2019-20 GEORGETOWN MEN'S BASKETBALL GAME NOTES

QUOTED QUOTABLES

"If you don't have your shot, don't let the ball stick. Move it ... Instead of letting it stick and either looking at the guy, the post, the mismatch - move the ball, the ball will find the mismatch at some point."

- Head Coach Patrick Ewing following Central Arkansas

"I think it just takes us playing our game and doing our offense the way we want to do it and not letting them dictate how we play our game."

- Senior Jagan Mosely following Central Arkansas

"[Omer Yurtseven] is a load. What I like is that - so much of post play now and with the game going to all bigs shooting 3's and that kind of stuff - it's refreshing to see someone that knows who he is and what they want him to be. The other thing is, you can tell that a Hall of Famer is coaching him."

- Central Arkansas Head Coach Russ Pennell

When the National Basketball Association 2018-19 season started, several former Georgetown men's basketball players were on rosters for the season.

- Former Hoya All-American Otto Porter Jr., the 2013 BIG EAST Player of the Year and the No. 3 pick in the NBA Draft (Washington Wizards), began his seventh season as a professional. He was traded to the Chicago Bulls during the 2018-19 campaign

PATRICK EWING

HEAD COACH | THIRD SEASON
GEORGETOWN C'85

On April 3, 2017 Georgetown University named Patrick Ewing (C'85) its new head men's basketball coach. Ewing came back to Georgetown after serving for 15 years as an assistant coach in the NBA. He served as an assistant coach for the Washington Wizards (2002-03), Houston Rockets (2003-06) and Orlando Magic (2007-12) and as the associate head coach for the Charlotte Hornets (2013-17).

In just two seasons on the Hilltop, the Hoyas have already hit some early milestones. The 2018-19 season saw Georgetown win a major BIG EAST award in the league's Freshman of the Year honor as well as a trio of athletes named to the All-Freshman Team, just the second time in conference history three honorees have come from the same institution. The 2018-19 campaign saw a return to the postseason for the first time since the 2014-15 season as the Hoyas earned a berth to the 2019 National Invitation Tournament.

Ewing is recognized as the greatest men's basketball player to ever don the Blue & Gray. He was selected as one of the top 50 players in the history of the National Basketball Association (NBA) and was elected to the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2008.

Ewing was a three-time consensus First Team All-American (1983, 1984, 1985) on the Hilltop, leading the Hoyas to three NCAA Championship Game appearances and the 1984 National Championship title. He was named Most Outstanding Player of the 1984 NCAA Championships. His play propelled Georgetown into one of the most respected basketball programs in the country.

During his illustrious career, Ewing had the opportunity to play for, and coach, alongside some of the great coaches in basketball, including Pat Riley (New York Knicks), Jeff Van Gundy (Knicks, Houston Rockets), Stan Van Gundy (Orlando Magic), Tom Thibodeau (Chicago Bulls, Minnesota Timberwolves) and Steve Clifford (Charlotte).

He was the first pick in the 1985 NBA Draft and went on to earn NBA Rookie of the Year honors in 1986 with the New York Knicks after averaging 20.0 points and 9.0 rebounds per game. Ewing scored 24,815 points during his 17-year NBA career to go along with 11,607 rebounds. Ewing spent 15 years with the Knicks and made 10 consecutive NBA All-Star appearances. Ewing averaged 21.0 points, 9.8 rebounds and 2.45 blocks in 1,183 career games and was a member of the NBA's 50th Anniversary Team. He remains the New York Knicks' all-time leader in points, rebounds, blocked shots, steals and field goals made.

He still stands second all-time in scoring at Georgetown, averaging 15.3 points in 143 games. He is one of only four players in program history to score at least 2,000 points (2,184). Ewing is the all-time leader in total rebounds (1,316), blocked shots (493) and games played (143).
