 score. Nebraska took the next two points, prompting Penn State's second timeout. Thelen pounded her fourth kill out of the break before making a block with Washington the next play to pull within two at 18-16. Nebraska ended the set on a 7-1 run, taking the first 25-17.

Washington opened the second set with a kill before Nebraska took the next five points. Lee made the kill to break up the run and make the score 5-2. Nebraska took two more before Detering swapped with redshirt sophomore Bryanna Weiskircher to take over the setting duties. Lee scored on a ferocious kill following the swap and Thelen made a block the next play to cut the deficit to three. Nebraska scored twice more before Penn State called for time, behind 9-4. The Huskers erred out the break before taking the next five points. Another error from Nebraska stopped the streak before a big block from Detering and Washington the next play made the score 14-7. The Huskers opened another run, with a kills from Washington and Frantti breaking up the Nebraska scores. With Nebraska up 20-10, PSU used its final timeout of the set. A kill from Gorrell to plays later made it 21-11, before the redshirt freshman logged a block two points later. With the score 24-12, a kill from Frantti and an ace from Holcomb fended off set points, but Nebraska logged a final kill for the 25-14 set two win.

A kill from Frantti on the second play of the third set tied it at 1-1. Nebraska made a 4-1 run before a pair of Husker errors closed the gap to one at 5-4. A kill from Gorrell two plays later kept the help the difference at one point. Redshirt sophomore outside hitter Clare Powers and Gorrell both notched kills to make the score 9-7 in Nebraska's favor. After another Nebraska score, Penn State made a 4-0 run book-ended by kills from Washington to take an 11-10 lead and force a Huskers timeout. Washington and Lee posted kills before a strike from Frantti made it 14-12 for PSU. Nebraska made a 3-0 run, but an aptly time kill by Lee knotted the match at 15-all. Four plays later, Gorrell hammered home another kill for a 17-17 tie. The two sides tied twice, as a pair of kill from Frantti made the score 19-19. After service error from both sides, Nebraska erred twice more calling time as Penn State regained the lead, 22-21. Nebraska went on to take the next three points, with the Nittany Lions using both timeouts over the span. UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The No. 15 Penn State women's volleyball team (20-9, 12-6 Big Ten) earned the win in the first of its last three regular season home matches on Saturday evening, dispatching the Purdue Boilermakers (17-12, 7-11 Big Ten), 3-0 (25-17, 25-21, 25-19), in front of 3,560 fans inside Rec Hall.

Penn State flipped the script from Wednesday's match, hitting with tremendous accuracy during the sweep. The Blue and White logged 50 kills, the most in a three-set match this season, on an impressive .386 clip, with three Nittany Lions hitting in double-figures.

The outside hitters were tough for the Boilermakers to stop, as juniors Simone Lee and Ali Frantti led the Penn State offense with 14 kills apiece. Frantti charted the kills while logging a .583 hitting percentage and finishing second the team in digs with eight. She also received the majority of Purdue's serves. Lee added five digs.

Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell was simply sensational, posting 11 kills in the outing on a red-hot .733 hitting. She also posted a team-best five blocks in the match. Junior right side Heidi Thelen posted three kills and four blocks.

Junior setter Abby Detering guided the setting efforts with 41 assists. She added three kills of her own.

Freshman libero Kendall White was impressive once again on the back row, logging a match-high 12 digs.

After opening the match on the wrong end of a 3-1 run, Penn State responded, as kills from Lee and Gorrell paced a staggering 8-1 run for the Nittany Lions, forcing the first Purdue timeout with a 9-4 lead. Purdue tacked on two points before another set of kills from Gorrell, Detering and Frantti pushed Penn State to a 13-7 lead. Gorrell's fifth kill on six swings made the score 17-10, forcing the Boilermakers' second timeout.

Lee scored kills on two of the next three plays. A block from Thelen and Gorrell gave Penn State a 20-13 advantage. Washington, Frantti and Detering pounded the ball to take a 23-15 load before Lee the most here are winning kill for a 25-17 victory. 15 lead, before Lee thumped home the set-winning kill for a 25-17 victory.

The two sides traded point-for-point in the second, as kills from Lee, Frantti and Washington knotted the match, 11-11. PSU turned the tide, taking a lead that would hold with a 3-0 run. At 14-11 Purdue called for a timeout. Penn State took the next three points out of the break to widen the gap to six at 17-11. PSU continued to hold Purdue back before the Boilermakers pulled within one at 22-21. Thelen thumped the ball before back-to-back kill from Frantti led Penn State into the locker with a two-game lead.

Penn State began the third behind before coming back to the set at 7-7 on an error from the Boilermakers. A pair of kills from Lee and Frantti, followed by a block from Detering and Gorrell led Purdue to call for time as PSU led, 11-7.

Gorrell pounded the ball out of the break before Penn State extended the lead to six. Purdue closed the gap to three at 15-12 before a 3-0 spurt, punctuated by another kill from Gorrell gave PSU an 18-12 lead. Purdue called for time. Penn State led by as many as eight before Purdue pulled within four points at 23-19. Lee thundered down the ball before a Purdue error ended the set, and the match, 25-19.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – Behind a combined 20 kills from its junior outside hitters Ali Frantti and Simone Lee, No. 15 Penn State (21-9, 13-6 Big Ten) earned the season sweep of Northwestern on Friday night with a 3-0 (25-23, 25-23, 25-16) victory over the Northwestern Wildcats in front of a crowd of 3,657 inside Rec Hall.

