NOTES AND HEADLINES

MEN'S GYMNASTICS CLOSES REGULAR SEASON AT REC HALL

The Penn State men's gymnastics will end its 2017 regular season inside the friendly confines of Rec Hall Saturday, March 25 at 3 p.m. against Iowa. The Nittany Lions will celebrate the four-year careers of their six seniors following the meet against the Hawkeyes. Finally, the meet will be featured on the Big Ten Network.

SERIES HISTORY WITH IOWA

The Nittany Lions lead the all-time series with the Hawkeyes 14-10-1. However, the Hawkeyes picked up a victory three weeks ago over Penn State in Lincoln, Nebraska in the annual tri-meet between Nebraska, Iowa and Penn State. Iowa notched the 413.500-409.600 victory over the Nittany Lions to take second-place at the meet, while Nebraska earned the victory over both schools. The Blue and White will be looking for its first victory over Iowa since the 2015 season as it fell to the Hawkeyes in Iowa City in 2016. Prior to the 2016 campaign, Penn State had not lost a regular season dual to Iowa since the 1998 season at the University of Michigan.

PENN STATE COMES TO COMPETE AT REC HALL

The Nittany Lions have seen a lot of success inside Rec Hall in the past three seasons. This year, Penn State holds a 2-1 record defeating both Army and Michigan, while winning all three of its home meets in the 2016 season. Prior to 2016, the Nittany Lions notched their third Big Ten Conference title inside the friendly confines of Rec Hall, while also going 4-0 in the regular season at home.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHTS

The Penn State men's gymnastics team will recognize the careers of six student-athletes this Saturday against Iowa. Below is a brief recap of their four-year careers donning the Blue and White.

- Joseph Boyle - Boyle has competed on three events in his time as a Nittany Lion, including floor, vault and high bar. The Colts Neck, N.J. native has been named a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and a Second Team CGA All-American Scholar-Athlete. Boyle will graduate from Penn State with a degree in biology with a focus in vertebrate physiology.

- Franz Card - Card has been a staple on the parallel bars and high bar for Penn State the past two seasons. The Nashua, N.H. native is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and a three-time Second Team CGA All-American Scholar-Athlete. Card will graduate from Penn State with a degree in mechanical engineering.

- Leroy Clarke, Jr. - Clarke is a two-time All-American earning the honor on the parallel bars in 2015 and on the still rings in 2016. Most recently, Clarke earned Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honors and CGA National Gymnast of the Week honors after earning four podium finishes including two titles against Michigan. Clarke will graduate from Penn State with a degree in economics.

- Dominic DiFulvio - DiFulvio was named captain for his senior season donning the Blue and White and has won 12 titles in the 2017 campaign for Penn State, including six still rings titles in 10 weeks. The Marietta, N.Y. native is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and a two-time Second Team CGA All-American Scholar-Athlete. DiFulvio will graduate from Penn State with a degree in aerospace engineering.

- Christian McSwain - McSwain has appeared in five events in his career as a Nittany Lion, most recently pacing Penn State on the floor exercise with a season-best 14.600. The Jamestown, N.C. native is a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree and a Second Team CGA All-American Scholar-Athlete in the 2015 season. McSwain will graduate from Penn State with a degree in biobehavioral engineering.

- Jeremy Munn - Munn has competed on both the floor and vault in his four-year career and has been a mainstay on the vault in his senior season. The York, Maine native earned Academic All-Big Ten honors in his junior campaign and will graduate from Penn State with a degree in kinesiology with a focus in movement science.

CLARKE HAS PREMIERE WEEK IN ALL FOUR EVENTS

Penn State gymnastics senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. has been named the College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Gymnast of the Week. The honor marks the first of Clarke's career and the first time a Penn State gymnast has earned the award since Trevor Howard captured the honor January 14, 2016. This past weekend, Clarke picked up two individual event titles with a win on the pommel horse and a win on the high bar against Michigan. The senior competed in four events on the day, earning a podium finish in each. Clarke placed second on the still rings and nabbed a third-place finish on the parallel bars in the Nittany Lions victory. For his efforts, Clarke was also named Big Ten Gymnast of the Week for the first time in his career donning the Blue and White. Heading into the final week of the regular season, Clarke ranks seventh on the pommel horse (14.000) and ties for ninth on the parallel bars (13.727). In his final season donning the Blue and White, Clarke has earned seven individual event titles and has stood on the podium a total of 20 times in the 2017 campaign.

