INSIDE THE GAME

NITTANY LIONS RETURN TO ROAD TO FACE NORTHWESTERN

Penn State enters the final quarter of its regular season, heading west to face Northwestern in another crucial Big Ten contest Saturday at noon on ESPNU. It will be Penn State's first visit to Ryan Field since 2011.

The Nittany Lions' final three games will pose the toughest tests for Penn State, as Northwestern spent five weeks ranked in the top-25 of both major polls, while undefeated and sixth-ranked Michigan State and Michigan are among the leaders in the Big Ten East Division. Penn State currently ranks third in the competitive division, trailing only undefeated Ohio State and Michigan State. A half-game behind Penn State is Michigan, which has one conference loss to Michigan State.

Both Penn State and Northwestern enter the game coming off wins, although the Wildcats enjoyed a bye week last weekend.

The Nittany Lions followed a back-and-forth contest against Maryland with an all-around strong effort, shutting out Illinois, 39-0. Penn State saw success in all phases with a balanced attack on offense and a suffocating performance on defense. The Illini were unable to reach the red zone and managed just 12 first downs.

Penn State will be looking avenge a 2014 loss at home to Northwestern, in which late turnovers dashed the hopes of a Nittany Lion comeback. The loss snapped a six-game winning streak over the Wildcats.

The Lions will look to slow Northwestern's rushing attack, which ranks third in the Big Ten with 186.1 yards per game.

Viewers may expect to see a disciplined game, as the Northwestern is the least penalized team in the Big Ten (4.50 pg), while Penn State is third in the category (4.78).

It will be two weeks before Penn State takes the field at Beaver Stadium, as the Lions will enjoy a bye week before hosting Michigan for the annual White Out game and Senior Day for the home finale.

LIONS IN THE NFL

25 NITTANY LIONS ON ACTIVE NFL ROSTERS

A total of 25 Penn State football alumni are populating the active rosters of 18 National Football League teams. The Nittany Lions annually are among the top 20 programs nationally in producing players in the NFL.

The Jacksonville Jaguars boast a league-high four former Nittany Lions, including nine-year veteran and 2013 Pro Bowl linebacker Paul Posluszny and 2014 second-round pick Allen Robinson. Veterans Jared Odrick (Miami) and Stefan Wisniewski (Oakland) signed with Jacksonville during the offseason as free agents.

The Chicago Bears (Adrian Amos and Robbie Gould), Dallas Cowboys (Jack Crawford and Sean Lee), Seattle Seahawks (Garry Gilliam and Jordan Hill) and San Francisco 49ers (NaVorro Bowman and Gerald Hodges) - each have two PSU alumni.

Three players from Penn State's 2014 squad landed on active rosters - Amos (Chicago), Jesse James (Pittsburgh) and Donovan Smith (Tampa Bay). Another three from 2014 were named to practice squads: Brad Bars (New York Giants), Mike Hull (Miami) and Deion Barnes (New York Jets).

Penn State has had 39 NFL Draft picks since 2006, including 17 in the first three rounds, and at least three NFL Draft picks 17 times since starting Big Ten Conference competition in 1993. A total of 338 Nittany Lions have been selected all-time in the NFL Draft. Eleven-year veteran and Chicago Bears All-Pro placekicker Gould is Penn State's elder statesman in the NFL. Kansas City Chiefs All-Pro linebacker Tamba Hali, who is entering his 10th professional season, is second in longevity, followed by Posluszny (nine years) and seven-year professionals Jordan Norwood (Denver) and Cameron Wake (Miami).

For the 44th time in the Super Bowl's 49-game history, at least one Penn State alumnus was a member of one of the participating teams (18 times in last 20 years). Thirty-six former Nittany Lions have earned a total of 53 Super Bowl rings, most recently Hill and since-retired running back Michael Robinson with Seattle in 2014. A total of 105 Nittany Lions have been on Super Bowl rosters.

TEN FORMER LIONS ON NFL COACHING STAFFS

Ten former Nittany Lions are patrolling the sidelines as part of NFL coaching staffs in 2015.

- Gary Brown (Dallas, running backs)
- Bobby Engram (Baltimore, wide receivers)
- Sam Gash (Green Bay, running backs)
- Ron Heller (New York Jets, assistant offensive line)
- John McNulty (Tennessee, quarterbacks)
- Mike Munchak (Pittsburgh, offensive line)
- Jeff Nixon (Miami, running backs)
- Paul Pasqualoni (Houston, offensive line)
- Daren Perry (Green Bay, safeties)
- Mike Wolf (Cleveland, assistant strength and conditioning)

Also, former Penn State quarterbacks coach Jim Caldwell is in his second season as the head coach of the Detroit Lions.

TEAM CAPTAINS

Penn State football head coach James Franklin announced on Aug. 10 that Christian Hackenberg, Jordan Lucas, Angelo Mangiro, Von Walker and Anthony Zettel will serve as team captains for the 2015 season. Hackenberg is a team captain for the second consecutive year.

"This group of guys was selected by their teammates and coaches because they are outstanding ambassadors for our program," Franklin said. "They are leaders in the classroom, in the community, in the locker room and are important influencers for our team."

Entering 2015, Hackenberg had started all 25 career games under center and ranked No. 3 in career passing yards (5,932), attempts (876) and completions (501), and was No. 4 in career total offense (5,770).

An honorable-mention All-Big Ten selection last season, Lucas is the unquestioned leader of the secondary. His 58 stops in 2014 ranked third on the team and his nine pass breakups ranked among the best in the Big Ten.

Mangiro was the leader of a young offensive line corps in 2014, starting every game and making starts at three different positions. He made 10 starts at center, two at right tackle and one at left guard. His efforts up front helped Penn State amass over 300 yards of total offense on seven occasions in 2014, including 453 yards vs. Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.

Walker earned a scholarship in April after two seasons as a walk-on, including a move from running back to linebacker during 2014 spring practice. Walker appeared in 12 games last season and made his first career start versus Northwestern. He was also a major contributor on special teams, ranking third on the team with five special teams tackles, including four on kickoff coverage. He has also excelled in the classroom, earning Academic All-Big Ten honors last year.

After moving from defensive end to defensive tackle in 2014, Zettel enjoyed his most productive season on the field in the blue and white. A fourth-team All-America selection by Athlon Sports and an All-Big Ten first-team pick by both the coaches and media, Zettel logged career-best totals with 17 tackles-for-loss and 8.0 sacks. Zettel was the only FBS player to rank among the national leaders in sacks and interceptions per game in 2014. Zettel is on a number of different awards watch lists.

HEAD COACH JAMES FRANKLIN

Franklin was named the 16th head football coach in the history of the Nittany Lion program on January 11, 2014.

From Langhorne, Pa., Franklin vowed to “Dominate The State” and raise the bar in the team’s academic achievement and community service during his introductory news conference. During his short tenure in Happy Valley, he has electrified Nittany Nation with his passion, vision for the program and ability to recruit premier student-athletes from across the nation. Franklin has assembled a coaching staff featuring a record of success, tremendous chemistry and familiarity with each other, Penn State and the region.

“I can’t tell you how excited I am to come home,” Franklin stated at his introductory press conference. “I grew up watching Penn State football and now to be at the helm of such a storied program is a tremendous honor. It’s important to me to be a part of a University that strives for excellence in everything they do.

“When football student-athletes come to Penn State, they have a unique opportunity to receive a premium education while playing at the highest level of competition.”

Since Day 1, Franklin has reinforced his four core values in an effort to return the Penn State program to national prominence.

The passionate, positive and driven Franklin is in his fifth year as a collegiate head coach, leading his first four squads to a bowl game, earning post-season victories the past three years. He owns a 38-23 career record, with three consecutive winning seasons.

His first season as the Nittany Lions’ head coach began with a final-play 26-24 victory over UCF in Dublin, Ireland in Penn State’s first-ever international game. The 2014 campaign ended with an equally dramatic comeback, a 31-30 overtime win over Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in Yankee Stadium. The Nittany Lions overcame a 14-point deficit late in the third quarter, tying the largest comeback in Penn State’s bowl history.

With the Pinstripe Bowl win, Franklin became just the third Penn State coach to lead the team to at least seven wins in his first season, joining Dick Harlow (1915) and Bill O’Brien (2012). In leading the Nittany Lions to a 4-0 start, Franklin also joined Harlow as the only first-year Penn State coaches to win their initial four games.

In February 2015, the Nittany Lions’ highly-regarded class of 25 signees was ranked in the Top 15 nationally by the four major recruiting services.

During Franklin’s first fall semester on campus, the Nittany Lions delivered a record-setting academic performance. The football student-athletes set program records with 25 student-athletes earning Dean’s List recognition (3.5 GPA), 57 players owning a cumulative 3.0 grade-point average (GPA) or higher after the 2014 fall semester and 21 true freshmen posting a 3.0 GPA or better. Additionally, 51 squad members compiled at least a 3.0 GPA in the fall of 2014, the second-highest semester total in program history. The spring of 2015 saw continued academic success with 51 student-athletes compiling at least a 3.0 GPA, marking the first time in program history with 50 or more 3.0s in a spring semester. Additionally, 18 squad members were at a Dean’s List-level GPA for the spring semester.

Penn State’s 87 percent football graduation figure was second-highest in the Big Ten Conference and No. 5 among all public FBS institutions, according to NCAA data in October 2014. The Nittany Lions’ 87 percent graduation rate was 16 points higher than the 71 percent FBS average.

“We take a great deal of pride in our academic performance and we are committed to a high level of success and achievement in the classroom and on the field,” says Franklin, who is in his 21st year in coaching. “I have been so impressed by the dedication, work ethic and pride our players have demonstrated with all their academic and team responsibilities. We want our players to have the complete student-athlete experience at Penn State!”

From June to December 2014, the Nittany Lions completed a program-record of more than 1,900 total hours of community service. Members of the football program participated in more than 30 community service events, including 23 events from the time training camp started in August. The volunteer events began with the Pennsylvania Special Olympics Summer Games on June 6 and ended on Dec. 26 with a visit to Sloan-Kettering Memorial Hospital in New York. Many squad members also traveled to the Penn State Hershey Children’s Hospital in July, visiting with patients and their families.

The engaging and enthusiastic Franklin is a popular speaker and media interview subject. For the second consecutive year, he was a guest analyst on ESPN’s coverage from the site of college football’s National Championship game, spending a day appearing on various ESPN platforms from Fort Worth, Texas.

This past February, Franklin was the lone college head coach among the speakers and panelists at the prestigious MIT Sloan Sports Analytics Conference in Boston. He was a panelist for the session, “The Formula to Win: College Football Analytics,” which was moderated by CNN anchor/reporter Rachel Nichols.

“Coach Franklin is a great relationship builder and has a tremendous connection with his student-athletes, the Penn State student body and our community,” stated Sandy Barbour, Director of Athletics. “James aptly applies his football expertise and uses his high energy, passionate approach, and ability to listen and learn, to motivate the student-athletes in the program. You can see it in their effort, preparation and ‘never give up’ mentality. Penn State football has outstanding tradition, a really proud past and a very bright future under Coach Franklin’s leadership and I’m excited to see our progress.”

"Our primary focus was to identify someone who shared our commitment to integrity, academics and winning championships," then-Director of Athletics Dave Joyner said at Franklin's introductory news conference. "Coach Franklin is a highly regarded coach and tremendous leader, but more importantly, he shares the same vision for Penn State football that we, and our fans, have for the program. His record shows that he takes great pride in the academic and athletic success of his student-athletes."

"I'm incredibly excited to get to know the students, alumni, and fans who have demonstrated such loyalty to the University as a whole and to the football program in particular," Franklin added. "I've worked my way through every division of football and no other school boasts a fan base like we do. We Are...Penn State!"

Franklin directed Vanderbilt to consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in the 124-year history of the program. The Commodores finished the 2013 season No. 24 in the Associated Press poll and No. 23 in the USA Today Coaches survey. The 2012 Vanderbilt squad finished No. 23 and 20, respectively, marking its first AP final ranking since 1948. Franklin's 24 wins tied Dan McGugin for the most by a Vanderbilt coach in his first three seasons.

Franklin led Vanderbilt to a bowl game in each of his three seasons in Nashville, with the last two years resulting in wins over North Carolina State (Music City Bowl) and Houston (BBVA Compass Bowl). The Commodores had played in four bowl games all-time in the 121 seasons prior to his arrival, none in consecutive years.

Vanderbilt has posted four nine-win seasons in program history, with Franklin's last two teams comprising half of the total. Over the last 20 games during the 2012-13 seasons, the Commodores' 16-4 record was second-best in the SEC to Alabama's 17-3 mark.

Franklin inherited a Vanderbilt team that finished 2-10 in both 2009 and 2010, including a 1-15 SEC mark. From 1983-2010, the Commodores had just one winning season (2008) prior to his arrival. His drive, coaching acumen and enthusiasm drove a quick turnaround in Vanderbilt's fortunes, as the team posted a 6-6 regular-season record and earned a berth in the Liberty Bowl during his first season. The 2011 bowl berth was Vanderbilt's second since 1983 and running back Zac Stacy broke the Commodores' season record with 1,193 rushing yards.

The Commodores had a breakthrough campaign in 2012 under Franklin, finishing on a seven-game winning streak (longest since 1948) to post a 9-4 mark, Vanderbilt's most wins in 97 years. A victory at Missouri sparked an 8-1 finish, which included three consecutive SEC road wins for the first time in program history. The Commodores were 5-3 in SEC play, winning five SEC games for the first time since 1935, and posted two shutouts for the first time since 1968. Vanderbilt defeated N.C. State, 38-24, in the Music City Bowl and Franklin was among five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year. Stacy became the first player in Vanderbilt history to rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons, gaining 1,141 yards to finish with a school-record 3,143 yards and 30 rushing touchdowns. Stacy started 12 games and ran for 973 yards and seven touchdowns as a rookie with the St. Louis Rams in 2013. Wide receiver Jordan Matthews broke the Vanderbilt season receiving record with 1,363 yards on 94 catches.

Vanderbilt continued its historic rise under Franklin during the 2013 season, capping a school-record second consecutive 9-4 campaign with a 41-24 win over Houston in the BBVA Compass Bowl. The Commodores defeated Florida, Georgia and Tennessee in the same season for the first time in history, winning in Gainesville and Knoxville. Franklin helped Matthews develop into a two-time All-American and the SEC's career leader in receptions and receiving yardage, having compiled 262 career receptions for 3,759 yards and 24 touchdowns. Matthews broke the SEC season record with 112 receptions for 1,477 yards and seven touchdowns in 2013, becoming the first SEC receiver to make 100 catches in a season. Tackle Wesley Johnson also earned first-team All-SEC honors from the coaches and the Associated Press.

Franklin began his coaching career as the wide receivers coach at Kutztown (Pa.) University (1995) and was a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, East Stroudsburg (Pa.) in 1996, working with the secondary. He then was the wide receivers coach at James Madison (1997), a graduate assistant (tight ends) at Washington State in 1998 and the wide receivers coach at Idaho State (1999).

In 2000, Franklin was named the wide receivers coach at Maryland under head coach Ron Vanderlinden, who would go on to coach the Penn State linebackers from 2001-13. Franklin continued in that role under new head coach Ralph Friedgen in 2002 and '03 and helped the Terps to three consecutive 10-win seasons, including an appearance in the 2002 FedEx Orange Bowl. In 2003, Franklin added duties as recruiting coordinator and directed back-to-back recruiting classes ranked in the Top 25 nationally. Franklin and former Nittany Lion head coach Bill O'Brien (running backs) were Maryland assistant coaches in 2003 and '04 under Friedgen.

After five successful years at Maryland, Franklin was named wide receivers coach on Mike Sherman's Green Bay Packers staff in 2005. During that season, Green Bay ranked third in the NFL in receptions (383) and seventh in receiving yards (3,766). Donald Driver was among the top receivers in the NFL, ranking second in receptions and eighth in receiving yards, with a then-career-high 86 catches for 1,221 yards.

Franklin served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Kansas State during the 2006-07 seasons under head coach Ron Prince. In 2006, he helped the Wildcats to their first winning season in four years. Franklin coached quarterback Josh Freeman and oversaw an offense that produced a 3,000-yard passer (Freeman), 1,500-yard receiver (All-American wide receiver Jordy Nelson) and 1,000-yard rusher (James Johnson) during the 2007 season, a first in school history. Freeman would go on to become the Wildcats' highest NFL offensive draft pick since 1954 when the Tampa Bay Buccaneers selected him 17th overall in the 2009 NFL Draft.

Franklin returned to Maryland in 2008 as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator. He helped the Terrapins to victories in the 2008 Humanitarian Bowl and the 2010 Military Bowl. The 2010 squad was among the national leaders in scoring offense at 32.2 points per game and was led by ACC Rookie of the Year quarterback Danny O'Brien. He threw for 2,438 yards, 22 touchdowns and only eight interceptions in 2010, with All-ACC receiver Torrey Smith making 67 catches for 1,055 yards and 12 scores.

In 1998, Franklin began his participation in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, starting with a stint with the Miami Dolphins and working with Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Franklin also worked with Donovan McNabb of the Philadelphia Eagles (1999) and Minnesota Vikings (2008) in the NFL program.

Franklin was a four-year letterman at quarterback and a two-time All-PSAC selection at East Stroudsburg. He set seven school records as a senior to earn team MVP honors and was a Harlon Hill Trophy nominee as the NCAA Division II Player of the Year. Among the season records he set were for total offense (3,128 yards), passing yards (2,586) and TD passes (19). Franklin graduated having broken or tied 23 school records.

Franklin graduated from East Stroudsburg in 1995 with a degree in psychology and earned a master's degree in educational leadership from Washington State University. Franklin graduated from Neshaminy High School in Langhorne.

Franklin and his wife, Fumi, have two daughters, Shola and Addison.

ILLINOIS 0 I vs. PSU 39 PENN STATE

BEAVER STADIUM | OCT. 31, 2015
ESPN2 | ATTN: 94,417

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The Penn State defense limited Illinois to just 167 yards of offense and quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for two touchdowns and caught another as the Nittany Lions cruised to a 39-0 victory over the Fighting Illini. The shutout was Penn State's first since 2013 and first in the Big Ten since 2009.

Penn State improved to 7-2 overall and 4-1 in the Big Ten for first time since 2012, and its margin of victory was the largest against a Big Ten opponent in a shutout since a 49-0 win vs. Northwestern in 2002. It was also Penn State's largest win in a Big Ten game since a 41-point win (48-7) at Wisconsin in 2008.

The 167 yards of offense (37 rushing, 130 passing) by Illinois was the fewest allowed by the Nittany Lions this year, and the fewest since holding Minnesota to 138 yards (37 rushing, 101 passing) in 2009. The Fighting Illini entered the game leading the Big Ten in protecting the quarterback, but yielded a season-high four sacks.

Carl Nassib, who entered the game as the national sack leader, extended his own streak to nine games with a second-half sack. Fellow linemen Austin Johnson and Anthony Zettel also recorded a sack. Linebacker Jason Cabinda led the team with seven tackles. Additionally, 10 different Lions totaled nine tackles for loss for the 16th straight game with at least 5.0 TFLs.

