Cross Country Readies for Big Ten Championships No. 13 women's squad to contend for top finish

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa.: October 25, 2012 – The Nittany Lion men's and women's cross country squads will hit the post-season trail this weekend, competing at the Big Ten Cross Country Championships, Sunday at Michigan State University. Both teams are poised for strong finishes, with the Nittany Lion women looking to contend for the team title, entering the meet as the 13th-ranked program in the latest USTFCCCA poll.

Standing in the way will be a talented Michigan squad, which comes in to the competition with a No. 7 ranking to their credit, while the No. 15 Michigan State Spartans will look to use the home-course advantage to lift them to their third-straight conference title. The Golden Gophers of Minnesota also look to be in the running, coming into the competition ranked No. 25 in the national Top 30. The quartet of squads have had a strong hold on the Big Ten Conference in recent years, as one of the four teams has claimed the team title in every championship since 2000, including the Nittany Lions in 2009.

The Wolverines also boast the top returner from last year's competition, as Rebecca Addison placed fourth overall, leading her squad to a second-place finish. The 2011 Championships were a tight race at the top, with the Spartans taking top honors with 55 points, followed by the Wolverines with 61, and the Nittany Lions with 71. Then-senior Caitlin Lane captured the Big Ten title individually, marking the Nittany Lions second gold medalist in three years, along with Bridget Franek's victory in 2009. The Lions' top returner from 2011 is junior Emily Giannotti (Coudersport, Pa.), who turned in a 14th-place effort to earn All-Big Ten Second Team status.

Running at the front of the Nittany Lion pack has been junior Rebekka Simko (Mentor, Ohio). Simko, who was an Olympic Trials qualifier in the 800-meters this summer, was the Lions' top finisher at the both the Greater Louisville Classic, and again at the high-powered Adidas Wisconsin Invitational. Classmate Victoria Perri (Philadelphia, Pa.) has also emerged as a consistent member of the Lions' scoring contingent, finishing at the Lions' second runner at Louisville and number-three finisher at Wisconsin. Also looking to throw their hats into the Big Ten fray are senior captains Brooklyne Ridder (Cincinnati, Ohio) and Natalie Bower (Pleasant Unity, Pa.). Ridder and Bower, who were both members of Penn State's Big Ten title squad in 2009, have also been running strong this season, helping the Nittany Lions to an eighth-place finish at the Adidas Wisconsin Invitational, where the Nittany Lions bettered a total of 13 nationally-ranked teams.

The Nittany Lions are coming off a sixth-place finish on the men's side in 2011, paced by All-Big Ten finishes from then-seniors Kyle Dawson and Vince McNally. Senior Tyler Corkedale (West Windsor, N.J.) is the Lions' top returner finisher from the 2011 Championships. Also running well from the men's squad this fall have been senior Sam Masters (Columbia, Mo.) and redshirt-sophomore Matt Fischer (Kennett Square, Pa.). Masters led the Lions with a 17th-place finish in a stellar field at the Greater Louisville Classic, while Fischer kicked off the season on the right foot, placing second at the Harry Groves Spiked Shoe Invitational last month.

Nittany Lion Notes:Last Time Out ...

The 14th-ranked Nittany Lion women's cross country squad proved their position among the nation's elite, finishing eighth in the team standings, on October 16 at the high-powered Adidas Wisconsin Invitational at Zimmer Championship Cross Country Course. Paced by a 34th-place effort from junior Rebekka Simko (Mentor, Ohio), the Nittany Lions held their own against a sensational field, bettering a total of 13 nationally ranked programs, and finishing tops among Big Ten foes.

The 2011 Big Ten Championships ...

Senior Caitlin Lane (Greenwich, N.Y.) took top honors, leading the Nittany Lion women's squad to a third-place finish in the team standings, Sunday, at the Big Ten Cross Country Championships at the University of Illinois Arboretum. Lane led a trio of Nittany Lions on the women's all-conference team, with senior Kara Millhouse (Boiling Springs, Pa.) earning first team status, and sophomore Emily Giannotti (Coudersport, Pa.) claiming second team honors. Seniors Kyle Dawson (Coatesville, Pa.) and Vince McNally (Paoli, Pa.) paced the Nittany Lions' sixth-place finish on the men's side, placing 12th and 13th, respectively, both capturing all-conference second team accolades.

Last Time in East Lansing ...

The Nittany Lion women's squad scored a third-place finish during the 2003 Big Ten Championships at Michigan State, led by a fourth-place effort from then-junior Molly Landreth. Jenny Stevens also earned All-Big Ten honors, placing 10th overall. Michigan won the team title, thanks to an individual victory by Rebecca Walter. Wisconsin was tops on the men's side, with Nittany Lion Dan Mazzocco placing fourth individually, to pace the Lions' seventh-place standing.