ZAKUTNEY BRINGS HOME FOURTH FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

Freshman Sam Zakutney earned his fourth freshman of the week honor of the 2017 season after bringing home three titles against Michigan. Zakutney notched three first-place finishes for Penn State against Michigan with his first floor title, his fifth parallel bars title and his third all-around title. Zakutney also secured a podium finish on the high bar, placing third overall for the Blue and White.

MEET TEN: NEWS & NOTES

ZAKUTNEY TAKES SECOND BIG HONOR

The Penn State men's gymnastics team continues to prove that it has recruited the top freshman in the country as Sam Zakutney earned his second Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor as announced by the conference office Monday, Feb. 13. The award marks the fifth-straight week that a Nittany Lion has earned the nod as fellow freshman Favian Valdez has earned the honor three times and Zakutney has garnered it twice.

Zakutney was the lone event winner for the Blue and White against Ohio State, earning the victory in both the parallel bars and the all-around. The Ottawa, Ontario native notched a career-high 13.800 on the floor exercise for a sixth-place finish before coming in eighth on the vault with a 13.900. The freshman all-arounder capped off the day with three podium finishes which included a 14.750 score and a victory on the parallel bars, while finishing second on the high bar with a 14.300. Finally, Zakutney earned a career-high 83.150 on the all-around to win his second title of the 2017 season.

PENN STATE HAS STRONG SHOWING AGAINST OHIO STATE

Penn State men's gymnastics team suffered its second-straight Big Ten Conference loss as it fell to the Buckeyes of Ohio State University, 419.150-417.750, Saturday, Feb. 11 at Rec Hall. Despite the loss, the Blue and White posted a season-best 417.750 and notched two season-high scores. The Nittany Lions first posted a season-high 71.300 on the pommel horse and capped off the day with a season-best 68.000 on the high bar. Freshman Sam Zakutney notched two titles for Penn State with his second parallel bars win of the season and his second all-around victory.

VALDEZ CAPTURES THIRD FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONOR

For the fourth-straight week a Penn State men's gymnastics freshman notched Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors as Favian Valdez garnered the award for the third time in the 2017 season as announced by the conference office Monday, Feb. 6. Valdez picked up his first collegiate all-around title against Illinois, earning an 80.950. The title marks the third title of Valdez's career in four collegiate meets. The Kearny, N.J. native also had two other podium finishes placing third on the pommel horse with a 13.850 and third on the parallel bars with a 14.100.

PENN STATE FALLS AT ILLINOIS

The Penn State men's gymnastics suffered its first loss of the 2017 campaign in its first Big Ten Conference meet against the Fighting Illini of Illinois Friday, Feb. 3 at Huff Hall. The Nittany Lions saw bright spots in freshman Stephen Nedoroscik, who won his second-straight pommel horse title with a 14.300, while freshman Favian Valdez notched the all-around title for the first time in his career with an 80.950. Nedoroscik's win marks the fourth-straight match in which Penn State has come away with the pommel horse title as it has yet to be defeated in the event in the 2017 campaign.

ZAKUTNEY NABS BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

Freshman Sam Zakutney earned Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors, marking the first of his career and the third-straight week a Nittany Lion has garnered the award as Favian Valdez won it the first two weeks of the season. Zakutney found his groove at Springfield recording three victories for the Blue and White. Zakutney earned his first titles of his collegiate career, grabbing three wins at Springfield College. The freshman all-arounder started with a fourth-place finish on the pommel horse with a career-high 13.800 and notched his second career-high of the day with a 13.500 on the floor exercise and a fourth-place finish. The Ottawa, Ontario native secured his first podium finish with a third-place spot on the vault with a career-best 14.250 before sweeping the final two rotations of the day with a first-place finish on the parallel bars and a win on the high bar. Finally, Zakutney secured his first all-around title donning the Blue and White with an 82.650. Overall, Zakutney set five career-highs and earned three titles for the Nittany Lions at Springfield.

NITTANY LIONS SWEEP TITLES AT SPRINGFIELD

Penn State swept all six events for the first time in the 2017 campaign with senior Dominic DiFulvio and freshman Sam Zakutney earning three titles each for the Blue and White. DiFulvio picked up his first floor exercise win of the season, his third still rings title and his second vault title of his senior campaign, while Zakutney notched his first collegiate titles with wins on the parallel bars, high bar and all-around. Returning to his home state for the first time in his young collegiate career, freshman Stephen Nedoroscik collected his first victory for Penn State, securing the win on the pommel horse.