Hackenberg set a Penn State record with his 19th career 200-plus yard passing game, totaling 266 yards and two touchdowns after completing 21-of-29 passing attempts. He also caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from running back Nick Scott, and left the game early in the fourth quarter with Penn State comfortably ahead. Hackenberg is the first Penn State quarterback with a touchdown catch since Zack Mills against Akron in 2004. In his last six games, Hackenberg has 12 touchdown passes, one touchdown reception, no interceptions and four games with at least 250 yards passing.

Hackenberg's top targets were Chris Godwin and DaeSean Hamilton. Godwin tied a career best with seven receptions, including one touchdown reception and a total of 76 yards. Hamilton had four catches, giving him 110 for his career and moving him into a tie with Bryant Johnson for ninth place at Penn State.

Running back Saquon Barkley led the game with 142 all-purpose yards, rushing 24 times for 84 yards and a touchdown, while also catching a career-high three passes for a career-best 58 yards.

Defensive back Clayton Fejedelem led Illinois with 13 tackles, a forced fumble and a blocked extra point. Quarterback Wes Lunt was held to 129 yards on 16-of-30 passing with one interception.

Penn State found the end zone on its second drive for the game's first score. A career long 31-yard reception by DeAndre Thompkins moved the Nittany Lions into Illini territory, and a 19-yard reception by Barkley advanced the Lions to the Illinois 6. After a pair of rushes placed the ball on the 5, Hackenberg zipped a pass through traffic over the middle to Godwin with 5:52 remaining in the quarter. The extra point try was blocked.

Lunt was intercepted at midfield on Illinois' ensuing possession by Troy Reeder. It was the first pick of Reeder's career and he returned it 44 yards to the Illinois 6. On the first play of the ensuing drive, Hackenberg lofted a pass to Lewis along the left sideline in the end zone, and Lewis leapt, pulled it down and got one foot in bounds for the touchdown. The extra point was blocked again though, giving Penn State a 12-0 lead with 4:16 remaining in the first quarter.

Penn State forced an Illinois punt and drove into Illini territory early in the second quarter, but Thompkins was stripped of the football, ending the drive at the Illinois 37. Both teams would trade punts though until Tyler Davis converted a 42-yard field goal with 4:16 remaining in the half. Penn State would take a 15-0 lead into the locker room.

The Nittany Lions would receive the kickoff to start the second half and Koa Farmer returned it from the end zone a career-long 57 yards to the Illinois 43, setting up a seven-play touchdown drive. The Lions converted a pair of third-and-longs on the drive as Hackenberg connected with Hamilton on 16-yard pass on third-and-10 from the 43, and again on a 19-yard pass on third-and-16 from the 33.

The latter setup a 14-yard touchdown pass by Scott to Hackenberg, who rolled out down the left sideline, wide open after handing off to Scott. It gave Penn State a 22-0 lead with 11:18 remaining in the third quarter and was the first reception by a Nittany Lion quarterback since Matt McGloin had a 16-yard catch from Curtis Drake against Nebraska in 2011, and the first touchdown reception by a quarterback since Zack Mills had an 18-yard touchdown reception from Michael Robinson in the 2004 season opener against Akron.

Davis added a 28-yard field goal with 3:56 remaining in the quarter for a 25-0 lead, and Barkley capped a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive with a 7-yard scoring run after hurdling Illinois defenders and losing a shoe at the goal line.

Mark Allen added a career-long 20-yard touchdown run with 6:33 remaining for the final margin.

SERIES NOTES

- The second-longest tenured Big Ten head coach, Pat Fitzgerald is in his 10th season at the helm of Northwestern.
- He is the all-time winningest coach in Northwestern history and has led the program to five bowl game appearances as the sideline boss. Northwestern has appeared in the Alamo (2008), Outback (2009), Ticketcity (2010), Meineke Car Care (2011) and Gator Bowls (2012).
- Fitzgerald has spent 15 of his 18 seasons as a collegiate head coach with the Wildcats. He was the defensive backs coach in 2001, coached linebackers from 2002-05 and was hired as the head coach in 2006.
- As a player in 1995, Fitzgerald led the Wildcats to the Big Ten Championship and Rose Bowl.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

- Northwestern made a splash to start the year, defeating No. 21 Stanford in the season opener and winning its next four games for a 5-0 start. The Wildcats were ranked as high as No. 13 by the AP before suffering back-to-back setbacks to nationally-ranked Big Ten opponents Michigan and Iowa.
- Northwestern defeated Nebraska, 30-28, in its last outing to improve to 6-2 overall (2-2 Big Ten) to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2012. The Wildcats enter the game after a bye week.
- Northwestern is averaging 186.1 rushing yards per game to rank third in the conference, while averaging a league-low 146.1 passing yards per game.
- Running back Justin Jackson ranks fifth in the Big Ten with 91.4 rushing yards per game, while quarterback Clayton Thorson is averaging 37.1 yards on the ground and has a team-best five rushing touchdowns.
- Kickoff returns are a strength with a team average of 25.1 yards per return, which ranks second in the Big Ten and 14th in the country. Returner Solomon Vault leads the Big Ten with 26.3 yards per return and has one return for a touchdown - a 98-yarder against Duke.
- The defense has a Big Ten-best three touchdowns.
- Northwestern leads the Big Ten and ranks ninth nationally with just 4.5 penalties per game.

SERIES RECORD

Penn State holds a 13-4 record all-time in the series against the Wildcats, which dates back to Penn State's inaugural season in the Big Ten. In the first meeting between the two schools since 2012 last season, Northwestern defeated the Nittany Lions to snap the Lions' six-game winning streak in the series. Penn State is making its first visit to Ryan Field since 2011, where it is 6-2.

LAST MEETING

PENN STATE FALLS TO NORTHWESTERN ON HOMECOMING, 29-6

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. — Senior linebacker Mike Hull recorded a then-career-high 16 tackles, including one for a loss, but Penn State dropped a 29-6 decision to Northwestern. The Homecoming contest brought in a then-season-high 102,910 fans to Beaver Stadium.

Freshman linebacker Jason Cabinda finished second on the team with eight tackles in his collegiate debut. Junior defensive end Deion Barnes added six tackles, including his fourth sack of the season. Senior kicker Sam Ficken accounted for all of Penn State's points with a pair of field goals.

Christian Hackenberg threw for 216 yards for his seventh 200-yard game in his last eight outings. DaeSean Hamilton pulled in six passes for 100 yards.

Northwestern's Miles Shuler returned a punt 42 yards to put the Wildcats in prime position to start their second drive of the game at the Penn State 31. On third-and-eight, Quarterback Trevor Siemian found Mike McHugh for a 28-yard gain to the 1-yard line and Siemian ran it in for the score on the next play to put Northwestern up 7-0 with 9:29 left in the first quarter. Northwestern engineered another drive, going 60 yards in 10 plays for another Siemian touchdown from 1-yard out to make it 14-0 with 3:59 left in the opening quarter. The Wildcats again started in great field position, taking over at the Penn State 29, but turned the ball over on downs after Penn State stopped a fake field goal attempt.

Neither team could sustain offensive momentum in the second quarter until Penn State's final drive of the half. Hackenberg led the Lions on a 10-play, 55-yard drive that resulted in a 42-yard field goal by Ficken with five seconds left in the half. The squads hit the locker rooms with Penn State trailing 14-3.

After the teams swapped drives to open the second half, Jesse Della Valle returned the Northwestern punt 41 yards to the Wildcats 30. Hackenberg found Akeel Lynch for 11 yards, which led to a 36-yard field goal by Ficken to cut the deficit to 14-6 with 11:17 left in the third quarter.

The fourth quarter opened with Hackenberg being intercepted by Anthony Walker, who returned it 49 yards to the touchdown. However, the Wildcats missed the extra point to take a 20-6 lead, just 11 seconds into the fourth quarter.

On the first play of Penn State's next possession, Hackenberg was sacked and fumbled, which was recovered by Northwestern at the Penn State 15. The Wildcats advanced the ball eight yards and converted on a 23-yard field goal to increase the margin to 23-6 with 13:06 left.

Another rushing touchdown for Siemian in the fourth quarter extended the Wildcats' lead, but the extra point failed again to make the final margin 29-6.

NORTHWESTERN NOTES

B1G START

The Nittany Lions are 4-1 in the Big Ten (7-2 overall) for the first time since 2012.

B1G WIN VS. ILLINOIS

- Penn State enters the Northwestern game following its first shutout win (Illinois, 39-0) since 2013 (Kent State, 34-0).
- It marked the first Big Ten shutout by Penn State since blanking Minnesota in 2009, 20-0, on Homecoming.
- The 39-point shutout victory marks the biggest margin in a Big Ten shutout since a 49-0 win vs. Northwestern in 2002.
- The margin of victory of 39 points in a Big Ten game was the largest by Penn State since a 41-point win at Wisconsin in 2008, 48-7. It is also the largest in a Big Ten home game since a 52-7 win over Indiana in 2003, and the biggest in a shutout by Penn State since a 59-0 shutout of FIU in 2007.
- The 39 points were also the most scored by Penn State in a Big Ten game since a 45-21 win vs. Purdue in 2013.
- Penn State has scored more than 30 points in consecutive Big Ten games (31 Maryland; 39 Illinois) for the first time since scoring 35 at Illinois, 39 vs. Northwestern and 38 at Iowa in consecutive games in 2012.
- Penn State has also scored in every quarter in consecutive games (Maryland, Illinois)...
 - For the first time since the season-ending game at Wisconsin in 2013 and the season opener in 2014 against UCF in Dublin.
 - For the first time in consecutive games in the same season since UCF and Kent State in 2013.
 - For the first time in consecutive Big Ten games since Northwestern and Iowa in 2012.

HACKENBERG HEATING UP

- In his last six games, QB Christian Hackenberg has 12 touchdown passes, two rushing touchdowns, one touchdown reception, no interceptions and four games with at least 250 yards passing. He has passed for 1,415 yards in those six games.
 - Hackenberg has not thrown an interception in his last 164 pass attempts, the longest streak of his career.
 - Hackenberg has become the Nittany Lions career leader in passing yardage, touchdowns and completions. He needs just two more touchdown passes to become the Nittany Lions' career leader.
- Hackenberg's Resume on Page 11.
Records Watch on Page 30.

PENN STATE VS. BIG TEN

Penn State owns a 191-95-3 mark against Big Ten Conference teams since the Nittany Lions first opposed Ohio State in 1912.

The Nittany Lions began play as a member of the Big Ten Conference in 1993 and have a 113-68 mark.

Prior to joining the conference, Penn State played 107 games vs. the current Big Ten alignment and was 79-25-3 in those games.

Maryland and Rutgers joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2014.

COACHING STAFF CONNECTION

Penn State head coach James Franklin worked with Northwestern's superbacks coach Bob Heffner at Maryland in 2000. Franklin coached the wide receivers, while Heffner was the offensive coordinator.

NITTANY LIONS FROM ILLINOIS

Penn State has four players from Illinois on its roster. All joined the Nittany Lions during head coach James Franklin's tenure.

- S Joe Berg - Mundelein/Carmel Catholic
- T Brendan Brosnan - Park Ridge/Maine South
- DE Colin Castagna - Barrington/Barrington
- K/P Tyler Davis - St. Charles/St. Charles North

PENN STATE-NORTHWESTERN CONNECTIONS

- PSU redshirt freshman T Brendan Brosnan protected sophomore QB Matt Alвити while at Maine South (Ill.) High School.
- PSU redshirt freshman QB Billy Fessler and Northwestern freshman WR Charlie Fessler are brothers who played together at Cathedral Prep.
- PSU freshman DE Kam Carter and Northwestern RB Solomon Vault played together at Gaithersburg (Md.) High School.
- PSU freshman DE Colin Castagna and Northwestern redshirt freshman QB Daniel Kubiuk played together at Barrington (Ill.) High School.
- PSU senior DE Carl Nassib and Northwestern junior OL Connor Mahoney played together at Malvern Prep (Pa.).
- PSU junior KS Tyler Yazujian and Northwestern junior WR Andrew Scanlan both played at Spring-Ford (Pa.) High School.

FAMILIAR FOES FOR FRANKLIN

- Head coach James Franklin is 5-2 against opponents he has faced as a head coach at both Vanderbilt and Penn State - Army, UMass and Northwestern.
- Against Army, Franklin guided Vanderbilt to a 44-21 victory over the Black Knights in 2011 - his first season as head coach, and did the same with Penn State in 2015 (20-14).
- Franklin guided Vanderbilt to victories over UMass in 2012 and 2013, and led Penn State past UMass in 2014.
- Franklin's Commodores lost to Northwestern in 2012 and the Nittany Lions were defeated by the Wildcats in 2014.

OFF-WEEK AHEAD

- After playing 10 consecutive games, Penn State will take its bye week following the Northwestern game.
- The Nov. 14 bye is the latest first-bye date for the Nittany Lions since 1958 when Penn State's only bye came on Nov. 22.
- Penn State also had its first bye on Nov. 22 in 1923 and on Nov. 21 in 1922.
- In the Big Ten, Penn State and Wisconsin have their off date on Nov. 14, while Nebraska's single bye comes on Nov. 21.

PLENTY OF CHUNK PLAYS

- The Nittany Lions are eighth in the country and first in the Big Ten in plays of 30 or more yards (29). The Penn State passing game had 10 plays of 30 or more yards in the win over Maryland.
- Junior quarterback Christian Hackenberg is tied for eighth in FBS with 19 pass plays of 30 or more yards, while sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin is tied for sixth with 10 catches for 30 or more yards.
- Additionally, freshman running back Saquon Barkley is tied for ninth in FBS with seven rushes for 30 or more yards.

OFFENSIVE LINE SHUFFLE

- The starting offensive line combination against Illinois marked the sixth different combination in nine games this season.
- Guard Brian Gaia is the only player to start on the line in all nine of the games.

BARKLEY BREAKS OUT

- Despite missing 2.5 games to injury and only receiving one carry in the season opener, Saquon Barkley leads the Lions with 716 rushing yards in seven games played.
- Barkley moved into third place in Penn State true freshman season rushing yards with 716, passing Curtis Enis (683; 1995).
- Barkley's five rushing TDs are tied for second place on the Penn State true freshman season list with Matt Suhey (1976) and Austin Scott (2003).
- Barkley had a career-high three receptions for a career-best 58 yards against Illinois.
- Barkley's yards per game average of 102.3, which ranks 32nd nationally and third in the Big Ten, is skewed down since he only received one carry for one yard in the season opener against Temple and only played a little over a quarter against SDSU before leaving the game.
- Barkley's yards per game average is 119.2 when not including the Temple game and 130.6 when not including the Temple and SDSU games. The latter figure would rank him 12th in FBS.
- Barkley is second in the Big Ten and 14th in FBS with 6.6 yards per carry.
- Barkley averaged a season-low 3.1 yards per carry against Maryland, but he was clearly the focus of the Terrapins' game plan, as they dared the Lions to throw deep. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for a season-high 315 yards on just 13 completions (24.3 ypc).
- A national primetime TV audience was introduced to Barkley at Ohio State, as the true freshman did not disappoint in his return from injury. Barkley posted his third 100-yard rushing game of the season with 194 yards on 26 carries at Ohio State. His 194 rushing yards were the fourth-most by a PSU true freshman. He also has the third-highest total with 195 vs. Rutgers.
- Barkley is only the second running back to rush for 175 yards or more at Ohio State since 2000, joining Indiana's Tevin Coleman, who had 228 yards last season.
- His three 100-yard rushing games are tied with Eric McCoo (1998) and Curtis Enis (1995) for second on the all-time true freshman season list at Penn State. D.J. Dozier's five 100-yard rushing games in 1983 top it.
- Barkley notched a career-long 56-yard rush in the fourth quarter against Ohio State. In the first quarter, he had a 44-yard touchdown run called back due to a penalty.
- Twenty-one of Barkley's 88 rushes have gone for double-digit gains.
- Barkley is ninth in the country in rushes of 30 or more yards (5). He is also tied for the Big Ten lead with Ohio State's Ezekiel Elliot for 20-plus yard rushing plays (8).
- Barkley caught his first career pass against SDSU and took it 22 yards for a touchdown.
- His 310 rushing yards in consecutive games against Buffalo and Rutgers were the highest two-game total by a Penn State back since Zach Zwinak had 314 in a two-game span vs. Indiana (135) and Wisconsin (179).
- It is also the highest total by a true freshman RB in a two-game span since D.J. Dozier had 359 in 1983 (vs. Rutgers and Alabama). Barkley, Enis and Dozier are the only true freshman to have back-to-back 100-yard games (Dozier had four in a row in 1983).
- Additionally, Barkley's 195 rushing yards against Rutgers were the most by a Penn State true freshman since Eric McCoo had 206 against Michigan State in 1998. Barkley is the fourth true freshman at Penn State to have two or more 100-yard rushing performances (5, D.J. Dozier - 1983; 3, Curtis Enis - 1995; 3, Eric McCoo - 1998).
- Against Buffalo, Barkley became just the eighth PSU true freshman to rush for over 100 yards in a game, joining, Matt Suhey (1976), Curt Warner (1979), D.J. Dozier (1983), Curtis Ennis (1995), Eric McCoo (1998), Austin Scott (2003) and Silas Redd (2010).
- He is also the first PSU player to rush for 100 yards in a quarter since Tony Hunt vs. Akron in 2004. Larry Johnson rushed for more than 100 in a quarter four times in 2002.
- Barkley is only the third player since 2000 to rush for 100 yards or more in a quarter, and it has now only happened seven times since 2000.
- Barkley (Buffalo and Rutgers) joined Johnson as the only PSU rushers to total 100-plus yard quarters in back-to-back games.

HACKENBERG'S RESUME

HACKENBERG BECOMES PENN STATE'S CAREER LEADING PASSER

- Hackenberg now owns Penn State career records for passing yards (7,719), completions (629), attempts (1,111), 200-yard passing games (19) and 300-yard passing games (9).
- With his 40-yard completion to Chris Godwin in the first quarter against Maryland, QB Christian Hackenberg became Penn State's career passing yardage leader, moving past Zack Mills (7,212; 2001-04).
- Hackenberg also became Penn State's career completions leader, moving again past Zack Mills (606; 2001-04). Hackenberg finished the Maryland game with 608 career completions.
- With 29 pass attempts against the Terps, Hackenberg moved into a tie for first place on Penn State's career passing attempts list with Mills (1,082). With another 29 attempts against Illinois, Hackenberg took sole possession of the top spot (1,111).
- Hackenberg's two touchdown passes against Illinois move him into sole possession of second place in the Penn State annals for career touchdown passes with 45. He trails only Matt McGloin (46 TD passes) for first place.
- Hackenberg had 266 yards passing against Illinois, for his 19th career 200-yard passing game, the most ever by a Penn State quarterback. He had been tied with Matt McGloin for first place with 18 200-yard games.
- Hackenberg also owns the school record for 300-yard passing games, most recently extending the record against Maryland Oct. 24.
- Hackenberg now has 7,474 yards of total offense, and moved past Tony Sacca (6,000 yards) and Daryll Clark (6,361 yards), respectively, into second place all-time at PSU in consecutive weeks against Rutgers and SDSU. He's now chasing Zack Mills (7,796) for the all-time record.