NCAA Qualifying ...

September 21 served as the opening for the NCAA's "At-Large" window, in which "points" can be earned over opposing schools, that could later count towards a team's bid to the NCAA Cross Country Championships. The NCAA accepts a total of 31 teams per gender to the NCAA Cross Country Championships each fall, with the top two teams from each of the nine Regional Championships races receiving automatic berths. The next 13 teams are chosen via an "at-large" system, based upon "points" earned throughout the season.

NCAA Preview ...

Led by top 20 performances by juniors Rebekka Simko (Mentor, Ohio), and Victoria Perri (Philadelphia, Pa.), the 17th-ranked Nittany Lion women's cross country squad placed fifth overall at the Greater Louisville Classic on September 29, knocking off No. 8 Vanderbilt, as well as No. 29 and conference rival, Wisconsin. The men's squad also posted a solid effort, placing 10th in the team standings, thanks to a 17th-place finish from senior Sam Masters (Columbia, Mo.), individually.

Home Course Advantage ...

Junior Victoria Perri (Philadelphia, Pa.) and redshirt-sophomore Matt Fischer (Kennett Square, Pa.) paced the Nittany Lions individually despite rainy and windy conditions, each turning in runner-up finishes, Saturday at the Harry Groves Spiked Shoe Invitational at the Blue-White Golf Courses. The Nittany Lion women's squad posted a dominant effort in the team standings, winning the competition with a 25-point total, thanks to five finishers in the top 10, and seven in the top 16. Penn State also fared well on the men's side, taking third overall in a solid early-season field.

Early Big Ten Honors ...

Following victories at the Dolan Duals at Lock Haven last weekend, redshirt-freshman Robby Creese (Mount Airy, Md.) and junior Rebekka Simko (Mentor, Ohio) have been named Big Ten Cross Country Athletes of the Week. The Nittany Lions provided a dominate effort in the team standings with both teams picking up victories over Lock Haven, including a 15-50 sweep by the women's squad.

Off and Running ...

Redshirt freshman Robby Creese (Mount Airy, Md.) and junior Rebekka Simko (Mentor, Ohio) led the way with individual titles, pacing the Nittany Lion cross country squads to a pair of team victories at the annual Dolan Duals at Lock Haven University on Sept. 31. Simko headed up a perfect effort from the women's squad, which saw the Nittany Lions better the Bald Eagles, 15-50. Simko gapped the field down the homestretch of the 4,000-meter course, finishing in 14:16. Teammate Tori Perri (Philadelphia, Pa.) was next in line, finishing in 14:20 for second overall. The men's squad was just as successful, bettering their competitors, 25-30, with Creese picking up the individual victory in 18:12 over 6,000-meters, in his first cross country appearance in a Nittany Lion uniform. The Nittany Lions covered three of the top five finishing spots, with junior Nick Scarpello (Jamison, Pa.), and Tom Luff (Emmaus, Pa.) taking third and fourth, respectively, in 18:36 and 18:37.

Nittany Lions in Charge ...

A quintet of seniors will serve at Penn State's team captains for the 2012 seasons, with 2011 NCAA qualifiers Natalie Bower (Pleasant Unity, Pa.), Lindsey Graybill (Macungie, Pa.), and Brooklyne Ridder (Cincinnati, Ohio) captaining the women's squad, and Tyler Corkedale (West Windsor, N.J.), and Tom Luff (Emmaus, Pa.) leading the men's team.

Mark Your Calendars ...

The road to the NCAA Championships will begin in Happy Valley, as the Nittany Lions are slated to host the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Regional Championships on Friday, November 9. Regional races are set to begin at 12:00 p.m.

Beth Alford-Sullivan
Director and Head Coach
Track and Field/Cross Country
14th Year | | Minnesota, '89

After 13 years and 106 NCAA All-Americans on the women's side, as well as six years and 32 All-America honorees with the men's squad, Beth Alford-Sullivan enters her 14th year at the helm of the Nittany Lion women's program and her seventh campaign as the Director and Head Coach of Track and Field/Cross Country, overseeing both the men's and women's programs.

Sullivan's decorated resume is undoubtedly among the most impressive in the country, as it includes two NCAA "Trophy" Team finishes, six Big Ten team titles, one Big Ten "Triple Crown," as well as three individual NCAA Champions, and one NCAA Champion relay.

Since taking the reigns of both the men's and women's programs in 2006, Sullivan has remained steadfast to the vision of having two programs in the top tier of the conference and the NCAA, with both the men's and women's squads making outstanding statements during the 2011-12 campaign, highlighted by the Nittany Lions' haul of 12 USTFCCCA First Team All-America finishes on the year.

