MOUNTAIN HAWKS HEAD WEST FOR IN-STATE SHOWDOWN VS. PENN STATE

BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Lehigh men's basketball narrowly fell in their season-opener to Cornell by a score of 84-78 inside Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks now set their sights on the Penn State Nittany Lions, as the two teams are slated to face off on Friday night in Happy Valley.

Lehigh's matchup against Penn State will be the first of two Power 5 games for the Mountain Hawks this weekend. Following Friday's contest, Lehigh will hit the road and head south to take on #19 North Carolina on Sunday.

It has been quite some time since the Mountain Hawks and Nittany Lions have squared off against one another. The last meeting between the two Pennsylvania schools came in 2010 in University Park, resulting in a 70-56 victory for Penn State. Lehigh led 27-21 at the half before the Nittany Lions pulled away in the second frame.

The Mountain Hawks (0-1) opened their season on Monday at home as part of a doubleheader with Lehigh women's basketball. The men lost a tightly-contested matchup to Ivy League side Cornell in a game where neither team led by more than seven points. Junior Tyler Whitney-Sidney led the Mountain Hawks in scoring with 23 points, sophomore Bube Momah grabbed a team-high 10 rebounds in his first collegiate start while senior Jalin Sinclair added a team-best five assists in the loss.

Penn State (1-0) kicked off their season with a win over Delaware State on Monday by a score of 79-45. Kanye Clary led the Nittany Lions in scoring, posting 22 points on an efficient 7-11 from the field. College basketball veteran Qudus Wahab hauled in a team-high 13 rebounds while Ace Baldwin Jr.'s five assists led Penn State in the win.

The win marked the first with the Nittany Lions for head coach Mike Rhoades, who replaces Micah Shrewsbury a year after Penn State advanced to the Round of 32 in the NCAA Tournament.

Friday night's matchup will be the first game against a Big Ten opponent for Lehigh since the team lost to Rutgers in overtime 73-70 in 2021.

ALL-TIME VS. PENN STATE

Lehigh holds an 11-31 all-time record against Penn State, with the first matchup coming all the way back in the 1901-02 season, Lehigh's first playing collegiate basketball. The Mountain Hawks won that game by a score of 24-22. The two teams met most recently in 2010, resulting in a 70-56 win for the Nittany Lions.

SCOUTING THE NITTANY LIONS

Last season, Penn State posted a 23-14 record while going 10-10 in Big Ten conference play. The season was one of the most successful in program history, as the Nittany Lions advanced to the Round of 32 for the first time since 2001. The team was led by Jalen Pickett and Seth Lundy, both of whom were selected in the 2023 NBA Draft. The team welcomed head coach Mike Rhoades to State College this season after their previous head coach Micah Shrewsbury accepted the open position at Notre Dame. The Nittany Lions opened the 2023-24 campaign with a win at home against Delaware State, defeating the Hornets 79-45.

NITTANY LIONS LAST TIME OUT...

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. - The Penn State men's basketball team opened the Mike Rhoades era with a dominant 79-45 victory over Delaware State in the Nittany Lions' season opener Monday night inside the Bryce Jordan Center. It was a wire-to-wire win for the Nittany Lions. Penn State earned the 34-point victory by way of a 49.1 percent field goal percentage and 12 made 3-pointers. The Penn State defense forced 23 Delaware State turnovers and held the Hornets to a 28.8 percent clip from the field. Penn State was led by the sophomore duo of Kanye Clary (22 points) and Jameel Brown (20 points) who both posted career-best marks on opening night of the 2023-24 season. Brown drained six triples and Clary added seven boards in the duo's strong overall night. Qudus Wahab snagged 13 rebounds and added seven points in his first game as a Nittany Lion, while Zach Hicks rounded out the double-digit scorers with 12 points.

IF LEHIGH BEATS PENN STATE...

- Lehigh would defeat Penn State for the first time since 1987 and would snap a nine-game Nittany Lion win streak over the Mountain Hawks.
- The Mountain Hawks would win their first game against a Power 5 opponent since 2016 when Lehigh defeated Mississippi State 87-73.
- Lehigh would beat a current Big Ten opponent for the first time since the 2008-09 season when the Mountain Hawks defeated Rutgers 76-71.
- Head coach Brett Reed would improve his all-time record against Cornell to 1-2.