HACKENBERG NOTABLES

- Hackenberg has completed 629-of-1,111 career passes and thrown 45 touchdown passes in 34 career starts.
- He is just the second player in Penn State history to surpass the 7,000-yard mark, the fourth to surpass the 6,000-yard passing mark, the eighth to surpass the 5,000-yard passing mark and one of 10 to eclipse the 4,000-yard passing mark.
- Hackenberg has thrown for at least 250 yards in 14 of his 34 career games, including nine 300-yard efforts and one 400-yard contest.
- On the awards front, Hackenberg is a preseason candidate for the Maxwell, O'Brien, Walter Camp and Manning Awards.
- The third-year signal caller owns the freshman passing yardage record with 2,955 yards through the air in 2013, and the sophomore passing record with 2,977 yards last season. Zack Mills previously held both the rookie record (1,669) and the sophomore mark (2,417).
- He owns the overall, freshman and sophomore single game passing records.
 - Set the freshman single game record twice in 2013. He threw for 340 yards at Indiana on Oct. 5 after a 311-yard effort against Eastern Michigan on Sept. 7. Zack Mills twice threw for 280 yards (USU & Southern Miss) in 2001.
 - His 454 yards passing vs. UCF in the 2014 opener broke Mills' school & sophomore record of 399 yards vs. Iowa in 2002.
- Hackenberg threw for 773 yards in his first two games of 2014 to break the Penn State consecutive game passing record. He eclipsed Zack Mills' record of 686 yards from 2002.
 - Hackenberg compiled 454 yards vs. UCF and 319 against Akron.
 - Mills threw for 399 yards vs. Iowa and 287 at Wisconsin.
- His nine games with at least 200 yards in 2013 broke Mills' freshman record of five from 2001.

- His nine 300-yard passing games (34 games played) put him atop the list of only four quarterbacks in PSU history to post multiple 300-plus yard passing games.
- Hackenberg's 55 passing attempts at Indiana in 2013 and 50 attempts against Boston College in the 2014 PinStripe Bowl marked just the fourth and fifth times in PSU history a signal caller amassed 50 passing attempts in a game. Hackenberg surpassed Collins' school record of 54 in 1992 at BYU.
- Eleven of his 44 scoring strikes are 40 yards or longer, including a career-long 79-yard touchdown pass to Geno Lewis in the 2014 season opener vs. UCF.

Records Watch on Page 30.

DARED TO GO DEEP

- Quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw for a season-high 315 yards on just 13 completions (24.3 ypc) against Maryland.
- Nine of the 13 completions in the game were for 20 yards or more.
- All three of his touchdown passes were 20 yards or more (37, 20, 27).
- Six of his 13 touchdown passes this season have come from outside the red zone.
- Hackenberg's yards per completion average for the season of 13.96 ranks 17th in the country and third in the Big Ten.

HACKENBERG AMONG NCAA BEST IN CRUNCH TIME

Penn State trailed by three points entering the fourth quarter against Maryland, but a perfect throw from Christian Hackenberg and a contested catch by Geno Lewis resulted in a 27-yard touchdown that stood as the game-winner. It marked the sixth time in Hackenberg's career that he engineered a game-winning drive in the fourth quarter or overtime, tying him with Navy quarterback Kennan Reynolds for the most in the NCAA among active players. Last season, he led a game-winning drive in overtime of the 2014 PinStripe Bowl, and led a game-winning drive in last year's opener vs. UCF in the final 1:13.

- The complete list of NCAA game winning drive leaders is below. (Compiled by Navy Sports Information)

No.	Name (School)
1.	6 Christian Hackenberg (Penn State)
	6 Keenan Reynolds (Navy)

HACKENBERG LEADS LIONS IN CAREER STARTS

Hackenberg leads the team with 34 career starts. Senior Jordan Lucas is second with 32 career starts. Lucas did not play against SDSU, the first game he has missed after having played in all 40 career games and starting 27 of the last 28 games.

Senior cornerback Trevor Williams follows with 28 starts. Defensive tackles Anthony Zettel and Austin Johnson are tied with 24 starts apiece.

HACK CAN RUN TOO

- Known as a pocket passer, Hackenberg defied the perception against Indiana with a career day running the ball, which included a career-best two touchdown runs.
- Hackenberg had a career-long rush of 22 yards in the second quarter. His previous long was 19 yards the previous week vs. Army.
- He finished with a career-high 21 yards rushing. His previous was an 18-yard game last season at Rutgers.
- Hackenberg's 1-yard touchdown rush in the second quarter was his first since a 7-yard rushing touchdown vs. Nebraska in 2013.
- The Indiana game marked the first time that a Penn State quarterback had two rushing touchdowns since Matt McGloin had two rushing touchdowns in a win over Illinois in 2012.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Joe Moore Week 3 Honor Roll

STINGY DEFENSE

- Penn State's defense allowed just 167 yards to Illinois. Prior to playing No. 1 Ohio State (429 yards) and Maryland (363 yards) the two weeks before, Penn State had held regular season opponents below 325 yards in 13 consecutive games.
- The 167 yards (37 rushing, 130 passing) allowed to Illinois were the fewest allowed by the Nittany Lions since holding Minnesota to 138 yards (37 rushing, 101 passing) in 2009.
- The Nittany Lion defense held Illinois to 12 first downs, the fewest since giving up just eight to Temple last season, and the fewest in a Big Ten game since allowing 12 to Michigan last season.
- The Penn State defense has been particularly stingy at home, having held its last 10 opponents and 12 of its last 13 to less than 300 yards of total offense, dating back to last season. Northwestern is the lone team to gain more than 300 yards against the Lions at home.
- Ohio State snapped another streak as well this season, as the Penn State defense had not allowed more than seven points in the first half of 12 consecutive games, including eight consecutive against Big Ten opponents.
- In 2014, Penn State ranked in the Top 10 in the FBS in fewest first downs allowed (2nd, 190), pass efficiency (2nd, 101.14), total (2nd, 278.7 ypg), rushing (3rd, 100.5 ypg), third down (6th, 30.2) and scoring defense (7th, 18.6 ppg).

STOPS BEHIND THE LINE

- In addition to leading the nation in sacks with 36 (4.0 pg), Penn State also ranks fourth in the nation and tops in the Big Ten with 9.2 tackles for loss per game.
- Penn State has recorded at least five tackles for loss in 16 consecutive games.
- The 16th straight game with at least five TFLs is the longest streak for Penn State since a 38-game streak from 1997 to 2000.
- The Nittany Lions recorded 9.0 tackles for loss against Illinois to mark the sixth game this season with at least 9.0 TFLs in a game.
- The Penn State defense accumulated 10.0 tackles for loss against Ohio State, the most the Buckeyes had surrendered all season.
- Penn State leads the nation in both tackle for loss yardage (409) and sack yardage (284).
- Penn State's 15 tackles for loss against Temple were the second-most in the country during the opening week, trailing only Colorado State, which racked up 16 against FCS-level Savannah State. Eleven different Nittany Lions were credited with at least an assist, led by Carl Nassib, Brandon Bell and Anthony Zettel with 2.5 TFL each, while Trevor Williams had 2.0.
- Nassib leads the country with 2.1 TFL per game.

QUARTERBACKS BEWARE

- With 4.0 sacks per game and 36 total the Nittany Lions lead the FBS.
See National Nits on Page 16
- Penn State's defense has had at least one sack in 31 consecutive games. That is the most consecutive games with a recorded sack since sacks became an official NCAA statistic in 2000.
- Senior defensive end Carl Nassib has recorded a sack in each game this season. He leads the nation with 14.5 sacks for an FBS-leading average of 1.61 per game.
- Illinois led the Big Ten in fewest sacks allowed with an average of 1.14 before playing Penn State, but yielded a season-high four sacks to the Nittany Lions.
- The PSU defense had four sacks against Indiana, which had only allowed three sacks total in the previous five games.
- The Nittany Lions made the most of their few chances for sacks against Army's run-heavy triple-option offense, totaling more sacks (3) than passing attempts (1) and completions (1).
- Sophomore linebacker Jason Cabinda registered two sacks in the Army win, including on fourth down to end the Black Knights' comeback hopes.

FUMBLE!

- Penn State is in a six-way tie for the lead nationally in fumble recoveries with 10.
See National Nits on Page 16
- Nine different Lions have recovered fumbles, as Garrett Sickels is the only one with two recoveries. He picked up his second vs. Maryland.
- Penn State's six fumble recoveries in consecutive games (3 vs. San Diego State and 3 vs. Army) are its most in a two-game span since having six at Virginia (3) and vs. Navy (3) in 2012.
- Sickels and linebackers Von Walker and Manny Bowen made their first career fumble recoveries against the Black Knights.

NASSIB BREAKING THROUGH

Senior defensive end Carl Nassib has rewarded the Nittany Lions for putting him in the starting lineup, as the former walk-on is enjoying a breakout season by breaking through opposing offensive lines.

- The nation's sack leader with 14.5 (1.61 pg), Nassib has had at least one sack in nine consecutive games, which is the longest streak by a Penn State player since sacks became an official NCAA statistic in 2000.
- Nassib's 14.5 sacks for the season stands alone in third place at Penn State for a single season. He trails both Larry Kubin (1979) and Michael Haynes (2002), who are tied for the single season sack record with 15.0.
- Nassib has 18.5 tackles for loss this season, the most by a Nittany Lion since Aaron Maybin had 20 in 2008. Nassib's 18.5 TFL are the fourth-most by a Penn State player since 2000.
- Nassib leads the nation with 18.5 tackles for loss (2.1 pg) and ranks third with five forced fumbles.
- He has recorded a sack in each game this season, and five multi-sack games.
- Nassib is the first Penn State player to force two fumbles in two games in a season since Maurice Evans did it in 2007. Evans had two forced fumbles against Indiana and two forced fumbles against Texas A&M in the Alamo Bowl.
- Nassib's five forced fumbles this season are the most by a PSU player since Evans had five in 2007.
- While making his first career start (high school or college), Nassib made a career-high 10 tackles in the season opener at Temple. His previous high was four stops on October 5, 2013 at Indiana. Nassib also recorded what was then his second career solo sack, good for a 12-yard loss in the second quarter, and his 2.5 tackles for loss were a career-best.
- Nassib made even bigger plays the following week against Buffalo, recording three sacks, including back-to-back sack-fumbles to stifle a UB comeback. He also hauled in an interception deep in UB territory after senior defensive tackle Anthony Zettel tipped a pass from the quarterback.
- His fifth sack of the season was against Rutgers.
- Nassib tallied two sacks against San Diego State, forcing a fumble on one that led to defensive tackle Austin Johnson's 71-yard touchdown run after scooping up the ball.
- He continued his sack streak with one against Army.
- Nassib had a triple-double of sorts against Indiana with 2.0 sacks, 2.0 TFL and two forced fumbles.
- At No. 1 Ohio State, he led the Penn State defense with 1.5 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss, also tying for second on the team with eight tackles. The Lions totaled 10.0 tackles for loss in the game to mark its fourth game with at least 9.0 TFLs. It was also the most surrendered by Ohio State this season.
- Nassib was credited with two sacks against Maryland and one against Illinois.

NASSIB GARNERS MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICA HONORS

- Penn State defensive lineman Carl Nassib garnered multiple midseason All-America honors, including ESPN, CBS Sports, USA Today and SI.com.
- CBS Sports Eye on College Football writers Jon Soloman, Tom Fornelli and Robby Kalland named Nassib the National Defensive Player of the Year.
- Nassib leads the FBS in sacks (13.5; 1.69 pg) and tackles for loss (18.5; 2.3 pg).

BEDNARIK WATCH LIST

- Defensive lineman Carl Nassib is a Bednarik Award semifinalist.
- Nassib and Austin Johnson were added to the Bednarik Award watch list midway through the season, joining fellow lineman Anthony Zettel.
- Nassib and Johnson were also named ESPN.com Midseason All-Big Ten.
- The Bednarik Award has been presented to the College Defensive Player of the Year since 1995.
- The Nittany Lions' four Bednarik Award recipients are the most of any school in the nation - LaVar Arrington ('99), Paul Posluszny ('05 & '06) and Dan Connor ('07).
- Nassib currently leads the FBS in sacks (14.5; 1.6 pg), tackles for loss (18.5; 2.1 pg) and third in forced fumbles (5).
- Johnson has been a force up front for the Nittany Lions 54 tackles, which is tied for second on the team. He also has 4.5 sacks and 10.0 tackles for loss this season. Additionally, Johnson registered his first career touchdown with a 71-yard fumble return. Most recently against Maryland, he tied his career high with nine tackles, marking the third time this season he has recorded nine stops.
- Zettel has 37 stops on the season, including 18.5 solo tackles. He also has 10.0 tackles for loss, including 3.0 sacks. Zettel has also influenced the passing game with four pass breakups. He also has a forced fumble and a fumble recovery on the season.

GREEN LIGHT IN THE RED ZONE

- Penn State was 7-7 in the red zone against Illinois (5 TD, 2 FG), improving to 31-34 for the season (19 TD, 12 FG), a success rate of 91 percent.
- The Lions' 91 percent success rate is tied for 14th in the country.
- The Illinois game was just the second this season (Ohio State) in which all of Penn State's scoring took place in the red zone.

BOWLING AGAIN

- Penn State's victory over Maryland gave the Nittany Lions their sixth victory of the season, making them eligible to play in their 46th bowl game in program history.
 - The Lions' 45 bowl appearances ranked ninth-highest among FBS schools at the start of the season.
 - Head coach James Franklin is now 5-for-5 in leading teams to bowl eligibility as a head coach.
- Big Ten Bowl Lineup on Page 18.

TRIPLE THREAT QB

- QB Christian Hackenberg's 14-yard touchdown reception against Illinois was the first reception by a PSU quarterback since Matt McGloin had a 16-yard catch from Curtis Drake against Nebraska in 2011.
- It was the first touchdown reception by a Penn State quarterback since Zack Mills had an 18-yard touchdown reception from Michael Robinson in the 2004 season opener vs. Akron.
- Hackenberg is the first Big Ten player with multiple touchdown passes and a touchdown reception in the same game since Terrelle Pryor of Ohio State in 2010.
- Hackenberg is one of nine FBS players to have a passing, rushing and receiving touchdown this season and one of 19 active players to have accomplished the feat in their careers.

GODWIN LEADS RECEIVING CORPS

- Sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin has caught at least four passes in eight of nine games this season and nine of his last 20.
 - Godwin tied a career-best with seven receptions against Illinois. He previously had seven in last year's PinStripe Bowl vs. Boston College.
 - Godwin but totaled 103 yards on three catches at Ohio State, and then made four catches for a season-high 135 yards and a touchdown the following week against Maryland.
 - Godwin is the first Nittany Lion to post back-to-back 100-yard receiving games since Allen Robinson in 2013 (106 vs. Nebraska, 122 at Wisconsin).
 - It was his third career 100-yard receiving game (141 vs. Boston College, 2014 PinStripe Bowl).
 - He has at least one catch in 20 of 21 career games and four career games with five or more grabs, joining his seven-catch night vs. Boston College in the New Era PinStripe Bowl.
 - He has a team-best total of 34 receptions for 628 yards and is averaging 4.3 catches and 78.5 yards per game, to rank in the Top 10 in both in the Big Ten.
 - Godwin was added to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List for the nation's top receiver.
- See National Nits on Page 16

TURNING TURNOVERS INTO POINTS

- The Nittany Lions have forced 18 turnovers this season and have scored 54 points off the turnovers.
- The Lions added to the figure (six points) against Illinois scoring a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage following an interception.
- Penn State's 18 turnovers forced include 10 fumble recoveries and eight interceptions.
- Penn State ranks 17th in the nation and third in the Big Ten with a plus-eight turnover margin (18 takeaways, 10 turnovers).
- The Nittany Lions forced a season-high five turnovers against Maryland, the most forced by Penn State since forcing five against Temple on Nov. 15, 2014.
- Penn State's three interceptions in the game were the most in a single game since picking off Rutgers five times in the Big Ten opener last season on Sept. 13.
- Penn State scored 38 points off of seven forced turnovers over three games (SDSU, Army, Indiana).
- Across the SDSU and Army games, Penn State turned four consecutive fumbles into four consecutive touchdowns.
- Penn State converted three San Diego State fumbles into 21 points, and then Garrett Sickels recovered a fumble on Army's very first offensive play, which led to a PSU touchdown.
- The Lions entered the SDSU game having converted five turnovers into three points in the first three games.
- Junior defensive tackle Austin Johnson's fumble return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter was the Nittany Lions' first fumble return for a touchdown since Mike Hull vs. Navy in 2012.
- It was the first touchdown of Johnson's career.
- It was also the first defensive score for Penn State since Grant Haley returned an interception for a touchdown in 2014 vs. Temple.

WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

In its 129th season of varsity football, Penn State has posted 856 victories to rank No. 8 in the nation with Oklahoma.

The Nittany Lions are one of just eight programs with 850 wins and own an official all-time mark of 856-378-42 and one of just 12 programs to boast a winning percentage above two-thirds.

COACHING STAFF NOTES

James Franklin assembled a coaching staff with extensive collegiate experience, familiarity and strong recruiting ties to the Mid-Atlantic, South and Northeast regions of the United States. The entire staff has returned for a second season.

Franklin's staff includes seven members of his former staff at Vanderbilt that were instrumental in the Commodores achieving unprecedented success in recent years, a coach who previously worked with Franklin and one of Penn State's greatest all-time receivers, who was a highly-successful high school coach in western Pennsylvania.

- Seven of the assistant coaches were members of Franklin's staff at Vanderbilt, helping the Commodores to historic heights, including nine wins each in 2012 and 2013, two bowl victories and consecutive Top 25 finishes for the first time in program history.
- Charles Huff was an offensive quality control coach in 2011 during Franklin's first season at Vanderbilt and served with Franklin at Maryland in 2009.
- Terry Smith made 108 receptions and 15 touchdown catches at Penn State (1988-91) and was a highly successful head coach at Gateway High School near Pittsburgh from 2002-12.
- All but one member of the coaching staff graduated from a college or university in the Mid-Atlantic or Northeast.
 - ~ James Franklin - East Stroudsburg (Pa.)
 - ~ John Donovan - Johns Hopkins
 - ~ Herb Hand - Hamilton (N.Y.) College
 - ~ Charles Huff - Hampton (Va.) University
 - ~ Brent Pry - University of Buffalo
 - ~ Rickey Rahne - Cornell University
 - ~ Bob Shoop - Yale University
 - ~ Terry M. Smith - Penn State University
 - ~ Sean Spencer - Clarion (Pa.) University
- Nine members of the coaching staff are from the Mid-Atlantic or Northeast, including Philadelphia-area product Franklin and Dwight Galt, the Director of Performance Enhancement.
- Four members of the coaching staff hail from the Keystone State: Franklin (Langhorne), Pry (Altoona), Shoop (Oakmont) and Smith (Aliquippa).

The coaching staff will be getting extra assistance though this season, as veteran NFL coach Jim Haslett will serve as a consultant for the team. In his role, Haslett will work with the Penn State football coaches, staff and program.

The Pittsburgh native was the head coach of the New Orleans Saints from 2000-05 and was also the interim head coach for the St. Louis Rams for part of the 2008 season. Haslett led the Saints to the 2000 NFC West Championship en route to being a unanimous choice for AP Coach of the Year. He also claimed Coach of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Pro Football Weekly after guiding the Saints to their first-ever playoff win.

Haslett was most recently the Washington Redskins defensive coordinator from 2010-14. During his time in Washington, he produced three Pro Bowl linebackers and a second-team All-Pro linebacker in London Fletcher. In Haslett's first four years (2010-13,) the Redskins accumulated 105 takeaways, the team's highest four-year total since recording 110 (2002-05).