Sullivan continued to coach the Nittany Lions to countless milestones in 2011-12, including a head-turning performance of 3:01.52 by the men's 4x400-meter relay at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The relay re-wrote the record books on numerous occasions in 2012, setting the indoor school record at 3:05.22 at the Alex Wilson Last Chance, and following up with a second-place standing at the NCAA Indoor Championships - the highest-ever finish by a Nittany Lion relay at NCAA Indoors. The Lions clipped off the own record little by little over the outdoor season, beginning the year at 3:07.19 - all the way down to 3:01.52, with the foursome of Aaron Nadolsky, Brandon Bennett-Green, Casimir Loxsom, and Brady Gehret on both All-America squads.

Sullivan would also oversee an outstanding effort from the Nittany Lion throws contingent at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, with underclassman duo Laura Loht, and Lauren Kenney providing a three-four finish in the women's javelin, to go along with a fourth-place showing from Joe Kovacs in the men's shot put.

Through the course of the 2011-12 campaign, Sullivan also coached a grand total of eight individual Big Ten Champions, and two conference champion relays. Kicking off the conference accolades was then-senior Caitlin Lane, who captured top individual honors at the Big Ten Cross Country Championships, and parlayed the effort into the 16th-place and All-America standing at the NCAA Cross Country Championships. Lane's finish - which was the second highest in Sullivan's Penn State tenure - paced the Lions to a 13th-place finish in the team standings - the best finish from the PSU program in nearly two decades.

John Gondak
Associate Head Coach
Middle Distance/Cross Country
Seventh Year | | Syracuse, '95

John Gondak begins his seventh year in Happy Valley as an assistant with the Nittany Lion cross country and distance squads. Gondak's resume while with the Blue and White - which can be matched by few middle distance mentors in the country - includes 10 USTFCCCA First Team All-Americans, 12 Big Ten Champions, 17 Penn State records, three Big Ten Freshman of the Year honorees, three Penn Relays victories, and two sub-4:00 milers.

Gondak's charges had another fine campaign on the track during the indoor and outdoor seasons in 2012, capped by a victory in the 4x800-meter relay at the prestigious Penn Relays - the Lions' first victory in the event since 1987. Gondak also led Robby Creese - the 4x800 anchor - to one of the more impressive freshman seasons on record, as the rookie broke the 4:00 mile barrier on two occasions, and qualified for the NCAA mile final as the only rookie in the field. Creese, who was voted Big Ten Freshman of the Year during the indoor and outdoor seasons in 2012, ripped through the record books during the indoor season, running 2:19.53 for the 1,000-meters, setting Collegiate, American Junior, and Penn State records in the event. Creese, whose 3:58.94 PR is the second-fastest mile on the PSU record books, earned three conference medals on the year, including a sensational anchor leg on the winning DMR at the Big Ten Indoor Championships.

Gondak also coached rising senior Casimir Loxsom to another banner year, as the then-junior qualified for the NCAA 800 during the indoor and outdoor seasons, while also making an appearance in the event at the US Olympic Trials. Creese and Loxsom - along with fellow Gondak protégé Wade Endress - were also members of the winning DMR at the Big Ten Indoor Championships - the Nittany Lions' first victory in the event in men's program history.

Loxsom also proved his mettle in the sprints in 2012, as a member of the Nittany Lions' runner-up 4x400-meter relay at the NCAA Indoor Championships. The team - with Loxsom on the third leg - would go on to finish fourth in the event at the NCAA Outdoor Championships, running a school-record 3:01.52 in the preliminary round.

A proven recruiter, Gondak has brought in another stellar class in 2012, led by 4:03-miler Brannon Kidder from Lancaster, Ohio, and highly-touted middle distance star Za'Von Watkins from Liverpool, N.Y. Gondak was also instrumental in bringing graduate students Ricky West and Sam Masters to University Park. West, who recently graduated from the University of Missouri, comes in with All-America credentials in the 800-meters, while Masters owns several All-Conference finishes as a standout at the University of Tulsa.

The 2012 women's class is equally as accomplishment, led by high school cross country standout and Foot Locker qualifier Tori Gerlach of Pennridge High School. Gerlach's accomplishments extend to the track, as the Perkasie, Pa., native took top honors in the 3200 meters at the PIAA State Championships last spring. Also adding depth to the cross country roster is freshman Anna Boyert from Medina, Ohio, who also comes to Happy Valley with outstanding credentials in the distances.

Aside from his athletes' efforts on the track, the Doylestown, Pa., native has also had a huge impact on the Nittany Lions' success on the cross country course, including a Big Ten title by the women's squad in 2009, and NCAA-qualifying efforts by the women's squad in 2009, 2010, and 2011 and by the men's team in 2008, and 2010. The Nittany Lion women's squad placed 13th at the 2011 NCAA Cross Country Championships - the highest finish in nearly two decades.
