THE GAMES

The Mercyhurst Lakers and Penn State Nittany Lions will play their first two games of their four game season series. The Lakers will take the trip to State College in the first match up since the Lakers knocked Penn State out of the CHA Tournament in 2020.

THE COACHES

MIKE SISTI (Canisius '90) enters his 22nd season as the first and only head coach of the Mercyhurst women's hockey program. He holds a 501-185-55 career record. His win total is the second most among all-time Division I women's hockey coaches. Under his direction, the Lakers have won 15 conference titles, qualified for the NCAA Tournament 13 times and appeared in the Frozen Four four times. His efforts with the women's program have earned him numerous honors. Sisti was named Division I Coach of the Year in 2005 and USCHO.com Coach of the Year in 2007. He has been recognized as a finalist for Division I Coach of the Year on six occasions. Conference coaches have also named him coach of the year six times - five times in the CHA.

JEFF KAMPERSAL (Princeton '92) enters his fourth season at the helm of the Penn State program in 2020-21. Heading into the 2020-21 season, Kampersal ranks sixth in career victories among active Division I women's hockey coaches with 363, a total that also ranks seventh all-time. Penn State has reached the College Hockey America semifinals for three-straight seasons for the first time in its history under Kampersal's direction.

NOTES

PREVIOUS MATCHUP

Mercyhurst and Penn State last met in Buffalo at the CHA Tournament. The Lakers were able to win by a score of 4-1. Mercyhurst recieved goals from Alexa Vasko, Sarah Nelles while Liliane Perreault scored two goals for the Lakers.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Mercyhurst holds a 20-4-9 record vs Penn State while out scoring the Nittany Lions 106-45.

SCHEDULE UPDATE

This series was originally scheduled for February 12th and 13th. However due to COVID-19 protocols at Lindenwood and RIT both Penn State and Mercyhurst had an open weekend.

The Lakers will also play the Robert Morris Colonials on February 9th instead of the originally schedule game on February 16th at Robert Morris instead of at Mercyhurst. The Lakers and Colonials will also play their February 2nd game the Mercyhurst Ice Center instead of at Robert Morris, puck drop is scheduled for 2:05 PM.

SCOUTING PENN STATE

The Nittany Lions are off to a 6-1-1 start while being ranked 9th in the country in the latest USCHO.com poll. Penn State has been dominate this season as they are currently outscoring their opponents 24-14 while outshooting them 330-234 through their first eight games.

Penn State has not played a game since January 9th when they beat Robert Morris 4-1. They were supposed to play RIT this past weekend, however due to COVID-19 protocols at RIT that series was postponed.

Leading the way for the Nittany Lions has been freshman Kiara Zanon, she currently leads Penn State in goals (4), assists (7), and points (11). Senior Natalie Heising sits in second in points for the Blue and White as she has four goals and five assists to open the season. Zanon and Heising sit in the top two positions in CHA scoring.

Penn State has received 16 points from their defense core, leading the way has been junior Jessica Adolfsson who has accounted for three goals while adding an assist through the first 8 games.

In net for the Nittany Lions freshman Josie Bothun has started all eight games. She has stopped 220 of the 233 shots she has seen in her rookie year. Bothun sits atop the CHA leaderboard in winning percentage for goaltenders. She also has 1.60 Goals Against Average which places her in third among CHA Goalies.

UP NEXT

The Lakers will host Syracuse on January 29th and 30th in Erie, in the teams first match up of the season.

Penn State will head to Lindenwood to play the Lions on the 29th and 30th.

NOTES

LAKER RECORD

3-2-1 (3-2-1 CHA)

LAKER OUTLOOK

After winning three of four games against the RIT Tigers, the Lakers took the ice this past weekend to take on the Robert Morris Colonials in a home and home series that started in Erie. In the first game, Mercyhurst fell into a 2-0 hole. The Lakers started to climb out of the hole as Megan Korzack sped down the left side, drove to the net and tucked the puck past the Robert Morris goaltender. The Lakers got the goal that would tie the game from a deflection by Alexa Vasko late in the third period to send the game to overtime. Overtime solved nothing, as the Lakers and Colonials both earned their first ties of the season.

The teams then traveled to Moon Township to finish the weekend series. The Lakers jumped out to a 2-0 lead getting goals from Sara Boucher and Alexa Vasko. However, the Lakers could not hold the lead, the game once again went to overtime, this time the Colonials took the extra point as they scored at the 2:48 mark to win the game.

The Lakers will face the Penn State for the first time this season. Mercyhurst and the Nittany Lions will face off four times this season. The Lakers will travel to state college this week, while Penn State will travel to Erie on February 26th and 27th to end the regular season for both teams.

UP FRONT

The Lakers have received all of their goals from the forward group this season. Leading the way in goals has been freshmen Sara Boucher. Boucher has tallied four goals while adding two assists to start her college hockey career. Right behind Boucher is Megan Korzack who has scored three goals for the Lakers in her senior season, while adding two assists. Captain Alexa Vasko is currently on a three-game goal streak, the 2019-20 CHA Defensive Forward of the Year has also added 14 blocks while winning 58% of her faceoffs.

The Lakers have scored a total of 15 goals this season which puts them at fourth in the conference in scoring. Along with being soiled on the scoring side, the forward group has been able to help the defense and goalies by blocking 38 shots.