Haslett played his collegiate ball at Indiana (Pa.), where he was a four-time Little All-America selection at linebacker and defensive end. He was also an accomplished punter at IUP, where he still ranks second in single-season and career punting average. His son, Chase, is now the quarterback for the Crimson Hawks.

DEFENSIVE LINE LEADER

- DT Anthony Zettel had 1.0 sack against Illinois, which gives him 19.0 for his career, and moves him into a tie for eighth place at Penn State with Bruce Clark, LaVar Arrington and Jay Alford.
- Zettel has 37.0 TFLs in his Penn State career, which is good for 10th place in the Nittany Lion annals. He trails LaVar Arrington and Jimmy Kennedy, who are tied for eighth place with 39.0 TFL.
- Zettel set a career high with seven tackles vs. Maryland. His previous high was seven vs. San Diego State on Sept. 26, 2015.

THREE AND OUT

Penn State's defense continues to shine under Defensive Coordinator Bob Shoop. The Nittany Lions have forced 45 three-and-outs this season on 124 drives, equating to 36.3 percent of the time that Penn State has not allowed their opponents to gain a first down on a drive. Penn State had a season-high of seven three-and-outs against Indiana.

- at Temple - 6 three-and-outs in 14 drives.
- Buffalo - 5 three-and-outs in 12 drives.
- Rutgers - 5 three-and-outs in 13 drives.
- SDSU - 6 three-and-outs in 15 drives.
- Army - 2 three-and-outs in 11 drives.
- Indiana - 6 three-and-outs in 15 drives.
- at Ohio State - 3 three-and-outs in 13 drives.
- vs. Maryland - 5 three-and-outs in 16 drives.
- Illinois - 7 three-and-outs in 15 drives.
- PSU forced three-and-outs or less on the opponent's first offensive possession in four of the first five games this season, with the exception being SDSU. The Lions also forced a three-and-out on Ohio State and Illinois' first possession.
- Penn State's average of 5.00 three-and-outs per game ranks tied for 17th in the country.

HAMILTON MOVING UP RECORD BOOKS

Daesean Hamilton's is already moving up the career charts as a Nittany Lion.

Records Watch on Page 30

- Hamilton had four catches against Illinois, giving him 110 for his career and moving him into a tie with Bryant Johnson for ninth place at Penn State. He trails Jack Curry (117 receptions) for eighth place.
- He became the 13th Nittany Lion to reach the 100-reception milestone with two catches against Ohio State.
- As a freshman, Hamilton led the Big Ten with 82 catches (6.3 rpg) and was fifth in the conference at 69.2 ypg, scoring two touchdowns.
- Against Ohio State in 2014, Hamilton hauled in a school record 14 passes, breaking Freddie Scott's mark of 13 catches vs. Wisconsin in 1995.
- His 126 receiving yards vs. Ohio State in 2014 marked his fourth 100-yard effort of the season to extend his school freshman record.
- His 82 catches shattered the PSU freshman standard for receptions in a season and ranked second in school history, trailing only Allen Robinson (97 in 2013). With the second of his seven catches at Michigan, Hamilton moved past Deon Butler's freshman mark of 37 catches in 2005.
- Hamilton set the freshman single game record in Dublin, Ireland vs. UCF. He caught 11 passes for 165 yards, moving past Deon Butler's 125-yard effort vs. Wisconsin in 2005 and Maurice Humphrey's eight catch game against Northwestern in 2003.
- Hamilton eclipsed Butler's freshman season record of 691 yards in 2005 when he caught a 9-yard pass in the second quarter vs. Maryland.
- He was just the fifth freshman to post a 100-yard receiving game: joining Butler (2005, R-Fr.), Jimmy Cefalo (1974, Fr.), Humphrey (2003, Fr.) and Norwood (2005, Fr.)

HOME SWEET HOME, PART 1

With six victories in six home games, the Nittany Lions are enjoying their best home season since 2008 when they went 7-0. The Lions are 6-0 at home for the fourth time since 2000 (2005, 2007, 2008, 2015).

YOUTH MOVEMENT ON DEFENSE

- Redshirt freshman linebacker Troy Reeder grabbed his first career interception in the first quarter against Illinois, returning it for 44 yards to setup a one-play touchdown drive.
- The week before, Reeder posted a career-high 11 tackles against Maryland, besting his eight-stop night vs. Rutgers.
- True freshman John Reid and sophomore Grant Haley lead the team with two interceptions each. Haley's second pick of the season and third of his career ended Maryland's first drive of the game.
- Reid forced his first career fumble and sophomore safety Marcus Allen made his first career fumble recovery in Penn State territory on Maryland's third possession of the game.
- True sophomore linebacker Jason Cabinda leads the team in tackles with 68. He made a career-high and team season-high 14 tackles against Army, and also recorded his first two sacks (minus-33) and a forced fumble.
- True freshman linebacker Manny Bowen made his first career fumble recovery in the second quarter against Army and recorded a career-high six tackles (five solo) in the win.
- Sophomore safety Troy Apke made a career-high five tackles in his first start against Army.
- Redshirt freshman defensive end Torrence Brown, Haley and sophomore defensive end Curtis Cothran all made a career-best four tackles against Army. Haley had four stops against Ohio State, as well.
- Against UB, true freshman linebacker Jake Cooper, who was supposed to redshirt this season until injuries in the season opener pressed him into action, made a season-high three stops, including a sack.

WIDE RECEIVERS RUSHING AND RUNNING BACKS RECEIVING AND THROWING

- Penn State's wide receivers and running backs are helping each other out this season, crossing over to the other's specialty to put points on the scoreboard.
- RB Nick Scott threw the first touchdown pass of his career, connecting with QB Christian Hackenberg for a 14-yard play.
- Earlier in the season against San Diego State, Scott completed a 32-yard pass to WR Chris Godwin. It was the first completion thrown by someone other than a quarterback by Penn State since Curtis Drake threw a 16-yard completion against Nebraska in 2011.
- Wide receiver Brandon Polk ranks fourth on the team with 119 rushing yards on just 13 carries for a team-best average of 9.2 per carry.
- Polk is the first wide receiver to have rushing and receiving touchdowns in the same season since Derrick Williams had three rushing touchdowns and four receiving touchdowns in the 2008 season.
- Running backs Saquon Barkley and Mark Allen both notched their first receiving touchdowns in the SDSU game. The last time that Penn State had two touchdown receptions by running backs in the same game was in 2006 at Minnesota, a game that Penn State won 28-27 in overtime. Anthony Morelli had touchdown passes of 15 yards to Tony Hunt and seven yards to Matt Hahn.
- The last Penn State player to have a touchdown on his first career reception was Jesse James on Sept. 12, 2012 against Navy.
- Barkley's touchdown reception was the first touchdown reception by a running back since Bill Belton had a 22-yard grab last year vs. Akron.
- It was the longest by a non-quarterback since RB Eric McCoo threw a 63-yard touchdown pass against Illinois in 2001.
- Scott looked to pass again against Ohio State, but did not have a man open down field.
- WR Geno Lewis attempted a pass against Maryland, but it was dropped.
- WR DeAndre Thompkins rushed for a touchdown against Rutgers and Polk did the same against Buffalo. Penn State now has two wide receivers with rushing touchdowns in the same season for the first time since 2008 when Derrick Williams and Chaz Powell both had rushing touchdowns.

YOUTH REIGNS SUPREME

- Penn State has had 22 freshmen play this season (17 redshirt, 5 true), the 15th most in the country.
- Penn State ranks 20th in the country with 13 first-time starters this season.
- Penn State has the 14th-fewest seniors on its roster (13) in FBS and third-fewest in the Big Ten.
- Penn State has the fifth-most freshmen on its roster (61) in FBS and the most in the Big Ten.
- Penn State's average starting class (2.71; scale of 1-4) is the 14th youngest in the country and youngest in the Big Ten. Michigan is the oldest team in the country and in the Big Ten (3.55).
- Penn State is the 34th youngest team in the country by average player class and second youngest team in the Big Ten (2.13).
- 74.1 percent (20-27) of Penn State's offensive touchdowns have been scored by freshmen or sophomores.
- 44.4 percent (12-27) of Penn State's offensive touchdowns have been scored by freshmen.
- Penn State has had six different players score their first career touchdowns this season.
- QB Christian Hackenberg (2 rushing, 1 receiving), RB Akeel Lynch (2 rushing) and WR Geno Lewis (2 receiving) - all juniors - are the only upperclassmen to score touchdowns this season.

NEW BEGINNINGS

- With 13 first-time starters this season, Penn State ranks 20th in the country.
- Redshirt freshmen Johnathan Thomas, Robby Leibel and Daquan Worley became the 19th, 20th and 21st freshmen to play this season against Army. Chance Sorrell made his debut against Indiana.
- Six freshmen: Saquon Barkley, Mark Allen, Nick Scott, Troy Reeder, John Reid and Brandon Polk are among the first time starters.

STRIKING FIRST

- Penn State has scored first in all nine games this season, and 10 straight games dating back to last season's Pinstripe Bowl against Boston College.
- The Nittany Lions have scored in the first quarter in all but two games (Buffalo and Rutgers.) However, Penn State was able to earn double-digit victories in both, including a season-high 25-point victory over Rutgers.

BEAVER STADIUM FIRST FOR GENO

- WR Geno Lewis' sixth career touchdown reception was his first in Beaver Stadium.
- Highlighting the probability-defying stat was that it was just his second in a Big Ten Stadium, while the other four were in some of the most unique venues the Nittany Lions have played in.
- He previously had TD catches in MetLife Stadium (New York Giants/Jets), Camp Randall Stadium (Wisconsin), Croke Park (Ireland), Yankee Stadium (Pinstripe Bowl) and M&T Bank Stadium (Baltimore Ravens).

BLACKNALL GOES DEEP

- Sophomore wide receiver Saeed Blacknall leads the Nittany Lions with an average of 27.8 yards per reception on five catches on the year, giving him 139 yards total to rank third on the team.
- Blacknall caught a 38-yard pass in the second quarter vs. Maryland to start a two-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg connected with Chris Godwin on a 37-yard touchdown pass on the very next play.
- It was Blacknall's first reception since he had a career-best 101 yards receiving against San Diego State, doing so on just four receptions. His previous best was 34 yards against Ohio State last year.
- Blacknall had career-long 46- and 45-yard receptions to obliterate his previous single-game standard. His previous long was a 24-yard reception last year against Ohio State.

See Career Highs on Page 28

- The Nittany Lions have been hit with the injury bug this season with more than 45 games lost to injury.
- Among the notable games lost are:
 - Nyeem Wartman-White – 8.5 games
 - Adam Breneman – 7 games
 - Ben Kline – 4 games
 - Andrew Nelson – 4.5 games
 - Saquon Barkley – 2.5 games
 - Akeel Lynch – 2.5 games
 - Marcus Allen – 2 games (played only two snaps vs. SDSU)
 - Brandon Bell – 2 games
 - Grant Haley – 2 games
 - Wendy Laurent – 2 games
 - Gary Wooten Jr. – 2 games
 - Jordan Lucas – 1 game
 - Evan Schwan – 1 game
 - Koa Farmer – 1 game
 - Angelo Mangiro – 1 game
 - Chris Gulla – 1 game
 - Kyle Carter – 1 game
- Additionally, Penn State has started 34 different players on offense and defense this season. Last season, the Nittany Lions started 36 players on offense and defense.
- Penn State has used five different starting lineups on defense this season, while the offense has used five different starting lineups due to injury.

HOME SWEET HOME, PART 2

With a 271-71 all-time record in Beaver Stadium, PSU boasts the eighth-best winning percentage (.792) in its current home venue amongst current FBS schools, and leads the Big Ten. Ohio State ranks ninth overall with a 422-110-20 (.783) mark in Ohio Stadium, which was built in 1922. Only Alabama (.818) and Auburn (.793) boast higher winning percentages than Penn State in facilities older than Beaver Stadium. Baylor leads the country with a perfect 10-0 mark in the brand new McLane Stadium (2014).

School	Stadium Name (Opened)	Rec	Win %
1. Baylor	McLane Stadium (2014)	10-0	1.000
2. Marshall	Edwards Stadium (1991)	147-26	.850
3. Ga. Southern	Paulson Stadium (1984)	185-33	.849
4. Boise State	Albertsons Stadium (1970)	248-51	.829
5. Alabama	Bryant-Denny Stadium (1929)	243-53-3	.818
6. Oklahoma	Oklahoma Memorial (1923)	378-84-15	.808
7. Auburn	Jordan-Hare Stadium (1939)	305-77-7	.793
8. Penn State	Beaver Stadium (1960)	271-71	.792
9. Ohio State	Ohio Stadium (1922)	422-110-20	.783
10. Tennessee	Neyland Stadium (1921)	451-123-17	.777

NEW TURF

- The Nittany Lions played on a brand new playing surface inside Beaver Stadium against Illinois.
- Crews began working on Tuesday, Oct. 13 to remove the old sod, which had been in the stadium since October 2005.
- A new Kentucky bluegrass surface was installed on Oct. 15.
- Originally planted on a sod farm in 2004, the previous surface was installed during the days leading up to the epic primetime clash between Penn State and Ohio State on Oct. 8, 2005.
- With three full weeks between home games, Athletic Fields Supervisor Herb Combs and the Beaver Stadium grounds crew took the opportunity to re-sod the field in order to create the best playing surface moving into the future.
- Approximately 70,000 square feet of sod was used to complete the stadium playing surface and the nursery on campus.
- The new sod came from Tuckahoe Turf Farms in Hammonont, N.J., which supplies several NFL organizations with sod, including the Cleveland Browns, Philadelphia Eagles and Pittsburgh Steelers.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Head coach James Franklin frequently talks about being successful in all facets of a football program.

Simply put, he wants each member of the program to have the entire package - athletically, academically, spiritually and in the community.

On the heels of ending Franklin's first season with a thrilling 31-30 victory over Boston College in the Pinstripe Bowl and a stellar fall semester academically, the Nittany Lion football program set the benchmark for success off the field during the summer and fall of 2014, completing a program-record of more than 2,200 total hours of community service.

Beginning with volunteer hours at the Pennsylvania Special Olympics Summer Games on June 6 and ending on Dec. 26 with a visit to Sloan-Kettering Memorial Hospital in New York, members of the football program participated in more than 30 different community service events during the summer and fall semesters in 2014.

A pre-season highlight was a trip to Hershey Medical Center on July 23. The entire team boarded buses for a drive to Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital just before the start of training camp. The team visited with patients and their families in different sections of the hospital.

The list of events includes 23 community service engagements during the football regular season. Highlighting the list was the United Way's Day of Caring, which takes place each October in State College. Approximately 50 members of the team used an off day during a bye week to give back to the community by helping with the upkeep of Centre Furnace Mansion.

Additionally, nearly 25 members of the team and LifeLink special education students carved and painted pumpkins on the patio of the Lasch Building on Oct. 16. Approximately a dozen members of the team played games and participated in the Buddy Walk at Medlar Field to help raise awareness for children with special needs and support the Centre County Down Syndrome Society on Oct. 18.

In November, the football program adopted Noah Benner through Friends of Jaelyn foundation as an "official" member of the team. Members of the staff gave Noah and his family a tour of the football facility before meeting and speaking with the team at practice.

The Nittany Lions also gave Deven Jackson, a Perry County, Pennsylvania native, an opportunity to tour the football facility and visit with the team at practice. Jackson, who suffered from kidney failure and lost both of his legs to meningitis, inspired the team by competing in youth football with two prosthetic legs.

The week leading up to Thanksgiving was a big time period for community service. The Nittany Lions spent time participating in "Roar for Reading" at local elementary schools, visited The Village, a State College retirement community, spent time with children at the Bellefonte Youth Service Bureau and helped the State College Food bank move more than 2,000 pounds of food.

The team's annual Lift for Life event continued this summer (Uplifting Athletes on Page 17).

The team also brightened the days of many youths at the Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital on July 15, boarding three buses to make the trek. Upon arrival, the team broke into smaller groups and walked through different sections of the hospital to spread enthusiasm and uplifting energy. In room after room, the Nittany Lion players and staff members were greeted with smiles from patients and families. The hospital staff members in each wing posed for photos and thanked the team for taking time to visit the immaculate facility.

The long list of community service opportunities is met with tremendous enthusiasm from the student-athletes on the roster. The members of the team jump at the opportunity to lend a hand in the community.

- As defenses adjust to contain national sack leader Carl Nassib, Penn State's "other" defensive end, sophomore Garrett Sickels has put together career weeks.
- Sickels recovered a fumble against Maryland in Penn State territory early in the fourth quarter. He returned it 36 yards and now leads the team with two fumble recoveries.
- Sickels set career highs for tackles against Indiana (5) and Ohio State (8) in consecutive weeks for a two-game total of 13. He totaled just 10 in the first five games.
- He recorded his first solo sack of the season against Indiana and now has 2.0 for the season.
- Sickels is in his first season as a starter and has started all nine games with 26 tackles. He totaled 11 tackles in 13 games in a reserve role last season.

CARTER ON MIDSEASON MACKEY WATCH LIST

- Kyle Carter was named to the Mackey Award Midseason Watch List. The Mackey Award is given annually to the most outstanding collegiate tight end.
- Carter is on the Mackey Award Midseason Watch List for the second time in his career (2012).
- He leads the tight end corps with 10 receptions for 116 yards. His 16.6 yards per reception average is tops among tight ends on the team.
- Among the most experienced returning players on the roster, Carter has played in 41 of the last 44 games, including 17 career starts.

SPECIAL TEAMS ARE SPECIAL

- PK Tyler Davis booted a 42-yard field goal in the second quarter against Illinois, the second of his career, his career longest and the longest by a Nittany Lion this season.
- Safety Koa Farmer had a career-long 57-yard kickoff return to open the second half. It is the second-longest kick return of the season by Penn State (Nick Scott, 58 yards vs. Buffalo).
- PK Joey Julius ranks 24th in the nation and first in the Big Ten with a .833 field goal percentage.
- See National Nits on Page 16
- Against Rutgers, P Chris Gulla helped control field position against Rutgers as he averaged 41.0 yards per punt. He also dropped all five of his punts inside the 20-yard line.
- The punting average was the highest for the Nittany Lions since averaging 48.8 yards per punt against Akron last season.
- His five punts downed inside the 20-yard line equal the total number by the Nittany Lions last season and are the most in a single game since having six punts inside the 20 against Nebraska in 2013.
- Penn State saw success in all three phases of the game in its win over Buffalo, including a pair of big returns on special teams. The game had an electrifying start as redshirt freshman Nick Scott returned the opening kickoff 58 yards to the Buffalo 42. It was the longest kickoff return for Penn State since Chaz Powell had a 92-yard return against Purdue in 2011.
- Classmate DeAndre Thompkins returned a punt 58 yards, on which he was barely tripped up by UB punter Tyler Grassman on a diving play, preventing him from reaching the end zone. It was the longest punt return by a Nittany Lion since Derrick Williams' 63-yard punt return for a TD at Wisconsin in 2008.
- Thompkins' return was also the longest non-scoring punt return since Mike Archie had a 62-yard return at Michigan State in 1993.
- The last time that Penn State had both a punt return and kick return of at least 58 yards in the same game was against Notre Dame in 2007. In that game, Derrick Williams had a 78-yard punt return for a touchdown and A.J. Wallace had a 68-yard kickoff return.