VALDEZ EARNS SECOND-STRAIGHT BIG TEN HONOR

Freshman Favian Valdez notched his second-straight Big Ten Freshman of the Week honor as announced by the conference office for week ending Jan. 22.

The freshman earns the honor for the second time in his career after garnering it following his first collegiate appearance at the West Point Open. The Kearny, N.J. native picked up three top-five finishes in his second collegiate outing for the Blue and White against Army, Jan. 21.

Valdez earned his second title of the 2017 season with a 14.050 on the pommel horse for a victory against Army West Point in Penn State's first home meet. Valdez also placed fourth overall on the vault with a 14.050 and placed third in the all-around.

MEET TEN: NEWS & NOTES

Penn State saw three season-best team scores and one tie as it put up a season-high 69.650 on the floor exercise, a 68.950 on the still rings and a 70.150 on the vault, while tying a season-best 67.300 on the high bar.

The Blue and White won five out of six events with Wyatt Tyndall taking the floor exercise, Valdez earning the pommel horse title, DiFulvio notching the still rings win and tying on the vault and Franz Card taking home the parallel bars title.

BLUE AND WHITE CLINCHES FOURTH-STRAIGHT WEST POINT OPEN TITLE

The Penn State men's gymnastics team captured its fourth-straight title at the 26th Annual West Point Open Friday, Jan. 13. The Nittany Lions scored a 412.350 in their first meet of the season to win the open for the 19th time in program history.

Big Ten Conference foe Nebraska placed second overall with a 410.600 and Army rounded out the top three with a 393.500. The Blue and White used a strong parallel bars routine in its sixth rotation of the day to propel itself to the victory in West Point.

Freshman Favian Valdez picked up his first victory donning the Blue and White, notching a 14.500 on the floor exercise, while Christian McSwain placed second with a 14.400.

The Nittany Lions saw their second individual event title of the evening when Colin Coates nabbed the pommel horse win for the second-straight year with a 14.700. Last season, Coates helped Penn State to the individual event title sweep, winning the pommel horse with a 15.050 in the event. Red-shirt-senior Leroy Clarke, Jr. placed second on the pommel horse after finishing first in the team event Friday night, while Valdez placed fourth overall.

Penn State grabbed its third-straight individual event when senior Dominic DiFulvio came up big on the still rings with a 14.750 and Benjamin Cooperman placed second overall with a 14.250.

Sophomore Michael Burns capped off the four individual event titles for the Blue and White as he picked up his second-straight high bar title with a 14.650 at the West Point Open, winning the event in the 2016 season as well.

VALDEZ EARNS BIG TEN FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

After capturing the floor exercise title at the West Point Open, freshman Favian Valdez notched Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors as announced by the conference office for the week ending Jan. 15.

The honor marks the first of Valdez's career as he made his first collegiate appearance at the West Point Open.

Valdez notched three second-place finishes in the team portion of the West Point Open, grabbing a 14.300 on the floor exercise, a 14.250 on the pommel horse and a 82.400 in the all-around. The Kearny, N.J. native capped off the individual event finals with a floor exercise title nabbing a 14.500 and a fourth-place finish on the pommel horse.

BURNS HAS CAREER WEEKEND AT WEST POINT

Sophomore Michael Burns posted four career-bests while also earning the high bar title in the individual event finals and the high bar and all-around title in the team event at the West Point Open, Jan. 13-14. Burns first earned the high bar title in the team portion with a 14.200 before posting a season-high 14.650 in the individual event finals to earn the title for the second-straight season. Burns also tallied a career-high 14.150 in the floor exercise, a 13.800 on the pommel horse, a 14.300 on the still rings and a 82.700 in the all-around.

NITTANY LIONS PICKED FOURTH IN BIG TEN PRESEASON POLL

Penn State was picked fourth in the 2017 Big Ten Men's Gymnastics Preseason Coaches' Poll, as announced by the conference office Thursday, Dec. 15. Along with the preseason coaches' poll, seniors Leroy Clarke, Jr. and Dominic DiFulvio were named to the Gymnast to Watch List for the upcoming season.

For the third-straight season Ohio State grabbed the top spot in the Big Ten Poll, while Minnesota was picked to finish second and Illinois rounded out the top three places. With the Nittany Lions coming in at fourth, Nebraska, Iowa and Michigan complete the Big Ten Preseason Coaches' Poll for the 2017 campaign.

