KEY STORYLINES

CONFERENCE LEADERS: Ashlyn and Lavoile-Brice turned in impressive performances last week and continue to be leaders in their stat categories. Ashlyn's 17.0 points per game ranks top in the conference with only one other player so far eclipsing 100 points. The freshman Lavoile-Brice continues to be one of the top rebounders in the Big South averaging 8.7 per game and 61 which ranks second overall and most among any freshman.

MIDWAY POINT: The Highlanders are currently in the midst of a six-game road trip with Wednesday's meeting marking the midway point of the stretch. After facing Penn State, Radford will continue north towards Niagara Falls, N.Y. to take on Niagara on Saturday to open the December slate. After the trip to Niagara, Radford will stick much closer to home with visits to Virginia Tech (Dec. 10) and Liberty (Dec. 13).

RADFORD vs. PENN STATE: Radford and Penn State have met just once and that meeting wound up being a historic one. In 2018, the Highlanders and Nittany Lions met in University Park, Pa. for the first round of the WNIT and it was Radford who came out with the 63-62 OT victory to advance. Four Highlanders reached double figures scoring in the contest including Destinee Walker, Janayla White, Jayda Worthy and Khiana Johnson. The WNIT win was, at the time, the first such win for the Big South since 2013 and still stands as the conference's only WNIT win since 2013.

2023-24 Women's Basketball

Game Duration: 1:35
Attendance: 100

SAN JUAN, P.R. – The Radford women's basketball program fell in another tough game Friday afternoon 72-55 to Northern Illinois as the opposing Huskies used an impressive second half and 50% three-point shooting to pull away.

The first 20 minutes of Friday's contest featured a back and forth affair between the two squads. Northern Illinois wouldn't waste any time getting its three-point shooting off to a hot start for an early 11-6 lead. Pairs of makes by Ashlyn Traylor-Walker and Taniya Hanner kept the scoring close while a 5-0 run by Maci Rhoades made it just a 19-15 deficit after the first quarter.

The offense stayed hot going into the second quarter as Hanner scored four straight points and Olivia Wagner added a make for a 6-0 run by Radford to tie the game at 21-all with 7:21 left in the half. Hanner would tie the game at 23-all and Ashlyn gave Radford a lead with a free throw 24-23 with 2:53 left in the half.

The scoring would go cold for Radford after that, however, as Northern Illinois finished the half on a 5-0 run over the final two minutes to lead 28-24 at halftime. The scoring streak ran into the second half for the Huskies as the run grew to 11-0 before Ashlyn halted the run with an and-one opportunity.

Trailing 34-27 the Huskies were able to pull away from deep range. Northern Illinois averages over 30 three-point tries a game and used every bit of it today hitting 10 of 16 three-point tries in the second half alone. The lead would balloon to as much as 25 for Northern Illinois as Radford's shooting went cold at the wrong time.

In the final quarter of play Radford got to sub in some fresh legs and plenty of Highlanders benefited. Pa'Shence Traylor-Walker took full advantage of her opportunity in the fourth quarter scoring all 11 points in those final ten minutes for a career-high with Radford. Joi Williams added a pair of assists while Emma Fox pulled down a pair of rebounds and Kirby Brown also scored her first points since the season opener. Freshman Arshae Jackson also made her collegiate debut in the closing minutes.

MIKE MCGUIRE

HEAD COACH (ELEVENTH SEASON)

▶ @coachmcguire

▶ @mamcguire77

Mike McGuire has become a household name in the New River Valley thanks to his success on the court, his involvement in the community and his reputation as a man of great character. His time at Radford has been full of joyous moments and unforgettable seasons, leading his teams to four WNIT postseason appearances in the past seven seasons as well as an NCAA Tournament berth in 2019. He is currently ranked tied for fifth in Big South Conference history in overall and conference wins.