The duo of Frantti and Lee were impressive, hitting a collective .361 and accounting for 20 of Penn State's kills. Frantti led the team with 11 hammers, doing so for the sixth time in 2016. Lee, who totaled nine kills in the match, moved to fifth all-time in single season kills during the 25-point rally scoring era, with 435 total in 2016. Frantti had five digs, while Lee added four of her own.

Penn State hit at a blistering .379 clip in the match. Junior setter Abby Detering guided the offense with 34 assists, seven digs, and four kills of her own. She also boasted an impressive night from the service line, tying her career-high four aces.

Junior middle blocker Haleigh Washington finished third on the team in kills, posting eight on .538 hitting. She added three blocks, good for second on the team. Redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell tacked on six kills and a trio of blocks as well. Junior opposite Heidi Thelen added five kills and a team-best four blocks.

Four Nittany Lions posted seven digs to lead the team. In addition to Detering, freshman libero Kendall White, sophomore defensive specialist Keeton Holcomb and junior defensive specialist Lainy Pierce all finished the night with seven digs. Pierce's performance was good for a new career high.

PSU and Northwestern both jockeyed for position early, with neither team really taking control in the early going. A 4-2 run in the Wildcats' favor made the score 16-12, when Penn State used its first timeout. Out of the break, PSU scored four of the next five points, with kills from Frantti, Lee and Washington forcing NU's second timeout as the Wildcats led, 17-16. The break didn't faze Penn State, as Detering tallied a kill the next play and Washington posted a service ace for an 18-17 lead, forcing the Wildcats' second timeout. Northwestern tied the cert out of the break before taking a brief lead. Correll and Lead Northwestern tied the set out of the break before taking a brief lead. Gorrell and Lee posted consecutive kills, and Northwestern would never lead the set again. NU fended off one set point before Frantti sealed the deal with a kill. 25-23.

Northwestern proved tricky again in the second set, as a tough block from the Wildcats helped lead the visitor to a 9-4 lead. Penn State called for time and rallied, stringing together an impressive 7-3 run, capped by a kill from Frantti to close the gap to one at 12-11. Northwestern called its first timeout, and found its footing before a 5-0 Nittany Lion run gave PSU a 17-16 lead. The teams tied six times afterwards, the last coming at 22-22. A kill from Gorrell gave Penn State the lead that would hold, before a pair of kills from Frantti closed the second, 25-23.

Penn State rolled out of the gate in the third, with a 4-1 burst to start the frame. Northwestern called for its first timeout, but would never lead the set again. Kills from Lee, Detering and Gorrell opened the gap to four at 13-9, leading to the second Wildcat timeout. Out of the break, Penn State took four of the next six points, with a pair coming on combo blocks by Thelen and Gorrell. Senior defensive specialist Laura Broerman served the final three points, as a kill from Lee and a handling error from Northwestern concluded the final frame, 25-16.

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. – The No. 15 Penn State volleyball team (22-9, 14-6 Big Ten), took down the Illinois Fighting Illini in its regular season finale, 3-1 (25-18, 26-24, 19-25, 25-21) on Saturday evening inside the friendly confines of Rec Hall.

Four Nittany Lions scored in double figures during the contest, with junior outside hitter Simone Lee leading the group once again. The Menemonee Falls, Wis., native led the squad with 20 kills while adding five digs.

Fellow outside hitter Ali Frantti posted 16 kills, seven digs, three assists, a pair of blocks and ace in the contest. Classmates Haleigh Washington and Heidi Thelen posted 10 kill each. Washington had four digs, a block and an ace, while Thelen posted a team-best two blocks.

Junior setter Abby Detering led the team's offensive efforts, dishing 57 assists for a team hitting percentage of .329. She added seven digs, a pair of aces, and four kills.

Once again, freshman libero Kendall White led the back row defense, posting 16 kills in the outing.

Penn State commanded the first set, cruising to a 9-2 lead and the team never looked back. Lee and Thelen posted four kills each while Washington and redshirt freshman Tori Gorrell each had three as PSU posted a .375 hitting percentage in the opening frame. The Nittany Lions also scored on the three aces in the first set of action, as the final one came from Detering to make the score 24-16. Illinois fended off a pair of set points before Thelen's fourth kill sealed it, 25-18.

The second set went back and forth, with the teams tying 19 times and the lead changing six times in the second frame. After tying at 19-19, Penn State pulled ahead twice, forcing Illinois timeouts at 21-19 and 23-20. After the second Illini break, Illinois tied the match at 24-all. After a Penn State timeout, back-to-back kills from Lee and Thelen sent PSU into the locker room up 2-0.

PSU struggled in the third set, with 12 total errors between attacking and the service line costing the team. Lee posted a set-best five kills in the third frame, but Illinois played a clean set to earn the 25-19 victory.

Penn State had to dig itself out of a 4-1 hole in the early going in the fourth, but kills from Washington, Lee and Frantti powered Penn State to a 7-7 tie. The two sides tied six more times before back-to-back kills from Lee and Washington again made it a 15-13 PSU edge. Illinois called for time, Lee tacked on three more hammers for a 19-16 lead, forcing the second Illinois timeout. The Illini came within one before Penn State used a 5-2 run at the end the final set, with Washington's 10th kill making the final set score 25-21.