SEASON OPENER

- Lehigh opened their season at home against Cornell, falling to the Big Red by a score of 84-78.
- The Mountain Hawks led the contest 44-39 at halftime before getting outscored by 11 in the second half.
- Tyler Whitney-Sidney led the Mountain Hawks in scoring with 23 points on an efficient 72.7% from the field. Bube Momah hauled in a team-high 10 rebounds while Jalin Sinclair dished out a team-best five assists.
- Lehigh turned defense into offense, as the Mountain Hawks outscored Cornell in points from turnovers 24-12.

COACH REED PUTTING UP THE W'S

Head coach Brett Reed surpassed 250 wins as head coach of the Lehigh men's basketball team, putting him in elite company amongst Patriot League coaches. Reed earned his 250th win last season in an 80-76 win over Monmouth on November 27. He ranks second all-time in both total wins and Patriot League wins in league history, sitting only behind Lafayette's Fran O'Hanlon.

LAST MEETING NOTABLES

- Freshmen Anthony D'Orazio and Mackey McKnight combined for 30 of the team's 56 points in their collegiate debuts, but it wasn't enough, as the Lehigh men's basketball team dropped a 70-56 final in Friday's season opener at Penn State. The Mountain Hawks led, 27-21, at the half, but struggled in shooting only 33 percent from the field in the second stanza.

- D'Orazio led the offense with 17 points behind 6-of-9 shooting. Fourteen came in a span of only four minutes in the first half. McKnight chipped in with 13 along with three assists. Sophomore C.J. McCollum finished the season debut with seven. Junior John Adams and senior Rob Keefer each had six.

- A McKnight jumper gave the Mountain Hawks their largest lead of the game at 22-12, but Penn State responded to pull within six at the half. A Talor Battle three-pointer as time was expiring trimmed a nine-point Lehigh advantage to six heading into the locker room.

- The Nittany Lions came out strong in the second half and took their first lead since 6-4 when a Battle three-pointer made it 36-33 Penn State with 15:20 to go. A McKnight jumper pulled Lehigh back to within one, but the Nittany Lions went on an 8-0 run over the next 3:35. They continued the run, scoring 19 of the game's next 22 points to pull ahead, 57-40, with 6:14 to go, effectively putting the game away.

- Lehigh shot 37 percent from the field (19-for-52) while Penn State bounced back from a tough start to finish at 40 percent (25-for-62). The Mountain Hawks also shot 38 percent (8-for-21) from three-point range while the Nittany Lions were at 27 percent (6-for-22). Penn State led the battle of the boards, 45-27.

LEHIGH PICKED TO FINISH SECOND

- Lehigh men's basketball has been picked to finish second in the 2023-24 Patriot League Preseason Poll.

- The Mountain Hawks, who were selected to finish in third place last season, concluded the regular season as the third seed in the Patriot League standings. This year, Lehigh was picked to finish in second place with 127 points and two first-place votes. The team returns twelve players to its roster while welcoming in four first-year athletes to the program to replace last year's graduating class.

HIGGINS JR. AND WHITNEY-SIDNEY PRESEASON ALL-LEAGUE

- 2022-23 All-Patriot League selections Keith Higgins Jr. and Tyler Whitney-Sidney were both named to this year's Preseason All-League Team.

- Keith Higgins Jr., who began his Lehigh career as a Patriot League All-Rookie Team selection in 2021-22, followed up on his solid first-year campaign with an even better sophomore season. The West Hills, California native averaged 14.7 points per game on 47.6% field goal percentage on route to a first team All-Patriot League nod. Higgins scored in double figures in 24 of Lehigh's 30 games a season ago, including a career-high 28 points against Army West Point on December 30. He also solidified himself as one of the league's top three-point scorers, shooting a Patriot League sixth-highest 41.4% from outside the arc.

