

Parking and Traffic Changes set for Friday's Hockey Game and Penn State Events

Men's Hockey Game, Homecoming Parade and BJC Concert on Friday Night

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.; October 5, 2016 – Penn State fans planning to attend any of Friday's events on the east side of the Penn State campus are encouraged to arrive early and should note changes that will assist with traffic flow and parking.

With Penn State's annual Homecoming Parade starting Friday at 6 p.m, several traffic and parking restrictions will be in place for the men's hockey game vs. St. Lawrence at 7 p.m. at Pegula Ice Arena. In addition, the Rascal Flatts concert in the Bryce Jordan Center begins at 8:30 p.m.

Traffic Restrictions for Homecoming Parade

To accommodate the Homecoming Parade route, the following campus roadways will be closed from approximately 5:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. Friday:

- Porter Road
- Curtin Road (from Porter Road to Bigler Road)
- Bigler Road (from Curtin Road to Pollock Road)
- Pollock Road
- Shortlidge Road (from Pollock Road to College Avenue)
- College Avenue (Shortlidge Road to Burrowes Road)
- Burrowes Road (College Avenue to Pollock Road)

Visit the Transportation Services website for full details on Homecoming Parade traffic, parking and transit impacts.

Premium Parking

Premium parking at the sections of Lot Yellow H near Shields Building and Wagner Building will remain available until 6:15 p.m. Friday, though permit holders are urged to arrive before 6 p.m. Access to these lots will be available only by traveling north on University Drive and west on Curtin Road. Shields and Wagner premium permit holders who arrive after 6:15 p.m. will be redirected to Stadium West.

Access to premium parking at Lot Orange F will remain available throughout the evening, but due to parade route restrictions, all vehicles attempting to reach this lot after 6 p.m. Friday must do so by traveling north on University Drive, west on Hastings Road and northeast on McKean Road.

General Parking

General event parking will be available at Stadium West and Lot 44 for $5 (cash only), with no charge for vehicles with a valid Penn State parking permit or hockey parking voucher. Fans attending Friday's game are strongly encouraged to park in Stadium West, as access to Lot 44 will be available only by traveling north on University Drive to Dauer Road and delays in this area are expected due to parade float staging.

Access to Stadium West is available only from Park Avenue, and with Curtin Road and Porter Road set to close at 6 p.m. Friday, fans arriving after 6 p.m. Friday will only be able to reach Park Avenue from the I-99/Route 322 interchange, Atherton Street and Fox Hollow Road.

ADA Parking

ADA parking for Men's Hockey will be available at the southwest corner of Stadium West near the intersection of University Drive and Curtin Road. This parking area is only accessible via Park Avenue. A valid state-issued ADA placard or license plate is required, along with a valid Penn State permit, hockey parking voucher, or payment of the event parking fee.