- With Penn State's one-point win over Maryland, head coach James Franklin improved to 6-4 in games decided by seven points or fewer at Penn State.
- The one-point victory was the first since Penn State prevailed in overtime over Boston College in the 2014 Pinstripe Bowl by the exact same score of 31-30.
- It was the first one-point win in a regular season game, as well as a Big Ten game, since 2006 at Minnesota (28-27 in OT).
- It was also the first one-point victory in regulation since a 16-15 victory over Minnesota in 1997.

NITTANY LION TRIO ADDED TO PA SPORTS HALL OF FAME

- A trio of legendary Nittany Lions, Joe Paterno, Chuck Fusina and Matt Bahr, were inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame as part of the group's 53rd annual ceremony Oct. 24 at the Valley Forge Casino Resort in King of Prussia.
- Paterno guided the PSU football program for 46 years, preceded by 16 years as an assistant coach, and accumulated an NCAA Division I-record 409 victories, including five undefeated, untied seasons.
- He led Penn State to National Championships in 1982 and 1986 and Big Ten titles in 1994, 2005 and 2008.
- A five-time AFCA Coach of the Year, Paterno had more than 350 former players sign NFL contracts, including 32 that were first round NFL Draft picks.
- Paterno also helped produce 16 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 37 first-team CoSIDA Academic All-Americans® (47 overall) and 18 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners.
- Fusina was a quarterback for Penn State from 1975-78. He was selected an All-American as a senior by the Associated Press, Football Writers, Football Coaches, NEA, United Press International and Walter Camp.
- In 1978, Fusina led the Nittany Lions to an 11-0 regular-season and a spot in the Sugar Bowl vs. Alabama for the national title. He threw for 1,859 yards and 11 touchdowns (137-for-242), while winning the Maxwell Award as the nation's outstanding player.
- He played in the National Football League with Tampa Bay and Green Bay.
- Bahr was a placekicker for the Nittany Lions from 1975-78. He was an All-American choice by The Football News, NEA, The Sporting News, United Press International and Walter Camp in 1978.
- Bahr broke his brother's (Chris) NCAA field goal percentage record, hitting 22-of-27 attempts (81.5 percent), holding the record for several years.
- He spent 17 years in the National Football League, which ties for the most years in the NFL by a Penn State player (Kerry Collins).

FRESHMAN RUNNING BACKS

- Six of 10 rushers this season have been freshmen.
- With true freshman Saquon Barkley and junior Akeel Lynch missing 2.5 games due to injury, redshirt freshmen Nick Scott and Mark Allen carried the load on the ground against Army and Indiana.
- Scott had a career-best 57 yards rushing against Indiana after rushing for 54 against Army the previous week.
- Scott had a career-long 35-yard rush early in the first quarter against Indiana.
- Allen had a career-best 45 yards rushing against Indiana after gaining 17 yards the previous week vs. Army.
- Allen had a career-long 28-yard rush in the second quarter against Indiana, and scored his first rushing touchdown against Illinois
- Redshirt freshman Johnathan Thomas made his Penn State debut against Army.

Penn State has many long and storied rivalries on the gridiron. The Nittany Lions have played 18 teams 20 or more times in the 129-year history of the program.

- Penn State owns a winning record against 14 of the 18 team's that they have met 20 or more times.
- Seven of those 18 teams are on the 2015 schedule; including Temple (43 meetings), Maryland (37), Ohio State (30), Michigan State (28), Army West Point (26), Rutgers (25) and Illinois (22).
- Six of those 18 teams are current members of the Big Ten: Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Michigan State, Ohio State and Rutgers. Eight teams are among the opponents on the 2015 and 2016 schedules.
- Penn State has played since 2012 or has a future meeting scheduled meeting with 11 of the 18 teams (all of the FBS teams except Navy). Those opponents include: Army West Point (2015), Illinois (2014-15, '18), Iowa (2016-18), Pitt (2016-19), Syracuse (2012), Temple (2014-16) and West Virginia (2023-24), while the Nittany Lions will meet yearly with Big Ten East Division opponents Maryland, Michigan State, Ohio State and Rutgers.
- Thirteen of the 18 programs are currently members of NCAA Division I FBS. Bucknell, Lehigh and Penn are among NCAA Division I FCS, while Gettysburg and Lebanon Valley are Division III programs.

LYNCH AIDS GROUND GAME

Junior running back Akeel Lynch started the first four games of the season and the Ohio State game. He did not play against Army or Indiana.

- The Toronto, Ontario, Canada native has five career 100-yard rushing efforts after crossing the century mark against Rutgers. His performance included a career-long 75-yard touchdown run.
- It was his first 100-yard effort since back-to-back games over the century mark versus Temple (11/15) and at Illinois (11/22) in 2014. He is among the 21 Nittany Lions with five or more career games of 100-plus rushing yards.
- His 1,314 career yards rank 32nd at Penn State. He trails Gary Brown (1,321 yards) for 31st place.
- Lynch ultimately led the team in 2014 with 678 rushing yards on 147 carries (4.6 ypc). He finished the 2014 season in impressive fashion with 393 yards and three touchdowns during the final four contests.
- He surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for his career against Boston College in the Pinstripe Bowl, rushing for 77 yards.

PENN STATE IN NEUTRAL TERRITORY

- The Nittany Lions are 52-20-4 all-time in regular-season neutral site games, including wins in the last five.
- Most recently, Penn State defeated Maryland in M&T Back Stadium in Baltimore.
- It was the fourth meeting between Penn State and Maryland in Baltimore. The three previous meetings took place in Baltimore's Memorial Stadium.
- In 1991, current assistant coach Terry Smith was a team captain for the Nittany Lions when they met Maryland in Memorial Stadium. Penn State won 47-7.
- The Maryland game in M&T Back Stadium marked Penn State's third consecutive season with a neutral site regular season game.
- Penn State opened the 2013 and 2014 seasons with neutral site victories over Syracuse (23-17, MetLife Stadium) and UCF (26-24, Croke Park Classic), respectively.
- Penn State has played a total of three neutral site Big Ten games. In 2010 PSU defeated Indiana, 41-24, in FedEx Field in Landover, Md. The Nittany Lions also met Indiana at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis in 2000.

NITTANY LIONS IN NFL VENUES

- Penn State's visit to M&T Bank Stadium, home of the Super Bowl XLVII Champion Baltimore Ravens, marked the eighth current NFL stadium the Blue and White have played in. Penn State opened the season in Lincoln Financial Field, home of the Philadelphia Eagles, against Temple.
- The Nittany Lions have also played in current homes of the Miami Dolphins (Sun Life Stadium), New Orleans Saints (Mercedes-Benz Superdome), New York Giants/New York Jets (MetLife Stadium), San Diego Chargers (Qualcomm Stadium), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (Raymond James Stadium) and Washington Redskins (FedEx Field).
- The first documented Penn State game in a professional stadium was in 1921 when the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia Tech, 28-7, in front of 30,000 fans at the Polo Grounds in Upper Manhattan in New York City.
- Excluding bowl games, the Lions have played 38 regular season games in 13 different stadiums with permanent NFL tenants.
- Four regular season games were played in NFL venues in 1983, as the Lions played in Giants Stadium twice (Nebraska and Rutgers), Veterans Stadium (Temple) and Sullivan (Foxboro) Stadium (Boston College).

LIONS UNDER THE LIGHTS

After playing three Big Ten games at night in 2014, Penn State has played two this season.

- For the second year in a row, Penn State opened its Big Ten slate with a nighttime victory over Rutgers.
- Penn State and Ohio State played their seventh primetime clash since 2005 and were in primetime for a fourth consecutive year.
- On Oct. 12, 2012, the Nittany Lions claimed the longest game in Big Ten history when they edged Michigan under the lights, 43-40, in front of a sellout Beaver Stadium crowd of 107,844 on Homecoming.
- This year marks the eighth time since 2000 that Penn State will play multiple night games in the same season (Rutgers, at Ohio State).
- Penn State has played at least one regular season night game in 15 consecutive seasons.
- Penn State has a 42-29 record in night games, going 10-10 at home, 20-12 on the road, 1-1 at regular season neutral sites and 11-6 in bowl games, including last season's Pinstripe Bowl.
- The Lions' night games over the past 15 seasons include: Ohio State and Rutgers (2015), Boston College (Pinstripe Bowl), Ohio State, Michigan and Rutgers (2014); Ohio State, Michigan and UCF (2013); Iowa and Ohio State (2012); Northwestern (2011); Alabama, Iowa and Michigan (2010); Iowa (2009); Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio State (2008); Notre Dame, Ohio State and Texas A&M (2007), Michigan (2006), Illinois, Ohio State and Florida State (2005), Minnesota and Boston College (2004), Nebraska (2002 and '03), Miami (Fla.) (2001) and Indiana (2000).

BEN KLINE SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

KLING NOMINATED FOR WUERFFEL TROPHY

Senior linebacker Ben Klein is one of a record 93 FBS nominees for the Wuerffel Trophy, presented annually by the All Sports Association in Fort Walton Beach, Florida. Named after 1996 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Danny Wuerffel (Florida), the Wuerffel Trophy is awarded to the FBS player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.

KLING SEES GAME ACTION

Ben Klein saw his first game action since the 2013 contest at Minnesota (11/9/13) vs. Army. Klein was injured in that game and also missed the entire 2014 season.

KLING NAMED TO ALLSTATE GOOD WORKS TEAM

Ben Klein was selected to the Allstate, American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team. He is among the 11 FBS and 22 overall honorees for their contributions to the community. In its 24th year, the team is comprised of athletes who have used their limited free time to perform inspirational acts of service.

Fans can vote for Klein to become the 2015 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team @ Captain at ESPN.com/Allstate through November 25, 2015. The team will be invited to New Orleans to participate in a community project before the 2016 Allstate @ Sugar Bowl @.

Klein has served as the President of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes chapter for the last two years.

The Seven Valley native has also been involved in THON and Special Olympics during his time at Penn State. He is also the co-founding a student organization this summer that benefits an orphanage in Kenya. The orphanage has an academic partnership with Penn State, and Klein's organization supports that relationship. Additionally, Klein is a nominee for an American Rhodes Scholarship.

Klein is also a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-District choice and two-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree. He posted a perfect 4.0 GPA during the 2011 summer session and 2013 spring semester. Klein has posted a 3.50 GPA or higher in 11 of his 12 semesters on campus, including summer semesters and is a six-time Dean's List selection. He graduated with his degree in finance in December 2014 with a 3.76 cumulative GPA, in just three and a half years. Has begun work on his master's degree in international affairs. Additionally, Klein is a member of the Lion's Paw Senior Honor Society, a prestigious Student-Leadership Senior Honor Society with 14 members from the 2015 graduating class.

KLING RHODES SCHOLAR NOMINEE

Ben Klein was nominated for the prestigious Rhodes Scholarship. Klein is presently taking graduate level courses in the Smear College of Business after graduating in December 2014 with a degree in finance. The Rhodes Scholarships are the oldest and most celebrated international fellowship awards in the world. Each year 32 Americans are selected as Rhodes Scholars, through a decentralized process representing the 50 states and the District of Columbia. Penn State University has produced two Rhodes Scholars in its history.

UPLIFTING ATHLETES REACHES $1 MILLION RAISED FOR KIDNEY CANCER RESEARCH

One Cause. One Program. Together Uplifting Athletes and Penn State have stood the test of time.

- Under the guidance of current Chapter President Ben Klein and his leadership team, the Penn State Chapter raised a record $120,000 this past year for kidney cancer research.
- Thanks to the ongoing support of the Penn State and State College communities for the past 13 years, the Penn State Chapter has now raised more than $1.12 million. Penn State was the first Uplifting Athletes Chapter to reach the $1 million milestone.
- Each of the last five Lift for Life events have raised in excess of $100,000.
- As the single largest donor to the Kidney Cancer Association, the funds raised from the Penn State Chapter has helped bring eight new treatments to market in the last 13 years.

And what started at Penn State has sparked a movement that is growing nationwide, as 24 other college football programs have formed Uplifting Athletes Chapters – including half the Big Ten, ACC and at least one chapter in each major FBS conference.

FIVE IN A ROW AT HOME

- Starting with the second game of the season, Penn State hosted the first five-game homestand at Beaver Stadium, the first overall since 1922 and the third in program history.
- Penn State has swept all three five-game homestands for a 15-0 record.
- This season's included wins over Buffalo (27-14, Sept. 12), Rutgers (28-3, Sept. 19), San Diego State (37-21, Sept. 26), Army (20-14, Oct. 3) and Indiana (29-7, Oct. 10).
- An average of 99,344 fans attended each game to rank Penn State sixth in the nation in attendance. The Army game was a sellout.
- Penn State had last played five consecutive home games in 1922, going 5-0 with wins over St. Bonaventure (54-0), William & Mary (27-7), Gettysburg (20-0), Lebanon Valley (32-6) and Midd lebury (33-0).
- The Nittany Lions also hosted five-straight home contests in 1920. Penn State also was perfect in those games with wins over Muhlenberg (27-7), Gettysburg (13-0), Dartmouth (14-7), NC State (41-0) and Lebanon Valley (109-7). The 109 points scored against Lebanon Valley still stand as the program's game scoring record.
- While Beaver Stadium had never seen five consecutive home games previously, it has hosted four in a row five times, doing so in 1977, 1982, 1986, 2002 and 2009.

SOLD OUT!

The Penn State-Army West Point Military Appreciation Day game was a sellout of 107,387, marking the first non-conference game to sellout since Alabama visited Happy Valley in 2011. The sellout included tickets requested through the Seats for Servicemembers program. Servicemembers from as far away as California, Texas and Washington signed up to receive donated tickets purchased by Penn State alumni, fans and businesses.

B1G START ON DEFENSE

- Penn State's defense was solid in the first two Big Ten games this season (Rutgers and Indiana), allowing a total of 10 points (Indiana, 7; Rutgers, 3) for the best two-game start defensively by Penn State since joining the conference in 1993.
- The Nittany Lions allowed just 61 rushing yards in the two games.
- Indiana was held to seven points for the first time since falling to Penn State, 13-7, on Nov. 8, 2014, a string of nine games. The fewest points the Hoosiers had scored in the stretch was 23.
- Penn State held Indiana to 234 yards of total offense, the fewest allowed by Penn State since giving up 221 to Indiana last year. Indiana entered the game leading the Big Ten averaging 498.2 yards of total offense.
- The Hoosiers' 155 passing yards were the fewest allowed by Penn State in a Big Ten game since allowing 68 to Indiana last season.
- Penn State's defense held Indiana to just 79 rushing yards, the lowest total allowed in a Big Ten game since giving up 43 earlier this season to Rutgers.
- The 11 punts by Indiana were the most by a Penn State opponent since Indiana had 11 last season in Bloomington.
- Penn State's 35:35 time of possession was the most by the Nittany Lions since having 35:42 last season vs. Temple. It was the most by Penn State in a Big Ten game since having 36:29 against Purdue in 2013.
- In the Big Ten opener, Penn State held Rutgers to just three points, the fewest allowed by the Nittany Lions in a Big Ten game since defeating Iowa, 13-3, in 2011. That game was also the last time PSU did not allow a touchdown to a Big Ten foe.
- The three points by Rutgers were tied for the fewest allowed by Penn State in a Big Ten opener. The Nittany Lions beat Minnesota, 56-3, in the 1994 Big Ten opener.
- Penn State held Rutgers to 43 yards of rushing, the fewest since giving up just 33 yards to Maryland last season.

GROUNDED

- Army's one pass attempt was the fewest against Penn State since at least 1966.
- The Nittany Lions recorded more sacks (3) than Army had passing attempts (1) or completions (1).
- Army's one pass completion is the fewest against the Nittany Lions since Ohio State had one completion in 1976. Since 1966, today's game marked just the fourth time a Penn State opponent had zero or one completions.
- Army was 1-of-1 passing for 32 yards. The one completion is tied for the fewest by a team in FBS this year (by Georgia Southern vs. Western Michigan). The Black Knights' one pass attempt are the fewest by an FBS team this season.
- Army's 32 passing yards are the fewest against the Nittany Lions in the Big Ten era (since 1993).
- Army was the first Penn State opponent with fewer than 10 pass completions and 10 attempts since Ohio State in 2004 (6-of-8, 59 yards).
- Nebraska in 2003 was the last Penn State opponent with fewer than five completions (4-of-6, 60 yds).

ZETTEL NAMED BIG TEN CO-DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

- DT Anthony Zettel made a career-high seven tackles against SDSU, surpassing his previous career-high of six tackles on three occasions (last vs. BC in 2014 Pinstripe Bowl).
- Zettel also made the second fumble recovery of his career.
- It is the first time he received the honor.
- He is the first PSU defender to win the honor since Trevor Williams did Sept. 15, 2014.
- Penn State and Michigan State were the only teams with honorees in three of the first four weeks. Saquon Barkley was named the co-freshman of the week each of the past two weeks.

BARKLEY NAMED BIG TEN CO-FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK TWICE

Freshman running back Saquon Barkley was named the Big Ten Co-Freshman of the Week for two consecutive weeks (9/14, 9/21), as he managed to surpass his breakout game against Buffalo with a 195-yard, two-touchdown performance against Rutgers (9/19) in his Big Ten debut.

- It was the most yards for a PSU true freshman rusher since Eric McCoo (206 yds. vs Michigan State) in 1998 and the most for any PSU rusher since Bill Belton (201 yds. at Illinois) in 2013. Barkley was particularly strong in the second half, totaling 140 yards and a touchdown on 11 rushes.
- Barkley ran for 119 yards on seven carries in the fourth quarter, marking second-straight game that he had a quarter with 100 or more yards.
- His first touchdown run in the game came in Penn State's 21-point second quarter from 15 yards out. The Scarlet Knights tried to claw back into the game in the fourth quarter with a field goal to make the game 21-3, but Barkley answered with a 54-yard run on the first play of the ensuing drive and a 16-yard touchdown run on the very next play. Barkley also had a 40-yard run in the game.
- Barkley turned in a 115-yard performance against Buffalo. He became the first PSU true freshman to rush for more than 100 yards in a game since Silas Redd had 131 yards on 11 carries and scored one touchdown against Northwestern in 2010.
- Barkley helped swing the momentum in Penn State's favor on their first possession of the fourth quarter, as he broke off back-to-back runs totaling 50 yards.
- Barkley provided a spark off of the bench in the second half for the Nittany Lions, averaging 9.6 yards per carry in the win over the Bulls. He reeled off 101 of his 115 yards on eight fourth-quarter carries. He later found the end zone for the Lions final score and his first collegiate touchdown.

AVOIDING TURNOVERS AND SACKS

- Minimizing turnovers and sacks are extremely important to the success of an offense, and the Nittany Lions were able to avoid both against Buffalo. Penn State had zero turnovers for the first time since having none against Massachusetts last season, and did not allow a sack for the first time since the win at Wisconsin in 2013.
- The 2013 Wisconsin game was also the last time Penn State posted zeroes in both categories.
- Penn State surrendered an interception against Rutgers, but avoided giving up a sack for a second consecutive game - a feat not accomplished since 2011 against Ohio State and Wisconsin.
- The offensive line was recognized for the Joe Moore Honor Roll for Week 3 for its performance against Rutgers.