- Tyler Whitney-Sidney earned his spot on this year's Preseason All-League Team after leading the Patriot League in free-throw percentage at 88.4%. The junior out of Somerville, Massachusetts put up 13.3 points per game on 47.3% from the field while being named to the Third Team All-Patriot League after earning All-Rookie Team honors in 2021-22. Whitney-Sidney scored in double figures in 21 of his 29 outings and led the Mountain Hawks in steals with 39.

- McCollum is currently averaging 23.4 points per game this season, along with 5.6 assists and a career-best 5.6 rebounds (as of Nov. 4). His point average currently ranks 22nd in the NBA.

- McCollum scored a team-high 24 points in New Orleans' 111-104 season-opening victory over the Memphis Grizzlies on October 25. McCollum added six assists, four rebounds, two steals and knocked down six three-pointers in the win.

- McCollum has averaged 20+ points per game each of the previous eight years (2015-23) as one of the NBA's most elite scorers.

- On June 27, 2013, McCollum became the first player in school history to be selected in the NBA Draft. He declared for the 2012 draft, but officially withdrew from the NBA Draft on Monday, Apr. 9, 2012 to return to Lehigh for his senior season. McCollum went on to write a piece published on Sporting News' website titled "Why I'm returning to Lehigh for my senior year," citing earning his degree as one of the primary reasons.

UP NEXT...

Lehigh will head to Chapel Hill for a tilt with the #19 North Carolina Tarheels on Sunday, November 12, marking the first time that the Mountain Hawks will face UNC since the 1940-41 season.

BRETT REED

Head Coach - 17th Season

The 2023-24 season is Dr. Brett Reed's 17th as the Murray H. Goodman '48 Head Men's Basketball Coach at Lehigh University. In 16 years on the sideline, Reed has become the winningest coach in Lehigh history and has won nearly 70 percent of his games at Stabler Arena.

During the 2012-13 season, Reed won his 100th career game and became the fastest coach to 100 wins in the history of the Patriot League. The same season, he also became the all-time winningest coach in school history. Early in the 2018-19 season, he reached 200 career victories. Reed is the Patriot League's second longest-tenured coach.

Reed owns a 54.1 career winning percentage, among the best in Patriot League history and second among active coaches. Reed's 262 overall wins, and 146 Patriot League victories, are both second in league history.

Reed has consistently won at Lehigh, eclipsing 20 wins three times in a four-year span from 2009-13, which also included three national postseason appearances. The Mountain Hawks twice won the Patriot League and advanced to the NCAA Tournament while advancing to the College Basketball Invitational in 2013. Lehigh reached back-to-back Patriot League Championship Games in 2016 and 2017, marking the third and fourth times in eight seasons the Mountain Hawks played in the title game. In 2018-19, Reed led Lehigh to 20 victories for the fifth time in 10 years, finishing in the top four of the league standings in nine of the last 10 seasons. Reed's teams have played their best basketball when it matters, posting a 22-2 record in February between 2016 and 2018 (9-0 in 2016, 6-2 in 2017 and 7-0 in 2018). The Mountain Hawks are 27-5 in February from 2016-19, 32-9 from 2016-20 and 65-40 in the month during Reed's head coaching career.

Lehigh has developed plenty of impressive talent in Reed's tenure, led by two-time All-American and Patriot League Player of the Year C.J. McCollum '13 who was selected 10th overall by the Portland Trail Blazers in the 2013 NBA Draft and has developed into an NBA star. McCollum has finished at or near the top 20 in the NBA in scoring each of the last three seasons (23.1 in 2020-21, 22.1 in 2021-22, 20.9 in 2022-23). Tim Kempton '17 was a two-time Patriot League Player of the Year, who was invited to play for the Milwaukee Bucks in the NBA Summer League following graduation, leading to a professional contract overseas. Reed has recruited at an extremely effective rate, as 24 alumni have signed pro contracts throughout his tenure as head coach.

