THE GAME: Penn State will play four of its next five games on the road beginning Sunday at No. 4 Michigan. The Wolverines will be PSU's sixth ranked foe of the season and fourth in the Top 10. The Lions are 2-16 all-time at Michigan and last won in Ann Arbor in 2010, 55-51. UM has won the last four meetings in the series, including 71-53 in Crisler Arena last year. UM leads the series overall 27-11. This will be the first of two meetings between the teams this season within a span of three games and 10 days. Penn State is seeking its first conference win of the season and will look to end a 16-game road losing skid, dating to a victory at Boston College in November 2011, and a 14-game Big Ten road losing skid dating to a victory at Minnesota on March 6, 2011.

CHAMBERS DONATES $14,200 TO THON: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers presented a check for $14,200 at Penn State Dance Marathon 2013 Friday afternoon before the team departed for Michigan. Chambers had pledged to donate $10 for every Penn State student that attended Thursday night's contest with Iowa. THON 2013 kicked off Friday in the Jordan Center and runs February 15-17 with over 700 dancers and thousands of student volunteers taking part in the 46-hour event. The world's largest student run philanthropy, THON raised a record of more than $10.6 million last year and has raised more than $89 million since its inception in 1977 to support the Four Diamonds Fund at Penn State Hershey Children's Hospital.

• Patrick Chambers, D.J. Newbill, Jon Graham, Kevin Montminy, Patrick Ackerman and on-campus recruiting coordinator David Caporaletti shaved their heads as part of the No Hair, Don't Care campaign supporting THON.

GREAT GUARDS: Penn State's high scoring guard trio will all return for the 2013-14 season. With Jermaine Marshall and D.J. Newbill on pace to finish the 2012-13 campaign with around 800 career points each, they could give the Lions three 1,000-point scorers on the floor during the 2014 Big Ten season.

	Career Pts	20+ games	Double-digit	CH
Frazier	1,035	20	43	30
Marshall	759	6	40	29
Newbill	682	9	34	27
TOTALS	2,476	35	117

GUARDING THE ARC: Penn State has made considerable improvement in limiting opponent's threes, including an 0-10 effort by Purdue (2/5) for the first opponent shutout from the arc since November of 2006. Penn State is giving up just 5.5 threes per game to Big Ten opponents, a big improvement over the 7.9 per game allowed last season to Big Ten foes and 8.0 per game allowed in the non-conference season this year. The Lions have held seven Big Ten foes to five threes or less.

OFFENSE CLICKS VS IOWA: For the first time in a Big Ten game, Penn State had three players reach double-figure scoring in a close 74-72 loss to Iowa. D.J. Newbill (26), Jermaine Marshall (14) and Sasa Borovnjak (14) carried the scoring as Penn State posted a season-best 47.1% from three and equaled a season-high with eight threes, led by a career best three from Newbill. The Lions 72 points and 44.3% shooting overall were their best output in seven games and equaled a Big Ten season high of 72 points vs. Michigan State. The Lions' 17 assists, led by a career high 10 from Marshall, marked the most ever recorded in two seasons under coach Patrick Chambers, and were more than the team had posted in the previous two games combined.

NEWBILL HITS GROOVE/LONE PLAYER TO APPEAR IN THREE BIG TEN RANKINGS: Over his last eight games, sophomore guard D.J. Newbill is averaging 18.9 points, 4.2 assists and 5.1 rebounds per game while shooting 45-62 (72%) from the foul line. He has posted double-digit scoring in eight straight games, has three of his eight 20-point games on the year during the stretch, including season highs of 27 points vs. Michigan State and

TIM FRAZIER INJURY: WHAT'S MISSING

■ TIM FRAZIER was named to the preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier was named a first-team All-Big Ten selection last year after leading the Big Ten in assists (6.2) and finishing second in scoring (18.8) and steals (2.4).

■ stands 6th on the Penn State career assist charts with 459 after posting a record 198 last year and is 151 assists shy of breaking the all-time career record of 600 set by Freddie Barnes in 1992.

■ scored 208 field goals and had 198 assists to lead the nation being involved in 58.4% of Penn State's field goals last year. Only two other players in Division I were involved in 50% or more of their teams scoring.

