NOTES

The Maryland gymnastics team travels to Penn State for the team's first road trip of the season this Saturday at 4 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT

Freshman Alecia Farina tied for the bars title with a career-high 9.850. She also notched a career high on vault with a 9.750. The Terps posted a 192.350, picking up their first win of the season over Alaska-Anchorage (188.175) and falling to Arizona (193.225) and Minnesota (194.900). For the second straight meet, seniors Emily Brauckmuller and Sarah Faller led the Terps on vault, each posting a 9.775. Junior Evelyn Nee notched a 9.825 on beam while Brauckmuller anchored floor with a 9.825.

IN THE RANKINGS

The Terps currently rank No. 43 with an average score of 193.150. Penn State currently ranks No. 32 with an average score of 193.763. For complete rankings, visit roadtonationals.com.

SENIORS LEAD TERPS ON VAULT

Seniors Emily Brauckmuller and Sarah Faller have led Maryland on vault this season. In the season opener against West Virginia, the duo each posted 9.750s, the highest scores on the team. In the Maryland quad meet, the seniors tallied 9.775s, which placed fourth in the meet.

YOUTH MOVEMENT

Maryland welcomed one of the top freshman classes in program history this season, and the newest Terps have made an immediate impact. Five freshmen have found their way into the Maryland lineup this season. Alecia Farina, Kirsten Peterman and Deanna Magro have been important members of the vault lineup while Farina has been a force on bars. Magro posted a 9.750 on beam in her debut. Sophomores Shynelle Agaran, Amanda Bertorello and Megan McClelland have also been key for the Terps. Agaran notched a team-high 9.800 on bars in Maryland's first meet vs. West Virginia. In the Maryland quad meet, Bertorello set career highs on bars (9.750) and floor (9.800). McClelland has been a mainstay in the floor lineup since her freshman season. Ten of Maryland's 17 gymnasts are underclassmen.

FALLER, FARINA NAMED BIG TEN GYMNASTS TO WATCH

Senior Sarah Faller and freshman Alecia Farina were selected as Maryland's Big Ten Gymnasts to Watch in December. Faller has been a consistent performer for the Terps since her first season, competing on vault, bars and beam. Last season, Faller set a new career-high with a 9.850 on bars and tied a career high 9.800 on beam. The Raleigh, N.C., native is a two-time Big Ten All-Academic selection. Farina is a member of one of Maryland's strongest freshmen classes to date. She was the only gymnast in Ohio high school history to earn a perfect 10.0 on vault, which she did three times. Farina finished second on floor, 10th on vault and 23rd in the all-around at the 2016 U.S. Junior Olympic National Championship. The Terps were picked to finish ninth in the Big Ten preseason coaches poll.

TERPS TO APPEAR ON BIG TEN NETWORK THREE TIMES

The Maryland gymnastics team will be featured on the Big Ten Network three times this season. The Terps' meet vs. Michigan in the XFINITY Center on Sunday, Feb. 5 will be aired live on BTN Plus at noon. Fans can catch a replay of the meet at 4 p.m. on the Big Ten Network. Maryland will compete in one of two Big 5 meets at Illinois on Saturday, March 11. The meet will be aired live on BTN at 3 p.m. The Big 5 meets featured all Big Ten teams and serve as qualifiers for the conference championship. Both sessions of the Big Ten Championships will be aired live on BTN. All Maryland home meets will be featured on BTN Plus.

NELLIGAN ANNOUNCES STAFF ADDITIONS

In the offseason, the Terps welcomed Evan Eigner as an assistant coach. Eigner serves as Maryland's primary vault and floor coach. A 2016 graduate of Ohio State, he helped the Buckeyes to the 2016 Big Ten Championship and a third place finish at the NCAA Championship. Maryland also welcomed back former GymtTerp standout Ally Krikorian. A 2013 graduate, Krikorian helped lead the Terps to four straight NCAA Regionals appearances, and Maryland finished her senior season ranked No. 22.
