NOTES AND HEADLINES

MEN'S GYMNASTICS READY FOR NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Penn State men's gymnastics team is in search of its nation-leading 13th National Championship Friday, April 20-Saturday, April 21 at UIC. The Nittany Lions will compete in session I with the first event slated for 1 p.m. The top three teams of session I and session II will qualify for the team event finals on Saturday, April 21 starting at 7 p.m. at the UIC Pavilion.

SESSION II COMPETITION

Penn State will be in the second session Friday, April 20 and will compete to earn a top-three spot for the team finals on Saturday, April 21. The Nittany Lions will go up against No. 1 Oklahoma, No. 4 Illinois, No. 5 Ohio State, No. 9 Iowa, and No. 12 California to compete for a spot in the team finals.

ROTATION ORDER

The Blue and White will start on the vault before moving to the parallel bars and finishing the third rotation on the high bar. Penn State will compete on the floor exercise in rotation four, the pommel horse in the fifth rotation and close out the meet on the still rings.

NITTANY LIONS IN THE POSTSEASON IN CHICAGO

Penn State has not had a lot of experience in Chicago, Illinois in the postseason, having just competed there two times in the history of the program. The Nittany Lions captured the 1948 National Championship and placed fifth in the 1949 National AAU but has not seen any other postseason competition hosted by UIC at the Pavilion.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS: NEWS &amp; NOTES

ROBERSON LOOKING FOR SECOND-STRAIGHT ELITE 90 AWARD

Redshirt-junior Noah Roberson is one of the 2018 men's gymnastics Elite 90 nominees after exhibiting hard work on the mat and in the classroom. Roberson captured the award in the 2017 campaign and was a finalist in 2016. The ELITE 90, an award founded by the NCAA, recognizes the true essence of the student-athlete by honoring the individual who has reached the pinnacle of competition at the national championship level in his or her sport, while also achieving the highest academic standard among his or her peers. The Elite 90 is presented to the student-athlete with the highest cumulative grade-point average participating at the finals site for each of the NCAA's 90 championships.

Roberson has a 4.0 cumulative grade point average as a double major in biomedical and mechanical engineering. The Williamsville, New York native has competed on the still rings 10 times this season for the Blue and White taking home three event victories and competing in the Big Ten Championships in the individual event finals.

DEFENDING A TITLE

Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik heads to the 2018 NCAA Championships as the reigning pommel horse national champion, scoring a 14.900 to earn the victory in the 2017 campaign. One year ago, Nedoroscik was the first routine of the evening as his score held for the remainder of the meet allowing him to capture the title as a freshman. This year, Nedoroscik will look to join Brandon Stefaniak and Mark Sohn as repeat national champions for Penn State on the pommel horse. Stefaniak won the title in both 1999 and 2000, while Sohn captured the title for four-straight seasons from 1989-1991. Nedoroscik bested his score from the national championship when he scored a 15.000 to earn the title at the West Point Open to kick off the season. The Worcester, Massachusetts native has taken home seven titles in his second year donning the Blue and White, including becoming the 2018 Big Ten Pommel Horse Champion. Nedoroscik currently ranks third nationally and will have to go up against Brandon Ngai of Illinois, who comes in at No. 1 and Alec Yoder of Ohio State, who ranks No. 2, who he beat two weeks ago at the Big Ten Championships.

PANTAZIS BECOMES SECOND B1G FLOOR CHAMPION FOR PENN STATE

Freshman Brennan Pantazis became just the 13th Individual Big Ten Champion in the history of Penn State men's gymnastics after winning the floor exercise at the 2018 Big Ten Championships. Pantazis scored a 14.275 to lead the field, becoming just the second Penn State gymnast to capture the Big Ten floor title and the first since Mike Dutka earned the honor in the 1998 season. The Sparks, Nevada native currently ranks sixth nationally on the floor exercise with a NQA of 14.256. This season, Pantazis captured two floor titles and two parallel bar titles for the Blue and White, while earning 13 podium finishes in his first season as a Nittany Lion.