Reed will be most remembered for the 2011-12 season, when the Mountain Hawks posted a school-record 27 wins, along with the program's third Patriot League Championship (and second in the three years). The highlight was a historic 75-70 NCAA Tournament win over Duke, becoming only the sixth No. 15 seed to ever beat a No. 2 seed and second in the same day (Norfolk State defeated Missouri just hours earlier). McCollum led the way with 30 points as Lehigh never trailed by more than five and was leading for much of the game. Mountain Hawks' largest lead came in the final minute (eight) as the squad always had an answer for the Blue Devils' runs.

That game helped put the Lehigh men's basketball program squarely on the map as over the ensuing days, the Mountain Hawks were featured in an endless number of national media outlets including SportsCenter, ESPN Radio, Fox Sports Radio, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and much more. The Mountain Hawks entered the following season ranked among the mid-major's best teams by numerous outlets. The 2011-12 season also featured a school record for nonleague wins (12), the Mountain Hawks shattered the program's previous wins record of 22 (also set by a Reed-led team). Along the way, Lehigh played tough against power conference foes, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed Michigan State when the Mountain Hawks held a 38-35 lead at the half.

The Mountain Hawks earned two more wins against power conference foes during the 2014-15 season as Lehigh took a big step forward in its quest to return to championship contention. The Mountain Hawks' season was highlighted by two wins over power conference opponents DePaul and Arizona State, and a tight loss to eventual No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament Villanova. The Mountain Hawks rebounded by winning seven-of-eight games midway through the Patriot League schedule. Late in the season, Lehigh dominated eventual regular season champion Bucknell to clinch a home game in the Patriot League Quarterfinals.

Several individuals took their play to new levels in 2014-15, highlighted by Kempton who was named the league's Player of the Year as just a sophomore. Along with Kempton, freshman Kahren Ross became the Mountain Hawks' fifth Patriot League Rookie of the Year in the previous nine seasons, along with Marquis Hall (2007), Rob Keefer (2008), McCollum (2010) and Kempton (2014). Ross set a single-game record with 14 assists in Lehigh's thrilling win at Arizona State.

Lehigh rebounded from a slow start in 2015-16 winning 11 straight games beginning in early February, tying the program's 90-year school record. The Mountain Hawks surged to the No. 2 seed in the league tournament and went on to host the quarterfinals, semifinals and championship game. It marked the sixth time in seven seasons that Lehigh has played at least one Patriot League Tournament game at home. The Mountain Hawks wrapped up an undefeated February, their first undefeated month since November of 1993. When all was said and done, Lehigh finished the season with a school-record 13 Patriot League victories.

Kempton and Ross were each named first team All-Patriot League, marking the first time in school history Lehigh has featured multiple first team honorees. Ross broke the school's single-season record for assists (194), previously held by Mackey McKnight. Kempton was also named Patriot League Player of the Year for the second straight season, becoming just the third player in league history to earn the honor twice before his senior season. The others were McCollum and Colgate's Adonal Foyle. As a team, Lehigh finished the season 15th nationally in three-point percentage (39.2).

The Mountain Hawks finished the 2016-17 season with a 20-12 record, tied for second in the league standings before defeating Colgate and Boston University in the Patriot League Tournament to reach their second straight title game. Among Lehigh's wins was an 87-73 win at Mississippi State, the program's first-ever victory over the SEC. The Mountain Hawks also defeated eventual Ivy League Champion Princeton as one of four wins over NCAA Tournament teams. Kempton led the league in points (20.4) and rebounds (10.4) and was named a Final Five Finalist for Kareem-Abdul Jabbar National Center of the Year. He also became Lehigh's first-ever participant in the 2017 Reese's® Division I College All-Star Game, going on to score a game-high 21 points.

In 2017-18, Lehigh graduated over 4,000 points and 1,600 rebounds from the previous year, but still found itself near the top of the league standings. The Mountain Hawks won eight straight games to end the regular season tied for third place in the league. Among the victories was a thrilling overtime win over Bucknell in early February, handing the eventual Patriot League Champion its last defeat until the NCAA Tournament. Lehigh finished the season 4-1 in overtime. Ross finished his career as the Lehigh and Patriot League all-time career leader for assists. He was named second team All-Patriot League, becoming the program's first-ever four-time All-League honoree. Ross also became the first student-athlete in program history to finish his career 4-0 at archrival Lafayette. In one stretch, Lehigh exceeded 50 percent from three-point range in six straight games. The Mountain Hawks had double-digit makes in eight straight and 10-of-11, finishing the year 40.6 percent as a team, good for ninth nationally.