NO NAMES. ALL GAME.

The Penn State football program announced in July that it would remove the names from the backs of its jerseys beginning this season. In 2012, the Penn State coaching staff felt that something needed to be done to honor those student-athletes who kept their promise to play for Penn State after the NCAA handed down sanctions on the program, and decided to place the name of each player on the back of their uniform. It was something that had never been done in the 126-year history of the program, but was symbolic. The decision to remove the names from the jerseys was made to pay homage to the history of Penn State football and return to the tradition that represented Penn State for 125 years.

GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

- Penn State's 87 percent graduation success rate was second-highest in the Big Ten and tied for No. 13 overall among the nation's 128 FBS institutions, according to 2014 NCAA data. The figure was tied for the football program's second-highest graduation rate (with 2011);
- The Nittany Lions' GSR was also tied for No. 5 among all public FBS institutions. It was 16 points higher than the 71 percent FBS average and was second to Northwestern among Big Ten institutions, according to the NCAA.

ZETTEL NAMED CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Senior defensive tackle Anthony Zettel has been selected as one of 30 candidates for the Senior CLASS Award for college football. To be eligible for the Senior CLASS Award, a student-athlete must have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition.

An active member of the team off the field, Zettel is the sergeant at arms of Penn State's Uplifting Athletes, helping the chapter raise more than $1 million for kidney cancer treatment and research since the first Penn State Lift for Life was held in 2003. A kinesiology major, Zettel is scheduled to complete his degree in December.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact.

The 30 candidates will be narrowed to 10 finalists midway through the regular season, and those 10 names will be placed on the official ballot. Ballots will be distributed through a nationwide voting system to media, coaches and fans, who will select one candidate who best exemplifies excellence in the four Cs of community, classroom, character and competition. The Senior CLASS Award winner will be announced in early January.

ZETTEL TRENDING

Start typing "Anthony Zettel" into Google, and the search engine is likely to guess you want to search for "Anthony Zettel tree." While the first-team All-B1G made his presence known to opposing offenses last season, he made his presence known on social media this summer.

- The fun started when classmate Jordan Dudas uploaded an Instagram video (https://instagram.com/p/2wckHVkNnH/?taken-by=dudas_5) of Zettel tackling a tree in May. It went viral amongst many national media outlets.
- At Big Ten media days, Zettel demonstrated various animal sounds, including a dying pig and a velociraptor (<http://espn.go.com/video/clip?id=espn:13423037>).
- Zettel went viral again at the start of preseason camp, as freshman Nick Bowers tweeted a video (<https://twitter.com/Nbowers28/status/630543701358592004>) of Zettel roundhouse kicking a full water bottle held by a teammate near the ceiling of the locker room in the Lasch Building. Luckily, nearby freshman Saquon Barkley was attentive and ducked to avoid the fast-moving object.
- The attention earned Zettel an appearance on SportsCenter with Chris McKendry and Cari Champion in August. He closed the appearance doing a bigfoot impression.

SEVEN LIONS HAVE PENN STATE HERITAGE

Seven members of the 2015 Penn State football squad have ties to current or former Nittany Lion players, coaches or staff.

- Redshirt sophomore guard Evan Galimberti is the son of Mark Galimberti, who was a manager for the Nittany Lion football program and graduated in 1988.
- Junior wide receiver Gregg Garrity's father, Gregg (1980-82), and grandfather, Jim (1952-54), lettered at Penn State. Gregg Sr. made one of the iconic plays in Penn State football history with his diving TD catch to help beat Georgia in the 1983 Sugar Bowl for the Nittany Lions' first National Championship. The youngest Garrity changed his number to 19 during spring practices to honor his father.
- Redshirt senior offensive lineman Kevin Reihner joins the Nittany Lions this season after graduating from Stanford in March. He is the son of George Reihner, who was an offensive and defensive tackle at Penn State (1974-77) and played for the Houston Oilers. Additionally, Reihner's uncle, John, was a kicker for the Nittany Lions (1972-75). Kevin Reihner will don the number 68 in honor of his father.
- Freshman safety John Petrishen's great grandfather, Pop Ellwood (lettered in 1923), and great uncle, Bill Ellwood (lettered 1937-38), played football at Penn State.
- Freshman wide receiver Tyler Shoop is the son of defensive coordinator Bob Shoop.
- Redshirt sophomore safety Brian Tomasetti is the son of Rich Tomasetti, who played for Penn State.
- Chappie Hill, a letterman on the 1956 Penn State football team, is the great uncle of freshman tackle Sterling Jenkins.

FATHER-SONS

Defensive coordinator Bob Shoop is not the only Penn State coach who's son is helping the team. Shoop's son Tyler is a wide receiver on the team, and Trey Hand, the son of offensive line coach Herb Hand, is serving as a team manager.

SIXTEEN FIRST-TEAM ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS IN PAST NINE YEARS

Penn State has earned a nation's-best 18 Capital One/CoSIDA Academic All-Americans® over the past nine years, with 16 first-team honorees. In 2013, guard John Urschel become the 11th Nittany Lion to attain first-team Academic All-America honors twice.

Penn State has had 63 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans® all-time, to rank No. 3 nationally among FBS programs. The Penn State football team has had at least one first-team Academic All-American® in 10 of the past 13 seasons (19 overall first-team selections since 2002).

In 2014, defensive end Brad Bars, safety Ryan Keiser and kick snapper Tyler Yazujian Academic All-District® selection. The three selections for the Nittany Lions were second-highest among the FBS and FCS institutions in the six states the comprise District II. Penn State led all District II FBS and FCS institutions with nine CoSIDA Academic All-America® nominations.

PENN STATE FOOTBALL SHOW

UNRIVALED: THE PENN STATE FOOTBALL STORY PRESENTED BY PEPSI PREMIERES

Penn State Athletics and WPSU Penn State are continuing their partnership this fall to produce the second season of "Unrivaled: The Penn State Football Story," Presented by Pepsi, a weekly preview show that will chronicle the Nittany Lions journey throughout the 2015 season.

WPSU Penn State is producing "Unrivaled: The Penn State Football Story" Presented by Pepsi, which debuted September 3 in some markets and aired on WPSU-TV, across the Commonwealth and in numerous markets in the Mid-Atlantic and Northeast (see affiliates and schedule below).

Fans are encouraged to check local listings for possible schedule changes, particularly for the first episode and final episode, which will air during Thanksgiving week.

The program provides a fast-paced, intimate look inside the Nittany Lion football program. It will include a look at game week preparation, an all-access look at the coaching staff and visits with selected players on and off the field throughout the season.

The coverage also may include a review of the previous week's game with highlights, sideline and locker room coverage. An enhanced game highlight package from each week's game can be found on the Penn State All-Access Channel on www.GoPSUsports.com for free every Sunday following a game.

WPSU Penn State is in its fourth year working with Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics to produce the Nittany Lion football team's weekly in-season TV show. "Penn State Football 2013 - The Next Chapter," was nominated for a Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award in 2013.

WPSU Penn State also works in partnership with Penn State Athletics to produce weekly in-season TV shows for men's basketball, "Penn State Basketball: In The Paint" and women's basketball, "Courtside with Coquese." "In The Paint" was nominated for a 2013 Mid-Atlantic Emmy Award. "Courtside with Coquese" received a Mid-Atlantic Emmy award in 2008 and was nominated for an Emmy in 2013.

Among the outlets carrying "Unrivaled: Penn State Football Story" Presented by Pepsi are:

- WPSU-TV, Ch. 3 (State College/Central Pa.) - Friday, 9 p.m.; Saturday, 11 a.m.
- WPSU PBS World (State College/Central Pa.) -- Friday, 6:15 p.m.
- WTAJ-TV, Ch. 10/32 (State College/Altoona/Johnstown) -- Friday (9/4) at 7 p.m.; remainder of the season Thursday, 7:00 p.m.
- WFMZ-TV (Allentown/Northeast Philadelphia) -- Saturday, 12:00 a.m. (ch. 69); Saturday, 11:30 a.m. (ch. 69.4)

- Root Sports (Western Pa./Eastern Ohio/West Virginia) - Friday, 4 p.m.
- WNEP2 (Scranton/Wilkes-Barre) - Thursday, 9:30 p.m.

WPSU Penn State serves central Pennsylvania and national audiences with programming, educational services and community outreach. This public media service produces, acquires and distributes programs that address local interests and reflect the diverse cultural, political, geographic and demographic characteristics of an audience within central Pennsylvania.

51 NITTANY LIONS COMPILE 3.0 OR HIGHER GPA DURING SPRING SEMESTER

The Penn State football team produced a record-setting academic performance during the 2015 spring semester with 51 squad members earning at least a 3.0 grade-point average. This marks the first time in program history that the Nittany Lions have had more than 50 student-athletes with a 3.0 or better in the spring semester. The 51 Nittany Lions with a 3.0 or higher tie for the second-highest total in program history.

A total of 18 Nittany Lions earned Dean's List recognition in the spring semester with a 3.5 or higher GPA with at least 12 credit hours. Overall, 44 football student-athletes own a 3.0 cumulative GPA or higher after the spring semester with 19 posting a 3.5 cumulative GPA or higher.

The 51 football student-athletes with 3.0 semester GPA or higher trails only the record 55 honorees from the 2008 fall semester and ties the mark set in the 2015 fall semester. The mark is also an improvement from the 46 student-athletes with a 3.0 or higher GPA in the 2014 spring semester.

Ryan Keiser, who was a 2014 CoSIDA Academic All-District® selection, posted a perfect 4.0 GPA in the spring while working on his graduate degree. Fellow CoSIDA Academic All-District® selection, Tyler Yazujian notched a 3.90 GPA in the spring to bring his cumulative GPA to an impressive 3.86.

LASCH RENOVATION PLAN UNVEILED

Plans to renovate the Louis and Mildred Lasch Football Building have been unveiled by Penn State Athletics. The Lasch Renovation, a multi-phased project, will allow Penn State football to provide the resources it needs to recruit and support the nation's most talented student-athletes. The first two phases of this renovation include the addition of a nutrition bar, as well as upgrades to the team auditorium, lobby, locker room, hydrotherapy room and an expanded equipment room.

The Lasch Lobby will have a 21st century design that will be powerful and progressive in a clean, classic Penn State way. The lobby will feature an awards area that will recognize the history and accomplishments of the Penn State football program, while the team auditorium, will showcase the Penn State football core values and team imagery displayed throughout the room.

The locker room concept will continue the classic Penn State theme and feature a new ceiling design with an integrated logo, new carpet, new multi-functional lockers, multi-tiered lighting controls and a video wall.

PENN STATE IN 23RD BIG TEN SEASON

After 106 years as an independent in football, Penn State began play in the Big Ten Conference in 1993 and is playing its 23rd season in the conference. The Nittany Lions were Big Ten Champions in 1994, beating Oregon to win the 1995 Rose Bowl, and played USC in the 2009 Rose Bowl.

The Nittany Lions began Big Ten play against division foe Rutgers for the second straight season, and finish the regular season once again against Michigan State, this time traveling East Lansing for the Nov. 28 game. Penn State will also play divisional opponents Indiana (Oct. 10) and Michigan (Nov. 21) and non-divisional opponent Illinois (Oct. 31) at home.

The road schedule features divisional opponents Ohio State (Oct. 17) and Maryland (Oct. 24), while Penn State also travels to face non-division opponent Northwestern (Nov. 7).

This is the final season of the Big Ten playing an eight-game schedule. The conference will move to a nine-game slate starting in 2016.

HOME OPENER HISTORY

- Penn State's all-time record in home openers is 115-13-1 and 47-9 in Beaver Stadium.
- Penn State has won 13 out of its last 14 and its last three consecutively, defeating Buffalo, 27-14 (2015); Akron, 21-3 (2014) and Eastern Michigan, 45-7 (2013).

FUTBOL?

Many of the Nittany Lion kicking specialists have strong soccer backgrounds, with two earning opportunities to play Division I soccer.

- Redshirt freshman Joey Julius turned down a Division I soccer scholarship to walk-on as a kicker at Penn State. Julius kicked for the Lower Dauphin H.S. football team, earning all-state honors twice, but also played for a travel soccer team for four years. He started the 2015 opener, converting his lone field goal attempt.
- Redshirt freshman Robby Liebel earned multiple soccer scholarship offers from top Division I programs, received invitations to the U.S. Soccer Development Academy from 2011-14 and was rated as the top goalkeeper in the state of Florida, but elected to walk-on at Penn State. Liebel did not receive any formal instruction in football kicking until after his senior season of high school, but served as both a kicker and punter at IMG Academy during his final two prep campaigns.
- Unlike Julius, redshirt sophomore Tyler Davis did not play a snap of football in high school, as the former soccer standout at St. Charles (Ill.) North High School and two-year member of the U.S. Soccer Development Academy was a highly-touted recruit and even named the Chicago Sun-Times Player of the Year after his junior year. He went on to play at Bradley University, appearing in 12 contests as a freshman in 2013, scoring the game-winning, golden goal in his first career game.
- Redshirt freshman Nick Bomerhi was a three-year letterwinner in soccer at Philipsburg-Osceola High School, but kicked for the football team as a junior and senior. He was only the full-time kicker during his senior season and garnered first-team all-conference honors.

B1G OPENERS OVER THE YEARS

- Penn State owns an 11-12 in Big Ten opening contests. Fourteen of the Nittany Lions' 22 B1G openers have come on the road (7-7).
- Penn State has defeated Rutgers in its Big Ten opener in each of the past two seasons. Both contests came in Week 3 of the season, making the games the earliest Big Ten openers for Penn State since it opened the 1993 and 1994 seasons with Big Ten games. They hosted Minnesota on Sept. 4, 1993 (W, 38-20) and won at Minnesota on Sept. 3, 1994 (W, 56-3).
- Penn State has played Wisconsin more than any other team to open Big Ten play. The Nittany Lions and Badgers have met four times to open B1G play.
- The Nittany Lions have also played Illinois (3), Indiana (3), Iowa (3), Michigan (1), Minnesota (3), Northwestern (1), Ohio State (3) and Rutgers (2) in Big Ten openers.

PENN STATE SEASON OPENERS

The Nittany Lions now own a record of 106-21-2 in opening games.

- The 2015 opener was the third consecutive away from home for the Lions. It was also the first time the Lions have opened the season with a true road game since opening at Minnesota in 1994.
- It was the first time Penn State had opened three consecutive seasons away from Beaver Stadium since the 1971-73 seasons.
- The next four season openers (2016, Kent State; 2017, Akron; 2018, Appalachian State; and 2019, Idaho) will all take place in Beaver Stadium.
- Despite a 27-10 loss at Temple this season, the Lions have still won 12 out of their last 14 openers.
- Penn State's longest streaks of winning their season openers are: 12 (1919-30), 11 (1893-1903), 10 (1973-82; 2002-11), 9 (1909-17), 7 (1942-48).
- Penn State has only lost consecutive season openers twice in school history; 1964-65, 1989-90, 2000-01. They have never lost three consecutive season openers.
- The Nittany Lions went unbeaten from 1909-30, winning 20-of-21 season openers. They tied Wissahickon Barracks, 6-6, in 1918 and the streak was stopped by Waynesburg, a 7-0 setback, in 1931.

FORTY LETTERMEN RETURN

Penn State returns 40 lettermen from last year's New Era Pinstripe Bowl championship squad — 20 on defense, 17 on offense and three specialists. Additionally, three lettermen return from the 2013 squad after missing 2014. Of the 40 lettermen returning, 29 have starting experience — 15 on offense, 13 on defense and the starting punter.

The Nittany Lions lost the services of 18 letterwinners — 10 on defense, seven on offense and the starting placekicker.

FIFTEEN STARTERS ARE BACK IN THE FOLD

The Nittany Lions return 15 starters — eight on offense and seven on defense. Fourteen additional players have starting experience — seven on offense, six on defense and a punter.

Among the returning starters are All-American defensive tackle Anthony Zettel, Freshman All-Americans DaeSean Hamilton and Andrew Nelson, along with four others that received honorable-mention All-Big Ten honors: defensive tackle Austin Johnson, cornerback Jordan Lucas, center Angelo Mangiro and cornerback Trevor Williams. That group also includes Big Ten All-Freshman Team honorees safety Marcus Allen, wide receiver Chris Godwin and punter Daniel Pasquariello.

ZETTEL NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA

Senior defensive tackle Anthony Zettel earned preseason All-America honors from two publications, highlighted by a first-team nod on Phil Steele's Preseason All-America Team. Zettel also took home second-team preseason All-America honors from Athlon Sports.

After moving from defensive end to tackle in 2014, Zettel enjoyed his most productive season en route to fourth-team All-America honors by Athlon Sports and an All-Big Ten first-team pick by both the coaches and media. Zettel logged career-best totals with 17 tackles for loss and 8.0 sacks. His 16.0 career sacks rank tied for No. 15 in Penn State history and his 27.0 career TFLs are just five shy of entering the top 15 in the Penn State record books.

Zettel was the only FBS player to rank among the national leaders in sacks and interceptions per game in 2014. The athletic defensive lineman nabbed three interceptions, the most by a Penn State defensive lineman since at least 1959, to tie for the team lead in the category and added one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and eight pass deflections.

OVERTIME OVER TIME

College football introduced overtime during the bowl season in 1995 and adopted the system for regular season games in 1996.

- Since then, Penn State has played 11 overtime games, including five over the past two seasons.
- Seven of the 11 overtime tilts have come at home, two in true road games, one in the 2006 Orange Bowl and one in the 2014 Pinstripe Bowl.
- Their first two overtime contests came vs. Iowa in 2000 and 2002 at home.
- The Nittany Lions dropped their first three contests that went to the extra period, but won five straight overtime contests before falling to Nebraska on Nov. 23, 2013.

Penn State's all-time overtime games:

Date	Opponent	Score
11/4/00	IOWA (2OT)	L, 23-26

1 - Orange Bowl, 2 - Pinstripe Bowl

THREE NAMED PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN

Three Penn State players were selected first-team preseason All-Big Ten by national preview publications. Senior defensive tackle Anthony Zettel earned first-team all-conference recognition from Phil Steele, Lindy's and Athlon, while redshirt sophomore wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton was named first-team All-Big Ten by Phil Steele, Athlon and Sporting News. Senior safety Jordan Lucas rounded out the list of first-team preseason all-conference selections with a berth on Phil Steele's team.

Additionally, Hamilton was a second-team selection by Lindy's and Lucas claimed a second-team berth from Athlon. Junior linebacker Nyeem Wartman-White, junior defensive tackle Austin Johnson and junior running back Akeel Lynch also garnered preseason second-team all-conference accolades.

SIX BOWL TEAMS HIGHLIGHT SCHEDULE

The Nittany Lions are facing six teams that participated in a bowl game during the 2014 campaign, with the contingent compiling a 4-3 record in those games.

In Beaver Stadium, Penn State will face:

- Rutgers beat North Carolina, 40-21, in the Quick Lane Bowl.
- San Diego State suffered a one-point loss, 17-16, against Navy in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl.
- Illinois fell to Louisiana Tech, 35-18, in the Zaxby's Heart of Dallas Bowl.
Penn State will travel to:
- Ohio State earned the No. 4 seed in the College Football Playoff and defeated Alabama, 42-35, in the Allstate Sugar Bowl and toppled Oregon, 42-20, in the College Football Playoff National Championship.
- Maryland dropped a 45-21 decision to Stanford in the Foster Farms Bowl.
- Michigan State bested Baylor, 42-41, in the Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic.