NEWBILL ON POINT: D.J. Newbill, a natural off-guard, has taken over point guard duties since the injury to Tim Frazier in the fourth game of the season. He is logging big minutes at the position playing 36.2 per game to rank second in the Big Ten. Working through growing pains at the position, He posted his best floor game with just one turnover and six assists to go with 15 points in 39 minutes vs. Ohio State Aaron Craft (1/26). He has posted double-digit points in 21 of 24 games with EIGHT 20-point outings, including a career high 27 vs. Michigan State (1/16) and 26 vs. Iowa (2/14). He has led the Lions in scoring 10 times since Frazier's injury, posting career highs on four occasions including a 23-point, 12-rebound effort vs. Duquesne for his first double-double at Penn State and seventh career. His EIGHT 20-point outings on the year are third most in the Big Ten.

A NEW MARSHALL IN TOWN: Junior Jermaine Marshall has emerged as not only one of Penn State's main weapons, ranking 7th in the Big Ten scoring 14.7 ppg, but a primary ball handler, sharing duties at the point with D.J. Newbill, and a generator of turnovers, leading the team with 37 steals (7th in the Big Ten, 1.5 spg) and 86 deflections. He had two double-doubles on the year, posting his first with career highs of 29 points and 10 rebounds vs. Michigan State (1/16). His combined point and rebound total (39) were the most by a Nittany Lion since Talor Battle posted 28 points and 13 rebounds (41) in a 69-61 win over Michigan in 2008. He logged his second double-double with 14 points and a career high 10 assists vs. Iowa (2/14), the most assists for a Lion since Tim Frazier posted 11 in a game in November of 2011. Marshall has two 20-point games on the year. He has led Penn State in scoring NINE times on the year. He also had a career high five steals in the win over New Hampshire. Marshall is the Lions' leading active career scorer (discounting the injured Tim Frazier) with 759 points and three-point shooter with 89 career threes.

QUOTABLE

"We're playing hard. We're playing together. We just need that one stop, or we need that one shot to go down. I feel like we're getting better."

- Chambers after loss at Iowa (1/31)

"He's like Rocky Balboa...he kept coming and coming. He took a 1,000 punches from Oladipo, Hulls and Sheehey, but he kept coming. He has a boxer's mentality. He's just going to keep throwing punches. I think you saw a leader emerge. I was really proud of him."

- Chambers on D.J. Newbill's play at Indiana (1/23)

"They're so physical, they're great at going in and kind of seeking contact and bouncing you off and scoring the ball. They're really strong guys. That backcourt with (Tim) Frazier next year is going to be really good."

- Nebraska coach Tim Miles on PSU guards (1/19)

"I'm looking at that player in the suit (Frazier) that was there today, and that player would make a big difference on that team. Those two wing guys and then a player of his caliber at the point - it's going to be an impressive team next year."

- Michigan State Coach Tom Izzo (1/16)

"Do I miss him?...I don't miss him. He's attached to my hip everyday. This is going to turn out to be a blessing in the long run. I really believe that. He helped run practice the other day. I ran the blue team and Tim ran the white team."

- Patrick Chambers on Tim Frazier

"This is definitely a different group in the way they approach things. I think the mentality is different; this isn't the same old Penn State. This is a group that is playing with confidence, this is a group that doesn't fear failure."

- Patrick Chambers on his team

"I wanted someone to help D.J. lead the team. They have to earn it. They have to bring it everyday...It has to be a consistent 30 days. Those two guys for the last month or so since Tim has gone down, have stepped up. They've earned the right to be named captains"

- Patrick Chambers on naming Nick Colella and Jermaine Marshall to join D.J. Newbill as team captains prior to Big Ten play.

"I think Pat's (Chambers) doing a fantastic, fantastic job, maybe one of the best jobs in the country. I played against his team when they had (Tim) Frazier and for them to be doing what they're doing without him, that's a major, major credit to Pat and those kids."

- Jim Ferry, Duquesne Head Coach

"I think it's those 15 guys in the locker room. They know what people say about them. They hear it, they read it and they see it on Facebook and Twitter. They're a resilient bunch and they're going to keep pressing on and keep competing and getting better."