The hot shooting continued in 2018-19 as Lehigh knocked down 42.3 percent of its three-pointers, leading the nation and almost a full percent more than any other team in the country. It also marked a Patriot League record. The Mountain Hawks finished the year 20-11 and 12-6 in league play, their fifth straight season with 10+ Patriot League victories. Lehigh's 7-4 nonleague record was its best since 2011-12. Lance Tejada received All-League recognition for a second straight season, garnering first-team laurels for the first time. The Mountain Hawks did not lose two straight games all season, showing strong resiliency and an ability to bounce back. In the Patriot League Quarterfinals vs. Army, Lehigh came back from a double-figure second-half deficit to advance, marking the Mountain Hawks' third double-figure second-half comeback against the Black Knights of the season. In the Patriot League opener at Holy Cross, Lehigh erased an 18-point deficit to beat the Crusaders in overtime, the largest comeback in Reed's head coaching tenure. Tejada tied the program record for three-pointers with 10 in the victory, tying the mark set by Joe Knight and teammate Pat Andree. Less than a month later, Lehigh went on to erase a 19-point deficit at Army West Point.

The 2019-20 season saw the Mountain Hawks fight through some early struggles, but never quit and finished the season 6-3 over their final nine games. It included wins over three of the four eventual Patriot League semifinal teams, and a home Patriot League Tournament victory over Loyola. It was the 10th time in 11 seasons Lehigh hosted at least one PLT contest.

Another impressive season under Reed came in 2012-13 when the Mountain Hawks finished 21-10 and played in a national postseason tournament for a second straight season and third time in four years. Lehigh began the season 9-2, including an eight-game winning streak capped off by a 90-75 win at North Texas. McCollum went down with a season-ending injury at VCU on Jan. 5, but the Mountain Hawks wouldn't go away quietly. Lehigh posted a 10-4 record in league play to tie for second in the league standings. Reed picked up his 100th career win in style as the Mountain Hawks defeated Fairleigh Dickinson, 102-62. He went on to post his school record-breaking victory in a 72-43 win at Navy. Following the season, McCollum, the Patriot League's all-time leading scorer, became the first player in school history and second in league history selected in the NBA Draft.

Reed's first Patriot League Title as head coach came in 2009-10 when he led the Mountain Hawks to their second Patriot League Tournament Championship, first outright regular season league title, the most wins in school history (at the time) and the most-ever wins at Stabler Arena. The Mountain Hawks also led the Patriot League in scoring offense, scoring margin, three-point percentage, assist-to-turnover ratio and defensive rebounds. Their 220 made three-pointers established a new school record, later broken just four seasons later when Lehigh knocked down 235 in 2013-14. The 2009-10 team also set a mark for the most dominant run in the Patriot League Tournament's history, winning every game by 15 points or more. They also excelled in the classroom. Lehigh's starting five of Dave Buchberger, Zahir Carrington, Hall, McCollum and Gabe Knutson achieved an average grade point average of 3.2.

During Reed's second season at the helm in 2008-09 season, the Mountain Hawks continued to build upon the solid foundation established at the beginning of his Lehigh career. The accomplishments included the most overall road wins since 1991 and the school's first-ever victory over a Big East foe. Hall went onto become Lehigh's first-ever Patriot League Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, while Carrington was the school's first All-District selection since 1988.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Reed led the Mountain Hawks to the third most wins for a first-year headman in the 108-season history of Lehigh Basketball. Reed mentored the Mountain Hawks' second consecutive Patriot League Rookie of the Year in Keefer as Lehigh became the first school in the league to accomplish that feat. In addition, Reed oversaw a defensive unit that held league foe Bucknell to just 39 points on February 27, 2008 - the second fewest points ever allowed by the Brown and White since the inception of Patriot League play in 1990.