NEDOROSCIK CAPTURES B1G POMMEL HORSE TITLE

Reigning NCAA pommel horse National Champion Stephen Nedoroscik added another big win to his accolades as he notched the 2018 Big Ten Pommel Horse Individual Championship. The sophomore pommel horse specialist finished third in the team final before coming back to score a 14.475 in the finals, finishing .225 ahead of Ohio State's Alec Yoder. Nedoroscik became the 14th Individual Big Ten Champion in the history of Penn State men's gymnastics and was just the third Nittany Lion to earn the pommel horse title as Craig Hernandez captured the title in both 2012 and 2013 and Mike Dutka earned the win in the 1998 season.

FOUR NOTCH BIG TEN ACCOLADES

Freshman Brennan Pantazis and sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik garnered First Team All-Big Ten honors, while junior Greg Tamargo was named to the second team. Junior Wyatt Tyndall garnered the Sportsmanship Award for the Nittany Lions, competing on four events this winter and earning three individual titles. Pantazis and Nedoroscik become the 13th and 14th Big Ten Individual Event Champions in Penn State men's gymnastics history at the 2018 Big Ten Championships and are the first since Trevor Howard earned the high bar title in the 2016 campaign. Furthermore the duo are the first pair of Penn State gymnasts to earn a title in the same year since 2015 when Howard and Matthew Felleman each took home individual titles. Tamargo also earned a podium finish for the Blue and White at the Big Ten Championships, scoring a 13.875 on the still rings to place third overall. The Kennett Square, Pennsylvania native captured both a still rings and a parallel bars title during the regular season.

STACKING UP AGAINST THE COMPETITION

The Nittany Lions head to the 2018 NCAA Championships ranked in the top five on four different events, coming in at third on the still rings, fourth on the floor exercise and parallel bars and fifth on the pommel horse. Penn State holds the highest floor ranking in session II, while Oklahoma, Iowa, and Ohio State all hold higher rankings than the Nittany Lions on the pommel horse. The Blue and White sit behind Oklahoma and Ohio State on the still rings and both Oklahoma and Illinois rank ahead of Penn State on the vault. In the final two rotations, Oklahoma ranks No.1 and Ohio State comes in at No. 3 on the parallel bars and the Sooners are No. 1 on the high bar, while Illinois comes in at No. 2, and Ohio State ranks fifth.

11 EARN ACADEMIC ALL-BIG TEN

The Penn State men's gymnastics team notched 11 student-athletes on the 2018 Big Ten Academic All-Big Ten honors list. To be eligible for Academic All-Big Ten selection, students must be on a varsity team, as verified by being on the official squad list as of March 1 for winter sports, who have been enrolled full-time at the institution for a minimum of 12 months and carry a cumulative grade-point average of 3.0 or higher. Penn State's honorees included: Brayden Borromeo, Michael Burns, Colin Coates, Benjamin Cooperman, Stephen Nedoroscik, Noah Roberson, Chris Sands, Greg Tamargo, Alex Thomason, Wyatt Tyndall, and Sam Zakutney.

PENN STATE WINS IN FINAL ROTATION AT MICHIGAN

The Penn State men's gymnastics team used a last rotation comeback to secure a 407.350-405.050 victory over Michigan in its final regular season meet Saturday, March 24 at Cliff Keen Arena. The Nittany Lions earned four event victories with Sam Zakutney taking the win on both the parallel bars and the high bar for the second-straight meet. Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik notched his sixth pommel horse title and third-straight win, while Noah Roberson picked up the still rings title and Wyatt Tyndall shared the high bar win with Zakutney.

ZAKUTNEY ROARS BACK AGAINST NEBRASKA

Working his way back from injury, Sam Zakutney captured his fourth parallel bars title of the 2018 season against Nebraska, scoring a 14.600. Zakutney capped off the meet with his second win of the day, scoring a 13.600 to tie for first on the high bar with Nebraska's Jake Bonnay.