ON THE BLUELINE

The Lakers only added one defender to the team this season with six returners. The Laker defense has been the best in CHA allowing only eight goals through the first six games of the season.

Mercyhurst has also recieved six points and 47 shots from the backend with K.K. Thiessen tallying two points and 13 shots and Rachel Marmen adding two assists and 22 shots from the point which is fourth on the team in shots.

THE LAST LINE OF DEFENSE

Sophomore Jenna Silvonon has been the main goaltender for the Lakers this season. Slivonon has also been one of the best goalies in the CHA this season. She has posted 1.37 Goals Against Average, a .942 Save Percentage while having a 3-1-1 record and recording a shutout.

Ena Nyström who came to Mercyhurst this season after playing her freshman year at RPI has appeared in one conference game this season. She recorded 21 saves on 22 shots in her Mercyhurst debut. Despite allowing only one goal and owning a .955 save percentage Nyström is still looking to pick up her first career win despite starting in 23 games at RPI and owning a .915 save percentage.

WE ARE FAMILY

Grace and Sarah Nelles are only the second pair of siblings to be playing in the Mercyhurst Women's Program. The only other sisters to play for the Lakers were Shelby and Bailey Bram in the 2011-12 season. The last time two sisters recorded points in a game was March 3rd, 2012 against Robert Morris.

HONOR ROLL

Freshman Sara Boucher was named Rookie of the Week this past week, she has been off to a hot start tallying four goals and two assists in six games.

MAKING COACHING HISTORY

When Women's Hockey Head Coach Michael Sisti became only the second head coach in women's college hockey history to reach 500 wins, on December 11th against RIT, the Mercyhurst Hockey program entered a league of their own. With Sisti reaching 500 and Men's Hockey Head Coach Rick Gotkin over 500 wins, Mercyhurst became the only school with both of thier hockey coaches to reach 500 career wins.

WHERE THEY RANK

Both Sara Boucher and Megan Korzack are in the top 10 in the conference for points per game. While Boucher is ranked second in the CHA in goals per game. Jenna Silvonon is second in the conference in Goals Against Average, and Winning Percentage.

BEST VS. BEST

The Lakers currently owns the top spot in scoring defense in the conference, they have only 8 goals over the first 6 games. On average only giving up 1.33 goals a game. Penn State holds the top spot in scoring offense averaging 3 goals a game.

BATTLE OF SPECIAL TEAMS

Mercyhurst has only allowing one goal on 23 powerplay opportunities this season, while converting three times on their 22 opportunities. Penn State has scored six times on 37 powerplay attempts while only allowing four powerplay goals on 29 attempts.

COACHES CORNER

Michael Sisti enters his 22nd season behind the Lakers' bench. With a 501-187-56 record, Sisti has installed a winning tradition in the program. Sisti reached win number 500 on December 11th against RIT. Also returning are assistant coaches Kelley Steadman and Beth Hanrahan. Steadman begins her forth season while Hanrahan starts her third.

HEAD COACH • 22ND SEASON • CANISIUS '90

Mike Sisti starts his 22nd year as head coach of the women's hockey program, the only head coach the program has ever known.

Sisti has turned a small-college women's hockey program into one of Division I's premier powers. The Lakers have won 498 games, have captured 17 conference titles, and made ten consecutive trips to the national tournament - an NCAA record - before the streak was halted in the 2014 season. Sisti has 336 wins compared to just 42 losses in conference play during his tenure as Lakers' head coach. Among other notables, Sisti recruited and coached Meghan Agosta, who became a four-time All-American while at Mercyhurst, the leading scorer in Division I women's hockey history, a three-time Olympic gold medalist for Team Canada, and hockey MVP of the 2010 Vancouver Olympic Games. Forward Vicki Bendus garnered the team's first Patty Kazmaier Award in 2010 while Agosta was a four-time finalist for the sport's highest honor.

After three years as an assistant men's coach at Canisius College in Buffalo, Sisti came to Mercyhurst in 1993 and spent his first six years as men's varsity assistant coach and then associate head coach. He was named head coach of the new women's program in March of 1999.

His efforts with the women's program have earned him numerous honors. Sisti was named Division I Coach of the Year in 2005 and USCHO.com Coach of the Year in 2007. He has been recognized as a finalist for Division I Coach of the Year on six occasions. Conference coaches have also named him coach of the year eight times in the CHA.

Off the ice, Sisti has developed his players into outstanding student-athletes. For 18 consecutive years, the team's cumulative grade point average has been above a 3.0. The Lakers have also been very active in the community. The team annually donates over 200 hours on various community service projects, and spends time at several local schools instructing students on life skills.

Prior to coaching, Sisti played four years of collegiate hockey at Canisius College. A four-year letterwinner, Sisti ranks among Canisius's best in several categories, including career points (163) and goals (74). He also shares the school record for most goals in a game with four and holds the single-season record for hat tricks with six. Sisti helped the Griffis to a 21-11-0 record with 13 goals and 19 assists as a freshman. He was named the team's top forward for his 33-goal, 57-point effort in 1988-89, and served as team captain for his senior season in 1989-90. A 1990 graduate of Canisius, Sisti was inducted into the Canisius Athletic Hall of Fame in 2002.