PENN STATE NUMBER CHANGES

Several Lions are wearing new numbers, including Mark Allen (8), Brandon Bell (11), Torrence Brown (19), Gregg Garrity (19), Brandon Johnson (27), Troy Reeder (42), Javon Turner (28), Kyle Vasey (96) and Daquan Worley (4).

NITTANY LION POSITION CHANGES

Among the PSU players who played new positions during the spring: Koa Farmer (LB to S), Jack Haffner (RB to LB), Charles Idemudia (LB to TE/H), Jordan Lucas (CB to S), Brendan Mahon (T to C/G), Dom Salomone (FB to TE/H) and Chas Wright (T to C/G).

2015 BIG TEN DIVISIONS (FOOTBALL ONLY):

East Division: Indiana, Maryland, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio State, Penn State, Rutgers.

West Division: Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Northwestern, Purdue, Wisconsin.

ANOTHER SELLOUT FOR PENN STATE'S UNRIVALED STUDENT SECTION

The Penn State Student Section presented by The Apartment Store sold out more than 21,200 tickets, highlighted by an eight-minute sellout of the sophomore allotment. The sophomore and freshmen combined to sell out their allotments in 25 minutes, respectively. The Penn State Student Section presented by The Apartment Store has consistently sold out for four decades, showing the passion and dedication of Penn State students.

Penn State's proud and enthusiastic student section in Beaver Stadium is the nation's second-largest full season student ticket section of any school, for any sport.

ESPN's College Gameday and ESPN The Magazine ("The Nation's No. 1 Student section") are among the national media accolades for the Nittany Lions' loud and impactful student section.

NINE GAME BIG TEN SLATE IN 2016

Big Ten teams will play eight conference games this season, but a nine-game conference schedule starts in 2016. The Nittany Lions will play their six East Division rivals and three West Division teams that rotate starting in 2016. PSU and all East teams will have five Big Ten home games in 2016 and in even-numbered years thereafter.

HAM HONORED

The accomplishments of legendary Penn State football linebacker Jack Ham continue to stand out in the annals of college football history, as the Football Writers' Association of America (FWAA) named the Hall of Famer and current Penn State Sports Network broadcaster to its 75th Anniversary All-America Third Team in August.

The team celebrates the FWAA's All-America teams from near the end of World War II through the 2014 season. The FWAA, which was founded in 1941, has picked an annual All-America team since the 1944 season, making it the second-longest continuously selected team in major college football.

As a senior co-captain, Ham earned All-America honors in 1970 after making 91 tackles and intercepting four passes. He still shares a pair of defensive records for blocked punts: four in his career, three in his final season. Ham had 251 career tackles (143 solo).

Ham is the only Penn State product in both the college and professional football halls of fame.

PENN STATE SPORTS NETWORK AIRS ALL NITTANY LION GAMES; COACHES SHOW

Nearly 60 radio stations across Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, New York and Ohio are carrying Penn State football to fans throughout the Northeast this season on the Penn State Sports Network.

Steve Jones and Jack Ham are teaming up for their 16th season as the play-by-play voice and color analyst, respectively, on the Penn State Sports Network.

The football broadcasts begin 90 minutes before kickoff with the one-hour "Dietz & Watson Tailgate Show" with host Roger Corey, along with Jones and Ham. "The Penn State Bookstore Kickoff Show," a 20-minute conversation with Head Coach James Franklin follows, before Jones and Ham bring listeners the starting lineups, health reports, field conditions and late-breaking news in the final minutes leading up to kickoff.

The broadcasts conclude with the "Pennsylvania Propane Gas Association Postgame Show" featuring locker room interviews, game statistics, stars and plays of the game, as well as scores from around the nation.

All Penn State Sports Network broadcasts also can be heard via the Penn State Intercollegiate Athletics website: www.GoPSUsports.com.

The Penn State Sports Network is syndicated by Penn State Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports, one of the country's largest syndicators of college sports.

The network will also carry "The Penn State Coaches Show Presented by Pepsi" every Thursday throughout the season. The program also is carried live on GoPSUsports.com via Penn State All-Access.

The one-hour program takes place at LettermanS on East College Ave. in State College every Thursday at 6:05 p.m. from late August through mid-march.

LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

GAME RECAPS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) - P.J. Walker scored the go-ahead touchdown late in the third quarter to rally Temple to a 27-10 win over Penn State on Saturday. It was Temple's first win over the Nittany Lions in 74 years.

Temple hadn't won in the series since Oct. 18, 1941. Penn State was 38-0-1 since '41 with a 7-7 tie in 1950 the only time the Owls played without a loss.

There were 69,176 fans in attendance at Lincoln Financial Field.

Christian Hackenberg completed 11-of-25 passes good for 103 yards. Chris Godwin hauled in five of those passes for 81 yards to lead the Penn State receiving corps.

Walker made it 17-10 with a 1-yard run late in the third and the Owls cruised from there.

Penn State seemed poised for another rout when it took a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. Joey Julius, Penn State's 5-foot-10, 259-pound kicker, connected from 34 yards and Akeel Lynch scored on a 42-yard run. Penn State had 126 total yards in the first; 43 total over the second and third.

Penn State struggled on offense to sustain drives.

The Nittany Lions punted on six straight possessions once it took a 10-0 lead.

Thomas scored his first TD on a 1-yard run in the second and Jones tied it 10-10 on a 40-yarder in the third.

On the seventh possession since its last score, Hackenberg's pass was intercepted by Sharif Finch and seemingly returned to the end zone for the go-ahead score. After a quick replay review, Finch was ruled down on the 2 and Walker followed with the TD for the 17-10 lead.

RB Nick Scott, WR DeAndre Thompkins, DT Antoine White, OT Chasz Wright.

- Five true freshmen made their debuts: RB Saquon Barkley, LB Manny Bowen, LB Jake Cooper, WR Brandon Polk, CB John Reid.
- Penn State offensive starters: Sr. - 1, Jr. - 5, So. - 4, Fr. - 1
- True freshman WR Brandon Polk started and on Penn State's first play from scrimmage ran 33 yards.
- Sophomore wide receiver Chris Godwin caught five passes for 81 yards and now has at least one catch in 13 of 14 career games.
- Godwin's five catches give him two career games with five-or-more grabs, joining his seven-catch night vs. Boston College in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl.
- Penn State defensive starters: Sr. - 4, Jr. - 3, So. - 3, Fr. - 1
- Senior defensive end Carl Nassib made a career-high 10 tackles at Temple. His previous high was 4 stops on October 5, 2013 at Indiana.
- Nassib recorded his second career solo sack, good for a 12 yard loss, in the second quarter.
- Nassib's 2.5 tackles for loss are also a career-best.
- Senior cornerback Trevor Williams tied his career-high with six tackles, matching his six stops vs. UCF on September 14, 2013.
- Williams' 2.0 TFL surpassed his career total entering the game (1.5 TFL).
- Junior linebacker Brandon Bell forced his second career fumble in the second quarter. His first forced fumble came vs. Nebraska on November 11, 2013
- Bell's 2.5 tackles for loss are a career-high, surpassing his 2.0 TFLs at Indiana on Nov. 8, 2014.
- Redshirt freshman defensive end Torrence Brown recovered his first career fumble in the second quarter.
- Junior defensive end Garrett Sickels made a career-best four tackles, surpassing his three-stop effort vs. Maryland on Nov. 1, 2014.
- Redshirt freshman PK Joey Julius connected on his first career field goal attempt, good from 34 yards to give Penn State a 3-0 lead on its first possession of the game.
- Redshirt freshman Koa Farmer returned his first career kickoff 35 yards in the second quarter.
- Redshirt freshman Mark Allen's four punt returns are the most by a single Penn State player since Justin Brown returned five punts on Oct. 29, 2011 vs. Illinois.
- The nine returns vs. Temple (5 KO, 4 P) were the most in a single game since returning nine vs. Houston on January 2, 2012 in the TicketCity Bowl.

GAME 2

BUFFALO 14 vs. 27 PENN STATE

BEAVER STADIUM | SEPT. 12, 2015
ESPN2 | ATTN: 93,065

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Penn State scored on three consecutive drives starting late in the third quarter en route to a 27-14 victory over Buffalo in the home opener on a rainy Saturday afternoon in Beaver Stadium.

Buffalo pulled within three points, 10-7 with a touchdown late in the third quarter, but a Penn State field goal before the end of the third quarter and a pair of touchdowns on the next two drives to start the fourth put the game out of reach.

Carl Nassib once again led the defense for Penn State, hauling in an interception that led to a field goal, posting three sacks and forcing two fumbles. The Nittany Lion defense held Buffalo to 274 yards (69 rushing, 205 passing) of total offense. It was the fewest rushing yards allowed since yielding 68 again Illinois last season.

On the other side of the ball, Penn State totaled 200 yards rushing, led by true freshman running back Saquon Barkley, who totaled 115 yards on 12 attempts with a touchdown. He is the first PSU true freshman to rush for more than 100 yards in a game since Silas Redd had 131 yards on 11 carries and scored one touchdown against Northwestern in 2010. Barkley broke off back-to-back runs totaling 50 yards to start Penn State's first possession of the fourth quarter, which led to a touchdown and 20-7 Penn State lead. He also found the end zone with 9:02 remaining in the contest from nine yards out for a 27-7 lead.

Another true freshman, Brandon Polk, totaled 45 yards on three carries, scampering 22 yards for a touchdown for the Lions' first score of the game, and adding another to setup a short field goal attempt late in the third quarter. It marked the first time since 2005 that Penn State had two true freshmen score a touchdown in the same game.

Christian Hackenberg finished with one touchdown and 127 yards passing, completing 14-of-27 attempts in wet conditions. He connected on a 38-yard pass play to Chris Godwin who led the receiving corps with five receptions for 75 yards, to setup Barkley's fourth quarter score. DaeSean Hamilton hauled in a 5-yard touchdown reception on the drive keyed by Barkley's big runs and totaled three catches for 15 yards.

The offense was strongest in the second half, totaling 202 yards, and did not yield a sack in the game for the first time since 2013 in a win over Wisconsin. The Lions did not turn the ball over either for the first time since last season's tilt against UMass.

Contributing on defense in addition to Nassib were Austin Johnson and Troy Reeder. Johnson posted a career-high nine tackles, including 2.5 for loss and 1.5 sacks. Reeder also surpassed a career high with seven tackles in his first career start.

The Nittany Lion special teams contributed, as well, returning both a punt return and kick return for at least 58 yards in the same game for the first time since 2007, when they accomplished the feat against Notre Dame.

Buffalo quarterback Joe Licata completed 24-of-35 pass attempts for 205 yards and two touchdowns, but was sacked six times for 47 yards and picked off once. Ron Willoughby was his top target with eight catches for a touchdown, and Marcus McGill caught four passes for 45 yards and a touchdown. Anthonie Taylor added 93 yards on the ground with 18 carries.

The game had an electrifying start as Penn State's Nick Scott returned the opening kickoff 58 yards to the Buffalo 42. It was the longest for Penn State since Chaz Powell had a 92-yard return against Purdue in 2011.

A 22-yard touchdown run on a sweep to Polk was the game's first score and gave Penn State a 7-0 lead with 6:57 remaining in the first half. A 58-yard punt return by DeAndre Thompkins, on which he was barely tripped up by UB punter Tyler Grassman on a diving play, setup the two-play scoring drive at Buffalo's 24. It was the longest punt return by a Nittany Lion since Derrick Williams' 63-yard punt return for a touchdown at Wisconsin in 2008.

With Buffalo on its own 33 on the ensuing possession, Anthony Zettel burst through the UB line and tipped a Licata pass, and Nassib was able to haul it in with one hand for the interception, which he returned 10 yards to the UB 12. Joey Julius converted a 22-yard field goal to cap the drive with 3:58 left in the half.

After the halftime break, Willoughby capped a 11-play, 78-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown reception to cut Penn State's lead to three.

Penn State converted a field goal on its next possession, and then after a UB three-and-out, Barkley broke free on the first PSU play for 33 yards to the Buffalo 29, and then ran down the middle and leapt over a safety before being brought down after a 17-yard gain. Hackenberg threw for seven yards to Godwin and connected with Hamilton on a 5-yard touchdown reception for a 20-7 lead with 12:04 remaining in the game.

Another three-and-out led to Penn State's final scoring drive, as the Lions drove 74 yards on just six plays, a 15-yard pass interference penalty and a 38-yard connection between Hackenberg and Godwin led to Barkley's 9-yard touchdown run.

Buffalo drove 82 yards on 13 plays to reach the end zone on a 10-yard reception by McGill with 4:38 remaining, but two sack-fumbles by Nassib helped prevent UB from mustering another scoring drive.

RUTGERS 3

28 PENN STATE

BEAVER STADIUM | SEPT. 19, 2015
BTN | ATTN: 103,323

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Saquon Barkley rushed for 195 yards and two touchdowns to lead Penn State past Rutgers, 28-3, in the Big Ten opener on a rainy Saturday night in Beaver Stadium. The Nittany Lions took command of the game in the second quarter with three touchdowns in front a "Stripe Out" crowd of 103,323.

Penn State led Rutgers 21-0 at halftime and did not allow the Scarlet Knights to reach the red zone until doing so once in the fourth quarter, yielding a field goal. The three points allowed was the fewest for the Nittany Lions since 2011 against Iowa.

The Nittany Lion ground game keyed the offense totaling 330 of 471 total offensive yards, with 174 coming in the first half. It was the most yards gained on the ground for the Lions since 2009 when they totaled 338 and the first time they broke the 200-yard mark in consecutive games since the same year.

Barkley posted his second consecutive game of more than 100 yards, finding the end zone twice and totaling his season-high 195 yards on 21 carries, the most yards for a PSU true freshman rusher since 1998 and the most for any PSU rusher since Bill Belton totaled 201 in 2013. Barkley was particularly strong in the second half, totaling 140 yards and a touchdown on 11 rushes.

Fellow running back Akeel Lynch also broke 100 yards, totaling 120 on 10 carries, with nine carries and 115 yards coming in the first half, including a career-best 75-yard touchdown run. It was the first time Penn State had two 100-yard rushers in a game since Lynch and Belton accomplished the feat in 2013.

The Nittany Lion defense forced Rutgers to punt on its first five possessions before Grant Haley hauled in an interception on the sixth and final RU drive of the first half.

John Reid hauled in his first interception and recovered a late fumble, as the Lions pulled in a season-high three turnovers. The Blue and White continued to penetrate the backfield as well, totaling 9.0 tackles for loss and 5.0 sacks. Defensive tackle Austin Johnson led the team with 2.0 backfield stops, including a sack. Carl Nassib continued his strong start, tallying his team-best fifth sack as part of 1.5 backfield tackles. Safety Marcus Allen led the team with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops.

Christian Hackenberg completed 10-of-19 passes with one interception for 141 yards, and was not sacked for a second consecutive game. His top target was DaeSean Hamilton who totaled 81 yards on four catches in the first half, and finished with five for 86 yards. Chris Godwin also caught four passes, totaling 49 yards.

Rutgers quarterback Chris Laviano completed 27 of 42 passing attempts for 251 yards with two interceptions.

Josh Hicks led the ground game with 49 yards, but the Scarlet Knights only totaled 43 for the game, the fewest Penn State had allowed since holding Maryland to 33 last season. Carlton Agudosi led 10 Rutgers pass catchers with six receptions for 80 yards.

After playing the field position game on its first two drives of the game, pinning Rutgers on its own 2- and 10-yard lines, respectively, with punts from Chris Gulla, the Penn State offense found the end zone on its third possession, driving 80 yards on 12 plays in a season-long six minutes, two seconds. Hackenberg found Godwin along the right sideline for a 30-yard gain on the first play, and then the Nittany Lions pounded the ball into the red zone with eight consecutive running plays. On 3rd-and-3 from the 17, Hackenberg found Hamilton for a 13-yard gain to the 4-yard line, setting up an end-around to redshirt freshman wide receiver DeAndre Thompkins from two yards out for his first career touchdown with 12:10 remaining in the second quarter.

The Lions went three-and-out on their next possession, but scored on their next two.

Starting at the Penn State 10, the Lions drove 90 yards on eight plays for their longest drive of the season. Hackenberg found Hamilton with a short pass in the middle of the field that Hamilton was able to turn into a 48-yard gain to the Rutgers' 42. The Nittany Lions then handed off to Barkley on six of the next seven plays, and he capped the drive with a 15-yard touchdown run with 2:06 remaining in the half.

After another Rutgers' punt, Penn State took over on its own 25 with 1:14 on the clock. Lynch broke through a hole in the middle and ran 75 yards to the end zone.

Rutgers assembled the longest drive of the scoreless third quarter, advancing 54 yards on seven plays before Reid ended it with his first career interception.

Rutgers reached the red zone for the first time with just under 12 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, capping a 16-play, 71-yard drive with a 34-yard field goal. The drive took 7:13.

A 40-yard rush by Barkley keyed Penn State's ensuing drive, but a Hackenberg pass from the Rutgers' 28 was intercepted by Anthony Cioffi at the 1-yard line with 7:57 remaining.

Rutgers reached midfield on their first two plays, but three consecutive sacks by Nassib, Jordan Lucas and Johnson, respectively, moved Rutgers back to its own 21.

Barkley responded on the ensuing possession, breaking off a 54-yard run to the Rutgers' 16 on the first play, and rushing into the end zone on the next for the final margin.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Penn State scored three touchdowns off three San Diego State fumbles en route to a 37-24 victory in non-conference football action Saturday afternoon in Beaver Stadium. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg completed 21-of-35 pass attempts for 296 yards and three touchdowns, while defensive tackle Austin Johnson returned a fumble 71 yards for a touchdown to put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter.

The game turned in Penn State's favor late in the first half when San Diego State muffed a punt and fumbled in Nittany Lion territory in the final 2:33. The Aztecs led 14-13 but the turnovers allowed Penn State to take a 27-14 lead into the locker room after Hackenberg capped both resulting drives with touchdown passes.

Chris Godwin and DaeSean Hamilton led the Lions with five receptions each, with Godwin totaling 78 yards and a touchdown. Godwin also recovered the muffed punt late in the second quarter. Saeed Blacknall led in yardage, totaling a career-high 101 yards on four receptions, including career-long receptions of 45 and 46 yards. Running backs Saquon Barkley and Mark Allen both factored in the passing game, each notching their first receiving touchdowns.

Barkley led the team on the ground with 62 yards on eight carries, all in the first quarter and early second quarter.

Penn State was strong defensively, yielding only two drives longer than 36 yards, and 242 total yards. The Nittany Lions' 141 passing yards allowed were their fewest against an FBS non-conference opponent since holding Kent State to 134 in 2013. SDSU's first touchdown came on a 100-yard kickoff return by Rashaad Penny, and its last came after getting the ball on the Penn State 21-yard line after a Nittany Lion muffed punt early in the third quarter. Not including special teams scores, the Nittany Lion defense has not allowed more than seven points in the first half of 10 consecutive games.