PANTAZIS CONTINUES TO BE STEADY

Freshman Brennan Pantazis earned a podium finish on the parallel bars against Nebraska, placing third overall with a 13.900, while finishing seventh on the vault and ninth on the floor. The podium finish on the parallel bars marked the 13th time this season in which he has finished in the top three for the Nittany Lions as he has picked up at least one podium finish on five events.

ROBERSON TAKES SEASON-HIGH SCORE ON STILL RINGS

Junior Noah Roberson notched his third still rings title of the 2018 season against Nebraska, scoring a team-best 14.400. The score was just .300 shy of his career-high of 14.700 and vaulted him into the top spot on the still rings for Penn State. Roberson currently ranks fifth nationally with a season-average of 13.925 and a NQA of 14.183.

SANDS IS VICTORIOUS FOR THIRD-STRAIGHT WEEK

Junior Chris Sands picked up his third-straight victory in as many weeks, placing first on the floor exercise with a 14.200 at Arizona State. The win marks the third of the season for Sands as he also notched a victory on the floor exercise at Iowa with a 14.300 and on the still rings against Minnesota. The Lancaster, Pa. native also earned a top-five finish on the still rings, scoring a 13.750.

NITTANY LIONS EARN THREE INDIVIDUAL VICTORIES AT IOWA

Despite finishing second at the tri-meet at Iowa with Arizona State, the Penn State men's gymnastics team picked up three individual event victories at the meet. Junior Chris Sands earned a victory for the second-straight week with the win on floor exercise, while Noah Roberson notched a win on the still rings and Wyatt Tyndall placed first on the parallel bars for the Blue and White.

ROBERSON LEADS ON THE RINGS

Noah Roberson paced the Blue and White on the still rings at Iowa, coming away with the event victory after scoring a season-high 14.350 in the event. The win marks the second of the season for Roberson as he notched the event victory in the team portion of the West Point Open. Roberson has also garnered two second-place finishes this season on the still rings.

TYNDALL GRABS VICTORY ON PARALLEL BARS

Junior Wyatt Tyndall secured the win on the parallel bars after earning four podium finishes prior to the meet at Iowa. The Saskatoon, Saskatchewan native scored a 14.200 on the parallel bars and added his second win of the season as he placed first on the floor exercise in the team portion of the West Point Open.

SMITH EARNS SECOND VICTORY OF 2018

Junior Joshua Smith has risen to the top of the list of competitors for Penn State on the floor exercise and the vault. In his second week of competition of the 2018 season, Smith notched his first victory of the season with a 14.650 on the floor exercise, while placing second on the vault. After a week away from the floor, Smith came back to win the vault with a season and team-best 14.600 to notch his second event victory of the season for the Blue and White.

SANDS CONTINUES TO IMPROVE

Junior Chris Sands has been continuing to improve on his still rings routines week in and week out and it has paid off for the Lancaster, Pennsylvania native as he earned his first victory of the season against Minnesota. As the second competitor for the Nittany Lions against the Golden Gophers, Sands scored a season-best 14.200 to earn his first event victory of the season on the still rings.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS: NEWS & NOTES

PENN STATE PUTS UP STRONG TEAM PERFORMANCE ON VAULT

The Nittany Lions used the lineup of Wyatt Tyndall, Brayden Borromeo, Quest Hayden, Brennan Pantazis, and Joshua Smith to record their season-high score of 71.050 and put it slightly ahead of the Golden Gophers after four rotations in the meet. Penn State would eventually fall to Minnesota, but Borromeo posted a career-best 14.300 on the vault, while Smith notched a season-best 14.600 in the event victory.

NEDOROSCIK PLACES FOURTH AT WINTER CUP

Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik had a strong showing at the Winter Cup after qualifying for the event finals on the pommel horse Saturday, Feb. 17. Nedoroscik was just one place out of the top-three, notching a fourth-place finish on the pommel horse. The sophomore pommel horse specialist scored a 13.900 in his first round before earning a 14.800 in the second.

