JMU INVITATIONAL RECAP

The Dukes lost the first two games of the 2016 season, 1-0 to Lehigh on Aug. 26 and 3-2 to NC State on Aug. 28. JMU outshot Lehigh 18-7 on Friday night, including a 6-3 advantage in shots on goal, but conceded a counter attack goal in the 84th minute. Connor Coward's shot was tipped off the bar in the 90th minute. NC State used three penalty kicks to down the Dukes on Sunday. Two of the spot kicks were converted, the other was saved by Kyle Morton but the rebound was put away by the Wolfpack. For the second consecutive game JMU saw a potential equalizer hit woodwork when Aaron Ward-Baptiste's 88th-minute header rang off the post.

STRENGTH OF SCHEDULE

JMU has a challenging slate of games for the 2016 season, including five teams that played in the 2015 NCAA Tournament. Four of those games (Lehigh, Virginia, Radford and Elon) are at home, with the Dukes taking on Hofstra on the road Sep. 17.

NEW AND OLD

- The Dukes' roster is made up of more newcomers (17) than returners (15). Four of those players are transfers from other schools, while 13 are true freshman.

- While the roster is filled with new faces, JMU returns 75% of its goal-scoring from last season. This includes redshirt senior forward Connor Coward who led the Dukes with five goals and 10 points last season.

ALL-CONFERENCE HONORS

- Redshirt senior goalkeeper Kyle Morton earned Preseason All-Colonial Athletic Association honors for the second consecutive season. A standout in goal for the Dukes, Morton recorded 64 saves, a 1.28 goals-against average and four shutouts in 2015.

- Redshirt junior defender Toby Appleton was named Honorable Mention Preseason All-CAA. His 2015 campaign was his most productive to date, tallying three goals, two assists and eight points.

- In a poll of the league's coaches, JMU was picked to finish seventh out of nine teams. Last season the Dukes fell to Hofstra 2-0 in the CAA semifinals after defeating College of Charleston 3-2 in the quarterfinals. JMU's 3-3-2 conference record earned them the #5 seed in the tourney. Hofstra was picked to win the conference with eight first-place votes.