- Patrick Chambers on team finishing non-con season 6-2 since loss of Tim Frazier

"Awesome, just awesome. I love it. That's what it's supposed to be. That's a Philly guard. If you don't come out of a game with blood or scraped up knees and two different sneakers, then you didn't play hard. He's obviously played extremely hard for 39 minutes."

- Patrick Chambers on D.J. Newbill's effort vs. Duquesne in which he had to switch shorts due to blood and blew out the side of one of his shoes.

He ranks FOURTH in the Big Ten posting 7.0 rpg. He logged his second career double-double with 14 points and 10 boards vs. Army.

TAYLOR A THREE-POINT THREAT:

Freshman Brandon Taylor has proven to be an effective offensive performer early in his career when he can avoid early foul trouble that limits his minutes. A pick and pop, stretch four, he led Penn State in scoring for the first time on his career with 11 at Purdue (1/13). He shot a team-best 37.8% from the arc during the non-conference season, but has seen that dip to 24.0% (12-50) in conference play. STARTING LINE-UPS:

7 on the year; 4 in B1G

70 of 120 starts on the year by freshmen or sophomores.

Penn State employed 14 different starting line-ups on the 2011-12 season, nine in Big Ten play.

COLELLA LEADS LIONS IN CHARGES TAKEN & DIVES: Among the team leaders in overall "Attitude Points" on the season, senior Nick Colella leads the team with 13 charges taken and 56 dives on the year emblematic of the grit and hustle of a former walk-on. After a rough start to the season that saw him shoot 5-of-27 from three in the first eight games, he found his shot in the final four non-conference games going a team-best 11-of-20 (55%) from three to average 9.0 ppg. Included in that effort was a career high 15 points on a career-best 5-of-7 from three and a career-best four boards in the win vs. Duquesne. His five threes marked the most by a PSU player on the season. He is now third on the team with 24 threes on the year and has a team-leading three-point percentage of 32.4%. The senior captain has started the last six games. He made six straight starts in Big Ten play last year as well.

FOUL TROUBLE: Three Lions fouled out of the 58-49 loss to Purdue (2/5), including both post players Sasa Borovnjak and Jon Graham, and four had four or more at Nebraska. Penn State has had 15 disqualifications in Big Ten play and 23 on the year after having 13 and 19 all of last season. The hardest hit have been the Bigs with Borovnjak fouling out of three of the last six games and four in Big Ten play. Brandon Taylor has fouled out of three Big Ten games and four on the year and Graham and Travis have fouled out of two Big Ten games. Seven different Lions have fouled out of a Big Ten game. Penn State is suffering a 274-201 (+73) foul disparity in Big Ten play with opponents having two disqualifications.

FRAZIER REHAB GOING VERY WELL 11 WEEKS IN: Tim Frazier had successful surgery to repair his ruptured left Achilles tendon on Nov. 20. He hit the eight-week milestone since the surgery on Jan. 15 and marked the day by no longer requiring use of a walking boot. He will wear a wedge under his left heel for the next three weeks as he continued to stretch the tendon. Now in week 11, he is currently running in a pool two days a week and continuing rehab to stretch the tendon and remove scar tissue. He began working on an elliptical machine the week of Feb. 11 and is expected to begin walking on a weight suspended treadmill in the next week. He will begin jumping rope in weeks 14 to 18 post surgery. Frazier was in a cast for about three weeks before moving to a walking boot that gradually flattened his foot as the tendon stretched. He is expected to have about a six-month recovery period and, at the completion of the 2012-13 campaign, will apply for a NCAA Hardship Waiver to return for the 2013-14 season.