WINTER CUP HIGHLIGHTS

The Penn State men's gymnastics team had two participants in the 2018 Winter Cup with sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik qualifying for the finals on the pommel horse and Brennan Pantazis competing in the all-around. The two made their first appearances in the competition after Nedoroscik qualified at the US Championships and Pantazis qualified following the West Point Open. Nedoroscik competed on the pommel horse, scoring a 13.900 overall to place ninth overall and earn his spot in the finals. Pantazis returned to his home state for the first time in his collegiate career to compete in the all-around at the Winter Cup. The freshman scored a 74.500 in the all-around, placing 24th overall, while scoring a 13.500 on the vault to tie for 21st overall.

MGYM WINS SECOND-STRAIGHT THON PEP RALLY

The Penn State men's gymnastics team won its second-straight THON pep rally after competing against other Penn State athletic teams. Since 1977, THON has partnered with The Four Diamonds Fund at Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital with one goal in mind: conquering childhood cancer. To date, more than $136 million has been raised by THON, including more than $10 million in 2016-18, and at least 95 percent of the funds raised at THON are donated directly to Four Diamonds.

PENN STATE POSTS SECOND-BEST SCORE NATIONALLY

The Penn State men's gymnastics team picked up its first Big Ten Conference win of the season with a season-best 417.400 at Ohio State Friday, Feb. 9. The Buckeyes scored a 414.900 in the meet to fall in their third Big Ten meet of the season. Penn State's score of 417.400 ranked second nationally to only three-straight NCAA Champion Oklahoma, who scored a 418.000 this season. The Nittany Lions bested their season-best scores on four out of six events including: floor exercise (70.950), pommel horse (69.200), still rings (69.950), and high bar (67.500). Furthermore, the Blue and White had five career bests on the day with two event victories.

ZAKUTNEY COMPETES AT ELITE CANADA MEET

With Penn State having a bye week, it gave sophomore Sam Zakutney an opportunity to head to Quebec, Canada to compete in 2018 Elite Canada. Elite Canada is the equivalent of the Winter Cup for American gymnasts. Zakutney competed in the all-around, placing fourth overall with a 75.134. The Ottawa, Ontario native also tied for fourth on the floor exercise with a 13.300 and placed seventh on both the vault and high bar.

PENN STATE FALLS IN FIRST B1G DUAL

Despite putting up season-best scores on the floor exercise (70.800) and parallel bars (69.850), the Nittany Lions were unable to come away with a victory over the Fighting Illini in their first Big Ten Conference home meet of the 2018 season. Illinois won all but two events as sophomore Sam Zakutney picked up two event victories with a win on the parallel bars and in the all-around.

ZAKUTNEY NOTCHES BIG TEN GYMNAST OF THE WEEK HONORS

Sophomore Sam Zakutney earned his second Big Ten Conference honor of the 2018 season as he was named Big Ten Gymnast of the week as announced by the conference office Monday, Jan. 29. Zakutney notched conference honors for the seventh time in his career as he was a four-time Freshman of the Week honoree and the 2017 Big Ten Freshman of the Year award winner as well as earning Big Ten Gymnast of the Week honors twice in 2018. Furthermore, a Penn State gymnast has earned a conference honor all three weeks of the 2018 season as it has had two freshmen of the week and two gymnasts of the week honors. Zakutney was the only gymnast to compete on all six events against Illinois, earning his second all-around score of 80-or-higher. The sophomore all-arounder scored an 80.700 to earn his second all-around title of the season, while also taking home the parallel bars title with a 14.450. Zakutney also placed second on the high bar for the Blue and White.