Reed has recruited and developed some excellent basketball talent over the course of his career at Lehigh. In addition to McCollum and several Rookie of the Year performers, there have been a host of others who have enjoyed individual accomplishments and recognition. Lehigh has also featured high-level performers in the classroom and community as well. Hall was named the Patriot League Scholar-Athlete of the Year in consecutive seasons while Knutson was a three-time Academic All-Patriot League performer. Andree and Jordan Cohen were named Academic All-League in 2017-18. Hall, McCollum and Kempton have been named finalists for the Senior CLASS Award while Knutson, Corey Schaefer, Austin Price and Tejada have been named candidates for the prestigious award.

Reed was named Lehigh's head coach on August 10, 2007. He had been an assistant at Lehigh for the previous five years, serving as associate head coach for the 2006-07 campaign.

Prior to his time at Lehigh, Reed served as the top assistant coach at High Point University in North Carolina for two seasons. Reed was an integral part of the coaching staff that led the Panthers to the Big South Championship Game in 2002. Included in that two-year period, Reed recruited a Big South Rookie of the Year and a Player of the Year.

Reed spent 1999-2000 as the Director of Basketball Operations at the University of North Carolina - Greensboro. He began his collegiate coaching career at Oakland (Mich.) Community College where he was an assistant for his father's program.

A native of Waterford, Michigan, Reed attended Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida where he contributed at point guard and helped lead his team to a conference championship and NCAA Tournament appearance. Reed graduated with honors, earning his Bachelor's degree in 1995 before earning his Master's at Wayne State in 1998. In 2003, Reed received his Ph.D. from Wayne State University in Instructional Technology with a Cognate in Sports Administration. He is one of only two Division I men's basketball head coaches in the entire nation to have earned their doctorate degrees. Reed was also honored during his academic career with a number of awards including the prestigious Thomas C. Rumbell Fellowship.

Reed and his wife Kindra reside in Bethlehem with their sons Brendan and Calvin, and daughter Makenna.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT COACH REED

"Brett Reed is an excellent basketball coach. He has led the resurgence of Lehigh basketball and turned it into a power from the Patriot League. He's building a program that can withstand one of sport's ultimate challenges - the test of time. It is undoubtedly an impressive accomplishment."
- Mike Krzyzewski, Duke University and U.S. National Team Head Coach

"I've known Brett Reed for over 10 years, and was fortunate to have him on my staff and watch him develop as a coach. I strongly believe Brett is one of the best young coaches in the country. His performance in 2011-12 was as good as or better than anyone in our profession. He's an excellent basketball coach on the floor, has incredible demeanor on the sideline and has proven that he is a top-notch recruiter."
- Fran McCaffery, former Lehigh and current University of Iowa Head Coach

"I am very proud of the success Brett has enjoyed as the head men's basketball coach at Lehigh University. Brett is extremely intelligent, hard-working and passionate about the game of basketball and is a terrific role model for the young men in his program. I am excited for what Brett has been able to accomplish in his time as the head coach at Lehigh and am confident that he will continue to be successful for many years to come."
- Billy Taylor, former Lehigh and Ball State Head Coach

"Brett Reed is respected by our student-athletes, he is an excellent teacher and communicator and has been an extremely productive recruiter. I admire his values, his work ethic, his energy and his devotion to our players, their education and their experience."
- Joe Sterrett, Lehigh Murray H. Goodman Dean of Athletics

BEFORE LEHIGH

Pike is a 6-8 power forward from Houston, Texas and St. Thomas High School that averaged 15 points, eight rebounds, two assists and one steal per contest and was a part of a 28-3 team that was crowned regional champions. He's a three-time all-state and all-district honoree and is well-rounded, playing the piano and viola. Pike was also the student-body President, the House President and the recipient of the Gold Presidential Service Award. Pike commented on his decision to be a part of the Lehigh, "I'm so thankful for all my friends, family and coaches who helped me get to this point. I can't wait to get onto campus with Coach Reed and the team and get to work. I have my eyes set on a Patriot League Championship!"