72 VS. MSU ENDS BIG TEN SCORING DROUGHT: Penn State's 47 points against Michigan State in the second half marked a high for a half in two seasons under Coach Chambers. The Lions eclipsed 70 points for the fifth time on the season and fifth in a stretch of seven home games. The 72 points and 48% shooting marked a PSU high in Big Ten play on the year. MSU entered the game ranked second in the Big Ten in scoring defense (57.7 ppg) and defensive shooting percentage (37.6%) and had allowed just one opponent to reach 70, a 74-70 win over Boise State. PSU posted 78.5 ppg in its final four non-conference games, but failed to eclipse 54 points in its first four Big Ten games, posting 49.5 ppg over that stretch. The Lions had logged three straight games with season lows in shooting (31.7% vs. Indiana, 31.6% vs. Northwestern in the Jordan Center and 25.9% (the lowest mark under Patrick Chambers) at Purdue) prior to the MSU game. The Lions 42 points in the loss at Purdue marked the fewest scored in two seasons under head coach Patrick Chambers.

FOUR STRAIGHT 70-POINT GAMES TO CLOSE NON-CON: Penn State posted its four best point (78, 80, 72 & 84) and assist totals (13, 15, 13 & 12) of the season in the last four non-conference games and three of its top for shooting games. The Lions shot 47% and scored 78.5 ppg in the last four non-con outings, an increase of nearly 20 ppg over their 58.9 ppg average over the first eight games of the year. The Lions' streak of four straight games of 70+ points was their longest since posting seven in November and December of 2008 and their 84-point outing vs. Duquesne in the final non-con game was their most since 2009.

■ Penn State went 6-2 in the eight non-con games after losing do-everything guard Tim Frazier to a season-ending Achilles injury. The Lions 8-4 record in the non-con season equaled their win total from last year (8-5), despite losing Frazier early in the fourth game of the year.

WE CAN RELATE: Penn State coach Patrick Chambers can relate to star guard Tim Frazier's recent injury, in fact Frazier is using the exact same motorized scooter Chambers used this summer after he underwent arthroplastic surgery to repair the knee joint on his left leg and was limited to riding the scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and the use of crutches for two months. Chambers has said the insertion of a wedge and six screws to re-align his knee joint was one of the toughest things he's had to deal with and will use the recent experience to help guide Frazier through his rehabilitation. Frazier's sister, Krystal, also suffered a ruptured Achilles, during a standout basketball career at Rice that saw her earn All-Conference USA honors. She returned from the injury to post 10 ppg in her senior season.

FRAZIER REMAINS ACTIVE LEADER: Since his season-ending Achilles injury, Tim Frazier has remained a vocal and active presence on the team attending every practice and shouting instructions and pulling teammates aside during breaks in the action. He is a virtual assistant coach in games, even delivering the pre-game scout in the locker room prior to the win over Delaware State. He has been particularly active in helping to guide D.J. Newbill in his transition to the point guard position.

FRAZIER SUFFERS SEASON-ENDING INJURY: Senior guard Tim Frazier, a pre-season candidate for both the Wooden and Naismith national player of the year awards, will miss the remainder of the 2012-13 season due to an injury suffered in the Nittany Lions' third game of the Puerto Rico Tip-Off in Bayamon, Puerto Rico. Frazier had played in every game (101) the last three plus seasons. He suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in his left leg and the 2012 first-team All-Big Ten guard underwent surgery to repair the injury on Nov. 20. A preseason All-Big Ten selection, Frazier was leading Penn State with 21.7 ppg and 5.0 apg per game and was second with 6.0 rebounds per game through three games. He suffered the injury in the Nittany Lions' fourth game, a Nov. 18 contest vs. Akron in Puerto Rico, leaving the floor at the 14:30 mark of the first half. Frazier, a two-time Academic All-Big Ten selection on schedule to graduate in May with a degree in Supply Chain and Information Systems from the Smeal College of Business, is eligible to apply for an NCAA medical Hardship Waiver after the completion of the 2012-13 campaign. He had posted 25 straight double-digit scoring game, 14 of which were 20+ point outings, and had led Penn State in scoring in 28 of the last 35 games, scoring 20+ points in nine of his last 13, prior to the Akron game.

FRAZIER NAMED TO WOODEN TOP 50: Tim Frazier was named to the Wooden Award Men's Preseason Top 50. He is the second Nittany Lion in the last three years to be named to the preseason list joining Talor Battle who was named prior to the 2010-11 season. Frazier was among nine Big Ten players named to the list.

