SERIES NOTES

- The Lindenwood women's hockey team concludes a stretch of three-consecutive road series' with a two-game set at Penn State. The CHA series will be played at Pegula Ice Arena in University Park, Pa. Puck drop is scheduled for 11:00 a.m. ET on Friday, and 1:00 p.m. ET on Saturday.

- Lindenwood and Penn State have faced-off 18 times dating back to the start of the 2012 season. The Lady Lions hold the edge in the all-time series, 9-7-2. Last season, Lindenwood had a 2-1-1 record against Penn State, including a 1-1-0 record in University Park, Pa.

- Penn State was chosen to finish in fourth place in the CHA preseason coaches poll, while Lindenwood tied for fifth place in the poll. The Nittany Lions are currently in second place in the conference standings.

- The Nittany Lions enter the weekend with a 4-6-2 record, and a 3-1-0 from within the CHA. Most recently Penn State split a two-game series at conference rival, Mercyhurst. The Nittany Lions currently boast the CHA's top-scoring offense, at 2.83 goals per game. Penn State is led offensively by Laura Bowman and Amy Petersen, who are both ranked in the top-eight nationally in points scored. Bowman has poured in 18 points this season, while Petersen has recorded 16 points. Daniela Paniccia has started seven games in net for the Nittany Lions, while accumulating a .937 save percentage and a 2.06 goals against average.

LINDENWOOD NOTES

- Jolene deBruyn and Morgan Skinner each started one game in goal for the Lady Lions at Ohio State. deBruyn turned in 46 saves over the two-game stretch, raising her save-percentage to .903.

- In the two games in Columbus, Ohio, Shannon Morris-Read sent a team-high nine pucks towards the net. Sarah Bobrowski ranked second on the team with eight shots on goal.

- Ally Larson blocked a team-leading six shots during the series at Ohio State, bringing her total to 10 blocks for the season. Tae Otte leads the team for the season with 13 blocked shots.

- Kirsten Martin won 13 of her 18 faceoffs against the Buckeyes, leading the team with a .722 winning-percentage in the circle. Martin has won a team-high 35 draws this season.

- The Lady Lions penalty-kill unit ranks in the top-20 nationally, operating with an 85.7 percent efficiency rate. Lindenwood has successfully killed off 15 of its last 16 opportunities dating back to Oct. 7 versus Northeastern.

- Lindenwood is the third-least penalized team in the country, averaging 7.25 penalty-minutes per game.

- Eight of the current Lady Lions have tallied at least one-point in their careers against Penn State. Carrie Atkinson is the leading point scorer against the Nittany Lions, totaling two goals and three assists in her career against Penn State.

Head Coach Scott Spencer

Scott Spencer is in his third season as the head coach of the Lindenwood women's ice hockey program in 2016-17. He has been a hockey coach for the last 13 years, including the last 10 in women's hockey.

In 2015-16, the Lady Lions recorded nine wins. That total included a 4-2 win over nationally-ranked Northeastern, marking the first time Lindenwood defeated a team that would go on and compete in the NCAA Division I National Tournament. The Lady Lions won six road games and also won a game for the first time in the CHA Tournament.

Lindenwood continued to improve defensively, allowing a school record 2.57 GAA, 0.87 lower than before Spencer arrived at Lindenwood. The team also allowed under 30 shots per game for the first time in program history. Offensively, the team scored 64 goals, a new program record against NCAA Division I competition.

Two Lady Lions were named first-team all-CHA in Nicole Hensley and Shara Jasper, and Shannon Morris-Readde was an all-rookie selection. Hensley was also named to the United States national team for the 2016 World Championships, and helped Team USA win a gold medal at the event. Academically, 17 players earned CHA Academic Honors. Hensley was also named a first-team Academic All-American.

In his first year in charge of the program in 2014-15, the Lady Lions had the best season in their short NCAA history. Lindenwood reached double-figure wins for the first time, picked up at least one win over every CHA program, and had a win over three WCHA programs, including nationally-ranked Bemidji State. Lindenwood became a tough team to beat at the Lindenwood Ice Arena, winning more games than its first three seasons combined.

Under Spencer, Lindenwood's offense had its highest goals per game total against NCAA Division I competition. On defense, the Lady Lions' GAA was 0.41 lower than the previous season, and they allowed nearly 10 shots a game fewer than 2013-14.

Spencer helped two players earn first-team all-conference honors in Hensley and Jasper. Hensley also earned Academic All-American honors, and was one of 16 players to earn CHA Academic honors.

Prior to coming to Lindenwood, Spencer was the Director of Female Hockey and Female Midget Head Coach at the Pursuit of Excellence Hockey Academy in Kelowna, British Columbia for two years. Pursuit of Excellence is one of North America's premiere hockey academies and Spencer oversaw all facets of the women's program, as well coaching both under-19 AAA hockey teams.

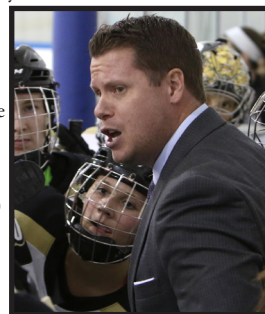

His Pursuit of Excellence teams had success on the ice, including being a bronze medalist at the 2013 World Sport School National Championships and a silver medalist at the 2014 World Sport School National Championships. Seven players at Pursuit of Excellence became under-18 national team members, and 100 percent of his graduates moved on to play college hockey. His teams had an overall record of 77-38-20 in his two seasons at Pursuit of Excellence.

In 2011-12, Spencer was an assistant coach at Ohio State University. He helped the Buckeyes go 16-16-4 that season, an improvement by several wins over the last season. Among the players he coached that season included Natalie Spooner, an All-American and finalist for the Patty Kazmaier Player of the Year Award.

Spencer played collegiately at the ACHA Division I level for Minot State. He was a four-year letterwinner and helped the team make three national tournaments. Minot State finished in the top-10 nationally three times, including coming in third in 2001-02. He was a team captain and earned the Player's Player Award in 2000-01 for his work ethic and putting the team first. Spencer received honorable mention honors at the 2002 ACHA National Tournament.

Spencer received a Bachelor of Science degree from Minot State in 2002 in Physical Education, with a minor in Coaching. He earned his Master's in Sports Studies from Bemidji State in 2012.