Defensive tackle Anthony Zettel led the unit with a career-high seven tackles, including a team-best 2.5 for loss and a half sack. He also recovered a fumble that led to a touchdown and broke up one pass. Defensive end Carl Nassib had 2.0 of the team's five sacks, including the sack-forced fumble that led to Johnson's touchdown run. Defensive end Garrett Sickels forced the fumble that Zettel recovered and recorded a half sack and pass breakup in addition to three tackles.

Penny led SDSU with 192 all-purpose yards, including the 100-yard kickoff return and a 55-yard rush that keyed a touchdown drive. Donnel Pumphrey rushed for 56 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries and caught four passes for 51 yards. Quarterback Maxwell Smith completed 10-of-29 passes for 141 yards and a touchdown, targeting Mikah

Holder for 78 yards and a touchdown.

SDSU's fumbles before halftime allowed Penn State to score two touchdowns in the final 1:03 before the break.

Lloyd Mills muffed a 44-yard punt from Penn State's Chris Gulla at the SDSU 27. The Nittany Lions found the end zone in four plays, as Allen capped the short drive with a 13-yard touchdown reception with 1:03 remaining in the half. Allen pulled in the short pass near the line of scrimmage and leapt into the end zone as he was tripped up. He was originally marked down at the two, but the spot was overturned upon video review.

After the ensuing kickoff, SDSU took over on its own 25-yard line, but Sickels stripped Pumphrey of the ball on the first play from scrimmage, and Zettel pounced on it, giving the Lions the ball back on the 23 with 55 seconds remaining in the half.

After a sack, Hackenberg led the Lions to the 11, completing an 8-yard pass to Kyle Carter and a 7-yard pass to Hamilton on 3rd-and-5. Hackenberg then converted another third down after a pair of incompletions, finding Godwin in the middle of the field for an 11-yard touchdown with 17 seconds left before the break.

Hackenberg completed 16-of-24 pass attempts in the half for 234 yards and three touchdowns. Blacknall caught three of the passes for 98 yards. The Nittany Lions outgained SDSU in total offense 297-81 yards.

San Diego State threatened in the second half, taking advantage of a muffed punt for a six-play, 21-yard touchdown drive. Pumphrey capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. Late in the third quarter when SDSU began to drive on offense again. Starting at their own 18, a 31-yard pass from Smith to Holder moved the Aztecs to the PSU 24. The drive came to an abrupt end though when Nassib forced Smith to fumble on the next play, planting his helmet on the quarterback's arm just before it could come forward. The 6-4, 323-pound Johnson scooped up the resulting fumble and rumbled 71-yards to the end zone for a 34-21 lead with 13:44 remaining.

Joey Julius would convert his third field goal of the game with 9:52 remaining for the final margin. A 32-yard pass from running back Nick Scott to Godwin moved the Lions into range at the SDSU 13.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Linebacker Jason Cabinda made a career-high 14 tackles and forced a fumble, as Penn State's defense led the Nittany Lions to a 20-14 victory over Army West Point on a rainy Saturday afternoon in Beaver Stadium. The unit recovered three fumbles for a second consecutive game and Cabinda also secured the victory with a sack on fourth-and-5 in Penn State territory in the game's final two minutes.

It was Penn State's fourth consecutive victory in its fourth consecutive home game, giving the Nittany Lions their best home start since 2008. The Lions led the game from their second offensive possession until the end.

Penn State running back Nick Scott totaled 54 yards on the ground on 12 attempts and gave the Lions the early lead with an 11-yard touchdown run for his first career score. He also caught one pass for 22 yards.

Quarterback Christian Hackenberg completed 10-of-19 passing attempts, for 156 yards. Ninety-one yards came on what proved to be the game-deciding scoring drive late in the third quarter, as he marched the Lions down the field on just three plays, connecting with wide receiver Chris Godwin on a 49-yard pass and finding tight end Mike Gesicki for a 33-yard touchdown reception. It was Hackenberg's 37th career touchdown pass to tie Chuck Fusina for seventh all-time at Penn State.

Godwin finished with 66 yards and four catches, while Gesicki's touchdown was the first of his career which fittingly came on his birthday.

Quarterback A.J. Schurr led the Army's triple-option offense, running 24 times for 74 yards and both of the team's touchdowns, including a 56-yard touchdown run. He completed his lone pass attempt for 32 yard, leading to his first touchdown in the third quarter. Dropping back to pass only a handful of times, Schurr was sacked three times, twice by Cabinda and once by Carl Nassib, who entered the game leading the country in the category and has recorded a sack in each game this season.

Army's single completion matches the lowest total of the year, and its one attempt is also the lowest thus far this year. Nine different Black Knights carried the ball, totaling 261 yards.

The wet conditions made handling the ball difficult for both teams. It made the passing game difficult for the Lions, while Army fumbled seven times with only two being forced, by Cabinda and Anthony Zettel, respectively. Manny Bowen, Von Walker and Garret Sickels each recovered fumbles. Penn State's six fumble recoveries in consecutive games (3 vs. San Diego State and 3 vs. Army) are its most since having six at Virginia (3) and vs. Navy (3) in 2012.

Penn State received the opening kickoff and went three-and-out, but received the ball back immediately when Army fumbled the snap on their very first play and Sickels recovered it at the Army 42. The Nittany Lions were then able to drive to the end zone on eight plays. Hackenberg converted a fourth-and-4 with a 12-yard pass to DaeSean Hamilton to the Army 11 to keep the drive alive. Scott then rushed across the goal line on the next play for the touchdown.

Army was unable to cross midfield until early in the second quarter, when an 11-yard gain by Drue Harris placed the Black Knights at the Penn State 43. Jordan Asberry fumbled on the next play though and Walker recovered it.

Another fumble on Army's next drive set up a Penn State field goal drive starting at the Army 41. A career-long 19-yard rush by Hackenberg keyed the drive, and placekicker Joey Julius converted from 37 yards with just 25 seconds remaining in the half for a 10-0 advantage.

The Nittany Lions added a field goal on their first drive of the third quarter, as Julius connected from 27 yards for a 13-0 lead.

Penn State held Army to just 77 yards of offense in the first half, but was able to make progress in the second half. Army responded on its ensuing possession with an eight-play, 76-yard touchdown drive, as Schurr completed a 32-yard pass to Edgar Poe to move the Black Knights to the Penn State 12. Schurr then rushed himself the next three plays, finding the end zone from three yards out.

Both teams then traded punts, resulting in Penn State taking over at its own 9-yard line with 1:13 remaining in the third quarter, but Hackenberg was able to engineer a three-play, 91-yard touchdown drive. Hackenberg found Kyle Carter for a quick 9-yard gain, but then connected with Godwin on a 49-yard pass down the middle, and the capped the drive with a 33-yard touchdown pass to Gesicki at the conclusion of the quarter for a 20-7 lead.

However, Schurr broke free for a 56-yard touchdown run on Army's next possession to cut the deficit to six points again with 11:04 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Penn State was only able to get one first down after the kickoff and was forced to punt, giving the Black Knights the ball at their own 15 after a holding penalty during the return. The Nittany Lion defense only yielded 42 yards on nine plays in more than six minutes before Cabinda dropped Schurr for a 10-yard loss on fourth-and-5 with 1:21 remaining.

GAME RECAPS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - Penn State quarterback Christian Hackenberg accounted for all four touchdowns and became the second player in school history to surpass 7,000 career passing yards, as he led the Nittany Lions past Indiana, 29-7, in Big Ten football action on a sunny Saturday afternoon in Beaver Stadium.

The Penn State defense held Indiana's league-leading offense, which was averaging 498.2 yards per game entering the contest, to just 234 yards and a first-quarter touchdown. Defensive end Carl Nassib registered two sacks and two forced fumbles, as the Lions totaled four sacks - one more than Indiana had allowed prior all season. Defensive tackle Austin Johnson also recorded a sack and was one of three Lions with nine tackles.

Hackenberg used both his arm and his legs to move the ball downfield. He completed 21-of-39 passing attempts for 262 yards and two touchdowns, while setting career-highs rushing with two more touchdowns, 21 yards and a career-best 22-yard run. Wide receiver Chris Godwin was his top target with four catches for 14 yards, while fellow receivers DaeSean Hamilton and Brandon Polk both caught 39-yard touchdown passes. Hackenberg targeted eight different receivers in the contest.

The Lions used seven different ball carriers to total 154 yards rushing on 32 attempts. Nick Scott and Mark Allen had eight carries each, with Scott totaling a career-best 57 yards and Mark Allen totaling a career-best 45.

Indiana quarterback Zander Diamont led the Hoosiers in the air with nine completions on 17 attempts for 90 yards, and also led on the ground with 11 rushes for 38 yards and the team's lone touchdown. However, he left the game in the third quarter and freshman Danny Cameron completed 6-of-16 passes for 65 yards with one interception in relief. Ricky Jones was the game's leading receiver with five catches for 59 yards.

Marcus Oliver paced the Indiana defense with a game-high 13 tackles, while Nick Mangieri and Zack Shaw recorded two sacks each.

Hackenberg did most of his damage in the first half, throwing for two touchdowns and rushing for one. He completed 12-of-23 passing attempts for 186 yards, while rushing five times for 28 yards.

Both teams scored touchdowns in the first quarter. Penn State struck first on its third offensive drive, taking advantage of an Indiana personal foul that negated a lost fumble on third-and-10 from Penn State's own 36.

The penalty moved the Nittany Lions to the Indiana 49, and they scored two plays later. Hackenberg threw a short pass to Scott out of the backfield for 10 yards, and then Polk used his speed to get behind the Hoosiers' secondary for a 39-yard touchdown reception - the first of his career - with 7:35 remaining in the first quarter

Indiana would answer on its ensuing possession, driving 65 yards on eight plays for a game-tying touchdown. Diamont moved Indiana into Penn State territory with a 10-yard rush, and then after a rushing attempt for no gain, connected on passes of 14 and 17 yards on consecutive plays to reach the PSU 12. He called his own number on the next play and rushed to the right for a touchdown with 4:11 remaining in the quarter.

Indiana caught Penn State off guard with an onside kick and kept the ball on offense, but the Nittany Lion defense forced a three-and-out - one of six on the day. Penn State took over at its own 7 and drove 50 yards on seven plays into Hoosier territory, but Mark Allen failed to hold on to a hand off and fumbled the ball away with four seconds remaining in the opening quarter for the Lions' first lost fumble on offense this season.

Penn State's defense continued to hold, and the Lion offense found the end zone again on its second drive of the second quarter after starting at its own 20. Mark Allen rushed for a career long 28 yards, and Hackenberg connected with Godwin for 14 yards to the IU 38-yard line. Allen lost a yard on his next carry, but Hackenberg found Hamilton down the right side for a 39-yard touchdown completion with 5:40 remaining in the half. The extra point attempt was no good, giving Penn State a 13-7 lead.

After an Indiana three-and-out, highlighted by Johnson's sack for a loss of 10 yards, Hackenberg used his legs to key Penn State's next touchdown drive. Hackenberg used a 9-yard rush to advance to Indiana's 35 and, one play later, a 22-yard rush to Indiana's 6. One play later from the 1, he ran around the right end untouched into the end zone with 36 seconds remaining in the half. The extra point try attempt failed again, and Penn State took a 19-7 lead into the halftime break.

The defenses ruled the third quarter, as Penn State was held to just 29 yards and Indiana was unable to get into scoring range despite 118 yards of offense. Indiana regained possession late in the third after a Penn State three-and-out, but cornerback John Reid intercepted a dropped pass at the Penn State 48. The play led to a seven-play, 52-yard touchdown drive that Hackenberg capped with a 5-yard run and dive into the end zone. A 21-yard completion to Kyle Carter on third-and-3 from the Indiana 45 kept the drive going.

A 30-yard field goal for Penn State from Tyler Davis in the fourth quarter resulted in the final margin.

GAME 7

PENN STATE 10  vs.  38 OHIO STATE

OHIO STADIUM OCT. 17, 2015
ABC ATTN: 108,423

GAME RECAPS

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Penn State freshman running back Saquon Barkley rushed for 194 yards in his return from injury, but the Nittany Lions were unable to hold on to an early lead against No. 1 Ohio State, as the Buckeyes won, 38-10, in a Big Ten football contest Saturday night in Ohio Stadium.

Penn State assembled a six-play, 61-yard field goal drive on its first possession and forced punts on Ohio State's first three drives to hold a 3-0 lead after the first quarter. The Buckeyes found their rhythm in the second quarter though, as they scored rushing touchdowns on their next three possessions to take the lead for good, including two from quarterback J.T. Barrett.

Barkley led all rushers with 194 yards on 26 carries, including a career-long 56-yard rush to Ohio State's 21-yard line early in the fourth quarter on Penn State's first offensive play after Ohio State extended its advantage to 24-10 with a field goal. The Lions reached the 13, but were unable to convert on third-and-2 and fourth-and-2, and turned the ball over on downs. Barkley also had a 44-yard touchdown run in the first quarter nullified by a penalty, and Penn State would eventually be forced to punt.

Barkley's 194-yard performance ranks as the fourth most by a true freshman at Penn State, trailing his third-ranked 195-yard performance against Rutgers earlier in the season. His three 100-yard rushing games are tied for second on the all-time true freshman season list, while D.J. Dozier's five 100-yard rushing games in 1983 top it.

Elliott and Barrett both broke 100 yards on the ground to lead Ohio State's offense. Elliot totaled 153 yards on 27 carries with a touchdown, while Barrett amassed 102 yards and two touchdowns on 11 carries, while completing all four passing attempts for 30 yards and two more touchdowns. Six different rushers ultimately totaled 315 yards.

Trailing 21-3 after halftime, the Nittany Lions would fight back into the game at the start of the second half, as they covered 78 yards on just three plays for a touchdown. Quarterback Christian Hackenberg threw a 56-yard pass to Chris Godwin to flip the field from the Penn State 22 to the Ohio State 22 on the first play, and then Barkley rushed for 14 yards to the 8, setting up a quick strike to DaeSean Hamilton along the right sideline, on which he broke tackles and leapt into the end zone to reduce Ohio State's lead to 21-10.

It was Hackenberg's 40th career touchdown pass, giving him sole possession of No. 6 all-time at Penn State.

Godwin finished with three catches for 103 yards, while Hamilton caught his 100th and 101st receptions to become the 13th player all-time at Penn State to reach 100 career completions.

The score would prove to be the only one of the quarter and Penn State's last. Ohio State would score on each of three drives in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach, kicking a 39-yard field goal with 12:54 remaining before Barrett completed touchdown passes to Braxton Miller (6:25 remaining) and Michael Thomas (4:14).

Field position was a factor in the game, as Penn State was pinned inside its own 10 four times and inside its own 20 a total of six times out of 12 offensive drives. Its best drive start came at its own 35. Ohio State had four drive starts in Penn State territory and started inside its own 20 just twice.

The nation's sack leader, Carl Nassib, led the Penn State defense with 1.5 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss, also tying for second on the team with eight tackles. The Lions totaled 10.0 tackles-for-loss to mark its fourth game with at least 9.0 TFLs. It was also the most surrendered by Ohio State this season. Joey Bosa led Ohio State with seven tackles, a sack and 3.0 TFLs.

M&T BANK STADIUM | OCT. 24, 2015
ESPN | ATTN: 68,948

GAME RECAPS

BALTIMORE (AP) - Christian Hackenberg threw for 315 yards and three touchdowns, and Penn State beat Maryland, 31-30, to spoil the debut of interim coach Mike Locksley.

Although Hackenberg completed only 13 passes, many of them were big-gainers. Chris Godwin had four catches for 135 yards and DaeSean Hamilton totaled 96 yards on his five receptions.

Hackenberg became the school career leader in completions (608) and yards passing (7,453), displacing Zach Mills in both categories.

Penn State improved to 36-2-1 against the Terps, but Maryland's determined effort before a spirited crowd of 68,948 could help turn this into a regional rivalry.

Maryland played well in this one but was undone by five turnovers, including three interceptions by Perry Hills.

Hills ran for 128 yards and completed 19 of 28 passes for 225 yards. His final interception came on a deflected pass with 1:15 remaining.

Penn State went up 31-27 with 13:39 left when Hackenberg tossed a 27-yard touchdown pass to Geno Lewis.

Maryland cut the gap with a field goal, and then recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff. But Hills fumbled it back as he was hit while throwing.

The Terrapins got the ball following a missed field goal try. Locksley opted to go for it on fourth-and-2 from the Maryland 36, and Hills was intercepted by Trevor Williams with 7:51 to go.

That wouldn't be the last turnover for the Terrapins, who wore throwback uniforms patterned after the 1961 team. That was the year in which Maryland earned its lone win over the Nittany Lions at home.

Maryland moved 68 yards on its first possession of the third quarter to take a 20-17 lead. After Hills ran 36 yards to the 10, Brandon Ross scored on third down.

Hackenberg responded by completing a pass to Godwin for 31 yards, then throwing a 20-yarder to Hamilton for a touchdown. Both passes were put up for grabs, and on both occasions the receiver made the play.

The back-and-forth duel extended into the next drive, when Hills directed an 88-yard march that ended with a 10-yard touchdown pass to DeAndre Lane, making it 27-24.

That laid the groundwork for an intense fourth quarter.

Penn State led 17-13 at halftime despite being limited to 15 yards rushing and converting only once on third down.

Hackenberg went 7 for 16 before intermission, but his completions went for 196 yards - including a 37-yarder to Godwin, who made an outstanding one-handed catch in the end zone while his defender was being called for pass interference.

Maryland led 13-7 in the second quarter despite committing two turnovers inside the Penn State 20.

GAME NOTES

- Earning its sixth win of the season, Penn State becomes bowl eligible. The Lions have appeared in 45 bowl games in program history, tied for ninth-highest among FBS schools at the start of the season.
- Head coach James Franklin is now 5-for-5 in leading teams to bowl eligibility as a head coach.
- Penn State is now 36-2-1 all-time vs. Maryland with a 3-0-1 record in neutral site games.
- The Nittany Lions are now 17-0-1 in games played away from home against the Terrapins.
- James Franklin is 6-4 in games decided by seven points or fewer at PSU (2-0 this year).
- The one-point victory was the first one-point win in a regular season game, as well as a Big Ten game, since 2006 at Minnesota (28-27 in OT).
- It was the first one-point victory in regulation in a regular season game since a 16-15 victory over Minnesota in 1997.
- The Nittany Lions forced a season-high five turnovers for a total of 17 this season. Penn State has scored 48 points off turnovers (6 TD, 2 FG).
- Penn State's 17 turnovers forced include 10 fumble recoveries and seven interceptions.
- The five turnovers the most forced by Penn State since forcing five against Temple on Nov. 15, 2014.
- Penn State's three interceptions are the most in a single game since picking off Rutgers five times in the Big Ten opener last season on Sept. 13.
- Penn State has recorded at least five tackles for loss in 15 consecutive games. The Nittany Lions recorded 11.0 tackles-for-loss vs. Maryland, including 4.0 sacks.
- The 15-game streak with 5.0 or more TFLs is the longest since a 15-game string from 2001-03.
- The Nittany Lions recorded 11.0 tackles-for-loss to mark the fifth game this season with at least 9.0 TFLs in a game.
- The Nittany Lions have recorded at least one sack in 30 consecutive games, which is the longest streak since a 30-game streak from 2007-09.
- Penn State is now 24-of-27 in the red zone this season with 14 touchdowns and 10 field goals after going 2-of-2 with two touchdowns vs. Maryland.