NITTANY LIONS DOMINATE IN FIRST HOME MEET

Behind five event victors and an all-around winner, the Penn State men's gymnastics team secured its first home victory of the 2018 season with a 407.600-384.100 win over Army West Point. The Nittany Lions bested their team score, while posting season-bests on the pommel horse (67.850), and the still rings (68.550). The Blue and White also took home five event titles as well as the all-around title as sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik notched the pommel horse title, Greg Tamargo captured both the still rings and vault titles, freshman Brennan Pantazis earned the parallel bars and all-around wins, and freshman Alex Frack picked up the high bar win. Penn State saw eight career-highs on the day with Frack besting all his scores from the West Point Open and earning his first collegiate title.

FRACK NOTCHES B1G FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS

Freshman Alex Frack was named Big Ten Freshman of the Week as announced by the conference office Monday, Jan. 22. The honor marks the first of his career and the second-straight week in which Penn State has won the award as Brennan Pantazis garnered it a week ago.

Frack notched three podium finishes in his first collegiate home meet, including one event victory. The Nazareth, Pennsylvania native placed third on the pommel horse, scoring a 13.550 and third on the parallel bars with a 13.650.

Frack capped off the meet with one final victory for the Blue and White, notching a 13.700 on the high bar for his first collegiate win. The freshman bested all his scores from a week prior at the West Point Open.

TAMARGO HAS BIG SHOWING AGAINST ARMY

Junior Greg Tamargo led the Nittany Lions in their first home meet of the season, securing three podium finishes on the afternoon. The Kennett Square, Pa. native started the meet with a second-place finish on the floor exercise before going on to take the title in both the still rings and the vault. Tamargo scored a 14.150 on the still rings and a 14.000 on the vault in his wins, earning him the Gene Wettstone award for the meet.

PENN STATE CAPTURES FIFTH-STRAIGHT WEST POINT OPEN TITLE

The Penn State men's gymnastics team captured its fifth-straight and 20th overall West Point Open title, scoring a 406.850 in the 27th Annual West Point Open at the Gross Center Friday, January 12. Navy placed second overall with a 395.050, while Army came in third with a 380.350 and William and Mary notched a fourth-place finish with a 378.300. Springfield and Temple rounded out the meet with 369.250 and 223.050, respectively.

The Nittany Lions earned the team win on five-of-six events, scoring a 69.200 on the floor and a 66.850 on the pommel horse. The Blue and White also captured the event victory on the still rings with a 65.600, while placing second on the vault with a 70.500. Finally, Penn State notched event wins on the parallel bars with a 67.850 and the high bar with a 66.850.

The Blue and White also swept all six event titles with victories from Sam Zakutney (vault & parallel bars), Wyatt Tyndall (floor exercise), Michael Burns (high bar), Stephen Nedoroscik (pommel horse) and Noah Roberson (still rings).

BLUE AND WHITE TAKE HOME FOUR EVENT TITLES

The Penn State men's gymnastics team took home four individual event victories, including sweeping the top three spots on the parallel bars in the individual event finals of the West Point Open.

Freshman Brennan Pantazis made his mark in his first weekend donning the Blue and White at the West Point Open, capturing the individual event titles on the floor exercise with a 14.250 and on the parallel bars with a 13.900. Junior Michael Burns continued to dominate the high bar at the West Point Open, capturing his third-straight title at the event with a 13.550. The Nittany Lions saw their first victor of the evening in Pantazis on the floor exercise before sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik notched his first pommel horse title of the 2018 season, earning a career-high 15.000. Pantazis notched his second win of the night for the Nittany Lions before Burns capped off the event with his third-straight West Point Open high bar title.

PENN STATE SWEEPS CONFERENCE AWARDS

Sophomore Sam Zakutney and freshman Brennan Pantazis swept the Big Ten Conference weekly awards with Zakutney winning Big Ten Gymnast of the Week and Pantazis notching Big Ten Freshman of the Week honors. Zakutney notched conference honors for the sixth time in his career as he was a four-time Freshman of the Week honoree and the 2017 Big Ten Freshman of the Year award winner. Pantazis picks up his first conference honor after donning the Blue and White for the first time at the West Point Open.