McGuire owns the third-best winning percentage of any coach in program history with an overall record of 142-98 (.591). He has gone 102-50 (.671) in Big South play and has led the Highlanders to two Big South regular season championships and one tournament championship. Radford is on a streak of six straight seasons with a winning record in Big South play going 96-36 over that stretch. The Highlanders have truly risen to defend the Dedmon Center as they are 77-30 at home in the McGuire era.

Now entering his ninth season at the helm of the Radford women's basketball program after taking the position on April 24, 2013, he is widely recognized as one of the up-and-coming head coaches in the nation. McGuire quickly laid a solid foundation when he arrived at Radford and has successfully seen his vision come to fruition. For the past five seasons the Highlanders have been selected in the top-5 in the Big South preseason poll, including a three-year span being selected as No. 1 (2017-2019).

McGuire has been recognized three times as the Big South Coach of the Year (2015, 2018, 2019), making him the first coach in program history to achieve the feat. He collected his 100th career Big South win, the first Highlander coach to do so in program history, during the 2020-21 campaign against Charleston Southern on February 20, 2021. His hard work and dedication to the program have been on display day-in and day-out for many years, proving that no one could be more deserving of that recognition.

Under his direction there have been 22 Highlanders named All-Big South including 2018 Defensive Player of the Year – Jayda Worthy, four VaSID All-State honorees, and the 2018-19 tournament MVP Lydia Rivers. The Highlanders earned their first ever Big South Conference Sportsmanship Award following the 2018-19 season and the program has also excelled like never before in the classroom, earning an APR score of 1,000 across the last four years. Academically during McGuire's tenure Radford has had seven conference All-Academic selections with Jen Falconer named to the VaSID Academic All-State team for the 2018-19 season.

The Highlanders have made a habit out of upsetting Power Five opponents under McGuire. In his five completed seasons, Radford has topped the likes of Penn State and Wake Forest. Victories over regional rivals such as Appalachian State, VCU, UNCG, Davidson and others have also buoyed the Highlanders' resume in recent years.

Overall	11 seasons	165-143	114-74		5 Postseason Berths

The 2020-21 season presented many unique challenges for the Highlanders amidst the COVID-19 pandemic. The team battled adversity all season long to finish with a 9-9 record in Big South play. Winning four of their last five games of the season, including an overtime victory over eventual Big South runner-up Campbell, Radford was poised to finish the season strong and make some noise in the Big South tournament until the team had to pull out of the tournament due to COVID-19. The team leaned on its senior leadership by Tina Lindenfeld, Makaila Wilson, Bryonna McClean and Ariel Williams as all four finished the season with over 100 points. Newcomers Ashley Tudor and Kyanna Morgan also finished the season with triple-digit point totals, helping ignite the Highlanders' hot finish to the season.

The 2019-20 Highlanders were selected as No. 1 in the coaches preseason poll to start the 2019-20 season, with Sydney Nunley and Khiana Johnson highlighting the all-conference preseason teams. Radford got back on track after a seemingly tough nonconference slate including power-5 teams like Vanderbilt, West Virginia, Ohio State, and Alabama. During the latter contest, Johnson reached the career milestone of 1,000 points to become the fifth player to do so under the direction of McGuire in the past six seasons. The Highlanders' battled their way to a Big South Tournament deciding victory on senior days, Hampton, to secure the would-be two-seed. Radford finished the campaign 17-12 overall and 15-5 in conference, this is the sixth consecutive season with double-digit conference wins. The Highlanders formally received the 2020 WNIT bid, for their fifth postseason bid in the last six seasons. Conference postseason awards for Radford were paced by the senior trio of Johnson (First Team), Nunley (Second Team), and Falconer (All-Academic). The Highlanders won 12 of their final 14 games before the season was canceled due to COVID-19, the postseason would not be played.

Radford put together one of the greatest campaigns in school history in 2018-19, going 26-6 overall and 17-1 in Big South play to clinch the regular season title and the top seed in the Big South Tournament. McGuire and the Highlanders would go on to win the Big South Championship and earn a bid to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 23 years. Another impressive feat was the 2018-19 team earned a spot in the final College Insider Mid-Major Poll, coming in at No. 25.