FRAZIER PRESEASON ALL-BIG TEN: Senior guard Tim Frazier was named to the Preseason All-Big Ten team by conference media voters. Frazier, the lone returning first-team All-Big Ten selection from last year, was joined on the preseason team by Ohio State's Aaron Craft and Deshaun Thomas, Michigan's Trey Burke and Indiana's Cody Zeller who was also named the preseason POY.

BIGGER, STRONGER, FASTER: Some highlights of Penn State's physical improvement under strength coach Brad Pantall:

TIM FRAZIER: Added 18 reps to his 185-pound bench press since arriving at Penn State and can now do 19, one shy of the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his max bench press by more than 115 pounds to over 300 pounds entering his final season...posted a pro-lane agility time (10.0) and 3/4 court sprint time (3.09) better than the NBA combine bests...has added 30 pounds of muscle since arriving at Penn State.

JON GRAHAM: Added four inches to his vertical leap...added 11 reps to his 185-pound bench press to now be able to perform a team high 24, far above the 2012 NBA Combine best of 20...increased his max bench press from 215 to 325.

ROSS TRAVIS: In the past year, Travis has increased his bench press max from 245 to 310 and his reps on the 185-pound bench from 10 to 22. He increased his leg press max from 325 to 615 and added 2.5 inches to his vertical (31.5). He increased his weight from 203 to 220 while maintaining his body fat and can touch a team-best 16 inches above the rim.

NICK COLELLA: Added more than six inches to his vertical leap and improved his pro-lane agility time to 10.0, tying the Penn State team record and beating the 2012 NBA Combine best...improved his bench press by 75 pounds to over 300 pounds.

SASA BOROVNJAK: Cut his weight from 242 to 230 pounds and reduced his body fat by five percent...Improved his bench over 300 pounds while cutting one second off his pro-lane agility time.

CHAMBERS HAS AN EVENTFUL OFF-SEASON: It was an eventful off-season for head coach Patrick Chambers as he and wife, Courtney, welcomed their third child, Caitlin, to the family on March 23, he underwent reconstructive knee surgery on his left leg on May 11 and his father, John "Rube", passed away on June 11 after a long battle with Alzheimers. Chambers underwent arthroplastic surgery, which involved resetting the top of the tibia below the knee to change the angle of the joint. The energetic coach was limited to riding a scooter and non-weight bearing crutches for six weeks and was on crutches for two months. He began walking short distances without crutches on July 6 and after months of rehab returned to normal mobility in August.

STAFF TIES: Patrick Chambers began forming his first Penn State coaching staff by naming his former Episcopal Academy high school teammate Eugene Burroughs as associate head coach, the first of three assistants with strong ties to Philadelphia. Chambers and Burroughs both played for legendary coach Dan Dougherty in Philadelphia in the late 80's early 90's. Burroughs previously had worked as associate head coach at Navy. Former Villanova assistant Keith Urgo also joined the staff as an assistant. The pair worked together on Villanova's 2009 NCAA Final Four staff and Urgo worked under Jay Wright for four seasons. Brian Daly followed Chambers from Boston University where he was associate head coach under Chambers. Daly is a former Philadelphia high school standout and player at Saint Joseph's and was a highly successful high school coach at his alma mater, Monsignor Bonner HS in Philadelphia.

GET ON THE FLOOR: Patrick Chambers places an emphasis on "dives" during a basketball game and has his staff chart them with a goal of achieving at least 14 "dives" per game. Chambers has established an "Attitude Club" in which players attempt to record enough hustle points during practices and games to become a member. Penn State charts "Attitude Points" during every practice and game and announces winners at the end of every practice. Modeled after similar programs used by longtime NBA coach Pat Riley and Chambers' mentor, Villanova's Jay Wright, the club charts hustle plays, extra passes, charges drawn, dives on the floor, screen assists, shot contests, tap backs, deflections, etc.

MAKING A RUN

Coach Patrick Chambers has instilled a "never say die" attitude in his Nittany Lion teams. To that end, Penn State has battled back from several double-digit second half deficits in Big Ten play in the last two seasons to challenge some of the top teams in the league both at home and on the road, refusing to go quietly.