PANTAZIS PUTS UP BIG NUMBERS IN FIRST COLLEGIATE MEET

Freshman Brennan Pantazis paced the Nittany Lions at the West Point Open, earning two first-place finishes in the individual finals. The freshman notched a 14.250 on the floor exercise and a 13.900 on the parallel bars in his finals debut. Pantazis placed himself in the finals after earning a second-place finish in the team portion of the event on the floor exercise and tying for fourth on the parallel bars. The Sparks, Nevada native also placed second in the all-around in his first collegiate meet.

ZAKUTNEY PICKS UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF LAST SEASON

Sophomore Sam Zakutney led the Nittany Lions to a win at the 27th annual West Point Open. The Ottawa, Ontario native won three events in the team finals, with victories on the vault, parallel bars and in the all-around. Zakutney also placed third on the high bar and fourth on the floor. Finally, Zakutney participated in four event finals at the West Point Open for the Blue and White with a second-place finish on the parallel bars. After the first week of competition, Zakutney ranks second in the nation in the all-around after scoring an 81.350, while also ranking sixth on the parallel bars with an average score of 14.100.

NEDOROSCICK BESTS CAREER SCORE ON POMMEL HORSE

Sophomore Stephen Nedoroscik kicked off the season scoring a 14.800 on the pommel horse in the team finals before going on to post a career-high 15.000 in the individual finals. Nedoroscik bested the 14.900 he earned last season when he became the NCAA Pommel Horse National Champion.

JEPSON KICKS OFF 27TH SEASON AT THE HELM OF MEN'S GYMNASTICS

The 2018 campaign marks the 27th season for head coach Randy Jepson as the program leader of the Nittany Lions. Jepson came to Penn State in 1982 as a senior gymnast, earning All-America honors on the rings and being a Nissen-Emery Award nominee. From there, he went on to be the graduate assistant for two seasons before becoming an assistant coach from 1985-1991. In 1992, Jepson served as the acting head coach and was promoted to head coach in 1993 and since has led the Nittany Lions to three national championships and three Big Ten titles.

Jepson has been the National Coach of the Year on three occasions (2000, 2004 and 2007) and garnered the prestigious CGA Honor Coach Award in 2011, which is given to the coaches who have 25 years of service or more to the sport of gymnastics. Additionally, Jepson is a two-time Big Ten Coach of the Year honoree and has coached 45 All-Americans on 103 occasions, 30 First Team All-Big Ten selection and 12 NCAA Individual Event Champions.

11 NITTANY LIONS COLLECT CGA ALL-AMERICA SCHOLAR-ATHLETE HONORS

Eleven Penn State men's gymnastics student-athletes earned College Gymnastics Association (CGA) Academic All-American Scholar-Athlete honors, while the 2017 team ranked in the top 10 with a 3.284 team grade point average in the 2016-17 academic year.

Eight Nittany Lions earned first team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors with redshirt-sophomore Noah Roberson leading the way with a 4.0 grade point average. Roberson was the 2017 Elite 90 recipient for men's gymnastics as a double major in biomedical engineering and mechanical engineering. Also earning first team honors for the Blue and White were Chris Sands (3.99-3.90 GPA), Wyatt Tyndall (3.89-3.80), Brayden Borromeo (3.799-3.70), Michael Burns (3.799-3.70), Alex Thomason (3.79-3.70), Benjamin Cooperman (3.699-3.60) and Franz Card (3.599-3.50).

Along with the seven first team honorees, three Nittany Lions notched second team honors, including Joseph Boyle (3.399-3.30), Dominic DiFulvio (3.399-3.30) and Stephen Nedoroscik (3.299-3.20).

As a team, Penn State ranked fifth in the nation with a 3.284 team grade point average, while Big Ten foe Nebraska led the way with a 3.505 team GPA.

Since the inception of the award in 1991, the Nittany Lions have received 76 first team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors and 46 second team All-American Scholar-Athlete honors. Penn State's 76 first team honorees rank 13th all-time amongst NCAA gymnastics teams.