PENN STATE COMES IN SIXTH IN THE CGA PRESEASON COACHES' POLL

The Penn State men's gymnastics team enters the 2017 campaign ranked sixth in the College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Preseason Coaches' Poll as announced Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Oklahoma was picked to finish first in the nation for the third-straight season with 17 first-place votes, while Stanford was picked to finish second with one first-place vote and Ohio State was projected to round out the top three with one first-place vote. Minnesota and Illinois ranked fourth and fifth, respectively with Penn State coming in as the No. 6 team to start the 2017 season.

NITTANY LIONS SET TO APPEAR ON BTN THREE TIMES

The Penn State men's gymnastics team will have two home meets featured on the Big Ten Network, while the network will also air the 2017 Big Ten Championships. The Nittany Lions and the Wolverines of Michigan will square off at 4:30 p.m. Saturday, Mar. 18 on BTN before the Blue and White closes out its season against Iowa Saturday, Mar. 25 at 3 p.m. on the Big Ten Network.

The 2017 Men's Big Ten Championships will be hosted by Illinois in Champaign, Ill. Friday, Apr. 7 and Saturday, Apr. 8. The team championship will be handed out on Friday, while individual event winners will be crowned Apr. 8. Both sessions will be aired live on BTN starting at 7 p.m.

JEPSON KICKS OFF 26TH SEASON AT THE HELM OF MEN'S GYMNASTICS

The 2017 campaign marks the 26th season for Head Coach Randy Jepson as the program leader of the Nittany Lions. Jepson came to Penn State in 1982 as a senior gymnast, earning All-America honors on the rings and being a Nissen-Emery Award nominee. From there, he went on to be the graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming an assistant coach from 1985-1991. In 1992, Jepson served as the acting head coach and was promoted to head coach in 1993 and since has led the Nittany Lions to three national championships and three Big Ten titles.

Jepson has been the National Coach of the Year on three occasions (2000, 2004 and 2007) and garnered the prestigious CGA Honor Coach Award in 2011, which is given to the coaches who have 25 years of service or more to the sport of gymnastics. Additionally, Jepson is a two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year honoree and has coached 43 All-Americans on 100 occasions, 30 First Team All-Big Ten selection and 11 NCAA Individual Event Champions.

CLARKE RETURNS FOR FINAL SEASON AFTER ALL-AMERICAN FINISH IN 2016

The 2017 men's gymnastics team sees the return of senior Leroy Clarke, Jr., who is the lone All-American returner for the Blue and White. Clarke capped off the 2016 season with an All-American finish on the still rings, placing eighth overall. The redshirt-senior from Maplewood, N.J. will be in search of his third All-American title in his final season with Penn State as he earned the honor on the parallel bars in the 2015 season.

JEPSON WELCOMES FIVE FOR 2017

Head Coach Randy Jepson will welcome five freshman in the 2017 campaign. The five newcomers include: Brayden Borromeo, Isaac Hammett, Stephen Nedoroscik, Favian Valdez and Sam Zakutney. Nedoroscik, Valdez and Zakutney have been tabbed as three of the top pommel horse performers in the country in their respective classes, while Borromeo and Hammett will hope to make an impact on a variety of events in their freshman campaigns.

SEVEN NITTANY LIONS COLLECT CGA ALL-AMERICA SCHOLAR-ATHLETE HONORS

Seven Penn State men's gymnasts earned College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Academic All-America Scholar-Athlete honors, while the 2016 team ranked in the top 10 with a 3.123 team grade point average in the 2015-16 academic year. Five Nittany Lions earned first team All-America Scholar-Athlete honors with sophomore Noah Roberson leading the way with a 4.0 grade point average. Also earning first team honors for the Blue and White were Michael Burns, Wyatt Tyndall and Chris Sands.

Along with the four first team honorees, three Nittany Lions notched second team honors with Franz Card, Benjamin Cooperman and Dominic DiFulvio all earning grade point averages between 3.399-3.30.

As a team, Penn State ranked 10th nationally with a 3.123 grade point average, while William and Mary paced the nation with a 3.512 team GPA and Stanford came in second with a 3.427 team grade point average.

Since the inception of the award in 1991, the Nittany Lions have received 65 first team All-America Scholar-Athlete honors and 43 second team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors. Penn State's 65 first team honors ranks 13th all-time, while its 43 second team honors are tied for third all-time.

NEXT UP

The Nittany Lions will take a week off of competition in preparation for the 2017 Big Ten Championships, hosted by Illinois April 7-April 8. Both days of the championships will be aired live on the Big Ten Network with team finals on Friday and individual event finals on Saturday.