CHAMBERS & THE POST-SEASON: Coach Patrick Chambers missed having a team play in the post-season for the first time in his collegiate coaching career last season and has been a part of the post-season in seven of his eight seasons as a collegiate coach. In his previous five seasons as a member of the Villanova coaching staff and two as head coach at Boston University, all of his teams reached post-season play including six NCAA Tournament appearances and one CBI appearance. Chambers has been a part of 17 NCAA Tournament games, helping Villanova advance to the tournament every year and make four NCAA Sweet 16 appearances and reach the 2009 NCAA Final Four. In his first season at BU, he guided the Terriers to their first post-season win since 1959 with a victory in the CBI and the following year led BU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002.

GREAT GRAD RATE

Coach Patrick Chambers' Nittany Lions ranked second in the Big Ten with a Graduation Success Rate (GSR) of 92 percent, 24 percent higher than the national average (68%), according to statistical information released by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). The NCAA's annual study of institutions nationwide revealed that Penn State student-athletes at the University Park campus earned a GSR of 88 percent compared to the 80 percent average for all Division I institutions for students entering from 2002-03 through 2005-06. The 88 percent figure was third to Northwestern (97) and Illinois (89) among Big Ten Conference institutions. Penn State basketball's NCAA four-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score of 995 through 2009-10 tied for the best among men's basketball teams in the Big Ten and was well above the national average of 945. Penn State and Michigan State tied for the Big Ten's highest APR figure, marking the fourth consecutive year the Nittany Lions ranked among the top three in the Big Ten. The four-year federal graduation rate average for University Park student-athletes was 78 percent, second to Northwestern (88) among Big Ten schools, and significantly above the 64 percent Division I average.

Following completion of the fall semester, two Nittany Lions (Kevin Montminy & Tim Frazier) earned Dean's List honors with a 3.5 GPA or higher and seven Lions posted a 3.0 GPA or higher. Montminy posted a 4.0 GPA.

PSU held MSU to just 29 first half points on 40% shooting, but saw the Spartans explode for 52 in the second half. The Lions led 36-35 with 15:16 to play when Payne took over scoring 16 points in six minutes to give MSU a 54-44 lead to 9:11 to go. Marshall scored 22 and Newbill 18 in the second half as PSU cut a 16-point MSU lead to five, 71-66, with 2:06 to play but could get no closer. Penn State used a 12-0 run to go from 10 down to up two, 43-41, on Nebraska with 11:56 to play, but faltered at the foul line down the stretch and saw the Huskers get a career high 29 points on 10-of-11 shooting from freshman Shavon Shields. Jermaine Marshall scored all of his team-leading 18 points in the second half as PSU challenged but saw NU rebuild a seven-point lead in part due to a perfect 16-of-16 performance at the foul line (14-14 in the second half). A Marshall three had PSU within three with 32 seconds to play when D.J. Newbill (11 pts) got a steal and NU was called for a flagrant foul which resulted in four free throws and PSU possession. PSU hit just 1-of-4 at the line and saw Marshall get fouled on the ensuing possession but go 0-of-2 at the foul line as Nebraska held on for the victory. PSU shot 38 percent and 15-24 (62.5%) at the foul line while NU hit 47% and got 15 points and three treys from Ray Gallegos.

Penn State used a 17-4 run to build its largest lead in Big Ten play, 21-12, late in the first half and held Purdue without a three and to a Big Ten opponent low of 58 points, but couldn't overcome another tough shooting night in dropping its 10th straight game. D.J. Newbill led the Lions with 17 points and a career high tying seven assists while playing all 40 minutes, but was the only Penn State player to reach double figures as second leading scorer Jermaine Marshall struggled hitting 2-of-14 for seven points. PSU shot 30 percent and 2-of-20 from three and was out-scored 18-9 at the foul line by a Purdue team that shot 40 percent and was 0-10 from three. Ronnie Johnson led Purdue with 16 points as the small, quick guard gave PSU's bigger guards trouble. Fellow freshman A.J. Hammons had 15 points and 12 rebounds and was a major factor in fouling out three Lions, including posts Jon Graham and Sasa Borovnjak, and Purdue getting to the foul line 29 times.
